Giving or promising to give any school director, officer of any school board, superintendent, teacher or any other person any sum of money or other valuable thing, or making any promise of appointment or position in order to secure, procure, or influence the recommendation, adoption, rejection or purchase of any books, school furniture, or supplies, by any superintendent, teacher, or school district in this Commonwealth is a misdemeanor. On conviction, the sentence shall be a fine between $5 and $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for between 30 days and one year, either or both, at the discretion of the court.

§11-1108

DISMISSAL
NOTICE

It shall be the duty of the district superintendent to notify each temporary professional employee, at least twice a year of the progress and rating of his or her services. No temporary professional employee shall be dismissed unless rated unsatisfactory and notified, in writing, of such rating within 10 days following the rating date.

A temporary professional employee whose work has been certified by the district superintendent to the secretary of the school district, during the last four months of the second year of service, as being satisfactory shall thereafter be a "professional employee" and then tendered a regular contract of employment as provided for professional employees. No professional employee who has tenure in any school district shall be required to serve as a temporary professional employee before being tendered such a contract.

Temporary professional employees shall for all purposes, except tenure status, be viewed as full-time employees and shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of such.

§11-1121

Each board of school directors shall enter into contracts, in writing, "with each professional employee who has satisfactorily completed 2 years of service. . ." which shall continue in force year after year, with the right of the board to increase the compensation, unless terminated by the employee by written resignation presented 60 days before resignation becomes effective or by the board by official written notice presented to the employee: Provided, that the notice shall designate the cause for termination and shall state that an opportunity to be heard shall be granted if the employee presents a written request for such hearing within 10 days of receipt of termination notice.

TERMINATION

NOTICE

HEARING

§11-1123

"In determining whether a professional employee shall be dismissed for incompetency, and in rating the services of a temporary professional employee . . . the employee shall be rated by an approved rating system which shall give due consideration to personality, preparation, technique, and pupil reaction," in accordance with Department of Public Instruction standards and regulations. "Rating shall be done by or under the supervision of the superintendent of schools or, if so directed by him, . . . by an assistant superintendent, a supervisor, or a principal, who has supervision over the work of the professional employee or temporary professional employee . . .: Provided, no unsatisfactory rating shall be valid unless approved by the district superintendent."

DISMISSAL

§11-1125--27; 11-1129--32

IIIC-PA 34

PENNSYLVANIA

TERMINATION

The only valid causes for termination of a contract with a professional employee shall be "immorality, incompetency, intemperance, cruelty, persistent negligence, mental derangement, advocation of or participating in un-American or subversive doctrines, persistent and wilful violation of the school laws . . . " Provided, that boards of school directors may terminate the service of any professional employee who has attained the age of 62.

No teacher shall wear in school or while performing his/her duty as a teacher any dress, mark, emblem or insignia indicating membership or adherence to any religious order, sect or denomination.

SUSPENSION

DISQUALIFICATION

Any teacher in violation shall be suspended from employment in such school for one year, and for a second offense, he/she shall be permanently disqualified from teaching in such school. Any public school director who after notice of such violation, fails to comply with the provisions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction of a second offense fined up to $100 and deprived of his/her office. A person twice convicted shall not be eligible to appointment or election as a director of any public school for five years from the second conviction date.

APPOINTMENT

SUSPENSION

"Whenever a board of school directors decreases the size of the staff of professional employees, the suspensions to be made shall be determined by the district superintendent on the basis of efficiency rank determined by ratings..."

"It shall be the duty of boards of school directors to cause to be established a permanent record system, containing ratings for each professional employee employed within the district."

DISMISSAL

"No professional employee shall be dismissed . . . unless such rating records have been kept on file by the board of school directors."

SUSPENSION

In suspension cases, "professional employees shall be retained on the basis of seniority rights, acquired within the school district of current employment, where no differences in rating are found."

"Seniority rights shall also prevail where there is no substantial difference in rating." "In cases where there are substantial rating differences, seniority shall be given consideration in accordance with principles and standards of weighting incorporating in the rating cards." Where there is a merger, jointure, union or reorganization of school districts, all professional employees shall retain the seniority rights they had at the time of such merger, etc.

SUSPENSION

"No suspended employee shall be prevented from engaging in other occupation during the period of suspension. Suspended professional employees shall be reinstated in the inverse order of their suspension. No new appointment shall be made while there are suspended professional employees available, who are properly certified to fill such vacancies."

HEARING

"All hearings . . . pertaining to the dismissal or termination of contracts of professional employees shall be public, unless otherwise requested by the party against whom the complaint is made."

NOTICE

Before any tenured professional employee is dismissed by the board of school directors, written statement of the charges and a hearing shall be provided.

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

The employee will be given opportunity to be heard either in person, by counsel, or both.

DISCHARGE

After the hearing, a two-thirds roll call vote of all the members of the board of school directors is required for discharge of the professional employee.

Written notice of discharge of a professional employee by the board of school directors is to be sent by registered mail to the last known address of the employee within 10 days after the hearing is actually concluded.

EXPUNGMENT

If the decision is favorable to the employee, the charges shall be expunged from the records of the board of school directors. A complete official transcript of the records of the hearing shall be delivered to the one against whom the charges were made. There shall be no abatement of salary or compensation.

APPEAL

Appeal may be taken to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. His/her ruling shall be final unless an appeal is taken in accordance with the "Administrative Agency Law" act.

REGULATIONS

§49.64.1; 64.2; 64.4 -- 64.6

ANNULMENT
REVOCATION

The Secretary shall annul or revoke the professional certificate or letter of eligibility of any person for cause, thereby prohibiting such person from teaching or engaging in other professional services in the schools of the Commonwealth until such person is reinstated.

REINSTATEMENT

SUSPENSION

The Secretary shall suspend the professional certificate or letter of eligibility of any person for cause for no more than one year, denying such person the right to teach or engage in other professional services in the schools of the Commonwealth for that period of time. When the period of suspension has passed, the certificate or letter of eligibility shall be reinstated.

REINSTATEMENT

NOTICE
HEARING

No annulment, revocation or suspension shall be effected without prior notice and hearing in accordance with such reasonable procedures as the Secretary shall prescribe, after review of and comment on the procedures by the Board.

ANNULMENT
NOTICE
HEARING

Any professional certificate or letter of eligibility obtained by fraud or mistake shall be considered void ab initio and shall be annulled by the Secretary after notice and hearing. Any alteration of a professional certificate shall render that certificate null and void and reissuance of a new certificate may be refused pending annulment, revocation, or suspension proceedings.

REVOCATION
SUSPENSION

In addition to any other remedy provided by law, should any person willfully refuse to return a certificate or letter of eligibility recalled for cause by the Secretary, the certificate may be revoked or further suspended for cause.

Annulment, revocation or suspension of a professional certificate by another state shall be considered probable cause for initiation of annulment, revocation or suspension proceedings, but no annulment, revocation or suspension shall be effected after notice and hearing.

REINSTATEMENT

"Any certificate or letter of eligibility which has been suspended is automatically reinstated at the end of the suspension period, provided, in the case of certificates, that the suspended certificate did not expire during the period of suspension. If the certificate expired during the period of suspension, the holder of the former certificate may be issued a new one provided he/she satisfies the requirement for the new certificate by demonstrating competency in the area of the previous certificate.

RECONSIDERATION

An individual whose certificate or letter of eligibility has been annulled or revoked may have his/her case reconsidered annually. The burden of demonstrating his/her fitness for having his/her certificate or letter of eligibility reinstated rests with the individual. If the burden is met, the Secretary may place conditions on the issuance of the reinstated certificate or letter of eligibility."

DISMISSAL

"The board of school directors of the employing school district or the board of directors of each employing nonpublic school shall report to the Secretary within 10 days of dismissal the name of any person who has been dismissed and the cause for such dismissal."

NOTICE

The Secretary or his/her designee, shall notify all chief state school officers of the states and territories of the United States and all chief school administrators and teachers preparing institutions of this Commonwealth of the names and social security numbers of persons whose teaching certitificates or commissions are suspended or revoked, the period of suspension or revocation including effective date and the reason for such action.

STATUTES

§3-324

No school director shall, during his/her term, as a private person, engage in any business transaction with, be employed in any capacity by, or receive any pay for services rendered for the school district in which he/she is elected or appointed. Exceptions are provided. No school board shall limit the purchase of items by the district to the business entity of which a school director is an officer to the exclusion of all others.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Every person who shall offer a bribe to any school director in order to secure an office or have a salary increase, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and ineligible to be engaged as a teacher or to hold any office provided for in this act.

BRIBERY

Any school director receiving a bribe meant to influence voting shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, shall forfeit his/her office, and shall be ineligible for any office in the act.

It shall be unlawful for any board of school directors to demand or accept any gift or donation from any teacher or superior within its employ. When the Superintendent of Public Instruction has found that the board has violated this provision, he/she shall have the power to withhold state appropriation for the school year in which the violation occurred.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

§5-501

The board of school directors in every school district shall establish, equip, furnish, and maintain a sufficient number of elementary public schools to educate every person residing in such district between the ages of six and twenty-one years, who may attend.

School District

§7-755

Every contract for or in behalf of any school district for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public building shall provide that there shall be no discrimination against race, creed or color by any contractor, subcontractor or agent. Penalties: (1) $5 per day per person discriminated against or intimidated may be deducted from contract price; and (2) contract may be cancelled or terminated by school district and money due under contract may be forfeited for second or subsequent violation.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

School System

§15-1516;-1516.1

"At least 10 verses from the Holy Bible shall be read . . . on each school day. Any child may be excused from such Bible reading upon the written request of his[her] parent or guardian.

BIBLE READING

WAIVER

"In each public classroom, the teacher may or shall, at the opening of school every day, have silent prayer or meditation with all students participating.

PRAYER

The prayer is not intended as a religious service but is an "opportunity for silent prayer or meditation on a religious theme by those who are so disposed . . . ."

§5002

"All persons shall have equal opportunities for education regardless of their race, religion, color, ancestry, national origin, or sex."

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"There is a fundamental right for members of various religious faiths to establish and maintain educational institutions exclusively or primarily for students of their own religious faith. In such institutions, students otherwise qualified should have equal opportunity to attend without discrimination because of race, color, ancestry, national origin or sex."

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

It is an unfair educational practice to discriminate against or exclude a student because of race, religion, color, ancestry, national origin or sex, or to expel, suspend, punish or otherwise discriminate against any student because of race, religion, color, ancestry, national origin, or sex.

"To penalize or discriminate against any individual because such person has initiated, testified, participated or assisted in any proceedings under this act" shall be an unfair educational practice.

REVIEW

An aggrieved person may file a complaint with the commission within six months after an unfair educational practice is "alleged to have been committed."

"Until the commission shall determine that a cease and desist order shall be issued, it shall not disclose what takes place during informal efforts at persuasion, conciliation or mediation, nor shall it offer in evidence in any proceedings the facts addressed in such informal efforts, nor shall publicity be given to any proceedings before the commission and the identity of the educational institution shall not be disclosed, except in case of public hearings.

APPEAL

Any order of the commission may be reviewed and any order of court may be appealed."

§5.151 -- 5.153

Every school district shall submit to the Department of Public Instruction for approval a long-range development plan based upon the findings of Educational Quality Assessment, including a statement of district goals and objectives, evidence of community involvement, a plan for affirmative action and equal rights, a description of the program of education, a description of physical facilities, population projections, evidence of interdistrict coordination of activities, financial data about the school district, and a description of supplemental school activities.

Participation in the development of the long-range plan shall include administrators, teachers, students, and community persons.

The Secretary shall develop a schedule for districts to submit long-range plans coordinating this schedule with participation in its Educational Quality Assessment Program.

For failure to submit the plan as scheduled, the Secretary may withhold any or all of the instructional subsidies due such district, withhold its building subsidy, deny the award of any state or federal discretionary or incentive funds available to the department, or withhold approval of requests for curriculum exceptions and modifications of school schedules.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"No student shall be denied access to a free and full public education on account of race, religion, sex, or national origin."

STATUTES

§15-1531

Teachers shall "grade and classify the pupils in their schools so that they may pursue the courses of study provided for and all pupils found proficient may be promoted twice each year."

PROMOTION

§16-1613

"The board of school directors . . . shall issue a certificate to each pupil satisfactorily completing the prescribed course of instruction in high school."

CERTIFICATE

REGULATIONS

§ 5.74

Thirteen planned courses for credit in grades 10-12 shall be required for graduation and shall include three planned courses in English, one of which may be speech, one planned course each in mathematics and science, and two planned courses in social studies.

GRADUATION

At the school district's discretion courses offered below the senior high school level may be used to meet graduation requirements if the standards for awarding credit are equal to those used in the equivalent senior high school course.

Other requirements for graduation may be established at the school district's discretion.

Any course listed within this section may be integrated with other courses or may be taught separately.

§5.81 -- 5.83

The Commonwealth secondary school diploma may be issued to an applicant who is a resident of the Commonwealth and who has a passing score as determined by the Department on the high school level Tests of General Educational Development or presents evidence of full matriculation and the satisfactory completion of a minimum of one full year or 30 semester hours in an accredited college.

DIPLOMA

The Department will not issue a diploma until after the class of which the applicant was a member has been graduated.

The Department may recognize passing scores on the high school level Tests of General Educational Development as fully meeting the requirements on the secondary level for Certificates of Preliminary Education.

CERTIFICATE

An applicant may be issued a Certificate of Preliminary Education upon presenting:

(1) evidence of graduation from a Commonwealth approved senior high school with 16 units of credit in grades 9, 10, 11, and 12 or its equivalent as determined by the Department;

(2) evidence of full matriculation and satisfactory completion of a minimum of one full year in an accredited college or university;

(3) a Commonwealth secondary school diploma; or

(4) evidence of completion of the requirements for a Commonwealth secondary school diploma except that it is not required that the applicant be a resident of this Commonwealth.

Either of the following means may also be used in meeting the requirements for the Certificate of Preliminary Education:

(1) Attending an approved secondary school in day, evening, or summer classes.

(2) Passing examinations administered by the education agency of another state or the designated agents of that agency.

§ 5.101; 5.102

Courses completed in a nonapproved secondary school for professional purposes may be approved upon subsequent graduation from an approved secondary school after the satisfactory completion in the approved school of advanced courses in English, mathematics, science, and social studies.

Such requirements may be met by a minimum of unit courses in English and science and 1/2 unit courses in mathematics and social studies.

EXAMINATION

A graduate of another state's secondary school not on an approved list of secondary schools may clear his/her work by passing an examination administered by the education agency of that state, or the designated agents of that agency, or by meeting requirements set forth in §5.81 and §5.91 of this Title.

§5.111 -- 5.114

COLLEGE CREDIT

College credit may be accepted toward meeting requirements for preliminary education in academic or technological subjects.

For college credit to be accepted, the subjects must be offered in an approved secondary school and be specifically designed and taught at the college freshman level, the student must pass the required examination prescribed as part of the program or pass the College Advanced Placement Examination in the subject, the college admitting the student must accept the advanced college credits as part of the degree requirements, and the record of the courses with credit allowed by the college must be submitted to the Department by the college.

The Department may accept as equivalent college credit examinations on the college level offered by institutions of higher learning for preliminary education for the professions.

The Department may accept USAFI college course credit granted by an approved college or university for meeting preliminary education requirements.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

The State Board of Education shall develop an evaluation procedure designed to measure objectively the adequacy and efficiency of the educational programs offered by the public schools. The evaluation procedure shall include uniform tests measuring the achievements and performance of students pursuing all of the various subjects. It shall provide each school district with relevant comparative data to enable directors and administrators to more readily appraise [the] educational performance and to strengthen the district's educational program. The State Board of Education shall devise performance standards upon completion of the evaluation procedure.

EDUCATION SYSTEM

STATUTES

§10-1006

Every district superintendent shall annually forward to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the reports of the school districts under his/her supervision and extended reports as he/she may think proper, suggesting improvements or changes in the public school system.

§16-1606

Every public high school shall be supervised by the superintendent of the district in which the high school is situated. The board of school directors of districts maintaining high schools "shall furnish to the Superintendent of Public Instruction sworn statements giving such information concerning the high school as he[she] may require."

REGULATIONS

§5.151 -- 5.153

School districts shall submit to the Department a "long range development plan" which is based upon the findings of the Educational Quality Assessment. Such plan shall include "a statement of district goals and objectives, evidence of community involvement, a plan for affirmative action and equal rights, a description of the program of education, a description of physical facilities . . . and a description of supplemental school activities."

Failure to submit such a plan can result in the withholding of funds.

§17.17

Each intermediate unit shall submit annually to the Secretary of the State Board of Education a description of each service offered to the school districts comprising the unit pursuant to §1 of the act of April 4, 1974, P.L. 243 (No. 57). The description shall include: (1) A brief narrative which compares intended accomplishments with those outcomes actually accomplished; (2) The number and type of persons employed full-time and part-time by each service; (3) The total cost and per pupil cost for capital outlay, equipment, overhead, and salaries for each service; and (4) The source of revenue supporting each service.

INTERMEDIATE UNITS

STATUTES

§9-974

Annually, the Secretary of Education shall submit to the members of the General Assembly a report on the operation of the intermediate units for the purpose of enabling them to evaluate the system.

III. Quality of the Educational Process

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

1. Accreditation

REGULATIONS

STANDARDS FOR APPROVAL AND ACCREDITATION OF SECONDARY SCHOOLS IN RHODE ISLAND

Section II; Standards for Approval

Approval by the state department of education certifies that a school complies with all laws, rules, and regulations governing secondary schools. Approval is mandatory for the legal operation of a secondary school; it shall be limited to one year and renewed annually.

ANNUAL REVIEW

For approval, each school shall have a written educational policy, developed by the faculty and administration and setting forth objectives against which school performance shall be judged.

The plant and equipment (including the school library) shall be suited and adequate for the program and operated to assure the health and safety of pupils and staff. Buildings shall conform to all laws and regulations governing safety, sanitation, and school health environment.

PLANT

The faculty and staff shall be large enough to carry out the school program and adequately prepared to carry out their professional responsibilities. All public school teachers shall hold appropriate certificates from the State Board. All independent school teachers shall have a bachelor's degree or equivalent.

STAFF

Each school shall have a carefully planned program of study and activities, approved by the Commissioner of Education and including the required course in the Constitution and Government of Rhode Island and of the United States.

The minimum graduation requirements shall be 16 units (each equivalent to work normally covered in 100 minutes weekly in class over one year) earned in grades 9-12 inclusive, 4 of which shall be in English, 1 in U.S. history and government, 1 in mathematics, and 1 in science.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

The school year in public schools shall contain at least 180 days and in independent schools at least 180 days, or the equivalent if the school day is longer than the average high school day. The school day shall consist of at least 5½ hours of actual school work, excluding lunch and recess periods. The class period shall be sufficiently flexible to allow the school to schedule classes four or five times weekly or to provide large group instruction with long or short periods as the program demands.

An adequate system of records shall be kept for all pupils. Records shall be kept up to date in a safe place, shall be available for inspection by authorized persons, and shall include all information required by law.

Section III: Standards for Accreditation

Accreditation by the state department of education certifies that a secondary school meets standards of quality established by the state. Accreditation shall be granted for a period not to exceed ten years at any time.

Accreditation is a voluntary program and is in no way imposed upon schools. A school shall seek accreditation as a mark of distinction when it feels that it is meeting well the educational needs of all of its students.

Before seeking state accreditation, a school shall undertake its own self-evaluation. Secondary schools are urged to seek and retain accreditation by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Evaluation for accreditation purposes is based on an evaluation of a school's total program. Each standard should be met; however, deficiencies in certain areas may be compensated for by outstanding strengths in others.

EVALUATION

STANDARDS

I. Status

A secondary school seeking accreditation shall meet standards for approval and shall have operated as an approved school for the five years preceding application for accreditation.

II. School Plant

The size of the site shall be at least 25 acres unless adequate facilities can be provided with less or, in established schools, land acquisition is impractical or excessively costly. The site shall: be large enough to accommodate the outdoor physical education and recreation program; be attractively landscaped; be readily accesible, well drained, and remote from traffic hazards, noises, and unsanitary conditions; and provide sufficient off-street parking facilities.

Buildings shall meet community and state health, safety, and building codes, and shall in every respect be such as to insure hygienic conditions for pupils and teachers. Buildings shall be large enough to conduct the program outlined in the statement of philosophy. A school on double session shall be considered as operating on an emergency basis and shall have accreditation withheld until the situation is corrected. Buildings shall be designed to allow for flexible use and further expansion.

FACILITIES

Academic classrooms shall be designed with classes of 30 pupils in mind and shall have at least 700 square feet of floor space. The size of smaller classrooms shall be based on a minimum of 25 square feet per pupil.

Each classroom shall be equipped with appropriate instructional materials and equipment, including ample seating, chalkboards, and bulletin boards.

Laboratories, adequately equipped with furniture, supplies, and storage space, shall be provided for the physical and biological sciences, homemaking, industrial arts, fine arts, and other subjects involving considerable activity.

A library meeting the State Board of Education Standards for School Libraries shall be provided.

Lunchroom facilities shall meet the needs of the school's total population and be sufficient in size so that lunches shall not start unduly early or finish unduly late in the school day.

A gymnasium with indoor and outdoor space, apparatus, and equipment, sufficient to involve each pupil in daily physical education, shall be provided.

An auditorium large enough to seat at least one half of the school population shall be available. It is recommended that gymnaisum and auditorium facilities not be combined.

School dormitories and social centers shall be provided when the program requires them. A boarding school shall have an infirmary.

III. Administration and Faculty

The elected school committee shall have care and control of the public schools. The committee shall delegate all executive functions to the superintendent.

The superintendent shall be the educational leader and executive head of the school system. The superintendent shall: keep the school committee informed of the system's objectives, achievements, needs, and plans; develop and present the annual budget; oversee the system's business affairs; and supervise all employees and recommended persons for appointment.

The principal shall be the responsible head of the school and assume responsiblity for directing all activities of the school.

Each member of the faculty shall have sound preparation in a subject matter field and demonstrate a desire to keep this preparation current.

The number of teachers shall be sufficient to prevent overloading of classes and excessive teaching load. Each high school shall maintain a ratio of 55 certified personnel to each 1,000 pupils; each junior high school shall maintain a ratio of at least 50 certified personnel to each 1,000 pupils. Class size shall not exceed 30 pupils except in special areas, such as music classes, and in academic classes where team teaching is conducted. Where possible, teachers shall not be assigned more than three or four daily preparations nor more than an average of five classes daily. Policies and working conditions for teachers shall be such as to encourage long tenure.

PUPIL TEACHER RATIO

IV. Program of Studies

There shall be evidence, in its Statement of Philosophy and Objectives required for approval, that the staff has made a thorough study of the community school needs in establising the purpose and program of the school.

CURRICULUM

The program of studies shall be designed to meet the needs of all pupils, both those planning to go to college and those for whom high school education is terminal. Provision shall be made for individual differences among pupils by adjustments in the program of studies and in methods and materials of instruction: the school's success in holding pupils through graduation shall be one measure of how well this provision is met.

Each school shall show evidence that there is a planned and continuing curricular development program.

The maximum load for each pupil shall be determined by the school administration. Four subjects meeting daily or five subjects meeting four times weekly, together with physical education, group guidance, and school activities shall be considered the minimum load for grades 9-12. (The number of subjects carried should be based on appropriateness for the individual pupil rather than on the number of units.)

GUIDANCE

The school shall provide continuing guidance and counseling services for pupils. Each school shall have one adequately trained full-time guidance counselor and, in larger schools, at least one such counselor for each 300 pupils.

Library facilities and reading materials shall be sufficient to meet student needs.

The school shall make available materials and equipment (including textbooks and maps) to carry out the program. No textbooks shall be used unless recommended by the superintendent and approved by the school committee.

The school shall provide and supervise an activity program of sufficient variety to encourage the participation of all pupils. Active participation shall be voluntary, but strongly encouraged. These activities shall be in proper balance with other aspects of the school program.

The athletic program involving interschool competition shall be part of the total educational program and under the supervision of the principal and staff. Athletic offerings shall be determined by pupil needs. The total number of sports offered and of pupils participating shall measure the effectiveness of the athletic program.

§16-1-10

The school committee of any town, in which taxable property is not adequate at the average rate of taxation for public school support throughout the state to provide, with the money that may be apportioned from the general treasury, an amount sufficient to provide and maintain public schools of a high standard, may request the department of education to assume control of the public school of the town for the ensuing year, provided that the town has appropriated for the support of public schools for said year a sum equivalent to thirty cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the town. If the department of education is satisfied that the request is warranted and that the best interests of the school will be served thereby, it may assume such control.

Except as otherwise provided herein, "every town shall establish and maintain for at least one hundred eighty (180) days annually exclusive of holidays a sufficient number of schools in convenient places under the control . . . of the school committee and under the supervision of the board of education."

If the school is not conveniently located, the school committee may provide transportation for students to and from school in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 21 of this title.

"Beginning in September 1969, such school facilities shall include a sufficient number of kinder-

§16-2-3

In case of any emergency "which may endanger the health of children or the physical well-being of the community," the board of education may authorize the school committee of any town "to reduce the number of school days to not less than one hundred seventy days;" provided, that employee compensation "shall not be reduced by reason of the shortening of the school year."

§16-18-3

Census returns compiled by the school committees of the several towns shall be summarized, and both the returns and the summary shall be forwarded to the department of education. Failure to comply with this provision will result in a town being denied to draw on any public moneys apportioned to that town.

CENSUS

No academy or institution of secondary or higher education shall be incorporated, established or permitted to transact business in Rhode Island until approved by the board of regents.

The secretary of state shall notify the board of regents of any association purporting to establish an educational institution, and shall not issue the certificate of incorporation provided by the general laws until the commissioner of education shall file with the secretary of state a signed certificate that the state board of regents has approved the application for incorporation as complying with the requirements of this section.

REGULATIONS

ARTICLE II: EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT (p.2-18.2)

D. EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM ELEMENTS

3a. LENGTH OF SCHOOL DAY AND YEAR

"For the purposes of 16-2-2 and 3 of the General Laws of 1956, a 'day' or 'school day' is defined by the Board of Education to mean regular operation of all schools in the town for a period which in the case of elementary schools consists of not less than five hours of actual school work, excluding lunch and recess periods, and in the case of secondary schools of not less than 5½ hours of actual school work, excluding lunch and recess periods. In the case of kindergartens, however, the school day is defined to mean regular operation for not less than 2½ hours. Regular operation of any school for less than the minimum hours specified above shall require the prior approval of the Commissioner of Education, who shall for time to time report to the State Board of Education on approvals granted." (Board, 5/6/65; revised, ED, 3/13/69)

"Educational activities which do not require the attendance of all children in school may be considered as part of the regular operation on a number of days during the school year, provided that on such days the children shall be in attendance for a minimum of three hours, and provided further that the total number of such days shall not exceed the equivalent of one day per week in a given school year. Such days may be counted as school days for meeting requirements of the law (16-2-2) only with the advance approval of the Commissioner of Education."

Requests for approval must be submitted to the Commissioner in writing by the Superintendent.

Secondary school graduations may not occur more than five days prior to the 180th school day. (BR, 3/15/73)

STANDARDS FOR RHODE ISLAND ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

A. School Year and Day

The school year shall not be less than 180 days. The elementary school day shall not be less than five hours excluding lunch and recess, and the kindergarten day not less than 2½ hours.

B. Staff

Each public elementary principal and teacher shall hold an appropriate certificate from the State Department of Education. All teachers in nonpublic schools shall have a bachelor's degree or equivalent.

Paraprofessional personnel shall be employed according to policy developed by the school system.

C. Curriculum

CURRICULUM

Each elementary school shall provide for all children those subjects required by law.

Reading, writing, geography, arithmetic, United States and Rhode Island history, and principles of American government shall be taught in English, though these and other subjects may be taught, in addition, in any other language.

The principles enunciated in the United States and Rhode Island constitutions shall be taught. The history and government of Rhode Island shall be taught commencing with the fourth grade. The major contributions made by Negroes and other racial and ethnic groups to United States and Rhode Island history shall be included in the study of history.

Instruction shall be provided in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the effects of alcoholic liquors, stimulants, and narcotics on the human system, and in health and physical education for at least 20 minutes in each school day.

Each teacher shall devote not less than 1 hours in each month to instruction in fire prevention.

D. School Library Standards

LIBRARY

An elementary school with an enrollment under 100 shall have a book collection of 10 volumes per pupil plus 100 volumes, and the annual expenditure shall be $4.00 per pupil after the basic book collection is reached.

A school with 100 to 250 chidren shall have an annual library budget of at least $600 and a collection of 2,000 volumes. There shall be a library media specialist at least one and one half days per week in schools with fewer than 250 children.

A school with 250 to 499 chidren shall have an annual library budget of $600 for the first 250 children and $1.75 for each additional child. It shall have a collection of 2,000 volumes for the first 250 chidren and 6 volumes for each additional child. It shall have a half-time library media specialist.

A school with 500 to 999 chidren shall have an annual budget of $1,025 for the first 500 children and 4 volumes for each additional child. If shall have a full-time library media specialist.

E. School Plant

The school plant shall meet the health, safety, and building codes of the community and/or state. It shall be inspected annually by the appropriate inspectors and certificates of inspection shall be filed with the State Department of Education.

F. Health and Safety

All full- or part-time employees shall prior to employment and every two years thereafter file with the school administrator a report from a licensed physician, based on a chest X-ray or an intra-dermal tuberculin test within the prior six months, that the person is free from tuberculosis in its communicable form. Each pupil shall furnish evidence of a pre-admission health examination and evidence that the pupil has been immunized against diptheria, tetnus, polio, rubella and measles (or has had natural measles); or a certificate from a licensed physician that the pupil is not fit for immunization for medical reasons, or a certificate signed by a parent that such immunizations are contrary to his/her beliefs.

IMMUNIZATION

All schools shall have a school health program to provide for the organized direction and supervision of a healthful school environment, health education and services.

The principal or other responsible person for every educational institution having more than 25 pupils shall hold at least 15 fire drills or rapid dismissal during the school year. At least four drills shall be obstructed drills, in which one or more exists and stairways in the school buiding are blocked off or not used.

FIRE DRILLS

G. Eligiblity for School Attendance

Every child who has reached five years of age by December 31 of any school year shall be eligible to attend kindergarten during that school year. Every child who has reached six years of age by December 31 of any school year shall be eligible to attend first grade during that school year. In both cases, school committees have the option of admitting children at an earlier age.

H. Registers and Reports

Every teacher shall keep a register and shall prepare any report required by the department of education.

SCHOOLS

REGULATIONS

ARTICLE IV: STUDENTS (pp 4-11 - 4-12.2)

E. DISCRIMINATION, SEGREGATION, AND INTEGRATION

2. De facto Segregation

a. The State Board of Education pledges its support and assistance in implementing and financing, to the best of its ability, plans, if adopted by the local school committee, intended to eliminate de facto segregation.

b. The State Board of Education urges an aggressive and imaginative attack on the problems of de facto segregation and is in favor of the kind of program that eliminates segregation by moving children.

c. The State Department of Education shall assist local school districts to eliminate racial imbalance in the schools, and help overcome the educational, social, and economic disadvantages of de facto segregation.

d. Racial isolation in the schools is a direct impediment to the realization of two basic American goals: equality of opportunity and social harmony. Therefore, the Rhode Island State Board of Education hereby endorses racial integration in the schools as a positive good. It pledges to do all in its power--through supportive programs, statements of policy, and regulation, if necessary--to assure that racially integrated schools, and classrooms insofar as possible, are achieved and maintained in Rhode Island.

3. Equal Educational Opportunity

a. Policy Statement on Equal Educational Opportunities (BE, 6/11/70; reaffirmed, BR, 2/15/73)

In light of the many developments occuring in education today, the Rhode Island State Board of Education reaffirms its position on equality of educational opportunities. The Board recognizes that learning is influenced by many factors and, that, because of these factors, many persons in our state have been unable to partake equally of educational opportunities.

In order for all to achieve their maximum potential, both the state and local educational systems must strive for equity in education. The State Board of Education firmly believes that social or economic circumstances should not be allowed to interfere with an individual's achieving his/her full potential through the educational process.

The State Board of Education believes that it is not possible for schools to be segregated on the basis of race and yet provide quality education. Integration can be a reality only when each school in a district has approximately the same proportion of pupils and teachers by race as exists in the district as a whole. In addition, where contiguous school districts have markedly different racial proportions, local school committees are strongly encouraged to search vigorously for ways by which these differences can be eliminated. Realizing the technical problems involved, the assistance of the Rhode Island Department of Education will be made available for any local system requesting it.

b. Standards of Enforcing Compliance with Policy.

Each district shall annually submit to the Commissioner of Education such data as may be required to determine the social composition of the school enrollment, staff and faculty. The Commissioner shall notify the district whenever a finding of social imbalance has been made. A public school whose percentage of racial minorities deviates by 10 percent from the racial composition of the public schools of the district or, if the district has between 5-10 percent racial minorities in its schools, a school having fewer than 2 percent racial minorities is defined as socially imbalanced.

Any school committee receiving such notification shall prepare a plan to correct such conditions and file it with the Commissioner within 90 days. The Commissioner will notify the school committee within 60 days as to whether the proposed plan is acceptable; unacceptable plans must be revised and resumbitted within 60 days. If a district does not forward a plan within 60 days, or if the revised plan is still unacceptable, the Commissioner will establish a three-member panel to set the terms of the plan or will take steps necessary to guarantee racial balance.

ARTICLE IV: STUDENTS (pp. 4-12.4 - 4-12.5)

E. DISCRIMINATION, SEGREGATION, AND INTEGRATION

5. Policy of the Department of Eeducation Regarding Non-Discrimination on the Basis of Sex. (Commissioner's Order, 10/10/75)

SEX DISCRIMINATION

"It is the belief and policy of the State of Rhode Island and the Rhode Island Department of Education that the sex of an individual should not serve as a barrier to his or her opportunity to participate in educational activities, nor shall his or her sex adversely affect the rights of an individual to compete for employment opportunities.

It shall therefore be the policy of the Rhode Island Department of Education to provide equality of opportunity in the educational programs and activities which it operates.

The Rhode Island Department of Education shall not discriminate in admissions, treatment or access to educational programs, activities and facilities or in regard to employment opportunities on the basis of sex, as required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972."

5a. Guidelines for Dissemination and Implementation of Policy on Non-Discrimination on the Basis of Sex (Commissioner's Order, 10/10/75)

In order to disseminate this policy, copies of this statement shall be disseminated to all present and future employees of the Department of Education, to all students enrolled at schools operated by the Department of Education, to all unions and professional organizations holding collective bargaining agreements with the Department of Education, and published in local newspapers and in newspapers or periodicals operated by the Department of Education.

The Department of Education shall not utilize or support any publication which suggests that the Department treats applicants, students, or employees differently on the basis of sex, unless such treatment is in agreement with state and federal law. In order to implement this policy, the Rhode Island Department of Education shall apprise each of its employees and recruitment representatives of this policy of non-discrimination, distribute without regard to sex each publication herein named, adopt and publish procedures providing for the prompt and equitable resolution of student and employee complaints alleging any action which is prohibited by this policy, and provide all possible assistance to local education agencies in the development of policies and practices designed to eliminate discrimination on the basis of sex.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

REGULATIONS

ARTICLE II: EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT, pp. 2-3.1 -- 2-3.11

B. Local Planning and Assessment Process - Provisional Regulations (BR 10/7/76)

The local Planning and Assessment Process (LPAP) has been developed by the Rhode Island Department of Education as a means for local school districts to plan, implement and evaluate educational programs directed toward locally identified priority goals and communicate the results of local planning and assessment activities to the community as well as to the Commissioner of Education. LPAP will further the goal of creating better schools by requiring local districts to engage in long-range planning and by providing the Board of Regents with more information for decision-making.

PLANNING AND ASSESSMENT

1. The conduct of the LPAP shall be the responsibility of the local school district superintendent. The School Approvals Unit of the Department of Education will monitor the process for compliance with the LPAP regulations.

Each local district shall submit a letter of intent which shall contain at a minimum: statements that the local school district will develop a long-range educational plan in compliance with these regulations, that the district will describe the plan in a series of reports (in which major variables are identified by school as well as by district) to the Department of Education, and that the district will continue to comply with existing educational laws and regulations; and a description of the major activities and the projected timeliness (not to exceed a four-year period) for these activities. A description of the process to be used in establishing the district's educational philosophy and goals shall accompany the letter of intent.

2. Each local district shall establish, through professional staff participation and broad public involvement, a written educational philosophy and written educational goals, consistent with statements in the Department of Education's Educational Goals for the State of Rhode Island and the Learning Environment.

The district shall submit its philosophy and goals to the Department of Education together with an outline of the process to be used in establishing educational priorities. This outline shall include a description of the method selected for establishing priorities and a timeline.

The district shall determine its educational priorities by a process which shall include: a gathering of perceived educational needs through the systematic collection and ordering of the opinions of district residents, staff, and students; the development of a series of performance indicators in the needs areas so identified; the validation of perceived needs through the collection of test and nontest information; and the development of a priority order of validated needs. The district shall make a complete report of this process and its results to the Department of Education.

Each district shall then develop a program plan which addresses the identified priority goals and includes: an analysis of the elements of present programs and the examination of program alternatives which address the priority goals; a listing of program objectives and major activities which address these goals; and a description of a plan for proposed formative and summative evaluations of progress in accomplishing program objectives. The district shall submit to the Department of Education a synopsis of these activities and results, including a timeline for implementation of programs which address the identified priority goals. The synopsis shall specify which activities or programs in the program plan address individual school needs rather than district needs.

Each district shall then implement the program plan and report to the Department of Education on the implemen-

Each district shall annually evaluate its progress in meeting its program objectives and report to the Department of Education the outcome of the evaluation.

EDUCATION SYSTEM

STATUTES

§16-1-6

The officers in charge of the educational institutions shall submit a yearly annual report in July to the department of education showing the number of students, teachers, courses of study, maintenance expenses and general records and conditions of schools.

§16-1-7

The state board of education shall make an annual report to the general assembly at its January session.

§16-1-8

The commissioner shall visit, as often as practicable, every town in the state, for the purpose of inspecting schools and ascertaining a knowledge of defects, and of any desirable improvements in the administration of the system and the government and instruction of the schools.

VISITATION

§16-2-20

At least once a year, as per provisions made by the school committee, every public school in the town shall be inspected and examined by the superintendent of schools or other agent of the committee, with particular reference to safety and sanitary conditions, school records, classroom apparatus and equipment, books, mode of teaching and instructional matters. A report of such examination, with recommendations for the improvement of schools shall be made to the school committee.

§16-2-21

The school committee shall submit an annual report to the department of education detailing their estimates and recommendations for appropriations necessary for the support of public schools for the ensuing fiscal year; until such estimates and recommendations are presented to the department, it may refuse to disburse money apportioned to such town. The school committee shall also submit annually to the department of education a report detailing their doings, the state and conditions of the schools and plans for their improvements. Such reports shall also be made to the towns at least thirty days before the date of the annual financial town meeting.

§16-2-24

The state board of education may make its own, or upon the request of the school committee, periodic surveys of the public schools. A summary of the findings of the survey, along with recommendations, shall be included in the board's annual report to the general assembly.

§16-26-10

The state board of education shall annually report to the general assembly the state and condition of the school, a statement of all expenses incurred for salaries, maintenance, tuition and other items of current expense, together with estimates of money necessary to meet the current expenses of the next year.

§16-38-10

Any school receiving aid or tax exemption from the state may be visited and examined by the school committee of the town in which such school is located, and by the board of education, at their discretion.

§16-42-10

Regulations

ARTICLE III: SCHOOL DISTRICT ORGANIZATION (pp. 3-3.2 - 3-3.6)

2.d. COOPERATIVE SERVICES PROGRAM (BR, 7/8/76)

"School committees interested in developing a cooperative service arrangement shall form a Cooperative Services Study Committee (CSSC) consisting of at least one representative from each participating school district and such other representatives as are mutually agreed upon by the participating school districts." The CSSC "has the responsibility for conducting . . . information gathering activities . . . to prepare the Certificate of Intent, the Articles of Agreement, and any necessary documents. . . . The CSSC may incur such costs as are mutually agreed upon by the participating school committees."

"School districts interested in planning for the implementation of a cooperative service arrangement shall certify their intent, in writing to the Commissioner of Education. In order to be eligible for technical and/or financial assistance, the certificate of intent shall include: . . .listing of the school districts that intend to participate in the cooperative and their current enrollments; . . .listing of the representatives of the CSSC; and . . .statement of both the general need (s) and the results expected through the intended cooperative effort."

"All articles of agreement for cooperative service arrangements shall contain the following specifications to be considered for approval by the Commissioner as a valid cooperative, and further to be eligible for both technical and financial assistance; a listing of the school districts that plan to participate . . .and the designated name of the cooperative; a statement of the purpose(s) of the cooperative; a description of the proposed governance and organizational structure for the cooperative; . . .the procedures by which local capital and operating costs of the cooperative are allocated among the participating school districts; . . . the procedures for the dispostion of assets and all outstanding liabilities upon either withdrawal of districts or the final dissolution of the cooperative; the procedures by which individuals will be hired and terminated; and the procedures by which the agreement may be amended. Articles of agreement shall be submitted to the Commissioner, signed and dated by the chairperson of each participating school committee."
In addition to the Article of agreement, the CSSC shall submit current enrollments and projected enrollments for the ensuing five years for the participating districts and services to be offered upon implementation.

Each cooperative shall establish a governing board whose membership shall consist of at least one representative from each participating district, and it shall be invested with the authority to carry out the provisions of its articles of agreement."

The Commissioner of Education shall review each proposed articles of agreement and shall render a decision within fifteen days of receipt.

Cooperative service agreements must be approved by the Comissioner to be eligible for direct financial assistance from state and/or federal resources.

TERMINATION

Any school district that is a party to a cooperative service agreement may terminate its obligation at the end of any fiscal year by written notice to the Commissioner and to each district in the cooperative providing such notice is received at least six months before the start of the state's next ensuing fiscal year. In the event of either a single district withdrawal or a complete dissolution of the cooperative, the commissioner of Education is to be notified in writing specifying: the reason(s) for the withdrawal or dissolution; the effective date; those programs and/or services that will be affected; the number of positions that will be eliminated; the effect(s) the withdrawal or dissolution will have on the educational programs and/or services of the participating districts. School districts withdrawing from a cooperative service operation must continue to provide such service(s) as required by law and regulation as were provided by the cooperative service arrangement.

All disputes between participating school districts of a cooperative service arrangement which cannot be resolved by the cooperative's governing board, shall be resolved in accordance with the appropriate provisions of Title 16 Chapter 39 of the Rhode Island Laws Relating to Education.

III. Quality of the Educational Process

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

1. Accreditation

§43-142

Accredited elementary, middle and high schools shall operate a minimum of 180 days for all students. A minimum of 174 days shall not be less than five hours, exclusive of recesses, lunch periods, and other activities not regarded as regular school instruction.

A school may operate on an abbreviated schedule for a maximum of six days with a minimum of three hours for any of the following:

(1) issuing books and instructional materials at the beginning of the school year,

(2) administering end of term exams,

(3) collecting books and issuing report cards at the end of the school year,

(4) inservice education or other educationally related activities. Emergency conditions affecting safety, health and welfare of students necessitating the early dismissal of schools beyond the six days noted above must be reported by the superintendent to the Chief Supervisor, Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section within 15 days of the conclusion of the emergency. The instructional program may be organized on a quarterly, semesterly or yearly basis.

Exercises for issuing diplomas to graduates of secondary schools shall not be scheduled more than one day prior to the end of the school term of 180 days.

Each approved adult education high school diploma program shall meet a minimum of 30 weeks and include a minimum of 60 hours of instruction for each unit of credit exclusive of registration, exams, issuing materials, etc.

The minimum length of the elementary school day for all grades including all programs for handicapped children shall not be less than five hours exclusive of lunch and homeroom periods, recess and other activities not regarded as school work, except for kindergarten (2 1/2 hours) and First Grade (4 1/2 hours). Exception: Severely handicapped children whose condition precludes the meeting of the above requirement may have a modified school day if they provide documentation verified in writing by a licensed medical specialist that the modified school day is in the child's best interest.

The minimum length of the middle school day for all grades including all programs for handicapped children shall be five hours exclusive of lunch and homeroom periods, recess, and other activities not regarded as regular school work. The exception above for severely handicapped students applies to middle schools also.

The length of the secondary school day for all grades including all programs for handicapped children shall not be less than five hours exclusive of recess, lunch periods and other activities not regarded as regular school work. The exception above for severely handicapped students applies to secondary schools also.

Regular school courses offered for unit credit must be during the school day or approved by the Chief Supervisor, Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section. The school day is the time when students are enrolled and under guidance and direction of teachers employed by the district. Classroom instruction for courses offering credit must be under the direction of the principal and in the school facility.

The minimum length of a class period is 50 minutes five days a week or its equivalent. The daily schedule shall provide a minimum of six periods of instruction.

The school day for full-time teachers, including full-time vocational teachers at vocational centers shall be a minimum of seven hours.

Each elementary and middle summer school with 100 or more students shall employ a certified elementary principal to direct the program. Any other administrative structure shall require approval in advance and in writing from the Chief Supervisor, Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section. Teacher-pupil ratio shall be the same as for the regular term. Each summer school shall have access to library services during the school day. For middle schools, the library shall be open 30 minutes before and after school. Materials and equipment for a balanced program in each respective area shall be provided. Schools planning to operate a summer school must notify the Chief Supervisor, Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section, on or before May 1. Application for approval of the summer school program must be submitted no later than the third day of operation. All official summer school reports shall be signed by the school superintendent and principal.

The qualifications of each teacher shall be the same as those for the regular term. Each teacher teaching a majority of the school day in areas such as art, music and physical education shall be certified in his/her area of specialization.

In determining the elementary and middle summer school curriculum, provision should be made to correct learning difficulties determined by standardized tests, teacher opinion, and examination of the cumulative record of the individual pupil. Opportunities for enrichment in art, music or drama should be offered.

Although credit cannot be earned on a level below the ninth grade, summer schools operated for students at the 7th and/or 8th grade levels must meet all the requirements established for Grades 9 - 12, with the exception of the number of hours of instruction. Students at the seventh and eighth grade levels who failed regular school courses must receive 70 hours of instruction.

Schools planning to operate a summer school for Grades 9-12 must notify the Chief Supervisor, Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section, on or before May 1. Application for approval of the summer school program must be submitted by no later than the third day of operation. All official summer school reports shall be signed by the superintendent and summer school principal or director. Work shall be of the same quality as the regular term. Teachers must be certified in the areas they teach. The summer school program must be organized by and under the direction of the principal, the superintendent or designee. A summer school director must hold a secondary principal's certificate. A definite schedule shall be submitted, approved and followed. Prior permission for a student to attend any other summer school shall be obtained from the principal of the school the student regularly attends.

All students taking one unit of credit must receive 120 hours of instruction with a maximum of four hours daily under the direction of a teacher. Courses granting one-fourth or one-half unit must include 30 or 60 hours of instruction respectively. Students must attend a minimum of 20 days in order to receive credit. Forty-day summer school programs of three hours daily for each unit are recommended, but 30-day summer school programs of four hours daily for each unit are permitted. Students shall be required to make up all absences except in cases of illnesses certified by a physician or other excused absences which are approved by the principal.

No summer school shall operate less than 30 days. Forty days are recommended. No teacher shall teach more than one subject or one level of the same subject during one period for credit. No more than two units of credit shall be earned during one summer school session. No student shall be allowed to apply more than a total of six units in summer school, and/or through approved correspondence courses, and/or adult education programs to the 18 units required for a State high school diploma.

There is no limit on the number of credits a student may earn in a summer program that is operated on a quarter basis as part of a twelve-month school program. These students may not apply more than two units earned through . . . adult education programs to the 18 units required for a State high school diploma.

A summer school program should be planned to provide for enrichment and not limited to a remedial activity. Schools may offer special enrichment courses without unit credit for periods of less than 120 hours of instruction. Consideration should be given to courses in industrial arts and vocational areas in organizing summer school programs.

School districts that elect to operate a fifth or summer quarter shall provide a 45-day instructional program equal in quality and quantity to other quarters of the regular school. All accreditation standards shall apply to each quarter of operation.

Courses shall be organized to grant 1/4, 1/2 or full unit credit. No student shall receive credit for participation in a portion of a one-half or single unit course. The final accreditation status of the summer program will be reflected in the overall district rating for the next year. Class size shall not exceed 25 members.

Schools planning to operate vocational centers during a summer school shall notify the Director of Vocational Education by May 1. Vocational courses and schedules must have prior approval from the Office of Vocational Education. All requirements for summer school specified for secondary schools shall be met for vocational instruction.

Each school district shall provide a defined minimum educational program approved by the State Board of Education that complies with prescribed standards. A school district shall obtain approval for its educational program to be accredited by the Board by one of the following procedures:

(1) Meet the criteria in the "Defined Minimum Program for South Carolina School Districts."

(2) Submit a contract to the State Board of Education for approval of variations from the minimum program. The criteria for approval by contract shall be based on "the school district's commitment to comprehensive, continuous, long-range planning and effective utilization of resources for planned improvement of identified educational needs."

Each school district shall apply for accreditation to the State Department of Education on or before October 15. "All clear" means that the district meets the standards for a minimum program. "Advised" indicates the district is not meeting all standards but the deficiencies may be easily corrected. "Warned" indicates that a district's educational program is failing to meet one or more of the accreditation standards. Districts with a "Warned" classification must make substantial efforts to remove the deficiencies before the next school year or the district's accreditation will be placed on probation. If placed on probation, the district must make satisfactory progress or lose its accreditation. If the accreditation of a high school is dropped, that school cannot issue state high school diplomas subsequent to the school year in which the accreditation is dropped.

§59-21-30

No school shall operate for a period each year which is longer than that fixed by either the board of trustees in the district or the county board of education. No school shall receive state funds for teacher salaries if it does not meet the minimum average daily attendance requirements set forth by the schedule in this section.

If a one-or two-teacher school fails to meet the minimum attendance requirements set forth above, it shall participate in the state funds in the proportion that the enrollment and average daily attendance comply with the minimum schedule for the school.

If a one-teacher school fails to meet minimum attendance requirements because it is "impractible to consolidate it with another school" it shall receive state funds.

§59-39-10-- 59-39-80

Any school district or group of school districts "may establish and maintain a high school . . . provided that [the] high school meets all the requirements of this article and the regulations of the state board of education." The board of trustees for the high school shall be the trustees of the school district. If several districts join to establish the high school, the chairpersons from each district shall constitute the high school board of trustees. Such a high school shall be a body corporate but shall not disrupt the existence of each member district as a separate entity. The area served by the high school shall be "coterminous" with the area served by the school districts which compose it. The board of trustees may discontinue the operation of the school when authorized by the trustees of a majority of the cooperating districts.

REGULATIONS
§43-140

The following classifications are recognized as organizational patterns for South Carolina schools:

Elementary-Combination of grades kindergarten through eight.

Middle - Combination of grades five through eight. Combination of grades 5-8 cannot be considered an elementary school.

Junior High - Grades 7-8, 7-9 or 8-9

Senior High - Grades 9-12 or 10-12.

Special Schools - Any school organized to serve the particular needs of students.

Any exceptions to these classifications must received annual approval from and be given a temporary classification by the Chief Supervisor, Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section.

Each elementary school with a membership of fewer than 375 pupils shall employ a certified principal who devotes at least half time to administration and supervision . If the school has 375 or more pupils, a certified principal shall devote full time to administration and supervision.

Each middle school with a membership of fewer than 250 pupils shall employ a principal who devotes at least half time to administration and supervision. If the school has 250 or more pupils, a principal shall devote full time to administration and supervision. If the school has 600 or more pupils, a principal and a full-time assistant principal shall be employed. An assistant principal for each additional 600 pupils shall also be employed.

Each secondary school with a membership of 250 pupils or more shall employ a full-time principal. Schools with less than 250 pupils in membership shall employ a half-time principal. A full-time principal and at least one half-time assistant principal shall be employed for a secondary school with 400-599 pupils. If the school has 600 or more pupils, a full-time principal and at least one full-time assistant principal or the equivalent shall be employed and an assistant principal or the equivalent shall be added for each additional 600 students.

Each area vocational center which is designated by the Office of Vocational Education as a center according to criteria specified in the State Plan for Vocational Education shall have a full-time director.

Each adult education program shall have a director (full or part-time).

All new school facilities and sites for elementary, middle and secondary schools shall meet minimum requirements listed in "South Carolina School Facilities Planning and Construction Guide" and "South Carolina Guide and Minimum Specifications for Construction of Relocatable Classroom Buildings." "Kindergarten Facilities Guidebook" sets guidelines for elementary schools too. These publications are available from the State Department of Education.

A new high school shall not be organized that does not have a minimum enrollment of 400 students in Grades 9-12, but two or more schools with a combined enrollment of less than 400 students in Grades 9-12 can consolidate, if proper notification is made and written approval is received from the Chief Supervisor, Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section.

All operating secondary school facilities shall comply with safety regulations prescribed by the State Fire Marshal and with sanitation and health regulations prescribed by the State Board of Health.

Plans for new vocational facilities and sites shall have prior approval by the Office of Vocational Education.

STUDENT-TEACHER RATIO

Elementary Schools: The average student-teacher ratio in any school shall not exceed 28 to 1 based on average daily attendance. The total number of teachers shall include all regular, special area, and resource teachers whose pupils are counted in the regular enrollment. Teacher aides may be counted in computing the ratio of .5 per aide if they work under the supervision of a teacher and make up no more than 10% of the total staff.

Teachers of self-contained special education classes and kindergarten, principals, assistant principals, librarians, guidance counselors and pupils in self-contained special education classes and kindergarten are excluded from the computation.

A maximum of 40 students per period with a total teaching load of 240 students per day is permitted for physical education teachers. If physical education and health are taught on alternative days to the same class the 40 student maximum and 240 student total is also permitted for health. When health is taught as a subject, the teaching load is a maximum of 35 students per period and a total of 150 students per day.

Music teachers may teach a maximum of 240 students daily. No class shall exceed 40 in membership. Band, chorus and orchestra will require rehearsals of the entire membership and any number is acceptable if adequate space is available.

Each teacher of trainable mentally, orthopedically, or emotionally handicapped students in a self-contained classroom model shall have a teacher aide full time.

Each teacher of a double session kindergarten unit shall have a teacher aide full time.

MIDDLE SCHOOLS: The maximum teacher load shall not exceed 150 students daily. No class shall exceed 35 students in membership. Exceptions:

(1) A maximum of 40 students per period with a total teaching load of 240 students per day is permitted for physical education teachers. If physical education and health are taught on alternate days to the same class the 40 student maximum and 240 student total is also permitted for health. When health is taught as a separate subject, the teaching load is a maximum of 35 students per period and a total of 150 students per day.

(2) Music teachers may teach a maximum of 240 pupils daily. No class shall exceed 40 students in membership. Band, chorus and orchestra will require rehearsals of the entire membership and any number is acceptable if adequate space is available.

(3) When a teacher's daily schedule includes a combination of academic subjects and nonacademic subjects the maximum daily teaching load shall be calculated on the basis of 30 students per academic class and 40 students for each music or physical education class.

Maximum teacher load requirements and individual class size limits are the same for mini courses as any other classes.

Each teacher of trainable mentally, orthopedically, and emotionally handicapped students in a self-contained classroom model shall provide a teacher aide full time.

SECONDARY SCHOOLS: The maximum daily teaching load for academic classes is 150 students. No class shall exceed 35 students in membership.

A teacher shall not be permitted to teach more than six periods per day. The recommended limit is five teaching periods. A teacher assigned classes requiring more than four preparations per day shall be considered overloaded.

Exception: A vocational teacher with a maximum daily teaching load of 75 students in membership may have five preparations each day. Typing I and Typing II may be counted as one preparation. In personal typing a teacher may teach a maximum of 240 students daily. No class may exceed 40 students in membership.

A maximum of 40 students per period with a total teaching load of 240 students per day is permitted for physical education teachers. If physical education and health are taught on alternate days to the same class the 40 student maximum and 240 student total is also permitted for health. When health is taught as a separate subject, the teaching load is a maximum of 35 students per period and a total of 150 students per day.

Music teachers may teach a maximum of 240 students daily. No class shall exceed 40 students in membership.

Band, chorus and orchestra will require rehearsals of the entire membership and any number is acceptable if adequate space is available.

When a teacher's daily schedule includes a combination of academic and nonacademic subjects, the maximum daily teaching load shall be calculated on the basis of 30 students per academic class and 40 students per music or physical education class.

In calculating teaching load, the number of students supervised in study hall by a regular teacher shall be divided by four.

VOCATIONAL CENTERS: A vocational teacher shall not be permitted to teach more than six periods per day. Cooperative education teachers shall teach four class periods or 200 minutes daily and shall supervise students in work experience for a minimum of two periods or 100 minutes daily. A vocational teacher with more than four different preparations per day shall be considered overloaded, with the exception that a teacher with a daily student load not exceeding 75 students may have five different preparations.

Not more than one subject on any grade level may be taught by a teacher during one class period. Beginning students shall not be mixed with advanced students in membership except in the approved self-paced individualized instructional program.

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM: The maximum student membership shall be 30 students per teacher.

A full-time secretary shall be employed for the superintendent. Each elementary school with a membership of fewer than 375 students shall provide at least half-time secretarial services. A school with a membership of 375 or more students shall provide full-time secretarial services.

Each middle school shall provide full-time secretarial services. Each high school shall employ a full-time secretary. The superintendent's secretary may not serve to meet this standard.

Each vocational center shall employ a full-time secretary.

Custodial services shall be provided to adequately clean and service all shops and classrooms.

The program of studies in each high school should be broad in offerings to meet the diverse needs of students. A quarter or semester basis is recommended for broader instructional base with extensive student choice and greater curriculum flexibility. The quarter system organizes the school year of 180 days into four 45-day quarters with an optional fifth quarter during the summer months. The semester system organizes the school year into two 90-day semesters. Schools may continue to offer courses on a yearly basis. Successful implementation of a quarter or semester system requires extensive curriculum revision and development as well as teacher training. Topics to be taught in courses organized on a quarterly basis must be outlined as a teacher's guide and approved six weeks prior to implementation Each school district may restructure the school year into quarters or semesters. A school district may offer courses on a quarter or semester basis by granting credit on a proportionate basis, i.e., quarter = 1/4 unit; semester = 1/2 unit.

School districts planning to adopt the quarter or semester system must develop a written outline or guide for each course and secure approval of the Chief Supervisor Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section, at least six weeks prior to the date scheduled for implementation. All schools structured on the quarterly or semesterly basis shall submit accreditation information to the Accreditation and Educational Improvement Section for the quarters or semester not included in the initial submission of accreditation data within ten days after the beginning of a new quarter or semester.

Class size in an elementary school shall not exceed the

Kindergarten	30-1
Grades 1-6	35-1

Middle schools: No class shall exceed 35 students.

Secondary schools: The minimum class enrollment in a beginning subject is 10.

B. Qualification Standards for School Personnel

Administrators

§59-13-20

All superintendents and any administrative officer to the board of education in each school district "shall meet the qualifications required and possess the superintendent certificate issued by the State Board of Education." A county board of education may impose additional qualifications if it deems necessary.

§43-161; 162

Each school district shall employ a chief administrative officer who serves as the executive officer of the board of trustees and the professional leader of the school district. Administrators serving as area or district superintendents for the first time after June 30, 1968, shall hold a superintendent's certificate. A permit must be requested annually by September 15 from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification by the Chairperson of the district board of trustees for a superintendent not properly certified.

The salary of the superintendent shall, in every case, be at a higher monthly and annual rate than that paid principals or other members of the staff.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

REGULATIONS

§43-165

The enrollment and scope of the educational program will determine the size of the administrative staff. Personnel employed as administrative assistants and supervisors having responsibilities for supervisory instructional programs and pupil services shall hold a master's degree and be certified in their area of primary responsibility or earn a minimum of six semester hours annually toward appropriate certification. Consultants in special areas shall be certified in their areas of specialization. A permit must be requested annually by September 15 from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification by the district superintendent for members of central staff not properly certified.

CONSULTANTS

Each elementary school principal shall hold a South Carolina elementary principal's certificate. There are four exceptions to this requirement that are no longer applicable after July 1, 1978. Each campus principal of a multi-campus school with a membership of 250 students or more at each campus shall comply with certification and salary regulations prescribed for a principal of a single campus school. The principal shall devote at least half time to the improvement of instruction.

Assistant principals of elementary schools shall hold an elementary principal's certificate or meet one of the exceptions listed for principals. If more than one full-time assistant principal is employed, at least one of the full-time assistant principals shall have an elementary principal's certificate or meet one of the exceptions listed for a principal.

Each principal of a middle school shall hold a South Carolina elementary principal's certificate. There are four exceptions to this requirement that are no longer applicable after July 1, 1978. The principal shall devote a minimum of half-time to the improvement of instruction.

The assistant principal of a middle school shall hold an elementary principal's certificate or meet one of the exceptions for a principal. If more than one full-time assistant principal is employed, at least one of the full-time assistant principals shall have an elementary principal's certificate or meet one of the exceptions for a principal.

Staff for secondary schools shall be qualified from the standpoint of training, certification, personal fitness, management, ability to perform, personal growth and professional attitude for the various services required by the local board of education. Each principal shall hold a secondary principal's certificate. A permit must be requested annually by the district superintendent by September 15 from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification for each principal or teacher not properly certified for his/her position. Each campus principal of a multi-campus school with a membership of 250 students or more shall comply with certificate and salary regulations prescribed for a principal of a single campus school. A full-time assistant principal shall be required for a secondary school with a membership of 600 or more students and shall hold a secondary principal's certificate by earning a minimum of six semester hours yearly. If two or more full-time assistant principals are required, only one must be properly certified as a secondary principal.

Beginning July 1, 1977 each director of a vocational institution shall be certified in one or more vocational subjects, shall have a master's degree of Class I Certificate and shall have a minimum of three years of vocational-technical teaching experience. The director shall devote a minimum of half-time to the improvement of instruction.

Beginning January 1, 1977, when an assistant vocational center director is employed, he/she shall be certified in one or more vocational subjects, shall have a master's degree and earn six semester hours yearly, and shall have three years vocational-technical teaching experience.

Each director of adult education employed on or after July 1, 1976 shall be certified in at least one of the acceptable areas of certification (adult education supervisor, defined minimum program) or have an advanced degree in the field of Adult Education. Each director employed prior to July 1, 1976 shall meet at least one of the above qualifications for full certification by no later than July 1, 1981. In meeting this qualification during the interim period, the director shall earn no fewer than six semester hours per year toward full certification. Supervision and improvement of the adult education instructional program is the direct responsibility of the adult education director.

Adult Education Staff

Regulations

§43-204

Each district shall provide properly certified administrative, teaching and supervisory staff for the adult education program. Staff members may be either full time or part time.

Area vocational centers are equipped to prepare students for immediate job entry and for continued specialization in post-high school vocational or technical institutions. An adequate staff, properly trained, is essential for offering a program that will enable students to assume these roles. Staff shall be qualified from the standpoint of training, certification, personal fitness, management, ability to perform, personal growth, and professional attitude for the various services required by the local board of education.

AIDES

REGULATIONS

§43-212

Teacher, library and clerical aides helping with classroom instruction or programs shall work under the direct supervision of a certified teacher, have at least a high school diploma or state equivalency certificate, participate in pre-service and in-service training for aides and be at least 18 years old.

In secondary school a teacher aide is a non-certified person employed by a school district whose assignment is limited to assisting a certified teacher. A person employed as a teacher aide shall have a high school diploma or the State equivalency certificate and be at least 18 years old.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEMBERS

STATUTES

§59-19-300

No trustee shall receive pay as a teacher in a public school in the same county in which he/she is on the board of trustees. School trustees may sell or lease school property "whenever it deems it expedient" and apply the proceeds of the sale or lease to the district's school fund.

CERTIFICATED PERSONNEL

STATUTES

§59-25-120

All persons applying for certificates must take a loyalty oath.

TEACHERS

STATUTES

§59-25-10

No teacher who is related by blood or marriage to a member of the board of trustees of a school district may be employed by that board unless the county board of education approves or the majority of parents of children attending the school where the teacher is employed requests his/her employment. This provision shall not apply to the excepted counties.

§59-25-20

No teacher shall be employed who does not have a teaching certificate for the public schools. This provision does not affect those persons already employed. The district board of trustees may require additional examinations and qualifications to teach in its school system.

The state board of education shall formulate and administer a system to examine and certify teachers. If a teacher is serving as a member of the general assembly, his/her teaching certificates shall remain valid.

§59-35-30

A kindergarten teacher must have at least . . . "a two year course in kindergarten training and have received a certificate or diploma from a recognized kindergarten normal training school . . ."

REGULATIONS

§43-11

The State Board of Education shall appoint upon recommendation of the State Superintendent of Education a State Council on Teacher Education which shall be responsible for making recommendations to the State Board of Education concerning accreditation and coordination of teacher education programs and certification of professional personnel. The Council shall be composed of representatives from teacher-training colleges in the state which have state-approved teacher education programs; the county and district superintendents of education, classroom teachers, secondary and elementary principals, district directors or supervisors of instruction and representatives from the State Department of Education.

The Director of the Office of Teacher Education and Certification shall be chairperson of the Council and be responsible for calling meetings and naming sub-committees or special committees for special studies upon the approval of the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee shall be composed of three members representing the colleges, three members representing the public schools (one public school representative shall be a classroom teacher), and the Chairperson of the Council. The Council shall select a secretary, who need not be a Council member, to keep minutes and other appropriate records. The Executive Committee, insofar as authorized by the Council, shall act for the Council and shall meet as often as necessary.

The Council shall hold at least two meetings annually, one in the fall and one in the spring, at a time designated by the Executive Committee. The Council may meet at other times at the request of the Chairperson with the approval of the Executive Committee.

The Council's duties are to recommend to the State Board of Education criteria for the approval of teacher education programs, to make studies of such programs and to make recommendations to the State Board of Education concerning institutions to be approved, to recommend to the Board changes and additions needed in the procedures and requirements for licensing professional personnel as well as procedures and requirements for licensing out-of-state applicants and to recommend to the Board reciprocal arrangements with other states.

Through its chairperson, the Council will maintain liaison with the State Board of Education. However the Board may request as well as grant hearings by subcommittees of the Council. The Board will alert the Council when it seems advisable concerning conditions or situations meriting special attention of the Council.

HEARING

§43-205

Elementary school teachers shall:

(a) Have a bachelor's degree or degree equivalent;

(b) Be certified for Grades K-4 in early childhood education, Grades 1-6 in elementary education, or Grades 5-6 in the subject area assigned the majority of the time if in a departmentalized unit;

(c) Be certified in their area of specialization if they teach a majority of the school day in music, art or physical education;

(d) If teaching handicapped students, be certified or have a permit in the area of the handicapping condition in which the majority of their handicapped students are classified; or be certified in one area of handicapping condition in which the teacher is active and successfully complete six semester hours, annually, toward certification in the area in which the majority of students are classified.

A school shall not have more than 10% of classroom instruction time taught by teachers in which they are not properly certified.

A teacher who is not properly certified may continue to teach until July 1, 1978 if he/she is 62 years of age and has earned at least six hours within the last three years or has less than a bachelor's degree and was certified prior to 1945 if he/she earns a minimum of six hours every five years.

Effective July 1, 1981, a teacher shall be certified to teach areas as follows:

Grades	Certification
Kindergarten	Early Childhood
1-4	Early Childhood or Elementary
5-6	Elementary or Middle
7-8	Middle

Subject area certification is required for teachers teaching a majority of the school day in music, art, or physical education in Grades K-8.

EMERGENCY PERMIT

In an emergency situation, a teacher who is initially employed, or one receiving a new assignment, may be permitted to teach out of his/her area of certification if he/she earns at least six semester hours annually. A permit must be requested annually by September 15 from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification by the district superintendent for each person scheduled to teach at least half-time out of his/her area of certification.

Each guidance counselor shall hold an elementary guidance counselor's certificate.

Each librarian shall meet the certification requirements for a librarian.

Each nurse shall hold a current license issued by the State Board of Nurses to practice as a professional registered nurse or a licensed practical nurse.

MIDDLE SCHOOLS:

Each teacher shall have a bachelor's degree or degree equivalent and be certified in the subject area assigned the majority of the time or in elementary education. A teacher with an elementary certificate may teach in the seventh and/or eighth grades without the issuance of a permit until July 1, 1981. A teacher teaching a majority of the school day in music, art or physical education shall be certified in the major teaching area. A teacher of handicapped pupils in the resource model shall be certified or have a permit in the area of handicapping condition in which the majority are classified, or be certified in one area of handicapping condition in which the teacher is teaching and successfully complete six semester hours annually toward certification in the area in which the majority of students are classified.

A school shall not have more than 10% of classroom instruction time taught by teachers who are not properly certified. The 10% is calculated by dividing the total time of teachers teaching out of their area of certification by the total instructional time. Teachers teaching in exploratory programs less than 50% of the time and resource teachers are not counted in the computation.

Effective July 1, 1981, a teacher shall be certified to teach in areas as follows:

Grade	Certification
5-6	Elementary or Middle
7-8	Middle

Subject area certification is required for teachers teaching a majority of the school day in music, art or physical education in Grades 5-8. Subject areas such as industrial arts and home economics require subject area certification for any part of the school day.

EMERGENCY PERMIT

In an emergency situation, a teacher who is initially employed, or one receiving a new assignment, may be permitted to teach out of his/her area of certification if he/she earns at least six semester hours annually. A permit must be requested annually by September 15 from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification by the district superintendent for each person scheduled to teach at least half-time out of his/her area of certification.

Each guidance counselor shall hold a certificate in elementary or secondary guidance. Each librarian and teacher-librarian shall meet their respective certification requirements.

Each school nurse shall hold a current license issued by the State Board of Nurses to practice as a professional registered nurse or licensed practical nurse.

SECONDARY SCHOOLS:

A secondary school teacher is required to hold at least the bachelor's degree or a degree equivalent, from an approved college or university and be certified to teach the subjects assigned. Trade and Industrial teachers shall hold a trade certificate. Exceptions to this standard are:

(a) A teacher who is assigned to teach a subject in a majority of class periods in areas for which he/she is not properly certified must have completed 12 semester hours of credit in the subject area assigned. A permit must be requested annually by September 15 from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification. The teacher must earn six semester hours toward proper certification each year for renewal of the teaching permit.

(b) A teacher who is teaching a majority of classes in properly certified areas may be given teaching assignments in subject areas for which he/she is not properly certified, if the teacher has completed a minimum of six semester hours of college credit in the subject area assigned.

(c) A permit must be requested annually by September 15 from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification by the district superintendent for each person scheduled to teach at least half-time out of his/her area of certification.

(d) A teacher with an elementary certificate may teach in the seventh and/or eighth grades without the issuance of a permit except those teachers teaching a majority of the school day in music, art, and physical education shall be certified in the major teaching area.

(e) Effective July 1, 1981, a teacher shall be certified to teach grades 7-8 with a middle school certification and grades 9-12 with secondary certification. Prior to July 1, 1981, an elementary certificate is acceptable for the basic subjects in Grades 7-8.

(f) When block-time scheduling is used, a teacher who is teaching one-half of his/her classes in his/her area of certification may be given teaching assignments in subject areas for which he/she is not properly certified, provided that the teacher has completed a minimum of six semester hours of college credit in the assigned subject area.

(g) A teacher of handicapped students in the resource model shall be certified or have a permit in the area of handicapping condition in which the majority are classified or be certified in one area of handicapping condition in which the teacher is active and successfully competes six semester hours annually toward certification in the area in which the majority of students are classified.

A school shall not have more than 10% of classroom instruction time taught by teachers who are not properly certified. The 10% is calculated by dividing the total time of teachers teaching out of their area of certification by the total instructional time. Teachers teaching in exploratory programs less than 50% of the time, and resource teachers are not counted in the computation.

Each guidance counselor shall hold a certificate in secondary guidance. Each librarian shall hold a certificate in secondary library science. Each school nurse shall hold a current license to practice as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse issued by the State Board of Nurses.

VOCATIONAL CENTERS:

When a job placement coordinator is employed after January 1, 1977 he/she shall be certified in one or more vocational subjects, shall have a master's degree or Class I Certificate or shall be enrolled in a program leading to a master's degree, six semester hours yearly, and shall have two years of work experience.

When an adult vocational coordinator is employed after January 1, 1977 he/she shall be certified in one or more vocational subjects, shall have a master's degree or Class I Certificate or be enrolled in a program leading to a master's degree and earn six semester hours yearly, and shall have three years of vocational-technical teaching experience.

A vocational center teacher shall hold at least the bachelor's degree, or a degree equivalent, from an approved college or university and shall be certified to teach the subjects assigned, or shall hold a trade certificate in the assigned teaching area.

Each vocational guidance counselor employed after July 1, 1975 shall possess a bachelor's degree with a major in one of the vocational services from an approved four-year college or university or shall qualify for a teaching certificate in vocational education. A certified vocational teacher with a minimum of six semester hours in courses required for guidance certification will be accepted, provided he/she is enrolled in an approved program leading to counselor certification and earns a minimum of six semester hours yearly toward counselor certification. Effective January 1, 1979 a vocational guidance counselor shall possess a valid guidance certificate and shall have three years vocational-technical teaching experience.

NURSE

School nurses shall be available to the area vocational center under the same conditions that they are available to other schools and have the same certification as nurses for secondary schools.

Each Center or Program Supervisor or Coordinator of Adult Education shall either meet the same qualifications for certification and dates of employment set forth for program directors or have a master's degree with certification in the field of guidance.

An adult basic education teacher shall hold at least the bachelor's degree or degree equivalent. If employed on or after July 1, 1976, he/she shall be either certified as an elementary teacher or hold at least a bachelor's degree or degree equivalent and have earned 18 hours in methods, strategies, materials and/or psychology of teaching adults. If employed prior to July 1, 1976, he/she shall meet at least one of the qualifications listed in the above sentence for full certification by no later than July 1, 1981. In meeting this qualification during the interim period, the basic education teacher shall earn no fewer than six semester hours per year toward full certification.

Each adult high school subject area teacher shall be certified to teach the subjects assigned.

An adult learning lab instructor shall hold at least a bachelor's degree or degree equivalent and either be certified as an elementary or secondary teacher or have earned at least 18 hours in methods, strategies, materials and/or psychology of teaching adults.

Any staff member who is assigned duties in areas for which he/she is not properly certified must hold a valid teaching credential and have completed 12 semester hours of credit in the area assigned and obtain a permit from the Office of Teacher Education and Certification. The staff member must earn six semester hours toward proper certification each year for renewal of the permit.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

REGULATIONS

§43-254

The Board believes that "community education" is a philosophy which encourages schools to promote civic responsibility and which strengthens many programs, such as adult, vocational and technical education.

EDUCATION SYSTEM

REGULATIONS

§43-22

Three months before the budget must be submitted to the Budget and Control Board, the State Department of Education should propose to the State Board of Education revised goals and any policy changes that should be reflected in a new budget. The purpose of this step is to establish basic data for the budget.

Two months before the commitment day, the State Department of Education should present for study to the Board an estimate of the additional cost of implementing these goals and policies. Any major changes such as teacher salary increases should be estimated. These increases should be weighed against a protection of state income for the budget year so that a tentative agreement could be reached on the scope of changes to be included in the budget.

One month minus one week before commitment day the Finance Committee should be given for study a preliminary budget in detail accompanied by a summary which isolates changes. The committee should present this to the Board for approval one month before it is due to the Budget and Control Board.

In putting this information together, the Department should seek input from professionals and organizations in the education field so as to reflect as accurately as possible relevant needs.

For this plan to function the Policy Committee of the State Board of Education must plan the Board's agenda for the year so that any policy changes which will require funding are discussed and resolved in time to meet the budget schedule.

REGULATIONS

§43-130

The following documents are filed in the Office of the Secretary of State and the Legislative Council and contain standards approved by the State Board of Education:

Defined Minimum Program for South Carolina School Districts.

Defined Minimum Program for the John De La Howe School.

TEACHERS

Any teacher entering into any signed contract or written agreement to teach in a South Carolina public school shall not break or seek to terminate the contract except for good cause and then only after giving written notice to the superintendent of the school district at least thirty days prior to the date the teacher desires to terminate the contract. If the employing authority does not agree to terminate the contract, it shall, within ten days after receipt of notice from the teacher, give the teacher a statement in writing that it does not agree to the termination of the contract. If the teacher breaks the contract within 30 days prior to the opening date of school, or during the school session, without agreement of the employing authorities, upon the receipt of a request from the employing authority, the State Superintendent shall report the name of the teacher to the State Board of Education. The Board shall then give notice to the teacher by registered mail to appear before the Board to show cause why the teacher's certificate should not be revoked or suspended, the notice to contain the information that the teacher is entitled to counsel if he/she so desires and to bring counsel with him/her to the meeting. If the teacher fails to appear before the board, or if the teacher does appear and the Board rules that the teacher did not have sufficient cause for terminating the contract, the Board shall revoke or suspend the certificate of the teacher for a period not exceeding one year for the first offense.

The term "teacher" as used in this section shall include all school personnel required to be certified by the State Board of Education.

A teacher who is entitled to a pay increase because he/she passed a teacher's examination shall receive the increase the semester following the date of the exam.

DISMISSAL

Grounds for dismissal of any teacher shall include: incompetency, failure to follow instructions of superintendent and unfitness for teaching. Unfitness is manifested by: neglect of duty, wilful violation of the rules, drunkenness, violation of state or federal law, moral turpitude, gross immorality and illegal use, sale or possession of drugs.

However, no teacher shall be dismissed without notice and opportunity for a hearing prior to dismissal.

§59-25-450;460;480

NOTICE
HEARING

No teacher shall be dismissed without written notice specifying the cause. A hearing may be held if the teacher requests and a record shall be kept of the proceedings. If a superintendent believes "immediate suspension is necessary" no notice and no prior hearing is required. A hearing may be held subsequent to the suspension if the teacher requests one in writing.

The decision of the trustees shall be final unless the teacher appeals the decision to the court of common pleas within 30 days. From that court, the decision may be appealed to the state supreme court. If it is ruled that the board erred in dismissing the teacher, it shall be liable for "actual damages and court costs" provided it is incurred within two years of the date of dismissal.

Any citizen or group of citizens may appear before the State Board of Education at any regular meeting of the Board except when the Board declares itself to be in executive session, and may address the Board, if a request has been made to do so, to the State Superintendent of Education in writing at least seven days prior to the meeting. The Board may, in addition, give citizens who have not made proper request, for hearing an opportunity to speak by majority vote of its members present. The chairman shall allot a reasonable time for such hearing and shall at his/her discretion also limit citizens' speeches. The Board, too, may limit such speeches by majority votes.

If appearances before the Board are for complaint or grievance, the State Superintendent of Education must study and review the matter prior to consideration by the Board. The complaint shall be put in writing, addressed to the chairman of the Board, signed by the sponsor and filed in the Office of the State Superintendent. Complaints to be filed with the Board should related only to matters over which the Board has direct jurisdiction; areas of local involvement should be pursued in due process at the district level.

COMPLAINT

The Board's action on citizens' public requests shall be made only after the citizens have made their statements and concluded their participation in the meeting.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE

STATUTES
§59-39-100 --59-39-740

Diplomas shall be uniform in every respect. Each high school shall submit statistics on the previous year's graduating class to the state superintendent. The information shall include the number of graduates that entered institutions of higher education; and a breakdown of all courses passed and failed by the group after their first semester. A high school which fails to submit the report shall lose its accreditation. Each institution of higher learning shall submit a first semester report on each freshman enrolled to the freshman's high school. The state superintendent shall tabulate the data to show the subsequent academic performance of all high school graduates in the state and those tables shall be included in the annual report to the general assembly.

REGULATIONS

§43-201

The State Board of Education shall make every effort at the State level to find additional State and Federal funds, to provide additional assistance to the State Department of Education personnel and to encourage and lead local school districts into a greater effort to develop a statewide system of in-service teacher training.

Each school and area vocational center shall have a well-organized in-service education program for professional personnel in addition to regularly scheduled faculty meetings. The program should be continuous and go beyond the five days of in-service education required to receive State aid salaries for 185 days. Staff members should be involved in the planning and evaluation of these activities which should focus on the problems, needs, purposes and goals of the educational program.

Each adult education director shall develop and implement an organized in-service education program for professional personnel. Staff members should be involved in the planning and evaluation of these activities which should focus on the problems, needs, purposes and goals of the adult education program. A copy of the in-service education plan shall be made available to the adult education supervisor upon request.

The State Department of Education shall study the feasibility of establishing a state program of in-service training of teachers. Such programs would be planned, organized and submitted by the local school district personnel to the State Department of Education and, if approved, the State Board of Education would honor such training for certificate renewal credit for teachers successfully completing such training.

III. Quality of the Educational Process

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

1. Accreditation

STATUTES

§13-1-12

The state board of education shall establish rules and policies necessary to "establish standards for classifying, approving and accrediting elementary, secondary, adult education, kindergarten, primary, and summer schools, both public and nonpublic."

§13-13-17 - 13-13-18

In order to be eligible for foundation program funds, a school district must have employed "only properly qualified teachers holding valid South Dakota certificates" for the previous school year. Additionally, a school district "must have operated only accredited public schools" in order to be eligible for foundation program funds.

§13-33-1

All public schools "shall provide instruction" that conforms to the "accreditation standards" of the state board of education.

REGULATIONS

§24:03:02:02

Each school district or system must file an annual application for accreditation on or before October 15. "Amendments to the application for accreditation may be made prior to the final determination of accreditation status by the division [of elementary and secondary education.]" School districts/systems "shall respond to a preliminary review prepared by the division and submitted to each school on or before February 1st of that school year. The preliminary review will indicate steps necessary to meet minimum criteria for accreditation."

Accreditation is granted on a system-wide assessment on a yearly basis. School districts/systems shall be notified of their final accreditation status no later than June 5.

§24:03:03:01; 24:03:02:03--04

"The following criteria shall be utilized in determining accreditation: educational program, staff, instructional materials, facilities, services, compliance with rules and regulations, compliance with school laws, and a statement of philosophy and purpose.

"When a school district or school system is in non-compliance with state board regulations or . . . with state education statutes, accreditation will be denied the school district or school system."

"When a school district or . . . system is denied accreditation, it may request, any time prior to August 15 of that year, a hearing conducted pursuant to SDCL 1-26 by the state superintendent. If the evidence . . . indicates that the school district or . . . system should be accredited for the year which has just ended, [the state superintendent]. . . may grant accreditation. If accreditation denial is continued by the state superintendent an appeal for review. . . may be made to the state board, which shall issue a decision based upon the record made at the hearing or remand the case for further hearing and review by the state superintendent."

Due to the "wide variances in the abilities of local districts to provide comprehensive programs," the state board provides for three levels of accreditation:

(1) Level II is granted for meeting the minimum standards.

(2) Level I is granted to those systems" which show significant evidence of going beyond the minimum requirements to the extent they meet level I standards.

(3) Level I exemplary is granted to those systems which exceed the Level I standards.

"Educational programs that are in compliance with state regulations and . . . statutes, which are designed to meet special needs of pupils, shall be approved for special education."

"A school or school system must offer kindergarten instruction to qualify for the higher levels of accreditation. Kindergarten is not required in order to qualify for a level II accreditation."

Whenever the supply of fully qualified teachers is not sufficient to provide instruction for approved high school programs, the state supervisor may recommend teachers on a year to year basis.

"Instructors in occupational preparation may be selected from one of the following:

"(1) Secondary home economics teachers who have a valid teaching certificate and have had at least two years of experience in business, industry or human services;

"(2) Professional home economists who are specialized in one subject area, as dietetics, child development, clothing or housing, and have had at least two years of experience in the occupational field in which they will teach;

"(3) High school graduates, or equivalent, having at least three years' wage-earning experience over and above the learner's level in the area in which they will teach. These shall have such teacher training courses as approved by the state supervisor in the specific area in which they propose to teach, and must be eligible to satisfy the requirements of a limited teaching certificate.

"Aides and lab assistants shall be competent in the area in which they are assisting and shall work under the direct supervision of a certified teacher.

§24:10:12:01 -- 03

"The technical education instructor shall meet the minimum qualifications of a technician recognized by industry in the occupational area in which he is to teach and shall have at least three years' experience, with at least two years in the technical field to be taught. He shall possess the necessary competency to teach those related courses as are required for the occupation.

"The instructor shall:

"(1) Be a high school graduate, or its equivalent, and shall have at least three years' wage-earning experience over and above the learner's level in the trade he is to teach;

"(2) Have such teacher training courses as approved by the state supervisor in the specific area in which he proposes to teach;

"(3) Be eligible to satisfy the requirements of a limited teaching certificate.

"Aides and laboratory assistants shall be competent in the area in which they are assisting and shall work under the direct supervision of a certified teacher."

EDUCATORS

REGULATIONS

§24:08:03:01 -- 04

"In fulfilling their obligations to the students, educators shall:

(1) Not without just cause restrain students from independent action in their pursuit of learning, and shall not without just cause deny to the students access to varying points of view;

(2) Not deliberately suppress or distort subject matter for which they bear responsibility;

(3) Make reasonable effort to maintain adequate discipline and order in the classroom and the school system to protect the students from the conditions harmful to learning, health and safety;

(4) Conduct professional business in such a way that they do not expose the students to unnecessary embarrassment or disparagement;

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

(5) Not for reasons of race, color, creed, sex, national origin, marital status, political affiliation, or family, social, or cultural background exclude any students from participation in or deny them benefits under any program, nor grant any discriminatory consideration or advantage;

(6) Not use professional relationships with students for private advantage;

(7) Keep in confidence information that has been obtained in the cause of professional service, unless disclosure serves professional purposes or is required by law;

(8) Not tutor for remuneration students assigned to their classes unless no other qualified educator is reasonably available;

(9) Shall maintain professional relationships with students in a manner which is free of vindictiveness and recrimination."

"In fulfilling their obligations to the public, educators shall:

(1) Not misrepresent an institution or organization with which they are affiliated, and shall take adequate precautions to distinguish between their personal and institutional or organizational views;

(2) Not knowingly distort or misrepresent the facts concerning educational matters in direct and indirect public expressions;

(3) Not interfere with a colleague's exercise of political and citizenship rights and responsibilities;

(4) Not use institutional privileges for private gain or to promote political candidates or partisan political activities;

(5) Accept no gratuities, gifts, or favors that might impair or appear to impair professional judgement, nor offer any favor, service, or thing of value to obtain special advantage."

"In fulfilling their obligation to professional employment practices, educators shall:

(1) Apply for, accept, offer, or assign a position or responsibility on the basis of professional preparation and legal qualifications;

(2) Apply for a specific position only when it is known to be vacant, and shall refrain from underbidding or commenting adversely about other candidates;

(3) Not knowingly withhold information regarding a position from an applicant or misrepresent an assignment or conditions of employment;

(4) Give prompt notice to the employing agency of any change in availability of service; and the employing agent shall give prompt notice of change in availability or nature of a position;

(5) Adhere to the terms of a contract or appointment unless the contract has been substantially altered without consent of the affected parties, legally terminated, or legally voided;

(6) Conduct professional business through channels that have been adopted by the employing agency, when available;

(7) Not delegate assigned professional responsibilities to unqualified personnel;

(8) Permit no commercial exploitation of their professional position."

SCHOOL DISTRICTS

STATUTES

§13-6-2

Legislative policy dictates that school districts exist to provide schools for the people and an "adequate opportunity to avail themselves of a free elementary, and secondary education program."

The legislature deems it "essential for all children and youth in the state to have access to an adequate educational program in a public school" and in the event that a school district does not have adequate resources to provide the necessary education, the state board of education will be responsible for "school district reorganization" to "enable each school district to offer an educational program of sufficient scope and quality to adequately expand and develop the interests and abilities of its people." Each school district must meet certain minimum standards and "contain sufficient human and material resources" for an educational program that will fulfill accreditation requirements.

The policy for the distribution of state funds to local districts is "to provide . . . equality in school tax rates . . . and to provide reasonable equality of educational opportunity for all children in the state." In order to be eligible to receive state funds through the foundation program, a school district must "provide an educational program which meets the requirements and standards" established by the foundation program.

III. Quality of the Educational Process

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

1. Accreditation

CROSS REFERENCE

II.A.3.; Regulation p.49

2. Other Qualification Standards

STATUTES

§116

The state commissioner of education is authorized to grant waivers to a school which does not comply with the rules and regulations of the state board of education only when officially requested by action of the local board of education.

§1001

Elementary schools shall be maintained as necessary. "If the average daily attendance of any school shall fall below the minimum fixed by the respective board of education for as much as two consecutive weeks, the schools shall be suspended until an attendance of such minimum as is fixed by the board of education can be assured." Only in exceptional situations will the minimum attendance of 10 students be disregarded.

§1101 -- 1105

The state board of education determines the number of students that will be needed to keep a school in operation.

§1113

The term of high schools shall be at least nine months or 36 weeks. Provisions concerning qualifications of teachers, number of students, school term, course of study and other conditions must be met before a high school can be approved or diplomas handed out or determination of funds made.

There is a standardized and efficient administration of the public school systems. "The commissioner of education shall publish maximum school class size limits before August 1st of the school year."

Waivers on class size limits shall be submitted by the superintendent or director of school districts to the state commissioner of education.

If monthly attendance reports reveal that additional classrooms do not comply with state class size maximum limits, requests can be made by superintendents or directors for a waiver of class size limits. Such waivers shall be made available to local news media and education associations.

REGULATIONS

pp. 17-21

"The number of teaching positions . . . in grades one through eight . . . shall be based upon the average daily attendance for each of the highest two months of the first three months of the current school year . . ." The minimum pupil-teacher ratio shall be one teacher for every twenty pupils (20-1). In high schools, the minimum pupil-teacher ratio shall be four teachers for every seventy-five pupils (75-4). For each additional thirty pupils (in both cases), one additional full-time teaching position shall be allowed.

Additional positions for librarians and guidance counselors may be filed by secondary schools according to a specified minimum average daily attendance.

"In the event that the average daily attendance of pupils . . . increases or decreases substantially . . . after the completion of the third month of . . . attendance, the Commissioner of Education . . . may review the allocation of teaching positions under the minimum foundation program with the view of increasing or decreasing the number of [currently allocated] positions . . . ."

PP. 71 --74

SCHOOL TERM

School terms shall "not be less than 175 days;" and the "actual time that pupils are required to be in school shall be at least 6 1/2 hours." School programs shall be organized differently according to grade levels.

"School systems and schools are encouraged to experiment with the combination of two or more instructional areas."

A major requirement concerns the administration of schools, including teacher assignments, pupil load, the internal organization of a school, record and reports of pupils' progress, salaries and certification for all professional personnel according to standards and requirements established by the State Board of Education, and rules on pupil observance of religious holidays.

Maximum membership of any class shall vary, according to grade levels, between 25 pupils and 35 pupils.

p. 102

"[T]wo or more teachers shall not use the same classroom at the same time for teaching two or more different classes."

REGULATIONS

pp. 22-27

The number of system-wide positions for the minimum foundation school program of a local school system shall be determined according to the number of allowed teaching positions under the stated pupil-teacher ratio standards in both elementary and secondary schools.

Supervising teachers of instruction shall hold a "valid supervisor's certificate" and shall have "three years' experience in actual school work." Materials supervisors shall hold a valid teacher's certificate equal to, at least, a Bachelor of Arts degree, with three years' experience in actual school work, and shall "exhibit competence in the field of instructional materials . . . and/or a willingness to pursue . . . formal training . . . ."

School food service supervisors shall hold a Bachelor of Arts degree in Home Economics, with experience in school food service programs.

Guidance counselors shall hold either a certificate endorsement as guidance counselors or a valid teacher's certificate "to work at the grade levels assigned", as is the case of guidance associates, whose certificates shall be valid for five years. Guidance associates will be responsible to guidance counselors and assist them "in the overall development of guidance activities . . . ."

School psychologists "shall hold a valid school psychology certificate." Supervisors of programs for exceptional and handicapped children shall hold "a valid Tennessee supervisor's certificate [with] three years' experience" in related programs; and a Master's degree. Teachers of exceptional and handicapped children shall "hold a valid Tennessee teacher's certificate or permit . . . [and] be approved by the State Commissioner of Education when employed in an experimental program."

Attendants, teacher aides, and paraprofessional personnel shall at least have a high school education and some experience to "serve in the specific role for which they will be employed."

TEACHER

STATUTES

§1112

"All teachers of any type of high school . . . shall be qualified by education or otherwise for giving instruction in the subjects of the course of study, and no person shall be employed to teach any subject. . . who does not hold a certificate issued by the state commissioner of education authorizing him, or her, to teach . . . ."

Certificates to teach shall be uniform. Credits earned through correspondence school or work from the university, after approved by the Board, "shall be accepted as credit for certification of local school district superintendents, supervisors, principals and teachers. No person holding a certificate can change or alter it or let someone else use it.

If for some reason the school system is unable to find a qualified certified teacher for a position, a permit may be issued to a person recommended by the superintendent. This permit is renewable. The permit is valid and the teacher can be employed only until such time as a qualified certified teacher can be found.

The state board of education has jurisdiction over "the issuance and administration of certificates." The board is also authorized and empowered to set up rules and regulations governing certificates.

No person employed as a teacher in the school system shall work without a certificate. This does not apply to student teachers. The student teacher shall have all the rights of a certified teacher and shall be subject to the same rules and regulations of certified teachers.

§1303

No one who has any custody or care of students can be an alien of the U.S. Professors and teachers "who are citizens of other nations may be employed on a temporary basis." Also, no one advocating the overthrow of the American law can be a teacher, either temporarily or permanently.

MINIMUM STANDARDS

Tennessee public schools shall meet a set of minimum requirements to be approved by the State Commissioner of Education. Forms for approval must be filed before October 15 by the "superintendent of each county, city and special school district," with the State Commissioner of Education. He/she may "hold in abeyance" an individual school's application if it is "virtually impossible for [it] to meet certain requirements for approval," following a waiver request by the superintendent of schools.

The first major requirement is a state curriculum framework.

At the level of a local school system, it includes the state's educational goals, a system-wide organization for curriculum improvement and for inservice education, textbooks, and required courses for instruction.

For individual schools, the curriculum framework shall consist of an instructional program within the state-wide and system-wide framework, inservice education programs "to improve the school curriculum and promote the continuous professional growth of all personnel," an evaluation program of pupil progress and promotion, and a grading system.

Areas of instruction in each individual school shall include the arts (music, art, drama); health education, physical education, and safety education (with emphasis on driver and pedestrian safety); language arts (English language and foreign languages); mathematics; science and conservation; social studies (with emphasis on "Man and his ways of living, both past and present"); general education; exploratory courses on business, agriculture, and home economics; and vocational education.

The curriculum for exceptional and handicapped children shall be an integral part of the general curriculum of the school. Appropriate teaching guides shall be developed for severely mentally retarded children.

School Board Member

Statutes

§216; 217

Any member creating debts beyond the budget for the school year or misappropriating funds shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine.

No member of the board or of the quarterly county court shall make, as an adverse party, any contract which his/her board is competent to make, but he/she may enter into a contract with the board "to teach any of the schools coming under the provisions of this title." A member may also contract with the board to work within the school system.

SCHOOL PERSONNEL

REGULATIONS

P. 81

Teachers or principals must hold valid Tennessee teachers' certificates or permits.

"Local boards of education shall develop evaluative procedures for all professional school personnel. The evaluative procedure shall be designed for the purpose of improving the instructional program. The evaluative criteria shall be on file with the Commissioner of Education.

EVALUATION

Annual evaluation shall be made of probationary teachers with tenure teachers being evaluated once every three years. Tenure teachers may be evaluated on a staggered basis."

STATUTES

§233

No city school system shall be created or reactivated unless it is large enough to offer "adequate educational opportunities." In establishing standards, the board shall take into consideration the scholastic population of the city, the financial ability of each pupil, and the willingness of the people to raise local funds.

§1922 -- 1923

Local boards of education may set aside time that students and faculty can use for prayer. This period is not to be used for school work.

It is lawful for a teacher to permit the voluntary participation by students in prayer. The form or content of prayers shall not be prescribed by the teacher or any other school authority.

REGULATIONS

pp. 3 — 7

The State Board of Education has set forth ten basic goals of education for the state's students, leaving to "the local education agency the responsibility for defining the goals in specific terms for students in any particular setting."

EDUCATIONAL GOALS

Every person should: 1) have competence in the fundamentals of learning and communication; 2) develop skills and attitudes which facilitate learning; 3) have sufficient information to realize his/her life goals; 4) know the principles, habits and attitudes conducive to good physical and mental health; 5) establish and maintain satisfactory relationships with other persons; 6) know and practice the basic requirements of responsible citizenship; 7) have competence in the use of natural resources and in the maintenance of ecological balance; 8) acquire career information and economic competence; 9) appreciate cultural and aesthetic values; 10) be aware of the increasing interdependence among people and nations of the world.

STATUTES

§1116

After completion of course of study, pupils shall be given certificates of promotion to the next grade of the school system and after completion of high school students shall be given a diploma.

REGULATIONS

pp. 81 — 89

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

"To meet the requirements for graduation, a pupil shall have attained an approved attendance, conduct, and subject matter record which covers a planned program of education, and this record shall be kept on file in the principal's or superintendent's office."

In grades 9 through 12, the following pattern of courses shall be required of all students:

English Language Arts	4 units
Mathematics	1 unit
American History	1 unit
Physical Education	1 unit
Health Education	1/2 unit
Science	1 unit
Economics	1/2 unit
Electives	9 units
Total	18 units

There exists a listing of courses which may be offered for credit in grades 9 through 12. It does not prohibit local school systems from offering instruction in additional areas with the approval by the State Board of Education. The minimum requirement for granting one unit of credit shall be "175 class periods of not less than 60 minutes gross."

SUPERINTENDENT

STATUTES

§225

It is a misdemeanor for a superintendent to "take any other contract under the board of education or to perform any other service for additional compensation . . . or . . . to act as principal or teacher . . . or to become the owner of a school warrant other than that allowed for his [her] service as superintendent."

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

TEACHER

STATUTES

§1412 — 1415

No teacher shall be dismissed or suspended except for "incompetence, inefficiency, neglect of duty, unprofessional conduct and insubordination . . . ."

SUSPENSION

A teacher may be suspended any time it is deemed necessary, pending an investigation of the case; but, if reinstated, the teacher must receive all pay lost during suspension.

All charges made against a teacher that could cause dismissal must be in writing, "specifically stating the offenses."

DISMISSAL

If the charges warrant a dismissal, the superintendent shall give the teacher a written notice and a form listing all the rights, duties and recourses of the teacher.

§1416 — 1417

NOTICE
HEARING

"A teacher, after having received notice of charges against [him]her, may within thirty days after receipt of notice, demand a hearing before the board . . . . The teacher shall give written notice to the superintendent of the request for a hearing."

"[He/she] may appear at the hearing and plead his[her] cause in person or by counsel."

Witnesses and evidence may be presented by the teacher. The board shall decide the case within 10 days. Judicial review may be obtained by petitioning the county's chancery court. Filing of the petition suspends the decision of the board.

REVIEW

§1419 -- 1420

Local or private tenure laws shall not be affected by these statutes while local laws are still operative.

TENURE

If it is desired that local tenure systems be incorporated into state tenure systems, notice shall be placed in the papers and a hearing shall be held at which interested parties will have a chance to speak. After the hearing, the board shall conduct a referendum of the teachers in the system, and, if a majority votes for the merger, then the referendum will be sent to the commissioner for approval.

§1423

The state board of education is authorized to establish a tenure system for those not already covered by this statute. This system shall include such standards and requirements as: qualifications of teachers eligible for tenure; types of tenure; leaves; termination of tenure; transfers; dismissals and suspension; and other subjects taken into consideration under already existing tenure systems.

A. QUALIFICATION STANDARDS FOR SCHOOLS AND SCHOOL DISTRICTS

1. ACCREDITATION

STATUTES

§16.053

"Each school district must be accredited by the Central Education Agency."

§16.102

"Regular education program personnel units shall be allotted to each school district on the basis of the district's current average daily attendance. . . for the best 170 days of the 180-day school term. . . ."

Average daily attendance is determined by subtracting from a district's average daily attendance, the "average daily full-time equivalent student attendance in vocational and special education programs." Said attendance is determined "by applying to the average daily attendance in the programs the ratio of the number of hours per school day devoted to the programs to six hours."

Allocation of personnel units on the basis of average daily attendance shall be as follows:

"1) one personnel unit for each 19 students in average daily attendance in kindergarten and grades 1 through 3;"

2) one for each 21 students in grades 4 through six;

3) one for each 20 students in grades 7 through 9; and

4) one for each 18 students in grades 10 through 12.

"The personnel unit allotment for a school district which contains at least 300 square miles and which has not more than 1000 students in average daily attendance in its regular education program shall be adjusted according to the following formula:

$$[1 + (1000 - ADA)(.000455)] \times RPV = APV$$

where RPV is the district's regular personnel units determined as elaborated above; and APV is the district's adjusted personnel units.

Fractional personnel units shall be rounded off to the nearest whole unit.

School districts may use their personnel units for any combination of personnel, classified under the Public Education Compensation Plan (§16.056) which they feel "will best meet the needs of the students in the district." However, the "total of the number of personnel units for each position chosen multiplied by the personnel unit value for that position specified in the salary schedule may not exceed the total number of personnel units to which the district is entitled . . . . The commissioner, with the approval of the State Board . . . shall establish minimum standards for staffing patterns for all personnel.

. . . A district need not employ personnel for the full number of personnel units to which it is entitled."

§23.50

Any district failing to comply with the provisions of the subchapter on the budget will lose its accreditation.

REGULATIONS

§2301

"The accredited status of a school district is dependent upon compliance with policy 3712, the principles and standards for accreditation, which includes the List of Approved Courses - Grades 7-12."

§2306.6-.9

"Any official, administrator, or employer of a school district who is convicted of violating state statutes governing his/her duties and responsibilites is subject to penalties as provided by law in the following area:

1) violation of duty as school census trustees;

2) interference with operation of Foundation School Program;

3) failure to comply with budget requirements;

4) violations by treasurer or depository;

5) improper payment of salaries;

6) unlawful inquiry into religious affiliation;

7) failure to transfer pupils and funds;

8) alteration of teacher certificate;

9) approving voucher without certificate;

10) failure to teach Texas History; and

11) failure to teach patriotism."

TEXAS HISTORY

PATRIOTISM

"Each school district shall provide a course of study as required by law, the Texas Education Agency, and Policy 3712, the principles and standards for accreditation."

Each accredited school district shall provide for a school plant that:

1) is suitable in design, size and equipment;

2) has available an adequate maintenance and custodial service;

3) has had its specifications examined and approved by the superintendent of schools and by the board of trustees;

4) conforms to statutory specifications in order to facilitate the use of the building by handicapped persons.

Each school district is encouraged to adopt policies for maintaining law and order. This includes:

1) protection of land in use by schools;

2) loitering on school property; and

3) interference with the peaceful operation of the public schools.

"To operate as an accredited school, any public or non-public school shall make a request to the Texas Education Agency, meet accreditation standards, and be approved as an accredited school. The decision to become accredited shall indicate automatic acceptance of the State Principles and Standards for Accreditation. . . ."

"Accreditation of a school shall be based on self-evaluation and state evaluation. Following the evaluations, a school shall be placed in one of the following categories by the Commission on School Accreditation

1) Accredited;
2) Advised;
3) Warned; or
4) Unaccredited."

"The accreditation process shall be a voluntary program available to each school system and shall be the basis for establishing and operating a comprehensive educational program as in Policy 3211.

"The accreditation process shall be administered by the Commissioner of Education with the advice of the State Commission on School Accreditation (Policy 3714), and the approval of the State Board of Education."

SELF EVALUATION

"When a school first decides it wishes to become accredited, it conducts a self-evaluation and requests an accreditation visit. Schools which are already accredited are revisited periodically. A revisit may be either a survey visit or a regular accreditation visit.

Visits are carried out during the school year by teams made up of Agency personnel. During visits, the schools' resources and operations are observed to ascertain to what extent accreditation standards are being met. Following each visit, the team prepares a written report emphasizing shortcomings observed.

A survey visit report normally makes recommendations concerning needed improvements and allows for the development of written plans and priorities by the local school in preparation for an accreditation visit at a specified later date. It is possible, however, for a survey visit to result in the recommendation that the school be continued as fully accredited.

An accreditation visit report always makes a recommendation that the school be (1) granted accreditation or be continued as fully accredited, (2) advised that standards are not being fully met, or (3) warned of serious violations of standards. Once a school has been advised or warned, it is visited annually until it is fully cleared or has its accreditation removed.

The procedure by which principles and standards for school accreditation are adopted or altered are as follows:

(1) After consultation with Agency staff and school personnel, the Division of School Accreditation makes recommendations concerning the adoption or substantial alteration of principles and standards.

(2) The recommendations are presented to the Commission on School Accreditation. If approved, they are then presented to the State Board of Education.

(3) The State Board of Education is requested to approve the recommended principles and standards for study purposes. If approval is granted, the new principles and standards are distributed to all public schools in the State.

(4) During the ensuing school year, use of the new principles and standards is optional for local school districts. The new provisions are explained and discussed at meetings of school administrators.

(5) If, after one school year of study and optional use of the new provisions, it is felt by the Commission on School Accreditation that further study is needed, the State Board of Education is requested to approve an extension of the experimental phase for one additional year.

(6) If, on the other hand, the new principles and standards are found to be acceptable after one year of their optional use by local districts, the State Board of Education is requested to adopt them officially. If approval is granted, the new provisions are effective the following school year."

"The accreditation program shall provide for the determination of progress being made by each school district, institution or special school toward establishing and maintaining a comprehensive educational program, Policy 3210, or a special education program by applying the Principles and Standards for Accrediting Elementary and Secondary Schools (Agency Bulletin 560) or Principles and Standards for Accrediting Institutional and Special Schools as recommended by the State Commission on School Accreditation, Policy 3714, and approved by the State Board of Education.

"These principles and standards shall be distributed to all school districts.

"The Principles and Standards for Accrediting Elementary and Secondary Schools shall be as follows:

PRINCIPLES AND STANDARDS

PRINCIPLE I

There is a community setting conducive to the operation of a high quality educational program.

STANDARDS

1. The community has a financial plan in operation which ensures adequate support for the educational program.

"The superintendent and the board of trustees have developed a budget to provide an adequate educational program[;]. . . .

"The community supports a financial plan for the educational program with an adequate tax rate, a realistic percentage of property value for tax purposes, and periodic re-examination of property valuation.

"Contributions and donations by individuals and civic groups are not considered as a substitute for adequate financial support.

"All sources of tax money may be considered as a means of providing adequate financial support.

"2. The community gives active support, in addition to financial, to the school and its program, fostering good school-community relations.

"There is evidence that the public is kept informed on the school program.

"The community is encouraged to participate in school activities.

"Members of the faculty are encouraged to participate in civic affairs.

"Meetings of the board of trustees are open ot the public except for executive sessions.

"3. The public, church-related, and private schools in the community exchange information needed to develop a united effort for the education of youth.

"The schools concerned agree to policies for transfer of students from one school to another.

"4. Although schools operated for profit are not eligible for accreditation, nonpublic schools which meet accreditation standards may be accredited.

"To be eligible for accreditation nonpublic schools operate either within the framework of a regularly established church government or under the direction of a duly established, nonsalaried, nonprofessional governing board.

"Private elementary schools are not eligible for accreditation unless such schools operate at least a six-grade program of instruction.

PRINCIPLE II

"Each school system is operated in accordance with all constitutional and statutory provisions. Responsibility for interpreting these provisions lies with the board of school trustees except where formal interpretation of usch provision has been made by the courts or other constituted authority.

PRINCIPLE III

"The board of trustees functions chiefly as a policy-making and appraisal body.

STANDARDS

"1. The board of trustees has developed, codified, duplicated, and made available to all school employees and to the public the policies that cover the operation of the school.

"In addition to the general and specific policies required for school operation, attention is directed to the following standards:

Principle	Standard
III	3	Appraising the effectiveness of the school program through self-evaluation
	4	Orderly hearings on appeals by aggrieved parties
	5	Admitting transfers from unaccredited schools
	6	Assessing performance of the professional staff
V	1	Job descriptions for the professional staff
VI	11	Individual pupils who cannot meet physical education requirements because of schedule conflicts
	13	Athletic program
	14	Summer schools
	16	Control of credit by correspondence courses
	18	Guidance and counseling services
	20	Health services
	25	Credit by demonstration of competence
VII	4	Job descriptions for the nonprofessional staff
	5	Professional growth and inservice education of the staff, including definite allocations of funds and staff time

HEARING

APPEAL

"2. The board of trustees holds regularly scheduled meetings, which the public may attend, and keeps an official public record.

"The public is informed of the dates of regular and, when possible, of all special meetings.

"Minutes of the meetings reflect total transactions of board considerations and, when approved, bear the signature of the secretary and president.

"Policies approved by the board are recorded in the minutes and placed in the official school board policies.

"Names of members present and absent are recorded at each meeting.

"All meetings are open to the public except meetings devoted to personnel matters, real estate transactions, and matters affecting security.

"3. The board of trustees has approved procedures for assessing the effectiveness of the educational program.

"Evaluation procedures provide for:

Self-evaluation on a continuing basis to assess pupil growth in terms of the stated objectives

Collection of relevant information

Identification of program deficiencies and recognition of strengths

Plans for correction of deficiencies

Reporting findings to the staff, school board, and community

"4. The board of trustees has a definite written procedure providing for orderly hearings on appeals by aggrieved parties.

"5. Written policies have been developed for admitting pupils who transfer from unaccredited schools.

"6. The board of trustees has approved procedures for assessing the performance of the professional staff.

"The procedures include:

Establishing criteria for evaluating competency in performance based upon the job description

Making provisions for annual evaluations

Outlining procedures for using the evaluation in prescribing inservice and professional growth activities

Placing the results of the evaluations in the personnel file

PRINCIPLE IV

"The policies adopted by the board of trustees clearly define the relationship between the school board and the superintendent of schools.

STANDARDS

"1. The board of trustees recognizes the superintendent as its chief executive officer and charges him[her] with the administrative function.

"The board clearly defines the duties of the superintendent of schools.

"The board minutes clearly delineate between the policy making and appraisal functions of the school board and the administrative functions of the superintendent.

"Official actions or decisions are made only in official meetings of the board.

"2. The superintendent prepares the agenda for meetings of the board of trustees, makes regular and special reports on school operation, submits the budget for consideration and approval, and administers the budget after it is adopted.

"An official agenda is prepared for each official meeting and is retained as a part of the supporting records.

"The superintendent consults with the president or presiding officer in preparing the agenda.

PRINCIPLE V

"The superintendent of schools has developed written administrative policies, approved by the board of trustees, governing the operation of the school.

STANDARDS

"1. The Superintendent recommends all employees for action by the board of trustees. Assignments based on job descriptions are to positions authorized by the board.

"The superintendent or his[her] designated representative is responsible for reviewing the qualifications of prospective employees, assures the board that they meet the standards of professional preparation for the position authorized and have appropriate credentials for the assigned position.

"2. All employees understand the nature of their duties and, in the performance of such duties, are supervised by the superintendent or his[her] designated representatives.

"Employees are provided the necessary materials to perform their duties.

"Staff members participate in the planned program for in-service education.

"New personnel are orientated to the total school program.

"Supervision is provided to coordinate and improve instruction and to assist teachers.

"3. The cooperation of the school staff is sought in formulating and executing the educational plans for the school system.

"The professional knowledge of the total staff is utilized in the development and improvement of the instructional program.

"The staff participates in educational planning.

"The staff is encouraged to submit recommendations for improving the instructional program.

"Teachers are involved in the adoption, selection, and evaluation of instructional materials, supplies, and equipment.

"4. All policies of the board of trustees which affect teacher personnel and the instructional program are in written form and are transmitted, with interpretations as needed, to the school staff.

PRINCIPLE VI

"There is a planned instructional program in operation that leads to discovering and meeting the needs of preschool and in-school children and youth, and of out-of-school youth and adults.

STANDARDS

"1. The school plans and operates a program for the educational development of young children.

"The school fulfills its obligation by:

"Incorporating Foundation School Program kindergarten into the primary continuum.

"Identifying problems affecting prekindergarten children in the community.

"Surveying resources for solutions to these problems.

"Communicating with parents and with public and private agencies.

"Developing with parents and with public and private agencies recommended programs of pre-kindergarten education.

"2. The school has a plan in operation for meeting the educational needs of out-of-school youth and adults.

"Additional and continuing education for out-of-school youth and adults is demonstrated by:

"Assessing educational needs of individuals

"Utilizing public and private agencies with similar objectives to plan, develop, and operate appropriate programs.

"Providing, according to needs with available resources, appropriate classes according to the State Plan for Adult Education.

3. Emphasis is placed upon teaching the facts of, and developing appreciation for, all phases of the American heritage, including culture, language, and life style diversities.

AMERICAN HERITAGE

"Teachers plan activities designed to develop understanding and appreciation of American history and traditions within appropriate content of all subject areas.

"Pupils participate in meaningful patriotic ceremonies commemorating key historical dates and events. Each subject, where appropriate, leads to an appreciation and knowledge of various cultural groups in Texas, including identifiable groups within the region.

"4. The school has a planned program which identifies, appraises, provides instruction, and maintains contact with pupils who have special learning problems and with pupils who have special learning potentials.

"Services in the school and in the community for diagnosis of learning difficulties and potentials have been surveyed.

"Screening and referral procedures are known to teachers and counselors.

"Communication is maintained among persons involved in diagnosis, instruction, and evaluation.

"The school plans a program which accommodates significant differences in physical, intellectual, aesthetic, social and emotional development.

"Teachers are aware of the range of learning disabilities which cause interference in educational achievement, such as problems in rate and patterns of learning, reasoning, language, culture, motivation, attitude, and aptitude.

"Individual or small group instruction and remediation are available for pupils with special learning problems.

"Teachers recognize the learning potential of superior and talented pupils. They make adaptations in curriculum and instruction for pupils whose intelligence, giftedness, and creativity need recognition and stimulation.

COURSE OF STUDY

"5. Each elementary school maintains a balanced curriculum offering, including English language arts, science, mathematics, social studies, art, drama, music, health, physical education, and if desired, modern foreign languages. Each subject is based upon a State description and local instructional plans.

"The elementary school curriculum is considered to be balanced when all offerings listed above are included in the instructional program for every pupil. The responsibility for enabling all children to participate actively in a balanced curriculum program which is designed to meet individual needs rests with the local school district.

"The daily schedule includes the areas of English language arts, science, mathematics, social studies, and physical education. The time allocated for instruction in each of these areas is determined by results of the needs assessment conducted by the local school district (Principle III, Standard 3) and by diagnosis of individual pupil competencies and deficiencies. The daily schedule meets statutory and accreditation requirements in terms of clock hours (Principle IX, Standard 3).

"The weekly schedule includes art, music, drama, and health. A balanced curriculum does not stress one of these areas to the detriment of others in the total program. In addition to being treated as separate subjects, art, music, and drama support all areas of the elementary curriculum.

"Teaching guides in each grade include instruction in citizenship, conservation, and safety.

"Pupils show pride in thier school, community, and country.

"The United States and Texas flags are displayed properly and the Pledge of Allegiance is given on appropriate occasions. Holidays are observed with understanding.

"Documents of historical significance are used effectively in instruction.

"Pupils respect and abide by the laws of the community, state, and nation.

"Instruction on the essentials and benefits of the free enterprise system is included in the social studies and, when appropriate, in other subjects such as business education and vocational education.

"Conservation instruction includes study of methods applicable to soil, water, forests, minerals, and wildlife.

"Safety instruction is coordinated by a professional staff member.

"Procedures have been developed to meet emergencies: accidents, fire, war, and disasters due to natural phenomena.

"Career education, drug education, and safety education are integrated into all areas of the program. The inclusion of modern foreign languages and industrial arts in the elementary curriculum is encouraged. Bilingual education is made available in the elementary curriculum for children whose home language is a language other than English (Standard 8).

"Local instructional plans are in written form. They specify goals and objectives; describe procedures for diagnosis, prescription and evaluation in terms of individual pupil progress and curriculum balance; and provide for cooperative planning by professional and nonprofessional staff members.

"6. Citizenship, conservation of natural resources, understanding of the free enterprise system, and safety are taught as a part of the instructional program.

"Citizenship, conservation of natural resources, understanding of the free enterprise system, and safety are correlated with instruction in science, social studies, art, and other subjects.

"Pupils participate regularly in safety instruction: accident prevention, supervised safety drills, and, in grades 4-6, minor first aid.

"First aid equipment is readily available; at least one staff member is competent to render first aid.

"7. The school has a planned instructional program in operation that leads to discovering and meeting the needs of exceptional children and youth.

"A continuing survey is maintained to identify children and youth who are blind, partially sighted, physically handicapped (school-room, homebound or hospitalized, and minimally brain injured), deaf, mentally retarded (educable and trainable), and those requiring speech and hearing therapy.

"If a sufficient number of exceptional children live in the district special classes are organized and provided according to the State Plan for Special Education.

"If the number of children living in the district is insufficient for a program, provision for the education of these children is made on a cooperative basis with other school districts.

"Physical facilities compare with those in the other school programs and are sufficiently large to utilize special equipment and materials necessary in the differentiated curriculum.

"Instructional programs for exceptional children are comparable in quality with other instructional programs in the school and are designed to meet the pupils' individual needs.

"Integration of exceptional children into regular classes which provide profitable educational experiences is done routinely on a selective basis.

"Regular evaluation is made of programs and their progress toward meeting the needs of exceptional children.

"Instructional programs for exceptional children except for the trainable mentally retarded lead to high school graduation.

"8. The school has a planned bilingual instruction program for children whose home language is a language other than English. Both the child's home language and English are used as mediums for instruction.

"The bilingual program consists of the following components:

"The basic concepts initiating the child into the school environment are taught in the language brought from home.

"Language development is provided in the child's home language.

"English is introduced and developed in accordance with the child's linguistic capabilities.

"Subject matter and concepts are taught in the child's home language.

"Specific attention is given to development in the child of a positive self-concept, confidence, identity with his[her] cultural heritage.

"Children of limited English-speaking ability are given first priority in the bilingual program. For greater enhancement of the total program, however, all children at all levels may be included.

"Bilingual programs are recommended for the years K-3 as a minimum, and should continue beyond the third grade for those children needing it.

"9. Each accredited secondary school (grades 7-12) makes available to pupils the following subjects based upon State description of courses and local courses of study.

COURSE OF STUDY

"English (six years)

"Mathematics (six years) including one year of Algebra and one year of Geometry

"Science (six years) including Biology, Chemistry, and Physics.

"Social studies (six years) including one year of Texas History and Geography in Grade 7; two years of American History, including one year of American History in any grade; 9-12; one year of either World History Studies or World Geography Studies in any grade, 9-12;

one-half year or two quarters of American Government which includes study of the Texas and United States Constitutions. Incorporate within the required courses of American History, World History Studies or World Geography Studies, and American Government instruction on the essentials and benefits of the free enterprise system.

"Physical Education (six years). . .

"Health. . .

"Vocational education programs offered according to pupil needs and actual or anticipated opportunities for gainful employment.

"A foreign language program offered according to local needs.

"An elective course on the free enterprise system (one semester unit or one quarter unit). . .

"Additional elective courses sufficient to meet the requirements for pupils in grades 7 through 12.

"10. All pupils complete the following subjects in grades 7 and 8.

Subject

English, Language Arts

Mathematics

Social Studies

Texas History and Geography; American History and Citizenship which includes the first part of the two-year program in American History

Science

Physical Education

"English language arts includes reading, literature, composition (oral and written), spelling, grammar, usage, and mechanics.

"Social studies includes a minimum of 130 clock hours in Texas History and Geography, Grade 7; a minimum of 130 clock hours in the study of American History and Citizenship, Grade 8, which is the first part of a two-year

American History program to be continued in any grade, 9-12.

"Science is taught by the laboratory method and organized according to one of the following plans:

Plan A: Life Science (65 clock hours) and Earth Science (65 clock hours) in grades 7 and/or 8, as a minimum or Plan B: General Science (130 clock hours) including Life, Earth, and Physical Science, in grades 7 and/ 8, as a minimum.

"In addition to the required subjects, pupils will complete 450 clock hours from the subjects listed below.

Foreign Languages, Art, Music, General Homemaking, Health Occupational Training, Speech, Drama, Typewriting, Industrial Arts, Science, Physical Education.

"11. All pupils must complete at least the equivalent of 18 units to receive a high school diploma.

"The required 18 units include the following specified subjects:

"English (3 units or 9 quarter units)

World History Studies or World Geography Studies (1 unit or 3 quarter units)

American History (1 unit or 3 quarter units) (Includes the second year of a two-year program begun in Grade 8)

American Government (1/2 unit or 2 quarter units)

Mathematics (2 units or 6 quarter units)

Science (2 units or 6 quarter units)

Physical Education (1 1/2 units or 5 quarter units)

Health Education (1/2 unit or 2 quarter units)

Six and one-half units or 19 quarter units of electives from the 'List of Approved Courses, Grades 7-12.'

"Courses taught as a part of the basic graduation requirements in grades 7012 follow titles, credits, prerequisites, and time allotments found in "List of Approved Courses, Grades 7-12.

"Schools desiring to develop courses not in the 'List of Approved Courses, Grades 7-12' submit a course description to the Division of School Accreditation, Texas Education Agency, for approval to teach such a course, and submit an evaluation at the close of the year.

"Schools desiring to develop courses not in the 'List of Approved Courses, Grades 7-12' submit a course description to the Division of School Accreditation, Texas Education Agency, for approval to teach such a course, and submit an evaluation at the close of the year.

"Credit for a course not included in the approved list but given individual approval by the Division of School Accreditation, Texas Education Agency, for approval to teach such a course, and submit an evaluation at the close of the year.

"Credit for a course not included in the approved list but given individual approval by the Division of School Accreditation may be used in the minimum 18 units required for high school graduation under two conditions:
(1) if the course has been approved and taught once; and
(2) if the evaluation report submitted at the close of the course justifies its continuation and specifies how it will be used in meeting graduation requirements.

MATHEMATICS

a. The graduation requirement in mathematics must be fulfilled by credit for any two units or six quarter units from the State List of Approved Courses. Local board policy ensures that the school will assist the pupil, with the approval of his[her] parents, in selecting the courses appropriate to his[her] needs in moving toward his[her] educational goals.

SCIENCE

b. The science requirement of two units or six quarter units may be fulfilled in one of the following ways:

Completion of two units or six quarter units of science taught by the laboratory method selected from the science courses for grades 9-12.

Completion of 130 clock hours of science taught by the laboratory method as described in the requirements for grades 7 and 8 (this work in grades 7 and 8 is not to be counted as one of the 18 basic high school units).

and one unit or three quarter units of science taught by the laboratory method from the science courses for grades 9-12.

DRIVER EDUCATION

c. Driver Education may be offered to students who are 15 years of age but may not be one of the 18 basic units required for graduation.

Driver Education, if offered, is available for all students 15 years of age or older.

The course is scheduled and taught in compliance with the Standards for an Approved Course in Driver Education in Texas Schools, adopted jointly by the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Public Safety, 1970.

The appropriate curriculum guide is required for the type of instruction being given. The guides are:

. Curriculum Guide for Driver Education
. Curriculum Guide for Simulation and In-Car Instruction
. Curriculum Guide for Multi-Car Driving Range

Each of the guides is published by the Texas Education Agency, and the latest revision is to be used.

Instructors are scheduled to teach no more than six . . . hours each day, including class, in-car instruction, and other subjects.

HEALTH

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

d. The requirement in Health Education and Physical Education should be completed by one-half unit or two quarter units in Health Education and one and one-half units or five quarter units of Physical Education according to the approved State description of courses.

Students are classified for physical education on the basis of health into one of the following:

Unrestricted -- not limited in activities and includes participation in inter-school athletics

Restricted -- excludes the more vigorous activities but includes a limited participation in intra-mural activities

Adapted and remedial -- specific activities prescribed or prohibited for students so classified. The doctor uses this classification rather than a medical excuse

e. The local school may develop a plan, approved by the local board of education, which allows individual pupils to be graduated without fully meeting the physical education requirements. This plan should not waive the requirement for one-half unit of Health Education . . . . Such a plan provides that:

Such pupils are participating in courses or activities that contribute to physical fitness such as band, cooperative vocational programs, and vocational shop programs.

The pupil receives at least 80 clock hours of health instruction.

A pupil who has not completed the requirement in physical education will resume instruction in this subject when the conflict in scheduling is resolved.

Valid physical fitness tests are used to determine the pupil's physical abilities and evaluate his[her] progress.

The permanent record of the pupil includes physical fitness evaluations and the alternative courses taken . . . .

No units of credit are given in physical education to pupils participating in this plan.

12. Foreign languages offered are taught in sequence.

Elementary

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Only modern foreign languages are considered appropriate in the elementary school, and the selection of the language to be taught reflects the cultural and geographic needs of the community.

The program reflects the sequential development of the linguistic skills, beginning with listening and speaking, followed by reading and writing. The study of the cultural patterns of the country or countries whose language is being studied is an integral part of the program.

At least 20-minute sessions from three to five times a week are scheduled in the school day.

Teachers of modern foreign languages present evidence of proficiency in the four basic language skills or are in the process of developing these skills. Preparation includes knowledge of principles of language learning, the foreign culture and civilization, and methods and techniques of teaching foreign languages.

The elementary program has continuity, is coordinated between schools, and is articulated with the junior high and high school program.

Secondary Classical

Although the primary objective of the study of Latin is to read the original works of Roman authors with comprehension, the other language skills of listening, speaking, and writing are an integral part of the instruction.

Secondary Modern

Adequate provision should be made for separate grouping of beginning foreign language students and those with foreign language training in the elementary grades. Students with demonstrated ability are considered for advanced placement.

A capable student is recommended to study the same foreign language for a minimum of three years. Superior language students may be encouraged to select a second foreign language while continuing with the first.

A foreign language in grades 7 and 8 is offered for a minimum of 130 clock hours per year. Each year of secondary instruction (7-12) should enable the student to advance to the next level in the sequence. . . .

The testing program evaluates skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing and the cultural patterns of the country or countries whose language is being studied.

13. Schools limit individual pupils to one period during the regularly scheduled school day for practice of inter-school competitive athletics and for programs in which body conditioning, training, or other activities in one of the team sports is the objective of the teacher and pupils.

Schools using one period per day for activities in competitive athletics:

Have written board policies which outline the athletic program and state the beginning and ending dates of each team sport.

Develop written guides for each team sport of the inter-school competitive athletic program stating the educational objectives and expected pupil outcomes.

Limit pupils to one 55-minute period during the regular school day for participation in competitive athletic activities and physical education.

Provide for athletes in their off season a physical education class conducted according to a course outline that includes lifetime sports and other carry-over activities.

Require a minimum of 80 clock hours of health instruction.

Limit the amount of credit earned in this manner to one and one-half units or five quarter units which may be counted in the minimum 18 units required for graduation.

14. Summer school programs meet the standards of the regular term except where special provisions apply.

The summer program must be operated according to written policies of the board of trustees.

The summer school program is administered by a specifically assigned staff member with the appropriate administrative endorsement. He[she] has the authority and available time during the regular school term to plan and organize the summer school program of the district.

Library programs and instructional resources are available on the same basis as during the regular term.

Courses from the 'List of approved Courses, Grades 7-12' offered in summer school programs are comparable, insofar as content and achievements standards are concerned, to the same courses taught in the regular term.

Regular school course guides and teaching plans when used in summer school are adjusted to compensate for differences in length of daily class periods and in the number of calendar days.

The summer school equivalent of one full unit in a regular term is 140 clock hours net instructional time. One quarter unit incorporates 47 clock hours. Net instructional time is defined as exclusive of registration, holidays and daily class breaks.

A maximum of 1 1/2 units or five quarter units may be earned in a summer term; however, a school may allow students to earn more than these specified amounts with special permission of the Division of School Accreditation, Texas Education Agency.

No individual teacher is assigned more than six hours of classroom teaching per day.

Pupils secure prior approval from school officials before enrolling in correspondence courses while attending summer school.

15. An adequate system of pupil personnel accounting is in operation.

Daily registers or the central accounting system are kept in accordance with recommended instructions.

Attendance accounting and supervision of teachers their pupil accounting procedures are assigned to a designated professional staff member.

Cumulative records include an account of scholastic progress, attendance, and health information.

The classroom teacher reviews records periodically and confers with supervisors, principals, nurses, and others concerning the scholastic progress and physical health status of pupils.

CORRESPONDENCE STUDY

16. The school may establish a supervised correspondence study program for in-school and out-of-school youth and adults.

The program, outlined in writing and approved by the local board of trustees, has the following characteristics:

For in-school youth:

Designates courses are to be from the University of Texas Division of Extension in Austin or the Extension Division of Texas Tech University.

Limits units earned to two of the 18 units required for graduation. (Pupils residing abroad are exempt from this limit.)

Establishes local limitations on pupil eligibility for correspondence courses.

Requires prior approval by school authorities before a pupil enrolls for correspondence courses.

Provides for assignment of staff members to supervise correspondence work.

Ensures that correspondence courses are used for emergency or enrichment only and do not become a substitute for residence work.

For out-of-school youth and adults:

Limits eligibility to individuals who are not enrolled in a day school. If individuals are under 18 years of age, verification of permanent withdrawal must be made by the principal of the last school attended.

Permits as many units as needed for graduation to be taken by correspondence.

Limits student enrollment to two correspondence courses simultaneously.

Specifies that only courses from members of the National University Extension Association or correspondence schools approved by the Division of School Accreditation may be used in public school correspondence programs.

Designates that the local district provide counseling, administrative, and clerical assistance necessary for operation of the adult program.

Requires a method for supervision of all written correspondence papers, and the administration of all final examinations.

Recommends courses be completed within a reasonable time, usually within six months from the date of registration. Extension may be considered on the basis of individual merit.

17. Graduates of each high school are awarded the same type of diploma.

The transcript rather than the diploma records individual accomplishments, achievements, and a description of the type of program completed.

18. Each school system maintains a realistic and workable program of guidance services.

The program is outlined in writing with policies approved by the local board of trustees.

Services are coordinated and administered by the professional personnel in accordance with locally approved policies.

This program of services provides for pupil appraisal and guidance in meeting the educational and vocational needs of pupils.

The guidance program operating with central coordination is a cooperative project of the entire professional staff.

The guidance services are coordinated with the regular instructional program so that together they will contribute to a unified educational program.

Teachers utilize opportunities in the classroom, in extracurricular activities, and in contacts with parents to achieve guidance objectives through group discussions, specific projects, and other appropriate methods.

The program provides vocational guidance that is realistic in the light of changing vocational opportunities.

Adequate physical facilities, equipment, and materials are provided.

19. Vocational education programs offered are operated in accordance with the Guide for Public Schools in Planning Programs of Vocational Education for In-School Students.

The Guide assists public schools in planning, establishing, conducting, and evaluating programs of vocational education.

The vocational program of the school considers:

Opportunities for gainful employment suited to the needs, interests, and abilities of students to benefit from such programs by acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary for entry upon and success in employment.

Preparation of students to become efficient homemakers in vocational homemaking education.

20. The school provides health services which include daily health observation of pupils and immunizations as required by the State Department of Health.

Health services include physical examinations, screening tests, prevention and control of communicable diseases, and provision for emergency cases.

Community health resources are used in the school's health program.

There is a plan for daily health observation and for referral of pupils who show signs of ill health.

All school employees have pre-employment and periodic physical examinations, and records of these examinations are kept along with other personnel data.

Policies of the board of trustees include provisions or facilities for:

Exclusion of pupils or employees who have communicable diseases

Emergency care of the sick

Authority to make health appraisals of pupils

Health services as may be necessary in maintaining good health among the student body.

21. The school system has in operation a planned Instructional Media Program for all pupils in all grades in keeping with the needs of each campus unit.

Professionally trained personnel with time free from other duties are responsible for planning the program and supervising services as evidenced by:

A member of the professional staff has charge of the school library program and is qualified according to one of the following plans.

A staff member serving as librarian full time holds a librarian's certificate issued by the Texas Education Agency.

A staff member serving as librarian 50 percent or more but not all of the school day has at least 12 semester hours in library science from a college or university with an approved program for preparation of school librarians.

A staff member serving as librarian less than 50 percent of the school day has at least six semester hours in library science from a college or university with an approved program for the preparation of school librarians.

A staff member serving as librarian less than 50 percent of the school day has at least six semester hours in library science from a college or university with an approved program for the preparation of school librarians.

An audio-visual specialist, the librarian, or a teacher with media competencies has charge of the nonprinted materials program.

Instructional materials and equipment are sufficient in quality and quantity to support the instructional program and are accessible to teachers and pupils at each period of the school day as evidenced by:

A balanced basic book collection of at least five titles per student

Availability of approved book selection aids

A collection of media materials such as tape and disc recordings, slides, filmstrips, [etc.]. . . .

A card catalog or current shelf list to provide an index to the materials housed in classroom collections, central collections, centralized libraries, or instructional material centers

Periodicals appropriate to age and grade levels represented on campus

Professional books and periodicals readily accessible to the staff

Physical facilities are commensurate with the school instructional program, enrollment, number and types of material, and the age of pupils to be served; all classrooms are equipped with sufficient shelving and storage for classroom materials and for collections of materials which circulate from:

A central collection of instructional media with appropriate shelving and storage accommodations in elementary schools with fewer than 20 classroom teacher units; or

A centralized library and an instructional materials center with space for seating at least two classes and with appropriate shelving, storage, equipment, and furniture in large elementary schools and all secondary schools.

An annual budget is provided to operate the program as evidenced by:

A basic book collection plus funds budgeted to acquire one book per student per year, or a plan supported by a budget and timetable to acquire the basic collection

An initial collection of instructional media and equipment plus funds budgeted to acquire a basic collection of such materials

Items budgeted for rebinding, supplies, periodicals, encyclopedias, equipment, and repair, in addition to the materials budget

Policies have been developed for effective use of instructional media by teachers and pupils as evidenced by:

A plan for use of library resources by individuals, small groups, and class groups

A plan for teaching students to use library resources

Provisions to incorporate instructional media resources into the instructional program

Indications that students are using media resources as an integral part of the teaching-learning experiences

A program of teacher orientation in audio-visual and library services and utilization of materials.

22. Opportunities are provided all pupils to participate in student activities designed to develop individual interests and aptitudes.

The pupil activity program is planned as a part of the total program.

Special abilities and interests of pupils are provided by a variety of activities such as drama, speech, music, publications, recreation, clubs, films, student council, independent study, appropriate group guidance, and pursuit of independent interests and projects.

Pupils participate in activities designed to accomplish planned educational aims suitable to age and physical condition.

23. There is evidence of respect for public and private property.

The condition of school properties and equipment reflects the effectiveness of citizenship training in the school.

Building and grounds are clean and well maintained.

The pupils, staff, and citizens show respect for school properties and equipment.

24. The plan for implementing an experimental project and later evaluative studies are reported to the Division of School Accreditation.

The report includes nature and extent of the experiment, expected outcome, and methods and procedures for evaluation.

At the end of the experiment, the school agrees to report findings to the Division of School Accreditation, Texas Education Agency.

The Texas Education Agency recognizes the need for continued experimentation and improvement of instructional practices. Standards for programs are not intended to discourage schools from engaging in planned and organized experimentation.

25. The school system may develop a plan whereby pupils in grades 9-12 obtaining knowledge or skills outside the school program may be granted credit in any subject on the list of approved courses upon demonstration of competence by examination or performance test.

TESTING

The local board of trustees will adopt policies authorizing the granting of credit by examination or performance test having the following characteristics:

Establish eligibility of students who may take the examination or performance test.

Establish procedures for pupils to take the examination or performance test. The administration should determine the time, place, length, and method of administering the examination or performance test.

Ensure that the particular examination or performance test used to validate the student's ability will verify that the student has satisfactory knowledge of the subject.

Set the passing grade for accepting student work under these conditions in accordance with grades that that are required of students attending regular classes.

Ensure that the examinations or performance tests are properly evaluated, certified by the examining teacher and the principal, and are retained as part of the pupil's permanent records.

PRINCIPLE VII

Each school employs qualified and competent personnel in reasonable ratio to the number of pupils and of grades taught.

STANDARDS

1. All professional personnel are graduates of colleges and univeristies which are (1) approved by the Texas Education Agency for teacher education programs or (2) otherwise recognized by the Texas Education Agency for public school professional employment purposes.

2. All personnel hold valid Texas teachers certificates appropriate for their current assignments.

3. Teachers are assigned in areas or subjects for which they have completed an approved program of teacher education.

An individual receiving a secondary certificate dated after September 1, 1966, must have the proper teaching field on the certificate inorder to meet standards for teaching the subject in grades 7-12.

An individual that fully met accreditation standards in effect prior to September 1, 1961, and taught the subject in grades 7-12 for one school year prior to September 1, 1962, may continue to teach the subject without additional preparation.

Teachers who are not exempt by virtue of the policy above and who are assigned to subjects in the 'List of approved Courses, Grades 7-12' that were not identified by teaching field when the initial certificate was issued meet the preparation requirements for the subject in effect when the certificate was issued.

If grades 7 and 8 are organized on a 'self-contained' basis, the preparation of the teacher must comply with the standards applicable to elementary teachers rather than the standards set forth for departmentalized seventh and eighth grades. 'Self-contained' is defined as a class which is taught by one teacher for 50 percent or more of the school day.

Teachers in departmentalized grades 7 and 8 may have either the elementary or secondary area of specialization on their certificates. Those with elementary area of specialization meet the semester hour requirements shown in Column 3 on page 33.

When emergency conditions require, a teacher may be assigned to a subject without the required preparation, provided a Temporary Classroom Assignment Permit is issued to the teacher by the superintendent in accordance with regulations and further provided each teacher assigned under these conditions is reported to the school board.

4. Nonprofessional personnel may be assigned as assistants to the professional staff.

Schools using nonprofessional personnel for noninstructional duties:

Develop job descriptions for positions authorized by the board of trustees

Develop and operate an orientation and in-service training program for the assistants

Schools using nonprofessional personnel to assist with instructional duties:

Develop job descriptions for positions authorized by the board of trustees

Assign them only to professional personnel who have a degree and who meet all provisional certification requirements or accreditation standards for their assignment.

Develop and operate an orientation and in-service training program for the assistants

Schools using nonprofessional personnel as assistants develop and operate programs for the professional staff in the effective use and supervision of such assistants.

5. A plan has been approved by the board of trustees for a continuing program of professional growth and in-service education of school personnel.

The plan includes definite allocation of funds and staff time.

The superintendent has the responsibility, or delegates it to a specific staff member, of implementing the school's plan for professional growth and development of the staff.

Staff members are involved in arranging and executing the in-service education program using resources from outside the school.

Professional growth, or in-service education activities completed are recorded in personnel folders with the notation appropriate to the activity; it may record performance, involvement, or attendance.

New programs or curriculum changes implemented in the instructional program are introduced through and supported by in-service education.

The plan provides in-service education orientation of staff members new to the system and inexperienced teachers.

The focus of the in-service education is directed as needed; toward total staff, departmental teachers, a campus group, personnel transferred within the system, or individuals.

When full-time teachers or administrators enroll for college work during the regular school term the following regulations are observed:

Three semester hours of graduate level college work may be carried during any semester of the school year.

However, where the board of trustees officially approves, graduate work may be earned on the basis of six semester hours per semester.

Six semester hours of work may be carried in any one semester of the academic year at the undergraduate level.

6. The school maintains teacher-pupil ratios and class sizes appropriate to the program. PUPIL TEACHER RATIO

A teacher in an elementary school has no more than 30 pupils in membership in a kindergarten, grade 1 or grade 2 class or section nor more than 35 in any other class or section.

A teacher in an elementary school assigned more than two grades is assigned consecutive grades with no more than 24 pupils.

A teacher in a secondary school is assigned no more than 750 pupil periods of teaching per week nor more than 35 pupils in membership per class section.

Teacher-pupil ratio s are based on the total staff and pupil-membership when the instructional organization involves team teaching or other forms of large and small group activities not using the traditional classroom arrangement.

Each class section in laboratory, vocational, and shop subjects requiring work space for individual students is limited to a maximum of 30 pupils in membership.

Pupil-teacher ratios of special service positions comply with recommendations of Texas Education Agency publications describing those programs.

Since the public school must admit all pupils, the limits on class size herein established may be exceeded for temporary periods. When such excess enrollment is necessary, the school must have a remedial plan so that the standard on limits of class size can be met as soon as possible.

7. Twelve-grade school systems utilize a minimum of four full-time teachers in grades kindergarten through eight and four full-time teachers, exclusive of vocational units, in the upper four grades.

Since the superintendent of schools is authorized by the Foundation School Program Act for administrative duties, the superintendent must not teach more than three classes.

In no case may a school system be accredited as a K-12 system with fewer than four full-time teachers in grades K-8 and three full-time teachers, other than vocational units, and the superintendent teaching three classes in the upper four grades. Such schools must justify continued approval as accredited K-12 schools in the light of the total educational program and services available, as well as community resources and effort in supporting the school.

PRINCIPLE VIII

The methods, techniques, and procedures employed by teachers conform to the maturity, needs, and abilities of the pupils and to the requirements of the subject. Teaching supplies and equipment of acceptable quality, quantity, and variety are provided by the school system and used in the classrooms.

STANDARDS

1. The methods of presentation and standards of work expected conform to the level of ability and maturity of the pupils.

Teaching methods and techniques used indicate an understanding of pupils and the ways they learn; insights into the nature, organization, and scope of the subjects taught; and pupils' rate of learning.

Teachers show an understanding of the potentials and limitations of pupils.

Each child is given work which challenges him[her] to perform at the level consistent with his[her] abilities.

Teachers use variety in instructional methods and techniques.

Teachers organize classroom activities to provide balance of study, expression, listening, observation, creativity, aesthetic appreciation, physical activity, and relaxation.

2. Pupils are grouped for instructional purposes.

The school provides appropriate materials for varying levels of ability.

Pupils are engaged in a variety of learning experiences and activities.

Furniture and equipment may be moved for grouping.

3. Teachers use ingenuity and initiative in the development and use of instructional resources and techniques.

Teachers are encouraged to develop new teaching techniques and media.

The school makes available raw materials and clerical and technical assistance needed for developing teaching aids and devices.

Teachers demonstrate creativity and sound professional judgment in selecting, making, and using a variety of multisensory teaching-learning media.

The attitude toward new media and techniques is one of inquiry and receptiveness.

4. Equipment and supplies of each room are adapted to the needs of the pupils.

The school provides teaching equipment and supplies as evidenced by budget allocations, efficient procedures for requisitioning equipment and supplies, and for making them available to all teachers.

In addition to furniture for children and teachers, items are provided to meet special needs, such as work tables, shelving, storage space, and file cabinets.

5. Relationships between the teachers and pupils are conducive to learning.

Children are attentive; discipline is firm but fair; self-discipline is evident in the children's behavior; activities progress without excessive direction from the teacher; and children show initiative in their learning activities.

6. Community resources are used to improve instruction.

Teachers make use of resources--people, places, and materials--in the community to vitalize instruction.

The curriculum includes study of the community, its history, geography, and institutions.

The school gives leadership in community improvement.

PRINCIPLE IX

Each school system operates according to a planned program designed to accomplish the educational aim of each of its campus and classroom units.

STANDARDS

1. Teachers have instructional plans based on state and local curriculum materials and guides.

The plan is adjusted to the particular needs of the class.

Teachers cooperate in the development of a system-wide plan of instruction.

Individual teachers base their daily instruction on the system-wide plan.

Teachers change plans and procedures in teaching when conditions indicate need.

Teachers place special emphasis on instructional planning in new programs.

2. Courses offered for a unit of credit in grades 9-12 are scheduled for a minimum of 160 clock hours of class instruction.

A course may be considered completed and credit awarded under either of the following conditions:

. The student has been enrolled in a course scheduled for the minimum clock hours and has made satisfactory progress.

. The student has demonstrated achievement by meeting the standard requirements of the course, regardless of the time he has been enrolled in the course.

. . . . Deviations from the usual operation are acceptable for meeting the unit of credit so long as the school makes available the amount of time required to permit the individual to meet the acceptable achievement standards for the course.

A quarter unit of credit is one-third of the 160 clock hours, or one-third of the acceptable achievement standards for the course.

3. There is a minimum of six hours per school day, excluding lunch periods.

Texas statutes provide that schools shall be in session for not less than seven hours each day, including intermissions and recesses.

Schools are permitted to dismiss primary grades somewhat earlier than the other grades.

4. There is a minimum of 180 days of actual instruction per year.

PRINCIPLE X

The school plant is suitable in design, size, and equipment to meet the needs of the instructional program of the community.

STANDARDS

1. The school site is easily and safely accessible to students, employees, and visitors at all times and under all conditions.

2. School grounds are clean, landscaped, and free from hazards.

3. The school building is well maintained and is wind and water proof.

Maintenance and custodial service is available and adequate to maintain the facilities, equipment, and grounds.

The school has a planned program for continuous maintenance and upkeep of school property.

4. The school building is suitably arranged with adequate space to accommodate the instructional program.

Drinking fountains are of sufficient number and proper size and are located so as not to interfere with the flow of traffic.

Classrooms are sufficient in size, design, and arrangement to accommodate the instructional program assigned to them.

Ventilation, heat, light, and acoustics in all areas are regulated to provide a harmonious and pleasant atmosphere for the activities being conducted.

Classroom equipment and furniture are the type and size suited to the instructional program offered.

Rest rooms are sufficient in number, clean and sanitary, and operable.

Workrooms for teachers are conveniently located and adequately equipped.

Equipment and facilities for instruction with vocational intent compare favorably with that found in occupational areas for which such instruction is designed.

PRINCIPLE XI

The accredited status of a school system is determined on the basis of its total program rather than on the basis of individual subjects or separate instructional units or levels. The attainment of all standards is achieved separately by the several schools which constitute a total system. The accredited status of the system as a whole depends upon compliance by each school unit.

STANDARDS

1. There is coordination of the various campus units within each level of instruction as well as between levels.

2. When schools customarily send or receive pupils from other districts, a cooperative program has been developed to provide continuity of instruction for the pupils.

Cooperation includes:

Exchange of pupil personnel data

Cooperative planning of programs to ensure continuity for transferred pupils

Intervisitation of teachers

Exchange of handbooks and guides

. . . .

3. In school systems which operate more than one campus unit of the same instructional level, elementary or secondary, an equivalent balance is maintained.

4. No segment of the school is overcrowded or underequipped in order to maintain the program of another segment.

5. A balance as to the quantity and quality of adequate equipment, supplies, and services prevails among the several areas of instruction within the total offerings of the system.

The Principles and Standards for accrediting institutional and special schools shall be as follows:

PRINCIPLE I

THE COMMUNITY SETTING IS CONDUCIVE TO THE OPERATION OF A HIGH QUALITY EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN

STANDARDS

1. A financial plan is in operation which insures adequate support for the educatioal program.

The chief adminstrative official and the duly elected or appoitned governing board have developed a budget to provide an adequate educational program. Sources of income are stable and adequate to insure the program outlined. There is evidence that the educational budget is implemented.

Unstable or chance contributions and donations by individuals and philanthropic groups, as well as specific terminal Federal and State Grants, are not considered as a substitute for adequate and appropriate financial support. Rather, these sources are used for enrichment.

In state and city supported programs, tax money including direct and per capita appropriations may be considered as a means of providing adequate stable financial support.

2. Mutual cooperation, acceptance, and support is evident between the educational program, the facility, and the community.

There is evidence that the public is kept informed on the educational program.

The community and total population of the facility is encouraged to participate in the educational activities when such participation is appropriate to the overall goals of the educational program.

Members of the educational staff are encouraged to participate in civic affairs.

Meetings of the duly elected or appointed governing board are open to the public except for executive sessions.

3. The public and nonpublic educational programs exchange information needed to develop a united effort for the education of exceptional children and youth.

The educational programs concerned, agree to policies for transfer of pupils from one program to another.

4. Although educational programs operated for profit are not eligible for accreditation, nonpublic programs for education of exceptional children and youth which meet accreditation standards may be accredited.

To be eligible for accreditation, nonpublic programs must operate either within the framework of a regularly established church government or under the direction of a duly established, nonsalaried, nonprofessional governing board.

Requests for accreditation of educational programs for exceptional children and youth are initiated by the governing board of the educational program.

PRINCIPLE II

EACH FACILITY DESIRING ACCREDITATION OF ITS EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN AND YOUTH IS OPERATED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS. RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERPRETING THESE PROVISIONS LIES WITH THE GOVERNING BOARD OF SAID FACILITY EXCEPT WHERE FORMAL INTERPRETATION OF SUCH PROVISIONS HAS BEEN MADE BY THE COURTS OR OTHER CONSTITUTED AUTHORITY.

STANDARDS

1. Attention is drawn to specific Texas Statutes which provide:

Educational programs shall be in session for not less than seven hours each day, including; intermissions, lunch, and recesses.

There is a minimum of 180 days of instruction per year.

2. Educational programs are permitted to dismiss certain types of exceptional children somewhat earlier than the seven hour minimum.

PRINCIPLE III

THE GOVERNING BOARD FUNCTIONS CHIEFLY AS A POLICY-MKAING AND APPRAISAL BODY.

STANDARDS

1. The governing board has developed, codified, duplicated, and made available to all employees in the educational program, and to the public, the policies that cover the operation of the educational program.

2. The governing board holds regularly scheduled meetings, which the public may attend, and keeps an official record.

The public is informed of the dates of regular and, when possible, of all special meetings.

Minutes of the meetings reflect total transactions of board considerations, and when approved, bear the signature of the secretary and president.

Policies approved by the board are recorded in minutes and placed in the official governing board policies.

Names of the members present and absent are recorded at each meeting.

3. The governing board has approved procedures for assessing the effectiveness of the educational program.

Evaluation procedures provide for:

SELF EVALUATION

Self-evaluation on a continuing basis to assess pupil growth in terms of the stated objectives

Collection of relevant information

Identification of program deficiencies and recognition of strengths

Plans for corrections of deficiencies

Reporting findings to the staff, governing board, and community

4. The governing board has a definite written procedure for orderly hearings on appeals by aggrieved parties.

5. Written policies have been developed for admitting pupils on basis of ability and prior experiences, so pupils may be placed in a suitable educational program.

6. The governing board has approved procedures for assessing the performance of the professional staff.

The procedures include:

Establishing criteria for evaluating competency in performance based upon the job description

making provisions for annual evaluations

Outlining procedures for using the evaluation in prescribing inservice and professional growth activities

Placing the results of the evaluations in the personnel file.

PRINCIPLE V

WRITTEN ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES, APPROVED BY THE BOARD, WHICH GOVERN THE OPERATION OF THE FACILITY AND THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM HAVE BEEN DEVELOPED.

STANDARDS

1. The chief administrator recommends all employees for action by the governing board. Assignments based on job descriptions are to positions authorized by the board.

The chief administrator or his[her] designated representative is responsible for reviewing the qualifications of prospective employees; assures the board that they meet the standards of preparation for the positions in which they have been assigned; and have appropriate credentials for the assigned position.

2. All employees understand the nature of their duties and, in the performance of such duties, are supervised by the chief administrator or his[her] designated representatives.

Employees are provided the necessary materials to perform their duties.

Staff members participate in the planned program for inservice education.

New personnel are oriented to the total program of the facility.

Supervision is provided to coordinate and improve educational offerings and to assist instructors.

3. The cooperation of the educational staff is sought in formulating and executing the educational plans for the facility.

The professional knowledge of the total staff is utilized in the development and improvement of the educational program.

The staff participates in educational planning.

The staff is encouraged to submit recommendations for improving the educational program.

Total educational staff is involved in the adoption, selection, and evaluation of instructional materials, supplies, and equipment.

4. All policies of the governing board which affect educational personnel and the educational program are in written form, and are transmitted with interpretations, as needed, to the educational staff.

PRINCIPLE VI

THERE IS A PLANNED EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IN OPERATION THAT LEADS TO DISCOVERING AND MEETING THE NEEDS OF ALL EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN AND YOUTH.

STANDARDS

1. The facility plans and implements a program for assisting parents and guardians with the preparation of exceptional children and youth for the educational program. The facility assumes leadership by:

Identifying problems affecting exceptional children in the community and in the facility as these relate to educational achievement and related areas

Surveying resources for solutions for these problems

Communicating with parents and guardians, and with public and private agencies concerning exceptional children and problems related to education

Developing with parents and guardians and with public and private agencies, recommended programs of education for exceptional children and youth.

2. The facility has a plan in operation for meeting the vocational needs of youth.

Additional and continuing education of youth is developed by:

Assessing educational and vocational needs of individuals

Utilizing available resources to develop follow-up programs

Utilizing public and private agencies with similar objectives to plan, develop, and operate appropriate programs

When feasible, this plan should apply to out-of-school youth.

3. Non-English speaking children needing special instruction to adjust successfully in school, and to use the English language, may be placed in a modified program that makes full use of the pupils' ability in the language they understand and speak when enrolled.

The modified program should have the following characteristics:

The first language of the child is used as a means of instruction in developing the basic skills in language arts.

English is introduced as a second language; as the child becomes more proficient in understanding and speaking the second language, the use of the first langusge as a means of instruction should be decreased, while the use of English for this purpose is increased.

The use of both languages as a medium of instruction is continued for a minimum of three years and thereafter; until such time as the child is able to comprehend and communicate effectively in English.

4. The facility has a planned program which identifies, appraises, provides instruction, and maintains contact with exceptional pupils who have multiple handicaps.

Diagnostic services in the facility and in the community have been surveyed.

Screening and referral procedures are known to the educational staff.

Communication is maintained among persons involved in diagnosis, instruction, and evaluation.

A program is implemented which accommodates significant differences in physical, intellectual, economic, aesthetic, social, and emotional development.

Teachers are aware of the range of disabilities which cause interference in educational achievement of exceptional children, such as problems in rate and patterns of learning, reasoning, language, culture, motivation, attitude, and aptitude.

Individual or small group instruction and remediation in areas of disability are available.

Teachers recognize the learning potential of superior and talented pupils and make adaptations in curriculum instruction for such pupils.

5. Emphasis is placed upon teaching the facts of, and developing appreciation for all phases of the American heritage to the extent that the exceptional child can assimilate such facts.

AMERICAN HERITAGE

Teachers plan activities designed to develop understanding and appreciation of American history and traditions.

AMERICAN HISTORY

Pupils participate in meaningful patriotic ceremonies commemorating key historical dates and events.

6. Citizenship, conservation of natural resources, and safety are taught as a part of the instructional program to the extent that the exceptional child can assimilate such facts.

CITIZENSHIP
SAFETY

Citizenship, conservation of natural resources, and safety are correlated with instruction.

Teaching guides include instruction in citizenship, conservation, and safety.

Pupils show pride in their school, community, and country.

The United States and Texas flags are displayed properly and the Pledge of Allegiance is given on appropriate occasions. Holidays are observed with understanding.

Documents of historial significance are used effectively in instruction.

Pupils respect and abide by the laws of the community, state, and nation.

Conservation instruction includes study of methods applicable to soil, water, forests, minerals, and wildlife.

Safety instruction is coordinated by a professional staff member.

Procedures have been developed to meet emergencies; accidents, fire, war, and disasters due to natural phenomena.

Pupils participate regularly in safety instruction; accident prevention and supervised safety drills.

First aid equipment is readily available; staff members are competent to render first aid.

7. Each educational program maintains a balanced curriculum offering; based on the current State adopted curriculum appropriate to the type of condition of the pupils being served.

Programs for retarded exceptional children are based on:

State adopted curriculum guides designed for the exceptionality being served.

Locally adopted curriculum.

Programs for nonretarded exceptional children are based on:

Overall curriculum offerings which meet standards established for regular elementary and secondary programs or both, whichever is applicable.

Differences in methods of instruction rather than curriculum content.

A unit of credit in courses in grades 9 through 12 represents competencies in skills and subject matter content normally expected to be achieved in 160 clock hours of instruction.

A course may be considered completed and credit awarded under either of the following conditions:

The student has been enrolled in a course scheduled for the minimum clock hours and has made satisfactory progress.

Conservation instruction includes study of methods applicable to soil, water, forests, minerals, and wildlife.

8. Each educational program maintains a coordinated sequential instructional program.

All areas of instruction are coordinated; skills developed and concepts formed are applied and reinforced in purposeful activities through all areas of the curriculum. Instruction is preceded by identification of pupil competencies and limitations.

Pupils show increasing independence in learning from a variety of materials; they are able to apply concepts and skills developed.

Instruction assures all pupils the opportunity to learn according to the range of ther abilities, interests, experiences, and background. Instructional activities provide learning experiences suitable to each individual. Sensory perceptions of pupils are used to aid learning and expand their range through actual and vicarious experiences.

Periodic, objective measurements show that pupils are developing through the combined processes of concept formation, development of skills, and acquisition of content knowledge.

Regular evaluation is made of programs and the program's progress toward meeting the needs of exceptional children.

Students are classified for physical education on the basis of health into one of the following:

Unrestricted -- not limited in activities and includes competitive sports.

Restricted -- excludes the more vigorous activities.

Adapted and remedial -- specific activities prescribed or prohibited for students so classified.

9. Each accredited program meets the following requiremets for retarded exceptional children and youth:

Accredited programs are operated in accordance with State Plan for Special Education, Texas Education Agency. The State Plan assists educational programs in planning, establishing, conducting, and evaluating programs in special education for the retarded.

10. Summer educational programs, if considered an integral part of the usual program, meet accreditation standards.

11. An adequate system of pupil personnel accounting is in operation.

Daily registers or the central accounting system are kept in accordance with recommended instructions.

Attendance accounting and supervision of teachers in their pupil accounting procedures are assigned to a designated professional staff member.

Cumulative records include; an account of scholastic progress, attendance, and health information.

The classroom teacher reviews records periodically and confers with supervisors, principals, nurses, and others concerning the progress, status, and needs of pupils.

12. Pupils completing approved sequential programs for exceptional children and youth are graduated and awarded a diploma.

For exceptional children and youth, the transcript records individual accomplishment, achievements, and a description of the type of program completed.

COURSE OF STUDY

Non-retarded pupils complete the required 16 units including the following specified subjects:

English (3 units)	Mathematics (2 units)
World History Studies or	Science (2 units)
World Geography Studies (1 unit)	Six and one-half
American History (1 unit)	units of electives
Government (1/2 unit)	from the 'List of Approved Courses,
	Grades 7-12'

Credit for a course not included in the approved list, but given individual approval by the Division of School Accreditation, may be used in the minimum 16 units required for high school graduation under two conditions:

(1) if the course has been approved and taught once; and (2) if the evaluation report submitted at the close of the course justifies its continuation and specifies how it will be used in meeting graduation requirements.

Science must be taught by the laboratory method so pupils will develop the skills and techniques of setting hypothesis on the basis of acquired knowledge; making observations related to the hypothesis; and using inductive and deductive reasoning for testing the hypothesis. Laboratory instruction should also enable pupils to develop skills and techniques for identifying, classifying, and cataloging events and objects.

Instruction by the laboratory method using actual and vicarious experiences must be adjusted to the special requirements of safety for and characteristics of pupils by introducing innovative activities that will establish learning situations comparable to the traditional experiments.

13. Each facility maintains a realistic and workable program of guidance services.

The program is outlined in writing with policies approved by the local board.

Services are coordinated and administered by the professional personnel in accordance with locally approved policies.

The program of services provides for pupil appraisal and guidance in meeting the educational and vocational needs of pupils.

The guidance program operating with central coordination is a cooperative project of the entire professional staff.

The guidance services are coordinated with the regular instructional program, so that together, they will contribute to a unified educational program.

Teachers utilize opportunities in the classroom, in extracurricular activities, and in contacts with parents or guardians to achieve guidance objectives through group discussions, specific projects, and other appropriate methods.

Adequate physical facilities, equipment, and materials are provided.

14. The facility provides health services which include daily health observations of pupils and immunizations as required by the State Department of Health.

Health services include: physical exmainations, screening tests, prevention and control of communicable diseases, and provision for emergency cases.

Community health resources are used to complement the health program.

All school employees have preemployment and periodic physical examinations, and records of these examinations are kept along with other personnel data.

Policies of the board include provisions for:

Exclusion of pupils or employees who have communicable diseases

Emergency care of the sick

Authority to make health appraisals of pupils

Health services as may be necessary in maintaining good health among the student body.

15. The facility has in operation a planned Instructional Media Program for all pupils in keeping with the needs of each program.

Professionally trained personnel with time free from other duties are responsible for leadership in planning the program and supervising services.

Instructional materials and equipment are sufficient in quality and quantity to support the instructional program, and are accessible to teachers and pupils at each period of the school day as evidenced by:

An available and current list providing an index to the materials and equipment available to the instructional program and staff.

Professional books and periodicals readily accessible to the staff.

Physical facilities are commensurate with the educational program, enrollment, number and types of media, and the age of pupils to be served; all rooms used are equipped with sufficient shelving and storage for permanent materials and for collections of materials which circulate from:

A central collection of media located in a room with appropriate shelving and storage accommodations, or;

A centralized library and an instructional materials center with space for seating at least two classes with appropriate shelving, storage, equipment, and instructional media.

An annual budget is provided to operate the program as evidenced by:

An initial collection of instructional media and equipment, plus funds budgeted to acquire a basic collection of such materials

Monies are budgeted for supplies, periodicals, equipment, and repair, in addition to the materials budget.

Policies have been developed for effectiveuse of instructional media by:

A program of teacher orientation in instructional media

A plan for use of media resources by individuals, small groups, and class groups

Provisions to incorporate media resources into the instructional program

A plan for teaching students to use selected media resources

Indications that students use media resources as an integral part of the teaching-learning experiences.

16. Opportunities are provided all pupils to participate in student activities designed to develop individual interests and aptitudes.

The pupil activity program is planned as a part of the total program.

Special abilities and interests of pupils are provided by a variety of activities such as: drama, speech, music, publications, recreation, clubs, films, student council, independent study, appropriate group guidance, and pursuit of independent interest and projects.

Pupils participate in activities designed to accomplish planned educational aims suitable to age and physical condition.

17. There is evidence of respect for public and private property.

The condition of facility properties and equipment reflects the effectiveness of citizenship training in the school.

Building and grounds are clean and well maintained.

The pupils, staff, and citizens show respect for public and private properties and equipment.

18. The Texas Education Agency recognizes the need for continued experimentation and improvement of instructional practices and encourages such experimentation. Should planned and organized experimentation violate Principles and Standards as established; approval of such experiments should be gained from the Division of Special Education, Texas Education Agency, prior to implementation of such experiments.

19. The school system may develop a plan whereby pupils in grades 9 through 12 obtaining knowledge or skills outside the school program may be granted credit in any subject on the list of approved courses upon demonstration of competency by examination or performance test.

TESTING

The local board of trustees will adopt policies authorizing the granting of credit by examination or performance test having the following characteristics:

Establish eligibility of students who may take the examination or performance test.

Establish procedures for pupils to take the examination or performance test. The administration should determine the time, place, length, and method of administering the examination or performance test.

Ensure that the particular examination or performance test used to validate the student's ability will verify that the student has satisfactory knowledge of the subject.

Set the passing grade for accepting student work under these conditions in accordance with grades that are required of students attending regular classes.

Ensure that the examinations or performance tests are properly evaluated, certified by the examining teacher and the principal, and are retained as part of the pupils' permanent records.

PRINCIPLE VII

EACH FACILITY EMPLOYS QUALIFIED AND COMPETENT PERSONNEL IN REASONABLE RATIO TO NUMBER AND AGE OF PUPILS AND SEVERITY OF EXCEPTIONAL CONDITION.

STANDARDS

1. All professional personnel are graduates of colleges and universities which are approved by the Texas Education Agency for teacher education programs, or otherwise recognized by the Texas Education Agency for professional employment purposes.

2. All professional personnel hold valid Texas teachers certificates appropriate for their current assignments.

(Vocational Education teachers may use a statement of qualifications in lieu of a certificate.)

3. All professional personnel are assigned in areas or subjects for which they have completed an approved program of teacher education.

Professional Personnel have appropriate training in area of special education for which they are assigned.

If the instructional program is organized on a departmentalized basis; professional personnel should hold certification in subject matter area for which they are assigned.

EMERGENCY ASSIGNMENT

When emergency conditions require, a teacher may be assigned to a subject or area for which he does not have required preparation. In such cases, the teacher makes a plan in writing approved by the chief administrative official of the employing facility, in which the teacher agrees to take at least six semester hours per year until his[her] preparation does meet standards. The plan is to be filed in the teacher's personnel folder.

Facilities unable to meet the above requirements, in extreme emergencies, request approval of such assignments from the Division of Special Educationand the Division of School Accreditation, Texas Education Agency.

4. Nonprofessional personnel may be assigned to the professional staff in overall ratio of one professional to two nonprofessional staff members.

Educational programs using nonprofessional personnel to assist with instructional duties:

Develop job descriptions for positions authorized by the board

Develop and operate an orientation and in-service training program for the assistants

Educational programs using nonprofessional personnel develop and operate in-service programs for the professional staff in the effective use and supervision of such nonprofessional personnel.

5. A plan has been approved by the board for a continuing program of professional growth and in-service education of personnel.

The plan includes definite allocation of funds and staff time.

The chief administrative official has the responsibility, or delegates it to a specific staff member, of implementing the plan for professional growth and development of staff.

Staff members are involved in arranging and executing the in-service education program using resources from outside the educational program.

Professional growth or in-service education activities completed are recorded in personnel folders with the notation appropriate to the activity; it may record performance, involvement, or attendance.

New programs or curriculum changes implemented in the instructional program are introduced through and supported by the in-service education.

The plan provides in-service education orientation of staff members new to the system and inexperienced teachers.

The focus of the in-service education is directed as needed; toward total staff, departmental teachers, a campus group, personnel transferred within the system, or individuals.

When full-time teachers or administrators enroll for college work during the regular school term the following regulations are observed:

Three semester hours of graduate level college work may be carried during any semester of the school year.

However, where the board officially approves, graduate work may be earned on the basis of six semester hours per semester or nine semester hours during an academic year.

Six semester hours of work may be carried in any one semester of the academic year at the undergraduate level.

6. The facility maintains teacher-pupil ratios and class sizes appropriate to the program.

Teacher-pupil ratios are based on the total staff and pupil membership when the instructional organization involves team teaching or other forms of large and small group activities.

Each class for the multiple handicapped or the emotionally disturbed has a lower pupil-teacher ratio than in other areas of exceptionality.

When excess enrollment causes classes to be larger than recommended, a plan is in operation for regaining standard pupil-teacher ratios in the near future.

PRINCIPLE VIII

THE METHODS, TECHNIQUES, AND PROCEDURES EMPLOYED BY PROFESSIONAL PERSONNEL CONFORM TO THE MATURITY, NEEDS AND ABILITIES OF THE PUPILS AND TO THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE DESIGNED CURRICULUM. EDUCATIONAL SUPPLIES AND EQUIPMENT OF ACCEPTABLE QUALITY, QUANTITY, AND VARIETY ARE PROVIDED BY THE FACILITY AND USED IN THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM.

STANDARDS

1. Length of school day, class periods, and instructional time are to be determined by the educational objectives of the instructional program and characteristics of the pupils.

2. The methods of presentation and standards of work expected conform to the level of ability and maturity of the pupils.

Teaching methods and techniques used indicate an understanding of pupils and the ways they learn; insights into the nature, organization, and scope of the subject taught; and pupil's rate of learning.

Teachers show an understanding of the potentials and limitations of pupils.

Each child is given work which challenges him[her] to perform at the level consistent with his[her] abilities.

Teachers organize classroom activities to provide balance of study, expression, listening, observation, creativity, aesthetic appreciation, physical activity, and relaxation in keeping with the abilities of the pupils.

3. Pupils are grouped for instructional purposes.

The educational program provides appropriate materials for varying levels of ability.

Pupils are engaged in a variety of learning experiences and activities.

Furniture and equipment may be moved for grouping.

4. Teachers use ingenuity and initiative in the development and use of instructional resources and techniques.

Teachers are encouraged to develop new teaching techniques and media.

The facility makes available raw materials and clerical and technical assistance needed for developing teaching aids and devices.

Teachers demonstrate creativity and sound professional judgment in selecting, making, and using a variety of multisensory teaching-learning media.

The attitude toward new media and techniques is one of inquiry and receptiveness.

5. Equipment and supplies of each room are adapted to the needs of the pupils.

The educational program provides teaching equipment and supplies as evidenced by budget allocations, efficient procedures for requisitioning equipment and supplies, and for making them available to all teachers.

In addition to furniture for children and teachers items are provided to meet special needs, such as work tables, shelving, storage space, or file cabinets.

6. Relationships between the teachers and pupils are conducive to learning.

Children are attentive; discipline is firm but fair; self-discipline is evident in the children's behavior; activities progress without excessive direction from the teacher; and children show initiative in their learning activities within their level of ability and maturity.

7. Community resources are used to improve instruction. Teachers make use of resources -- people, places, and materials -- in the community to vitalize instruction.

The school gives leadership in community improvement.

PRINCIPLE IX

THE PHYSICAL PLANT IS SUITABLE IN DESIGN, SIZE, AND EQUIPMENT TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM.

STANDARDS

1. The site of the educational program is easily and safely accessible to pupils, employees, and visitors at all times and under all conditions.

2. Grounds of the facility are clean, landscaped, and free from hazards.

3. The educational building is well maintained and is wind and water proof.

Maintenance and custodial service is available and adequate to maintain the facilities, equipment, and grounds.

The facility has a planned program for continuous maintenance and upkeep of property.

4. The educational building is suitably arranged with adequate space to accommodate the instructional program.

Drinking fountains are of sufficient number and proper size and are located so as not to interfere with the flow of traffic.

Rooms are sufficient in size, design, and arrangement to accommodate the program assigned to them.

Ventilation, heat, light, and acoustics in all areas are regulated to provide a harmonious and pleasant atmosphere for the activities being conducted.

Equipment and furniture are the type and size suited to the instructional program offered.

Rest rooms are sufficient in number, clean and sanitary, and operable.

Workrooms for teachers and staff are conveniently located and adequately equipped.

Equipment and facilities for instruction with vocational intent compare favorably with that found in occupational areas for which such instruction is designed.

"PRINCIPLE X

THE ACCREDITED STATUS OF AN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN AND YOUTH IS DETERMINED ON THE BASIS OF THE FACILITY'S TOTAL PROGRAM AS IT RELATES TO THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM, AND ON THE TOTAL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM RATHER THAN ON THE BASIS OF INDIVIDUAL CLASSES.

STANDARDS

1. There is coordination of the various campus classes within each level of instruction as well as between levels.
2. When educational programs customarily send or receive pupils from other facilities or school programs, a cooperative program has been developed to provide continuity for transferred pupils

   Intervisitation of teachers

   Exchange of handbooks and guides . . . .
3. In facilities which operate more than one campus unit of the same instructional level, an equivalent balance is maintained.
4. No segment of the facility or educational program is overcorwded or underequipped in order to maintain the program of another segment.
5. A balance as to the quantity of adequate equipment, supplies, and services prevails among the several levels and areas of instruction within the total offerings.

The procedures by which the principles and standards are adopted or altered shall be in accordance with law, approved by the State Board of Education, and administered by the Commissioner of Education."

"The State Commission on School Accreditation shall review the educational program of the public schools annually and determine whether districts are meeting their responsibility for providing a comprehensive instructional program in terms of the principles and standards in Policy

3712. The State Commission on School Accreditation shall provide for school systems to have the opportunity, through their respresentative, to participate in the planning and operation of the accreditation program.

The Commission shall be composed of 12 members representing various education backgrounds. . . .

APPOINTMENT

Each member shall be appointed by the State Commissioner of Education subject to confirmation of the State Board of Education.

The responsibilities of the Commission shall include:
(1) making recommendations to the Commissioner of Education and the State Board of Education concerning standards for school accreditation and policies for applying these standards;
(2) advising the staff of the Division of School Accreditation concerning application of standards to the school systems of the State and development of new materials relating to school accreditation;
(3) receiving the reports of the director of the Division of School Accreditation concerning the status of accreditation in individual school districts;
(4) providing a forum for the informal resolution of complaints arising from any district that is not satisfied with the ruling and recommendations of the Director of School Accreditation; and
(5) making recommendations to the Commissioner and to the Board concerning action to be taken on the reports.

". . . to participate in the Foundation School Program, each school district must be accredited by the Central Education Agency.

Each school district must employ a sufficient number of certified teachers to maintain an average ratio of not less than one teacher for each 25 students in regular average daily attendance.

"The Commissioner . . . shall establish minimum standards for staffing patterns for all personnel.

Requirements of pupil attendance accounting as expressed in laws, policies, and administrative procedures shall be applicable to all public schools of Texas, the pupils who attend them and the teachers and officials who are responsible for their administration.

The Commissioner of Education shall establish and administer pupil attendance accounting requirements and the methods for determining full-time student equivalency for those pupils in vocational and special education programs.

All public schools in Texas shall maintain records to reflect the average daily attendance (ADA), as a basis for the allocation of Foundation School Program Fund and other funds allocated by the Texas Education Agency.

Superintendents, principals, and teachers shall be responsible for their school boards and to the State to maintain accurate, current, daily attendance records and accurate contact hours used to determine full-time student equivalency of vocational and special education students.

Requirements of professional and teacher aide personnel accounting shall be applicable to all public school districts of Texas. The basic purpose of these requirements shall be to provide an equitable means of allocating state funds.

The Commissioner of Education shall establish and administer requirements for personnel accounting in accordance with applicable law."

PUPIL/TEACHER RATIO

"Each school district must . . . maintain an average ratio of not less than one [certified] teacher for each 25 students in average daily attendance."

§17.24

The local boards shall "classify the schools of the county . . . into elementary schools and high schools for the purpose of promoting the efficiency of the elementary school and of establishing and promoting high schools at convenient and suitable places." The commissioner shall prescribe regulations for their guidance.

In so classifying the schools, the boards "shall give due regard to schools already located, to the distribution of population, and to the advancement of the students in their studies."

§21.001--.008

"The scholastic year shall commence on the first day of September of each year and end on the thirty-first day of August thereafter ... A school month shall consist of not less than 20 school days, inclusive of holidays... A school week shall consist of five days, inclusive of holidays ... A school day shall be taught for not less than seven hours each day, including intermissions and recesses ....

The public schools shall not be closed on legal holidays unless so ordered by the board of trustees."

The name of a school district may be changed by a resolution of the board of trustees; notification thereof must be sent to the Central Education Agency.

"No person shall be elected as a trustee of a school district unless he is a qualified voter ....

[E]ach school district shall operate on the basis of a quarter system, with its schools being in operation during at least three three-month quarters during each school year and providing 180 days of instruction for students and 10 days of inservice education and preparation teachers.... The Central Education Agency shall prepare a curriculum based on the operation of the schools on a quarter basis."

Pursuant to the Foundation School Program, credit will be given each school district for a student's attendance during "any three quarters ...[of]... any one school year." A district's school board may choose to operate its school(s) for all four quarters of a school year; however, no student shall merit attendance credit under the Foundation School Program for more than three quarters of each year. If a four quarter system is in effect, the district shall decide which students are to attend school during each quarter.

"A district that operates its schools during all four quarters ... may not require a teacher to teach more than three quarters plus the number of days ... for inservice education and preparation .... A teacher or other ... employee who elects to work for four quarters... shall receive a minimum salary which is increased proportionately in compliance with the state compensation plan .... [Such a district]... may not require a student to attend more than three quarters."

REGULATIONS

"Each school district may submit its school calendar, showing not less than 180 days of available instruction, to the . . . agency."

"School is in session at least seven hours each day, of which not less than six hours shall be devoted to instruction. The primary grades may be dismissed somewhat earlier than the other grades.

"School districts having to use half-day sessions obtain permission to operate with the shortened day from the assistant commissioner for administration of the . . . agency."

§2306.12

"Public school districts shall operate on a quarter or a pilot program system in accordance with statutes and the guidelines established by the Commissioner of Education . . . ."

"All school districts shall operate on the basis of a quarter system, with the schools being in operation at least three quarters during each school year, providing 180 days of instruction for students.

The last two days of each quarter may be set aside for purposes of giving final examinations in grades where classroom instruction is on a departmentalized basis provided a formalized examination schedule is established.

The last three days of actual instruction during a quarter may be set aside to allow 12th grade students who are candidates for graduation in that quarter to prepare for graduation exercises.

In addition to the 180 instructional days, for professional and para-professional personnel, excepting clerical aides, a total of 10 days shall be allowed for inservice training and for preparation related to the instructional program of the district.

The school district may, at its discretion, count as a part of the 10 days allowed for inservice training those statewide or regional curriculum or instructional workshops planned by and/or sponsored by regional education service centers of the Texas Education Agency. Not more than five of the 10 days may be used for workdays. Workdays are defined as those on which pupils are not present and teachers are on duty in their assigned work areas for such purposes as preparing for the beginning and ending of the school session, grading examination papers, or recording grades.

School districts shall operate an inservice training and preparation program based upon a written plan. A copy of the plan shall be filed with the Texas Education Agency.

An extended day migrant school program must meet the following provisions:

(1) Not less than 135 days shall be devoted to classroom instruction.

(2) Not less than 10 days as specified in the Regular School Program shall be devoted to inservice training and preparation for opening and closing of school.

Special programs may be approved by the Commissioner of Education to operate a specific number of days as required by the program.

All days of attendance or duty in this policy are in addition to and do not include any holidays adopted by the local board of school trustees.

SUPERINTENDENT, SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND

STATUTES

§11.07

The superintendent of the Texas School for the Blind shall be a graduate of an accredited university or college and shall have a minimum of four years of educational administrative experience, at least two years of which shall have been in the education or supervisory training of the blind. She/he shall reside at the school.

The superintendent may be removed from office by the State Board of Education on recommendation of the commissioner of education for the commission of any felony or any other offense involving moral turpitude or for "failure to carry out the duties of his/her office."

SUPERINTENDENT, SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

STATUTES

§ 11.04

The superintendent of the School for the deaf shall be a graduate of an accredited university or college, shall have a minimum of one school year of full-time classroom teaching, shall have at least a total of five years' experience in educating the deaf with at least two of those years acquired in some supervisory capacity in training the deaf, and shall have special training in the education of the deaf in a duly certified school granting such special training. She/he shall reside at the school and devote her/his time exclusively to the duties of the office. The superintendent may be removed from office on the recommendation of the commissioner of education "for the commission of any felony or any offense involving moral turpitude, or the failure to carry out the duties of [her/]his office."

STATUTES

§ 2.06(a) to 2.06(c)

a. No public funds shall be paid to a teacher or other employee connected with any tax-supported educational institution unless he/she takes the oath of office required of all state officers.

b. Foreign instructors or refugees from conquered countries are exempted from subsection (a) "if they file an affidavit. . .stating, among other things, that they are not members of the Communist, Fascist, or Nazi parties, nor of any bund, . . ., and that they will not engage in any un-American activities, nor teach any doctrines contrary to the constitution and laws of [Texas or the United States.]"

c. Any teacher who shall be found guilty of advocating doctrines which seek to undermine the republican and democratic forms of government shall after a full adjudicative hearing by his/her employing authority be dismissed.

HEARING

DISMISSAL

§ 4.07 to 4.08

Official inquiry into the religious affiliation of applicants for employment in the public education system may only concern whether the applicant "believes in the existence of a Supreme Being." Violation of this provision is a misdemeanor. Also, "the person aggrieved" may recover a $100 to $500 "penalty" from the violator.

§ 4.10

Wilful alteration of a teacher's certificate is a felony.

§ 4.11

Any superintendent or school trustee who approves any teacher's contract or voucher before the person has presented a valid teacher's certificate shall be fined.

§ 4.12

Whoever distributes or accepts possession of the questions or answers to any forthcoming teacher examination shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Whoever accepts remuneration for the granting of certificates or for aiding others to obtain certificates, except as provided for by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 4.29

Fraudulent use of false instruments or documents which purported to signify merit or achievement (i.e., certificate, diploma, academic record, etc.) constitutes a misdemeanor.

§11.31

"The State Board . . . shall develop and publicize a program specifically designed to encourage and facilitate the entry into public school teaching and into teacher-training programs of a corps of intelligent, mature, and concerned persons who have received bachelor's degrees from accredited institutions . . .

The . . . Board . . . and the institutions of higher learning . . . that are approved for teacher education shall cooperate to develop procedures for the individual evaluation and appraisal of the training and training needs of persons applying for teacher certification . . . and to provide to these persons teacher-training programs that are appropriate to their needs and that can be completed in a reasonable time.

Accredited teacher training institutions shall set up evaluation teams for the purpose of evaluating applicants to determine whether they meet the minimum standards of certification and to recommend a program to cure any deficiencies in his[her] preparation. "When a team finds the applicant has successfully met the requirements for certification, the team shall recommend him[her] for a provisional certificate.

The . . . Board . . . with the advice and assistance of the state commissioner . . . shall develop a pattern of minimum standards for . . . certification. . . . As far as the training of persons . . . is concerned, the board shall allow the waiver of any current requirements for the provisional certificate not stipulated or implied by the standards developed for the guidance of institutions for this particular program . . . . [T]he legislative intent of this section is that, in recognition of the maturity, experience, and level of achievement of applicants in this program, course requirements would more likely be reduced, compressed or combined, and would be more freely inter-changeable with similar courses."

WAIVER

The Central Education Agency is . . . authorized and directed "to publicize this program "to encourage qualified persons to enter the teaching profession."

For applicants "seeking to enter this program to qualify to teach in trade or industrial courses, the requirement . . . for a bachelor's degree may be waived."

Joint responsibility for establishing and supervising the required "student teaching experience" is vested in the approved colleges and universities and the public school districts of the state.

"The Central Education Agency . . . shall establish standards for approval of public school districts to serve as Student Teacher Centers and define the . . . relationship between the college or university and the public school which serves the student teaching program."

The public school district and the college or university shall "approve or select the supervising teachers . . . to serve in the program and adopt an . . . in-service improvement program for supervising teachers."

A state board of examiners for teacher education, composed of three competent teachers appointed by the commissioner, is created to assist in the formulation of teacher certification standards.

The state board, with the assistance of the commissioner, shall promulgate rules and regulations, as necessary, to aid in their task of "developing standards for programs in teacher education." The board "shall provide each approved institution with . . . the general qualifications required for each area . . . for which a teaching certificate is authorized. The board may not require an institution to teach a particular doctrine, or to conduct instruction on the basis of . . . any particular pedagogical method. . . ."

RULEMAKING

§13.034

All persons seeking a certificate must show that he/she:

"1) is a person of good moral character" evidenced by references from three "good and well-known citizens";

2) has taken and passed courses in the constitutional law of Texas and the United States and will support and defend these constitutions.

4) has ability to speak and understand the English language . . . ."

. No person under 18 shall be granted a certificate.

There shall be two classes of certificates; provisional and professional.

Provisional certificates are those issued to persons in possession of a bachelor's degree from an approved teacher education facility.

Vocational education teachers shall be permitted to substitute work experience for the bachelor's degree requirement.

Professional certificates shall be issued to persons holding a bachelor's degree and at least thirty additional graduate-level hours in a specialized area or areas, plus at least three years of teaching experience (as determined by the State Board).

§13.038

"Either a provisional or professional certificate shall be permanent and valid for life, unless cancelled by lawful authority."

§13.039

Provisional and professional certificates shall clearly show the areas of specialization in which the holders thereof "may teach and perform duties."

"The specialization areas shall be in:

1) the elementary schools; kindergarten through grade 8 inclusive and grade 9 in junior high;

2) junior high schools; grades 6-10 inclusive;

3) high schools; grades 7-12 inclusive;

4) in a special subject for all grades;" and

5) in a professional service position or area."

The designated specialization area appearing on the face of the certificate "shall be based upon the satisfactory completion" of an approved teacher education program in one or more of the areas.

RULEMAKING

EMERGENCY PERMIT

The state board of education may adopt regulations providing for the issuance of a one-year emergency permit .

§13.042

A person holding a valid teaching certificate from another state may obtain a Texas certificate if his[her] degree was granted by an accredited teacher-training institution. However, permanent certification is conditioned upon the applicant's taking all the Texas history courses required for a Texas teacher's certificate, within twelve months after its issuance.

§13.043

Provisional certificates to teach the deaf and blind shall be issued to anyone who has a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution; course work requirements include at least ten hours of education; five of which cover principles and methods of teaching the type of handicapped children he[she] is being certified to teach."

Certificate applicants in industrial and special subjects "may substitute four years of trade or professional experience in successful teaching experience for college work."

§13.044

No alien shall be employed to teach, nor shall be issued a teaching certificate unless he[she] "has declared his[her] intention to become a citizen." This section shall not apply to "exchange" teachers.

§13.045

The local superintendent "shall keep a record of all certificates held by persons teaching in the public schools." Each person who is employed to teach in the schools "shall present his[her] certificate for record" before commencing employment.

"A teacher or superintendent who does not hold a valid certificate or emergency permit shall not be paid for teaching or work done before the effective date of issuance of a valid certificate or permit."

Title 110A; Ch. I Art. 6252-16

"No agency, board, commission, department, or institution of the government of the state of Texas, nor any political subdivision ... shall establish a maximum age under sixty-five (65) years nor a minimum age over twenty-one (21) years for employment, nor shall any person who is a citizen of this state be denied employment ... solely because of age."

Such will also hold for the employment of any person for the reason of race, religion, color, sex or national origin.

REGULATIONS

§6101

"The teacher education process shall include the identification, the coordination of preparation and performance, and the development and continuous reevaluations of programs and institutions concerned with preparing teachers. The process shall be administered through the Texas Education Agency with the advice of the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education. The development of the quality of teacher education is a major responsibility of the Texas Education Agency and shall be in accordance with law.

"Consideration shall be given . . . to the recommendations on teacher education by the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education, the Advisory Council for Technical-Vocational Education, and the Joint Committee.

The State Commissioner of Education shall appoint, in accordance with law, the members of the Board of Examiners for Teacher Education. He[she] may increase or decrease the number of members as varying conditions require. The Commissioner of Education shall serve as ex officio chairperson.

The State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education shall discharge the responsibilities in accordance with law and the policies of the State Board of Education. Specific functions are to:

(1) inventory and review all current Texas Education Agency procedures used in approving college programs, Agency teacher education standards required of approved colleges, Agency teacher certification standards, and Agency administration of teacher certification and to make recommendations thereon:

(2) evaluate and report on college practices in their application of teacher education standards;

(3) serve as an advisory body on program approvals of individual colleges and to serve as the initial appeals body for teacher education and certification; and

(4) make special studies:

(4-1) develop and determine the feasibility of an alternate plan of teacher certification in selected fields, providing for the use of examinations as a basis for certification;

(4-2) study the present student teaching requirement to ascertain what improvements, if any, can be made;

(4-3) analyze current public reports containing recommendations on teacher certification.

The Board of Examiners may be assisted by special temporary committees which shall consist of three to five of its members, one State Board of Education member, and not more than five additional members."

"The Division of Teacher Education and Certification of the Texas Education Agency has the primary responsibility for administering the teacher education program."

The State Commissioner of Education utilizes the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education, the Advisory Council for Vocational Technical Education, and the Joint Committee in an advisory capacity in matters regarding teacher education. The Advisory Council . . . recommends programs of teacher education for technical vocational personnel." The Advisory Council is in turn advised by the Joint Committee on such matters. It is for the Commissioner of Education to make reports of evaluations, as well as recommendations, to the State Board of Education.

"When agreement is not reached by the three advisory groups, a joint meeting is called by the Commissioner . . . to resolve the differences."

"Student teacher centers shall provide through formalized contract procedures between colleges and universities and public school districts student teaching programs in accordance with applicable law and Teacher Certification Requirements, Policy 6203. The student teaching program of the student teacher centers shall provide professional laboratory and field experiences, cooperatively designed and administered by colleges and universities and public school districts.
Student teacher centers shall be operated in accordance with applicable law and with procedures established by the Commissioner of Education . . . ."

TEACHER CENTER

Series 6105 concerns student teacher centers and the procedures for the operation of such centers by public school districts. They are as follows:

(1) "The . . . center submits and files with each participating . . . public school district its plan for professional field experiences for the school year before August 1 of each year to the state coordinator.

(2) "Each college or university approved for teacher education submits official lists of students enrolled in student teaching in the fall and spring semesters . . . to the state coordinator . . . The student is enrolled full-time in student teaching . . . ."

(3) "Each supervising teacher agrees to serve each semester . . . in order to ensure the required ratio of supervising teachers to student teachers."

(4) "Summer student teaching programs are annually approved by the state coordinator . . . (and) meet all the requirements of the regular session programs." These student teachers are accounted for and are counted in the state fiscal year.

(5) "The procedures for student teaching centers apply to all degree programs for Teacher Certification . . . ."

(6) "Each college or university designates one person to be responsible for administration of this program and submits his[her] name to the state coordinator."

§6201

"The certification of teachers shall provide a means to identify qualified and professionally prepared teachers and other school personnel. The certification shall be in accordance with law."

§6202

"All Texas teacher certificates shall be of two classes, provisional or professional, and shall be identified as to the level for which the applicant is qualified pursuant to law and procedures established by the Commissioner of Education. These levels are: elementary; junior high; high school; special subject [in] all grades; and professional service."

§6203

"The general requirements for teacher certification and revisions thereof, shall: (1) be in accordance with law; (2) recommended by the Commissioner of Education; and (3) approved by the State Board of Education.

The specific requirements for teacher certification by class, by level, with areas of specialization (teaching fields), and endorsements, and revisions thereof, shall:

(1) be in accordance with law; (2) recommended by the Commissioner of Education; and (3) approved by the State Board of Education."

§6201; 6202; 6203

Series 6201 deals with the certification of teachers in general whereas series 6202 concerns the kinds of certificates, there being two:

(1) provisional certificates are issued to qualified individuals and identify the individual's level and the area in which he [she] is prepared. The certificate is permanent and valid for life.

(2) professional certificates represent preparation and experience in addition to the requirements of a provisional certificate, and also identify level and area of preparation. It is also permanent and valid for life. The levels for which an individual may be prepared are:

(1) elementary

(2) junior high

(3) high school

(4) special subject

(5) professional service

(a) "An individual making application for a Texas Teachers Certificate must:

(1) be a citizen of the U.S. or indicate intent to become a naturalized citizen as evidenced by filing a declaration of intent;

(2) be at least 18 years of age;

(3) be of good moral character as evidenced by statements of three individuals;

(4) be willing to support and defend the constitutions of the U.S. and Texas;

(5) have college credit or examination credit in knowledge of the Texas and federal constitutions; and

(6) be able to speak and understand the English language sufficiently to use it easily and readily in conversation and teaching."

(b) "Teacher certificates are issued to individuals who meet the above requirements, who complete approved programs at approved Texas institutions of higher learning, and who are recommended for certification by the institution. All credit hour requirements for certificates are semester hours or their equivalent.

(c) "Since the person holding a permanent Texas teacher certificate may be considered to have met the basic requirements for certification, the requirements of professional education shall be considered fully satisfied when the individual has completed at least 12 semester hours of professional education courses of which at least six semester hours are in the area and level of the additional certificate requested.

(d) "To be certified to teach on the secondary level, a person shall have at least 24 semester hours in two subjects related to the public secondary school curriculum or at least 48 semester hours in subjects which may be considered as being included in a broad area field.

(e) "To be certified on the elementary level, a person shall have at least 12 semester hours in courses specifically designed for teaching subjects in the public elementary school. At least nine semester hours shall be in the basic subjects; such as arithmetic, reading, social studies, and/or science.

(f) "To be certified in special education, the individual shall fulfill the specialized requirements of an approved program.

(g) "The requirements for additional endorsements may be met by one of the following methods:

(1) completion of an approved teacher education program for the requested certificate;

(2) completion of examination(s) covering the required subject(s) if the institution has an approved examination program."

In addition to these requirements, there are also contained within this series requirements in specific classes and levels including areas of specialization and endorsements.

In order to obtain an elementary certificate the individual must have a bachelor's degree including the following areas:

(1) "academic foundations - approximately 60 semeste hours to include 33-36 semester hours in the following areas:

(1-1) English -12 semester hours;

(1-2) American history - six semester hours;

(1-3) Texas and federal constitutions . . . two courses for six semester hours or a combined course for three semester hours; and

(1-4) Mathematics, Science, Foreign Language - 12 semester hours in two fields.

(2) academic specialization -36 semester hours;

(2-1) 18 semester hours in one subject including nine advanced . . . and 18 semester hours in a combination of subjects related to the elementary curriculum; and

(2-2) 24 semester hours in one subject including 12 advanced and 12 hours in a combination of subjects related to the elementary curriculum; and

(3) professional development - 30 semester hours;

(3-1) 12 hours of advanced professional education;

(3-2) 12 semester hours of advanced specialized content for elementary teaching, such as reading, arithmetic, language arts, science, social studies; and

(3-3) six semester hours of student teaching . . . ."

In addition to requiring a bachelor's degree that include the formentioned areas, an applicant must also have:

"(1) provisional elementary certificate;

(2) three years of teaching experience;

(3) 30 semester hours of graduate level courses as follows:

(3-1) academic specialization -- 12 semester hours in a subject in which the individual has at least 18 semester hours in an approved undergraduate program for elementary teachers; or 12 semester hours in a combination of subjects included in the public school curriculum;

(3-2) professional development -- six semester hours;

(3-3) resource area -- six semester hours which provide background for the academic specialization area or which extend the individual's preparation in a subject matter field other than the academic specialization . . . .; and

(3-4) elective -- six semester hours in academic specialization, professional development, resource area, or any combination thereof.

(a-c) Area of Specialization

EMERGENCY PERMIT

"Emergency Teaching Permits and Permits for Special Assignment, valid for not more than one scholastic year, may be issued in accordance with [the] applicable law under requirements and procedures adopted by the State Board of Education upon recommendations of the Commissioner of Education."

The requirements and procedures for the issuance of Emergency Teaching Permits and Permits for Special Assignment are as follows.

When a superintendent of a school district is unable to secure an individal fully certified to fill a position vacancy in his system, he may apply for an Emergency Teaching Permit for an uncertified person to fill that position.

An Emergency Teaching Permit is valid only for the remainder of the scholastic year during which it is issued and only in the school system through which the application for the permit was made.

The individual for whom an Emergency Teaching Permit is requested must be (1) a citizen of the United States or be in the process of becoming a naturalized citizen, (2) be at least eighteen years of age, (3) of good moral character, and able to speak and understand the English language sufficiently to use it easily and readily in conversation and teaching.

The individual for whom the initial Emergency Teaching Permit is requested must: (1) hold a standard bachelor's degree from an accredited institution of higher learning, and (2) if the permit requested is for teaching at the secondary level, have the minimum qualifications of one teaching field; (3) if the permit requested is for teaching at the elementary level, have the minimum of 12 semester hours specifically designated as elementary education; and (4) be able to complete all requirements for certification within a three-scholastic-year period from the date of issuance of the initial permit.

The superintendent of schools is authorized to renew Emergency Teaching Permits a maximum of two consecutive times.

A kindergarten teacher for whom an initial Emergency Teaching Permit is requested must hold one of the following valid permanent certificates: elementary; all level (art, music, physical education); librarian; vocational homemaking; deaf/severely hard of hearing; speech/hearing therapy; or other special education.

Once a school system has secured an initial permit for a kindergarten teacher for the given position, the superintendent may request the further allowable permits for the individual in keeping with the requirements for initial permits. The individual holding one of the valid permanent certificates listed above must have completed a minimum of six semester hours of kindergarten education in an approved program or kindergarten education and his [her] permit must not have been renewed more than one time.

Initial permits are available for vocational homemaking teachers who hold a bachelor's degree in home economics from an accredited institution of higher education but who have not earned certification by completion of an approved bachelor's degree program. For such a permit to be issued, the individual must: (1) contact a Texas college or university approved by the State Board of Education to prepare vocational homemaking teachers and request recommendation for an Emergency Teaching Permit; and (2) develop a plan for meeting the requirements for a vocational homemaking education certificate with the college or university. As many as two renewals of the Emergency Teaching Permit may be granted provided the vocational homemaking teacher has completed a minimum of six semester hours of the requried college or university credits prior to each renewal. All requirements for the certificate must be met within the three-year period.

Vocational Teachers of home economics pre-employment laboratory programs who have been approved by the Department of Occupational Education and Technology may earn certification other than by completion of an approved bachelor's degree program. Procedures for obtaining emergency permits for these teachers are the same as those for all other vocational teachers earning certification without completion of an aproved bachelor's degree program.

To obtain an initial Emergency Teaching Permit for other vocational personnel, a Statement of Qualifications is submitted to the appropriate Texas Education Agency program director of the vocational field for which the applicant is seeking approval for review. The applicant is notified of the results of the review and, if approvable, any additional requirements necessary for permanent certification.

The initial Emergency Teaching Permit is issued only upon the recommendation of the Texas Education Agency Division Director of Public School Occupational Programs.

Attached to the recommendation are any additional requirements that must be met if an individual has been given conditioned approval.

Applicants for renewals of Emergency Teaching Permits are reviewed and recommended by the Director of Public School Occupational Programs.

When a superintendent of a school district is unable to secure an individual fully certified to fill a certain special assignment position vacancy in his system, he may apply for a Permit for Special Assignment for an uncertified person to fill that position.

The Permit for Special Assignment is valid only for the remainder of the scholastic year during which it is issued, only in the school system through which the application for the permit is made, and only for the specific assignment for which the permit was requested.

The individual for whom a special assignment permit is requested must be: (1) a citizen of the United States or be in process of becoming a naturalized citizen; (2) at least eighteen years of age; (3) of good moral character; and (4) able to speak and understand the English language sufficiently to use it easily and readily in conversation and teaching.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for a supervisor of instruction, general is requested must: (1) hold a valid Texas Teacher certificate; (2) have served for three years as a classroom teacher; (3) have completed at least 30 semester hours of graduate credit; and (4) present a college deficiency plan giving evidence that the deficiencies for the area of supervision can be completed within a two-year period.

One further permit may be requested provided the individual has completed a minimum of six semester hours of requirements for the certificate and all requirements for the certificate can be completed within one year.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for Vocational Supervisor is requested must: (1) possess a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution of higher education; (2) possess a valid Texas Teacher Certificate appropriate for the grade level of the teachers or programs consistent with his supervisory assignment; (3) have had at least three years of successful public school teaching experience in an approved vocational education program preparing students for gainful employment; and (4) be employed by a public school district.

One further permit may be requested provided that the individual has functioned a full year as an approved vocational supervisor in an allocated unit and has completed a minimum of six semester hours of specified course work.

Emergency Teaching Permits are issued when requested for personnel who teach ROTC and who meet the requirements of the Reserve Officers Training Corp.

Renewals are made by submitted letters to the Division of Teacher Certification stating that the individual will again be assigned to instruct ROTC.

Individuals who hold high school certificates may teach departmental sixth grade in their teaching fields. A renewal is made by submitting a letter stating that the individual will again be assigned to teach in the sixth grade.

Individuals with high school certificates may teach departmentalized sixth grade in their major fields on emergency teaching permits. The initial permit is requested from the Texas Education Agency. Thereafter, for an individual to continue teaching in this assignment, the superintendent should send the Texas Education Agency a letter stating the individual's name, social security number, and area of assignment. No permit renewal or additional college work is required.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for special education supervisor is requested must: (1) have a valid Texas Teacher Certificate; (2) have completed at least 30 semester hours of graduate credit from an accredited institution in the field of education or a related field; (3) have completed three years of successful teaching experience in an approved school; (4) have either a valid special education certificate and six semester hours in supervision and/or administration, or a valid supervisor's or administrator's certificate and six hours in special education; and (5) show evidence that deficiencies for the specific area of specialization can be completed within a two-year period.

Once a school district has secured a Permit for Special Assignment for a special education supervisor, the superintendent of the school district may request one further permit for the individual in keeping with the requirements for initial permits, provided that the individual has completed a minimum of six semester hours of requirements for the certificate and all requirements for the certificate can be completed within one year.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for a counselor general is requested must: (1) hold a valid Texas Teacher Certificate; (2) have a minimum of three years of successful and creditable teaching experience; (3) have completed at least 30 semester hours of graduate credit including graduate preparation in the field of counseling; and (4) present a college deficiency plan giving evidence that the deficiencies for the area of counseling can be completed within a two-year period.

One further permit may be requested provided that the individual has completed a minimum of six semester hours of requirements for the certificate and all requirements for the certificate can be completed within one year.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for vocational counselor is requested must: (1) have a minimum of twelve semester hours of graduate guidance courses from an accredited college or university; (2) possess a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution of higher education; (3) have a combination of three years experience which includes wage-earning experience in an occupation for which vocational education is being conducted and teaching experience in the public schools or have two years of teaching experience in an approved vocational program preparing students for gainful employment; and (4) present a college deficiency plan outlining the total requirements for the counselor's certificate, including the required vocational courses.

One further permit may be requested provided the individual has functioned a full year as a vocational counselor in an allocated vocational counseling unit and has completed a minimum of six semester hours of specified course work.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for special education counselor is requested must: (1) hold a valid Texas Teacher Certificate; (2) have completed at least 30 semester hours of graduate credit from an accredited institution in the field of education or a related field, including graduate preparation in the field of the special assignment; (3) have completed three years of successful teaching in an approved school; and (4) show evidence that deficiencies for the specified area of specialization can be completed within a two-year period.

One further permit may be requested provided that the individual has completed a minimum of six semester hours of requirements for the certificate and all requirements for the certificate can be completed within one year.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for a visiting teacher general is requested must: (1) have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university; (2) hold a valid Texas Teacher Certificate; (3) have a minimum of three years of successful and creditable teaching experience, or three years of successful experience in an approved social welfare agency; (4) have completed a minimum of 15 semester hours of course work in the social or behavioral sciences; (5) show evidence that deficiencies for the specific area of specialization can be completed within a two-year period.

One further permit may be requested provided that the individual has completed a minimum of six semester hours of requirements for the certificate and all requirements for the certificate can be completed within one year.

The individual for whom an initial Permit for Special Assignment for special education visiting teacher is requested must: (1) hold a valid Texas Teacher Certificate; (2) have completed at least 30 semester hours of graduate credit from an accredited institution in the field of education or a related field, including graduate preparation in the field of special assignment; (3) have completed three years of successful teaching in an approved school; and (4) show evidence that deficiencies for the specific area of specialization can be completed within a two-year period. §6207

"The following requirements shall establish eligibility during the certificate transition period.

(1) All persons who hold a valid Texas teaching certificate or who have established eligibility for a certificate or certificate of approval or who are enrolled prior to September 1, 1955, in a college approved for teacher education and preparing for teacher certification are guaranteed the validity of the teaching certificate they hold or are eligible to receive.

(2) All persons holding permanent Texas teaching certificates or enrolled in a college program leading to permanent certification on September 1, 1955, may upon application be issued one of the new classes of certificates.

(3) The new classes of certificates authorized to be issued during the transition to the 1955 certification law designate on the certificate the areas of specialization corresponding to those specializations authorized by the provisions of the previous certification laws. "

Any person enrolled prior to September 1, 1955, in an institution of higher learning approved by the State Board of Education for teacher education and in a program of teacher education leading to a bachelor's degree or requirements beyond the bachelor's degree may obtain the kind of certificate or certificate or approval for which such preparation entitled him/her when his/her college program was started. He/she shall be considered as enrolled in a program of teacher education only if (1) the college has one file for him/her a degree plan leading to a teacher certificate, or (2) he/she can otherwise be identified by the institution as a student in progress in a program of teacher education.

A nondegree teacher who, on September 1, 1955, held a valid permanent teacher certificate issued upon prior certification laws of this state and was employed as a teacher in any scholastic year thereafter shall upon application be issued a provisional certificate marked "permanet."

A nondegree teacher who, on September 1, 1955, held a valid temporary certificate issued under the prior certification laws of this state and was employed as a teacher in any scholastic year thereafter shall upon application be issued a Provisional Certificate marked "temporary." Upon expiration the certificate may be revived and continued by complying with the certification laws in effect at the time the temporary certificate was issued. Upon the completion by holder of the requirements entitling him/her to a permanent certificate, as prescribed in law under which his/her temporary certificate was issued, the Provisional Certificate shall be marked "permanent."

Any teacher holding a bachelor's degree and a valid Texas Teacher Certificate, with five years or more of teaching experience, and who is employed as a teacher in any scholastic year following September 1, 1955, shall upon application be issued a Professional Certificate. A teacher may substitute six semester hours of college credit earned in a college or university approved for teacher education and acquired after the conferring of his/her bachelor's degree, for a year of teaching experience. No more than three years of college credit may be substituted in order to qualify for a Professional Certificate.

Any teacher having a bachelor's degree, who holds a valid Texas Teacher Certificate, but has less than five years of teaching experience and who is employed as a teacher in any scholastic year following September 1, 1955, shall upon application be issued a Provisional Certificate marked "permanent."

Any teacher having a master's degree, who holds a valid Texas Teacher Certificte and was employed as a teacher in any scholastic year following September 1, 1955, shall upon application be issued a Professional Certificate.

Any person who held a valid permanent certificate prior to September 1, 1955, shall, on application, be issued a Professional Certificate.

The new classes of certificates authorized to be issued shall have designated on their face the area of specialization corresponding to those specialization areas authorized under the teacher certificate acquired or now acquirable under the provisions of the previous certification laws.

Any person who, prior to September 1, 1955, established eligibility for a teacher certificate or certificte of approval may obtain the certificate for which he/she is eligible and have it converted to a comparable certificate in the program that became effective September 1, 1955. The individual shall meet the legal requirements for the type of certificate desired and make application to the Texas Education Agency on the form prescribed by the Agency.

§6208

"For Texas certification a person who holds the bachelor's or [a] [illegible]er degree and a valid teaching certificate from another state shall present the out-of-state certificate and official college transcripts to the Texas State Commissioner of Education for evaluation. In accordance with law, the Commissioner of Education shall issue the out-of-state graduate a valid Texas certificate if the degree and certificate presented [are] considered equivalent to the requirements for a Texas Certificate."

§6208

The Commissioner of Education issues an appropriate Texas Teacher Certificate to a person who holds a valid teaching certificate from another state and desires to teach in Texas. Providing all requirements are met, a Provisional Life Certificate or a Professional Life Certificate may be issued. A Provisional Life Certificate may be issued to individuals holding a regular classroom certificate based upon at least a bachelor's degree in a teacher education program from another state. With regard to content of teacher, academic, or general education, the preparation upon which the certificate from another state is issued is required to be at least equal to the Texas requirement in semester hours, but not necessarily in content or kind. A Professional Life Certificate may be issued to individuals holding a regular certificate based upon a graduate level teacher education program of at least 30 semester hours of study above the bachelor's degree in a teacher education program from another state and an administrator's, supervisor's or other special service endorsement to the professional certificate is issued by Texas when the length of preparation, is at least comparable to that required in Texas.

To be a valid teaching certificate of another state a certificate must: (1) not be a temporary permit or a sub-standard certificate; (2) be based upon at least the bachelor's degree in a teacher education program; (3) be valid in the issuing state at the time application is made for the Texas certificate; (4) have been issued by the state and not by a city or school district; and (5) have been issued to a holder who was recommended by a college or university accredited by a recognized accrediting agency as an approved teacher training institution, acceptable by the state's recognized accrediting or approval agency for teacher certification purposes.

"As an exception to the citizenship requirement, (Teacher Certification Requirements, Policy 6203), a Texas certificate may be issued to an alien teacher who has filed a declaration of intent to become a citizen of the United States."

An alien teacher may be granted an Emergency Teaching Permit valid for one school year when reciprocity with a Texas teacher is officially recognized as a part of a foreign exchange teacher program.

An alien teacher to be used specifically in bilingual education programs may be granted an Emergency Teaching Permit valid for one school year when reciprocity is officially recognized as a part of a foreign teacher exchange program. The reciprocity shall not be restricted to a school-to-school exchange but to a foreign country-to-Texas exchange. Specific Texas schools who use alien teachers for bilingual education shall not be required to reciprocate."

Prior to any exchange of teachers an agreement is made between the Texas Education Agency and a Ministry of Education in a foreign country, or, as in the case with Mexico, with a Secretary of Education from one of its states. The agreement is that there will be reciprocation of exchange of teachers at the request of each of the agencies, and that no requirements be made between two local schools, but between the country or a state in a foreign country and Texas. Texas need not send teachers to the foreign country if it does not desire to do so, but it does have the permission to do so if the opportunities arise.

All the programs using exchange teachers are evaluated by Texas Education Agency staff. Exchange teachers and local administrators are required to submit a report of the year's activities.

"A certificate to teach the deaf or the blind shall be issued, upon application and payment of fee, to a person who is 18 years of age and who has completed the preparation program prescribed for the type of handicapped children he [she] is being certified to teach. Any teacher, who prior to 1935, had five years of teaching experience of particular types of handicapped children in the School for the Deaf or the School for the Blind, shall be issued the permanent Provisional Certificate."

§6210

Applicants for a Provisional Certificate to teach the deaf or the blind must: (1) complete a degree and a four-year course of study in an accredited college, professional or technical school or a university or college approved for teacher education; (2) be at least 18 years of age; (3) make application with official college transcripts attached; and (4) pay a two dollar fee.

A person who desires to teach industrial and special subjects, in lieu of a degree and a four-year college program, may substitute four years of trade or professional experience or successful teaching experience. The Provisional Certificate issued for these industrial and special subjects shall authorize the holder to teach only such subjects in the Texas School for the Deaf or the Texas School for the Blind.

Any teacher, who prior to 1955 had five years of successful teaching experience of particular types of handicapped children or of industrial and special subjects in the School for the Deaf or the School for the Blind, shall be granted a Provisional Certificate for teaching the deaf or blind handicapped child.

Any person now holding a valid teacher certificate or who may hereafter be granted a certificate may be considered qualified to teach in the Texas School for the Deaf or the Texas School for the Blind.

"A person who desires to teach in a public school in Texas must present his[her] certificate for recording or filing to the superintendent of the employing school district or county superintendent. The certificate must be presented for record before a contract with the board of trustees of the district is binding.

Any staff member who is required to be certificated and who does not hold a valid certificate or emergency permit shall not be paid for teaching or work done before the effective date of issuance of a valid certificate or permit."

TESTING

"The Assistant Commissioner for Teacher Education and Instructional Services is the designated State Administrator of the General Educational Development (GED) testing program.

Official testing centers are established by annual contract at an accredited high school or institution of higher learning upon authorization of the State Department of Education. An institution deisring to provide the GED testing service to citizens in its community requests authorization to do so from the State Department of Education. The appropriate official of the State Department of Education, in writing, informs the American Council on Education that the establishment of an official agency is authorized at that particular institution. Upon receipt of the letter of authorization, the center will be sent four copies of the annual contract, together with order forms and other material relating to the operation of the testing center. The contract forms must be signed by the chief administrative officer of the school. It is his[her] responsibility to designate a certificated counselor to serve as chief examiner.

The official testing center sends to the State Department of Education a report to include a list of names of individuals with satisfactory scores and with verification of date of birth. Following review and approval by the State Department of Education the certificates are issued directly to the client. A file is maintained in the State Department of Education for all issued certificates. No fee is assessed for issuance or reissuance if lost."

NOTICE

HEARING

Before such cancellation the holder "shall be notified and shall have an opportunity to be heard." The holder may appeal to the State Board any adverse decision by the Commissioner.

The state commissioner "shall have the authority, upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence, to reinstate any teacher's certificate cancelled" under this section. The applicant has the right to appeal to the State Board any denial of the commissioner as to reinstatement.

§13.102

Teachers to be employed for the first time or who have not been employed for three consecutive school years "shall be employed under a probationary contract." No such contract shall extend beyond the third consecutive school year of such teacher's employment "unless the board of trustees determines and recites" its doubt as to whether such teacher should be awarded a continuing contract. In such case the contract may be extended one additional year, at the end of which the teacher shall be either awarded a continuing contract or have his/her employment terminated.

TERMINATION

Local boards of trustees "may terminate the employment of any teacher holding a probationary contract . . . if in their judgment the best interests of the school district will be served thereby." Such decision must be communicated to the teacher by April 1 and is effective at the end of that school year. Failure to give such prompt notice of termination shall result in the continued employment of the teachers for the ensuing year. If the teacher has completed his/her three year probationary period, such continued employment shall be under a continuing contract.

TERMINATION HEARING

Teachers holding probationary contracts, who are to be terminated, have a right, upon written request, to a hearing before the board of trustees, at which he/she shall be given the reasons for his/her termination. All decisions of the board as a result of such hearing shall be final and non-appealable.

APPEAL

§13.106

Teachers employed under a probationary contract for three consecutive years and those permitted a fourth year shall be accepted for a continuing contract after decision by the board. The local board of trustees shall notify the teacher of his/her status in writing, and such teacher shall, within thirty days, notify the board of his/her acceptance of such status in writing. Failure to so accept within the specified time period, "shall be considered a refusal."

§13.107

Teachers employed under a continuing contract "shall be entitled to continue in his[her] position. . . without the necessity for annual nomination or reappointment" unless the teacher

1) resigns or retires;

"2) is released from employment . . . because of necessary reduction of personnel";

"3) is discharged for lawful cause;"

4) is dismissed under §13.110;

5) is returned to probationary status as authorized by §13.110.

§13.109 - 110

DISCHARGE

Any teacher may be discharged during the school year for "cause". Lawful "cause" for discharge shall be

"1) immorality;

2) conviction of any felony or other crime involving moral turpitude;

3) drunkenness;

4) repeated failure to comply with official directives and established school board policy;

5) physical or mental incapacity preventing performance of the contract; and

6) repeated and continuous neglect of duties."

"Any teacher employed under a continuing contract may be released at the end of the school year. . . or may be returned to probationary contract employment" for up to three years for any of the above stated reasons or for:

"1) inefficiency or incompetency in performance of duties;"

2) failure to comply with reasonable requirements for "professional improvement and growth;

3) wilful failure to pay debts;

4) habitual use of addictive drugs or hallucinogens;

5) excessive use of alcoholic beverages;

6) necessary reduction of personnel by the school district" (in reverse order of seniority in the specific teaching fields)

7) for good cause as determined by the local school board" i.e., failure to meet generally recognized standards of professional conduct.

Before any such action may be taken a teacher must be given written notice and a hearing (if requested).

§13.111-112

If the "grounds for the proposed action relate to the inability or failure of the teacher to perform his[her] assigned duties, the action shall be based upon the written recommendation by the superintendent of schools." In such case any teacher shall be entitled "as a matter of right" to every evaluation report or written memorandum concerning his[her] fitness or conduct.

Teachers desiring to contest a proposed action shall notify the board within ten days of his[her] receipt of the notice. A public hearing shall be held if the teacher requests it or the board determines it to be "necessary in the public interest."

The board may, for charges of "inefficiency, or inability or failure . . . to perform his[her] assigned duties," appoint a committee of teachers and administrators to hold a preliminary hearing on the charges. A teacher must request such a hearing.

HEARING

Any hearing held before the Board itself shall be public, unless the teacher requests the contrary.

At the hearing, the teacher "may employ counsel" and "shall have the right to hear the evidence upon which the charges are based, to cross-examine all adverse witnesses, and to present evidence. . . ."

§13.113

A teacher being considered for discharge under §13.109 may be suspended without pay by the board of trustees or the superintendent of schools. In such cases, the hearing "shall not be delayed for more than fifteen days . . . unless by written consent of the teacher."

SUSPENSION

§13.114

Upon notification of proposed action under §13.109, a teacher shall have ten days to request a hearing. After such period, or after such hearing has been held the board "shall take such action and shall enter such order as it deems lawful and appropriate." A teacher who is reinstated shall immediately be paid his[her] back salary. A majority vote of the full board is required before the board may enter any order adverse to the teacher.

HEARING

§13.115

Any teacher dismissed under §13.109 "shall have the right to appeal such action to the commissioner of education" provided notice of such appeal is timely filed. In the alternative, a teacher "may challenge the legality of such action" by bringing a suit in district court.

DISMISSAL
APPEAL

Any teacher with "continuing contract status" who has such status terminated or who is to be dismissed and any probationary teacher who is to be dismissed, may appeal such adverse decision to the commissioner of education.

"Either party to an appeal to the commissioner shall have the right to appeal from his[her] decision to the State Board of Education.

The decision of the State Board . . . shall be final on all questions of fact," but shall be subject to appeal to the district court, if the decision

"1) is not supported . . . by substantial evidence;"

"2) is arbitrary or capricious;" or

"3) is in error in the application of existing law to the facts of the case."

Decisions of the district court shall be subject to appeal as in all other civil cases.

RESIGNATION

Any teacher may, without penalty, relinquish his[her] position by filing with the board of trustees, his[her] written resignation. Such resignation must be tendered "prior to August 1, preceding the end of the school year that the resignation is to be effective."

A teacher may also resign, with the consent of the board "at any other time [which is] mutually agreeable."

Any teacher failing to resign within the time and manner specified above, and who fails to perform his[her] contract "shall be ineligible for employment by any other Texas school district during the ensuing school year covered by such contract, and his[her] teaching certificate shall be suspended for that school year only."

§13.201

Teaching is declared to be and is recognized as a professional occupation. As such, its members "shall accept responsibilities in development and promotion of high standards of ethics, conduct and professional performance and practices . . . ."

§13.210

HEARING

The Commission shall, after public hearings, "develop and adopt a code of ethics and standard practices which shall regulate and govern the conduct of members of the profession."

The code adopted shall include "standards of professional teaching practices and . . . performance and standards of ethical conduct of members of the teaching profession towards other members of the profession, parents, students and the community."

The Texas Education Agency shall submit the code to "all active certified professional personnel . . . to determine approval or disapproval of each individual standard . . ." The results of such "referendum" shall be considered before the standards are finally adopted. "No professional standards disapproved in the referendum vote shall be adopted."

The Commission shall have power to revise or amend the code finally adopted.

The commissioner of education shall distribute the code to any member of the teaching profession who requests it.

§13.211

"A violation of any rule or provision of the code of ethics and standard practices . . . shall be deemed to be unprofessional practice, which shall constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of the teaching certificate. . . ." If the commissioner determines that the "violation is not of sufficient gravity to require [such] suspension or revocation," he[she] may issue a warning and reprimand.

SUSPENSION

§13.212

"The commission shall act in an advisory capacity to the state commissioner . . . and to the State Board. . . in matters of interpretation and enforcement of the code of ethics and standard practices."

Any certified teacher may file a written complaint with the commissioner asserting an "alleged violation by any member of the profession of any rule or provision of the code." The commission may hear the matter or refer it to a sub-committee composed of three of its members.

Any teacher against whom a complaint has been filed, shall be given "at least fifteen days' notice of the nature of the complaint, "and the time and place of the proposed hearing.

NOTICE
HEARING

At the hearing, the accused member "shall be entitled to produce witnesses in his [her] behalf, and shall have a right to be represented by counsel." After hearing which shall be private, unless otherwise requested] "the commissioner or the hearing panel shall make findings and recommendations" whether to dismiss the complaint or refer it to the commissioner.

Any such findings and recommendations shall be filed with the commissioner along with a transcript of the hearing.

§13.214

HEARING

When the Commission first hearing the complaint has recommended dismissal, the commissioner may dismiss the complaint without further hearing. Such dismissal shall be final.

Where the commission has recommended suspension or revocation of the teaching certificate, the commissioner "may dismiss the complaint on the basis of the record certified to him, or may set the matter for hearing and disposition." Appeal from his[her] decision shall lie with the State Board. A final decision of the State Board may be appealed to the district court. "The trial or appeal shall be conducted de novo."

The commissioner is not bound to adopt the findings and recommendations of the commission or hearing panel. He/she "shall have power to adopt rules of procedure for the conduct of hearings before him/ her."

APPEAL

All appeals taken to the courts shall be tried de novo. As soon as the court acquires jurisdiction, "all administrative or executive action taken prior thereto shall be null and void and of no force and effect." The case shall be tried like all other civil suits "as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative or executive action or decision."

§13.218

This subchapter shall not be construed to "abridge the right" of a board of trustees to hire or dismiss a teacher, nor to prohibit them "from establishing any standard of conduct to be expected of any teacher."

However, the local superintendent "shall notify the commission of any teacher dismissed for the violation of the code of ethics and standard practices established by a school board."

§21.904

No school administrators shall require any teacher to join any group, or to refrain from participating in political affairs.

REGULATIONS

§2305.5

"The Commissioner of Education, upon considering the request and evidence, may cancel or suspend the teacher certificate."

CANCELLATION

§6212

"A teacher certificate may be cancelled by the Commissioner of Education for one or more of the circumstances prescribed by law. The holder of a certificate shall be notified prior to the cancellation of his[her] certificate and shall have an opportunity to be heard by the Commissioner of Education. If the certificate is cancelled, the applicant shall have the right to appeal to the State Board of Education. . . .

NOTICE
HEARING

APPEAL

The Commissioner of Education shall have the authority to reinstate a cancelled teacher certificate upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence. If the State Commissioner of Education refuses to reinstate a certificate, the applicant may appeal to the State Board of Education."

§6212

A teacher certificate may be cancelled by the Commissioner of Education under any one or more of the following circumstances: (1) on satisfactory evidence that the holder is conducting his/her school or his/her teaching activities in violation of the laws of this state; (2) on satisfactory evidence that the holder is a person unworthy to instruct the youth of this state; or (3) on complaint made by the board of trustees that the holder of a certificate after entering into a written contract with the board of trustees has without good cause and without the consent of the trustees abandoned the contract.

The procedure for reinstatement of a teacher certificate is as follows: (1) the teacher whose certificate has been revoked makes a request for reinstatement and presents evidence to the Commissioner of Education that the circumstances resulting in the revocation have been removed; (2) the Commissioner of Education reviews the evidence and notifies the teacher in writing whether or not the revocation is removed; (3) the Division of Teacher Education and Certification re-issues the certificate upon instruction from the Commissioner of Education; and (4) if the revocation is not removed, the teacher may appeal to the State Board of Education.

"Teachers shall conform to a prescribed set of ethics and standards."

§6501

"The Texas Education Agency, through the Office of Professional Practices, also supports the Teachers' Professional Practices Commission as follows: (1) prepares materials and makes arrangements for Professional Practices Commission meetings and hearings; (2) provides consultative services to members of the professional on matters pertaining to ethics, conduct, and other areas of concern; (3) acts as a liaison to legal counsel on all matters pertaining to statutes; (4) conducts studies and collects and prepares materials at the direction of the Commission; (5) assumes responsibility for correspondence concerning professional practices; and (6) assists the Professional Practices Commission in developing and adopting amendments to the "Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Educators."

§7501

"The Texas Education Agency shall provide administrative and supportive assistance to the Teachers' Professional Practices Act . . . ."

REGULATIONS

§4401

"The Texas Education Agency maintains a regular professional teacher preparation program and shall maintain a complementary statewide educational personnel development program to meet the particular personnel needs of the State. The program shall involve public school districts, colleges and universities, education service centers, and the Texas Education Agency. The program shall focus on the following basic strategies:

COLLEGE UNIVERSITY

(1) direct training and re-training efforts toward pre-elementary, elementary, and secondary educational personnel;

(2) encourage variation among training projects across the state;

(3) encourage and develop cooperative action plans among and within the state and local education agencies, colleges, and universities; and

(4) promote imaginative, multiple-funded projects using local, state, and federal resources.

Efforts shall concentrate on providing the opportunity for educational personnel to develop and maintain their potential for current educational processes."

III. Quality of the Educational Process

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

2. Other Qualification Standards

Statutes

§53-2-29 - 53-2-31

The "minimum uniform school program" to be maintained in each school district shall consist of a nine-month school term, "employment of legally certified teachers," transportation for pupils "living more than two and one-half miles from school," supervisors and principals "to assist the superintendent," "supplies and equipment" to "provide for efficient instruction," "provisions for health inspection and instruction," and "other factors . . . prescribed by law." In addition, the state board of education shall set standards for maintaining the high schools and the state superintendent shall see to it that all high schools are "inspected at least once during each school year." The state board of education shall determine whether these standards are complied with and "shall have power to determine whether the quality of education offered in each school district justifies support from state school funds." Districts which are not "approved by the state board of education" shall not receive funds. In order to receive state funds, school districts must "comply with schedules of salaries for all employees required to hold certificates."

B. Qualification Standards for Personnel

Certificated Personnel

Regulations

Certification

A school principal must hold a basic professional certificate or a professional certificate with a general administrative endorsement or either an elementary or secondary administrative endorsement.

An assistant principal in a school with 10-25 teachers, who spends more than 50 percent of his/her time in administrative duties, or an assistant principal in a school with more than 25 teachers must hold a basic professional certificate or a professional certificate with an appropriate administrative endorsement.

A superintendent or assistant superintendent of a local school district with more than 1500 pupils must hold a professional certificate with an administrative endorsement.

To be eligible for the elementary or secondary administrative endorsement to the basic professional certificate, an applicant must: hold a teaching endorsement, have completed work for a master's degree with at least 27 quarter hours of specialized study; and have two years' professional experience. The endorsement is issued for two years and is reissued only twice.

To be eligible for the elementary or secondary administrative endorsement to the professional certificate, an applicant must: hold a basic professional certificate, have completed work for a master's degree; and have three years' professional experience. The endorsement is issued for five years.

An applicant for the general administrative endorsement to the basic professional certificate must: (1) hold a basic professional or a professional certificate endorsed for elementary or secondary teaching; (2) have completed at least 27 quarter hours of specialized study; (3) have completed two years of professional experience.

An applicant for the general administrative endorsement to the professional certificate must meet the same requirements but have completed three years of successful professional experience.

The professional certificate is renewable upon presentation of nine quarter hours of approved college credit completed within the previous five-year period. Credit may be given for teaching and for inservice training.

All diplomas, including those of superintendents and supervisors, shall be issued only to "teachers, superintendents or supervisors" who are 23 years old, have "five years of successful teaching or supervising experience in this state," have a "good moral character," do not have any "infectious or hereditary disease" and "possess the requisite scholarship and culture." The diplomas are "valid for life" unless "revoked for cause" or the "holder allows . . . five consecutive years to pass" without teaching or supervising.

The state board shall determine the "rank and classification" for certificates, but certificates shall be valid for not more than five years. "Certificates may be issued to applicants" who do not possess the "teaching or supervising experience" that is "required for diplomas."

"Certificates and diplomas" issued by the University of Utah's school of education and "endorsed by the chairman of the state board" shall be equal in rank to certificates issued by the state board. The state board may accept "credits, certificates and diplomas" from other schools to fulfill the certification requirements, if the board finds that such work conforms to its own standards.

An out-of-state applicant who has taught for five years, two of which were in Utah, and who holds a certificate from another state which is "equal in rank" with Utah state certificates, may be issued a certificate by the state board of education.

Anyone who does not hold a valid certificate, issued by the state board of education, shall not "teach in a public school or be employed as supervisor or superintendent in any school district."

The state board of education has authority to examine applicants for certificates or diplomas in order to test their qualifications. The board may appoint qualified examiners to prepare and grade examinations.

REVOCATION

The state board of education has the authority to revoke a certificate or diploma for "immoral or unprofessional conduct or evident unfitness for teaching."

Teachers must be "mentally and physically" qualified to perform their duties and be free of "tuberculosis or any other chronic or acute disease." A teacher may be required to furnish proof that he or she is "mentally and physically qualified."

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

POLICY GUIDES

REPORT OF NINE SPECIAL PROGRAMS IN EDUCATION FUNDED BY THE UTAH SCHOOL FINANCE PROGRAM, 141 PAGES
Utah State Board of Education, 1976

Nine programs funded by the Utah School Finance Programs in 1975-76 and 1976-77 are included in this report. The funds were allocated by the Utah legislature for special programs in the public schools. The report contains a description of each program, its goals and objectives, together with specific recommendations for future use. The programs are briefly described below.

1. Community School Programs. Based on the concept that the schools belong to the people, the program is intended to find ways to promote community involvement in the schools. Various models have been developed, inservice training programs implemented, and new standards and guidelines recommended to the State Board of Education.

2. Compensatory Education Program. This program is designed to meet the needs of disadvantaged pupils (those children from low-income families, foster children, neglected and delinquent children and Spanish and Indian-American children who are bilingual). Most of the programs have centered on reading skills. The programs are administered on a district level and many are supplemented by local funding. The primary objective is to have disadvantaged youth in the program gain approximately one normal month's growth for every month spent by those students in reading, mathematics, and language arts.

3. The Elementary School Guidance Program. The purpose of this program is to improve educational programs. Typical kinds of services provided include testing, conferring with students, parents and teachers. The existence of guidance personnel in the schools has improved curriculum and student-teacher communications, and more pilot programs are encouraged.

4. Elementary School Music Programs. Money allocated is to be used to upgrade or add to existing music programs in school districts. Further funding is recommended.

5. Extended Year/Day and Summer Programs. The purpose is to extend and improve learning opportunities for students. Funds were used to provide summer programs and special enrichment programs. It is recommended that the program continue with more stress placed upon determining and evaluating student needs on a district-by-district basis.

6. The Gifted and Talented Student Program. The funds allocated for this program are to expand and improve programs for gifted and talented students. The report includes methods used to select such students and specific projects implemented.

7. The Instructional Media Centers Program. The program's purpose is to improve school media facilities according to individual district needs. Each district is to determine its priorities and its long-range goals and objectives. It was found that students who use media most tend to score themselves higher in academic, social and emotional characteristics. It is recommended that the program be continued.

8. The Career Development (Dropout Prevention) Program. The program has the goal of reducing the dropout rate by more nearly meeting the career development plans of students. Specific projects include counseling, adjusted curriculum and more flexible attendance patterns. The report includes a detailed account of district activities.

9. Experimental and Developmental Programs. This program is a means for testing and validating innovative solutions to critical problems. The report describes specific projects funded by the program.

III. Quality of the Educational Process

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

1. Accreditation

STATUTES

§165

A school shall be approved when it conforms to all the regulations and standards established by the state board "as necessary to provide an acceptable educational opportunity for pupils."

REGULATIONS

R.M. Ch. II.C; pp. 15 -- 22

The following minimum standards for the approval of Vermont Secondary Schools became effective July 1, 1964. After that, schools which do not meet the standards shall be listed as "unapproved" high schools.

The length of the school day shall be no less than 5 1/2 hours, 27 1/2 hours per week, exclusive of the time allowed for lunch and recess periods.

The principal of a school having fewer than 200 pupils shall devote not less than one-half of each school day to administrative and supervisory activities, not to include assignments in guidance, teaching, or study hall. The principal of a school of 200 pupils or more shall devote full-time to administrative, supervisory or guidance activities.

In a given school year, no teacher shall be assigned a teaching schedule in more than two teaching fields. Each teacher shall have planning and conference time equivalent to one period per day during the school week. No teacher's total class rolls shall average more than 100 per day in English or 150 per day in any other subject except 1) study halls, band, physical education and similiar activities, 2) approved programs of team teaching and large group instruction. No laboratory class shall exceed twenty-four pupils and no shop class shall exceed twenty pupils.

PUPIL/TEACHER RATIO

All administrative, supervisory, teaching, guidance, health, and laboratory personnel shall be qualified in the field assigned.

The professional staff shall include the following minimum number of teachers in accordance with the type of school organization:

Grades 7 - 9	6 full time teachers including principal
Grades 10-12	6 full time teachers includinf principal
Grades 9 - 12	6 full time teachers including principal
Grades 7 - 12	8 full time teachers including principal

Pupil records shall be complete and accurate, permanently maintained, centrally located, and safely stored. They shall be available to teachers and other members of the professional staff.

All reports and forms required by the State Board "shall be prepared and submitted in accordance with current instruction."

A standard one-unit course shall meet a minimum of 200 minutes per week covering a year and presume an equivalent amount of time in outside preparation. One-unit courses with on outside preparation shall meet 400 minutes per week, and science classes, including lab, shall meet 280 minutes per week. Unit credit may be given to individuals successfully completing an equivalent amount of approved work regardless of actual class time.

High school graduation shall include 16 units in grades 9 - 12:

English	4 units
Social Studies (including U.S. History)	2 units
Mathematics	1 unit
Science	1 unit

The High School Program of Studies

English - 4 units

There is a planned development sequence of instruction for the levels needed in listening, speaking, reading, appreciating literature, and writing including grammar and composition. It is recommended that these experiences be built around broad reading units in grades 9 and 10, around American Literature in grade 11, and around World and English Literature in grade 12. For further clarification see the section on English Language Arts in the Framework for the Curriculum in Vermont High Schools.

Foreign Language - 3 units

Three units in one language, Levels I, II, and III.

Science - 4 units

Four units include biology, chemistry, physics, all with laboratory periods plus one of the following: general science, earth science, physical science and life science.

Social Studies - 4 units

Four units to include United States History, World, European, or Modern History and Problems of American Democracy.

Mathematics - 4 units

Four units to include general mathematics, alegbra, geometry, and advanced mathematics.

Practical Arts - 2 units

Two units to include homemaking and industrial arts for boys and girls.

Physical Education - 1 unit

One unit to include a variety of activities according to the needs of the individual pupil.

Fine Arts - 1 unit

Art or music

Business Education - 4 units

Including a minimum of two years of typing

The following are requirements pertaining to plant, facilities and equipment:

There shall be space in the general office for safe and accessible maintenance of records.

The principal shall have a private office.

The library shall be an attractive room, open throughout the school day including before and after regular classes, and always adequately supervised.

Adequate space is 25-35 square feet per reader.

A school with enrollment of less than 200 should have: a library with room to seat 10 per cent of enrollment; a work area; storage over five-year period for magazines listed in Abridged Reader's Guide and other useful magazines.

A school with enrollment between 201 and 600 should have: a library with room to seat largest subject class plus 10, or 10 % of enrollment, whichever is larger; a workroom with table, electric outlet, typewriter and supply closets; shelving for books to be processed or mended; room for seasonal books, duplicates, and audio-visual materials, magazine storage.

A school with enrollment over 600 should have: a library with room to seat 10% or enrollment; work and storage space as above; plus librarian's office, combined area to equal at least 350 sq. ft.

Library equipment should include:

adjustable shelving, in sections 3 ft. wide and 6-7 ft. high, planned for expansion; tables and chairs (no more than four chairs at a table;

1 four-drawer file for 1-200 enrollment

2 four-drawer file for 201-800 enrollment

3 four-drawer file for 801+ enrollment

charging desk;

bulletin board.

Science laboratories and equipment shall be adequate to meet instructional needs in all science courses. Laboratory tables shall be sufficient in number to permit students to work in pairs and equipped with electricity, running water, sink, gas and the laboratory (for chemistry) ventilator or gas hood.

Science laboratories shall have adequate locked space for safe storage of equipment and materials, and also a carbon dioxide fire extinguisher and first aid medical supplies.

There shall be a private counseling office for each full-time (or full-time equivalent) counselor.

Audio-visual equipment and materials shall be available to all areas of instruction.

There shall be a sufficient number of teaching stations of suitable size to meet the program's needs. The following education-related services are required:

There shall be a guidance counselor for each 300 students or a minimum of one period of counseling time per day for each 50 students. Adult clerical assistance shall be provided.

There shall be library personnel on the basis of enrollment:

1-100	teacher-librarian or volunteer with library experience 1/4 school time plus before and after school.
101-300	teacher-librarian 1/2 of school time plus before and after school.
301-500	teacher-librarian 3/4 of school time plus before and after school.
501-750	teacher-librarian full time plus clerical help.
750-1000	full-time school librarian plus clerical help.
1000+	full-time school librarian plus full time clerk.

Library materials shall be selected to fit the needs of the individual school, with consideration for each subject area and the range of abilities and interests of all. All materials shall be processed and catalogued according to recognized procedure. Minimum size of library collection shall accord with enrollment:

Enrollment	Minimum Basic Collection	Minimum New Titles/ Editions to be Added Yearly per Student	Minimum Magazines & Newspapers
101-300	1500	1	10
301-500	2000	1	15
501-1000	2500	1	25
1001+	3500	1	35

Libraries shall provide pamphlets, pictures, maps, etc. If audio visual materials are included as library materials, extra time or personnel shall provide for their care.

Efforts of administrators, teachers and health personnel should be coordinated and designed to appraise health status, encourage the correction of remediable defeats, identify handicapped students, help prevent or control communicable diseases, and provide emergency care as needed.

There shall be full-time adult clerk or secretary for schools having 250 students.

The program of studies for grades 7 and 8 includes English language arts, science, social studies, mathematics, physical education, practical arts (including homemaking and industrical arts), and fine arts (including music or art).

Instruction is organized to provide for individual needs, abilities and interests through such methods as the utilization of individual instruction and differentiated assignments, remedial instruction, and developmental work in basic subjects.

Provision made for guidance and counseling by personnel qualified to work with the age level(s) to which they are assigned.

A school organization which includes grades 7 and 8 is administered by a principal who devotes not less than one-half of each school day to administrative and supervisory activities.

In other subjects, grades 7 and 8 conform to minimum secondary standards.

Policy on Participation in the Optional Public School Approval Process

The policy on participation in the optional public school approval process shall be as follows:

1. As a pre-requisite to participation in the Public School Approval Process, the following policy applies:

   1.1A. The Superintendent of a Supervisory Union/District desiring the Public School Approval Approach shall formally request entry into the Nursery School or other pre-kindergarten, Kindergarten, or 1-12 Public School Approval Process. This written request to the Commissioner of Education shall be accompanied by copies of official minutes indicating approval by all Boards of schools for which this person is chief administrative officer.

   1.1B. The Chief Administrative Office of a grade 7-12 or 9-12 secondary school desiring entry into the Nursery School or other pre-kindergarten, Kindergarten, or 1-12 Public School Approval Approach shall file with the Commissioner of Education the request to participate accompanied by copies of official minutes indicating approval by its Board and by each Board of public elementary schools which feed in 10% or more of this secondary school's total enrollment.

   1.2. In the event of any non-compliance, as confirmed by the State Department of Education, with the 1964 and 1968 State Minimum Standards; the request is to include an appeal for a waiver or for continuation of a current waiver. WAIVER

   1.3. The request shall contain the date when the Nursery School of other pre-kindergarten, Kindergarten, or 1-12 FINAL PLAN or SET OF COORDINATED PLANS shall be submitted to the Commissioner.

   1.4. Within thirty days of the receipt of the request, the Commissioner of Education shall respond.

2. The two pilot projects underway by September 1976, Union 32 and Proctor Elementary and Secondary, will continue in the Public School Approval Process with dates established for completing the processes.

2. Other Qualification Standards

Statutes

§821

Each school district shall provide one or more approved elementary schools; unless the electorate authorizes the school board to pay tuition to another school district to provide for the elementary education of its residents; and the school district is "organized to provide" only high school education.

§822

Each school district shall maintain a high school unless the school district "is organized to provide" only elementary education, or the electorate authorizes the school board to pay tuition to a public or private high school approved by the state board to be selected by the parents of the pupil within or without the state. The school board may both maintain a high school and pay tuition elsewhere as "in the judgment of the board may best serve the interests of the pupils, ..."

§827

A school district not maintaining a public high school may vote to designate a private or public high school as the public high school of the district. The board shall then pay tuition to that school only. If a parent is dissatisfied with the instruction or locality of the school he may request the board to pay tuition to another school. The board shall determine if this is "in the best interests of the pupil." A parent may appeal such determination to the state board, whose decision shall be final.

§1071

Each public school shall be operated for at least 175 days each school year. The state board shall fix the terms and number of hours per day.

When a public school is closed for a reason "beyond the control of the school board it shall petition the state board for a waiver of the number of school days required" herein. The state board shall act on such petition at the next state board meeting, and, if approved, the school will be deemed to have satisfied the required school days.

State aid to any district shall not be denied unless such district "unreasonably refuses to comply" with the provisions of law relative to teachers' salaries, appointment of superintendents, detailed financial reports . . . and any other requirements of law." It shall not be denied because the district permits voluntary religious exercises during non-academic periods of a regular school day. Any school denied state aid under this section may appeal to the county court within 60 days of such denial.

REGULATIONS

R.M. Ch. II; p. 84

In discharging its responsibility under SS 1071, the State Board sets these requirements:

1. The minimum length of the elementary school day should be:
   a. For grades 1-2, 4 hours including recess periods, excluding lunch.
   b. For grades 3-8, 5 1/2 hours including recess periods, excluding lunch.
   c. For kindergarten, 2 hours.
2. The length of the high school day shall be no less than 5 1/2 hours, or 27 1/2 hours per week, exclusive of the time allowed for lunch and recess periods.
3. There will be 175 full attendance days, effective July 1, 1978.
4. The only exception to the minimum length of day should be due to emergency conditions where the school board has found it necessary to send pupils home after school has begun. Such a day may be counted as a full day.

R.M. Ch. II; pp. 84 -- 84A

The State Board resolves to urge strongly every community, in both its Design and programs, to creatively and realistically bring about continuous interaction between its students and the laboratory of the art-of-doors for sustained action toward a more ecological and harmonious perspective to our national environmental heritage.

Each public school shall be maintained and operated for at least one hundred and seventy-five days in each school year. The school board shall make regulations dividing the aforesaid days into terms and within the minimum set my the state board fix the number of hours that shall constitute a school day, subject to change upon the order of the state Board.

When a public school is closed for cause beyond the control of the school board it shall petition the state board for a waiver of the number of school days required by this section. The petition shall be filed with the state board within 10 days of each occurrence and not later than June 15 of the school year involved and the state board shall act on the petition at the next meeting of the state board. If the petition is approved and a waiver granted, the school district shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of section 3444 of this title with respect to the length of the school year. If the state board fails to act, as specified above, the petition shall be deemed to have been approved and the waiver granted.

WAIVER

The State Board recommends that districts include 180 days on future calendars to take care of any emergencies which necessitate the closing of schools.

R.M. Ch. II; p. 88

Whenever a National Day of Mourning falls on a regularly scheduled day of school, the day should count as one of the official days of school. The decision for observing the National Day of Mourning in school or out of school is a matter of local decisions.

R.M. Ch. II.B; p. 11

Elementary education means an educational program conducted in the first eight years of compulsory schooling. If the program in the seventh and eighth years in any school district has been approved pursuant to Title 16 V.S.A. SS 3464c, the term includes only the first six years of the educational program.

R.M. Ch. II.B7; p. 14

Each school district furnishing elementary education shall provide, or have sufficient funds to provide, by September 1971, a minimum of 30 square feet of work space per child, per classroom.

R.M. Ch. II.B10; p. 15

WAIVER

The Vermont State Board will consider waiving established regulations of the State Board when necessary for the district to carry out the objectives of the approved local educational design.

R.M. Ch. III.D; p. 93

The State Board believes that the school districts of Vermont should be organized so as to provide the maximum education opportunities for pupils in grades K-12 or 1-12 consistent with administrative and financial effectiveness and efficiency.

A teaching certificate shall not be issued to a person under 17 years of age. No person shall teach in a public school without having a certificate in force.

The state board shall declare regulations relating to the recognition of teachers' certificates, diplomas, and educational credentials granted in another state, provided that such other state recognizes such certifying standards issued in Vermont.

§1792

A teacher who holds a professional three-year certificate, a professional probationary certificate, a professional standard certificate or professional continuing certificate, is considered a professionally certified teacher.

§2041

1. This agreement shall establish programs to "facilitate the movement of teachers and other professional education personnel among the states party to it." Each state shall cooperate with the others to take advantage of the experience of such personnel and to authorize specific educational personnel contacts to achieve that end.

2. The qualification requirements of the different states hinders such personnel from attempting to qualify for teaching positions once they move to another state. This program is designed to facilitate employment of well qualified persons regardless of the state of origin and thus increase the availability of educational manpower.

REGULATIONS

R.M. Ch. V.A; p. 101

Certification of educational personnel is for the purpose of guaranteeing that all teachers have at least the minimum competency necessary to be effective teachers in their field. Initial certification should indicate that the certificate holder has completed certain minimum educational requirements and possesses the character and ability to develop competence and professionality. The award of further certificates and the renewal of certificates should indicate that the certificate holder has demonstrated over time the appropriate level of competence and has assumed an appropriate measure of responsibility for his/her professional growth.

The State Board endorses the procedure known as "program approval" as one method of initial certification and supports involvement of the Department in improving pre-service education programs. The State Board also supports cooperation among the Department, colleges, teacher associations, and local school districts in developing local certification programs.

R.M. Ch. V.C.; p. 101

For the purposes of certifcation, a teacher is defined as one who is employed to instruct, to guide and to facilitate learning for others and has demonstrated competence in helping the learner to develop skills, acquire understanding and attitudes, and/or acquire knowledge

REGULATIONS

R.M. Ch. I.A; p. 22A

The Public School Approval Process (of 8/20/75) shall be optional, though the Department shall encourage participation and periodically report degree of participation. Districts not opting for the Process shall continue under 1964 and 1968 Minimum Standards plus:

Provision shall be made throughout the K-12 continuing so that all pupils have the opportunity to attain and maintain the basic competencies (i.e. the skills necessary for the attainment of functional literacy in listening, speaking, reading, writing, mathematics, or reasoning) in the enabling skill areas.

A pupil progress record showing growth in the evaluating skill areas shall be maintained. Provision shall be made to identify pupils having difficulty in attaining and maintaining mastery of basic competencies. Records of such pupils will include ways in which each school district has provided analysis of the learner and the learning situation and provided programs based on needs.

R.M. Ch. I.B; p. 22A

The Department shall define and the State Board shall approve basic competencies in the evaluating skill areas and shall make pupil progress record forms containing these competencies available to local school districts.

The method of deciding whether a pupil has advanced functional literacy shall be determined locally.

R.M. Ch. I.C; p. 22A

The pupil progress record shall acknowledge the attainment of functional literacy. At this time, a pupil-teacher conference will be scheduled to inform the student of his/her advancement.

R.M. Ch. II; p. 22B

Secondary school graduation requirements (3/12/64) shall remain in effect until July 1, 1977. A local secondary school shall file its graduation requirements with the Department. Such requirements will comply with U.S.A. Title 16, SS 906, local policy and the following State Board regulations:

DIPLOMA

The diploma shall indicate advancement of functional literacy in the enabling skill areas;

It shall include satisfactory completion of 16 one-year courses or their equivalent in terms of units.

Or it shall indicate, for individual pupils, the completion of a comprehensive multi-year plan as approved by the local board and Commissioner of Education.

The Vermont Design for Education takes the position that an education philosophy should center around and focus upon the individual, his learning process, and his relationship with the teacher.

1. The emphasis must be upon learning, rather than teaching.
2. A student must be accepted as a person.
3. Education should be based upon the individual's strong, inherent desire to learn and to make sense of his environment.
4. All people need success to prosper.
5. Education should strive to maintain the individuality and originality of the learner.
6. Emphases should be upon a child's own way of learning - through discovery and exploration - through real rather than abstract experiences.
7. The development of an individual's thought process should be primary.
8. People should perceive the learning process as related to their own sense of reality.
9. An individual must be allowed to work according to his own abilities.
10. The teacher's role must be that of a partner and guide in the learning process.
11. The development of a personal philosophy, a basic set of values, is perhaps one of the most important of human achievements.
12. We must seek to individualize our expectations of a person's progress as we strive to individualize the learning experiences for each person.
13. The environment within which students are encouraged to learn must be greatly expanded.
14. The school should provide a structure in which students can learn from each other.
15. To provide a maximum learning experience for all students requires the involvement and support of the entire community.
16. Schools should be compatible with reality. Learning which is compartmentalized into artificial subject fields by teachers and administrators is contrary to what is known about the learning process.

17. Individuals should be encouraged to develop a sense of responsibility.

R.M. Ch. II.E2; p. 23

The following guiding principles in developing promotion policies are recommended as a means of helping school administrators and teachers develop sound promotion practices:

1. Every child has possibilities for growth and development. Encouragement from an understanding teacher is an important incentive. Every child needs to experience success, but not necessarily all the time.
2. Each child should be placed where he/she may be assured continuous growth and progress educationally, socially, and emotionally.
3. The method of reporting must be consistent with promotion policies in effect. Parent-teacher conferences should be arranged in order that the method of reporting a child's progress is clearly understood by parents.
4. Promotion should show due regard for the fact that each child is different from each other child - physically, mentally, educationally, socially, and emotionally. Some children should be required to spend more time in the elementary school, especially at the primary level if it contributes to their development. Other children who require less time to complete the elementary program should be permitted to progress at a rate faster than average.
5. When a child is promoted, his/her new teacher should accept him/her as he/she is. The teacher should be provided all the facts needed to determine the child's present present level of development; start where the child is and stimulate his/her growth to higher levels.
6. The school administration must make every effort to arrange a reasonable teacher-pupil load in order that every child may receive the necessary teacher attention to meet his/her needs.

7. Factors to be considered in deciding grade placement are: the child's chronological and mental age; his/her physical, social and emotional maturity; his/her academic achievement, work habits and attitudes; the attitude and understanding of the child's parents regarding the proposed placement; and the child's own feeling about it.

R.M. II.P; p. 83

The title of the state high school equivalence certificate shall be the Vermont Secondary School Equivalence Diploma.

DIPLOMA

The Diploma shall be administered to Vermont residents of age 17 who have achieved a standard score of 35 on each of five tests and an average standard score of 45 on all five tests.

Minimum age of testing shall be 16.

Applicants for retesting are advised to have study and instruction in areas of prior failures.

Application must be on a special form, available on request to the State Department.

Test scores are accepted as official only when reported directly by 1) official GED Centers, 2) Transcript Service of the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support, 3) Veterans Administration hospitals and centers, and 4) the GED Testing Service.

Testing at Official GED Centers shall cost $7.50. There shall be no charge for issuance of the diploma.

The State Administrator of the GED Testing Program, Robert Vail, Director, Division of Teacher and Continuing Education, State Department of Education.

A MANUAL OF INFORMATION AND GUIDELINES FOR TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATORS

Vermont Department of Education 1977

This publication describes the basic competencies program and suggests guidelines for teachers and administrators in implementing the program. The Vermont Board of Education in 1976 adopted a set of Basic Competencies in reading, writing speaking, listening, and mathematics and stipulated that by 1981 mastery of these skills is to be one requirement for high school graduation.

Teachers are required to maintain for each Vermont pupil a progress record on which the mastery of the basic competencies will be recorded. The data collected will be used for state and local decision making.

The policy guide sets forth the basic competencies and sample forms of pupil progress reports, as well as guidelines to be used by teachers in assessing competency.

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

1. Accreditation

STATUTES

§22-21

The State Board of Education shall "do all things necessary to stimulate and encourage local supervisory activities and interest in the improvement of the elementary and secondary schools."

The State Board may provide standards for the accreditation of elementary and secondary schools. The State Board may recommend standards for non-public kindergartens and nursery schools. No such school shall hold itself out as having been approved by the State Board.

2. Other Qualification Standards

CONSTITUTION

Art. VIII, §2

"The State Board of Education shall determine standards of quality for the school divisions subject to revision by the General Assembly . . . ."

STATUTES

§22-5

"The school board ... is empowered to maintain" the public schools "for a period of at least nine months or one hundred and eighty teaching days in each school year. ... "If the length of the school year is reduced, the amount paid by the State shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be reduced proportionately.

SCHOOL TERM

§22-6

"A minimum number of pupils," as prescribed by Board of Education regulations, shall be required to form or maintain a public school.

Chapter 714 of the Acts of Assembly of 1976

"Whereas, Section 2 of Article VIII of the Constitution of Virginia provides the standards of quality for the several school divisions shall be determined and prescribed from time to time by the Board of Education, subject to revision only by the General Assembly; and

Whereas, the goals of public education in Virginia are to aid each pupil, consistent with his or her abilities and educational needs to:

1. Become competent in the fundamental academic skills;
2. Be qualified for further education and/or employment;
3. Participate in society as a responsible citizen;
4. Develop ethical standards of behavior and a positive and a positive and realistic self-image;
5. Exhibit a responsibility for the enhancement of beauty in daily life;
6. Practice sound habits of personal health; and

Whereas, such Board has prescribed such standards and . . . such standards [are] revised as follows:"

1. Basic Learning Skills

BASIC SKILLS

   A. Each school division shall give the highest priority in its instructional program to developing the reading, communications, and mathematics skills of all students, with concentrated effort in the primary (Kindergarten through grade three) and intermediate (grades four through six) grades.
   B. By September, 1978, the Board of Education in cooperation with the local school divisions, shall establish minimum Statewide educational objectives in reading, communications and mathematics skills that should be achieved during primary and intermediate grades.
   C. A Kindergarten program of at least one-half day shall be provided by each school division.

2. Career Preparation

   A. By September, 1978 each school division shall provide programs that offer:
      1. Career guidance to all secondary students;
      2. Adequate preparation to secondary students planning to continue their education; and
      3. Vocational education providing marketable skills for students who are not planning to continue their education

B. By September, 1978, each school division shall have a program of alternative career education.

C. State funds received by a school division for students enrolled in alternative education programs shall be disbursed to the programs in proportion to the number of students actually enrolled therein.

3. Special Education

Each school division shall have a program for early identification of students who may need special education and provide such students a program of special education which is acceptable to the Board of Education.

4. Gifted and Talented

A. Each school division shall provide differentiated instruction to increase educational challenges and to enrich the experiences and opportunities available to gifted and talented students.

B. High School students shall be awarded a diploma upon satisfactory completion of the first year of advanced education.

5. Personnel

A. Each school division shall employ at least forty-eight professional personnel for each one thousand students in Average Daily Membership.

PUPIL/TEACHER RATIO

B. The maximum number of students in Average Daily Membership per certified classroom teacher for each first, second or third grade classroom in all school divisions shall be as follows: for 1977-78, twenty-eight; for 1978-79, twenty-seven; for 1979-89, twenty-six; for 1980-81, twenty-five; and for 1981-82 and thereafter, twenty-four. Until the school year 1981-82, no Kindergarten classroom shall have more than twenty-five students in Average Daily Membership per certified classroom teacher, beginning with such year, no more than twenty-four students in Average Daily Membership per certified teacher. If a full-time teacher's aide is assigned to a kindergarten through third grade classroom, the maximum student limit for that classroom shall be raised by seven.

C. Each school division shall provide a program of personnel development.

6. Teacher Preparation

A. Beginning with the 1981-82 school year, one certification requirement for teachers beginning their teaching career shall be the successful completion of the equivalent of a five year program of teacher preparation.

B. After September, 1978, every certified teacher shall be required every five years to have his or her certificate renewed by a certification board.

7. Testing and Measurement

A. By September, 1978, testing programs that will provide the individual classroom teacher with information to help in assessing the educational needs of individual students shall be used.

B. Beginning September, 1978, uniform Statewide tests shall be adminstered annually to measure individual student progression.

8. Accreditation

The chairman and members of any evaluation committee on which accreditation is based shall be independent of the school division and selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. All accreditation reports shall be open for public inspection.

9. Planning and Public Involvement

Each school division shall revise and extend biennially a six-year school improvement plan including:

1. The measurable objectives of the school division stated in terms of student performance;
2. An assessment of the extent to which the objectives are being achieved;
3. Strategies for achieving the objectives;
4. Evidence of community participation in the development of the six-year plan.

10. Policy Manual

Each school division shall maintain an up-to-date policy manual which shall include:

1. A grievance procedure;
2. A system of direct communication between the local school board and its employees;

3. A procedure for personnel evaluation.

DISMISSAL

Upon recommendation of the division superintendent the school board shall employ teachers and shall dismiss teachers when delinquent, inefficient, or otherwise unworthy.

§22-217.1; 217.2; 217.3

Written contracts shall be made by the school board with all teachers, except those temporarily employed as substitute teachers, before they enter into their duties, in a form to be prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The State Board shall promulgate regulations to effectuate this article.

TENURE

A probationary term of service for three years in the same school system shall be required before a teacher, principal, or supervisor is issued a continuing contract. Another probationary term need not be served in another school division, unless the probationary period, not to exceed one year, be made a part of the contract of employment.

The school board may reassign a principal or supervisor with a continuing contract to a teaching position if notice is given, and the same salary need not be paid.

§22-217.4

A teacher who does not have continuing contract status and who has received notice of reemployment must accept or reject in fifteen days.

A teacher may resign after April fifteenth of any school year with the approval of the school board. The teacher shall request release at least two weeks in advance of the intended date of resignation. The request shall be in writing and state the reason for resignation.

If the Board refuses to release the teacher because of insufficient or unjustifiable cause, and the teacher breaches the contract, the board may revoke the teahcer's certificate.

The board may reduce the number of teachers because of decreased enrollment or abolition of courses.

§22-217.5 DISMISSAL SUSPENSION

"Teachers may be dismissed, suspended or placed on probation for the following reasons: incompetency, immorality, noncompliance with school laws and regulations, disability as shown by competent medical evidence, or for other good and just cause."

A teacher shall be informed of the reason for the action taken against him/her and that the teacher may request a hearing before the school board.

The hearing shall be held within thirty days of the request with fifteen days notice to the teacher of the time and place. The teacher may request a public hearing, may have a representative, present witnesses and evidence. HEARING

The school board shall give the teacher its decision within ten days and a copy of the transcript. A majority vote of the board is necessary for dismissal.

§22-217.6

Written notice setting forth the reasons for dismissals, suspension or placing on probation and a statement that the teacher may request a hearing before the school board within fifteen days after receiving the notice must be sent to the teacher. A personal interview with the teacher stating the reason for dismissal or placing on probation may be employed in lieu of such written notice. NOTICE

§22-217.7

The hearing before the school board, which shall be private unless the teacher requests a public one, must be set within thirty days of the request, and the teacher must be given at least fifteen days' written notice of the time and place. At the hearing the teacher may appear with or without counsel and be heard, presenting testimony of witnesses and other evidence.

HEARING

§22-217.8

The school board shall give the teacher its written decision within ten days after the hearing, together with a copy of the transcript of the proceedings, which shall be furnished without cost. A majority vote of the school board is necessary for dismissal.

§22-217.8:1

Except when a teacher is suspended because of being charged with a crime of moral turpitude, a division superintendent shall not suspend a teacher for more than five days unless the teacher has a hearing. No teacher shall be suspended longer than sixty days. Any teacher so suspended shall continue to receive his/her pay until after a hearing determines otherwise.

SUSPENSION

Any teacher suspended because of being charged with a crime of moral turpitude may be suspended with or without pay.

A teacher suspended without pay shall have an amount equal to his/her salary placed in an interest bearing escrow account. Upon being found not guilty or dismissal of the charge the teacher shall be reinstated and receive the money from the account less any earnings. The payment shall not exceed one year's salary. The money in the account shall be repaid to the school board if the teacher is found guilty and all appeals have been exhausted.

REINSTATEMENT

A suspended teacher's insurance benefits shall not be terminated.

D. Evaluation and Reporting

Educational System

Statutes

§22-19.1

"By the fifteenth of November of each year, the Board of Education shall submit to the Governor and the General Assembly a report on the condition and needs of public education in the Commonwealth." The report shall identify school divisions and specific schools in them which have failed to maintain schools meeting the existing prescribed standards of quality. In an odd-numbered year the report shall contain future standards of quality. These standards of quality shall be effective for the school years embraced within the fiscal years for which budget estimates are reported pursuant to §2.1-54.

§22-54

The school board and the division superintendent shall make an annual report "covering the work of the schools for the year" ending on June thirty to the State Board of Education.

"The school board shall encourage meetings of teachers to be held from time to time in the county under such regulations as the division superintendent of school may prescribe."

REGULATIONS

In-Service Training Programs, Reimbursement For, §I-VII

Local school authorities are encouraged to develop continuing in-service training programs.

When programs are supported by state funds, they shall be administered in accordance with regulations.

INSERVICE TRAINING

The Department is authorized to allocate in-service training funds on the basis of the size of the school division and the need for certified personnel in accordance with a formula approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The division superintendent of schools will organize classes within the division or on a regional basis, arrange with state institutions of higher learning to provide instructors for such classes, select and enroll instructional personnel.

An applicant must be under contract with a Virginia school board for the ensuing session and must enroll upon the specific recommendation of the division superintendent in college-credit courses which are conducted during the summer and/or regular school term.

The school division will be reimbursed for each eligible participant at the regular college extension tuition rate, but not to exceed $24.00 per semester hour ($16.00 per quarter hour).

School divisions are encouraged to develop training programs to meet the objectives of the Standards of Quality established by the General Assembly, and to meet the special needs of the local educational program.

Division Superintendents may submit applications from their divisions for enrollment in summer school courses designed to assist teachers to deepen and broaden their knowledge of subject-matter content, particularly with reference to current subject-matter developments in their respective teaching fields.

Candidates must be under contract with the Virginia school board for the ensuing session and take courses in their area of assignment and/or needed professional preparation.

Candidates earning undergraduate or graduate college credit must be enrolled in accredited state-supported or non-profit Virginia institutions of higher learning whose primary purpose is to provide education and not to provide religious training in a summer session. Instructors, shall be reimbursed at the rate of $5.00 per hour, not to exceed ten hours, upon certification by the division superintendent and coordinator of Civil Defense Education of satisfactory completion of the course.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction is authorized to utilize in-service training for institutes and seminars approved by his/her office for division superintendents and other school personnel.

(c) Adequate basic instructional materials ... shall be provided."

(d) Certificated personnel should be responsible for library services. The library should serve as a learning resource center.

(e) Appropriately certified personnel should be responsible for guidance and counseling services. "A coordinated testing program and ... system of student cummulative records shall be provided as well as ... educational and vocational information."

§180-56-306

" It is the intent of the state board ... in establishing accreditation standards to make provision for a situation in which a school district can carry out a quality program of education and to assure that graduates of an accredited secondary school are adequately prepared for ... higher education and/or occupational opportunities."

§180-56-307

" (1) An accredited secondary school is one which meets all statutory provisions for secondary schools ... and all requirements established by the state board ... as to curriculum, personnel, building, equipment, instructional materials and other facilities.

(2) Accreditation of secondary schools:

(a) Is a basis for determining ... the standard of education offered by the secondary schools of the state;

(b) Is a basis for evaluation of credits earned by undergraduates in one secondary school and presented for entrance to another; and

(c) Enables graduates ... to enter without examination any public institution of higher learning in the state, subject to approval by the institution of courses and preparation required for admission."

§180-56-310

" Standard accreditation shall be granted to a secondary school which meets accreditation standards ... WAC 180-56-315 through ... 375 ... and applicable statutory provisions... [and] shall ... remain in effect conditioned upon evidence satisfactory to the superintendent ... that the secondary school continues to meet said accreditation standards and statutory provisions: Provided: that the state board ... may at any time re-evaluate accreditation standards and require the secondary school to meet any subsequent revisions there of .... "

§180-56-315

" Approval of the school district's program ... shall be prerequisite for secondary school accreditation."

§180-56-320

"Annual report. An accredited secondary school shall submit annually...a report of such facts...[as the state superintendent]...may prescribe."

§180-56-380

"Administration of accreditation procedures. (1) Application. Applications for secondary school accreditation shall be made to the state superintendent....

(2) The state superintendent shall direct such reviews and examinations as he deems practicable and necessary.

(3) The state superintendent...upon determining whether the secondary school meets [the]...requirements for accreditation shall submit his/her findings and recommendations to the state board...."

2. Other Qualification Standards

Statutes

§28A.58.180

"All school districts . . . shall maintain school at least one hundred eighty days per school year" but for kindergarten the minimum annual term may be days.

SCHOOL YEAR

REGULATIONS
§180-16-162

"The following shall govern the approval or disapproval of a program conducted during the period of a strike:"

STRIKES

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction may investigate "a complaint of a substandard program" and a district's program will be disapproved if "one or more of the following standards" are violated:

(a) the requirement that "all administrators have proper credentials" (180-16-165(1)(c));

(b) the requirement that teachers have proper credentials (180-16-165(1)(d));

(c) "the school district shall provide adequate instruction [for all pupils in attendance];"

(d) pupils' health and safety must be provided for (180-16-165(1)(j));

(e) "the local district shall have a written plan for continuing the school program during" the strike period;

(f) the ratio of pupils to staff should not exeed 60 to 1 in the first 5 days, 45 to 1 in the next 5 days, and 30 to 1 thereafter.

PUPIL/TEACHER RATIO

The State Superintendent's decision or approval is final but may be reviewed at the State Board's option.

§180-16-164

Nothing in the regulations regarding approval of school programs during stikes "shall be construed as condoning or authorizing any ... work stoppage which disrupts the planned educational program of a district ... or the maintenance of an approved program for less than the minimum" 180 days required by law.

STRIKES

§180-22-150

"It shall be the purpose of the state-wide territorial organization of education service districts [ESDs] to more readily ... adapt to the changing economic patterns and educational program ... so that the children of the state will be provided with more equal educational opportunities." The following criteria should be considered collectively in the establishment of an educational service district:

(1) Program and staff. The ESD should be capable of providing "a program of educational services" which would include "leadership and consultant services in administration and finance, inservice education ... for teachers and administrators, special services" for handicapped and gifted children, "planning of school facilities, counseling and guidance, instructional materials, and develpment of projects .... under various federal acts."

(2) Size. The ESD should be between 1,700 and 7,500 square miles.

(3) School enrollment. The ESD should have a potential enrollment of 15,000 students.

(4) Topography and climate. Consideration should be given to these factors.

§180-30-485

"Approval by the superintendent of public instruction of the educational program or services to be offered" in the new facility shall be a prerequisite for approval of any interdistrict plan.

§180-56-210

" [T]he welfare of the state and its children require secondary schools which (1) can provide a comprehensive program broad enough to meet the varied needs, abilities and interest of students, (2) are adequately staffed ... (3) are administered by properly certified personnel, (4) can provide adequate pupil-personnel service, (5) can provide [suitable] school plant facilities ... (6) can give assurance of financial ability ... (7) do not duplicate existent educational facilities and/or programs, it shall be the policy of the state board ... to approve applications for ... any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve only when there is evidence that the foregoing conditions can be fulfilled."

§ 180-56-215

" A secondary program ... may not be established in any existing nonhigh school district except upon prior approval by the state board ...."

§180-56-235

" The initial enrollment for a four-year secondary school ... shall be at least four hundred; ...

The initial enrollment for a six-year secondary school, ... shall be at least five hundred; ....

In computing the initial enrollment ... students who can be served economically and reasonably in already existing high schools shall not be counted, even though these students reside in the nonhigh school district."

§180-56-240

" There shall be not fewer than sixteen qualified teachers, ... not including principal, vice-principal, counselor and librarian, in a four-year high school, nor fewer than twenty qualified teachers, or equivalent, in a six-year secondary school, ...

STAFF SIZE

Teachers shall be assigned to grade levels or teaching areas in accordance with the regulations of the state board ....

All administrative personnel, ... shall be qualified in accordance with the regulations of the state board ....

A full-time high school principal shall be employed to serve the functions of administration and instructional supervision."

§180-56-250

" The board ... of the nonhigh school district shall submit evidence of the district's financial willingness and ability ... to make its proportionate contribution to the establishment and maintenance of a broad, comprehensive educational program."

The building to be used as a secondary school shall be approved by the superintendent of public instruction.

§180-56-255

" Prior to application to the state board for the establishment of a new secondary school, the district[s]

... presently serving students living in the nonhigh school district shall have been given adequate notice of the intent of the nonhigh school district subsequently to withdraw students.

The board ... of the nonhigh school district seeking approval of the establishment of a new secondary school shall submit evidence that students living in the nonhigh school district cannot be economically and reasonably served in an existing high school or high schools."

Evidence shall be submitted that unreasonable duplication of transportation routes and/or facilities will not result from the establishment of the new secondary school. §180-56-265

" In the establishment of one or more new grades in grades nine through twelve, the principl es ... concerning program, specialized services, staff and corps and size of respective grade or grades as related to potential total enrollment of the proposed secondary school shall apply: The establishment of each such grade shall be subject to prior approval by the state board .... " §180-56-270

" In exceptional cases, the state board ... will consider for special approval applications from schools with an initial enrollment of less than four hundred students and fewer than sixteen teachers and related personnel if in its judgment the establishment of a new high school may be desirable because of the remoteness of the area and the necessity for a program of secondary education."

"Unit of credit. (1) One unit of credit shall represent a minimum of approximately one hundred twenty clock hours. Fractional units may be given...

(2) Time spent in class shall be one criterion in judging the worth of a program; however, experimentation in organization is encouraged...Deviations from the one hundred twenty clock hour unit shall be subject to approval by the state superintendent..."

§180-56-340

"Professional preparation of staff. (1) Principal. The principal and vice principals must have the appropriate credentials in accordance with regulations of the state board of education.

Review shall be confined to the transcript of the hearing and evidence submitted, except in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure not shown in the transcript, or alleged abridgement of the employee's constitutional free speech rights, additional testimony on these allegations may be heard.

The court may affirm the Board's decision, or remand for further proceedings or reverse the decision if "the substantial rights of the employee may have been prejudiced because the decision was:" (1) unconstitutional; or (2) "in excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the board; (3) made upon unlawful procedure; or (4) affected by other error of law; or (5) clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in the act of the Legislature authorizing the decision or order; or (6) arbitrary or capricious."

§28A.67.070

No certified employee shall be employed except "by written order of a majority of the directors of the district," nor unless he/she holds an effective "teacher's certificate."

The board shall make a written contract with each employee limited to a term of one year.

RENEWAL NOTICE

If there is probable cause the employment contract should not be renewed the employee shall be notified in writing.

HEARING

If an opportunity for hearing to contest the district's failure to renew the contract is not timely given, the employee "shall be conclusively presumed to have been reemployed by the district for the next . . . term."

The above shall not be applicable to "provisional employees," meaning first year employees (§28A.67.072).

REGULATIONS
§180-80-195

"Purpose. The purposes of this chapter are to... establish the various certificates which must be held as a condition to employment...and the conditions and procedures governing issuance and retention of the same.
The State Board...considers it to be the professional obligation of each school district superintendent...to file a written complaint with the Superintendent...against any certificated employee who:

(1) has committed or is guilty of (a) immorality, (b) a violation of written contract, (c) intemperance, (d) a crime against the law of the state, or (e) an act of unprofessional conduct that is of a nature which may justify the revocation of the individual's certificate...and (2) has been convicted of any crime involving the physical neglect of children, injury of children (excepting possible motor vehicle violations) or the sexual abuse of children.

Upon receipt of any such written complaint, that office within the Superintendent...having responsibility for certification shall investigate the complaint. If sufficient cause for revocation...is believed to exist, the...Superintendent... may appoint a hearing examiner and/or legal counsel to... hear...the case. The superintendent and his/her hearing examiner and legal counsel shall at all times remain neutral and free from the investigation and prosecution of the case.

COMPLAINT

HEARING

Procedures for Investigating Complaints for Certificate Revocation [as promulgated by the professional education and certification section (PE&C section)].

1. The school district...superintendent requesting revocation submits in writing,...all circumstances surrounding the basis for the complaint...including the specific grounds for revocation...
2. All complaints will be investigated by the PE & C section.
3. If the certificate holder has retained legal counsel, the PE & C section shall request permission from such counsel to discuss the case directly with the client.

4. All documentation will be evaluated...to determine if sufficient cause for revocation exists.

5. If sufficient cause...is believed to exist, ... the PE&C section shall present the case for revocation before the Superintendent of Public Instructions.

REVOCATION

6. If it is determined, on the basis of the investigation... that insufficient cause exists..., the PE&C section shall so inform the [relevant parties]"

STATUTES

§28A.04.135

The state board shall make rules "governing the conditions" under which certificate of educational competence may be issued to a "person nineteen years or older," or a child over fifteen who can evidence "substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school program."

CERTIFICATE OF EDUCATIONAL COMPETENCE

§28.05.050

GRADUATION

A graduation requirement shall be the completion of a one year course in United States history and government, and one semester study of Washington's history and government. The principal may allow transfer students to waive the state requirement.

U.S. HISTORY

WAIVER

" [G]raduation represents a certain amount of growth in academic, social, physical and occupational skills generally thought to be useful in adult life. [T]he state possess[es] the responsibility to assure some degree of consistency among public school districts [and] private schools ... with respect to the education represented by a high school diploma. [E]ach school district must [however] have the opportunity to develop programs ... which are responsive to the particular needs of its community and its students. High school graduation requirements established by a school district shall be consistent with (1) the view that high school graduation represents the natural culmination of a growth experience for the individual student .... "

DIPLOMA

" [N]ew graduation requirements ... shall be determined as follows: (1) graduation requirements established by or pursuant to WAC 180-56-016; ... 021;... 026; ...and 036 shall govern the graduation of all students who commence the ninth grade subsequent to July 1, 1977 .... "

GRADUATION

§180-56-011

" In order to clarify ...the minimum expectations for a high school diploma, the [local] board of directors ... shall adopt reasonable graduation requirements and make such requirements available in writing to students, parents and members of the public. It shall be appropriate ... to require the demonstration of certain minimum competencies as a condition to graduation. If established, any such competency requirements shall be in addition to a student having successfully completed certain minimum course requirements ...."

§180-56-016

" Each school district shall require each candidate for high school graduation to complete a four-year program of educational growth in grades 9-12 and to have earned no less than 45 credits of study. A "credit" shall be equivalent to a minimum of 60 hours of instruction .... Fractional credits may be given .... The conventional means of assigning units of credit ... is inappropriate in certain cases. In order for alternative learning experiences to be assigned credit value, the following shall occur:"

(1) The specific experience to be gained along with its related outcomes shall be identified.

(2) The credit value of the experience shall be determined by estimating the number of hours that would be required by a student to achieve the intended learning outcomes.

(3) For each 60 estimated hours, one credit shall be granted.

(4) Appropriate evaluation procedures shall be adopted to assess the learning outcomes.

§180-56-021

The following credits and subject areas of study shall be included in each school district's graduation requirements:

Subject	Credits
*English	6
Mathematics	3
Social Studies:
United States history & government	2
Washington State history & Government	1
Contemporary world history, geography & problems	2
Laboratory Science	2
Occupational Education	3
*Physical Education	Minimum of 2 years

---

* English includes, but is not limited to, reading composition, creative writing, literature, speech and drama.

 Required by statute.

 Occupational education includes, but is not limited to, homemaking, industrial arts, business and office education, distributive education, diversified occupation, agricultural education, trade and industrial education and health occupations education.

* Each district shall require at least two years of physical education activity with a minimum of such activity per week. In the event a student is excused ... alternative requirements shall be imposed as necessary to assure that the student earns no less than 45 credits.

§180-56-031

" Specific high school graduation requirements... may be waived for an individual student: Provided, That they are not required by state statute: Provided further, That in no case except for those students who commence ninth grade prior to July 1, 1977 may the minimum requirement of 45 credits be waived.

WAIVER

" Each school district ... may delegate the responsibility for granting such waivers to personnel who by virtue of their training and experience can best assess the student's circumstances.

Each school district ... shall adopt rules pursuant to which graduation requirements waivers may be made. Such rules shall at least provide:

RULEMAKING

(1) The procedures for ... the disposition of a waiver request; and

(2) That the rationale for any disposition of a waiver request be communicated to the student .... "

§180-56-036

" Each school district ... may adopt competency, course and credit graduation requirements in addition to the minimum[s] set forth .... Such additional requirements shall be supported by a written rationale which is available to students, ... and which demonstrates that:

(1) The quality of life of the individual student will be substantially enhanced, and

(2) The probable success of ... high school students, ... post-high school education will be substantially enhanced; or

(3) The probable success of ... high school students, ... obtaining employment will be substantially enhanced; or

(4) The health, safety and welfare of the individual student will be substantially enhanced. "

§ 180-56-061

Minimum requirements for high school graduation for all students who commence ninth grade prior to July 1, 1977 shall be as follows:

" (1) The table below indicates the (required) subject requirements .... Alternative learning experiences should be provided for each student within each subject area. [S]pecfic requirements may be waived provided they are not required by state statues.

SUBJECT	UNIT

"(3) Music and art requirement.....Unspecified
Schools must provide opportunity to develop appreciation and skills in music and art; may be included in elective requirements.

"(4) Health education requirements.....Unspecified

May be included in elective requirements."

§180-56-400

"Basic policy. The certificate of educational competence is intended to verify that a student possesses an acceptable mastery of the minimum basic academic skills which form the foundation for further learning. The certificate...is frequently accepted as an indication of a readiness for continued formal studies. The certificate does not replace a high school diploma in that it does not reflect the completion of the usual course of sequential studies.

"Local boards...shall establish school district policies and programs that will ensure the student is encouraged to remain in a high school program which leads to a regular diploma."

§180-56-405

"Purposes. The purposes...are to establish the procedures and conditions governing the issuance of a certificate of educational competence to persons fifteen years of age and under nineteen years of age who possessed a substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school education program and to persons nineteen years of age or older. The purpose...[is]...to encourage students to remain in the regular high school program, and these rules shall be implemented in a manner which so encourages any student. The issuance of a certificate...does not preclude the possibility of returning to the high school to obtain a regular diploma, and it should be considered a valid instrument for reentry to any high school."

§180-56-410

"Definitions.

(1) "Certificate of educational competence" shall mean a certificate issued by the state superintendent as evidence of the measure of a person's level of achievement in specified areas of the high school curriculum as determined by the person's general educational development test socres;

(2) 'Regular high school education program' shall mean a program which leads to the issuance of a high school diploma...

(4) Substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school education program shall mean causes which compel the student's withdrawal from the program in the student's best interest. Such causes shall include... (a) personal problems which seriously impair the student's ability to make reasonable progress...(b) a financial crisis... (c) the lack of curriculum and instruction which constitute appropriate learning experiences for the student, and (d) the inability or failure of the school...to adjust its program for the individual,...in a manner which enables the student to advance toward graduation with reasonable progress and success." §180-56-415

"Applications--Establishment of substantial and warranted reason--Administration by school districts. Applicants...who are fifteen years of age and under nineteen years of age shall make application,...to either the school district within which the applicant physically resides or the applicant's last school district of attendance...The district superintendent...Shall assign the application to an appropriate principal...who shall then convene a committee of no less than three, composed of the principal, parent(s) or guardian(s), if available, and other persons, including at least one counselor or teacher and one adult of the applicant's choosing, who are in a position to evaluate most accurately the applicant's case.

"The committee shall make a written recommendation,... to the superintendent...as to whether or not the applicant possessed a substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school program.

"The superintendent...shall provide the applicant with written notification of the district's proposed decision, including a statement of the reasons for such proposed decision, within thirty (30) calendar days of application." §180-56-420

"Appeals. Any applicant aggrieved by a proposed decision...may, within fifteen (15)days of the date of notification, either: (1) request that a final decision be deferred and the applicant's file be placed on an inactive status pending further evidence, or (2) appeal the proposed decision to the district board of directors. Request for deferral shall be honored and reopened at the option of the applicant. The decision of the board of directors on appeal shall be final except as it may be appealed pursuant to RCW 28A.88.010....The proposed decision of the superintendent... shall become the final decision of the district upon an applicant's failure to elect either (1) or (2), above."

APPEAL

§180-56-425

"Applications--Testing--Award of certificates of educational competence. Applicants...who are nineteen years of age or older, who have not been issued either a high school diploma or certificate, who are physically residing or have a permanent home within the state...and who have taken the general educational development test... shall make application for a certificate of educational competence directly to the state superintendent.

TESTING

Applicants...who are fifteen years of age and under nineteen years of age, have been determined to have had a substantial and warranted reason for leaving the regular high school education program, have presented evidence of such decision to the GED testing center, are physically residing or have a permanent home within the state and have taken the general educational development test...shall make application for a certificate of educational competence directly to the state superintendent...."

§180-56-430

"Issuance of certificates--Minimum test scores. All applicants...who have complied with the [regulatory] provisions... and who have attained a standard score of a least thirty-five (35) on each of the five (5) portions of the general educational development test and an average standard score of at least forty-five (45) on all five portions shall be issued a certificate of educational competence by the state superintendent."

§180-56-435

"State committee. The state superintendent shall appoint a committee composed primarily of members knowledgeable with respect to high school graduation requirements, [which] shall (1) develop and periodically review the guidelines for implementation of these rules; (2) to observe and analyze the effects of these rules (3)...develop and complete the long-range goals of these rules, including the development and/or modification of the most appropriate educational competence tests; and (4)...report the committee's recommendation for action at least annually..."

APPOINTMENT

"Community college high school diploma programs. (1) Minimum requirements for high school diploma. The minimum requirements and procedures for the issuance of a high school diploma....shall be as prescribed by the state board....

(2) Provisions governing program for persons eighteen years of age and over. (a) The appropriate...official shall evaluate...the student and shall recommend an appropriate course...of study [leading to]...the high school diploma.

(b) Satisfaction of minimum course requirements may be met by one or more of the following methods--actual completion of courses regularly conducted in high school, vocational-technical institute and/or community college; approved correspondence or extension courses; supervised independent study; or testing in specific subject areas.

(c) The appropriate education official shall exercise reasonable judgment in appraising the educational experience of the student...to determine the degree to which the student has satisfied the minimum credit requirements....Consideration may be given work experience, vocational training, civic responsibilities...and other evidences of educational attainment.

(d) A high school diploma shall be granted to each individual who satisfactorily meets the requirements...

(3) Provisions governing program for persons under eighteen years of age. (a) The high school principal shall evaluate the previous educational record of the individual and...shall approve the program of studies leading to the high school diploma.

(b) The student must be assigned a program supervisor.

(c) Satisfaction of the minimum credit requirements may be met by one or more of the following methods--actual completion of courses regularly conducted in high school, vocational-technical institute and/or community college; approved correspondence or extension courses; or approved supervised independent study.

(d) The school district shall grant the regular high school diploma... to each individual who satisfactorily meets the requirements for high school completion...

B. Qualification Standards for Personnel

Aide

Regulations

§5140

A teacher's aide need not be certified but should have a high school diploma and preferably two years of college. Three types of aides may be employed: general school aides, clerical aides and classroom aides. Training of classroom aides should consist of 108 hours of formal instruction, including 96 hours of on the job training. General and clerical aides shall train for 54 hours including 42 hours of on-the-job training. A classroom aide shall assist the teacher in classroom activities with pupils such as reading stories, correcting written work and monitoring tests. General aides shall perform administrative and housekeeping tasks such as collecting milk money, passing out lunch tickets, monitoring halls, and lunchrooms. Clerical aides shall keep attendance records, obtain supplies, keep student information up to date, etc.

APPOINTMENT

The state board shall appoint a state superintendent of schools. "He[she] shall be a person of good moral character, of recognized ability as a school administrator, holding at least a master's degree in educational administration, and shall have had not less than five years of experience in public school work. He[she] shall receive an annual salary set by the West Virginia board of education . . . and necessary travelling expenses incident to the performance of his[her] duties . . . .

TEACHERS

STATUTES

§18-2-6

"The education of teachers . . . shall be under the general direction and control of the state board of education, which shall, through the state superintendent of schools, exercise supervisory control over teacher preparation programs in all institutions of higher education, including student teaching in the public schools," in accordance with state board standards.

STUDENT TEACHING

The state board of education may enter into student teaching agreements with county boards of education. Such agreements shall include "minimum qualifications for the employment of public school teachers selected as supervising teachers," and minimum standards for the public schools selected for teaching. A student teacher "shall exercise the authority of a substitute teacher."

Institutions of higher education approved for teacher preparation may cooperate with each other and with one or more county boards of education in the organization and operation of centers to provide selected phases of the teacher preparation program such as student teaching or internship programs . . . .

The state board of education shall make rules and regulations for the accreditation, classification, and standardization of all schools in the State, except institutions of higher education, and shall determine the minimum standards for the granting of diplomas and other certificates of proficiency, except those conferred or granted by institutions of higher education. No institution of less than collegiate or university status may grant any diploma or other certificate of proficiency on any basis of work or merit below the minimum standards prescribed by the state board of education."

RULEMAKING

§18A-3-1

"Any professional educator, as defined . . .[by statute]. . . who is employed within the public school system of the State shall hold a valid teaching certificate licensing him to teach in the public schools in the specializations and grade levels as shown on his[her] certificate for the period of his[her] employment. If a teacher is employed in good faith on the anticipation that he[she] is eligible for a certificate and it is later determined that he[she] was not eligible, the state superintendent . . . may authorize payment by the county board . . . to the teacher for a time not exceeding three school months, or the date of notification of his[her] ineligibility, whichever shall occur first. A certificate . . . shall not be granted to any person who is not a citizen of the United States, is not of good moral character, and physically, mentally, and emotionally qualified to perform the duties of a teacher and who has not attained the age of eighteen years . . . except, that an exchange teacher from a foreign country, or an alien person who meets the requirements to teach and who has filed a declaration of intention to become a naturalized citizen, may be granted a permit to teach . . . ."

REGULATIONS

§5110

All persons registered as seniors in approved teacher preparation programs shall be required to take the National Teacher Exams as a requirement for certification.

§5111

A teacher holding a certificate endorsed for teaching English may teach journalism provided he/she has three years of experience in journalism certified by the superintendent.

§5210

A person holding a professional certificate can upgrade the rank to bachelor's plus 15 provided she/he earns 15 hours of graduate credit within the time recognized by the institution for completion of a master's degree. One holding a masters degree can upgrade his/her rank to masters plus 15 or masters plus 30 in a similar manner. Teachers' salary shall be based on the highest rank of certificate held.

West Virginia adopts the following policies with regard to equal opportunity for females in its public schools:

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Curricular areas -- all courses offered must be open equally to male and female students including vocational subjects.

Textbooks -- should accurately portray in content and illustration the contributions of both sexes in American and other cultures.

Guidance and career information must be given to both sexes equally. Standardized tests must attempt to eliminate sex-biased questions.

Extracurricular Activities must be provided to both sexes. In athletic programs, where selection is based on competitive skill schools must provide separate teams for males and females or one team open to both sexes. If separate teams are offered, equipment and supplies must be provided to both teams without discrimination. If access to athletic opportunities have been limited for one sex, affirmative action must be taken to inform members of the availability of equal opportunities and provide support and training to enable them to participate.

Facilities - must be available without discrimination. Facilities such as locker rooms, showers, etc. shall be separate but comparable.

Employment shall be provided without regard to discrimination on the basis of sex.

EDUCATION GOALS FOR WEST VIRGINIA

West Virginia Department of Education 1975

The goals for public education in West Virginia are set forth in this policy guide. The goals are divided into four priority levels, as follows:

Priority Level I: acquiring mastery of the basic skills; Priority Level II: developing the ability to reason, learning to work with others, acquiring an understanding of social and political systems, preparing for a job appropriate to one's needs and abilities, fostering a sense of self-respect and becoming a responsible citizen. Priority Level III: developing values and ethical principles, learning to accept responsibility appreciating people of diverse cultural and ethnic backgrounds, gaining an awareness of and sensitivity to the fine arts, developing a knowledge of and responsibility for the environment. Priority Level IV: developing creative talents and leisure skills and activities.

The guide also describes West Virginia's assessment program, consisting of six basic elements: (1) establishing common goals for education; (2) establishing learner objectives; (3) identifying surrounding condition variables; (4) assessing learner status; (5) determining learner needs, (6) establishing educational priorities.

SCHOOL EMPLOYEES

REGULATIONS

§5300

To minimize disagreement and misunderstandings the following policies and procedures are adopted:

(1) County boards of education have broad but not absolute power in managing the schools within its jurisdiction. Employees share in the responsibility of implementing Board policies and should be encouraged to make suggestions to the Board through appropriate channels. All Board decisions should be communicated to employees "clearly and openly."

(2) Employees have the right to know how well he/she is performing his/her job and may be given a written evaluation on a regular basis if requested. Each employee is entitled to due process in matters affecting his/her employment, transfer, demotion or promotion. Every employee has the opportunity of improving his/her job performance prior to termination.

(3) All official personnel policies must be written and made available to each employee. Additionally, each Board of Education shall adopt a written grievance procedure to resolve differences between employer and employees.

STATUTES

§115.01(6) thru (10)

The school year is from July 1 to June 30. Twenty school days constitute a school month. School days are days on which school is actually taught and the following days on which school is not taught:

1. Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day and Memorial Day, if within the scheduled school term and not within a scheduled vacation period.
2. Days on which state teachers' conventions are held.
3. Days on which school is closed by order of a health officer.

With the consent of the school board, up to five (5) Saturdays "may be counted as school days in any school year when school is taught thereon...."

A school term is the time commencing with the first school day and ending with the last school day that the schools of a school district are in operation for attendance of pupils, other than for summer classes.

§117.09

If a school district, for 2 or more successive years has failed to operate schools as required by law, the territory shall be attached to one or more school districts that are in compliance with the agency school committee. If an order issued under this section is voided, the non-operating school district shall arrange for the attendance of its pupils at the schools of one or more other school districts on a nonresident tuition basis and shall provide transportation for its pupils who reside two miles or more from the school they attend.

§117.10

"A common school district operating only elementary grades and having an assessed valuation of $2,500,000 or more may establish a high school if evidence satisfactory to the state superintendent is given that at least 75 persons of school age who are residents of the school district are prepared and desire to attend a high school. . . ." After the filing of a petition and voter approval, the resolution must be approved by the state superintendent.

§118.02

School shall be held unless it falls on Sunday or Saturday and the day shall be appropriately observed: January 15, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day; February 12; February 15, Susan B. Anthony's birthday; February 22; April 13, American Creed Day, September 28, Francis Willard Day; October 9, Leif Erickson Day; October 12, and November 11.

REGULATIONS

PI 8.01

(1) In order to be eligible for state aids, a school district shall meet the following standards under criteria established by the department of public instruction.

(2) To assure that the children of Wisconsin will have available an educational program meeting statutory standards, the department of public instruction establishes the following criteria:

(a) Each school district board shall certify annually that every teacher, supervisor, administrator, and other professional staff member has been issued a valid certificate, license or permit by the department for the position for which he/she is employed before entering on duties for such position and that a copy of the valid certificate, license, or permit is on file in the district.

(b) Each school district board shall certify annually that every teacher is paid at least the minimum salary and granted the sick leave specified.

(c) Each school district board shall establish a procedure by which its teachers, supervisors, administrators, and other professional staff members formulate a long-range inservice plan and operate an annual inservice program for all professional staff members. The plan and program shall be directed toward meeting the cooperatively identified needs of the school district and of individual staff members.

DIAGNOSIS

(d) Each school district shall identify and diagnose underachieving students in reading in grades K-3 (kindergarten through third). Such identification and diagnosis shall be directed or performed by department certificated personnel who have earned at least 6 semester credits in courses dealing with the measurement of reading skills and achievement and/or the diagnosis of reading difficulties. Children with such identified and diagnosed reading deficiencies shall receive instruction and services directed toward the removal of the deficiencies. Such instruction and services shall be coordinated with all other reading instruction.

COURSE OF STUDY

(e) Each school district shall operate a kindergarten program in which all 5 year old children of the district may be enrolled. The teachers shall be certificated by the department to teach kindergarten. Physical facilities, equipment and materials shall be provided for a program which includes opportunities for learning basic concepts and skills in language arts, fine arts, social studies, science, mathematics, and physical education.

(f) Each school district shall operate or be part of a cooperative or otherwise make provision for education programs for children with exceptional needs.

(g) Guidance and counseling services shall be provided for all students. The district shall have on file written evidence that its guidance and counseling program is systematically planned and directed by department certificated guidance and counseling personnel. Guidance and counseling activities in grades 7-12 shall be performed by department certificated guidance and counseling personnel. The program of guidance and counseling shall include providing vocational education, and personal-social information; pupil appraisal; placement; referral, research; and follow-up activities.

(h) The hours of a regular full school day for each school in the district shall be established by written school board policy. School shall be held and students shall receive actual instruction for the equivalent of at least 180 such regular full school days.

(i) Emergency nursing service shall be provided under the direction of a nurse(s) registered in Wisconsin. Arrangements shall be made with a physician to serve as medical advisor for the emergency nursing service. NURSE

(j) All students in grades K-6 shall be provided with library/media services performed by or under the supervision of department certificated library and audio-visual personnel. All students in grades 7-12 shall be provided with library/media services performed by department certificated library and audiovisual personnel.

(k) A long-range plan shall be developed, adopted, and recorded by the school board which defines the patterns and schedule established for safe and healthful facilities. The facilities shall be inspected at least annually for potential or demonstrated hazards to safety and health, and hazardous conditions shall be corrected, compensating devices installed or special arrangements made to provide for safe and healthful facilities.

HEALTH EDUCATION

(1)1. Health instruction shall be provided in accordance with a written comprehensive health education curriculum. A professional staff member shall be designated as coordinator of health education. Health education in grades K-6 shall be under the supervision of a department certificated health teacher. In grades 7-12 health education shall be conducted by or under the supervision of a department certificated health teacher and shall include one structured course in health taught by a department certificated health teacher.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

2. Physical education instruction shall be provided in accordance with a developmental, sequential, comprehensive physical education curriculum and program of instruction for all students. Instruction in grades K-6 shall be daily and shall be conducted by or under the supervision of a department certificated physical education teacher. All students in grades 7-12 shall participate in the instructional program of physical education taught by a department certificated physical education teacher except that in senior high schools which offer programs based on Lifetime Sports one year or the equivalent may be optional.

ART

3. Art instruction shall be provided in accordance with a written comprehensive art curriculum which is based upon concepts developed through sensory awareness, aesthetic discrimination and skill development in the creation of art and the knowledge of human art heritage. Art instruction shall be provided for all students in grades K-6 and shall be performed by or under the supervision of a department certificated art teacher. Art instruction shall be available to all students in grades 7-12 and shall be taught by a department certificated art teacher.

4. Music instruction shall be provided in accordance with a written comprehensive music curriculum including developmental experiences involving singing, playing instruments, listening, movement, creative expression and music reading. Music instruction shall be provided for all students in grades K-6 and shall be performed by or under the supervision of a department certificated music teacher. Music instruction including general music, vocal music and instrumental music shall be available to all students in grades 7-12 and shall be taught by a department certificated music teacher.

and who present evidence of 6 semester hours or refresher work in methods and/or academic subjects at the time of application.

(12) Term certificates allowing persons to serve as substitute teachers in the public schools may be issued to applicants who have held or are eligible to hold a regular Wisconsin credential which has expired or the equivalent credential issued in another state.

The term non-renewable certificate indicates the length of time the holder has to reach the next level of legal certification. Certificates are given to persons who are recommended by the proper college authorities and who have completed a program approved by the state superintendent of public instruction.

(1) Five-year non-renewable certificates may be issued to graduates of recognized 2 year elementary teacher courses at the expiration of the 2 year license.

(2) Life certificates may be granted to teachers who have earned bachelors' degrees or their equivalent and who are fully qualified graduates of a college or university accredited for teacher education under the following conditions.

(a) The unlimited or life certificate dated July 1, 1962 or thereafter, for all types of certification, will be valid so long as the holder remains active in the teaching profession. The credential shall become invalid if for 5 or more consecutive years the holder is not actively employed in a position in the teaching profession requiring the holding of a valid license.

(b) [High school teachers] must hold a bachelor's degree and must have met the pattern of preparation approved by the state superintendent. Life certificates may be granted only in the major subject or subjects of preparation and such other subjects that have been taught successfully in Wisconsin public junior or senior high schools for at least 3 years and which were endorsed on a regular Wisconsin license during that period of time. At least 1 of the 3 years shall have been within the 3 year period prior to the application for the life certificate. Proof of success shall be furnished as requested by the state superintendent.

(c) [Elementary teachers] must have met the pattern of preparation approved by the state superintendent and must be properly recommended graduates of a degree course or its equivalent in elementary education from a college or university accredited to offer a degree in the preparation of elementary teachers. Each applicant for a life certificate in elementary teaching must have held a regular license or licenses to teach in Wisconsin elementary schools and must have taught successfully under such license or licenses for at least 3 years in Wisconsin public elementary schools. At least 1 of the 3 years shall have been within the 3 year period immediately prior to the application for the life certificate. Proof of success shall be furnished as requested by the state superintendent.

(d) To secure a life certificate in a special field a teacher must hold a degree from an accredtied college or university and must have secured an acceptable major or master's degree in that special field. The applicant must have taught successfully in the special field while holding a regular Wisconsin license or licenses for at least 3 years. Such teaching must have been done in Wisconsin public schools or in approved Wisconsin private schools.

(1)(a) [School librarian] [c]andidates must hold a valid Wisconsin teaching license, or be eligible for such license, or, in the case of degree-holding candidates, must successfully complete an approved program of 18 semester hours of professional education including field experience in public school library service.

1. Minimum credits for certification (covering both elementary and secondary schools) will be 22 semester hours in library science and related fields.

(b)[Unlimited school librarian] Issued to applicants meeting requirements for school librarian who have completed 3 years of successful experience as a Wisconsin public school librarian, and who have completed a master's degree in library science or instructional materials.

(c) [School librarian supervisor] Qualfications are completion of a master's degree in library science or related area, 5 years of successful experience as a public school librarian, and completion of courses beyond the master's degree

(2) As of July 1, 1969, a teacher must be a certified driver and safety education teacher to teach driver and/or safety education courses.

(b) In order to receive a license to teach driver education, a person must hold a Wisconsin teaching license and must have earned at least 6 semester hours of approved credit in the field of driver and safety education in an accredited teacher education college. At least 3 semester hours of such credit shall be in driver education which shall include a minimum of 10 class periods of experience in teaching practice driving. Applicants for the driver education license must have a minimum of 3 years driving experience while holding a state driver's license, hold a current Wisconsin driver's license, and have an acceptable driving record.

(c) As of July 1, 1969, a teacher must have successfully completed a basic driver education course, an advanced driver education course, and a general safety education course consisting of at least a total of nine semester hours. Six or more of these semester hours must consist of basic and advanced driver education course work and the balance, three semester hours, must be in general safety education course work.

(d) As of July 1, 1976, all driver and traffic safety education teachers must have at least 15 semester hours of approved credit in driver and traffic safety education for initial or renewal of licensure.

(3) A supervisor or coordinator under this rule is a person employed by a public school board of education, a county handicapped children's education board, or a cooperative education service agency as a general supervisor, special education supervisor, director of instruction, or special education director within any district, city school system, county handicapped children's education board, or cooperative educacional service agency. All general supervisors, coordinators, and directors of instruction shall hold supervisors' licenses or certificates.

(a) A supervisor or coordinator in any public school system in Wisconsin must hold or be eligible to hold a license to teach in Wisconsin at the level of supervision and must have had at least 3 years of public school teaching experience at that level

He must hold a master's degree with graduate courses in the areas of curriculum; supervision; measurements; guidance; and child and/or adolescent development.

2. The original license for supervisor or coordinator shall be for 3 years. This license may be renewed upon satisfactory proof of successful work as supervisor or coordinator. A life certificate may be issued by the state superintendent to those successfully completing 2 post-master's degree courses in education of at least 2 credits each and by producing evidence of successful work as supervisor or coordinator for 3 or more years in Wisconsin public schools while holding a supervisor's or coordinator's license.

(b) To secure a special education supervisor's, coordinator's, or director's license, a person must meet the qualifications in sub. (a) 1 and must also hold an undergraduate, or master's degree, or certification in one area of exceptionality. In addition, a person must have completed a minimum core of 6 graduate credits in the area of supervision and administration of special education programs; field work or internship in the supervision and administration of special education; and/or seminar in the supervision and administration of special education programs.

1. The original license for a level B special education supervisor, coordinator, or director shall be for 3 years and shall be issued upon the recommendation of competence by a recognized training institution.

2. A Level A special education supervisor's, coordinator's, or director's license shall be for 3 years and shall be issued upon the recommendation of competence by a recognized training institution to individuals attaining a Sixth Year Specialist's Degree, or its equivalent of one year's graduate work in special education beyond the master's degree.

(4) An administrator under this rule is a person employed by a public school board of education or a private school as a principal, assistant principal, district administrator, or assistant district administrator. All public school administrators included under section PI 3.10(4) must hold the proper administrative license. The initial non-renewable administrator's certification shall be issued for a three-year period if the applicant meets the minimum requirements.

(a) Initial district administrator and assistant district administrator licensure issued under PI 3.10(4) requires completion of an approved specialist's degree program in school administration or its equivalent.

(b) 1. For the initial three-year license, the applicant must meet the following criteria:

a. Eligibility to hold a Wisconsin license to teach in the elementary schools.

b. Three years of successful teaching experience at the elementary school, middle school, and/or junior high school levels.

c. A master's degree.

d. Successful completion of an approved master's degree program for the preparation of secondary school administrators or its equivalent and the endorsement of the educational institution which offers the approved program.

2. For the first five-year license, the applicant must have completed three years of successful experience as a middle school, junior high school, and/or senior high school administrator or assistant administrator.

3. For each subsequent five-year license, the applicant must have completed a planned program of professional development (6 semester credits or the equivalent) approved by the State Superintendent.

(c)1. Secondary school administrator. 1. For the inital three-year license, the applicant must meet the following criteria:

a. Eligibility to hold a Wisconsin license to teach in the secondary schools.

III. Quality of the Educational Process

A. Qualification Standards for Schools and School Districts

1. Accreditation

Regulations

Chapter V: Notice of Approval of Courses
Sec. 1

The State Approval Agency, upon determining that an educational institution has complied with all the requirements of this chapter, will issue a letter of approval to the institution, accompanied by a copy of the catalog of the institution, as approved, and containing: effective conditions of approval; name of course approved; and enrollment limitations, where applicable.

Chapter V: Notice of Approval of Course
Sec. 5

The agency will make periodic surveys of an active approved school for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the school is complying with the criteria of the approval. The school must remedy inadequacies and non-compliances found or have the approval withdrawn.

Chapter VIII: The Revised-Accreditation-Evaluation Procedures

A district may use any planning model it chooses, provided the model includes needs assessment with community involvement as the first step in the process and evaluation as the last step. Staff of the State Department can be of most assistance on other PLANS or IDI. Districts may elect to use the services of personnel other than State Department staff.

North Central Accreditation will not continue to be accepted in lieu of State Department accreditation.

Accreditation will be by school only. Each school within a district as well as the district as a whole must submit an annual accreditation report.

Levels of accreditation will be:

Accredited - assigned for affirmative answers to all items on annual accreditation report.

Conditional - assigned when there is less than 100% affirmative response to all items. A conditional status will be assigned, except as noted under "non-accredited," until deficiencies are removed or for the remainder of the school year, whichever comes first.

Non-accredited - assigned when in the State Board's opinion non-accreditation is justifiable or when deficiences which resulted in conditional status have not been removed prior to the end of the school year in which they were noted.

After accreditation reports are submitted to the State Department, they will be reviewed by the staff which will recommend a tentative accreditation level District superintendents will be notified of tentative accreditation levels. When a conditional or non-accredited status is recommended, a representative from the State Department may be sent to the district to resolve any misunderstandings and to obtain additional information. Recommended levels will be submitted to the State Board for final determination. Any district may request an audience before the State Board for review of the assigned status of any school within its district.

In accordance with Wyoming Education Code of 1969, Section 14b, the State Superintendent may issue orders necessary to withhold state funds from any school or district failing to comply with minimum precribed standards.

A local district may submit to the State Superintendent a request for help in implementing a program of comprehensive-systematic planning. The primary responsibility for implementing and supervising the accreditation-evaluation process, and thus in aiding local districts in this regard, is the Planning, Evaluation, and Information Services Division of the State Department.

B. Qualification Standards for Personnel

Certificated Personnel

Regulations

Chapter III; Sec. 4

Candidates for certification shall apply directly to the Licensing and Certification Services Unit of the State Department of Education.

Applicants shall present satisfactory evidence of date of birth, official transcripts certifying credits earned, and course credit in the U.S. and Wyoming State Constitutions. Credentials shall remain on file so long as certificates are in effect.

Applications for initial certification of candidates who will reach the retirement age of 65 during the school year for which the certification is requested will not be honored.

Applications for renewal of certificates are due by July 1 of the year the certificate expires. To renew a certificate, an applicant must have removed all assessed deficiencies and have earned the renewal credits specified for respective certificates. Renewal credits may include approved college credits, one hour earned in the State Department's civil defense courses, and five hours in approved inservice workshops.

School Personnel

§21.1-174

"No person shall teach or supervise in a public school in this state and receive compensation therefor . . . who at the time of rendering such services is not a holder of or a [qualified] candidate for a certificate issued or to be issued under the laws of this state and the rules and regulations of the state board of education."

REGULATIONS

Chapter III; Sec. 5

The State Board of Education has authorized the issuance of the Initial Public School Certificate, the Standard Public School Certificate, the Professional Public School Certificate, and the Substitute Permit.

Certificates are valid from the date of issuance recorded on them. All certificates expire June 30th of the final year of the term for which they are issued. The school year in which the certificate is issued shall be considered as the first year of the term of that certificate.

Chapter III; Sec. 6

Certificates shall be endorsed for the various areas of teaching such as kindergarten, elementary grades, and the particular subject-matter areas in grade levels above the sixth grade, for the appropriate pupil personnel services, and for the appropriate areas of administration.

CONSTITUTION

WYOMING CONSTITUTION, ART. VII, §1

"The legislature shall provide for the establishment and maintenance of a complete and uniform system of public instruction, embracing free elementary schools of every kind and grade, a university with such technical and professional departments as the public good may require and the means of the state allow, and such other institutions as may be necessary."

WYOMING CONSTITUTION, ART. VII, §9

The legislature shall "by taxation or otherwise" sufficiently supplement the general school fund so that the combined sum will "create and maintain a thorough and efficient system of public schools, adequate to the proper instruction of all youth of the state, between the ages of six and twenty-one years, free of charge; and in view of such provisions so made, the legislature shall require that every child of sufficient physical and mental ability shall attend a public school during the period between six and eighteen years for a time equivalent to three years, unless educated by other means."

WYOMING CONSTITUTION, ART. VII, §10

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"In none of the public schools so established and maintained shall distinction or discrimination be made on account of sex, race, or color."

WYOMING CONSTITUTION, ART. VII, §12

SECTARIAN INSTRUCTION

"No sectarian instruction, qualifications or tests shall be imparted, exacted, applied or in any manner tolerated in the schools of any grade or character controlled by the state, nor shall attendance be required at any religious service therein, nor shall any sectarian tenets or doctrines be taught or favored in any public school or institution that may be established under this constitution."

TEACHERS

STATUTES

§21.1-15

REVOCATION

SUSPENSION

HEARING

"In addition to other powers assigned to it by law, the state board may: "revoke or suspend certificates issued by the department of education for incompetency, immorality, other reprehensible conduct, or gross neglect of duty, upon its own motion or upon the petition of any local board of trustees; provided that no certificate shall be revoked or suspended without a hearing conducted as provided by law."

§21.1-152

A "continuing contract teacher" is any initial contract teacher who has been employed by the same school district in the state of Wyoming for a period of three consecutive school years, and has had his/her contract renewed for a fourth consecutive school year; or a teacher who has achieved continuing contract status in one district, and who without lapse of time has taught two consecutive school years and has had his/her contract renewed for a third consecutive school year by the employing district.

DISMISSAL

"Dismissal" means the cancellation of any teacher's contract of employment by the board of trustees while such contract is in effect. In the case of a continuing contract teacher, dismissal shall mean cancellation of his/her contract at any time other than at the end of a school year where proper notice has been given.

"Initial contract teacher" means "[a]ny teacher who has not achieved continuing contract status."

"Suspension" means "[t]he removal of a teacher from the classroom during the school year without termination of salary."

"Teacher" means "[a]ny person employed under contract by the board of trustees of a school district as a certified professional employee."

TERMINATION

"Termination" means "[t]he failure of the board of trustees . . . to re-employ a teacher at the end of a school year in any given year."

§21.1-153

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

"Absences and leaves of absence approved by the employing board shall not be considered as interruptions in service for purposes of determining continuing contract status."

§21.1-154

"A continuing contract teacher shall be employed . . . on a continuing basis from year to year without annual contract renewal at a salary determined by the board of trustees . . . subject to increases . . . as provided for in the salary provisions adopted by the board."

§21.1-155

"An initial contract teacher who has taught in the system at least ninety days shall be hired on an annual basis and shall be notified in writing of termination, if such is the case, no later than March 15 of each year."

§21.1-156

A continuing contract teacher is to be given written notice of any recommendation of termination by the superintendent or any member of the board, together with written reasons for this recommendation, on or before March 15 of any year.

NOTICE

TERMINATION

Termination, if approved by the board will be effective at the end of the contracted school year in which notice is given.

§21.1-157

Any teacher may resign her/his position, effective at the end of the school year, by giving written notice on or before April 15 to the superintendent of schools or any other designated official.

NOTICE

§21.1-158

"A continuing contract teacher shall be entitled to a hearing before the board within thirty days after receipt of notice of a recommendation of termination by requesting same in writing within at least [sic] ten days after receiving said notice."

HEARING

§21.1-159

If a contract for the following year is to be offered to an initial contract teacher, the board must offer the contract by March 15 and it must be accepted by April 15 or the position will be declared open.

§21.1-160

"The board may suspend or dismiss any teacher for incompetency, neglect of duty, immorality, insubordination, or any other good or just cause.

SUSPENSION

Suspension or dismissal proceedings shall be initiated by the superintendent or any member of the board delivering to the teacher a written notice thereof, together with written reasons therefor.

DISMISSAL

Every teacher who has dismissal or suspension proceedings instituted against him[her] shall have a hearing before the board on the reasons for such dismissal or suspension, unless such hearing is waived in writing by the teacher."

HEARING

The hearing is to be conducted before the board not less than ten nor more than thirty days after the proceeding is initiated. "Written notice of said hearing is to be delivered to the teacher at least ten days prior thereto."

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

At the hearing, the teacher has the right "to appear in person with or without counsel , to be heard and to present testimony or witnesses and other evidence bearing upon the reasons for the proposed dismissal or suspension, and to cross-examine witnesses at the hearing." Testimony is to be under oath or affirmation. The board may provide for the recording of all evidence and testimony and such record is to be retained as a public record for five years.

Any suspension or dismissal of a teacher must be approved by a majority of the members of the board of trustees.

§21.1-162

"The contracts of all teachers . . . shall be subject to the policies, rules, and regulations of the school district not in conflict with . . . laws of the State of Wyoming."

§21.1-164

"Any board may designate a teacher as a continuing contract teacher at any time."

REGULATIONS

Chapter III, Section 4(1)

Certificates may be revoked if a charge is proved of gross neglect of duty, incompetency, immorality, or other reprehensible conduct or upon receipt of evidence of action by the courts for convictions of felony, of immorality, or of breach of contract or for a declaration of incompetency. REVOCATION

Any teacher whose certificate has been revoked is entitled to a hearing before the State Board. HEARING

Persons whose teaching certificates have been revoked elsewhere in the U.S. are not eligible for Wyoming certification.

The State Board will consider a one year revocation of a teacher's certificate upon written recommendation of the local board.

A teacher may be declared incompetent by the local board for: deficiency of requisite knowledge in the assignment area; inadequate communication skills, deficiency in the understanding of the learning process; failure to use appropriate methods of teaching commensurate with the educational setting; failure to maintain discipline; and physical, mental, or emotional incapacity to the extent that he(she) is unable to perform his(her) duties as a teacher.

Chap. III; Appendix A; Secs. 4 - 12

All hearings regarding the issuance and the revocation or suspension of teaching certificates shall be governed by these rules. All proceedings shall be initiated by filing with the Director of the Division of Certification and Placement verified written changes stating the identity of the complaining local board or department, the identity of the certificate holder against whom charges are made, the specifics on which the charges are based, and the identities of all potential witnesses. HEARING

The Director shall transmit these charges to the State Superintendent who will set a time and place for a hearing.

The Director shall present the certificate holder or his/her agent with a copy of the charges and notice of the hearing either in person (by a designated official or non-offical of lawful age and not a party in interest) or by publication, where presentation in person is not possible, in a newspaper of the county where the hearing shall be held and by subsequent mailing of a copy of the notice to the last known post office adddress of the certificate holder .

NOTICE

The State Superintendent shall assign each hearing a place in a docket and establish a separate file for each docketed case in which all material relevant to it shall be systematically placed.

If the certificate holder fails to answer or appear the allegations shall be taken as true. In the discretion of the State Board and on request of either the Director or the certificate holder, a prehearing conference shall be held in accordance with Rule 16 of the Wyoming Rules of Procedure.

The State Board shall select one of its members as hearing chairman.

The hearing itself shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

HEARING

After the chairman has convened the meeting and the Director has read the charges into the record and noted for the record all subpoenas and appearances of record, all witnesses shall identify themselves and be sworn in.

Opening statements may be made at the chairman's discretion.

The Director or his/her agent shall present the Director's evidence. The certificate holder shall make presentation in the same manner. Witnesses may be cross-examined by both the Director and the certificate holder or their agents. The Chairman, members of the board, and the attorney general or agent may examine or cross-examine witnesses.

Closing statements shall be permitted. No rebuttal statements may be made by the Director in closing argument.

The chairman may permit other interested parties to submit for the record oral or written statements, limited to narrative form: in no event will direct testimony or cross-examination be permitted by interested parties.

The Director, certificate holder, or interested parties may tender legal briefs on their own motion or on the board's request.

The chairman shall declare the evidence closed and the case to be taken under advisement by the Board.

Chapter III; Appendix A; Sec. 13 - Sec. 16

The State rules of civil procedure, insofar as applicable, shall apply to matters before the Board of education concerning the issuance, revocation and suspension of teachers' certificates.

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

All persons appearing before the Board in a hearing have the right to represent themselves or be represented by an attorney of their choice.

The Attorney General or representative shall be present throughout the hearing to assist and advise the Board.

The Board shall make and enter a written decision and order containing findings of fact and conclusions of law based on the evidence. The decision will be filed with the Director and, without further action, will become the final decision. The Director shall send a copy to the certificate holder and other interested parties.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

A governing board shall cooperate with the local health officer in measures necessary for the prevention and control of communicable diseases in school age children. For this purpose the board may use district funds, property, and personnel and permit a licensed physician and surgeon or a registered nurse acting under a supervising physician and surgeon to administer an immunizing agent to any pupil whose parents have consented.

IMMUNIZATION CONSENT

While the physical presence of a supervising physician and surgeon shall not be required, the supervising physician and surgeon under whose direction the registered nurse is acting shall require the nurse: to demonstrate competence in the administration of immunizing agents, including knowledge of all indications and contraindications and in the recognition and treatment of any emergency reactions to such agents; and to possess and know how to use medications and equipment as required to treat any emergency conditions and reactions caused by the immunizing agents.

SMALLPOX

The control of smallpox is under the direction of the State Board of Health. No rule on the subject of vaccination shall be adopted by school or local health authorities.

LIABILITY

No school district, officer, physician, or hospital treating a child enrolled in school shall be held liable for the reasonable treatment of a child without the consent of the child's parent or guardian when the child is ill or injured during regular school hours and requires medical treatment, and the parent or guardian cannot be reached, unless the parent or guardian has previously filed with the school district a written objection to any medical treatment other than first aid.

EMERGENCY CONSENT

The governing board may require parents and guardians to keep current at the pupil's school of attendance emergency information, including home and business address and telephone number and the address and telephone of a relative or friend authorized to care for the pupil in an emergency situation if parent or guardian cannot be reached.

§49420 -- 49421

HEALTH SUPERVISOR

The governing board of a school district may employ, or the governing boards of two or more districts may join to employ a supervisor, or supervisors, of health, consisting of a physician, psychologist, psychiatrist, nurse, oculist, dentist, optometrist, otologist, podiatrist, audiologist, dental hygienist, or any one or more of such persons.

APPOINTMENT

The board or boards may also appoint such number of nurses, school audiometrists, physical therapists, and occupational therapists to work under the supervisor of health. Such employees shall be compensated, but not with money set aside for teachers' salaries or libraries.

§49422; 49425

CALIFORNIA

No physician, psychiatrist, oculist, dentist, dental hygienist, optometrist, otologist, podiatrist, audiologist, or nurse not employed in such capacity by the State Department of Public Health shall be employed to supervise the health of pupils unless the person holds a services credential with a specialization in health or a valid credential issued prior to the operative date of the 1970 amendment to this section.

SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST

A school psychologist shall hold a school psychologist credential, a general pupil personnel services credential authorizing service in school psychology, a standard designated services credential with a specialization in pupil personnel services authorizing service as a psychologist, or services credential issued by the state board or the State Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing.

SCHOOL NURSE

The services credential with a specialization in health authorizing service as a school nurse shall not authorize teaching services unless the individual holds a baccalaureate degree, or its equivalent, and has completed a fifth year of preparation.

PHYSICIAN

No physician employed under §44873 shall be required to hold a credential if the physician meets the requirements of §44873.

Also, a licensed physican need not hold a credential if the physician's service is as a member of a committee to consider written or oral information concerning students and recommend admission or discharge of students to and from classes for exceptional children.

MEDICATION
CONSENT

Any pupil required to take prescribed medication during the school day may be assisted by a school nurse or other school personnel if the district receives written instructions from the physician and written consent from the parent or guardian for the assistance.

SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST

§49424

A school psychologist is a credentialed professional who shall render services, including: consultation with administrators concerning learning objectives; planning of remedial programs and of experimentation and evaluation; consultation with teachers on classroom methods and procedures; consultation with parents to assist in understanding the learning and adjustment processes of children; consultation with community agencies concerning pupils being served by them; psychological counseling; and psychoeducational assessment and diagnosis.

MEDICAL EXAMINATION

CONSENT

§49440 -- 49441

Upon the report of a principal that a pupil shows evidence of impaired mental health, the governing board may, with the consent of the parent or guardian, provide for the mental examination of the pupil.

The principal shall not be liable for damages or for any civil or criminal penalty for any report made in good faith.

The governing board shall make rules for such mental examination as will insure proper care of the pupils and proper secrecy in connection with any condition of impaired mental health noted by the supervisor of health and as may tend to the correction of the condition.

§49442

When evidence of impaired mental health has been noted, the supervisor of health shall report, to the parent or guardian of the child, on a form approved by the state superintendent, asking the parent or guardian to take action to correct the condition. The report shall not include any recommendation suggesting or directing the pupil to a designated individual or class of practitioner, but the supervisor of health may recommend in a written report that the child be taken to a public clinic or diagnostic and treatment center.

§49443

PSYCHOLOGICAL TREATMENT

CONSENT

No officer or employee of a school district, county superintendent, or county board shall place a public school pupil in any public or private agency, outside of the pupil's school of attendance, for psychological or psychiatric treatment without prior written consent of a parent or guardian.

MENTAL HEALTH

A governing board may enter into a contract with a mental health or child guidance clinic for the furnishing of mental health services for pupils of the district. Terms and conditions for the providing of such services shall be set forth in the contract.

§49450

RULEMAKING

EXAMINATION

A school governing board shall make rules for the examination of pupils to insure proper care of pupils and proper secrecy in connection with any defect noted.

§49452

SIGHT TEST

HEARING TEST

A school governing board shall provide for the testing of the sight and hearing of each pupil. It shall be given by: qualified supervisors of health employed by the district; or certificated employees of the district or county superintendent; or contract with an agency authorized to perform such services; or accredited schools or colleges of optometry, osteopathy, or medicine.

Equipment necessary for such tests may be purchased or rented by governing boards.

Records of the tests shall serve as evidence of the need of pupils for special educational facilities.

§49453

In a district with average daily attendance in excess of 400,000, a physician, dentist, or optometrist

who holds a valid, unrevoked certificate to practice in the state may perform health examinations of school children on school premises and report findings and recommendations of health needs to the school health officer and parent or guardian. Such persons need not be employees of the district and shall be exempt from credential requirements under §49422.

§49454

A person employed by a district in a position requiring certification qualifications who holds a valid special credential authorizing the teaching of lipreading or of the deaf or a standard credential with specialized preparation in the area of the deaf or in the area of the speech and hearing handicapped or who holds a certificate of registration to serve as a school audiometrist may test the hearing of pupils through the use of an audiometer.

HEARING TEST

§49455

Upon first enrollment in elementary school in a California district, and at least every third year thereafter after completion of the eighth grade, a child's vision shall be appraised by the school nurse or other authorized person. This evaluation shall include tests for visual acuity and color vision; however color vision shall be appraised once and only on male children. Gross external observation of the child's eyes, visual performance, and perception shall be done by the nurse and the classroom teacher. The evaluation may be waived if the child's parent presents a certificate of evaluation from a physician and surgeon or an optometrist. The number of children so evaluated and the results shall be reported annually by each district to the department of education, on forms provided by the department.

VISION TEST

A child whose parent or guardian files a statement of adherence to a well-recognized religious group and concomitant dependence for healing upon prayer shall be exempt from visual examination.

EXEMPTION

MEDICAL REPORT

When a defect has been noted by a supervisor of health or assistant, a report shall be made to the child's parent or guardian, asking the parent or guardian to take action to correct or cure the defect. Such report, if written, shall be made in a form approved by the state superintendent and shall not include any recommendation directing the pupil to a designated individual or class of practitioner for the correcting of the defect. However, the recommendation that a child be taken to a public clinic or diagnostic and treatment center operated by a public hospital or by a department of public health may be made.

The supervisor of health shall make such reports as he deems best to the governing board or as the board may call for, showing the number of defective children in the district and the effort made to correct the defects.

INSURANCE

ATHLETICS ACTIVITIES

A school governing board may make available medical and/or hospital service through nonprofit membership corporations defraying the costs of such service or through policies of accident insurance from authorized insurers for pupils injured while participating in sponsored athletic activities. The cost of the insurance or membership may be paid from district funds or by the insured pupil, the pupil's parent or guardian.

If the governing board does not make such service available, the board shall notify, in writing, the parent or guardian of each pupil participating in athletic services that the services are not made available.

A governing board may make available ambulance service, paid for out of school district funds, for pupils, instructors and spectators in attendance at sponsored athletic activities.

MEDICAL SERVICES

A school governing board which does not employ at least five physicians as full-time supervisors of health, or their equivalent, may make available medical and/or hospital service through nonprofit membership corporations defraying the cost of such service or through accident insurance or liability insurance for injuries to pupils arising out of accidents occurring while in buildings and other district premises during the time pupils are required to be there or while being transported by the district to and from school, or while at any other place as an incident to school-sponsored activities.

CONSENT

Pupils shall not be compelled to accept such service without consent of their parent or guardian. The cost of insurance or membership may be paid from district funds or by the insured pupil, the pupil's parent or guardian.

§49480

MEDICATION

SCHOOL NURSE

The parent or guardian of any public school pupil on continuing medication for a nonepisodic condition shall inform the school nurse or other designated certificated school employee of the medication being taken, the current dosage, and the name of the supervising physician. With the consent of the parent or guardian, the school nurse may communicate with the physician and may counsel with school personnel regarding possible effects of the drug on the child's behavior.

CONSENT

The superintendent of each school district shall be responsible for informing all parents of this requirement.

§51269

DRUG DEPENDENT PUPIL

The supervisor of health or other appointed individual shall initiate a program of identification, counseling, and medical referral of drug-dependent and debilitated pupils, using any district funds, property, or personnel. The pupil shall be insured proper care, procedure and secrecy under §§49407, 49450, and 49451.

§550

FIRE DRILL

Fire drills shall be conducted at least once a month by either the fire department or the principal.

CIVIL DEFENSE

The governing board of each district must formulate a policy guideline for civil defense and disaster preparedness for use by the schools. The guide shall be reviewed at least annually. The principal of each school shall also formulate a plan and submit it to the superintendent for approval. Each school shall test its plan twice annually and keep a record of the tests.

SAFETY PATROL

No student less than 10 years old or enrolled in a grade below fifth may be a safety patrol member. Use of patrols will be determined by agreement between the school district and the local police. All patrols are required to wear a standard uniform.

§591

VISION TEST

Only persons authorized to conduct vision screening as specified herein may administer an eye test to pupils. The Snellen Test shall be used to test visual acuity. A pupil will be considered to have failed the test if vision acuity is 20/50 or worse (children over six 20/40 or worse). A color vision test will also be given.

§ 12036

To operate in an environment conducive to maximum health each agency shall:

a) Admit only children who have had complete medical examination.

b) Admit only those children who have filed evidence of immunization against diphtheria, whooping cough, poliomyelitis, tetanus, measles and been given a test for tuberculosis.

c) Provide for continuous health observation by a teacher or supervisor.

d) Establish and post a procedure to be followed when a child is ill or injured.

e) Require parents or guardian as a condition to admission to:

1) File the names, addresses and phone numbers of people who will care for the child if ill or injured; or

2) Authorize the agency to secure necessary medical attention at the parent's expense in the event of emergency illness.

f) Provide health supervision by a person certified as a school nurse, or by a person certified as a public health nurse.

g) Adhere to all standards of the State Board of Health.

CIVIL DEFENSE

The county superintendent shall file a report with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, listing school districts in her/his jurisdiction that have and have not filed copies of their most recent civil defense and disaster preparedness plans as required by Section 560(a)(5).

§ 17902

TUBERCULOSIS EXAMINATION

Every employee or volunteer serving in a Children's Center or Development Center is required to have a tuberculosis examination as specified in Education Code Section 11708.

The board of every school district should provide eye protective devices for all students, teachers, and visitors. Eye protection devices shall be worn in courses such as "vocational or industrial art shops or laboratories."

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

§22-3-103 -- 22-3-104

The eye protective devices to be utilized within the state school system must meet the standards approved by the United States of America Standards Institute Inc. The commissioner of education shall prepare and circulate to all educational institutions, within the state instructions, for implementation of eye safety programs.

§22-25-105

Each district school board or board of cooperative service may develop health and survival education projects. These must be submitted to the commissioner of education.

§25-4-901 -- 25-4-906

Before entering school, a child must present to the appropriate official of the school, certification from a licensed physician "stating that such child has received immunization against communicable diseases."

IMMUNIZATION

A child may be exempted from receiving the required immunization upon submitting certification from a licensed physician that the physical condition of the child is such that immunizations would endanger his/her life or health. Also a child may be exempted upon submitting a statement signed by one parent or guardian that the child's religious beliefs are opposed to immunizations.

EXEMPTIONS

When at any time there is, in the opinion of the state or local health department official, danger of an epidemic from any communicable diseases for which immunization is required under these regulations, no exemption from immunization against such disease shall be recognized.

The local health department shall, at public expense . . . provide the immunizations required by each pupil whose parents or guardians cannot afford to have the pupil immunized and who have not been exempted."

REGULATIONS

2202-R-12.06

School administrators, teachers, counselors, and health service personnel should combine their efforts to improve school health services so that they meet the mental and physical needs of all pupils.

2202-R-12.07

HEALTH PROGRAM

The program of school health services should be concerned with each students physical, mental, emotional and social well-being. A health program should complement other special programs and assist in the following areas:

(a) apprising the health status of all pupils;

(b) identifying handicapped pupils;

(c) counseling pupils, parents and staff personnel in health matters;

(d) encouraging remedial defect correction;

(e) helping to prevent or control the spread of communicable diseases, dental cavities, heart disease, and nutritional deficiencies;

(f) providing emergency care for sick or injured pupils.

The State Board of Education shall prescribe health and safety standards "as a part of the State Uniform Building Code for Public Education Facilities." Each school shall establish a "program of safety and sanitation" and provide for "periodic inspections" and close facilities that are unsafe or unsanitary until conditions are improved.

A report of yearly inspections shall be made to the Department of Education. If the school board fails to correct conditions the commissioner may take action. Emergency drills, prescribed by the Department of Education, shall be held at least twice a semester.

HEALTH PROGRAM

The Department of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, shall administer a comprehensive health program for grades one through twelve to promote "understanding of health principles and problems." It shall include: inservice education for teachers; drug education and use of existing drug resource centers; and use of community volunteers and persons in the health field.

The Commissioner of Education shall review school district programs annually and recommend funding for the following year. Non-public school employees may participate in the teacher training. A child may be exempt from this program if his/her parent objects on religious grounds. Sex education is not required as a part of a comprehensive health program.

REGULATIONS

6A-2.50 SCHOOL SAFETY

Students through grade 2 shall not be above the first floor; floors shall be surfaced with a non-slippery substance, and glass areas exposed to wind shall be able to withstand wind pressure.

All school buildings shall be inspected once a year to see that they comply with these regulations. The inspection may be made by the department of education or qualified local personnel. Hazards determined to be an immediate danger to life shall be corrected immediately.

6A-2.96 PLAYGROUND SAFETY

The play area shall be free from all tripping hazards. Equipment shall have no jagged or sharp projections or other potentially hazardous construction. Where traffic, construction, mechanical, or electrical hazards exist, fencing shall be provided to prevent access from the playground areas. Parking areas and driveways shall not create a hazard. All other areas concerning vehicular traffic shall be placed in such a way as to not create a hazard.

6A-2.97 SAFETY DEVICES

Use of personal protection devices and other protective equipment is required when exposed to arc welding, heavy gas cutting or other work that would be hazardous to eyes and skin. Automatic power shut-off or disengage lock-out, within reach of the operator, shall be provided for all working machinery.

Areas where toxic fumes are produced shall be adequately vented. Each space equipped with unprotected gas valves accessible to students shall have a master control valve immediately available to the instructor.

Each space equipped with electrically powered machinery accessible to students shall have one or more conspicuously color-coded disconnect switches at convenient locations throughout the shop.

Each district shall adopt an emergency procedure to be followed in cases of injury or sudden illness to students and/or staff.

A. Health and Safety

MEDICAL EXAMINATION

Statutes

§20-8.1-7-2 -- 20-8.1-7-4

The governing body of a school corporation may provide for the examination of school children by a school physician to determine if the child suffers any disease, disability or decay of teeth which may reduce the child's efficiency or prevent him/her from receiving the full benefit of school work. A child may be exempt from such examination if the parent provides a certificate of examination from an Indiana physician at the beginning of the school year. The governing body may require the parent to furnish additional certificates from time to time. Except as otherwise provided, no student or teacher shall be compelled to undergo any testing, examination or treatment if they object on religious grounds.

§20-8.1-7-5 -- 20-8.1-7-9

The governing body of a school corporation may appoint one or more school physicians or nurses. Two or more school corporations may jointly employ one physician, a health coordinator and one or more nurses. School nurses, who shall be registered to practice in Indiana, shall be responsible for emergency nursing care when an illness or accident occurs during school hours on or near school property.

A school physician shall make prompt examination of children referred to him/her. He/she shall examine teachers and janitors and inspect school buildings to the extent required, in his/her opinion, to protect the health of teachers and pupils.

When the school physician finds a child to be ill, the child shall be sent home with a note to his/her parents, describing the illness or defect and recommending consultation with the family physician. If the child's family is unable to provide medical care it shall be provided by a public health facility or (where no such facility is available) the township trustee or other appropriate governmental agency shall provide the necessary relief. The school physician shall keep accurate records of each examination and the record keeping system shall be uniform throughout the state.

§20-8.1-7-9.5 -- 20-8.1-7-10

When a child first enters school, the school corporation shall be furnished with a record of the child's immunization and testing history. A religious objection does not relieve a parent of this obligation. Every child residing in the state shall be immunized against: (1) diptheria; (2) whooping cough; (3) tetanus; (4) measles; (5) rubella; and (6) poliomyelitis.

RELIGIOUS OBJECTION

The state board of health may add to or delete from this list, and shall adopt rules and regulations for the age and dosage of each immunization. The school corporation shall inform each parent of a preschool child of the immunization requirements on or before the first day of the school term in which the child will enroll. The parent shall present the child to a physician for immunization (if they are unable the child shall be presented to the local public health service) and the physician shall provide the necessary certificates.

IMMUNIZATION

§20-8.1-7-16 -- 20-8.1-7-18

The governing body of each school corporation shall conduct an annual screening test:

(A) to determine the visual acuity of all children enrolled in or transferred to the first, third and eighth grades and of all other children suspected of having a visual defect; and

EYE EXAMINATION

(B) to determine the hearing efficiency of all children in the first, fourth, seventh and tenth grades, of all transferred children and of all children suspected of having hearing defects.

HEARING EXAMINATION

When the hearing tests disclose that a child "cannot be taught advantageously in regular classes, the governing body shall provide appropriate remedial measures and correctional devices." Each school corporation may accept bequests and donations to assist in meeting costs and expenses incurred in complying with this regulation.

§20-8.1-8-1

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

"Every pupil and teacher in every public school shall wear industrial quality eye protective devices at all times while participating in any of the following courses:

(A) vocational or industrial arts shops or laboratories.

(B) chemical or combined chemical-physical laboratories involving caustic or explosive chemicals or hot liquids or solids."

§20-8.1-8-2

FIRE DRILL

"The governing body of every school corporation shall require each school in its jurisdiction to conduct at least one (1) fire drill during each month that school is in session." The principal of a school will not be entitled to his/her salary for any month in which he/she fails to certify such drill to the governing body.

REGULATIONS

§II, Ch. 1, Rule H-1

SICKLE CELL ANEMIA

Tests shall be given for both lead poisoning and sickle cell anemia. Testing equipment must be suitable to provide accurate test results and testing procedures of a type generally recognized as dependable and accurate. The sickle cell anemia testing personnel must have sufficient training and experience in operating equipment and conducting the tests.

§72-5201 -- 5203; 72-5205

DENTAL EXAMINATION

School districts shall provide free dental inspection annually to all children except those who have had one in the previous three months. The board shall provide a place for the exam and pay a competent dentist to perform the service. The county superintendent shall make rules for conducting these inspections. Each child shall receive a copy of the results of the exam.

VISION SCREENING

Vision screening shall also be provided free for each child at least once every two years. The tests shall be performed by a teacher or other designee of the school board. The results shall be reported to the parents.

All pupils enrolled in classes that may endanger their vision such as labs where chemicals, wood or metal materials are altered shall wear "industrial quality eye protective devices." These may be furnished or sold to students.

§72-5206

The requirements for vision testing shall not apply to a child who has had a basic vision screening examination in the last six months.

§72-5209 -- 5210; 72-5213

Prior to entering school for the first time a student shall present a certificate from a licensed physician which states that the student does not have contagious tuberculosis and has or is in the process of being immunized against poliomyelitus, diphtheria, measles, rubella, pertussis and tetanus.

This requirement may be waived if the immunization would endanger the health of the child, if the parent of the child states that the child is an adherent of a religious denomination opposed to immunization, or if the parent cannot pay for the immunization.

The local board of health, upon request of the school board, shall provide immunizations to any child who has not received them and has not been exempted from the requirement for religious or medical reasons to the extent public funds are available.

Every person who comes in regular classroom contact with students shall, every three years, submit a certificate from a physician licensed to practice medicine and surgery that states that the person has no physical condition that would conflict with the health of the students.

§72-8222

The district board may employ school security officers to protect students, teachers, and other employees and their property when it is on or adjacent to school property or when they are attending any school-sponsored function.

Each security officer shall possess all general law enforcement powers of every county in which the school district is located.

REGULATIONS

§91-2-8

Whenever the state fire marshal or state department of health issues an order to the school board to correct a condition in a school building, the board shall comply with the order by June 30. Failure of the board to correct the condition may result in a warning and in the subsequent year the board may remove the school's accredited status. A school shall immediately notify the state department of education whenever it receives an order from the fire marshal or state board of health.

A student who participates in inter-school athletics shall be in at least the sixth grade, shall have the written consent of a parent or guardian, and shall have a physician's statement that he/she is physically able to participate.

Playdays shall give all children in the district an opportunity to participate in recreational activities. The emphasis shall be upon participation and learning and not competition. Playdays shall be scheduled on Friday, a weekend, a day preceding a holiday, or the last day of school.

Each school physician shall promptly examine and diagnose all pupils referred to him/her and he/she shall examine teachers, janitors and school buildings as in his/her opinion the protection of the pupils' health may require.

§1133

When treatment is necessary, pupils will not be referred to the school physician but to the regular family physician.

§1134

A child who returns from an absence for illness will be referred to the school physician, unless he/she has a certificate from a doctor or the local health officer; or whenever the teacher judges a certificate necessary, according to the circumstances of the absence.

A child who is ill or appears to be suffering from an infectious or contagious illness will be referred to the school physician, unless he/she is at once excluded from school. Remote districts may make other arrangements.

VISION TEST

HEARING TEST

Pupils shall be screened for defective sight or hearing. The commissioner shall prescribe directions for the tests which shall include the frequency and manner of conducting them and the method by which to notify the parent or guardian of any defect.

This section will not apply to a child whose parent objects in writing on the grounds that such examinations conflict with the child's religious practice, "unless there are reasonable and apparent grounds to suspect that a child has a hearing or vision deficiency."

Notice of diseases or defects will be sent to the pupils' parents or guardian. Whenever a child has a serious communicable disease he/she shall be sent home "immediately or as soon as safe and proper conveyance can be found" and the local health officer and superintendent will also be notified at once.

§1171

Administrative units shall "provide and maintain sanitary, protected and clean toilets free from all obscene markings" in all buildings used for school purposes.

§1172

All buildings used for school purposes shall be provided with toilet facilities of the flush water closet type approved by the State Department of Health and Welfare.

These shall be "separate compartments for the sexes," accessible "only by separate passageways installed in a manner to insure privacy, cleanliness and supervision by teachers." The school board shall make other reasonable regulations if warranted by local conditions.

Statutes

71 §46 G

To facilitate the early detection of children manifesting traits tending toward juvenile delinquency a school committee may employ a number of "school adjustment counsellors." They shall be responsible for "(a) counselling and helping children . . . who are neglected, maladjusted, emotionally disturbed, neurotic or otherwise potentially delinquent and are referred to him by a teacher, principal or other school personnel; (b) cooperating with teachers, principals and all other school personnel in assisting and readjusting such children; (c) establishing helpful and kindly relationships with the home for the purpose of assisting parents to improve spiritual, moral, economic, physical or social conditions that threaten the welfare of the child and of society; (d) enlisting the interest and the help of clergy and other local leaders and officials in a mutual community effort to save children from delinquency; and (e) serving as a referral agent to obtain necessary aid from specialized public or private organizations in serious cases which appear to be beyond the resources of the community." Persons employed under this statute must be approved by the Commissioner.

71 §48 A

SAFETY PATROLS

"School committees shall have authority to organize school safety patrols, consisting of pupils, whose functions shall be to encourage pupils to cross highways at designated crossings and when conditions are safe, and to assist drivers of school buses in maintaining safety rules.

No liability shall attach either to the school committees or any individual member thereof, a superintendent, teacher, patrol member, or parent of a patrol member, or other school authority by virtue of the organization, maintenance or operation of a safety patrol under authority of this section."

71 §53

The school committee shall appoint one or more school physicians and registered nurses and provide them with all proper facilities and assign one or more physicians to the examination of children who apply for required health certificates. Towns having a valuation of less than one million dollars are exempt from this section as it relates to school nurses.

71 §53 A

A district superintendent may employ one or more school physicians or registered nurses who may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the full membership of the joint committee of the several towns.

71 §54

"Every school physician shall make a prompt examination of all children referred to him[her]. . . and such further examination of teachers, janitors and school buildings as in his[her] opinion the protection of the health of the pupils may require."

71 §54 A

A physician employed by a school committee or a person who has completed a full course in emergency medical care shall be assigned to every interscholastic football game, the expenses for which shall be paid by the school committee where the game is played

"No person shall administer or cause to be administered to a pupil . . . any psychotropic drug included on a list established by the department of public health unless the school has obtained certification by the commissioner of public health or his/her designee" that the drug is a legitimate medical need of the pupil. "Administration of duly approved medication shall be carried out only by a registered nurse or a licensed physician." No person shall administer psychotropic drugs to a pupil for the purposes of clinical research.

71 §55 A

"A child showing signs of ill health or of being infected with a disease dangerous to the public health . . . shall be sent home immediately, or as soon as safe and proper conveyance can be found, or shall be referred to a school physician, who may direct that such child be sent home .

No public school teacher, principal,or nurse who, in good faith, renders emergency first aid or transportation to a student who has become injured or incapacitated in a public school building or on the grounds thereof shall be liable in a suit for damages as a result of his/her acts or omissions."

71 §55 C

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

Every teacher and pupil shall, while attending school classes in industrial art or vocational shops or laboratories in which dangerous materials are used or a process is taught which may be a source of danger to the eyes, shall wear an industrial quality eye protective device, approved by the department of public safety.

71 §56

If a child is found to be suffering from any disease or defect, or requires any treatment, the school committee shall immediately notify the parent or guardian.

71 §57

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Every child in public school or in an approved private school must be physically examined at regular intervals for defects in sight, hearing and other physical defects including those of the feet "tending to prevent his [her] receiving the full benefit of his/her school work." Records of such physicals shall be kept for each child. "Any child shall be exempt on religious grounds from these examinations upon written request of parent or guardian on condition that the laws and regulations relating to communicable diseases shall not be violated."

"The department of public health shall furnish necessary laboratory and testing facilities for a voluntary screening program for sickle cell . . . and for such genetically-linked diseases as may from time to time be determined by the commissioner of public health." The commissioner shall promulgate rules for the testing, treatment, care and counseling of all susceptible persons. Any screening programs which may be established shall include provisions for a complete health education and counseling service. Records maintained shall be confidential. Information on the results of any particular screening program shall be limited to notification to the parents or guardian if the person screened is under the age of eighteen or to said person if over the age of eighteen.

TUBERCULOSIS TEST

The results of an examination for communicable tuberculosis shall be filed with an agency responsible for the operation of a group residence, care, education or camping experience for each child before the child is accepted into such an experience. The results shall be available to the department of public health.

The examination shall include a skin test or a chest x-ray. The physician may accept the results of either test conducted within the preceding ninety days in lieu of performing the test himself/herself.

A person whose test is positive shall have a chest x-ray. If the x-ray shows signs of tuberculosis a further examination shall be done in a laboratory registered by the department of public health.

R 325.898

Each public, private, or parochial school or nursery school, or day care center, shall require evidence of freedom from communicable tuberculosis as a condition of employment each year. The test shall have been conducted within nine months before beginning work.

R 325.1481

A vision test of a preschool child shall include tests for monocular and binocular visual activity and for eye muscle balance.

Public health vision screening tests shall be given by trained persons. The method of training and the testing procedures shall be approved by the director of public health.

R 325.1491

A child entering school for the first time shall be immunized or protected against diptheria, measles, pertussis, poliomyelitis, rubella, and tetanus.

R 340.292, R 340.293, R 340.294, R 340.295

Auxiliary services shall include the following: health and nursing services and examinations, street crossing guard service, national defense education act testing services, speech correction services, visiting teacher services for delinquent and disturbed children, school diagnostician services for all mentally handicapped children, teacher counselor services for physically handicapped children, and teacher consultant services for mentally handicapped or emotionally disturbed children.

A school providing any of these auxiliary services shall notify by April 1 each nonpublic school within its district of the nature and extent of these services. Within thirty days each nonpublic school shall notify the district of the services it will need. The district shall notify by August 1 each nonpublic school of the nature and extent of the services in the final budget.

The board of education of a district providing any of these services may appoint an auxiliary services advisory committee. The committee's membership shall be broadly representative from public and nonpublic schools and shall make recommendations for implementation of this regulation.

"Modification of these rules upon request in writing by a school district may be made by the state board of education upon such terms and conditions as it shall specify, when in its judgment there is a case of hardship and the best interests of the children are served."

R 340.1162

"Rule 2. A professional school nursing services program is designed to enhance the educational processes of children and youth through improvement in their health status and contribute to their attainment of greater knowledge in the area of health. A program shall include:

(a) A plan for assessment and evaluation of the health and developmental status of students.

(b) Interpretation of nursing assessments and medical evaluations to students, their parents and school personnel while recognizing and maintaining the confidential nature of the information.

(c) A plan by which the health problems that interfere with a student's learning are eliminated, minimized or understood.

(d) A system to make recommendations for modification of the educational program when student health problems are indicated.

(e) Consultation and recommendation of resources in areas of health problems and instruction.

(f) Channels for communication between the school and the home, private physician and health and social agencies in the community.

(g) Selective health guidance and counseling according to the needs of students.

(h) A team approach to educational problems of students, including studies of health problems that may affect their scholastic attainment.

(i) A plan for in-service education for school personnel including observations of the health of students, referral systems, and first aid and emergency care procedures.

(j) A system by which school personnel may initiate the appropriate referral of students.

(k) Policies and procedures enabling school personnel to comply with established health laws.

(l) Policies and procedures for the prevention and control of health problems, including communicable diseases.

(m) Policies and procedures for the prevention and control of accidents and injuries.

(n) Policies and procedures for maintaining a healthy school environment."

R 340.1163

"Rule 3. A school nurse shall:

(a) Assess and evaluate the health and developmental status of students through nursing diagnosis and the use of appropriate evaluative techniques.

(b) Interpret nursing assessments of medical evaluations to the students, their parents and school personnel and provide an understanding of implications for the educational performance of students, while recognizing and maintaining the confidential nature of the information.

(c) Plan a course of action and assist students, their parents and school personnel in assuming proper roles for eliminating, minimizing, preventing or understanding the health problems which interfere with effective learning by the student.

(d) Recommend to parents and appropriate school personnel modifications in the educational program as indicated by the health and developmental status of students.

(e) Stimulate incorporation of health education in the school curriculum by serving on curriculum committees, serving as a consultant and resource person or participating in teacher-parent education programs.

(f) Serve as intermediary between the school and the home, private physician, and health and social agencies regarding the health status of students and their needs for consideration in future community health planning.

(g) Assist students and their families to obtain optimum health and well-being by stimulating behavior change through the educative process, including individual or group counseling.

(h) Interpret health information when serving as a member of a special education placement committee or other programs in which health information is desirable.

(i) Plan and provide inservice education, in cooperation with other appropriate personnel, for school personnel regarding health observations, referral systems and first aid and emergency care procedures.

(j) Identify and recommend students for placement in special programs, initiate referrals for supplemental testing when health information or developmental history indicates, and refer students to appropriate personnel when necessary.

(k) Assume leadership in the development and revision of written first aid and emergency care policies.

(l) Recommend and implement school policies to comply with established health laws, and make specific recommendations to students and school personnel regarding immunizations and communicable diseases.

(m) Cooperate with the administration and staff in establishing school health program policies and procedures in order that professional skills and knowledge may be used effectively in working with students, teachers and parents."

R 340.1164

"Rule 4.(1) A school nurse shall demonstrate:

(a) Ability to apply principles of education and learning theory in the identification of health status of students and the solution of health problems.

(b) Ability to recognize health factors which create obstacles and handicaps for exceptional students.

(c) Ability to function effectively in inservice health education for school personnel.

(d) Knowledge of curriculum development to participate effectively on health related curriculum committees.

(e) Ability to apply principles of human growth and development and to recognize variations within normal range significant to the education of the student.

(f) Ability to define and demonstrate the clinical and technical role of the professional nurse in the school health program.

(g) Ability to develop cooperatively with other school and health related professionals, a comprehensive school health program coordinating school and community resources to serve effectively the health needs of the school population.

(h) Ability to identify the health needs of students and understand the influence of the family, society and culture on the student's ability to cope with school health problems.

(i) Ability to assist students, their families and school personnel in recognizing potential and current health needs and in the development of plans for utilizing available resources to meet these needs.

(2) These competencies shall be utilized as criteria in determining whether work experience as a school nurse has been successful."

R 340.1302, R 340.1305

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

A public educational agency which enrolls students in courses where exposure to eye danger exists shall furnish eye protective devices.

A superintendent of a school district shall certify to the intermediate school district superintendent not later than the second week of each school year that eye protective devices meeting the standards have been obtained and that each instructor has been informed that all students, teachers, and visitors shall wear them when exposure to eye damage exists.

An intermediate school district superintendent shall report to the state superintendent of public instruction by October 1 any districts not in compliance with these rules.

The state superintendent shall notify a district in violation of these rules that it shall comply or show cause why compliance cannot be made in thirty days.

R 388.271, R 388.272, R 388.273, R 388.274, R 388.275

Critical health problems shall include, but are not limited to, the use and effect of drugs, narcotics, alcohol and tobacco, the maintenance of mental health, dental care, vision care, nutrition, disease prevention and control, accident prevention, and related health and safety care.

The staff to be employed on a full-time or contractual basis by the department of education to implement the act shall meet the requirements of the state civil service commission and shall possess superior qualities of leadership.

The staff shall assist in the development of proposed guidelines, to be approved by the state board, for local districts to meet critical health problems, shall assist local districts in the planning, administration and evaluation of their health education programs, shall assist universities in the development and evaluation of their programs to prepare teachers in health education, and shall conduct statewide and regionally-centered in-service educational programs for teachers of health education directed toward critical health problems.

Periodically, and as the need arises, the department of education shall convene individuals from colleges and universities, various fields of education, voluntary health agencies, professional health associations, the state departments of public health and mental health and from the local school districts to advise it on the implementation of the act and these rules.

In accordance with state board policies the state board of education shall develop a plan for implementation of the act within a three-year period starting with its effective date, with priorities of activities established for each of the three years.

CHILD ABUSE

"It is the policy of this state to provide for the protection of children whose health and welfare are adversley affected and further threatened by the conduct of those responsible for their care and protection. It is intended that the mandatory reporting of such cases by professional people and other community members to the appropriate authority will cause the protective services of the state to seek to prevent further abuses, protect and enhance the welfare of those children, and preserve family life wherever possible."

§10-1304

CHILD ABUSE

"Any . . . teacher . . . who has reason to believe that a child has had serious injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her as a result of abuse or neglect . . . shall report the matter promptly to the department of social and rehabilitation services . . . and the attorney of the county where the child resides."

§69-4515

SMALLPOX

If smallpox may or does exist, the "department may require all persons frequenting any schoolhouse within the infected or threatened district to be vaccinated," or to show evidence of a successful cowpox vaccination. Without such evidence, it is unlawful for any person "to enter any schoolhouse in the district."

§75-8207

The state board of health shall prescribe "requirements for school sites . . .[and] buildings, ventilation, heating, lighting, water supply, sewage . . . disposal, and . . . other matters pertinent to the health and . . . well-being of the pupils, teachers, and others who frequent schools." Districts shall receive copies of regulations.

§75-8307 — 75-8308.7

FIRE DRILLS

Fire drills shall be conducted at least 8 times a year, "at different hours of the day or evening," and scheduled so as to avoid pupils' having to go out in severe weather. All drills "shall be sounded on the fire alarm system" and there shall be a "recall signal . . . that is separate and distinct . . . any other signals." In order to avoid a recall during a fire," the means of giving the signal shall be kept under a lock." In case of an actual fire, "school authorities . . . shall immediately call the local fire department." School authorities shall periodically "inspect all exit facilities . . . and co-operate with local fire department authorities in conducting fire drills." Violation of these provisions is a misdemeanor.

SAFETY PATROL

School district trustees or "the administration of any private school shall have the authority to orgarize and supervise school safety patrols," who shall "direct pupils as to when and where to cross highways." The patrol shall consist of children who are at least 9 years old or, if there are none, from the highest grade. The parent or guardian must give written consent for a "child to serve on the school safety patrol. "No liability shall attach" to any school agency, official or employee "because of injuries sustained by any pupil . . . by reason of the operation and maintenance" of the safety patrol. "Identification and operation of school safety patrols shall be uniform" in the state, as prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction and the highway patrol. Any city or town may provide training at an "authorized school patrol camp" of the state.

LIABILITY

§75-8901

ALCOHOL AND DRUG ABUSE

The Legislature intends "to protect the health and safety of the people of Montana from . . . drug and alcohol abuse . . .[and] to require education graduates . . . to be aware of the problems . . .[of] drug and alcohol abuse and . . . somewhat knowledgeable in dealing with these problems among students."

The first assistant state fire marshal and the Department of Education shall prepare a book on "fire dangers and . . . methods of fire prevention," to be distributed to teachers in all public and private schools for the purpose of instructing pupils in fire safety at least 30 minutes each month. Any teachers' guidance manual shall include a copy of the laws on fire instruction.

FIRE SAFETY

§79-4.133 — 79-4.138

All school districts are required to conduct health inspections to determine if children have "(1) defective sight or hearing; (2) dental defects, or (3) other conditions as prescribed by the Department of Health. If any such condition is found, the child's parent must be notified. Any child showing "symptoms of any contagious or infectious disease . . . shall be sent . . . home immediately, . . . and the proper school authority . . . notified."

HEALTH INSPECTION

The Department of Health shall adopt "rules and regulations for conducting school health inspections, the qualifications of . . . persons authorized to make such inspections, . . . conditions to be observed and remedied, and shall furnish to school authorities regulations and other useful material." School boards may employ licensed physicians to conduct physical examinations. Inspections shall be conducted by the school district during the first quarter of the school year; children entering thereafter shall be examined upon entrance. The school boards are responsible for enforcing these provisions. Any violation is a misdemeanor.

SCHOOL PHYSICIAN

14-(24) -- 14(28)

Each elementary school shall maintain safe, healthy and sanitary conditions within the building and on school grounds. Each school shall keep an adequate supply of medicine for treating minor injuries, and shall have a lavatory, drinking fountain, rest room and toilet located inside the school building.

Statutes

§391.275

Boards of trustees may employ security officers who will act as peace officers as defined by law. "The jurisdiction of security officers shall extend to all school property, buildings, and facilities within the school district, for the purpose of protecting school district personnel, pupils, or real or personal property; or cooperating with local law enforcement agencies in matters relating to personnel, pupils, or real or personal property of the school district."

§392.420

During the first two months of school, qualified health personnel shall examine each regularly enrolled child for visual, auditory, or physical defects. Parents or guardians must be notified of possible defects. Children enrolled after the second school month shall be examined immediately. State, county, or district public health services may be utilized if they are conveniently available. However, if necessary, the board of trustees may employ qualified personnel to perform the examinations. The state board of health shall prescribe rules for examinations. A child may be exempt from examination if his or her parent or guardian files a written objection with the teacher.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

§392.430

A board of trustees may "make and enforce necessary regulations for sanitation in the public schools and to prevent the spread of diseases there and may "expend school district funds to enforce the regulations among indigent children."

§392.435 --439

"Within three months after a child is enrolled in a public school," his or her parents or guardian shall submit to the board of trustees a certificate stating that the child has been or is immunized and has been or is receiving proper boosters for (a) diptheria; (b) tetanus; (c) pertussis, if the child is under 6; (d) poliomyelitis; (e) rubella; and such other diseases as the local or state board of health may determine. If a certificate is unavailable, a sworn statement from the parents or guardian shall suffice. These requirements will be satisfied if immunization certificates have already been filed in any Nevada school district. Before December 31 of each year, each school district shall report to the health division of the department of human resources the exact number of pupils who have completed the immunizations required. A child may be exempted from immunization due to religious belief or medical condition, if a written statement is submitted by the parents or guardian to the board of trustees, with the medical statement bearing a licensed physician's signature.

IMMUNIZATION

§392.441 --445

Boards of health shall hold clinics for the immunization of school-age children not less than one month prior to the opening date of the school year. Qualified personnel of any clinic who administer vaccines or boosters in good faith shall be immune from civil or criminal liability.

§392.443

CERTIFICATE

If "additional immunization requirements are provided by law, the child's parents or guardian shall submit an additional certificate or certificates to the board of trustees stating that such child has met the new immunization requirements."

§392.450

FIRE DRILLS

Boards of trustees shall provide fire drills in the schools at least once a month during the school year. If a local fire department exists, fire drills should be supervised by the fire chief. Copies of fire escape route diagrams and fire drill information approved by the fire chief or state fire marshall, shall be posted in every public school classroom by the teacher or principal. The person in charge of each school building shall enforce these provisions. Any violation of the provisions is a misdemeanor.

A. Health and Safety

Any child with "impaired hearing" shall be reported to the director of the "division of public health services."

§189:15-a

ACCIDENT INSURANCE

The school board may purchase "accident or injury insurance covering all students while participating in any school activity" or may make insurance available at the parent's expense.

§200:11 -- 200:12

HEALTH INVESTIGATION

Upon receipt of a complaint, the "department of health and welfare" shall "investigate the sanitary conditions" of a schoolhouse.

If the department of health finds that the schoolhouse is "a menace, or likely to become a menance, to the health or bodily welfare of the pupils or teachers," it shall be reported to the "local board of health" and if the conditions are not remedied, the department shall "order changes" or condemn the building.

§200:27

SCHOOL NURSE

Each school board "may provide school health services to include school nurse . . . and . . . physician services" to all children.

§200:28

SCHOOL PHYSICIAN

"Each school board may appoint one or more school physicians . . . and may assign one to the schools in the district . . . ."

§200:29

A school nurse may be appointed by each school district.

§200:30

DENTAL HYGIENIST

A school board "may employ for their district a dental hygienist".

§200:31

HEALTH SERVICE AIDE

A school board "may employ . . . a health service aide . . . to assist in the school health program."

§200:32 -- 200:33; 200:38

MEDICAL EXAMINATION

Upon "entry into the public school system," each child shall receive a "complete medical examination." Such examination shall not be required if contrary to a child's religious beliefs.

"In lieu of a medical examination by the school physician," a child may submit proof of examination by a family doctor.

IMMUNIZATION WAIVER

Prior to school entrance, all children must be immunized unless excused for religious reasons or because the child's physician determines that "immunization will be detrimental to his health." An examination for signs of tuberculosis shall be given to all children prior to and during school attendance.

§200:34

A child found to have a problem that requires special attention shall be referred by the school physician for "evaluation by an appropriate practitioner". If the parents fail to have the child examined "within a reasonable period after the referral," then the child "may be examined by the school physician."

§200:35

Any "defects or disabilities" found through a physical examination shall be reported to the child's parents.

§200:39

EXCLUSION

A child shall be "excluded from the classroom" if he/she has a contagious disease.

§200:40

EMERGENCY CARE

School boards shall "adopt written policies" to provide "emergency care for students and school personnel" who are injured during school hours.

§18A:40-11

TUBERCULOSIS

Any pupil with communicable tuberculosis shall be excluded from school and a report filed by the medical inspector with the board of health. Readmission will be granted when the school medical inspector is given proof that the pupil is "free from communicable tuberculosis" and able to engage in school activities.

§18A:40-12

EPIDEMIC

Upon receipt of notice from the board of health that there is an epidemic that makes it necessary to close schools, the board of education shall close the designated schools until the board of health is satisfied that danger from the epidemic or cause of ill health has been removed.

§18A:40-12.1

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

The board of education shall require all pupils and teachers to wear "industrual quality eye protective devices" while attending vocational, industrial art or laboratory classes.

§18A:40-16--19

TUBERCULOSIS

Each board of education shall periodically determine the presence or absence of "active or communicable tuberculosis in any or all pupils" according to the rules of the state board. The board may provide the equipment, materials and services necessary for such determination or contract for such equipment and services. Any pupil failing to comply with the rules of the board on this matter shall be excluded from school. All records shall be "the property of the board" and filed with the medical inspector as "confidential information" except that the reports shall be open to the state department of health and the local board of health.

§18A:40-20

IMMUNIZATION

"A board of education may provide, at public expense, the necessary equipment, materials and services for immunizing pupils from the diseases" which they are "required to be immunized against" or against which immunization is recommended by the State Department of Health.

§18A:41-1--4

FIRE DRILLS

Every principal shall have "at least two fire drills each month within the school hours" and require teachers to keep all doors of their classrooms and building unlocked during the school hours. Where fire escapes have been provided, they shall be used in every fire drill. All "furnace room, hallway, or stair tower, fire or smoke doors" shall be kept closed while pupils and teachers are in the building. "Any principal, teacher or janitor failing to comply with . . . this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor . . . punishable by a fine of not more than $100 for each offense. The commissioner shall have copies of this chapter printed and posted in each school building."

§18A:42-1

SAFETY PATROLS

A board of education may make rules for the organization of safety patrols and the appointment of pupils, with parental consent, to be members thereof, for the "purpose of encouraging other pupils" to observe safety rules while crossing highways. "No liability shall attach . . . to the board of education or any person holding . . . employment under it by virtue of the organization, maintenance or operation of a school safety patrol."

§6:3-1.14

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

The board of education of every school district shall require each pupil and teacher in the public schools of the district to wear industrial quality eye protective devices while attending classes in vocational or industrial art shops or laboratories in which caustic or explosive chemicals, hot liquids or solids, hot molten metals, or explosives are used or in which welding of any type, repair or servicing of vehicles, heat treatment or tempering of metals, or the milling, sawing, stamping or cutting of solid materials, or any similar dangerous process is taught, exposure to which might have a tendency to casue damage to eyes. Visitors to such classrooms or laboratories shall also be required to wear such protective devices.

The board of education of every school district shall establish and implement a specific eye protection program in the public schools of the district in compliance with this law.

No pupil, teacher or visitor shall be subjected to any hazardous environmental condition without proper eye protection.

An adequate inspection program shall be developed to detect eye hazards.

All eye protective devices shall be examined to see that each is functional.

§6:29-1.1

RULEMAKING

Every board of education in this State shall adopt rules to govern health services in its school district and such rules and regulations shall include as a minimum the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education which are expressed in the following Sections.

MEDICAL INSPECTOR

Every board of education in this State shall appoint at least one medical inspector.

For beginning pupils, medical inspectors may accept a record of a thorough physical examination made by a family physician or by a physician working under a plan for the examination of preschool children; provided that the plan for the records or reports used in either type of examination have been approved by the State Board of Education.

§6:29-2.3

RULEMAKING

Boards of Education shall adopt rules and procedures for the care of pupils injured at school.

§6:29-4.2

TUBERCULOSIS

The following are rules of the State Department of Education concerning testing for tuberculosis by school districts for implementation of N.J.S.A. 18A:40-16 which reads as follows: "The Board of Education of every school district shall periodically determine or cause to be determined the presence or absence of active or communicable tuberculosis in any or all pupils in public schools, and, with respect to frequency, procedure and selection of pupils, shall comply with rules and regulations of the State Board of Education".

An intradermal tuberculin test shall be the sole basis for initial screening for evidence of tuberculosis infection in pupils. An intradermal tuberculin test shall be given to the following pupils enrolled in elementary and secondary schools and in the New Jersey School for the Deaf (these are minimum requirements): all pupils in the eighth grade, all pupils who are 13 years of age in classes for the educable, in classes for the trainable and in any other special education classes, and any additional grades or classes which the State Department of Health has recommended for testing because of special risks.

The rules of a board of education pertaining to the prevention and control of communicable disease in schools shall be distributed to all principals, medical inspectors, nurses and the rules shall be explained by the health service staff to the entire school personnel at the beginning of each school year.

EXCLUSION

Any pupil who appears to be ill or who is suspected of having a communicable disease shall be excluded from school or isolated at school to await instructions from or the arrival of an adult member of his family, the medical inspector or the nurse.

§6:29-5.1

RULEMAKING

All local boards shall adopt rules to govern the safety of pupils in their school districts.

§6:29-5.2

All personnel in state schools shall take any and all precautionary measures to prevent accidents, fires and panic.

§6:29-5.3

SAFETY PATROL

Any organization of pupils whether designated as a patrol, council court, club, committee, or school police which has for its purpose the prevention of accidents to pupils in the school buildings, on the school grounds, on a sidewalk or path adjacent to a street, road, or highway, or in a school bus or other vehicle approved for the transportation of pupils shall be regarded as an essential part of the school program and as a method of safety instruction and shall be employed and administered as such by the school personnel.

The practice of using pupil safety patrols to direct pupil traffic across streets, roads, or highways, or to serve in any capacity shall be permitted only when approved by the board of education.

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

Eye safety devices provided by manufacturers will be acceptable if they meet standards of the USA Standard Practice for Occupational and Educational Eye and Face Protection.

IMMUNIZATION

No student shall be enrolled in schools in the State unless the person has been immunized and can produce satisfactory evidence that immunization has been completed or has been begun and is in process of accomplishment.

A medical exemption may be obtained by filing a statement signed by a licensed physician that the physical condition of the person seeking enrollment would be seriously endangered by immunization.

RELIGIOUS EXCEPTION

Any parent or guardian belonging to a recognized religious denomination whose religious teaching requires reliance on prayer or spiritual means alone for healing shall present affidavits from an officer of the denomination stating that the parents or guardians are bona fide members of the denomination and that the denomination's teaching requires reliance on prayer or spiritual means alone. A parent or guardian who cannot obtain such an affidavit but whose religious beliefs do not permit immunization may apply for exemption by submitting a notorized certificate of conscientious objection to immunization upon receipt of such a certificate, the child shall be enrolled conditionally. The certificate shall be forwarded to and evaluated and approved or disapproved by the director of the state health agency. The parents or guardians shall have the right to appeal an unfavorable decision.

All exemptions shall be granted for nine-month periods and be renewable on presentation again of required certificates.

Transferees from other school districts or from outside the state shall be enrolled conditionally while immunization requirements are being met but not for a period of more than six weeks.

Failure to meet immunization requirements shall be considered grounds for disenrollment.

'Industrial quality eye protective devices' as used in this section, means devices meeting the standards of the American national standard practice for occupational and educational eye and fire protection, ... approved by the American National Standards Institute, Inc . . . ."

§3313.67

IMMUNIZATION

The board of education of each school district shall make and enforce rules and regulations requiring the vaccination and immunization of pupils against communicable diseases, as the safety and interest of the public require.

Should parents or guardians fail to provide required vaccination and immunization, the boards of health, legislative authorities of municipal corporations, or the boards of township trustees may provide at public expense such vaccination and immunization at the request of the board of education.

IMMUNIZATION

No pupil may be admitted to elementary or high school who does not present written evidence of immunization against poliomyelitis, smallpox, rubeola, diphtheria, rubella, pertussis, and tetanus; or presents a written statement by parent or guardian objecting to such immunization; or presents a statement by a physician that such immunization is medically contraindicated.

The boards of health, legislative authorities of municipal corporations, and boards of township trustees may, upon request of the board(s) of education provide such immunization at public expense when not provided by parents or guardians.

Exceptions include rubella immunization for pupils who have had natural rubella, rubella immunization for females who have reached puberty, and smallpox immunization if the health commissioner of a particular district determines that "such immunization is no longer medically indicated to protect the public health."

SCHOOL PHYSICIAN

The local boards of education may appoint one or more school physicians and school dentists licensed by the state of Ohio who shall serve at least one year and who shall receive compensation as set by the board. The board shall also employ registered nurses and school nurses, as defined by this Code, to "aid in the conduct and coordination of the school health service program."

DENTAL EXAMINATION

The school dentist shall make examinations and diagnoses and give such remedial or corrective treatment as prescribed by the board provided the parents or guardian cannot otherwise provide.

The board of education may delegate the duties and powers provided in the section to the board of health or its designated officer.

The board of education shall cooperate with the board of health in the control and prevention of epidemics.

MEDICAL/DENTAL EXAMINATION

The boards of education and health providing a system of medical and dental inspection in the schools, as provided in this code, shall give tests to determine the existence of hearing and visual defects in school children. Such test methods and testing devices shall be approved by the department of health.

A child shall be exempt from such dental, hearing, and visual examinations if examined by an appropriate regularly licensed doctor within the last twelve months and presents evidence thereof.

No member of a board of education may be appointed, during his(her) tenure, as the district's school physician, dentist, or nurse.

§3313.71

School physicians may examine any child referred to him(her) for hearing defects, and may examine any teacher or school employee, and the school building as the protection of the health of other pupils, teachers and employees may require.

HEARING EXAMINATION

According to this code, the board of education shall require and provide tests for tuberculosis as required by the Ohio public health council. Such tests may be given annually, and the pupils with positive reactions shall be given chest x-rays, and such results shall be sent to the county record bureau of tuberculosis cases.

TUBERCULOSIS

Exceptions to such tests may occur when the student has written notice from a physician that he(she) is free from tuberculosis in the communicable stages, that the test is medically unadvisable, or that his(her) parents object because of religious convictions.

WAIVER

Any pupil, teacher or other employee who is found to have tuberculosis or any other communicable disease shall be sent home, and the school physician shall keep accurate records solely for the use of the boards of education and health. Such teacher or employee shall have his employment discontinued or suspended until the school physician has certified recovery.

All elementary and high schools accredited by the state shall be subject to the above.

§3313.712

The board of education of every school district shall provide every student in every school under their jurisdiction with an emergency medical authorization form, which shall be completed and kept on file.

If a parent or guardian does not give permission, it shall be stated on the form as shall the procedures he(she) wishes to be followed in the event of a medical emergency involving his(her) child.

When a parent or guardian does give written consent for emergency medical treatment, reasonable attempts shall be made to contact the parent by the school authorities. "Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose liability on any school official or school employee who, in good faith, attempts to comply with this section."

A copy of the form is included in this provision.

§3313.72

A board of education may contract with a health district to provide the services of a school physician, dentist, or nurse.

§3313.73

In school districts not employing a school physician, the board of health shall conduct health examinations of all school children and shall report the findings and recommendations to the parent or guardian.

HEALTH EXAMINATION

This section does not require a student to receive medical examination or treatment when the parent or guardian objects thereto.

MEDICAL EXAMINATION

§3319.221

Any registered nurse employed by the school district or by a city or general health district on Jan. 1, 1973 to serve as full time school nurse in one or more school districts shall be considered as having fulfilled the requirements necessary for the issuance of a school nurse certificate under this code.

STATUTES

§332.111

Auxiliary services may be provided to students in districts of more than 300,000, including but not limited to housing, medical, dental and transportation.

§332.435

A district school board may contract for medical and hospital insurance coverage of students participating in athletic contests and traffic patrols. Failure to do so is not evidence of negligence.

§332.531

In districts of 300,000 or more, the school board may employ security personnel to protect personnel, students, and school property.

SECURITY PERSONNEL

Security personnel when appointed and duly sworn are peace officers as defined by statute but only for the purpose of carrying out the duties of their employment .

The school board defines the duties of security personnel and may withhold any powers conferred by law upon peace officers or grant any additional duties as are appropriate.

The district superintendent or his/her deputy can suspend any member of the security patrol, "pending review as soon as practicable by the district school board."

§335.072

In all public, private or parochial schools with average daily attendance of 50 or more, fire drills shall be conducted at least once each school month. All exits must be maintained so that they can be opened from the inside without a key during school hours.

FIRE DRILLS

Thirty minutes a month "shall be used to instruct children in grades one through eight on fire dangers and drills."

A printed copy of a course of instruction on fire dangers and drills, written by the superintendent of public instruction, shall be provided at state expense to each teacher teaching under this section.

§336.375 — 336.380

"The district school board in a district with a population of 100,000 or more . . . may conduct a dental health program." An examination is made at least once a year of each pupil, and "dental treatment may be provided, subject to the rules of the school board."

DENTAL HEALTH

§336.390

A school board conducting a dental health program may furnish all necessary equipment and quarters.

The dental examination and treatment shall be "scientific, sanitary and efficient." It may be furnished free to minors whose parents or guardians are unable to pay, or adult students unable to pay. Any charges must be reasonable.

Minors need written consent from a parent or guardian and adult students are not required to receive an examination.

§336.400

Results of dental examination are reported to parents in writing, where treatment is required. The parent can have the services done by a private dentist, who "shall supply a certificate attesting that the treatment was performed in accordance with the report from the dental health program."

§336.410

LIABILITY

The school district assumes no liability for injuries in connection with the dental health program.

§336.420

A district school board may share the expense of a dental health program "with any other organization or individuals."

TRAFFIC PATROLS

§336.460

"A district school board may do all things necessary . . . to organize, supervise, control or operate traffic patrols . . . .[and] make rules relating to traffic patrols." .

Medical or hospital care may be provided for an individual "injured or disabled while acting as a member of traffic patrol."

§336.470

To promote safety the department of education shall make rules relating to traffic patrols.

A member must be 18 years of age unless written consent is obtained from his/her parent or guardian, and membership ceases if consent is revoked.

§336.480

The Department of Education and the Highway Division shall cooperate with any public or private or parochial school in the organization, supervision, control and operation of its traffic patrol.

§346.053

In the case of an emergency operation requiring the services of a specialist, and where the relatives or guardians, in the judgment of the superintendent of public instruction, are unable to pay a part or the whole cost of the operation, the superintendent may have the operation performed.

CHILD ABUSE

§418.750; 418.755

"Any public or private official having reasonable cause to believe that any child with whom he[she] comes in contact with in his[her] official capacity has suffered abuse . . . shall report or cause a report to be made..." Public or private official means "school employee."

"An oral report shall be made immediately by telephone or otherwise to the local office of the Children's Services Division or to a law enforcement agency within the county where the person making the report is at the time of his[her] contact. If known, such reports shall contain the names and addresses of the child and his[her] parents or other persons responsible for his[her] care, the child's age, the nature and extent of the abuse (including any evidence of previous abuse), the explanation given for the abuse and any other information which the person making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the abuse and the identity of the perpetrator."

§433.255

"No pupil, teacher or school employee [is] permitted to attend any . . . school when afflicted with any communicable disease, nor shall they be permitted to attend such school from any house in which exists any communicable disease."

§433.260

"Whenever any school [employee]. . . has reason to suspect that any pupil or [other] school employee is afflicted with or has been exposed to any communicable disease . . . such [employee] shall send such person home and report the occurrence to the local health officer by the most direct means available." A person sent home may not return to school "until he[she] presents a certificate from a [licensed] physician . . . stating that he[she] is not afflicted with nor a carrier of any communicable disease."

§433.267

Every child between the ages of five and 14, prior to initial enrollment in any school in this state must submit one of the following statements to the school administrator: (1) "a statement signed by a physician or representative of the local health department that [the child] has received an initial immunization and prescribed reinforcing immunization against the communicable diseases; "or

(2) a signed statement that the child's health is such that immunization would seriously endanger the child; or

(3) a statement signed by the parents or guardian of the child that their religious beliefs are opposed to such immunization; or

(4) a statement signed by the parent or guardian that immunization will be started within 30 days.

§433.269

The local health departments shall make available immunizations in areas convenient to the student free of charge to those children who are unable to acquire them from other physicians.

§433.275

Pupils not immunized shall be denied enrollment until immunized.

§479.140

All public and private schools must have one fire drill each month, and all doors and exits must be kept unlocked during school hours.

"Painting or finish applied to interior combustible surfaces of [schools], except floors and trim . . . shall be of a fire-retardant material meeting flame spread regulations for interior finish."

at the expense of the school district" or State, "charged by law with the providing of medical examinations for the schools of the school district."

§14-1402

MEDICAL EXAMINATION

Children of school age are to be given vision tests, hearing tests, measurement of height and weight, tuberculosis test and other tests deemed advisable by the Advisory Health Board. Children of every school age shall be provided with school nurse services. The number of pupils under the care of a school nurse shall not exceed 1500.

HEALTH RECORD

A comprehensive health record is to be maintained for each school age child including medical questionnaire suitable for diagnostic purposes completed by the child or his/her guardian or parent. All teachers shall report any unusual behavior or change in appearance of the pupil. School medical personnel may advise a child's parent or guardian of the apparent need for a special examination and arrange a special medical examination for the child if the parent or guardian fails to report the results.

Comprehensive appraisal of the health of every child is to be made at entry into school, in 6th grade, 11th grade and prior to issuance of a farm or domestic service permit.

§14-1403

DENTAL EXAMINATION

Dental examinations are required upon original entry into school, while in third grade, and in seventh grade unless a program of dental hygiene services is provided by the school.

§14-1404

EXAMINATION

School physicians and dentists shall conduct examinations in rooms set aside for the special purpose. School physicians shall require the removal of sufficient clothing to insure complete examination. If the schools are inadequate for the examinations, the school districts or joint school boards and private schools may, subject to approval of the Secretary of Health, use laboratories and facilities of hospitals or clinics.

§14-1405

SCHOOL NURSE

DENTAL HYGIENIST

Every school physician shall be assisted by a school nurse and every school dentist by a dental hygienist, if available or a trained assistant who shall be present during examinations. Parents or guardians shall be advised of the date of examination and urged to be present.

§14-1406

Recommendations as to medical, surgical or dental care shall be sent to parents or guardians and to the family physician or dentist with instructions to the parent or guardian to consult the family physician or dentist and to notify the school authorities of the action taken.

School medical personnel shall inform teachers of the health conditions of pupils which may affect behavior, appearance or scholastic performance.

MEDICAL REPORT

A pupil may furnish school officials with a medical or dental report made at his/her own expense rather than undergo school examinations. "The in lieu examination is to be made and the report furnished prior to the date fixed for the regularly scheduled examination, but no earlier than four months prior to the opening of the school term during which the regular examination is scheduled."

§14-1408

Every school district, school physicain, dentist and nurse shall file with the Secretary of Health and/or the Superintendent of Public Instruction such reports as required by the regulations of the two departments.

§14-1410

School physicians and dentists and other health personnel shall be employed with the approval of the Secretary of Health. The school physician and dentist along with the district or school board shall determine compensation.

PHYSICIANS

DENTISTS

§14-1411

Any school district may cooperate with any county, city, borough or town engaged in health work.

§14-1413

"Duties of school physicians shall include the vaccination of children of indigent parents, official re-vaccination of children having temporary vaccination certificates, physical examination of children incident to the issuance of employment certificates as required ...., approval of the return of pupils who have been absent due to a contagious disease or suspected contagious disease," and other required duties.

§14-1414

"Any school district or joint school board may provide for the care and treatment of the defective eyes, ears and teeth of all children of school age within the district."

MEDICAL TREATMENT

§14-1415

If a child requires medical, dental or surgical treatment and the parent or guardian states to school authorities that he/she is financailly unable to have a physician or dentist of his/her choice render such care, he/she shall be advised that the cost of such care may be provided if application is made to the appropriate county board of public assistance. If it appears that the parent or guardian was financially able to pay for the medical, dental or surgical care, the Department of Welfare shall recover the amounts expended from the parent or guardian.

§14-1416

TUBERCULOSIS

Any person having any form of tuberculosis in a transmissible stage, be they student, teacher, or employer, cannot stay at the school. The board of directors of the school district(s) may appropriate money for X-rays or other medical examinations to diagnose the disease.

§14-1418

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Teachers and employees are required to take a pre-employment physical, which will be recorded and made available to employing authorities.

Each teacher and other employee shall have a tuberculosis test. Persons furnishing a statement setting forth adequate reasons for being excused from taking the test shall be exempted. In such case, an alternative method of testing shall be administered.

§14-1419

EXAMINATION

EXEMPTION

No person is compelled to submit to any medical, or other examination or treatment if his/her religion does not allow it. However, "that exemption from medical or dental examination shall not be granted if the Secretary of Health finds that facts exist under which the exemption constitutes a present substantial menace to the health of other persons exposed to contact with the unexamined person."

"An advisory council shall be composed of representatives of the medical and dental associations, social organizations, veterans' organizations, PTA. . . and other organizations in the area served." Those making examinations shall give an annual report.

§15-1517; ;518

FIRE SAFETY

In all public schools where there are fire escapes, exits and other fire prevention or aids, they are to be maintained and fire drills are to be periodically conducted . . . . "

Failure to comply with the provision shall be a misdemeanor.

All schools using school buses shall conduct on school grounds two emergency evacuation drills.

It is the duty of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to prepare books of instruction for teachers' use on fire prevention.

EYE PROTECTIVE DEVICES

Industrial quality eye protective devices are required for every person in any shop or laboratory in public or private schools, colleges and universities "engaged in or within the area of known danger created by (1) the use of hot liquids, solids or gases, or caustic or explosive materials, or (2) the milling, sawing, turning, shaping, cutting, grinding, or stamping of solid materials, or (3) the tempering, heat treatment or kiln firing of metals and other materials, or (4) gas or electric welding, or (5) the repairing or servicing of vehicles."

§§312 - 5315

DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE

Projects shall be designed to "further education concerning the causes and effects of and treatment for drug and alcohol abuse and dependence by making grants to or entering into contracts with institutions of higher education and other public or private agencies, institutions, or organizations, for "developing curricula in schools on drug and alcohol abuse, evaluating these programs as to their effectiveness, providing training programs to teachers, counselors and other educational personnel.

The secretary and other state officials shall give needed technical assistance.

REGULATIONS

§ 11.7

EXEMPTION

School districts may excuse pupils from instruction in those portions of science and health courses which conflict with the religious beliefs of the pupil if the parents so request in writing.

1b. Fire Drill Code (Commissioner of Public Schools, 1913)

Every fire drill is to be regarded as a real fire.

The only person to have any advance notice of the fire drill is the one who sounds the alarm.

Drills shall take place at any time.

The signalling device must be heard in all parts of the building and shall be used only for fire drills. FIRE DRILLS

All occupants must be sure to vacate the building in a fire drill.

A teacher or some other responsible person shall be assigned to assist the handicapped.

A teacher or some other responsible person must check restrooms, cloakrooms, and all other rooms and areas where children congregate, to make sure that all of the pupils have vacated the building.

Pupils must not be permitted to go for hats or coats.

Teachers must leave the building with their classes.

Teachers who are in their own home room when a fire drill sounds must take their class register with them when they leave the building.

It shall be the responsibility of the teacher to make sure that all of the children have left their room, and that the door of the room is closed.

There shall be no talking during a fire drill.

Pupils must not run during a fire drill, but must move quickly and orderly.

Members of the custodial staff must report to pre-designated locations.

Pupils must be conducted to a point far enough away from the building so as to be in a safe area and out of the path of fire equipment.

G. WELFARE

2. Health (Director, Department of Health, and Commissioner of Education, 2/1/72)

HEALTH SERVICES

Each community shall provide for school health services for all children attending public and non-public schools within the geographical boundaries.

Each school system shall provide for the appointment and services of a physician and a dentist. Adequate professional nursing services shall be provided. Nurses employed by public schools shall meet the certification requirements of the State Board of Regents for school nurse-teacher.

As a condition for approval of a community's School Health Program by the Commissioner of Education, that community's school health services plans and programs (except those developed and provided by the school dentist) shall have received the prior approval of the community's school physician(s). The community's school physician(s) shall be licensed to practice medicine and surgery in accordance with state law.

Each school year each superintendent of schools shall submit for approval to the Commissioner of Education a report of the school health programs which relate to the School Health Program in the school(s) under his jurisdiction.

Health examinations shall be made at least four times during the school-experience: just before entering school (if possible) but, if not, in the first year of enrollment, and in the fourth, and tenth grades.

The complete, cumulative school health record, or a copy thereof, shall be transferred when the child goes to another school building or school system.

Parents or guardians shall be notified, according to acceptable school procedures, of any suspected deviation from normal health found as a result of a screening test (e.g. vision), health examination and/or teacher observation.

b. All school children shall be given a Snellen vision screening test at least once a year, unless satisfactory evidence shall be presented to the school physician that such a test has been completed within the previous six-month period. The school vision screening test shall be given by a properly trained person. The physician in charge of the examination shall, within 30 days, report to the administrator of the Division of Services for the Blind the result of the examination in case blindness is established by examination. A child failing the test shall be given a retest before the parents and/or guardians are notified. The retest shall be given on another day.

Beginning with the first year of enrollment all school children shall be given a puretone hearing screening test by a properly trained person at least once every three years.

All pupils who are in their first year of enrollment, including pupils new to the school system, shall be screened for speech defects, by a properly trained person.

c. All school children shall be given a dental examination by a dentist just before entering school (if possible) but, if not, in the first year of enrollment and annually thereafter. The community's school dentist shall be licensed to practice dentistry in accordance with state law.

d. Every person upon first entering any public or private school in this state as a pupil shall furnish to the administrative head of such school evidence that such person has been immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, polio, rubella, (and) measles, (or has had natural measles); or a certificate from a licensed physician stating that such person is not a fit subject for immunization for medical reasons; or a certificate signed by the parent or guardian stating that such immunizations are contrary to his beliefs.

Whenever possible, the evidence for completing the specified immunizations should be a certificate signed by a licensed physician. However, in the circumstances where the physician's records are lost or are not available or where the prospective pupil was immunized in a special public health clinic in which no permanent record of immunization was established, the signed statement of the prospective pupil's parent or guardian attesting to completion of the specified immunizations will suffice as evidence.

In the circumstance where the person cannot supply evidence for one or more of the required immunizations such evidence shall be provided within one year of the date of first entrance.

Rules and regulations of the Rhode Island Department of Health pertaining to the control of communicable diseases shall obtain. Regulations of the local school physician shall obtain in the matters of exclusion and readmission of pupils for reasons of illness.

TUBERCULOSIS TEST

All full or part-time school employees and those persons (such as food handlers, bus drivers, physicians, nurses, clinicians, etc.) whose duties bring them into direct contact with children shall prior to employment and every two years thereafter, file with the superintendent of schools or a person or persons delegated by him a report from a licensed physician that such person is free from tuberculosis in its communicable form.

e. Each school shall have written policies and standing orders available in the event of accidents and acute illnesses. These shall be prepared, dated, signed, and reviewed annually by the school physician(s).

FIRST AID

At least one person, other than the school nurse, competently trained in first aid shall be available in each school at all times.

An accident report shall be completed and filed as soon as possible by the school principal or a person delegated by him.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

GUIDANCE CENTER

Finding that there exists a need to increase the effectiveness of career development programs, the Legislature intends that the pilot career guidance center established in §52340 et seq. shall serve as a regional guidance resource center. The Department of Education shall provide state-level guidance to the project.

Application for establishment of a career guidance center may be made to the state board by any county superintendent or governing board, separately or jointly, on forms provided by the Department. The state board shall select one applicant.

Upon the state superintendent's recommendation, the state board shall adopt guidelines including, but not limited to, criteria for selection of the applicant and of project sites, fiscal accountability, and administrative procedures.

In implementing §52343 et seq., the Department shall regularly consult with the Department of Human Resources Development, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the University of California, the Chancellor of the California State University and Colleges, the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing, the Department of Industrial Relations, the Department of Consumer Affairs, the California Advisory Council on Vocational Education and Technical Training, and the State Personnel Board.

APPOINTMENT

The career guidance center shall appoint a local advisory committee composed of 11 members, at least seven of whom shall be representatives of business, industry, and labor, and the general public, and one a member of the local area vocational committee (established under §8020 et seq. of Title 1, if such a committee exists in the area of the center).

The committee shall make annual findings and recommendations regarding the center's operation and cooperate with the Department of Education in its guidance capacity.

Members shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary travel expenses in performing their duties.

The career guidance center has such powers as are necessary to carry out the Legislature's intent (in §52340) in accordance with state board guidelines, including, but not limited to, contractual powers to employ staff and provide products and services. The center shall maintain a program including, but not limited to: an inventory of career guidance measurement instruments and of resource material related to the preparation of occupational competencies; the development and use of techniques for in-service training of staff involved in career development activities; a system for collecting, coordinating and distributing career information at the local, state, and national levels; and a basic set of functions for additional centers.

The career guidance center shall annually submit to the state board an inventory of programs, current and planned, including: occupational and job analyses; occupational and job performance testing and evaluation; costs of job training in various programs; work experience evaluations; quality control techniques for conducting job training programs; personnel selection techniques and costs; administration and evaluation of occupational training advisory committees for entry, but not necessarily including, professional levels; and proportion of employees and students enrolled in job-training programs at entry, but not necessarily including, professional levels.

POLICY GUIDES

PUPIL PERSONNEL SERVICES IN CALIFORNIA PUBLIC SCHOOLS. NEEDS, PROBLEMS AND A PLAN FOR SOLUTION. 93 pages.

Prepared by the Guidance and Counseling Task Force
1975

The task force reports the results of a statewide assessment of the pupil personnel services in California. It concludes that more attention should be given to students' individual needs and to community and social problems such as drug abuse and discrimination. The report includes a model plan for pupil personnel services at the county level and gives examples of "promising plans and programs" developed at various schools for dealing with specific pupil personnel problems.

STATUTES

§22-8-102 -- 22-8-107

In order to "provide educational opportunities to all persons which will enable them to lead fulfilling and productive lives," a career education plan is adopted which will "provide assistance in the implementation of career education concepts in the curricula of all school districts." An executive committee, made up of the commissioner of education and other professional educators, shall make recommendations to the state board, which shall establish a "statewide career education resource team" and a "state resource center." A "state advisory council for career education" is established to stimulate and assist local career councils and to advise the executive committee.

CAREER EDUCATION

§22-8-108

To receive funds for career education each school, group of schools, or board of cooperative services shall submit a career education implementation plan to the state coordinator for executive committee and state board approval.

REGULATIONS

2202-R-12.01

A guidance and counseling program offering educational, career, and personal-social information and counseling, on an individual and group basis shall be provided by every district. An effort is to be made to involve teachers and staff in the guidance program. The program should provide physical facilities for private consultation.

2204-R-12.02

A guidance counselor or social worker, meeting the requirements of 8.05(6), is to be employed by each district. He/she is to devote, at least, one half of his/her time to guidance counseling functions.

COUNSELOR

(1) maximum pupil counselor ratio for elementary schools should be 1,000 to 1;

(2) 350 to 1 but not in excess of 450 to 1 should be the pupil counselor ratio for secondary schools;

(3) those districts offering alternative staffing plans must show that pupils are receiving guidance counseling services comparable to those outlined above.

2208-R-2.0

Administrative Organization and Duties

Administrative organization and duties are to be carried out as defined by the Career Education Act.

Career Education Education Act implementation is the responsibility of the Board of Education...which shall also:

Appoint one career education classroom teacher or specialist to serve with the committee for one year.

Adopt an annual budget which authorizes the expenditures of all monies appropriated for career education upon recommendation of the executive committee.

The executive committee submits recommendations to the state board for the position of state coordinator, and recommends a classroom teacher or specialist involved in the career education program to serve for one year on the executive committee;

Recommends fifteen people for the state advisory council to the Governor;

Performs duties necessary to carry out the purposes of this article;

Develops a job description subject to state board approval which includes duties and responsibilities for the position of state coordinator.

The state coordinator of career education shall: coordinate the activities of Career Education State Team and the Career Education Resource Team, and review proposals according to approved guidelines.

Submit a state board of education approved progress report, on January 1 of each year, to the general assembly.

Develop a system to document local matching funds in order to comply with the Career Education Act.

The Statewide Career Education Resource Team will assist state educational institutions and staff in developing career education concepts. The Resource Team shall circulate materials on career education around the state.

The State Career Education Advisory Council shall act in an advisory capacity to the State Board for Career Education and the Career Education State Team shall assist those requesting career education concept implementation.

Schools, groups of schools or boards of cooperative services who are eligible, may submit proposal plans to the state coordinator of career education, to apply for Career Education Act funds.

Proposal plans shall meet guidelines set forth by the Career Education State Team; shall include an evaluation component; and shall be reviewed by "outside readers" who will make recommendations in accord with those guidelines.

The state advisory council will review and present proposal plans to be funded to the state board of education.

Prior to final disposition applicants may request a hearing on their proposal plans.

Each applicant shall be notified of the recommendation that will be made to the state board; five days after receipt of notification, unsuccessful applicants may request reconsideration.

In the case of an appeal a reviewing panel, composed of Career Education advisory council members, members of the executive committee and "outside readers" shall be assembled. If this panel sustains the adverse decision an applicant, within ten days, may seek by written request to the state coordinator, a hearing before the state board of education.

APPEAL

The state board shall hear all of the evidence and render a final decision at the state level.

The services of the career education resource team shall be made available to all state educational institutions upon request to the state coordinator of career education.

Services provided by the resource team shall include inservice workshops, consultation, class visitation and one to one teacher assistance, counselors and administrative help.

The Career Education Act will provide assistance in the developing of a state resource center to aid in disseminating materials for career education on a statewide basis.

§230.2312

Each school district shall develop a plan for providing student services to all students in the district. A "student services program shall consist of: (a) guidance services, including orientation programs, consultations with parents and faculty, supervision of standardized testing, and educational and job placement; (b) psychological services, including students with learning or adjustment problems, students in exceptional child education programs, and early identification of learning potential; (c) school social work services; and (d) occupational and placement services.

Each district school shall develop a plan to insure maximum efficiency in the use of the services. The state board shall promulgate regulations to carry out the intent of the legislature.

§233.066

Counseling services shall be available to elementary and secondary school children. Each school district shall establish a "required level of counseling services" including student counselor ratios. Individual districts shall also set guidelines for counselor certification "outside traditional graduate school certification requirements."

§233.0681

Occupational specialists may be substituted for counselors and, under a counselor's supervision, counsel students, teachers and parents of dropouts and administrators on job availability and career opportunities. They shall be granted "provisional certification." Each school board may design a program to train such specialists and submit it to the Department of Education. Upon approval, the Department may fund up to 75% of the program. It shall review each program yearly and make recommendations to the legislature.

REGULATIONS

6A-6.71

The commissioner shall prepare and disseminate materials designed to assist school districts in developing a comprehensive program of student services, including placement services and follow-up services. Each school board shall develop a plan for a comprehensive program of student services including guidance services, psychological services, visiting teacher and school social work services, placement services and follow-up studies.

B. Counseling

Statutes

§32-620a

The State Board of Education shall allot elementary and secondary counselors, school psychologists, psychometrists, job placement directors and visiting teachers to local administrative units. Job placement directors shall assist "classroom teachers and other student services support personnel in the advisement of student services relative to career exploration experiences and employment opportunities."

An adult education guidance position will be allotted. "The duties of adult educational guidance personnel shall include, but not be limited to, the assessment and determination of the educational achievement levels and needs of adult education and adult vocational education students," developing career plans and assisting in the obtaining of employment for these students.

Regulations

30-1010; 1020

The State Board "recognizes the importance of balanced educational programs and services designed to provide academic and occupational preparation" for school children. Pupil personnel services include "developmental, preventive and remedial services for pupils . . . local school systems should provide an adequate program of pupil personnel services; as a minimum, guidance, counseling, testing, social work, attendance, psychological, psychiatric and medical services are essential. The State Superintendent of Schools shall recommend to the State Board a state plan for a program . . . to encourage "local school systems to provide such services. The state plan shall require local school system plans for the provision of appropriate services to pupils." Annual reports shall be made to the State Board.

"The Office of Instructional Services shall prepare a State Plan for Pupil Personnel Services," develop criteria for improvement of services, review local plans, and provide for evaluation of the services offered by school systems. It shall also develop "criteria for certification of pupil personnel specialists" and determine staffing needs.

STATUTES

§17:3001 -- 3004

"The welfare of the people of the state of Louisiana . . . requires that the talent of its youth be developed to their fullest possible extent.

Guidance counselors, qualified to engage in educational and vocational guidance, must assist the student, "through a process involving direct contact," to adjust more to [himself/herself] and [his/her] environment.

Guidance directors have the responsibility to aid teachers "by gathering and interpreting facts which will enable the student . . . to maximize personal growth and development; and "to foster a greater understanding between teachers and parents of the emotional, social, and academic problems of the individual student."

In guidance counseling, the counselor "serves as an advocate for children within the adult structure of the school and community."

To provide employment to guidance counselors and directors, the Louisiana State Board of Education "is authorized and directed to use . . . funds" for that purpose. Guidance counselors and directors "are selected by the local school officials in each parish and city school system."

The purpose of the division of pupil personnel services is to insure that school personnel employed in the areas of psychological services, guidance and counseling, health and school social work services will coordinate efforts as team members in order to provide comprehensive supportive services to all students and teachers to insure that each child will have access to helping services which facilitate his or her physical, social, emotional and educational development.

In accordance with standards for certification of school counselors, psychologists, and social workers, the division consults with the division of certification concerning the qualifications for employment of the aforementioned personnel.

"Consultants in guidance and counseling utilize their specialized knowledge to assist school counselors to: provide social skills for all children and consult with parents and teachers; . . . coordinate school and community support services relating to human affective and cognitive development."

"Consultants in psychology utilize their specialized knowledge of assessment, learning, and interpersonal relationships to assist school personnel in facilitating the experiences and growth of all children, and in identifying and working with exceptional children; provide educational consultation to school personnel concerning appropriate strategies for working with the . . . problems of individuals or groups of children; develop programs of preventive mental health with an emphasis on the early identification and remediation of children with learning or behavior problems; conduct studies designed to evaluate the effects of the educational and the psycho-educational programs on children in the system."

"Consultants in school health utilize their specialized knowledge to assist school health personnel to: provide a leadership role in identification of students with health needs that interfere with effective learning; work with school staff in learning to recognize and report health deviations; assist children in developing improved attitudes toward health education and in assuming responsibility for their own well being."

"Consultants in school social work utilize their specialized knowledge to: assist other pupil personnel workers in sharing responsibility for assisting in the prevention and resolution of difficulties that obstruct a child's ability to learn; "assist school social workers in developing more effective techniques to work with students, their families, and other school personnel" in order to evaluate the child's home life and family problems and to mediate between the child and his/her community and family.

B. Counseling

Regulations

Chapter I: I.B.11.

The Director of Guidance and Counseling Services has responsibility of providing leadership and service to all public schools in initiating, approving, and evaluating guidance, counseling, and testing programs.

Chapter III: I.A.

All schools should provide for their pupils an approved program of organized guidance services.

III.I.B.

The guidance program consists of that group of services designed to give systematic aid to all pupils in recognizing and serving vocational, education, and personal needs. Guidance activities should be organized into a definite program in which every staff member participates. The school counselor and/or guidance director shall coordinate the program, counsel students, and assist teachers in their guidance activities.

III.I.C.

For secondary schools, guidance activities should include: gathering and interpreting information appropriate to the understanding of a pupil's personal assets and liabilities; making available to pupils and parents educational, career, and personal-social information; providing counseling services in a private, permissive situation to open the way for intelligent self-decision and self-direction on the part of the pupil; providing services to assist pupils to make educational transitions beyond high school; providing to teachers and administrators information to enable them to make curricular and instructional decision; and assessing the guidance program.

Minimum standards for counselor caseload are one clock hour per day per 100 students enrolled. However, enrollment of 100 students requires a full-time counselor.

Schools enrolling more than 300 pupils shall employ additional guidance personnel in line with the preceding; A school counselor and/or guidance director in an approved minimum program must hold at least the North Dakota Standards Guidance Credential and qualify for the Professional Guidance Credential within four years after employment.

Recommended standards are one clock hour per day per 50 students enrolled, with a full-time counselor employed at 300 enrolled. In an approved recommended program, the school counselor and/or guidance director should hold the North Dakota Professional Guidance Credential.

The school shall provide physical facilities, materials, and equipment essential in the major aspects of the guidance program.

Chapter III.I.D.

For elementary schools, guidance activities should include: maintaining cumulative records for all pupils; administering standardized group tests; studying individual problems in a regular manner and providing special programs to meet problems common to identified groups of elementary pupils (such as pre-school enrollment activities, reading readiness, programs preparatory to next higher grade or school); and providing assistance to teachers on guidance problems.

At the elementary level, one counselor for every 20 teachers or one for every 800 or fewer pupils would be desirable.

Elementary guidance programs should be approved by the State Department of Public Instruction. The counselor should hold at least the North Dakota Standard Guidance Credential.

Chapter III: I.E.

The guidance and counseling program should be coordinated with the special education program and all other pupil personnel services at the local level. All programs are under the supervision of the school superintendent.

REGULATIONS

§3301-51-09

School psychological services may be provided to children thought to be handicapped, children in regular school programs and their parents, and educational services personnel who need assistance in modifying or implementing instructional strategies.

SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST

"The primary responsibility of the school psychologist shall be the development of a comprehensive program which involves screening to identify students with difficulties, individual diagnosis and remediation, individual and group work, staff development programs for school and related personnel, and strategies for classroom management, instructional methodology and crisis intervention designed to assist the school in determining appropriate educational options for children."

"The school psychologist shall effectively and appropriately utilize child study techniques including a variety of recognized individual tests of ability, individual measures to determine academic performance, social and behavioral adaptability and perceptional and motor problems, criterion reference, instrumentation, interviewing and observational techniques [and] projective procedures. All comprehensive individual studies shall be accompanied by concise written reports which include identifying data, reason for referral, interpretation of observation and assessment data, planned systems for teaching and reinforcement, specific recommendations for intervention, remediation and follow-up with the child, teacher, and/or parent."

"The professional activities of the school psychologist shall be reviewed with the school psychologist on an established basis. Reviews shall assist in identifying programs strengths and needs and lead to the development of implementation strategies designed to facilitate program growth."

For those individuals planning to provide at least one year of service as a school psychologist in Ohio schools, a special program of supervised experience in school psychology may be approved for experimental demonstration or research purposes to explore new techniques or procedures in training school psychologists.

School psychological services. (1) Contracting. School districts may utilize the services of certificated school psychologists through a variety of administrative arrangements.

(2) Annually, on or before February 1, preceding the beginning of the fiscal year (July 1-June 30) during which the plan is to take effect, each school district shall submit to the department (division for instructional services) an annual plan of school psychological services for the district.

(a) The annual plan shall contain a narrative portion which describes all school psychological services (senior and junior level, paraprofessionals, psychologists in training) provided by the employing agency.

(b) The annual plan of school psychological services shall be reviewed and approved by the department (division for instructional services) and returned to the employing agency preceding the beginning of the fiscal year.

(3) By July 15, following the fiscal year, each district employing school psychological services personnel shall submit a year-end report, including the claim for reimbursement of approved costs.

(4)(a)The reimbursement of school psychological services personnel under this chapter is contingent upon meeting the department's approval of the annual plan, costs, personnel, services and reports.

(b) One full-time school psychologist or equivalent may be funded under this program for each 1,500 pupils served by the school district, except where a demonstrated need exists and where approval has been granted in advance by the department. Smaller districts may be funded on a pro rata basis.

(5) Approved school psychological services personnel, full or part-time, may consist of the following:

(a) Certified senior-level school psychologists. The reimbursed school psychologist shall hold a current Wisconsin certificate as a senior level school psychologist. The school psychologist I (position code 57) certificate confers eligibility for reimbursement for 2 years only.

(b) Certified junior level school psychologists. The junior-level school psychologist shall hold a current certificate as a provisional school psychologist (position code 56) or as a school psychometrist (position code 60).

(c) Paraprofessionals. Paraprofessionals may be employed to assist school psychologists.

(6) Evaluation of and inservice for school psychologists shall be provided by the employing agency.

(7) The function of the school psychologist shall be to provide within legal and recognized professional standards an organizational and service framework within which efficient and appropriate school psychological services are provided to children, parents, and school staff.

(a) The school psychologist shall be responsible and accountable for school psychological services delivered to the administration of all programs served; shall be responsible for development, implementation, professional supervision, and articulation of psychological services to the programs of the agency; and shall report to the designated agency administrator regarding the organization and effectiveness of the services.

(b) A state-funded school psychologist shall be responsible and accountable for the development, implementation, and evaluation of the following:

1. A comprehensive continuum of coordinated psychological services for children who are experiencing extraordinary educational problems;

2. School psychological services as a part of a comprehensive multidisciplinary-team assessment and program planning procedure for children with suspected exceptional educational needs (EEN);

3. Psychological intervention and consultation for children, parents, and staff with regard to the educational, social, emotional, and behavioral needs of children;

4. Specialized resources to meet the identified needs of children;

5. Inservice education and staff development activities with respect to identification, nondiscriminatory evaluation, programming, screening, and other procedures relevant to children with or without EEN.

PI 11.17

(1) School districts may utilize the services of certified school social workers through a variety of administrative arrangements.

(2) Annually, on or before February 1, preceding the beginning of the fiscal year (July 1-June 30) during which the plan is to take effect, each school district shall submit to the department (division for instructional services) an annual plan of school social work services for the district.

(a) The annual plan shall contain a narrative portion which describes all school social work services provided by the employing agency.

(b) The annual plan of school social work services shall be reviewed and approved by the department (division for instructional services) and returned to the employing agency preceding the beginning of the fiscal year.

(3) By July 15, following the fiscal year, each district employing school social work services personnel shall submit a year-end report, including the claim for reimbursement of approved costs.

(4) One full-time school social worker or equivalent may be funded under this program for each 1,500 pupils served by the school district. Smaller districts may be funded on a pro rata basis.

(5) The reimbursed school social worker shall hold a current Wisconsin certificate as a school social worker.

(6) Approved services by school social work services personnel are those approved by the state superintendent.

(7) Evaluation of and inservice for school social workers shall be provided by the employing agency.

(8) The role of the school social worker shall be to provide for the adaptive, social-emotional, behavioral, personal, family and community liaison needs of exceptional education children and other children.

(a) Among the job services for which a state funded social worker providing services is responsible are the following:

1. Provide individual evaluations based on adaptive behaviors, socio-cultural adjustments, and family background as part of the multidisciplinary team when indicated;

2. Assist in the smooth transition of exceptional educational needs children as they pass from special education to regular education and vice versa;

3. As required to meet student needs, coordinate school and community services;

4. Provide supportive services to families;

5. Inservice to school personnel and parents as it relates to any and all procedures relevant to children with exceptional educational needs;

6. Research, develop and evaluate school social work programs relating to children with exceptional educational needs.

Sec. 5

The guidance services program should be staffed by State-certified personnel, including one or more of the following: counselor, school psychologist, school social worker, and psycholgical technicians. The recommended program consists of the following functions: counseling students (using diagnostic testing results and other information as necessary); consultation with staff and parents relative to students' welfare; coordination of guidance services among schools, the community, and outside agencies; in-service training for developing staff understanding; and parent education. A minimum guidance program would include these services but would be conducted through outreach personnel from outside agencies and would serve those exhibiting greatest need for these services.

Health services must include a qualified nurse or nurses on a full or part-time basis; must have an organized program of health services available to all studnets in the district; should be able to identify potential and existing handicaps (for instance, screening tests for hearing and sight); should perform follow-up to insure that needed care has been provided. Services may be provide either by personnel employed by the district or by agencies outside the district who are contracted to provide these services to individual pupils.

C. SCHOOL FOOD SERVICE

STATUTES

§15-1122 --1126

The state board of education may receive and disburse funds for school lunch programs. The board may enter into agreements with other agencies, make regulations, employ and train personnel, and take any other action necessary to establish school lunch programs. Local school boards may operate lunch programs and employ personnel to carry out the programs. The state board of education shall prescribe recordkeeping procedures for school districts and may conduct studies to improve and expand lunch programs.

C. School Food Service

Statutes

§80-125

"School Lunch Program" means a program under which lunches are served by any school in the state on a non-profit basis to children in attendance.

§80-126--129

"The State Board . . . (may) . . . accept and direct the disbursement of funds appropriated by . . . Congress . . . for use in connection with school lunch programs." Further, the Board may "take such other action as it may deem necessary to provide for the establishment, maintenance, operation, and expansion of any school lunch program [and] may give technical advice and assistance . . . . and may assist in training personnel engaged in the operation of such program." And "school districts may use . . . funds disbursed to them . . . gifts, and other funds received from sale of school lunches for establishment, expansion and improvement of such programs."

The Board "shall prescribe regulations for the keeping of accounts and records and the making of reports by or under the supervision of school districts."

§80-130

The Board shall "conduct studies of methods for improving and expanding school lunch programs and promoting nutritional education . . . conduct appraisals of the nutritive benefits of school lunch programs, and . . . report its findings and recommendations to the Governor and to the General Assembly."

C. School Food Service

Statutes

§39870 -- 39874

The governing board of any school district may establish cafeterias in the schools under its jurisdiction whenever in its judgment it is advisable to do so.

Food shall not be sold at any cafeteria operated by a school district to anyone except pupils and employees of any school district, members of the governing board thereof, and members and employees of the fund or association maintaining the cafeteria.

Perishable foodstuffs and seasonal commodities needed in the operation of the cafeterias may be purchased by the school district in accordance with rules and regulations for such purchase.

§49490 -- 49493

The Legislature finds that hunger and malnutrition among children from low-income families constitute one of the most critical child health problems in the state and that, since federal funds allocated for child nutrition are inadequate to meet critical needs, the state and local communities bear a responsibility toward meeting these needs. No amount received by a school district or other public or private school pursuant to §49490 et seq. or the National School Lunch Program shall be used to reduce the level of district or school expenditures for any existing program of free or reduced-price meals, unless such meals are provided for each eligible needy child.

Each district or school receiving reimbursement shall meet standards adopted by the state superintendent for meals, prices, eligibility, and protection of the identity of children for whom reimbursement is made.

No allocation shall be made for children resident on the premises of the school or agency.

§49500 -- 49504

A school governing board may provide, without charge or at a reduced price, breakfasts and lunches for pupils who are needy, that is, those who do not otherwise receive proper nourishment. A governing board may provide, without charge, lunches for any or all pupils, whether or not they are needy, provided the board provided such lunches to all pupils during 1962-1963. A governing board may provide, without charge or at a reduced price, other nutrition periods during the day.

A governing board may establish rules by which to determine which pupils are needy. Any pupil eligible for aid or services under Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code shall be deemed needy.

To obtain funds to provide meals for needy pupils and to acquire facilities for providing them, a governing board may levy a district tax over and above the maximum but not to exceed five cents or may use district funds. Not more than 6% of such funds may be used for administrative and clerical costs. Officials and departments of state having charge of funds for the relief of indigents, as well as counties and cities, may contribute funds to school districts for the purchase of school meals for needy pupils.

§49510 -- 49512

The Department of Education, in cooperation with the Department of Social Welfare, shall establish a statewide program to provide nutritious meals at schools for pupils and shall cooperate with the U. S. Departments of Health, Education, and Welfare and Agriculture to do so.

Funds shall be allocated to districts so as to provide free meals to the neediest children. Determination of a household's annual income shall be made on the basis of an affidavit in a form prescribed by the U. S.

Secretary of Agriculture by an adult member of the household. Income poverty guidelines shall be those prescribed by the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture.

This program shall in years subsequent to the year of its initial funding be funded according to customary budgetary procedures.

§49513 -- 49514

The program authorized under §49510 et seq. shall be integrated with already operational school meal programs.

To extend the program to pupils attending schools which do not operate meal programs and are unable or unwilling to provide food required under §49510 et seq., contracts shall be entered into with nonprofit organizations or other agencies. In making such projects, special consideration shall be given to utilizing the Business Enterprises Program for the Blind under §19625 et seq. of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Contracts shall be approved by the Department of Education and terminated as soon as feasible upon certification by the Department of Education that the local school is able to establish a food service program.

However, in districts in which the provision of traditional meals is not feasible, the Department of Education is authorized to approve demonstration projects which examine alternative methods of assuring minimum nutritional requirements for needy pupils by provision of fortified food supplements.

At least one such demonstration project shall be established. The nutritious food supplement used in the project shall be approved by the Department of Education, the Department of Public Health, and the participating school district. The Department of Education shall, when results of the project are measurable, submit a report and recommendations to the Legislature.

§49515

Programs established under §49510 et seq. shall, to the extent feasible, provide for the use of parents of needy pupils in planning, preparing, and serving school meals. Necessary formal training for such purposes shall, to the extent feasible, be provided under work incentive programs under §5000 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

The use of volunteers shall also be encouraged.

§49516 -- 49517

To encourage a sense of fiscal responsibility among participating students, a nominal cash payment for school meals provided under §49510 et seq. may be required. The payment shall be related to the income of the pupil's family and be not less than five cents nor more than twenty cents per meal. Funds received from such payments shall be used to expand programs.

The Department of Education may contract with county welfare departments to identify pupils eligible for the program and to determine the amount of cash payment that may be required of any pupil.

§49518

To the extent that funds are insufficient to provide services under §49510 et seq. to all eligible pupils, first priority shall go to pupils described in §11202 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and second priority to pupils eligible for social services only under §11200 et seq. of the Welfare and Institutions Code with priority declining with increasing age of the pupil.

§49519

Each meal provided under §49510 shall include an appropriate serving of milk, though milk shall not be mandatory in demonstration projects using food supplements.

§49520

The Department of Education shall annually file a detailed report to the Legislature showing progress made in extending the program of meals under §49510 to needy pupils.

§49530

No child shall go hungry at school on a child development program. Schools and child development programs have an obligation to provide for nutritional needs and education of all children.

§49531

Any child nutrition entity (that is, any school district, county superintendent, child development program under §8200 et seq. of Tile 1, local agency, private or parochial school qualifying for federal aid under the federal school lunch program or the federal child nutrition program) may apply to the Department of Education for all available federal and state funds so that a nutritionally adequate breakfast and/or lunch may be provided to pupils. The State Board shall adopt rules and regulations for the operation of lunch and breakfast programs.

A nutritionally adequate breakfast or lunch is one which meets one-third of the daily dietary allowance as established by the National Research Council.

§49532

A child nutrition entity which has inadequate or no food preparation facilities and is therefore unable to provide meals may contract with other districts, county superintendents, or other agencies for the delivery of meals.

§49533

APPOINTMENT

A Child Nutrition Advisory Council shall be appointed by the State Board to advise on school meal service and nutrition education programs. The 11 members shall include one member of the Department of Education, one school administrator, one school board member, one school food service director and one school food service supervisor, one classroom teacher, one curriculum coordinator, one nutrition education specialist, one lay person, one senior-class high school student, and a consultant in nutrition, education or health and welfare. Members shall serve in two staggered groups of terms of two years each, except for the student whose term shall be one year. Council members shall serve without pay but shall be reimbursed for travelling costs.

§49534

RULEMAKING

The Department of Education shall formulate basic elements of and rules and regulations for nutrition education programs under §49530 et seq. Such projects shall be maintained on a project approval basis and shall be approved by the State Board on recommendation of the Department of Education. County offices may apply for funds on behalf of school districts.

Such programs shall coordinate classroom instruction with the food service program and be of sufficient range to meet the educational needs of students at all levels.

§49536

Funds allocated under §41350a to child nutrition entities for school and child care and development program meals under §49530 et seq. shall be disbursed on the basis of five cents for each breakfast or lunch served.

The Department of Education shall annually prescribe an adjustment in the state meal contribution rates established under §49530 et seq. for the forthcoming year to reflect changes in the cost of operating a school meal program. Such adjustment shall be the average of the separate indices of the "Food Away from Home Index" for Los Angeles and San Francisco prepared by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

§49550 -- 49556

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, each school district and county superintendent shall, commencing July 1, 1977, provide for each needy pupil one nutritionally adequate free or reduced-price meal during each school day. (A nutritionally adequate meal meets one-third of the daily allowance established by the National Research Council.)

The State Board shall adopt regulations prescribing guidelines for this requirement, including the definition of needy children.

Any school district or county superintendent which has inadequate food preparation facilities may contract with other districts, superintendents, or agencies for the delivery of meals.

A district or superintendent not meeting this requirement shall submit to the State Superintendent, no later than July 1, 1976, a plan of operation for implementing the requirement.

The State Superintendent shall supervise implementation and investigate acts of alleged non-compliance. The State Superintendent shall certify cases of non-compliance to the Attorney General who shall conduct investigations and seek injunctive relief to secure compliance when such action is requested by the Superintendent.

REGULATIONS

§ 15500-15501

Except as provided in subsection (b) and Section 15501, no school providing kindergarten or any of grades one through eight shall permit the sale of food by pupil organizations if such school is participating in the National School Lunch, School Breakfast, or Food Distribution program.

(b) The governing board of a school district or a county superintendent of schools may permit a student organization to sell not more than one food item per sale when:

1) Food sales begin after class

2) Are approved by the board

3) Food is not prepared on the premises

4) The food is a dessert or pastry

The governing board of any district or a county superintendent of schools maintaining a high school or a junior high school may permit an organization consisting solely of pupils of such school to sell food items during or after the regular school day if the following conditions are met:

a) The food items are approved by the governing board

b) A student organization or organizations may be approved to sell food at any time during the school day, including the regularly scheduled food service period(s).

§ 15511

The plan submitted by a county superintendent or school district pursuant to Section 11935 of the Education Code shall include an explanation of the following:

1) The methods to be used to provide a free meal to each eligible pupil; while insuring that there is no physical segregation, discrimination nor overt identification of such a pupil.

2) An assurance that the plan complies with federal and state law.

§ 15530-15535

Each child nutrition entity approved for funding under Nutrition Education programs established pursuant to Section 11925 of the Education Code shall submit a nutrition education application to the State Department of Education.

§ 15552-15555

To provide nutritional breakfast and lunch to eligible children any child nutrition entity may apply pursuant to section 11922 of the Education Code to the department for federal and state funds.

§ 15557-15561

Child nutrition entities shall be responsible for:

1) implementation of policies and guidelines for the management of child nutrition programs which become an integral part of the total education program.

§ 15563

"For purposes of Sections 11930 and 11933 of the Education Code, a nutritionally adequate meal shall meet requirements for a nutritionally adequate lunch or breakfast pursuant to Section 15558.

POLICY GUIDES

STATE PLAN OF CHILD NUTRITION MANAGEMENT
California Department of Education, 33 pages 1977.

The plan covers six federal and one state funded child nutrition program. The state plan requires that each needy child be provided at least one nutritious meal each school day. The federal plans include: National School Lunch Program; School Breakfast Program; Child Care Food Program; Special Milk Program; Summer Food Service Program; Nonfood Assistance Program; State Meal Program.

The goal of the state plan is to provide administrative and technical leadership to schools and assist them in improving the administration and effectiveness of these programs.

C. School Food Service

Statutes

§10-215a

Non-public schools may participate in the school breakfast, lunch and other feeding programs under regulations promulgated by the state board.

§10-215b

The state board of education is authorized to spend funds for school food programs, and to establish eligibility standards for schools that wish to participate in these programs. The state board shall issue regulations prescribing nutritional standards for school food programs, giving priority to schools with more children of limited economic means.

§10-215c

The state board shall annually report to the governor and the general assembly on the operation of its child nutrition program. The report shall contain an analysis of the various programs together with a specific plan for the coming year.

§10-225

The board may establish and operate a school lunch program and may establish a school breakfast program. Free lunches and breakfasts shall be provided to children whose economic needs so require.

Regulations

§ 10-215b-1 -- 10-215b-22

"Any board of education of a town or regional school district, and the vocational-technical secondary schools operated by the State Board of Education, shall be eligible to participate in...school lunch and child nutrition programs....,and to claim reimbursement from funds and other benefits available...for those purposes, by entering an agreement with the State..."
Agreements between the state board and "participating school authorities shall provide for a certification of the use of funds in the...approved nutritional programs, and for an annual audit." Reimbursement claims will not be paid until school authorities file with the secretary of the state board "an approved plan for providing free lunches, breakfasts or other nutritional benefits to children whose economic needs require such actions."

The Secretary of the State Board shall review and approve the use of central food service facilities if their "utilization...will achieve economics in operating the school lunch...programs....

"The health and nutritional needs of each child enrolled in the schools shall be not less then the standards described by the federal and state regulations for school lunch and nutrition program approval." The guidelines in health and nutrition "shall be published annually...and made a part of each contract... between the State" and school authorities for reimbursable lunch programs. The guidelines include such items as "requirements for participation,...the use and accounting of funds,...requirements for menus, nutrition standards, health maintenance, educational activities,...[and] special responsiblities of school authorities."

The purpose of the federal and state legislation is to promote the health of school children through non-profit lunch programs. The state board is authorized to regulate "the conduct of the program in Connecticut and...prescribe health and nutritional standards for participating health and nutritional standards for participating programs...in order to provide school lunch and breakfast programs consistent with the nutritional needs of each child."

School authorities that participate in the program must agree to the following:

(1) "Operate a non-profit lunch or breakfast program and use program income only for program purposes...;

"(2) Limit its operating balance to a level consistent with each program's needs...;

"(3) Serve lunches or breakfasts which meet the minimum requirements prescribed" in the regulation;

(4) "Restrict the sale of extra food items from 30 minutes before...to 30 minutes after the designated lunch or breakfast period to those items...making a significant contribution to the pupil's daily nutritional needs...;"

(5) Fix limit prices for meals;

(6) "Supply lunches or breakfasts without cost, or at reduced price, to all children who are determined by the school food authority to be unable to pay the full price..., and make no...discrimination against any child because of...inability to pay the full price of" meals.

(7) "Maintain in the...preparation and service of food, proper sanitation and health standards in conformance with all applicable...laws and regulations;"

(8) Use food donated by U.S.D.A.;

(9) "Maintain necessary facilities for storing, preparing and serving food;"

(10) Keep full records of school food program operations;

(11) Make records available to the department for audit and review upon request.

A school may "employ a food service management company" to operate its food service program.

State funds to match federal funds for nutrition programs shall be made available to school authorities.

The minimum requirements for school lunches and breakfasts are set forth, and "reimbursement shall be made only" for lunches and breakfasts that meet these requirements.

Reimbursement is made on the basis of the number of meals served to children in each category (paid, reduced price, free). "Reimbursement payments may be made only to school food authorities operating under an agreement with the State." Reimbursement claims are submitted monthly. Estimated funds needed for a month may be advanced by the State. If the department believes that a reimbursement claim "submitted by a school food authority is not properly payable...., it shall not pay the claim...and shall advise the school food authority of the reasons for nonpayment or disallowance."

The Department of Food and Nutrition Service and Office of the Inspector General should be given opportunity "to conduct administrative analysis...and audits of all operations of the school food authority under each program."

Failure to comply with regulations in the agreement with the state may result in disqualification of the school authority from future participation. Each school food authority shall promptly investigate complaints received or irregulatities...reported by the department.

The school food authority of a school that does not participate in the national lunch program but wishes to receive donated commodities "shall enter into agreement with the state.... The agreement with commodity only schools shall require such schools to serve well-balanced nutritous lunches, prices as a unit, that contain, as a minimum, food components from the four basic food groups."

The school food authority must agree not to "discriminate...against any person or group...on the grounds of race, color, religion or national origin" and must also "provide the commission on human rights ...with information...concerning the employment practices... of the operating agency" as requested.

"Federal funds...for the Nonfood Assistance Program shall be used to reimburse school food authorities of schools drawing attendance from areas in which poor economic conditions exist, that have no...or grossly inadequate equipment, in connection with the cost...of equipment to establish...and expand school food service programs." The school food authority may apply "for any school...to participate in the nonfood assistance program...[and] shall as a minimum agree to:

"(A) Participate in the school breakfast and or national school lunch program.

"(B) If it participates only in the school breakfast program, work toward participating in the national school lunch program.

"(C) Maintain full and accurate records" for funds used for equipment.

(D) "Use such equipment principally for the national school lunch or school breakfast program."

C. School Food Service

Statutes

§380.1272; 380.1273

A school board may use general funds to provide personnel, equipment, supplies, and food to furnish lunches for enrolled pupils and may accept produce and financial reimbursement from the state. The board shall charge for lunches, though pupils designated by the board may be exempted. The board may charge prices sufficient to reimburse the district for all lunch program costs. The board may provide the lunch program by contract for not more than three years or may engage directly in the business.

A board may also enter into contracts to operate a low cost meal program for persons 60 years or older and their spouses. Receipts and expenditures shall be maintained separate from school funds to insure the district's recovery of total program cost through charges to participants and government grants.

§380.1274

A board of a school district or a local act school district may acquire equipment necessary for the operation of the school program and pay for it from operating funds. Heating and cooking equipment may be purchased on title retaining contracts, or other form of agreement creating a security interest and pledging in payment moneys in the general fund. Contracts may extend for not more than 10 years.

§388.362

The local school board shall establish and operate a school lunch, breakfast, and supplemental milk program.

§388.363

The state board shall promulgate rules to implement and administer school food programs. The rules shall: establish nutrition requirements which shall, at a minimum, meet standards prescribed by the U.S.D.A.; establish standards of income eligibility for free and reduced price food programs, not lower than maximum household income limits prescribed by the U.S.D.A; prescribe methods for application for free and reduced price food programs which shall ensure confidentiality and privacy; prescribe methods for parent and pupil participation in planning and evaluation of food programs including methods of accommodating pupil food preferences; and prescribe a uniform reporting system for collecting and analyzing data relative to the administration of this section.

The department shall make an annual report to the legislature relative to the administration of food programs.

The department shall pay a school district for each free lunch and for each reduced price lunch served by a school which participates in the federal school lunch program.

The department shall determine the actual and necessary initial equipment and capital outlay costs incurred by a district in complying with this act and shall recommend full reimbursement of all costs not otherwise reimbursed.

§388.364

A school board shall establish a school lunch program and a school breakfast program under which lunches and breakfasts shall be made available to all enrolled pupils. The board may charge a fee for each meal, except that the board shall provide free and reduced price meals to eligible pupils. The fee charged shall not exceed the actual average daily cost of the meal less the amount of food and financial assistance received by the board for each meal. To be eligible to offer a breakfast program, a school must have 20% or more of its pupils potentially eligible for free or reduced price lunches.

A school board shall establish a supplemental milk program under which milk shall be made available to pupils enrolled in schools which do not participate in lunch or breakfast programs. The board may charge a fee for the milk, except of pupils eligible for free milk. The fee shall not exceed the cost of the milk and accessories less the amount of financial assistance received by the board.

The board shall ensure that a pupil eligible for free food service shall not be discriminated against. There shall be no overt identification of an eligible pupil.

A board shall be excused from full compliance if the state board finds a financial emergency rendering the district unable to comply. A local board may apply to the state board for approval to provide food programs not in full compliance.

G. WELFARE

4b. Regulations and Guidelines Determining Eligibility for Free and Reduced Price Lunches and Breakfasts. (9/73)

Each school district desiring to participate in the National School Lunch or School Breakfast Programs or to receive commodities shall submit for approval to the Department of Education a free and reduced price policy statement. Such policy statement, as a minimum, shall contain: the officials designated by the school district to make eligibility determinations on its behalf for free and reduced-price meals; the complete family size, income, and other criteria which comprise the eligibility standards for free and reduced-price meals, respectively; the specific procedures the school district will use in accepting applications from families for free and reduced-price meals and any alternative methods it intends to use in making eligibility determinations in accordance with these guidelines; and description of the methods to be used to collect payments from those children paying the full price of the meal, or a reduced-price which will protect the anonymity of the children receiving a free or reduced-price meal.

ELIGIBILITY

The policy statement submitted by each school district shall be accompanied by a copy of the application form to be used by the district and of the proposed letter or notice to parents.

No policy statement may be altered without advance approval from the Department of Education.

All eligible children from the same family must receive the same benefits.

The notice/letter to families must include the income scales.

An application form must accompany the letter which is sent to the parents.

C. School Food Service

Statutes
§59-63-710 -- 59-63-770

It shall be the policy of the state to "receive and distribute funds and supplies as are available for the school lunch program" and to "supervise and generally direct the program in the local schools." To "continue and expand a lunch program" a school lunch division shall be created in the department of education. Each county shall employ a school lunch supervisor to supervise and promote school lunches, cooperate with government agencies and see that both food and funds are properly distributed. In larger counties, two supervisors may be employed in which case the county shall pay one-half the salary and expenses of the additional supervisor.

C. School Food Service

Statutes

§13-35-1

Statutes

§75-637--638; 75-658; 659

Bus drivers shall stop fifteen to fifty feet from railroad crossings unless a police officer or traffic signal directs the driver to proceed or within a business or resident district.

Transportation vehicles shall: have "SCHOOL BUS" printed on them; be painted an official color, designated by the State Board; and operate flasher lights when loading or discharging students.

It is unlawful for buses to be operated without identification and safety devices" properly displayed and in proper working order." Other vehicles shall stop in both directions while a bus receives or discharges passengers, except on a multiple lane highway. Bus drivers shall stop in the right hand traffic lane or shoulder where students must cross a highway.

Persons violating these provisions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, fined $35.00 to $500.00 or imprisoned up to 90 days.

§80-233

The county school supervisor shall administer the allocation of funds for transportation.

§80-1801

District boards of directors shall purchase vehicles to transport students to and from schools and hire drivers for such vehicles. The state board of education shall prescribe specifications for said vehicles.

§80-1806--1808

"School buses purchased with loans from the Revolving Loan Fund must meet the prescribed minimum standards and regulations for school buses and must be owned and operated by the district purchasing them."

§80-1810

"No person physically defective or of unsound mind, known to be a habitual drunkard, or of immoral habits, or who has been convicted within the past five years of operating a motor vehicle in a reckless manner or while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs, or who has a general reputation of being a fast and reckless operator of motor vehicles without regard to the rights of others, who is less than seventeen years of age, shall be . . . employed . . . as (a) chauffeur or operator of any school bus, either privately or publically owned."

BUS DRIVER

Seventeen year old drivers must have at least two years experience as a licensed driver, "attend such school bus driver training course as the State Board of Education may require," pass a physical, pass a test on traffic laws and a road test supervised by the State Highway Patrol.

§80-1811

A driver or operator shall be liable "for the death or injury to any school child resulting from a failure of such driver or operator to use reasonable care while transporting pupils."

LIABILITY

§80-1821 -- 1825

All bus drivers are "required to . . . pass a series of tests as prescribed by the Arkansas State Police and the State Department of Education to determine physical fitness and driving ability."

"Such tests shall include an eye test, a written or oral test on rules and regulations of driving, a road test given under the supervision of the Arkansas State Police."

Upon successful completion of above tests, a two year certificate shall be awarded. Such a certificate is required in addition to an operator's or chauffeur's license for employment.

However, a substitute driver may be hired on a temporary basis without a certificate. "Extra-curricular trips shall be made by certified operators only."

Persons violating the above shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Full-time state employees will not be compensated for "additional amounts over and above transportation and expenses." They are not entitled to a supplementary salary for service to the handicapped.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§1270

The county superintendent may use schoolbuses to transport pupils attending schools operated by him/her, including adults attending special classes for adults designed to serve the educational need of handicapped adults. Transportation is also to be provided for teachers, employees and pupils for athletic contests or other school activities.

§35350

"No governing board of a school district shall require any student or pupil to be transported for any purpose or for any reason without the written permission of the parent or guardian.

This section shall not apply to the transportation of a student or pupil in an emergency arising from illness or injury to the student or pupil."

§39800 -- 39860

In the area of transportation the governing board of any school district may:

(a) provide for the transportation of pupils to and from school whenever such transportation is advisable and good reason exists therefor. The governing board may purchase and rent or provide for the upkeep, care, and operation of vehicles, or may contract and pay for the transportation of pupils to and from school by common carrier or municipally owned transit system or with responsible private parties.

(b) contract with the county superintendent of schools to provide necessary transportation services.

(c) contract for the transportation of matriculated or enrolled adults, or provide transportation to adults in district owned equipment for educational purposes other than to and from school.

(d) allow pupils entitled to attend the school of the district, but in attendance at a school other than a public school, transportation upon the same terms and in the same manner and over the same routes of travel as is permitted pupils attending the district school.

(e) provide for the transportation to and from public school of pupils who have attained the age of three years and nine months and are enrolled in classes, whenever such transportation is advisable and good reason exists therefor.

(f) use and operate any bus owned or under lease to the district for the transportation of pupils to and from their places of employment during the summer in connection with any summer employment program for youth.

(g) enter into a contract under the terms of which the school district grants the use of any school bus which is owned or leased by the school district to any federal, state or local governmental agency for the purpose of providing transportation for employees of said agency to or from their places of employment, or both.

(h) Enter into a contract under the terms of which the school district grants the use of any school bus which is owned or leased by the school district to senior citizens' groups for the purpose of providing transportation to members of such groups.

(i) contract for the transportation of pupils attending schools within the district to and from any exposition or fair, school activities, or other activities which the governing board determines to be for the benefit of the pupils.

Each schoolbus shall be equipped with one or more fire extinguishers.

§ 14202-14203

A written agreement shall be entered into with each party contracting to transport pupils and with each school bus driver to comply with all provisions of the Vehicle Code and all other applicable laws.

§ 14205-14207

The governing board of a district may adopt and enforce additional regulations governing the transportation of pupils in addition to the provisions of the Education Code and the Vehicle Code.

§ 14220-14221

School bus drivers shall not be employed unless they hold "a valid driver's license of appropriate class" and a valid school bus driver's certificate issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Each applicant for such a certificate is required to be fingerprinted "to facilitate the administration of section 14222."

§ 14222

The Department of Motor Vehicles shall not issue a school bus driver's certificate to any applicant who:

1) Has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 12912 in Education Code

2) Has been convicted within three years of any violation involving felony hit-and-run driving, drunk driving or reckless driving

3) Is incapable of safely operating a motor vehicle because of excessive use of alcohol

4) Has been convicted within the past seven years of any drug offense or who habitually or excessively uses or is addicted to narcotics or dangerous drugs

5) Does not meet minimum medical standards of the Department of Motor Vehicles

6) Has attempted fraud or deception in his application.

§ 14223-14225

The Department of Motor Vehicles shall revoke the school bus driver's certificate if he/she :

1) Is convicted of any sex offense as defined in section 13206 of the Education Code

2) Is convicted of any felony or the attempted violation of any crime enumerated in section 13206 of the Education Code

3) Is convicted of any felony hit-and-run driving, drunk driving or reckless driving

4) Is incapable of safely operating a motor vehicle because of excessive use of alcohol, dangerous drugs or narcotics

5) Has committed an act involving moral turpitude

6) Has been convicted in any felony not indicated in this section.

A plea or verdict of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court in a trial without a jury or a forfeiture of bail is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this article, irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the withdrawal of the plea of guilty and entering of a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation or information.

The receipt of satisfactory evidence of a violation of the regulations may be deemed sufficient cause for the dismissal of any school bus driver.

§ 14226

Effective January 1, 1976, to assure compliance with provisions of Section 14220, the transportation supervisor, or delegated person of a school district, private school, parochial school, or contractor-employer responsible for the operation of any school bus shall maintain the following records concerning drivers' qualifications:

(1) Driver's license class, number, restrictions and expiration date.

(2) School bus driver's certificate number, restrictions and expiration date.

(3) Date last medical examination report submitted to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(4) Date of driver's most recent Certificate of Completion of an approved school bus driver training course.

The responsible person shall notify each driver under his supervision of the expiration dates mentioned in (1) through (4) above. He/she shall also make these records available for inspection to any authorized employee of the California Highway Patrol upon request.

§ 14240-14241

School buses in unsafe condition or not properly "equipped as required by this chapter of the Vehicle Code shall not be operated or used for transporting pupils (except to take the bus unladen to a repair shop) until it is examined and repaired or equipped as required by law." This work shall be certified by a competent mechanic or the Highway patrol to be safe and lawfully equipped.

§ 14242

"A school bus carrying any pupil shall not be operated or driven with any trailer or other vehicle attached" to it.

§ 14243

"Every bus operator shall, before transporting pupils, systematically inspect and maintain all buses subject to his control."

Weekly inspection and maintenance records shall be kept at the maintenance facilities or terminal where the bus is garaged.

Bus operators shall conduct preventive maintenance inspections every 2,000 miles or 30 working days, whichever occurs first or in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendations.

§ 14247-14253

The number of pupils transported out any one time on a school bus shall not exceed:

a) The number specified as seating capacity by Section 14290 and set forth on the inspection certificate as required by Section 14291.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§234.01-.03; 234.061; 234.071; 234.082

School boards shall provide transportation facilities for students farther than two miles from the nearest public school. Health and safety shall take priority in "routing buses, appointing drivers, and providing and operating equipment," Specifically, school boards shall adopt a plan for the inspection and maintenance of school buses. School districts shall carry liability insurance on school buses. School boards shall designate bus routes, based upon recommendations from the school superintendent. Each board shall survey transportation routes at least every 10 years, as prescribed by the State Board, for the purpose of improving the transportation system. Annually, school boards, aided by teachers, administrators, students and their parents, shall survey traffic safety hazards and report them to the Board of County Commissioners of the Department of Transportation.

LIABILITY

§234.041; 234.111

It is unlawful for school buses, or vehicles resembling them in color, to be used for purposes other than transporting pupils. Exceptions are buses "specially designed . . . for the handicapped", which may transport persons within the county "with the express consent of the school board."

Buses shall make full stops "before crossing any railroad track and before entering or crossing any arterial highway or dangerous thoroughfare."

§234.091; 234.101

Bus drivers shall be physically and mentally healthy, able to make "emergency repairs" on a bus, "possess such other qualifications as are prescribed by the state board" and "hold a valid chauffeur's licehse issued by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles."

6A-3.01

District lines shall not interfere where it is practicable to provide transportation service for adjoining school districts. It is the duty of school boards and superintendents to devise plans. Students shall not be transported at public expense across district lines unless an annual agreement exists between the respective school boards. School bus routes shall be such that all buses shall be used to the fullest capacity.

6A-3.14

The drivers must be between the ages of 18 and 65, with a valid chauffeur's license, demonstrated ability to safely operate the type of vehicle assigned, in good physical condition, and have a bus driver's license. In emergency situations, a driver who meets the age requirements for initial employment and who holds a chauffeur's license, but who does not hold a valid school bus driver's license, may be temporarily employed for a period of time not to exceed ten consecutive working days.

6A-3.16

Duties of the director for pupil transportation include: to formulate and enforce laws and regulations; to propose laws that will assure safe, adequate, and economical transportation in each district, to see to it that student transportation standards are adhered to and take what steps are necessary to carry on an efficient, safe, and effective transportation system.

6A-3.17

Some of the powers and responsibilities of the school boards are: to make sure that all the rules and regulations concerning transportation are adhered to; to adopt, after considering recommendations of the superintendent, statements of policy in harmony with law and with regulations of the state board necessary for maintaining the requirements of adequate transportation; to employ proper personnel as bus drivers; to govern the safety, discipline, comfort of school children using the bus; and to look after any and all problems concerning the insurance of buses, routes and schedules, maintenance expenses and other matters.

6A-3.18

The superintendent has the duty and responsibility to make recommendations and enforce already existing laws, to make sure that the transportation service is operated in accordance with state law and regulations, to recommend personnel such as bus drivers, assistants, and physicians, to arrange for inservice training and improvement of drivers, and to make other recommendations concerning discipline, safety and comfort of student passengers, routes and schedules, maintenance and public relationships.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§33-1501 -- 33-1503

"The board of trustees of each district . . . shall, where practicable, provide transportation for the public and private school pupils (of) within the district." The primary consideration of the board in this regard "are the safety and adequate protection of the health of the pupils." Transportation need not be provided for pupils living less than one and one-half miles from school. In order to provide transportation, local boards are authorized to "purchase or lease, and maintain school buses . . . enter into contracts . . . or make payments to parents or guardians . . . when transportation is not furnished by the district." Local boards may establish and change bus routes and "non-transportation zones" or designated areas which cannot be served by bus routes "by reason of sparsity of pupils, remoteness, or condition of roads." If a student lives more than one and one-half miles from any bus stop and "is regularly transported by private vehicle," the board may pay the parent or guardian a certain amount monthly. If a student lives in a non-transportation zone and no transportation is available, the board may pay "such amount of the cost...for the board and lodging of the pupil as... authorized by the state board of education."

§33-1507

Local boards "owning and operating vehicles for the transportation of pupils" shall purchase insurance "indemnifying the insured against claims for any injury to or death of a pupil arising out of the operation of the school transportation system." LIABILITY

§33-1508

School buses "shall...be operated in conformity with law and with rules and regulations at the department of law enforcement." They may be operated only by qualified chauffeurs. A bus may not "be operated . . . in excess of its maximum occupancy as . . . prescribed by the state board of education." If a vehicle "is used for transporting other than school pupils, or for transporting pupils on other than an approved special trip . . . such vehicle shall not be deemed a school bus or other passenger equipment."

§33-1509

Chauffeurs are employed on written contract with the board of trustees. A chauffeur must be at least 18 years old, "of good moral character and not addicted to the use of intoxicants or narcotics," file a health certificate with the board annually, and "possess a valid Idaho chauffeur's license, and a school bus driver's permit issued by the board of trustees." Chauffeurs "shall maintain such route books and other records as . . . required . . .," report any pupil "who endangers the operation of or damages a vehicle or who uses obscene language." A chauffeur must "report any condition on . . . his [her] route which constitutes a hazard to the safety of pupils being transported."

§33-1510

"Contracts entered into by boards of trustees for the transportation of pupils shall be in writing" and shall not cover a period of more than five years.

§33-1511

The state board shall "designate a member of its staff as supervisor of school transportation." It shall "adopt . . . minimum standards for the construction of school buses . . . and approve the form to be used for the inspection of school buses."

§33-1512

Boards of trustees are "authorized to lease school buses . . . to nonprofit organizations for . . . transporting elderly and/or handicapped persons to and from the site of activities or programs . . . when commercial bus transportation is not reasonably available."

Policy Manual
Ch. 700, §701

The board of trustees of each district, including specially chartered school districts, shall, where practicable, provide transportation for the public and private school pupils within the district.

No approval will be granted by the State Board to purchase school buses more than five years old.

Maximum payments which local districts may make in lieu of transportation shall be left to individual discretion.

Elementary pupils must live more than two miles from school to be entitled to transportation and high school pupils must live more than three miles. If "transportation by school bus is impracticable" or "not available," the board may require the parent to transport the child and the parent would then be reimbursed for such transportation. The state superintendent of public instruction may "review all transportation arrangements" to see that they meet standard requirements.

§285.8 -- .10

The state department of public instruction shall supervise the school transportation system, establish safety standards, prescribe regulations and standards for school buses, and transportation personnel.

The "area education agency boards" shall enforce the state department's rules and regulations, review the transportation arrangements in their districts, and provide for transportation in any district that has failed to make such arrangements.

The local school boards shall provide transportation to all resident pupils, establish and maintain bus routes, purchase buses, employ drivers, and purchase insurance.

§285.12

In the event of a dispute regarding transportation between a school patron and the local board, the patron may appeal to the area education agency. The agency's decision may be appealed "to the superintendent of public instruction," whose decision is subject to judicial review.

§670-22.1

Bus routes within a county must be "as efficient and economical as possible..." A route shall provide a load of at least 75 percent capacity of the bus; the riding time shall not exceed 75 minutes for high school students and 60 minutes for elementary school students. Only students who live more than two miles from the school are eligible for transportation at public expense unless the bus is fully loaded or a physical handicap makes bus transportation impracticable.

An inter-county bus route proposed by a school superintendent shall be determined jointly by the counties involved. If two county boards do not agree, the superintendent proposing the bus route can ask the state department of education to decide the issue;however, every effort should be made to settle the issue locally.

All private individuals wishing to transport public school pupils to and from school in privately owned vehicles must be under contract with the board of education. The contract must provide a uniform charge for all pupils transported.

School buses may be used to transport pupils for extra-curricular activities if the activity is sponsored by a school and a teacher is in charge of the program. Such use of school buses shall not, however, be paid for with school district funds.

A school bus shall be driven by a person of at least sixteen years of age who holds a valid chauffer's license and a school bus driver's permit. He/she should be emotionally stable, of good general character and physically fit as evidenced by a physician's statement

School buses may also be used to transport senior citizens, handicapped persons and children provided the driver is properly approved and a chaperone accompanies each bus to assist the passengers.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§8-238

No person under the age of eighteen shall drive a school bus unless the person has one year of driving experience and has given the director of vehicles a certificate signed by three people stating that the driver is well known; and certifying the driver's good character and habits.

A person over sixteen years of age may drive a school bus if the person has passed an exam and a majority of board members or a majority of members of a governing authority of a nonpublic school have made a written application for the driver's license.

The board of education may provide transportation to and from school during regular school hours and to and from school in connection with vocational education, field trips, and extracurricular activities.

The board shall provide transportation to any student whose residence is more than two and one-half miles from school and the school is inside the corporate limits of a city; to any student whose residence is more than two and one-half miles from the school and outside the corporate limits of a city and the school is inside the corporate limits: or to any student whose residence is more than two and one-half miles from school and inside the corporate limits of a city and the school is inside the corporate limits of another city.

If it is impracticable to reach a student's residence by the prescribed transportation route, the board may contract for other transportation for the student.

Nonpublic school students shall be allowed to use public school buses along their regular route for public school students. A board may contract with another board to provide transportation for students.

School buses shall be in compliance with all state laws and regulations.

No board shall transport a nonresident student unless the student's board consents or the student boards the bus on or within the boundaries of the district.

§72-8303

The board may prescribe transportation routes and shall schedules routes so that each student entitled to transportation receives it.

Statutes

§156.152;153

"The superintendent of public instruction . . . is . . . authorized to secure price contract agreements for the purchase of school buses by all district boards of education.

All school buses for which bids are made . . . shall meet the standards and specifications of the state board of education."

§156.154

"The superintendent of public instruction shall make available to all district boards of education full information respecting price control agreements," and the districts may purchase buses under such agreements. In addition, the district school boards may take their own bids in school buses, provided however, that such buses meet the specifications of the state board of education and their purchase is approved by the superintendent of public instruction. Such approval shall not be given unless the purchase price is lower than that set forth in the established price contract agreements for similar equipment.

§157.370

Transportation costs shall be apportioned according to a system based on the average cost per pupil per day of transporting pupils in districts having a similar density of transported pupils per square mile. Essential components of this system include:

1) Inclusion of cost of depreciation of vehicles;

2) Consideration of aggregate and average daily attendance of transported pupils;

3) Consideration of the total number of miles involved in transporting pupils;

4) Cost of transporting pupils to vocational-technical schools and centers;

5) Cost of transporting handicapped students.

§158.110

1) "[Local] boards of education may provide transportation . . . for any pupil of any grade to the nearest school [of appropriate grade level] to said pupil's residence within the district who does not live within a reasonable walking distance . . .

2) When space is not available at the nearest school, boards of education may provide transportation . . . to the nearest school of appropriate grade level where space is available.

3) Public elementary and secondary schools shall not change their present grade level structure without written permission from the state board of education.

4) The [Local] boards of education shall adopt such rules and regulations as will insure the comfort, health, and safety of the children who are transported, consistent with the rules and regulations of the state board of education. . . ."

§158.115

"Each county may furnish transportation . . .to supplement the present school bus transportation system for the aid and benefit of all pupils . . . who do not reside within reasonable walking distance of the school they attend and where there are no sidewalks along the highway they are compelled to travel . . . ."

§160.305;306

1) "The department of human resources may . . . contract with the local board[s] of education . . . for the use of school buses to transport [eligible] persons . . . at times when the buses are not needed to transport students . . . .

2) Before such a contract is entered into . . . a plan for the use of [the] school buses . . ." shall be submitted to the local board of education for its approval or disapproval. Such plan "shall include routes, schedules, cost and any other matters deemed necessary by both parties.

3) The cost of transporting [eligible] persons . . . shall be borne by the department for human resources.

4) The department of transportation shall establish pilot project in the local school districts for the purpose of [these] transportation services . . . ."

§160.310

"Each board of education may set aside funds to provide for liability and indemnity insurance against the negligence of the . . . operators of school buses, [or] other motor vehicles . . . owned or operated by the board. If the transportation of pupils is let out under contract, the contract shall require the contractor to carry . . . insurance against negligence in such amount as the board designates. In either case the . . . bond or . . . policy shall be issued by some surety or insurance company authorized to transact business in the state, and shall bond the company to pay final judgment not to exceed the limits of the policy rendered against the insured for loss or damage to property of any school child or death or injury of any school child or other person."

§180.320

"Children going to and returning from school and school buses and other vehicles used exclusively in the transportation of school children to and from school" are exempted from paying any tolls on any bridge or ferry owned or operated by the state.

§189.540

1) "The State Board of Education . . . shall adopt and enforce regulations to govern the design and operation of all school buses used for the transportation of school children when buses are owned and operated by any school district or privately owned and operated under contract with any school district." Such regulation shall be incorporated into any contract for the transportation of students that a school district signs. Any school official or bus driver in violation of these regualtions is subject to dismissal.

§280.320

"The school board of the district which is furnished school service for the children shall pay the proper toll charges over privately-owned toll bridges or toll-ferries for children going to or returning from school, and for school buses and other vehicles used exclusively in the transportation of school children to and from school."

REGULATIONS

702 KAR 5:010

"The Division of Pupil Transportation shall be responsible for the development of basic school bus driver training programs that can be used by division personnel and local district personnel for pre-employment and in-service training." It also makes safety inspections of school busses, which, if found unsafe, can be prohibited by the division from further use.

702 KAR 5:030

"The superintendent shall be responsible for the general supervision of the district's pupil transportation program." He/she shall require safety inspections of any school bus at least once each month. He/she is also responsible for preparing school bus maps and inventories, and for providing the necessary or required school bus driver training before any driver transports pupils to and from school.

"The [district] board shall be responsible for the safe operation of the district's pupil transportation system ... [It] shall be responsible for the development of a plan whereby all pupils that ride the school buses will receive instruction in school bus pupil safety each school year...."

702 KAR 5:050

"The principal or ... persons designated by the board of education shall be responsible for the discipline of the pupils ... [riding] school buses to and from school and shall assist the ... bus driver with discipline problems ...."

If a pupil creates safety or discipline problems on a school bus, he/she shall be forbidden by "the principal or ... designated persons" to "ride the school bus until written permission ... to ... ride [again] has been given to the ... bus driver ...."

A list of pupils riding a particular bus shall be kept "in a secure place on the school bus to use for pupil identification purposes. . . ."

"No person shall drive a school bus who does not possess both of these natural body parts: feet, legs, hands, arms, eyes, and ears. The driver shall have normal use of the above named body parts. Eyes may be corrected to normal by the use of eyeglasses. The driver shall not have any physical or mental handicap that would affect the driver's ability to operate the school bus in a safe manner...

If a pupil's conduct on the bus is such that it endangers the lives and morals of the other people on the bus and makes it unsafe for the bus to continue on its route, and when requested by the driver to desist from such conduct and the pupil does not comply, it shall be the duty of the driver to order the pupil to leave the bus, and if this order is refused to eject the pupil from the bus or send for assistance whichever the circumstances dictate. Ejecting a pupil from the bus shall be done only in the most extreme circumstances. When ejection from the bus is required, the driver shall notify the principal of the school where the pupil attends, the district superintendent or some other school authority of the action taken as soon as it is possible to do so."

The school bus driver must be "between eighteen and sixty-five years of age" and must hold a valid Kentucky driver's license.

Pupils riding the buses to and from school must be aware of their responsibilities. They must remain seated until the bus has come to a complete stop before getting off the bus.

They "shall not extend their arms, legs, or heads out of the bus windows ... [and] ... shall not change from one seat to another while the bus is in motion ...."

Statutes

§17:158

Parish school boards may provide transportation for children attending any school . . . approved by the State Board of Education and living more than one mile from [the] school . . ." They may employ, for that purpose, school bus operators.

In addition, parish school boards "may provide gravel or contribute funds to the local governing authority for the graveling of school bus turnarounds."

§17:160

Persons under 18 or over 65 years of age "shall [not] drive a school bus . . . en route to or from school or a school function," though a currently employed driver reaching age 65 may, with the annual approval of the board employing him/her, continue to drive school buses through age 68.

A person shall be fined between twenty-five (25) dollars and five hundred dollars (500) and/or imprisoned for more than six (6) months, if he/she employs, hires, or allows "any person under 18 or over 65 years of age to drive a school bus carrying children to or from school or a school function."

§17:492

School bus operators "shall serve a probationary term of three years" before becoming regular and permanent operators in the employ of the school board of the parish. To acquire tenure, school bus operators must "personally operate and drive the school bus" they are employed to operate.

"During the probationary [period] the parish school board may dismiss or discharge any school bus operator upon the written recommendation of the parish superintendent of schools accompanied by valid reasons . . . ."

§17:493

"A permanent school bus operator shall not be removed from his[her] position except upon written and signed charges of willful neglect of duty, or incompetence, or immorality , or drunkenness while on duty, or physical disability to perform his[her] duty, or failure to keep. . . his[her] transfer equipment in a safe, comfortable and practical operating condition or of being a member of or contributing to any group, organization, movement or corporation that is prohibited by law or injunction from operating in the state of Louisiana . . ."

If, during a hearing by the school board of the parish, it is determined to be in the best interests of the school system, the abolition, discontinuance or consolidation of school routes shall constitue "an additional ground for the removal from office of any permanent school bus operator." In such a case, the principle of seniority shall apply, if more than one school bus operator is involved. Affected employees shall have rights to a hearing, public or private at their option. School boards must furnish written grounds for dismissal at least 15 days prior to the date of dismissal. All parties to the hearing have the right to appeal to a "court of competent jurisdiction."

§17:494

School boards are prohibited from making rules and regulations which impair or nullify the Louisiana statutes relating to probation, tenure and dismissal of school bus operators.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§220; §358

The superintendent of each town or school administrative district shall procure the conveyance to the nearest suitable school of all pupils who reside at such a distance that the school directors judge it necessary. "Conveyance so provided shall conserve the comfort, safety and welfare of the pupils conveyed and shall be in charge of a responsible driver who shall have control over the conduct of the pupils while they are being conveyed."

A parent or guardian, who has children of compulsory school age, "is personally responsible for the cost of boarding these children within walking distance to an established public school or for providing suitable conveyance to a public highway." Failure to do so is "a violation of the truancy law and punished accordingly."

The commissioner shall approve or disapprove all school bus purchases, contracts, and leases.

The superintendent, with the approval of the directors, may provide conveyance for adults in adult education programs.

§804

School bus shelters for children, when approved by the school committee of the town where they would be located, may be maintained outside of the right-of-way. They may carry sponsor identification, but 60% of their area shall be for non-commercial use. They shall be constructed of steel or other durable material, with a raised concrete floor, and be kept suitably maintained.

§862

Where a place of temporary residence is more than 2 miles from the school, the school committee or directors shall report the need for transportation to the commissioner, and if so directed by the commissioner, it will procure transportation or board for the children. The commissioner is authorized to reimburse the administrative unit for the expenses.

The commissioner is authorized to make similar arrangements for the transportation of children who reside with parents on state-owned property, located in towns of less than 100 inhabitants, and shall reimburse the town for tuition payments if the town does not maintain a school within the town.

§2356-C3

The cooperative board shall provide transportation for all students attending regional technical, vocational and satellite programs that are in operation. "Transportation shall not be provided outside the designated region, center or satellite unless approved by the commissioner."

Regulations

13.15.02.01; 13.15.02.03; 13.15.02.04

The regulations specify which pupil transportation costs will be reimbursed by the state.

"Junior and senior high school pupils who live 1 1/2 miles or more from school, and all other pupils who live 1 mile or more from school are eligibile for transportation . . . . Each school shall have one nontransported area . . . .

If unsafe walking conditions exist, consideration may be given for temporary transportation . . . . Request will not be approved for transportation of pupils who live less than the prescribed distances from . . . school . . . unless the request is accompanied by a plan to provide safe walking conditions." In case of an emergency, the local superintendent may authorize transportation for up to 30 days . . . . Existing exceptional conditions shall be reviewed annually by the local school system to determine whether corrections can be made to relieve the current need for pupil transportation . . . . Pre-kindergarten or kindergarten pupils living 1/2 mile or more from school may be transported at noontime . . . .

Eligibility for transportation of handicapped children is determined by enrollment in public school, in any non-public education facility . . .[or] any State school or institution approved by the State Department of Education. . . . Daily transportation within 50-mile radius of a State Department of Education-approved school may be provided." Parents may be reimbursed a specified amount "when local school systems cannot provide other transportation . . . . Resident pupils attending . . . approved public or non-public schools shall have transportation available to and from their home areas on weekends." If necessary, "a bus aide may be employed to serve on each bus that transports handicapped (mental, physical, or emotional) pupils" at a specified hourly rate. STATUTES

"The state treasurer shall annually . . . [reimburse a town] . . . for expenses approved by the commissioner of education [and] incurred by . . . [that] town for the transportation of pupils once daily to and from any school within the town, or in another town, in excess of five dollars per annum per pupil . . . [N]o transportation reimbursement shall be made on account of any pupil who resides less than one and one half miles from the school which he[she] attends . . . . The department shall advise and assist the school committees of the several towns relative to the transportation of pupils at the lowest cost commensurate with their safety, including the planning of routes and the selection and use of equipment . . ."
The furnishing of transportation for students may be contracted out, provided that it is done according to the provisions of this statute regarding bidding, wage scale, etc.

71 §7B

A reimbursement shall be given to any city or town where a public transportation system is used for the transportation of pupils.

71 §16 C

The commonwealth shall reimburse a regional school district to the full extent of the amounts expended for transportation, except for the cost of any transportation provided to students living less than one and one-half miles from the school they attend.

71 §68

"Every town shall provide and maintain a sufficient number of schoolhouses, properly furnished and conveniently situated for the accommodation of all children . . . .
If the distance between a child's residence and the school he/she is to attend exceeds two miles and the nearest school bus stop is more than one mile from such residence and the school committee declines to furnish transportation, the department, upon appeal of the parent or guardian may require the town to furnish" transportation except if on a "private way."

If the distance between the school and the child's residence exceeds three miles and there is an appropriate school in an adjoining town which is closer, the parents or guardian may appeal to the department to require the town of residence to pay for tuition and transportation to the nearer school.

"The school committee, unless the town otherwise directs, shall have general charge and superintendence of the school houses [and] shall keep them in good order."
71 §71 A

A school committee may suggest the locations for "highway safety stations" for children awaiting a school bus. The station must be constructed of "durable material with a floor of concrete raised above ground level," and kept clean, well painted, free of snow, and suitably maintained at all times.
76 §8

The transportation to and from a public school of any public welfare child shall be paid by either the commonwealth or Boston in an amount equal to the average amount per week per average child traveling the same route.
76 §14

"The department of education may provide transportation to and from school, or board in place thereof, for such children of school age as live upon islands within the commonwealth that are without schools, in cases where the local authorities are not required by law to provide such transportation."
90 §8 A

School bus drivers must be licensed and meet certain driving tests and personal qualifications, including "good moral character."

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§380.86

When authorized by a majority vote of the district's school electors, "the board may provide for transportation" of district pupils and shall designate the vehicles' routes.

§380.141; 380.142

Upon majority vote of school electors at an annual or special election, the board may provide pupil transportation within the district and shall designate the vehicles' routes. If pupil transportation is currently authorized, it shall continue until the authorization is rescinded by a majority vote of school electors at an annual or special election.

§380.1321

A school board providing transportation for resident pupils, except handicapped pupils transported under §380.1701, shall provide transportation without charge for each resident pupil attending public or state approved non-public school in the district for whom the district is eligible to receive state aid for transportation.

A district shall not be required to transport a pupil living within 1 1/2 miles to the public or state approved non-public school in which the pupil is enrolled or a pupil attending a non-public school who lives in an area less than one and one-half miles from a public school in which public school pupils are not transported, except that the district shall be required to transport the pupil from the pupil school within the area to the nonpublic school the pupil attends.

A district shall not be required to transport pupils to state approved nonpublic schools outside the district unless the district transports some of its non-handicapped pupils to public schools outside the district. In this case, the district shall transport the nonpublic school pupils at least to the distance of the public schools outside the district.

§380.1322

Pupils shall be transported along regular routes as determined by the board to public and state approved nonpublic schools. The state board shall promulgate rules regarding transportation. Transportation for nonpublic school pupils shall not be required on days when public school pupils are not transported. Transportation of elementary pupils to a nonpublic school shall not be permitted when transportation is furnished for secondary public pupils only, nor vice-versa.

Vehicles used for the transportation of pupils shall be adequate and of ample capacity.

§380.1324

A school board may contract with another board or with private persons to furnish transportation for nonresident pupils attending schools within the district. The price paid shall not be less than the actual cost.

§380.1331; 380.1332

A school board may provide transportation for resident and non-resident pupils to educational programs at county or community fairs, to health clinics, and to other outside educational functions.

The board may collect a fee for transporting pupils to or from non-mandatory and noncredit events. A board shall not purchase additional school buses solely for such purposes.

Insurance to indemnify the district against liability for damages arising out of the use of school buses shall be obtained before fees or fares are charged.

§380.1333

A school board may enter into an agreement with a local unit of government by which a school bus not otherwise in use for school purposes may be used by an organization for transporting senior citizens or retired persons to or from an activity. Costs may be paid by the group or waived by the board. A board shall not purchase additional buses solely for this purpose. The state board shall promulgate rules to implement this section.

§380.1334

A school board may provide for boarding a pupil, with the parents' or guardians' consent, if the cost of boarding is less than that of transportation or if transportation is otherwise unfeasible.

§380.1341; 380.1342

A board may purchase buses on title retaining contracts or by obligations pledging in payment general funds or state school aid, issued for not longer than the estimated usefulness of the buses and not exceeding six years.

A board may purchase, construct, or lease buildings for school bus storage and pay for them out of district funds provided for the purpose.

The state board shall promulgate rules for safety specifications for school buses.

A school bus shall meet specifications prescribed in §§285.1 to 257.923 of the M.C.L. The department of state police shall inspect each bus at least annually to determine if it meets specifications. A school bus shall carry at least one fire extinguisher. The board shall not permit a school bus to be operated which has not been inspected.

REGULATIONS

R 340.274

A school district shall report the cost of pupil transportation on forms provided by the superintendent of public instruction.

R 340.278

"A school district is allowed the amount of the approved tuition charge for each driver who participates in a school bus driver safety education program approved by the superintendent of public instruction."

R 340.281

The following regulation shall apply when a school district transports pupils only within the district with the exception of transporting mentally or physically handicapped or special education pupils outside the district.

A resident nonpublic school pupil may be transported to a nonpublic school outside the district. State aid shall cover the school bus travel within the district.

A board of education shall request from nonpublic school officials the information necessary for planning transportation of nonpublic school pupils.

The board of education shall establish bus routes, time schedules, and school bus policies for all pupils transported, and shall review them with nonpublic school officials prior to the opening of school.

The board may contract for transportation by private car if the cost of transporting children living in locations isolated from their schools is excessive.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§123.18

The board may provide free student transportation to and from schools in or outside the district.

The board may enter into the necessary contracts to provide student transportation. The board may purchase school buses.

"The board may provide for the instruction of any resident pupil in another district . . . when conditions make attendance in his[her]own district . . . impractical." Tuition shall be charged to the resident district. The board may provide for the admission of non-resident pupils to their schools and fix tuition rates for such pupils. The board may provide transportation to non-resident pupils attending school in its district. The board may provide transportation and tuition for residents of their district attending a high school in another state. The board may rent out their school buses as long as such rental does not interfere with the buses used for transporting students. "The board may provide for the protection of school children . . . being transported for all school purposes. . . against injury arising out of the operation thereof." The board may procure insurance for such purposes.

The board may pay insurance premiums for the protection of students in driver training programs and the school safety patrol.

The board is authorized to enter into contracts for the removal of snow from roads used for regular bus routes.

§123.39

The board may provide free transportation for pupils to and from school. Every driver shall possess all the qualifications required by the rules of the state board. The board shall arrange for pupils living more than two miles from the school to be either transported or provided with room and board whichever is more economical and convenient.

The board shall contract with a day time activity center to provide transportation for handicapped persons if: it is in the "best interests" of the handicapped person, it is not "unreasonably burdensome" to the district and, if a "less expensive, reasonable alternative means" does not exist. The center shall be reimbursed for the transportation costs.

If a child attends a school in another district, tuition shall be paid to the other school district and transportation may be provided.

Other transportation provisions regarding buses and insurance which apply to common school districts shall apply to independent school districts as well.

§123.76

All children transported to and from school by the state shall receive "equality of treatment" so that the "health, welfare and safety" of the children is protected.

§123.78

Equal transportation shall be provided for all children within any district which is eligible to receive state aid for transportation, when transportation is deemed necessary by the board.

Students attending a nonpublic school in another district shall be transported to the boundary by the district of residence if the distance to the nonpublic school is not greater than the distance traveled by pupils to a school within the district. The district may provide transportation if the nonpublic school offers grades or departments not maintained in the district schools, or if it is more "safe, economical or convenient" for the children to attend the nonpublic school. The nonpublic school shall pay the transportation cost outside the district boundaries.

§123.80

The state board shall provide a program of safety education for all students transported to school including regulations for handicapped students.

§124.223

State transportation aid is authorized for the transportation of pupils who live one mile or more from school, transportation for residents attending a vocational center, and for handicapped children.

§128.04

It is the board's duty to furnish school facilities to all school-age children by building schoolhouses or transporting the children to the nearest school. A county school board shall have the same powers as boards of independent districts.

REGULATIONS

EDU 183--184

Transportation aid will be paid for the transportation of each eligible resident pupil for one daily round trip to the classified school attended.

EDU 186

Contracts for transportation and/or board and lodging of its pupils shall be approved by the commissioner of education.

EDU 187--188

School districts which rent buses or vehicles shall submit a duplicate contract of the rental arrangements to the commissioner of education.

EDU 189--190

The school board shall maintain supporting records of transportation routes, time schedules, drivers and policies.

School districts shall provide free and equal transportation for all children.

EDU 200 -- 201

School districts wishing to transport nonresident pupils on district owned buses shall make a written application to the state board of education for permission to do so.

EDU 220 -- 222; 224 -- 225

School bus drivers shall be required to pass a written examination, a physical examination, have a good driving record and driver's license with a school bus endorsement.

EDU 242

Free transportation shall be provided to any handicapped children who require special transportation services. Handicapped children should not spend more time in transit than a non-handicapped child. Vehicles used to transport handicapped children shall be equipped with all necessary safety devices.

EDU 243

School districts shall implement a program of safety education for all students transported in school buses.

Statutes

§37-7-907

Children attending schools of any isolated school district are entitled to transportation the same as children attending schools of other school districts. Allocation of state building funds to an isolated school district "shall be within the discretion of the state educational finance commission."

§37-41-1

"The state board of education is . . . empowered and directed to promulgate rules and regulations" for governing all matters relating to setting standards, devising plans, formulating procedures for school buses, bus drivers, and routes. The state board is empowered to regulate conduct upon school buses. RULEMAKING

All regulations promulgated by the state board shall apply also to "drivers of privately owned buses transporting public school children. "

§37-41-3

"Pupils of legal school age . . . in actual attendance in the public schools who live a distance of one mile or more . . . from the school to which they are assigned shall be entitled to transportation," excluding pupils attending schools in certain municiapl school districts living within the corporate limits. However, this provision does not preclude school transportation for a child living less than one mile from his/her school if space permits and no deviation from the designated school route is required.

"The county boards of education or the boards of trustees of the municipal separate school districts with added territory . . . may provide transportation to . . . crippled and physically handicapped children . . . designated by the boards . . . when failure to do so would result in undue hardship even though the children are not otherwise entitled to transportation . . . ."

In certain counties, "school buses may be used to transport mentally handicapped preschool age children to a special [county] day care center . . .[but] no additional state funds shall be allocated or expended for this purpose."

"Where space is available students from agricultural high schools . . . shall be allowed transportation on established routes in county-owned buses. However, no additional funds shall be allocated or expended for such purposes . . . ."

§37-41-5

"The county board of education, with the concurrence of the board of supervisors, the board of trustees of municipal separate school districts with the concurrence of the municipality's governing authorities . . . may provide transportation for students . . . to the public schools (upon finding) that extraordinary circumstances" are prevalent . . . in regard to such matters as the public health and safety, school facilities, location of the school site, unusual economic growth and population expension, newly expanded municipal corporation limits, the general welfare, and any other emergency facts and conditions."

§ 37-41-7

The county boards of education shall "lay out all transportation routes and provide transportation for all schools . . . entitled to transportation . . . excepting all municipal separate school districts, [unless otherwise provided]."

§37-41-11

Certain municipal separate school districts may provide for school transportation of pupils.

§37-41-13

"All routes shall be laid out so as to place all pupils entitled to transportation within reasonable distance of same. [illegible] child entitled to transportation shall be required to walk a greater distance than one mile to reach the vehicle of transportation in the morning or to reach his[her] home in the afternoon."

§37-41-17

Each county board of education or board of trustees of a municipal separate school whose pupils are entitled to transportation "shall submit to the state board of education the proposed bus route plan ."

§37-41-23; 25

"The state board of education shall prescribe . . . preservation of all records and the making of all reports necessary for the efficient operation of the school transportation system of this state."

Making or making use of any false transportation record shall be a misdemeanor.

"The county boards of eduction and boards of trustees . . . may permit the use of publicly owned school buses . . ." for special events.

§37-41-121

"It shall be the duty of the superintendent of each school . . . to select . . . from the student body a safety council . . . ." The members of this council shall be instructed on their duties and assigned to school buses.

§37-65-13

Routes and facilities may be altered to accommodate transportation of pupils during school closure.

Routes and facilities may be changed to accommodate transportation of pupils during school closure.

REGULATIONS

Mississippi Pupil Transportation Handbook

The intent of this handbook is to: "give valuable information which if learned and applied will insure to a great extent the safety of the child and the protection of the bus."

The State Board of Education is authorized, empowered and directed to promulgate rules and regulations for (a) "Setting standards for school bus routes; (b) approving or disapproving plans for school routes; (c) setting standards for school buses; (d) setting standards for school bus drivers; (e) formulating procedure for selecting school bus drivers; (f) formulating courses of training for school bus drivers and mechanics, and assist in administering and financing such courses; (g) providing operation procedures for school buses to insure safety of pupils; (h) furnishing consultative supervision for the operation of county school bus garages . . .; (i) formulating specifications for use in purchasing school buses (etc.). . .; (j) providing a system of records and reports . . .; (k) the county boards of education or the trustees of municipal separate school districts . . . may require that all school buses . . . be equipped with adequate heaters and fire extinguishers; (l) conduct upon said buses; and (m) the method by which . . . any individual who is not a student scheduled to be a passenger upon that particular bus, a member of the public school administration or faculty, or a law enforcement official may obtain entry upon said buses."

RULEMAKING

Qualification standards for bus drivers include various physical and emotional criteria as listed within this handbook.

A system of preventative maintenance is to keep the bus in operating condition, and operation of said bus is to be carried out in accordance with guidelines found within this handbook, and includes such things as starting, stopping, turning and parking.

Bus driver performance standards are also included within this handbook, with a full description of regulatory signs.

The responsibilities of the administrators, teachers and parents in regard to pupil transportation are outlined within this handbook.

Pupil Transportation Guide for School Superintendents
TR-III

"All reportable accidents involving school buses shall be reported within 10 days after occurring. One copy of the accident report should be sent to the local Superintendent and one copy to the State Superintendents." A form is provided for this report.

Pupil Transportation Guide for School Superintendents
TR-V

Included in this guide are policies governing the use of vehicles other than school buses for the transportation of pupils. Information for the approval of such use must be submitted to the State Board of Education and include: 1. "Type of vehicle to be used; 2. Number of children to be transported; 3. Reasons why use of a vehicle other than a school bus is necessary to transport pupils; 4. Distance the vehicle will travel one way daily."

It is policy for the use of such vehicles that school buses not compete with them and that their use be approved by the county board of education according to certain predetermined objectives.

"It shall be the duty of passengers transported in school buses . . . to conduct themselves in an orderly manner.

Pupils while riding a school bus shall not: 1. smoke or use intoxicants; 2. fight or tussle; 3. strike or threaten a bus driver; 4. use profane language or make vulgar gestures; 5. carry deadly weapons; 6. make excessive noise; 7. throw objects; 8. commit any other act of improper conduct.

Instructions to pupils who ride school buses:

"Loading and Unloading: 1. Be at your assigned loading zone on time. 2. Exercise extreme caution in getting to and from your assigned bus stop. 3. Look in both directions before stepping from behind parked cars. 4. Stay well off the roadway until the bus comes to a complete stop and the bus driver indicates that it is safe to board. 5. Do not play on or near the road while waiting for the bus to arrive. 6. Look in both directions before crossing any roadway. 7. Never walk on the road when there is a side walk or pathway. 8. Always walk on the left side of the road facing on-coming traffic and step off the road when a motor vehicle approaches. 9. Wait until the bus comes to a complete stop before trying to load or unload. 10. Use the hand rail while getting on and off the bus. 11. If possible, wear white or light colored clothing or carry a flashlight when you walk on the roadway at night in order that the motoring public might be aware of your presence. 12. When you must cross the road to enter the bus, or after leaving the bus, always cross in front of the bus.

While in the bus: 1. Do not distract the driver's attention other than when necessary. 2. Talk to your friends in a normal tone and do not shout. Do not talk or make unnecessary noise when the bus is approaching and crossing a railroad or a highway intersection.
3. Keep head, hands and articles inside the bus. 4. Do not bring unauthorized articles on the bus. (i.e., pets, combustibles, large articles, weapons). 5. Do not smoke or use profane language. 6. Do not fight or scuffle. 7. Be courteous to and follow the instructions of your bus driver and safety patrol."

A safety patrol is required by law to be designated to every bus, and it is the duty of the school superintendent and the head of the school attendance center to make sure such a patrol exists.

Some suggested responsibilities for transportation supervisors are: 1. Plan bus routes. (Work with principals in obtaining information on location of pupils in community.) 2. Search for prospective bus drivers. 3. Work closely with principals and other school personnel to provide safe loading and unloading arrangements for pupils. 4. Maintain inventory records on transportation equipment. 5. Observe route conditions periodically for route hazards, driving habits of bus drivers, loading and unloading conditions, etc. 6. Hold meetings with bus drivers and discuss problems. 7. Investigate accidents -- see that reports are made on reportable accidents. 8. Plan maintenance and servicing schedules with mechanics. 9. Keep superintendent informed as to general transportation efficiency and economy. 10. Assist superintendent in formulating purchasing plans. 11. Outline plans for bus drivers' schools. 12. Inspect buses periodically (general appearance, condition, etc.) 13. Promote good public relations in the community. 14. Assemble latest information on new products for use in transportation program. 15. Make necessary reports on transportation. 16. Analyze transportation costs periodically.

This Guide provides guidelines for teaching pupils safety as well as pupil responsibilities.

Statutes

§162.755

Reasonable transportation for children attending day schools or programs operated by the board shall be provided by the state board of education. Children receiving special educational services in other state operated schools or other contracted programs may have transportation provided by the state board of education.

§167.231 -- .251

Except for metropolitan districts the Board of Education shall provide transportation to and from school for all students living more than three and one-half miles from school, and may provide it for students living more than one mile from school. Upon petition transportation may be provided at the expense of the district for students living one-half mile from school if at an election, two thirds of the voters vote in favor of providing transportation. Transportation for high school pupils whose tuition the district is required to pay, may be provided by either the school board of the district, but any cost in excess of the amount allowed for state aid, may be collected from the district of the pupil's residence. When transportation is provided pursuant to law, the school board shall make all rules and regulations for transportation and persons employed shall be bonded. Expenses of transportation shall be paid out of the incidental fund of the district.

§307.375

The owner of every bus used to transport children to or from school must submit the vehicle to inspection to ascertain its good working order. If upon inspection there are found conditions which violate the safety standards, there shall be 10 days in which to have them corrected, and if the defect constitutes immediate danger the bus shall not be used until corrections are made.

REGULATIONS
5 CSR 40-261.010
TRANSPORTATION

All transportation furnished by a school district shall be authorized. School bus routes must be approved by the State Board of Education. State aid shall be withheld from a school district if it operates an unapproved bus route or vehicle. All vehicles used to transport pupils shall carry liability and property damage insurance. School districts shall keep a record of the number of pupils transported daily and report this information to the State Board of Education.

BUS DRIVER QUALIFICATIONS

A bus driver must be at least 18 years old and a duly licensed chauffer. A bond of between one hundred and five hundred dollars shall be required of each driver. The driver shall be in good mental and physical health, free from communicable disease and have normal use of both arms, hands, legs, and feet. An annual physical exam is required. Drivers shall be neat and clean and abstain from using cigarettes, alcohol or narcotics in the bus.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§31-128

A school bus driver must be at least 18 years of age and hold a chauffeur's license, which cannot be issued "unless the applicant has had at least one year of driving experience."

§32-2193; 33-2197

School bus drivers must stop their vehicles before crossing railroad tracks. The driver of any vehicle which meets "from either direction any school bus" which has stopped to pick up or discharge school children "shall stop . . . before reaching such school bus . . . and . . . not proceed until such school bus resumes motion, or is signalled by the school bus driver to proceed."

§75-6608

The trustees of any district operating an elementary school with "average number belonging" less than 10 or school with ANB less than 25 shall annually apply to the county superintendent to have the school classified as an "isolated school." The application shall include: the names of students who will attend the school the following year; a description of conditions adversely affecting transportation, distance of the school from the nearest school having room for more students; and any other conditions which would create "an unusual hardship" for the pupils "if they were transported to another school;" and any other information required by the superintendent of public instruction.

The application shall be submitted to the board of county commissioners, who shall approve or disapprove it "on the basis of the criteria established by the superintendent of public instruction." The board may approve an application on the basis of any condition that would create a hardship for the pupils it transported to another school.

The superintendent of public instruction must also approve the application. He/she may consider information not in the application that he/she collects on his/her own.

§75-7001; 75-7002

"Transportation" means a district's moving a pupil by school bus between his/her home and school, or between his/her regular school and a vocational-technical secondary school.

"Individual transportation" is a substitute for the above and includes paying a parent or guardian to transport the pupil, reimbursing them for the pupil's room and board, or providing supervised home or correspondence study.

A student is eligible for transportation if he/she is: 5 to 21 years old; a resident of Montana; resides over 3 miles from school; legally resides with his/her parent or guardian within the district furnishing the transportation.

A school bus must comply with the board of public education standards. It may be owned and operated by the government or by a private company, under contract. It shall bear the words "school bus" on the front and rear of the bus. The markings shall be concealed when the bus isn't used for school purposes.

§75-7003

A school bus driver must be over 21, of "good moral character," hold a chauffeur's license, pass a physical, complete a standard first aid course, and comply with any other qualifications set by the board of education.

§75-7004

The board of public education, with the advice of the chief of the highway patrol and the superintendent of public instruction, "shall adopt and enforce standards and regulations for the design, construction, and operation of school buses in . . . Montana;"

(1) "prescribe minimum standards for the design and construction of school buses;"

(2) prescribe standards for lights and waiving devices on buses;

(3) establish any additional driver qualifications;

(4) prescribe criteria for establishing transportation service areas by the county transportation committee;

(5) prescribe additional criteria needed to determine a pupil's residence;

(6) prescribe any other needed policies for the operation of school buses;

(7) prescribe standards for measuring the child seating capacity of school buses.

"The board of public education shall prescribe any other policy necessary for . . . individual transportation programs."

§75-7005

"In order to have a uniform and equal provision of transportation by all districts in . . . Montana, the superintendent of public instruction shall:" prescribe rules, regulations and/or forms, for: (1) implementing transportation policies of the board of public education; (2) approval of school bus routing by the county transportation committee; (3) contracts for individual transportation, to be supplied to the county superintendent; (4) approval of individual transportation contracts; and for the consideration of controversies appealed to him/her. The superintendent shall also: approve, disapprove or adjust school bus routings and individual transportation contracts submitted by the county superintendent, and shall "disburse the state transportation reimbursement in accordance with" board of public education policies.

§75-7006

A district which "knowingly violates a transportation law or . . . policy . . . shall forfeit any reimbursement otherwise payable," until the district corrects the violation.

A bus operator under contract with a district shall not be paid if he/she knowingly fails to comply with transportation law or policies. The bus operation shall be suspended if the district trustees find that the "violation jeopardizes the safety of pupils."

§75-7008

"The trustees of any district may furnish transportation to an eligible transportee attending a school either in or outside the district. Such transportation must be available to all eligible transportees of the district. The county transportation committee, with the approval of the superintendent of public instruction, may direct the trustees to provide transportation. A district's obligation to furnish transportation may be satisfied by paying the child's parent or guardian to do so. An eligible transportee may have transportation arranged and paid for by his/her parent or guardian at their own discretion.

The district may provide transportation by school bus or by individually-provided transportation, which can include a residential school, correspondence study, or home study.

The trustees may require a child to make a trip over one hour long if the parent or guardian consents.

§75-7009; 75-7010

The trustees may provide transportation to pupils not otherwise eligible for transportation. The pupil may be charged his/her share of the costs of such transportation unless the transportation is provided for reasons of economy or convenience of the school system.

A child going to non-public school may ride on a school bus with the district's permission. The district shall charge the pupil for such transportation.

§75-7011

The trustees have the power to: (1) buy or rent a bus; (2) buy or rent a two-way radio for buses operating in hazardous road and weather conditions; (3) "provide for the operation, maintenance and insurance" of a bus or radio; (4) contract with a private party for up to 5 years to provide transportation.

Any private party shall comply with board of education regulations concerning the bus and driver and any other conditions laid down by the trustees.

There shall be bodily injury and liability insurance on every bus used for school transportation.

§75-7012; 75-7013

"Any school bus transportation by a private party or individual transportation . . . shall be under contract."

Contracts with private parties shall be arranged by taking public bids or by negotiating with the current contractor, provided the negotiated contract is not longer than the previous contract and doesn't exceed its cost by 5%.

Money shall not be paid for private transportation unless there is a contract and the required transportation was actually furnished.

§75-7014; 7015

"To coordinate the orderly provision of a uniform transportation program within a county . . .; each county shall have a county transportation committee.

Its membership shall be: the county superintendent, who will be chairman; the chairman or a member of the board of county commissioners; a trustee or district employee from each county high school district; another district trustee; and a representative from the district of any other county whose transportation services are affected by this county. The committee shall have at least 5 members; the county superintendent shall appoint members needed to fulfill this requirement.

The committee's duties shall be to:

"(1) establish the transportation service areas for each district operating a school bus transportation program; (2) act on school bus routings submitted by district trustees; (3) act on "applications, approved by the trustees, for increased reimbursements for individual transportation" of isolated pupils; (4) conduct hearings and act on appeals of trustees' decision concerning transportation controversies. The committee's decision may be appealed to the superintendent of public instruction.

The committee may transfer a district's territory to an adjacent district if the first district so requests through its trustees or 20% of its voters, and if the adjacent district consents.

The amount of state reimbursement shall be limited by law unless the transfer is approved by the committee and the superintendent of public instruction.

§75-7016 — 75-7017

If the residence of an eligible transportee is in controversy, it shall be decided under general state residence law. The residence of a pupil for tuition purposes shall be the same for transportation purposes if the district or county is responsible for paying tuition.

Controversies over mileage shall be determined using the procedures for measurement and participation required in this section.

§75-7018; 75-7019

These provisions establish the rate schedule for bus and individual transportation by which the maximum reimbursement to districts from state and county sources of transportation revenues is determined. "These rates shall not limit the amount a district may budget" for bus transportation the following year, but do "constitute the limitation of the budgeted amounts for individual transportation."

The trustees shall "provide a transportation fund budget" adequate for the district to conduct its transportation program. The budget shall include payments for:

"maintenance and operation of district-owned . . . buses," and buses operated by private parties; individual transportation; the "purchase, rental or insurance of school buses;" any other necessary expenses or the transportation program, such as a contingency amount to take care of pupils who move into the district after the budget is adopted.

An emergency transportation budget may be adopted.

The transportation fund budget shall be reported and adopted under regular budget procedures.

Copies of all contracts for bus and individual transportation shall be sent to the county superintendent, who shall then send them to the superintendent of public instruction.

The county superintendent shall compile the revenue available to finance each district's transportation budget.

§75-7022; 75-7023

State reimbursement of transportation expenses shall be done using the rates prescribed by law (§75-7018 and 75-7019). Claims for state reimbursement shall be reviewed by the county superintendent and then sent to the superintendent of public instruction for action. State reimbursements shall be made to the county treasurer and then apportioned by the county superintendent in accordance with instructions of the superintendent of public instruction.

County reimbursement shall be made by the county superintendent and shall be apportioned the same as state reimbursement, with certain exceptions.

REGULATIONS

§48-2.30(1)-S3000

Every district and every person under a transportation contract with a district shall be subject to the policies prescribed by the Board of Public Education and the rules and regulations prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. When a district knowingly violates a transportation law or Board policy, the district shall forfeit any reimbursement for bus travel during the period of violation.

§48-2.30(12)-S3010

In addition to the qualifications prescribed by statute, school bus drivers are required to have a minimum of five years driving experience.

§48-2.30(12)-S30770

The criteria used for establishing transportation areas must fit into the framework of school laws such as pupil transfers, payment of tuition, etc. County and district boundaries do not limit school bus areas when pupils live closer to a school in an adjoining district, geographical features or road conditions make attendance in the home district impractical, or the convenience and safety of pupils is at issue. In case of continued controversy, the opinion of the board of trustees where the pupil resides should have consideration. Costs should enter into the decision.

§48-2.46(1)-S4610

A school cannot be approved as an "isolated school" if another operating school with room to accommodate the applicant school's students exists within a 20 mile distance and if 50 percent or more of the students can be transported to the operating school in a period of one hour or less.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§79-487

A school board may purchase school buses to provide "transportation facilities for school children to and from school and . . . all school related activities." Any board providing transportation for public school pupils "shall also provide transportation without cost for children who attend nonprofit private schools . . . approved for continued legal operation . . . by the State Board of Education." Transportation of private school children shall conform to the "regular public school route" and be provided "only at times when . . . provided for public school children."

§79-488.06

"Any person operating a school bus" must each year have (1) "an examination . . . conducted by . . . the Department of Motor Vehicles" and (2) "an examination by a licensed physician" and furnish to the school board or private school authority and the Director of Motor Vehicles a report of the examination. If the Director of Motor Vehicles determines that the person is qualified and meets mental and physical standards, he or she is issued a "special school bus operator's permit."

No person operating a school bus shall "remain on duty . . . longer . . . than sixteen consecutive hours." Violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

§79-488.07; 489

The school board, with the advice of the Nebraska State Patrol, shall "determine the number of passengers that may be safely transported in each bus." At least twice during each school year pupils shall be provided with "instruction in safe riding practice and . . . emergency evacuation drills."

A school board employing a driver to transport pupils "shall purchase a liability insurance policy" to pay for damages for injury, death or destruction of property resulting from "any negligence or carelessness in transporting pupils."

§79-490-493

"When no other means of free transportation is provided to a student attending a public school, an allowance for transportation shall be made to the family of such student by the district in which" the family lives. Only one allowance shall be made per family. "No pupil shall be exempt from school attendance on account of distance from the public schoolhouse." Claims for transportation allowance payments are filed monthly. A "student whose family is entitled to pay for transportation . . . may attend another school . . . or . . . reside temporarily . . . with relative or friends within the applicable distance" from school. If the student's family would otherwise have been entitled to a transportation allowance, payment shall be made.

Any school officer or employee who transports, or reimburses transportation or living costs of "any nonresident high school pupils" who live nearer to "another school offering high school courses" is guilty of a misdemeanor. A board may furnish transportation "to students within a district in which a high school has been discontinued."

REGULATIONS

31-(2)

A school bus driver must hold a valid Nebraska driver's license, be at least 18 years old, but not yet 65, pass a physical examination, and pass the tests prescribed by the Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicles.

An applicant for a school bus driver permit shall be given a written examination and road proficiency test.

The applicant shall submit an approved physical examination report and an approved school transportation operator's examination report.

31-(3)

The school transportation vehicle operator must have normal hearing, and good vision. The operator must be of good moral character.

Additionally, the driver must take an annual written examination on traffic rules, complete a 10 hour defensive driving course within 90 days after employment, and have a satisfactory driving record.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§392.300

A board of trustees may furnish transportation for all resident public school children in the district who must attend school and who live at such a distance from the school as to necessitate transportation. The board may establish bus routes, make regulations governing the conduct of drivers.

§392.320

The board of trustees shall use transportation funds for: the purchase, rent, hire and use of vehicles and the necessary equipment, supplies, and repairs of vehicles, the employment of capable drivers and others necessary for pupils' transportation, and the insurance of vehicles. The insurance shall be sufficient to protect the board of trustees, the pupils being transported, and their parents, guardians, or custodians for loss or damage.

§392.330

A board of trustees may use transportation funds for arranging and paying for transportation by motor vehicles or otherwise, by contract or other expedient economical means. Contracts may be made with railroad or other licensed common carriers, or bus companies, or owners of private motor vehicles.

§392.340

There is no admission of tort liability to any pupil or parent or guardian thereof for injury or death resulting from transportation for such pupil, unless such liability is specifically assumed by law. LIABILITY

§392.350

If daily transportation is not practical or economical for a pupil, the board of trustees may pay the parents or guardian up to $6 per school day to defray the cost of food and lodging of the pupil in a place in Nevada or an adjoining state which has a public school. The parents must meet a residency requirement, and payments must be approved by the state department of education.

§392.360

School vehicles may be used to transport public school pupils to and from interscholastic contests, school festivals, or other school program activities. The board of trustees shall make rules and regulations governing these uses, and school authorities shall furnish proper supervision of the vehicles.

§392.370

A board of trustees may authorize the use of school vehicles to transport school personnel to and from educational conferences.

§392.380

Drivers of school motor vehicles must be "of good, reputable, and sober character," be competent and qualified to operate vehicles safely and dependably, and must have a Nevada license to operate the particular type of vehicle. If parents or guardian consent, the board of trustees may employ a pupil in the district as a driver.

§392.390

It is unlawful to employ an unlicensed driver to transport pupils. Violation of this constitutes a misdemeanor.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§186-A:9

"Suitable transportation" shall be provided by the school board for all handicapped children "four years of age or older" who are "able to be so transported" from home to school.

§188-E:8

The state board of education shall pay transportation costs for students who attend regional vocational centers.

§189:6

"The district shall furnish transportation to all pupils below the ninth grade who live more than two miles from the school to which they are assigned". If the child lives so far that the costs of transportation would be unreasonable, "the school board may, at the expense of the district, board the child near a public school". The parents of the child may provide transportation as an alternative.

§189:7

Transportation will be provided "to all pupils under the age of fourteen years in grades above the eighth." In districts not maintaining a high school, students shall be furnished reasonable transportation to an approved high school.

§189:8

Pupils may be required to walk to the bus line but not any distance "exceeding one and one-half miles". If the school board finds it "desirable," transportation may be given to pupils who live less than two miles from school and who are beyond the eighth grade.

§189:9-a

Students may be prohibited from riding in school buses when the students "fail to conform to the reasonable rules and regulations". Parents of the child may appeal the decision but until the appeal is heard, the parents must provide transportation for the child. §263:28

The drivers of school buses will be investigated, prior to employment, "regarding his or her motor vehicle record, criminal record, character and physical, mental, and moral fitness." The driver must pass a "special examination" and receive an "operator's certificate." The bus driver's certificate may be revoked "for good cause shown."

D. Transportation

Statutes

§18A:39-1

In any district in which there are pupils "residing remote" from the school, the board of education may arrange for transportation to and from school, including students from private non-profit schools. When a regional school district provides transportation for pupils of non-public schools, the district "shall assume responsibility for the transportation of all such pupils."

§18A:39-1.1

A district board may also provide transportation for other pupils.

§18A:39-1.2

Any municipality which is a constituent district of a regional district may "for safety reasons" contract with the regional board to provide pupil transportation at the expense of the municipality.

§18A:39-6

Liability insurance covering school buses and their drivers shall be furnished by each contractor or if the bus is owned by a board of education, liability insurance shall be provided according to state board rule.

§18A:39-11;12;16

The boards of two or more school districts may jointly provide for transportation of their pupils. This shall be done under an agreement adopted by resolution of each of the boards. Any disputes over said agreements shall be "referred to the city superintendent and his[her]determination . . . shall be binding, subject to appeal to the commissioner."

§18A:39-17--19

Prior to the assignment of any bus driver, whether by the board or a contractor, his/her name, address, photograph and finger-prints shall be filed with the county supervisor. This information shall be sent to the state bureau of identification for a report. If it appears that the driver "has been convicted of a crime and the offense is of such character as to make it undesirable that he[she] should act as a driver . . . he[she] shall be disqualified by the city superintendent." Failure of a board or contractor to comply with this article with regard to drivers will be considered "a misdemeanor."

§18A:39-21

"The state board shall make rules governing the transportation of pupils to a farm school."

§18A:46-23

A board of education "shall furnish daily transportation within the state" for all handicapped pupils when necessary or advisable.

§18A:46-24

Any two or more districts may agree to jointly provide for facilities, examinations or transportation under this chapter."

REGULATIONS

§6:21-2.3

Non public school bus transportation shall be provided Monday through Friday between September 1 and June 30 when private schools are in session. Such transportation shall be limited to children in kindergarten through 12 grade.

§6:78-1.3

A board of education shall be required to furnish necessary daily transportation Monday through Friday to and from the school for nonboarding pupils when such transportation is approved by the county superintendent of schools in accordance with such rules and regulations as the State Board shall promulgate for such transportation.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§64-13-41

"No person who is under the age of 18 . . . shall drive any school bus transporting school children." School bus drivers must have a chauffer's license.

§77-14-4

"Exceptional children whose handicaps require transportation" are exempt from the usual rules that state minimum distances under which school bus service will not be provided.

Regulations

Reg. No. 73-28

All persons operating vehicles transporting students to and from school-sponsored activities: shall not remain continuously on duty as a driver for a period longer than ten hours; shall not remain on duty as a driver for a period longer than sixteen hours in aggregate during any twenty-four hour period; must be qualified as an operator for the particular vehicle being used.

Each local school board shall adopt policies concerning the safety and welfare of students participating in school-sponsored activities. Policies must cover at least: rest and relaxation of students and drivers during trip, the use of private vehicles for transportation; insurance coverage; emergencies.

Reg. No. 76-15

All school buses shall be subject to inspection at least two times each year, once prior to the start of the school year and once in the middle of the year. The local educational authority shall notify bus operators of inspection schedules, established by the State Police District Commander, and shall be responsible for having all buses available for inspection.

Inspection criteria and forms shall be established by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, the State Department of Education's Director of Transportation, and the Chief of the State Police.

All deficiencies, except those required on "unsafe" vehicles, must be made within five days of the citation. Any school vehicle designated as unsafe, must be immediately discontinued from use and not placed in service again until all necessary repairs have been made and it has been re-inspected.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§1502

"The board of education of any school district is . . . authorized . . . to rent or lease . . ." its vehicles to "any senior citizens center or organization that is recognized and funded by the office for the aging," or to other non-profit groups serving "senior citizens" and handicapped persons.

§1807

In any "central school district," the commissioner of education shall require the district to pay pupil transportation costs if, in his[her] judgment, the transportation is necessary and will promote the childrens' "best interests."

§1907

The board of education of a central high school district may furnish transportation to students whose residence is so far from the high school that they would be "deprived of attendance" without such transportation.

§3621 -- 3622

Transportation shall be provided for public school pupils, grades kindergarten through eight, who live more than two miles from school, and for students in grades nine through twelve who live more than three miles. Transportation is also provided for all handicapped pupils. Transportation shall be provided for school activities and trips, as well as transportation to and from the school.

§3623 -- 3624

The commissioner of education shall adopt and enforce rules regulating school buses, with "particular regard to the safety of pupils." Three "emergency drills" shall be conducted on each school bus during the school year. The commissioner shall set qualifications for school bus drivers. The district superintendent shall approve the employment of all bus drivers. Drivers will be required to have an annual physical examination.

REGULATIONS

§ 156.13

School bus drivers must be at least 21 but not over 65 years of age. Drivers shall be of good moral character. All regular and substitute drivers must be examined by a physician. All school bus drivers must have an annual physical examination.

Drivers employed after July 1, 1973, must receive at least 2 hours of instruction on safety practices. Drivers who transport handicapped children must receive 1 additional hour of instruction. During the first year of employment each driver shall complete an approved course in safety practices, including instruction on the special needs of handicapped children. All drivers shall receive a refresher course in safety at least twice a year.

Drivers are responsible for students' behavior while the pupils are in transit. At least 3 emergency drills per year shall be held on school buses.

II.A.2.; Statute §4355 -- 4356

D. Transportation

Statutes

§115-11.2

"The State Board of Education is authorized to expend public funds" to provide transportation for "children with special needs" as defined in §115-1.

§115-180

County and city boards of education are authorized but not required to operate school buses for pupils of the public schools. The boards may operate buses in such number as the board finds "practicable and appropriate".

§115-181

The State Board of Education "shall have no authority over . . . the transportation of pupils." This authority is transferred to the county and city boards, but the State Board "shall from time to time adopt such rules and regulations" regarding bus transportation and safety "as it shall deem to be desirable."

§115-182 — 115-183

The local superintendent of schools shall "allocate and assign" school buses to the various public schools in the county or city unit. He/she has a duty to supervise the operation of school buses and to see to it that buses are used only for transporting pupils to and from the public schools or "as the board deems necessary to serve the instructional programs of the schools." Such use may include the "transportation of children with special needs" and "children enrolled in programs . . . such as special vocational or occupational programs."

§115-184

The principal of a school providing transportation to pupils shall assign pupils to school buses. Any pupil or his or her parent may "apply to the principal . . . for transportation to and from school." If such a request is denied, the parent may appeal to the local board of education and "shall be entitled to a fair hearing by such board." If the board determines that such transportation will be in the "best interests" of the child and "will not interfere with the proper administration of the school," the board "shall direct that such pupil be assigned" to the school bus. Such final order of the board is appealable to the superior court.

§115-185

All school bus drivers shall be employed by the local boards of education and "shall possess all qualifications prescribed by . . . the State Board of Education." A school bus driver "shall have complete authority over" the bus operation and shall report any misconduct to the principal.

School principals may appoint monitors for school buses to "preserve order" on the buses and do "other things appropriate for the safety of the pupils and employees" on the buses.

§115-186

School bus routes shall be prepared by school principals and submitted to the local superintendent for approval. School buses shall be routed so as to "pass within one mile of the residence of each pupil, who lives one and one-half miles or more from school." County and city boards of education do not have "a duty to supply funds" for transportation for city pupils.

§115-187

School busses must be inspected every thirty days to discover any defects "which may affect the safe operation of the bus."

Individual drivers have the responsibility of reporting any defect which comes to their attention.

Any bus found to be so defective that it may not be operated with "reasonable safety" shall not be so operated.

§115-189

If a board finds it impracticable to supply transportation, the board may assign the pupil concerned to another school unless the pupil's parent notifies the board of the child's intent to attend school "without the benefit of transportation by school bus." If, by reason of the board's inability to supply transportation, a pupil is "required to obtain board and lodging" away from home, the local board may provide for a monthly payment of $50.00 to the child's parent or guardian.

§115-190

Local boards, in lieu of operating their own transportation system may if they deem it wise, contract out for the transportation of pupils. However, the company contracted with is subject to the same rules and regulations as to vehicle safety and inspection as the publicly operated school busses.

§115-193 — 115-197

The State Board of Education is authorized to pay compensation for injuries to students who are being transported by school buses. Such compensation may not "exceed six hundred dollars." The State Board has the authority to approve claims, which shall be paid regardless of any negligence on the part of the bus driver. All claims must be filed "within one year after the accident."

II.A.2.; Regulation 42E.0604

D. Transportation

Statutes

§15-34.2-01

The school board in any district may furnish:

1. vehicular transportation

2. the equivalent of payments in lodging at some other public school if acceptable to the family.

The board shall not accord benefits of either subsection 1 or 2 to any family receiving transportation payments. The distance that students must reside from school in order to be entitled to such transportation may be determined by the board in each district. Transportation may also be extended for purposes of transporting students to another district or county agricultural or training school within the state or another district outside the state.

§15-34.2-02

1. the board of any district may furnish vehicular transportation to nonresident students, subject to an agreement with that student's district. If not done subject to a proper agreement the district will forfeit its rights to transportation funds;

2. transportation may be provided to nonresident students whose parents or guardians have agreed to pay the transportation costs. The amount of such costs shall be determined by the school board of the admitting district.

§15-34.2-03

The board of any district may pay to each family living more than two miles from a school a sum per day for each day's attendance of students of such family, when transported by a member of the family or by a conveyance furnished or paid for by the family, or when the family has paid lodging for the child according to the distance between the home and school at the rate of ten cents per day for each one-half mile over two miles.

§15-34.2-06

"If more convenient or economical, any school district may pay a reasonable allowance instead of providing vehicular transportation for eligible high school students residing in the district to attend a county agricultural and training school or high school in another district."

§15-34.2-11

The operators of vehicles used in the transportation of students shall be under the supervision and direction of the board, superintendent, principal, and teachers of the schools while on duty. "The disciplinary authority of the schools shall exist over all students while being transported . . . and the operators shall be charged with their control and discipline."

§15-34.2-14

The driver of a school bus shall be in good physical and mental health, able-bodied, free from communicable diseases and shall have normal use of hands, feet, eyes and ears. It shall be the duty of school boards to designate physicians to examine the drivers. The driver shall possess good moral character, be at least eighteen and not more than sixty five years of age and shall have a North Dakota driver's license. The school board may extend maximum age to sixty seven. Drivers over sixty five must submit to examination once every six months. School bus means a vehicle having a capacity of seventeen or more people.

§15-34.2-15

A school district may extend a bus route into a bordering state when the superintendent of public instruction has entered into a reciprocal agreement with the bordering state.

REGULATIONS

Chapter I: I.B.13

The Director of Transportation is responsible for developing standards for all aspects of school bus transportation and ensuring that all programs meet those standards.

Chapter II: III.H.

1. The school board may at its discretion provide transportation or equivalent payment to pupils in the district living two or more miles from school or to pupils eligible to attend high school in another school district. Transportation is mandatory in reorganized districts.

2. The local school may request reimbursement for funds expended for children who must attend a special class outside of their own district. This is not available where transportation of other children from the district is accessible and practical for the child under special education nor when attendance in a special class or service involves less than a full school day instructional program. An equivalent amount may be provided to pay for lodging in the community where the classroom is available. Residences shall be in approved foster homes. The Director of Special Education should be contacted regarding the payments and requirements for reimbursement.

3c. A school board may desire to operate its own equipment. Purchase shall be made on a bid basis. Minimum standards as developed by the State Department of Public Instruction are given in the North Dakota School Bus Standards (1972).

3e. The driver of a school bus shall meet the minimum requirements established by the Department in the North Dakota School Bus Drivers' Handbook (1971). The driver must be at least 18 years old and not more than 65 and must have an annual medical examination by a licensed physician. In addition, each bus driver shall pass a written test and a behind-the-wheel test, and shall attend an annual refresher workshop, provided by the county superintendent. Upon successful completion of minimum requirements, the driver will be issued a School Bus Driver's Certificate valid for one year.

3f. All school buses are to be inspected annually by the State Highway Patrol and to be brought up to standard within a reasonable time upon receipt of the inspection report.

3g. A regular safety program should be conducted for school bus transportation, including: safety meetings for drivers and student-passengers; route studies to eliminate hazardous situations; and periodic checks of transportation equipment.

3h. The disciplinary authority of the schools shall exist over all children while being transported to and from schools and shall be exercised by the driver. Disciplinary standards are established in the North Dakota School Bus Drivers' Handbook (1971).

3i. School boards should carry liability insurance on school-operated buses and require the same on buses operated by contractors. Recommended amounts are available from the Department.

3j. School boards may equip school buses with two-way communications.

3k. No child should be required to ride on a bus more than one and one-half hours per day. Two hours of total travel per day for a child is considered maximum.

IV.G.; Statute §15-40.2-09

D. Transportation

Statutes

§3327.01

In all city, exempted village, and local school districts, the district board of education shall provide transportation to and from school for pupils in grades kindergarten through eight who live more than two miles from a school meeting minimum state educational requirements or to which he(she) is assigned or to and from a nonpublic school, provided that in the judgment of the board such transportation is not unnecessary or unreasonable.

In such districts, the board may provide transportation for pupils in grades nine through twelve to and from such high school as the pupil is assigned or to and from a nonpublic high school meeting state minimum educational requirements.

"In determining the necessity for transportation, availability of facilities and distance to the school shall be considered." The board shall not be required to transport a pupil to and from a nonpublic school requiring more than thirty minutes direct travel time. Where it is impractical for the district to tranport the pupil, such district shall, in lieu of providing such transportation, pay a parent or guardian, an amount per pupil which shall not exceed the average transportation cost per pupil.

The district shall also provide transportation for crippled and educable mentally retarded children to and from school and special education classes.

Regular transportation of pupils is to run on a regular time schedule beginning no later than ten days after the beginning of school. The cost of such transportation is to be paid first from federal funds, and secondly, from state appropriations.

No transportation shall be provided to any school which discriminates in the selection of pupils, faculty, or employees by race, color, religion, or national origin.

Coordinators of school transportation shall be appointed to assume that each pupil "is transported to and from the school... in a safe, expedient, and economical manner using public school collection points, routes, and schedules."

Where persons or firms on or after April 1, 1965 were providing transportation under contract to the board, the coordinator of transportation shall give preference to such person or firm "if economically feasible during the term of any such contract... [A]ppeals from the determination of the coordinator shall be taken to the state board of education."

§3327.02

If transportation of certain pupils by school conveyance is deemed impractical by the local school board, with concurrence of the county board, the local board may agree to pay the parent or person in charge of such pupil for transportation "at a rate determined for the particular case by the local board for each day of actual transportation."

Teachers shall keep an accurate record of the days a pupil is so transported. A parent's failure to provide such transportation cannot be pleaded as an excuse for the pupil's failure to attend school.

§3327.03

The boards of education may designate certain places as depots to gather children for transportation to school, provided such places have a shelter and can "be made comfortable during cold and stormy weather."

§3327.05

No district school board shall provide transportation for nonresident pupils without written consent of the pupil's resident board of education.

State funds may be withdrawn from any district transporting non-resident pupils without the above consent.

§3327.08

Any school district may, either individually or through central purchasing procedures, purchase or contract school buses and other related equipment for transporting pupils to and from school and for other functions authorized by the board. State subsidy for such purchases shall be based on the lowest price available. Purchases made by individual contract shall be made on the following terms:

A) Not less than one-fourth of the purchase price be paid in cash;

B) Not less than an additional one-fourth of the price be paid within each year of the next three years.

The board may make provisions for levying and collecting taxes annually to pay the portion of principal and any interest, not to exceed 3% per year. Revenues for the use of such buses may be applied to payment. The purchase shall be made after competitive bidding.

LIABILITY

The board of education shall procure, from an authorized insurance company, liability and accident insurance for each bus or van and on each passenger transported. Liability insurance shall be in "the amounts not less than one hundred thousand dollars per person, three hundred thousand dollars per occurence, fifty thousand dollars property damage and three thousand dollars medical payments coverage," or the next highest coverage the board can procure.

The board may also procure accident coverage for all pupils and authorized persons transported to provide compensation for injury or death caused by an accident in connection with the use of the vehicle. Such insurance shall be in the amounts agreed upon by the board and the insurance company.

§3327.10

No person shall be employed as a driver of a school bus or van, whether owned by the district or under contract or such a vehicle not subject to the regulations of the department of education, who has not received a certificate from the county board that he(she) is at least 18 years old, of good moral character, and is physically and otherwise qualified for the position.

Each driver shall have an annual physical to ascertain his(her) physical fitness for employment. If he(she) is a county employee, the county shall provide such physical examination.

A certificate of fitness for the position "may be revoked by the authority granting the same on proof that the holder has been guilty of improper conduct, failing to file all traffic convictions with the school administrator or contractor, or neglect of duty and such driver's contract shall be thereby terminated and rendered void."

§3327.12

A board of education may maintain bus turn-around points. At the request of the board, a municipal corporation or township, or the county may maintain such turn-around points on their respective roads, or on private property provided the board has determined the necessity of such use of private property. The board of education may provide the cost of such maintenance.

§3327.14

A board of education owning and operating a school bus or van for transporting pupils to and from school may contract to lease such vehicles to municipal corporations or public or non-profit private agencies delivering services to the aged to be used for transportation of persons over 60 years of age. Similar contracts may be made with groups engaged in adult education programs.

The cost of leasing such vehicles shall not exceed the costs of operating the vehicle, which may include the cost of providing a driver, insurance, and other direct and indirect costs. The board of education shall procure liability and property damage insurance.

All state board of education regulations governing the use of school buses shall apply to the extent applicable.

REGULATIONS

§3301-83-01 -- 13; 3301-85-03; 33-1-87-01

Pupil transportation shall be subsidized by the state according to the extent of transportation provided eligible pupils by a school district.

"Each school district shall file annual reports of all pupils transported, miles traveled, actual costs, and other necessary information for purposes of calculations and adjustments."

The local superintendent "shall provide at least one annual safety workshop for transportation personnel."

A transportation administrator shall be designated by the Board of Education. He/she "shall provide insofar as possible safe school buses."

Bus drivers must be at least eighteen years of age, of good moral character, and physically qualified. Bus drivers shall make a daily inspection to determine if busses are in safe operating condition.

"While riding on a school bus reasonable conversation is permissible and may be regulated by the school bus driver. The school bus driver. . .should not exclude a pupil from the bus; [she or] he shall report the unmanageable pupil to the proper authority. Disorderly conduct shall be sufficient reason for refusing transportation. . . . Whenever it becomes necessary to refuse a pupil transportation, the school authorities shall notify the parents. . .with a full explanation. Until such time as the school authorities have received assurance from the parents of future good conduct on the part of the pupil and the bus driver has been so advised, the driver shall not permit the pupil to board the bus."

The bus driver shall report any accidents involving the school bus to the police.

When it is necessary to load or unload pupils from the school grounds, the bus shall be stopped and positioned so that pupils do not cross the road to get to or from the bus. The Board of Education shall approve all bus stops.

School buses may be used to transport participating pupils to and from any co-curricular activity program approved by the district boards of education. Students may not be transported to observe college or professional games.

"Eligibility for [state] assistance for all busses shall be determined on the basis of operational efficiency evaluation by the Department of Education.

Dealers and manufacturers who fail to comply with bus safety standards may be prohibited from selling school bus chassis and bodies in the State of Ohio until discrepancies are corrected and written approval is issued by the Department of Education.

Statutes

§70-9-101, 9-108

Any school district may provide free transportation for each child in public schools, only for the following purposes:

1) To provide adequate educational facilities and opportunities which would otherwise not be available;

2) To transport children who live more than a "reasonable walking distance" from school as defined by the State Board of Education, but in no case shall transportation be provided to children living within one and one-half miles from school.

Additionally, each local board of education is authorized to furnish transportation for its school children within and without the district for purposes of attending community, county and state fairs that admit school children free; for summer youth activities; and for all other purposes approved by the State Board of Education.

The State Board of Education shall authorize any district to provide transportation for pupils participating in educational contests and activities outside of the state.

§70-9-103

Each local board of education is authorized to purchase and maintain suitable vehicles for transportation and/or may contract with responsible individuals to furnish such transportation.

§70-9-105

It is the duty of the State Board of Education to fix definite boundaries of the area in which each school district shall provide transportation. The State Board is also authorized to establish definite routes within each transportation area, and to make rules and regulations as to the establishment and change of the areas and routes. Failure or refusal to comply with such rules shall result in withholding of state funds from the erring district. The State Board of Education shall also promulgate rules and regulations governing transportation of special education students to an adjacent school district.

§70-9-106

LIABILITY

The board of education of any school district providing transportation may purchase insurance for the purpose of paying damages to persons injured due to the operation of motor vehicles used in transporting school children. However, no action for damages shall be brought directly against a school district, but may be brought against the insurer and the amount recoverable shall be limited to that provided in the insurance contract.

§70-9-118

Anyone who drives a school bus, whether a private contractor or a school district employee, shall complete a course of instruction on the operation of a school bus, such course to be approved by the State Department of Education and the district involved.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§332.405

Transportation may be provided for pupils by the school district when advisable, or room and board may be furnished instead where it is more reasonable.

§332.427

A district school board may permit school buses to be made available to qualified persons or agencies, public or private, or may use such vehicles for public transportation purposes.

Only vehicles operated by the district that comply with rules adopted by the Department of Education relating to standards of vehicle construction and equipment may be used for public transportation purposes. Drivers of vehicles shall be at least 18 years old and shall comply with rules adopted by the Department of Education relating to qualifications of school bus drivers.

§346.045

Transportation may be provided directly or by contract with a public carrier or with a school district for daily transportation to and from school for pupils under this chapter.

Regulations

§581-22-292

"Pupil transportation provided at local district expense shall comply with applicable statutes and Board rules."

§581-22-294

"Buses shall be constructed, equipped, maintained, and inspected in accordance with applicable statutes and Board rules."

§581-22-296

"School bus drivers shall possess a valid Oregon School Bus Driver's License and shall comply with applicable statutes and Board rules."

§581-53-005

The Oregon State Department of Education shall assist in training and instructions for school bus drivers. School districts shall provide for the training and instruction of their school bus drivers.

All school bus drivers must have satisfactory knowledge of state and local motor vehicle regulations.

To obtain a bus driver's license the applicant must possess a valid driver-chauffeur license, pass a physical examination performed by a licensed physician, and have an acceptable driving record. Drivers from age 18 thru 34 are required to be re-licensed every three years; age 35-44, every 2 years; and age 45 and over annually.

Applicants for a school bus driver's license must complete the physical examination.

Minimum physical qualifications include adequate eyesight and hearing, and no excessive use of or addiction to liquor, narcotics, or drugs.

§581-53-008

Transporting districts shall have all vehicles used in transporting pupils inspected annually, and certify to the Oregon State Department of Education that all deficiencies have been corrected before September 1 each year. A bus that is unsafe should not be used to transport students when there is reason to believe that a deficiency is such that continued operation of the bus may jeopardize the safety of students or public . Deficiencies shall be corrected before transporting students in a bus that has been declared unsafe. The driver shall inspect the bus daily.

§581-53-010

Pupils being transported are under authority of the bus driver. Pupils who refuse to obey the directions of the driver or refuse to obey regulations may forfeit their privilege to ride on the buses.

§581-53-015

School bus drivers shall observe all local and state traffic laws and ordinances. They shall enforce local school board and Oregon State Department of Education rules governing pupils riding school buses, and pertaining to school bus drivers.

STATUTES

§13-1331

In case there is no public school with proper grades in session within two miles of the residence of any child in a 4th class school district and in certain specified 3rd class districts, "such child shall be furnished proper transportation at the expense of the school district to and from a school with the proper grades." When this is not feasible, the Board of School Directors may, with the approval of the Department of Public Instruction, pay for suitable board and lodging.

§13-1361

The board of school directors, may provide free transportation to any resident pupil provided the school is not operated for profit and is located within district boundaries or within 10 miles of the boundaries (10 mile limit shall not apply to area vocational technical schools). When provision is made for transportation of public school pupils, the boad of school directors shall also make identical provision for free transportation of pupils who regularly attend non-public schools not operated for profit. The board of school directors may appropriate funds for urban common carrier mass transportation purposes to be paid to transportation authorities to assist them in meeting costs of operation. The State Board of Education shall adopt regulations, including qualifications of school bus drivers, to govern transportation of school pupils.

§13-1362

The free transportation of pupils may be furnished by using either school conveyances, private conveyances, or common carriers when the total distance which any pupil must travel in addition to such transportation does not exceed one and one-half miles and when stations or other proper shelters are provided. All private motor vehicles shall be adequately covered by public liability insurance.

§13-1365

It shall be unlawful for any driver or owner of a vehicle transporting pupils under a contract with a school district, "to demand, request, or accept any compensation for transporting pupils, other than the compensation stipulated in the contract . . ."

School bus driver positions shall be filled by application with the Bureau of Traffic Safety in the Department of Revenue. Such application shall include questions concerning conviction for crimes.

§13-1367

In lieu of transportation, board and lodging may be provided by the board of directors in 4th class and some 3rd class districts if the board and lodging is secured in the home of a near relative of the pupil or in a proper school or home approved by the person petitioning for their child to receive board and lodging.

REGULATIONS

§23.1

School districts furnishing pupil transportation service shall comply in every respect with the Public School Code of 1949 as amended, Motor Vehicle Code as amended, regulations adopted by the State Board of Education and regulations established by the Bureau of Traffic Safety of the Department of Transportation of the Commonwealth.

§23.2; 23.3

The means of pupil transportation to and from school whether furnished by school conveyance, private conveyances or common carriers, and all related contracts and agreements shall be subject to approval by the Department.

Transportation for exceptional pupils, kindergarten pupils and area vocational-technical school pupils shall be integrated with regular transportation services insofar as feasible.

§23.4

The board of directors of a school district shall be responsible for all aspects of pupil transportation programs including:

(1) The selection of means of transportation in conformance with the law and with regulations.

(2) The selection and approval of appropriate vehicles for use in district service and eligible operators who qualify under the law and regulations.

(3) The establishment of routes, schedules and loading zones which comply with laws and regulations, together with a provision of planned instruction for all school bus drivers serving in the district.

(4) The adoption of board policies and establishment of criteria and procedures governing the eligibility of resident pupils for free transportation service, the infractions of discipline related to transportation for both public and nonpublic school pupils and the conducting of field trips.

(5) The furnishing of rosters of pupils to be transported on each school bus run and trip.

(6) The maintenance of a record of pupil personnel transported to and from school, including identification of pupils, distances from home to pertinent school bus loading zones.

(7) The negotiation and execution of contracts of agreements with contractors, drivers of district's vehicles and common carriers and submission of pertinent documents to the Department for approval of operation.

(8) The ascertainment that all vehicles used in transporting pupils have adequate public liability insurance coverage.

§23.5

If two or more school districts or administrative units share the same vehicle in providing pupil transportation, the approved and reimbursable costs shall be prorated to each district or administrative unit in accordance with annual pupil miles of service rendered to that individual district.

§23.6

Only eligible pupils and school personnel authorized by the board of school directors shall be transported on the school bus while it is engaged in transporting pupils.

§23.21

The means of, records, agreements and contracts for, all pupil transportation to and from eligible nonprofit schools located within the legal distance limitations shall be submitted to the Department for approval of operation and for evaluation when pertinent and advisable.

Approval by the Department shall denote approval of the operation proposed, but shall not signify that the anticipated costs shall be approvable for reimbursement purposes.

§23.22

When necessary to extend the scope of pupil transportation service provided by one or more of the specified vehicles providing this service in a school district, a properly executed supplement to the agreement or record shall be submitted to the Department of Education for approval.

The following conditions warrant such supplement:

(1) the route must be extended to accommodate pupil load.

(2) A rerouting of vehicles is made necessary by highway construction or official detours.

(3) A noon run becomes necessary to take kindergarten pupils to and from school.

(4) For anticipated late afternoon runs not included in the normal daily scheduled transportation program.

(5) Additional regular transportation for nonpublic school pupils on days when the public schools are not in session.

Statutes

§59-67-10 --59-67-290

The state board of education shall "adopt and enforce regulations" regarding the "design and operation of all school buses" used to transport school children. Any employee who violates the regulations shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to removal from office. All school buses operated by a private school or under contract with a private school also must comply with the state board regulations.

Each school bus must be painted yellow and clearly marked "school bus." It must be equipped with power driven windshield wipers, adequate brakes, efficient lights, adequate rear and side view mirrors and a front entrance-exit and rear emergency exit. There must be adequate seating capacity for all children. All buses are subject to inspection by the state highway patrol at any time.

§59-67-130

The school superintendent shall be responsible for inspecting road conditions along school bus routes and reporting any hazards to the county transportation supervisor who shall report them to the appropriate state official for corrective action.

§59-67-140; 150; 180; 240; 470

Bus drivers must be certified school bus drivers of "good moral character" and shall not use alcoholic beverages or smoke while operating the bus.

A bus driver has general supervision of the bus and shall not permit any person to interfere with his/her vision while the bus is in motion. The driver shall also cooperate with teachers to assure that all students are boarded properly. He/she may report anyone causing a disturbance on the bus to the school head and may suspend students for "misconduct beyond his[her] reasonable control." If the student repeatedly disturbs the bus he/she may be suspended from riding the bus for the remainder of the year. The bus driver shall report any hazardous road conditions to the proper school authorities.

SUSPENSION

§59-67-410 --59-67-570

RULEMAKING

The state board of education has control and management over all school bus transportation and may adopt rules and regulations to carry out the intent and purpose of this article.

There is no obligation to transport any child to or from school who lives within one and one-half miles from the school. School buses may be used to transport students to and from athletic and other special activities.

Individual counties may contract for part or all of its transportation services with private individuals and shall be responsible for all sums paid to them. State aid shall be paid to such a county on the basis of the average per pupil operating cost of state owned equipment.

The state highway department shall be responsible for providing supplies for and maintaining state owned buses but the state board of education shall be responsible for all expenses relating to the operation and replacement of obsolete equipment.

§59-67-710

A state paid insurance policy shall protect all lawful occupants of state owned school buses against injury or death. Additionally, a fund created by the South Carolina Industrial Commission shall provide major medical benefits to any school bus passenger when the cost exceeds the limits of the policy provided in this section.

Any action brought under this section shall be brought directly against the insurance carrier and in no way waives the state's sovereign immunity, but does waive any liability that might otherwise exist against the bus driver.

REGULATIONS

§43-80

The Board of Trustees or the governing body of each school district shall, through the Superintendent of the district, be responsible to the State Board of Education for the supervision of the school transportation program in the district including selection of school bus drivers, employment of school bus drivers, supervision of school bus drivers and the pupils being transported, proposed routing of buses, accurate transportation records as to mileage, number transported, drivers' time reports, school bus safety and enforcing all other transportation regulations. The selection and employment of school bus drivers is subject to the approval of the County Board of Education. Teachers or other administrative personnel shall be assigned to school bus duties in the interest of the transportation program.

Transportation on regular school bus routes is authorized only for public school pupils regularly enrolled in grades K-12. Assignment of buses for new routes will be made on the basis of actual need. Before new equipment can be assigned, justification must be submitted showing that all buses presently assigned to the district or area are being used to the maximum. The State Department of Education may approve the use of state-owned buses for certain summer programs conducted by the local schools. The cost of such transportation shall be paid by the local school districts.

In schools where pupils are transported to the elementary schools which feed into central high schools, the State shall not be required to operate buses for high school and elementary pupils separately, unless prior approval is given in writing by the State Department of Education. Approval of separate transportation will be given only when such transportation can be accomplished with the same number of buses and approximately the same mileage. The schedule of work and the opening and closing hours for all schools served by the same buses must be arranged so as to facilitate a maximum amount of school work and at the same time permit the operation of a satisfactory and economical transportation program.

Buses shall be routed in the most direct way over publicly maintained highways and streets to provide service within one mile of each child who qualifies for transportation. Buses should be routed in the most efficient manner to provide for their use for approximately one hour and fifteen minutes and the number of students assigned to a bus should not be greater than the seating capacity. Buses may also be routed to make two or more trips when the combined trips can be made in approximately 1 1/4 hours.

The District Board of Trustees shall prepare route descriptions and maps and upon approval of the county school authorities, shall submit them to the State Department of Education for approval not later than October 15th annually. Proposed changes in routes after October 15 must be approved by the State Department of Education.

School bus stops on each route shall not be closer than two-tenths of a mile apart at safe points. Stops must have a visibility of 600 feet in each direction. During periods of inclement weather, buses may be allowed to stop on the regular route at safe points nearest the house of each child. Buses shall not be permitted to have regular routes. Stops shall not be made on blind curves, steep grades, or near the crest of hills. Points where buses are to turn around shall be selected in the interest of safety.

Pupils shall not be transported from one district or attendance area to another when an appropriate school is provided within the district or attendance area.

The State does not assume the responsibility of transporting any students living within one and one-half miles of the school they attend; such distance to be determined by the most direct route over publicly maintained roads or streets. A school bus shall stop to pick up or discharge a school child living within one and one-half miles of the school only if: (1) there are vacant seats on the school bus, the stop is on an established route and no additional state-owned school buses are required or (2) the Board of Trustees or governing body of any district desires to have children transported to and from school within one and one-half miles of the school, the Board pays the State Department of Education $.30 per mile or fractional part thereof traveled by the state-owned buses in transporting children within the one and one-half miles and no additional state-owned buses are assigned to the task.

Parents or guardians of school pupils who are regularly enrolled in public school in grades K-12 and have temporary physical handicaps such as being crippled or having a chronic disorder of lengthy duration may apply for special school bus transportation services for such pupils by securing appropriate forms from the District Superintendent, having the pupil examined by the Local County Health Officer, receiving a written statement from the County Health Officer stating that without special school bus transportation the pupil would experience unusual hardship and submitting the County Health Officer's statement to the District Superintendent for approval. The District Superintendent may submit the statement with a request for special school bus transportation service to the State Department of Education. Approval by the State Department of Education is required. Approval for such a change in a school bus route shall terminate at the end of a school year, at the time when the pupil has become normal, or when the pupil for whom the service was intended has moved to a different residence.

Regularly assigned buses may be used to transport pupils to vocational classes upon approval of the State Department of Education provided six or more students are enrolled. If less than six students, the District shall provide the transportation and be reimbursed at the rate of $.14/mile. When buses are used, the class schedules shall be arranged so that buses can make their regular morning and afternoon routes. The District Board of Trustees shall be responsible for providing adequate supervision of the buses on vocational routes. Buses shall be removed from vocational routes when, in the State Department of Education's opinion, the abuse and/or vandalism becomes excessive so as to interfere with the maintenance and operation of buses for the regular shcool program.

District Boards of Trustees or the governing body must correct violations in the routing of any school bus under their jurisdiction, or payments for providing transportation on such route or routes may be withheld; and the buses may be removed from the area until adequate assurances are made that the requirements of the law and the Regulations of the State Department of Education will be fully observed.

Buses shall be left on school grounds during the school day. The school shall provide an adequate driveway with a safe loading and unloading zone and a suitable area for parking and servicing of buses during school hours. Students or unauthorized personnel will not be permitted in parked buses during the school day.

Each school bus driver shall keep his/her bus in a reasonably clean and sanitary condition or risk discharge. Bus drivers shall not abuse equipment assigned to them. District Boards of Trustees shall replace drivers who abuse buses assigned to them. Any bus driver using a bus on an unauthorized trip shall be dismissed immediately. A school official shall be designated by the District Board of Trustees to see that buses are not abused and that drivers make required reports promptly, to assist in the investigation of damages to state-owned equipment and to aid in the prosecution of any proceedings necessary to see that proper care is taken. The payment of the salary of any bus driver may be stopped when reports of unsatisfactory service have been investigated and found to be adequately substantiated.

School bus drivers 21 years of age and older shall be required to have an annual physical examination and a report made by a physician on forms prescribed by the State Department of Education. The report by the examining physician shall be submitted to the State Department of Education prior to the driver taking the school bus training program and on the anniversary date of his/her school bus certificate each year thereafter. The cost of the examination will be paid by the dirver or the local school district. The maximum age for school bus drivers shall be 65.

State-owned buses shall not be operated in excess of 35 miles per hour. All state-owned buses shall be equipped with a stop arm.

The Board of Trustees of each school district shall have the authority to remove a bus from a regular school bus route when it is determined that the conduct of the passengers or others endangers the life and safety of the bus driver and passengers.

The Board of Trustees of a school district is authorized to assign seats to bus passengers.

Each school district shall submit in writing no later than May 1st of each year any major changes in school assignements which would require a change in the number of buses for the following school year.

§43-81

When the state-owned buses are used by the schools for educational purposes other than transporting pupils to and from school, the cost of operation shall be borne by the school district using them. The driver shall be paid directly by the local school. A charge of $.30/mile, payable to the State Department of Education, shall be made, regardless of the size of the bus used, for all trips other than the regularly scheduled trips to and from school as shown on the route description. District Boards of Trustees will be responsible for damages to the bus as a result of abuse.

All drivers must possess School Bus Drivers' Certificates issued by the State Department of Education.

The use of school buses for purposes other than transporting pupils to and from school shall not conflict with the regular school schedule.

The use of state-owned buses shall be limited to those events and activities actually conducted and sponsored by school authorities. They shall be used only for pupils regularly enrolled in grades K through 12. Buses may be used for extra-curricular activities such as F.A.A., F.H.A., 4-H Clubs, atheltics and instructional field trips scheduled in conjunction wtih classroom instruction. Buses may not be used by other organizations and agencies such as Boy and Girl Scout activities. The use of buses for extra-curricular activities shall be limited to the transportation of participants and chaperones from the school to their destination and return to the school.

Permission to use buses for purposes other than transportation of pupils to and from school must be secured in writing from the District Board of Trustees on forms, in quadruplicate, to be supplied by the State Department of Education, distribution of copies as shown on front of permit.

The use of state-owned buses for extra-curricular purposes for trips outside the State shall be limited to athletic and other school activities in adjacent counties in Georgia and North Carolina except for Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Jackson and Macon counties in North Carolina.

The permit for the use of school buses issued by the District Board of Trustees shall be taken by the driver on each trip made by the bus.

If any of the regulations governing the use of school buses for purposes other than transporting pupils to and from school are violated in any school district, buses in that district may be withdrawn from any further extra-curricular service.

Transportation for handicapped children shall be provided within any school district to the nearest school in which a class is located serving the pupil's handicap.

Eligibility for transportation shall be limited to the following types of handicaps:

(a) Trainable mentally handicapped (TMH)

(b) Deaf-blind (D-B)

(c) Hearing handicapped (HH)

(d) Visually handicapped (VH) (Legally Blind)

(e) Emotionally handicapped (EH) (Severely)

(f) Orthopedically handicapped (OH)

Legal age for handicapped children is the same as for public schools (K-12), except for the hearing handicapped which is 4-21 years of age.

Educable mentally handicapped (EMH) and learning disabled (LD) are eligible for special transportation only where regular school bus transportation is unavailable.

District Boards of Trustees shall be responsible for locating classes for the above types of handicaps in or near the geographic center of the district or area so that all types of handicaps can be transported on the same bus. The State Department of Education shall not be required to provide separate transportation for the various types of handicaps.

Transportation will be provided either on state-owned buses or by contract between the State Department of Education and the school district, whichever is most economical to the State. The procedure to be used in requesting contract transportation follows:

(a) State-owned buses will be assigned when the number of eligible students (usually minimum of 6) live within an area to make a bus route feasible from a time and mileage standpoint. School district officials shall submit a map and route description to the State Department of Education to justify assignment of the bus. Maps and descriptions will be submitted annually in the same manner as for regular bus routes.

(b) Contract transportation will be limited to pupils who live in isolated areas or when state-owned buses are not available. The following procedures will be used in requesting contract transportation:

(1) The State Department of Education will be notified of the name of the pupil, location of residence and school to which such pupils are to be assigned. If it is determined that the pupils cannot be transported on a bus already assigned to the district or if the number of pupils is insufficient to justify an additional bus, a proposed contract will be secured by the school district with the parent or other individuals for transportation.

(2) Proposed contracts between the school district and individuals to transport one child will be based on $.14/mile or $100 for each 90 days. If more than one student is transported, the contract may be based on $.14 mile for the actual number of miles traveled plus $100 for each additional student for 90 days. Proposed contracts may be negotiated on a different basis in unusual circumstances and when in the best interest of the State.

(3) When in the best interest of the State, contracts may be written for transporting students who live within two miles of the school on the basis of $100/student for 90 days.

(4) The maximum payment for transportation for any one pupil shall not exceed $2000 for 180 days.

(5) All proposed contracts must be approved by the State Department of Education prior to commencing transportation. Reimbursement will be from date of approval.

(6) Contract transportation will not be approved if transportation on state-owned buses is available. Exceptions may be made in extreme cases upon written recommendation of physical and the school district and upon approval by the State Department of Education.

(5) Transportation will be provided only during the regular school term not to exceed 180 days.

(6) Transportation on state-owned buses or by contract of pupils attending multi-district programs or programs conducted by agencies other than public schools will be provided only if the sending district has received approval of "another facilities agreement" from the State Department of Education prior to commencing transportation. The sending district is responsible for securing contracts for transportation routes and for the requisitioning of funds.

(7) Persons contracting to provide transportation must have the same insurance coverage as state-owned buses.

(8) Reimbursement to the district for contracts will be made at the end of each 90 school days. Request for reimbursement shall be submitted on a form furnished by the State Department of Education. The request shall be pro-rated if pupil attends less than 90 days.

(9) The use of mini-buses will be limited only to the transportation of handicapped students unless approval is received from the State Department of Education.

§43-186

The district shall maintain accurate data relating to buses, routes, students and drivers as recommended in the transportation manual published by the State Department of Education.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§13-29-1

Local school boards "shall have the power to acquire, own, operate or hire buses for the transportation of students to and from its schools" and "for the transportation of students and instructors" to and from extracurricular activities authorized by the school board.

§13-29-2

School boards shall have "authority to establish school bus routes" in the district.

§13-29-6 - 13-29-9

All school buses must be inspected annually and receive a certificate of inspection. If a bus is operated without such a certificate, the driver will be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person operating a school bus which carries ten or more students must have a school bus driver's license. In order to obtain it, an applicant must meet the "physical qualifications, knowledge of traffic laws, signs and markings, and ability to manipulate a school bus safely." An applicant for a school bus driver's license must file the following documents with the department of public safety: (1) An application "under oath" giving the name, address of the applicant and a statement that the applicant has not, within the past three years, been convicted of any driving offenses while "under the influence of . . . liquor or narcotic drugs" or "any offense involving moral turpitude;" (2) The required certificate showing that the applicant has passed the driving tests; and (3) A medical certificate showing that the applicant is in good health.

§13-30-1

Students who do not have school bus service available to them shall be eligible for a "transportation allowance" if they are: an elementary student assigned to a school "more than two and one-half miles from his/her residence"; a "secondary student" attending a high school "more than two and one-half miles from his/her residence."

§13-30-2

Students who live in a city "shall receive a transportation allowance" only at the board's discretion.

§13-30-3

A transportation allowance shall not exceed "seven hundred dollars per family."

§13-30-4

If a student is entitled to a "transportation allowance" but bus service is not available, the student shall receive an "allowance for room and board," provided the school he/she attends does not furnish dormitory facilities.

§13-37-8.9

If the school district does not provide bus service, the parents of children in need of special assistance or prolonged assistance, shall be eligible for transportation compensation.

D. Transportation

Statutes

§2201

"Boards of education may provide school transportation facilities for children who live over one and one-half miles . . . from the school." This service may also be provided for those living less than one and one-half miles away, at the board's discretion; but state funds will be distributed to the county only if these students are physically handicapped. The board shall contract to buy transportation equipment and hire personnel to drive such equipment. "[No] board of education shall use or authorize the use of any scho ' transportation facilities for the purpose of achieving a racial balance or racial imbalance in any school . . . ." If a local board adopts such a plan, the governor may withhold any or all of the state transportation funds from the local school board.

§2202

If the condition of the roads or the remoteness of the child's home prevents the use of school transportation, "the local boards may . . . pay to the parents or guardian of such child an amount equal to the average per capita cost of transporting one pupil. . . ," provided that the child regularly attend and live more than one and one-fourth miles from the school and more than one and one-fourth miles from "the nearest daily route of a school bus."

§2203 — 2205

A child cannot remain in transit either to or from school for more than one and one-half hours in the morning or afternoon. No child shall be charged a fee for such transportation services.

The state commissioner of education shall approve school bus routes only "where specific request for such approval is made by the county board of education" where the routes are located.

§2206 — 2208

All persons driving school buses shall possess a certificate issued by the county board of education. "The county board of education is authorized to adopt rules and regulations prescribing the qualifications of school bus drivers. . . ."

If school bus drivers and equipment cannot be readily found that conform to the provisions set forth, temporary certificates may be issued.

Annual physical and mental examinations shall be taken by all school bus drivers, and certificates can be revoked by the state board of education if a driver is found to be "physically, mentally or morally unfit to operate a school bus."

§2209 -- 2214

The state board of education shall adopt, from time to time, safety specifications pertaining to the buses used in transporting children. "School buses shall be of uniform approved color" to make them easily identifiable.

School buses shall be inspected at least once a year, as directed by the state commissioner of education. A bus shall not transport more students or persons than the number set by the manufacturer. However, the state commissioner of education may issue permits to a local board of education allowing a maximum excess of 20% of the manufacturer's stated capacity.

The speed limit for school buses is not to exceed fifty-five miles per hour on a highway or thirty-five miles per hour on country roadways. All school buses must be insured before they can be operated to transport pupils.

"The state board of education shall be directed to formulate rules and regulations governing school transportation as needed to protect the lives and welfare of school children."

§16.212

In lieu of maintaining its own school transportation system, a county board may contract with public transportation companies for all or any part of its public school transportation if such a contract is economically advantageous to the school system.

Such contracts "may include provisions for transporting students to and from approved school activities."

The commissioner, subject to the approval of the state board, "shall make rules for the administration of this section."

§21.161

Any school bus driver must possess a chauffeur's license, be at least 17 years of age and to be of sound body and mind, and will be required to be bonded for up to $2,000. These drivers, under threat of penalty of forfeiture of bond and contract, must come to a complete stop at all railroad crossings. The board shall see that efficient lights and brakes, and adequate protection from inclement weather is provided.

Title 116; Ch. I Art. 6687b Sec. 5

In order for a person to properly comply with this act; in order to drive"a school bus, the person must be at least 18 years of age, have undergone a physical examination" which reveals his(her) physical and mental capabilities and must undergo a pre-employment driver license check, as well as have in his/her possession a certificate stating that he/she is enrolled in, or has completed, a driver training course in school bus safety education.

REGULATIONS

§3461; 3462

Series 3461 expresses the general commitment to providing pupil transportation services, whereas series 3462 covers pupil eligibility with the following general requirements:

ELIGIBILITY

"(1) The pupil must reside at least two miles from the school he[she] attends as measured by the nearest commonly traveled public road.

(2) The pupil must reside in the district and attendance area (as designated by the district board of trustees); or

(2-1) be an approved transfer pupil (Transfers, Policy 2304.3); or

(2-2) be assigned as a vocational education student to another campus within a district or from a sending district to an area vocational school or to an approved post-secondary institution under a contract for instruction approved by the Central Education Agency; or

(2-3) be assigned as a bilingual education student from one campus to another within a district or to an approved bilingual education program in another district if the home district does not provide bilingual education to be eligible for transportation.

(3) Transfer pupils are eligible when the school he[she] would have attended in the home district, and the school he[she] attends in the receiving district are both located more than two miles from his[her] residence.

(4) A public school district operating a kindergarten program on a one-half day basis may make application for bus service to transport these pupils to or from school at mid-day. All such eligible bus pupils are expected to attend the same half-day session. If the school district is unable to accommodate all eligible kindergarten bus pupils in the same half-day, special approval must be secured from the Commissioner of Education.

(5) No student is eligible for transportation reimbursement for more than three quarters of any one year.

(b) Special Requirements

(1) To be eligible for private transportation, pupils must live two or more miles from an established school bus route in addition to other regular pupil eligibility requirements.

(2) Districts where unusual transportation situations exist as a result of a federal court order or a school district voluntary plan for desegregation approved by the Office of Civil Rights of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare are provided the following guidelines:

(2-1) A pupil living less than two miles from a school teaching his[her] grade in what had been his[her] normal attendance zone becomes eligible for state transportation purposes if he[she], as a result of a federal court order or a school district voluntary desegregation plan approved by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, is assigned to attend another school that is two or more miles from his[her] residence.

(2-2) A pupil who transfers voluntarily from the school in his[her] normal attendance zone as a result of the provisions of a school district desegregation plan, or school district policy on transfers within the district shall not be considered eligible for state transportation purposes.

(2-3) A pupil who transfers voluntarily from the school in his[her] normal attendance zone as a majority to minority transfer pursuant to the provisions of a federal court order shall be considered eligible for state transportation if he[she] meets all other eligibility requirements.

Exceptional Pupil Eligibility

(a) General Guidelines

Consideration for pupil eligibility is based upon the definitions for exceptional children as contained in Policy and Administrative Procedure 357 2.

EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN

"Pupils may live within the school district, within one of the school districts in a cooperative program, or be transferred to a district where special education services are available. The child who is eligible for and placed in special education classes does not automatically qualify for special transportation reimbursement. Specific reasons why a child needs special transportation and the type of special transportation required and furnished shall be documented annually in the pupil's eligibility file. No student is eligible for Exceptional Children Transportation reimbursement for more than three quarters of any one year.

(b) Committee Determination of Transportation Eligibility

The local special education Admission, Review and Dismissal Committee shall annually be responsible for:

(1) determining the need for special transportation; and

(2) determining the type of special transportation needed.

The documented record of this determination shall then become a part of the pupil's special education eligibility file. The specific reason for special transportation shall be written in the dated record of the committee's action above the committee members' signatures.

(c) Specific Guidelines

The following guidelines relative to pupil characteristics should be taken into consideration in determining individual eligibility for special transportation.

Visually Handicapped

Visually handicapped pupils who may be eligible for special transportation services are those who either have no vision or whose visual impairmants after correction result in educational handicaps requiring special provisions for maximal educational achievement. The primary factor in determining the need for special transportation is the pupil's safety. Sufficient mobility skills for safe travel on a regular school bus precludes special transportation services.

Orthopedically Handicapped and Other Health Impaired

This includes all children who have orthopedic handicaps or other health impairments and whose physical conditions and/or special health problems result in the need for special provisions for educational purposes. Major consideration for determining the pupil's need for transportation should be the safety limiting characteristics.

(1) the pupil using a wheelchair, crutches and/or braces which may either be of danger to the child or other children while riding a regular school bus,

(2) certain severely involved cerebral palsied children;

(3) children of extreme low vitality or other health reasons; and

(4) certain children who may be so hyperactive they cannot be safely transported on a regular bus.

Consideration should be given to the feasibility of providing special transportation to certain homebound students so they may attend a class of physically handicapped children in school.

(c-c) Auditorially Handicapped

Children who are deaf or severely hard of hearing and are eligible for special services may be considered for special transportation services. An inability of the child to communicate successfully as well as safety factors may necessitate special transportation.

Trainable Mentally Retarded

Because of an inability to acquire necessary skills as determined by a substantially reduced rate of intellectual development, the trainable mentally retarded may be considered for special transportation. Generally, the majority of these pupils will not be able to ride regular transportation for social and/or safety reasons. However, there may be some cases of older trainable children in which it would be desirable both for social and economic reasons for them to ride regular transportation.

Educable Mentally Retarded

The Educable Mentally Retarded (EMR) are those children who reveal a reduced rate of intellectual development and a mental capacity and level of academic achievement below that of their peer group as evidenced by significant deficits in all essential learning processes. Under certain circumstances they may be considered for special transportation:

(1) The younger educable retardate whose mental age may be 3 1/2 to 5 years;

(2) The educable retardate who because of epilepsy or some similar health impairment may find it necessary to use special transportation for his[her] own safety and the safety of other children;

(3) Certain social factors may deem it necessary for the EMR to use special transportation.

One of the objectives in the training and education of the educable mentally retarded is the acquisition of vocational proficiency. The ability to find one's way is a prerequisite to this objective. Special transportation will be approved only where there is a proven manifested need.

Emotionally Disturbed

Emotionally disturbed children are those whose emotional condition is such that they cannot learn at the expected rate and level for their age and/or adjust adequately socially in a regular school program. These children may be considered for special transportation due to:

(1) hyperactive behavior which may result from over-stimulus of peer group activity and which may involve the factor of safety for himself and for others;

(2) an inability to react favorably with his [her] environmental conditions especially due to impulsive responses to depression or withdrawal;

(3) overaggressive behavior, losing contact with reality may also interfere with a child's use of regular transportation.

A primary goal for the emotionally disturbed child, however, is the development of his[her] social/emotional adaptability in all areas of self-help.

Language and/or Learning Disabilities

Language and/or learning disabled children are those who are so deficient in the acquisition of language and/or learning skills including, but not limited to, the ability to reason, think, speak, read, write, spell, or to make mathematical calculations. These may include children diagnosed as having specific developmental dyslexia. Special transportation may be considered for these children who are at a young age and whose acquisition of language, speech, reading and reasoning are so impaired that the use of regular transportation may be impractical. Children whose problems of perception are severly impaired may also find it necessary for special transportation.

Multi-Handicapped

The multi-handicapped are those children who have a combination of 2 or more handicapped conditions, one or both of which may be so severe that special transportation may be considered. Criteria for determining special transportation for these children should be based on the suggested reasons as set forth in the above paragraphs for the various handicapping conditions.

Pregnancy

Pregnant students may be considered for special transportation where it is determined that regular transportation may be hazardous to the safety of the unborn child."

§3461; 3462; 3463; 3464; 3465

"Pupil transportation shall be a part of the services supporting the educational program. These services shall be provided to eligible children through the county and school district boards of trustees in accordance with law and procedures administered by the Texas Education Agency.

"Eligibility . . . shall be determined as defined by law and procedures as established by the Commissioner of Education.

Eligibility for exceptional pupils shall be determined when a pupil is eligible for or when enrolled in a special education class and is unable to attend class without special transportation.

. . . transportation . . . provided for eligible pupils are regular, private, contracted, and commercial.

Special Transportation . . . programs shall be established by the Commissioner of Education . . . shall include . . . migrant education and special education for exceptional children.

The Commissioner of Education shall establish procedures relating to the administration of pupil transportation services."

§3463

This series covers procedures relating to pupil transportation services. The procedures by which these types of transportation are operated are as follows:

(a) Regular

(a-a) General guidelines

"(1) The school transportation program shall provide the most economical system for serving all of the eligible students residing in the school district.

(2) All proposed additions to or changes in the transportation program shall be reported to the Texas Education Agency as soon as approved by the lawful designated authority.

"School bus routes for the following school year shall be established by June 1 . . . .

(1) Request for the approval of additional bus routes shall be on forms furnished by the Texas Education Agency. There must be a complete route description for each new route requested and a statement explaining why the route is necessary.

(2) Each request for an additional school bus route shall be subject to a survey by a Texas Education Agency staff member. The survey will include an examination of the district's total transportation program and need of the additional route in relation thereto, utilizing the criteria listed and other appropriate data that may be furnished by local school officials such as information on local traffic conditions and the times of day when traffic is the heaviest, the specific driving time for each bus operated, and the number, if any, of ineligible pupils transported.

(3) A county or district requesting Texas Education Agency approval of one or more short length routes must justify the approval request on the basis that: (1) there is no other route with which the new route can be combined for a two-trip route or, (2) the time required to service the route due to local traffic conditions makes a two-trip combination route impractical.

(4) Transferred pupils shall not be considered in the approval of a bus route, if their grades are taught in their home district and transportation is provided by that district, or their grades are not taught in their home district and transportation is provided by another receiving district over a route approved by the lawful designated authority.

(5) Duplicate routes and/or services must be approved by the lawful designated authority having jurisdiction and by the State Commissioner of Education. Factors to be considered in approving duplication of services and/or routes are economy and geographic barriers.

(6) Applications for new bus routes for schools operating transportation systems in the first three quarters must be approved by the lawful desingated authority and received by the Texas Education Agency on or before December 22 of the current school year. Routes operated by districts in the fourth quarter must be approved by the Commissioner of Education.

(1) All school bus routes should be measured from the last school served. The length of an individual bus route will be twice the distance from the last school served over the nearest practical route required to serve the eligible students and return to school.

(2) The length of the individual school bus route should be consistent with that of the typical school bus route as defined in Section16.56(b), Texas Education Code, (45 to 55 miles of daily travel).

(3) Retracing side roads where children live a reasonable distance from the main route should be reduced to a minimum. Such retracing cannot be regarded as necessary where the distance is not more than one-half mile and shall not be included in calculating the length of the bus route. Where retracing seems absolutely unavoidable, it must be fully justified and must be approved by the State Commissioner of Education.

(4) A student will not be expected to spend in excess of one hour each morning and one hour each afternoon on a school bus unless the area of the school district and the location of the student's residence makes a longer period of time on the bus mandatory.

School bus capacity refers to the actual number of eligible pupils regularly transported and not to the manufacturer's rated capacity. If a bus route includes two or more trips, the number of eligible pupils transported on any one trip may be used as the bus capacity. If the bus capacity varies because pupils are transported to two or more schools, the largest number of eligible pupils on the bus at any one time shall be considered as the bus capacity.

The capacity for the Pupil Transportation Report is determined by the following options:

(1) Schools operating only three quarters will select one of the following:

(1-1) The number of eligible students who regularly ride the bus on the first Monday in February; or

(1-2) The number of eligible students who regularly ride the bus on the last day of the second quarter; or

(1-3) The average number of eligible students who regularly ride the bus on the last day of each of the first three quarters of the current school year.

(2) Schools operating four quarters will use the following:

(2-1) The average number of eligible students who regularly ride the bus on the last day of each of the first three quarters of the current school year; and

(2-2) Each school district operating buses in the fourth quarter shall report the number of eligible students who regularly ride the bus on June 15 or the nearest school day.

Regular transportation may be provided by a . . . public tax-supported school district under a cooperative arrangement to provide transportation services for pupils who are enrolled and in attendance in either institution. Transportation may be provided by a public school district or county to and from the nearest college or university for residents of the district who are enrolled in the college or university.

Guidelines for the procedure relating to the annual pupil transportation report include:

(1) Districts reporting the number of eligible students who regularly ride the bus on the first Monday in February or the last day of the second quarter file the Pupil Transportation Report on or before March 15 of the current school year.

(2) Districts reporting the average number of eligible students who ride the bus on the last day of each of the first three quarters file the Pupil Transportation Report on or before June 15 of the current school year.

(3) Districts serving eligible students who regularly ride the bus in the fourth quarter submit a supplement to the Annual Pupil Transportation Report on or before July 1 of the current school year.

Regulations for the approval of a private transportation service . . . of a county or individual school district shall include:

(1) Applications must be approved by the local lawful authority and the Texas Education Agency.

(2) Annual applications must be submitted prior to or on the date the service becomes effective.

(3) A pupil may only be transported to and from his[her] residence and the school he[she] attends by private vehicle.

(4) Forms for the final application for funds for private transportation are mailed to the districts on or before May 15.

(5) Final application for funds for private transportation shall be due annually on or before June 15.

Contracted transportation services are those services provided by a public transportation company operating under a contract with a county or school district board of trustees to transport eligible pupils.

Contractive transportation services for all or any part of the district's transportation porgram may be provided under the following conditions:

(1) A contract service application shall be filed with the Texas Education Agency on or before June 15 for the next school year. All contract applications shall be filed on forms designed and supplied by the Agency and shall furnish information on the approved length of each bus routes to be contracted and the number of eligible pupils to be transported.

(2) A copy of the proposed contract with the public transportation company shall be submitted with each contract request. If the contract is to include provisions for the transportation of students to and from approved school activities, such provisions and the cost therefore must be separate and apart from the contract cost for regular school transportation on approved school bus routes.

(3) The contract price for the bus routes to be served by the public transportation company must be less than the projected cost of the same service under the regular transportation allotment formula.

(4) The projected cost under the regular transportation formula for the routes to be contracted as determined from the Contract Service Application shall be subject to field examination by staff members of the Transportation Section and/or members of the Field Audit Staff before a recommendation is made from the Transportation Section to the Commissioner of Education.

(5) The Commissioner of Education shall submit his[her] recommendations on applications for contract bus service to the State Board of Education each year at the July meeting of the Board.

(6) When a contract is approved by the State Board of Education, the contract price for the service shall be included in the estimated annual transportation cost allotment for the county or district.

(7) Each county or school district board of trustees shall file the regular annual transportation report for the approved bus routes covered in the contract.

Commercial transportation services are those services provided by regular commercial bus lines for isolated groups of eligible pupils. Regulations for the approval of services by commercial bus lines for eligible pupils are:

(1) Application for commercial transportation must be approved by the local lawful authority and the Commissioner of Education.

(2) Annual applications for commercial transportation must be submitted on or before the date the service becomes effective.

Some special provisions made for tranporting pupils include:

(a) Migrant

A public school district operating an extended day schedule to serve migrant pupils may make application for bus service to transport these pupils under the following conditions.

(1) Application for bus routes is made directly to the Texas Education Agency.

(2) Each request for a bus route to serve migrant pupils will be subject to a survey by the . . . Agency.

(3) A separate appplication is made for the allocation of funds.

(b) Special Education

A public school district having a special education program may provide services for pupils who are visually handicapped, orthopedically handicapped and other health impaired, auditorially handicapped, trainable mentally retarded, educable mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed, language and/or learning disabilities, and multi-handicapped. The tranpsortation program for exceptional children must be operated in accordance with the following guidelines and requirements:

(1) Each district participating in exceptional children transportation for the first time shall file an initial application for exceptional children tranportation with the Transportation Section of the Texas Education Agency on or before September 15, for the current year.

(2) All districts participating in an exceptional chidlren transportation program shall file with the Texas Education Agency a final application which shall be due annually on or before June 15. A district shall certify that students being served shall meet the statutory requirements for this service. If a district shall desire to operate a part of the exceptional children program in the 4th quarter of the current school year, in lieu of another quarter, a supplement to the application including a list of students being transported on June 15, or the nearest school day, shall be filed on or before July 1.

(3) School District, in completing the final request for funds for the Exceptional Children Transportation Report, will apply only for the amount of the actual cost of transportation not to exceed $260 per eligible pupil.

Each bus route operated by a school district shall be planned to provide the transportation service required by each eligible pupil. These services shall be transportation from the child's home to school and return to home. When a child is picked up or delivered to a different address, a request must be made in writing and be on file.

The system of routes shall be substantiated by a narrative description of each route including the address of each pupil pick-up point, the time elapsed from the first pupil pick-up to the last pupil discharged, the number of miles covered by each route, and the number of exceptional and regional day school deaf pupils on each route, and a map or series of maps showing the course of each route.

The most direct route to serve eligible students between home and school should be established."

Some general guidelines and requirements for transportation include:

(1) It is interpreted that the legislative intent for special transportation was for the school district to own and operate suitable special vehicles for eligible exceptional children.

(2) Children eligible for special education and who can utilize regular transportation services shall be transported, if eligible (Regular Pupil Eligibility, Policy 3462.1) on regular routes.

(3) Buses may be funded only once from Foundation Program Funds.

(4) Buses shall transport only eligible exceptionaal pupils as defined in Policy 3462.2.

(5) Private or contract transportation consisting of nonschool-owned vehicles may be used in some instances with prior approval of the Texas Education Agency.

(6) Care shall be exercised in finding and removing any hazards to children. The safety and comfort of the pupils transported shall be protected.

(7) Special modification of equipment as well as the type equipment chosen should be a major consideration for the safety of the children being transported.

(8) In some cases schools may wish to consult the child's family physician for advice about transportation requirements for the protection of the child.

(9) Schools may not use vehicles such as pick-ups or open vehicles as special transportation. Small buses are considered to be most feasible. Each route load will depend on the number and kind of pupils transported. Precaution should be observed to prevent overcrowding of special buses.

(10) In very unusual cases where specific needs can most feasibly be met, private or contract transportation for certain eligible exceptional children may be made. The best interest of the child and parent must be given serious consideration in making such arrangements. Each contract shall be retained by the school district for review and audit.

(11) In emergency situations, a special education vehicle should be available for eligible handicapped pupils.

(12) Special education vehicles may be used to transport eligible exceptional children on field trip travel. In using these vehicles for this field trip activity, the district's Exceptional Children Transportation Fund must be reimbursed at a rate based on the actual cost per mile as approved by the local board of trustees.

(13) Pupils attending a Regional Day School for the Deaf may be transported with exceptional children on a per pupil cost basis from funds provided by the Regional Day Schools for the Deaf Program only when this transportation does not change the services required for eligible exceptional pupils."

Eligible vocational education students may be transported by bus under the following conditions:

(1) Notification of the transportation of vocational education students shall be made to the Texas Education Agency on the appropriate forms by September 20. Special requests should be made for programs initiated during the school year.

(2) A separate application is made for the reimbursement of funds for the transportation of vocational education students."

§3465

The procedures established by the Commissioner of Education for the administration of pupil transportation services are:

"(a) Purchase of Vehicles

Purchases of buses, bus chassis, bus bodies, for school districts participating in the Foundation School Program are made by the district's board of trustees and approved by the local lawful authority through requisition approved by the Commissioner of Education and the State Board of Control.

Purchases of tires and tubes are made by the district's board of trustees and approved by the local lawful authority through requisition approved by the State Board of Control.

The requisition must contain certification as to the funds that will be available to pay for the article or articles.

School districts that receive no Foundation School Program allocations may or may not elect to purchase buses, tires, and tubes through the State Board of Control.

Sale of Equipment

Schools that participate in the Foundation School Program must follow the procedures established by the State Board of Control when desiring to sell used buses.

Procedures which must be followed for the operation of school buses are:

(1) The board of trustees or the county school board of a school district shall be responsible for operating the transportation program under its jurisdiction in accordance with applicable motor vehicle operation laws and regulations, both state and federal.

(2) The board of trustees of any school district or county school board providing transportation of pupils to and from school shall employ or contract with a responsible person or firm to provide operators for the buses in compliance with the provisions of this section.

(3) No driver shall be employed who is not at least 18 years of age, licensed as a chauffeur, has undergone an annual physical examination which reveals his[her] physical and mental capabilities to safely operate a school bus, whose driving record is acceptable according to the standards developed jointly by the Central Education Agency and the Texas Department of Public Safety, and be certified at least every three years.

(4) Each driver shall be required to give bond in an amount determined by the board, but not less than $2,000, payable to the employing board and conditioned upon the faithful and careful discharge of his[her] duties for the protection of the pupils under his[her] charge and the faithful performance of his[her] contract with the board.

(5) The school district board shall require all drivers to bring their vehicle to a dead stop before corssing railway tracks.

(6) Bus driver contracts and bonds must be executed between the county or district board of turstees and the bus driver. Copies of both instruments must be available for audit.

(7) School Bus Driver Training shall be provided as follows:

(7-1) The curriculum for school bus driver training will be developed by Texas Education Agency and approved by the Department of Public Safety.

(7-2) Bus driver training will be administered by the Regional Educatioal Service Centers.

(7-3) Regional Educational Service Centers will be allocated funds on the basis of an approved program plan.

(7-4) The Transportation Section of the Texas Education Agency will monitor a training program through surveys and reports submitted by each Regional Educational Service Center.

(7-5) By September 1, 1977, the driver of a school bus shall have in possession a certificate stating he or she has completed, or is enrolled in, a School Bus Driver Training Course on school bus safety.

Transportation funds may be used to pay premiums for fire, theft, collision, comprehensive, insurance coverage of school district owned vehicles approved for the transportation of pupils.

Transportation funds may be used to pay premiums for district insurance coverage for personal injury and property damage liability in the operation of a school district owned vehicle approved for the transportation of pupils to the extent set out in the Tort Claims Act.

Vehicles owned, operated or maintained in whole or in part with Foundation School Program funds are limited to the transportation of children who are enrolled in and attending public free schools of Texas, and teachers and other personnel employed by school districts. State funds are not provided to any school district or county that fails to recognize these limitations.

The use of school buses for school sponsored extracurricular activities and field trips, including 4-H Club activities when approved by the board of school trustees, is considered a part of the regular school program. The unit concerned, either the county or the district, shall establish appropriate regulations for the use of school buses for extracurricular activities and field trips. Such regulations must be in written form and are subject to review and approval by the Commissioner of Education. A copy of the regulation must be available when transportation audits are conducted by members of the Texas Education Agency Field Audit Staff.

The regulations shall include a provision for reimbursing the district or county transportation fund for the cost of extracurricular and field trip travel. The reimbursement rate must be realistic and based on the actual cost per mile, including bus purchase payments and depreciation, for the operation of the regular school buses in the county or district. A trip ticket should be used in connection with each bus for each date the bus is used for such travel.

Provided, however, the cost of extracurricular and field trip travel or a portion thereof may be paid from the appropriated district allocation in the county or district transportation fund under the following conditions:

(1) The district allocation in the respective transportation fund, county or district, has an unencumbered balance as of August 31 of any school year after all the operational costs and school bus purchase payments due for the year have been paid.

(2) Where all school buses used on regular school bus routes are fully paid for, there shall be set up a reserve fund for the replacement of equipment based on current replacement costs and the life expectancy of presently owned school buses. The amount set aside for said school bus purchase reserve fund shall be considered encumbered and not a part of the free balance available as of August 31.

(3) The unencumbered or free balance available to each district in the county or district transportation fund as of August 31 may be used to defray the cost of all or a part of extracurricular or field trip school bus travel for the following school year. State transportation funds received during a school year may not be used for such extracurricular or field trip travel during that year.

(4) The use of transportation fund balances, as heretofore described, for the payment of extracurricular or field trip school bus travel must be approved by the respective governing board of school trustees, county or district."

These policies concerning transportation include:

1) the use of transportation funds;

2) cooperative transportation agreements;

3) the calculation of cost allotments;

4) the transportation of kindergarten pupils;

5) private and commercial transportation approved for use;

6) contracts with public transportation companies;

7) transportation for exceptional children;

8) transportation for vocational education students; and

9) transportation for children enrolled in required statewide bilingual education programs.

D. TRANSPORTATION

STATUTES

§28A.04.131

The state board of education shall make rules governing the training and qualifications of bus drivers.

RULEMAKING

§28A.24.055-.060

The school district must pay "for transportation of children to and from school whether they live within or without the district when in its best judgment the interests of the district will be subserved thereby," but is not required to transport "any pupil living within two miles of the school house." All children of compulsory school age attending school "shall be entitled to use the transportation facilities" of their school district.

§28A.24.080

"School district transportation routes for purposes of state reimbursement of transportation costs shall be recommended by the school district transportation commission in each school district and approved by the superintendent of public instruction pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the superintendent for that purpose. The commission shall be appointed by the superintendent of public instruction and shall consist of (1) a representative of the local board of directors; (2) a representative of the superintendent of public instruction, and (3) a representative of the educational service district board."

§28A.24.090

"Local boards of school directors shall cooperate with the transportation commission and the state superintendent in establishing routes and in determining the costs of such routes."

§28A.24.110

The school districts may lease school buses to nonprofit organizations to transport handicapped children to "activities deemed beneficial" if commercial transportation is unavailable. They may also establish criteria for leasing buses.

§28A.24.150

Whenever a safe walkway would eliminate a bus route or shorten the walking distance for pupils, the school district is authorized to acquire the property. If the acquisition would result in a financial saving to the state over a 15 year period, the state shall reimburse the district for its costs.

§28A.24.172

Each school district board may make its own policy about leasing or renting school buses for emergency purposes subject to these conditions:

1. an emergency has been officially declared by State Director of Emergency services.

2. Those renting or leasing must agree in writing to reimburse the school district for all costs relating to use of the buses and must agree to indemnify the district.

§28A.24.180

The school district may contract to allow a municipality or governmental entity to use its school buses provided it is reimbursed for its actual costs."

REGULATIONS

§180-20-106

"Approval of the state board of education is ... granted for the use of school buses for extracurricular activities when ... commerical service is not physically available ...; or ... the quoted cost for commerical service exceeds ... statewide average costs plus the percent of school bus operation."

§180-20-200 -- 230

The state board is authorized to establish regulations for the "training and qualifications of school bus drivers." School bus drivers must "in addition to holding a valid Washington drivers license ..., hold a valid continuing certificate or temporary school bus driver's permit ....

"Temporary school bus drivers' permits may be issued by educational service district superintendents."

Temporary permits are nonrenewable and valid for 90 days. The applicant must be 18 years of age or older; hold a Washington driver's license; have at least 2 years' driving experience; be of "good moral character" and in good health and have physicans' certification that he or she is "medically qualified"; not be addicted to alcohol or any narcotics or drugs; not have been convicted of violation of any law involving drug use or sale, or reckless or negligent driving in the last 3 years, or "the physical molesting ..., injury or neglect of any minor" or any other violation "which would demonstrate that the applicant is of poor moral character;" and in the last 3 years shall not have had his or her license suspended or revoked.

"Application for a temporary school bus driver's permit must be approved, ... and submitted to the educational service district superintendent," by the employing school district.

A "continuing school bus driver's certificate" may be issued for four years. The applicant must meet the above requirements as for a temporary certificate, "complete the school bus driver training course ... [and] hold a ... valid first aid card which certifies that the applicant has completed a course in ... fist aid" in the last three years.

The superintendent of public instruction shall establish "a basic course and a refresher course in school bus driver training" and is responsible for the certification and training of the instructors of such courses. Continuing certificates are issued by the superintendent of public instruction when the training and all other requirements are completed. The employing school district shall receive the list of individuals who have been issued continuing certificates from the educational service district superintendent.

The certificates are valid for four years but may be revoked if a holder no longer meets one or more of the requirements. To renew a certificate the holder must complete a refresher training course. "If a trainee completes the basic course and is not employed as a school bus driver within" a year, he or she must take the refresher course to be recertified.

All school bus drivers must have an annual physical examination.

The superintendent of public instruction is responsible for administration of "the program of training and qualifications of school bus drivers."

"A public school fraternity, sorority, or other secret organization . . . which fosters undemocratic practices" is that which enlists members "on the basis of the decision of its membership rather than upon free choice of any pupil in the school."

Such organizations are unlawful in public schools.

SECRET ORGANIZATIONS

School authorities may expel pupils who are members of such organizations or who solicit members.

It is also unlawful for persons not enrolled in public school to encourage membership in such organizations. It is unlawful for any "public newspaper . . . or other publication" to refer to organizations with the prefix "High School." The above does not apply to "institutions of junior college rank, or . . . above . . . or senior high school students of National Fraternities or Sororities or organizations in these institutions."

Violators of these provisions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction fined $25.00 --$100.00 for every offense.

E. Extracurricular Activities

Statutes

§10900 -- 10915

This chapter creates community recreation programs in order to promote and preserve the health and general welfare of the people of the state. It seeks to stimulate all public authority to this end. RECREATION PROGRAM

Included within this program is the use of recreation centers, playgrounds, pools for the purpose stated above.

The board of recreation commissioners shall consist of either 5 members or seven members as determined by the governing body providing for its employment, and they shall exercise such authority as the governing body of the public authority may authorize.

§35330 -- 35332

"The governing board of any school district or the county superintendent of schools of any county may:

(a) Conduct field trips or excursions in connection with courses of instruction or school-related social, educational, cultural, athletic, or school band activities to and from places in the state, any other state, FIELD TRIPS

the District of Columbia, or a foreign country for pupils enrolled in elementary or secondary schools. A field trip or excursion to and from a foreign country may be permitted to familiarize students with the language, history, geography, natural sciences, and other studies relative to the district's course of study for such pupils.

(b) Engage such instructors, supervisors, and other personnel as desire to contribute their services over and above the normal period for which they are employed by the district, if necessary, and provide equipment and supplies for such field trip or excursion.

(c) Transport by use of district equipment, contract to provide transportation, or arrange transportation by the use of other equipment, of pupils, instructors, supervisors or other personnel to and from places in the state, any other state, the District of Columbia, or a foreign country where such excursions and field trips are being conducted: provided that, when district equipment is used, the governing board shall secure liability insurance, and if travel is to and from a foreign country, such liability insurance shall be secured from a carrier licensed to transact insurance business in such foreign country.

(d) Provide supervision of pupils involved in field trips or excursions by certificated employees of the district."

§48930--48932

STUDENT BODY ASSOCIATION

Any group of students may organize a student body association, with the approval and subject to the control of the school governing board, to conduct activities on behalf of students approved by school authorities.

Any such organization may be granted the use of school premises without charge and may be authorized to sell food on school premises and maintain activities, including fund-raising activities, as may be approved by the governing board.

§48933 -- 48934; 48936

The funds of any public school student body organization shall, subject to governing board approval, be deposited or invested in any of the following ways: deposits in F.D.I.C. - insured banks; investment certificates or withdrawable shares in state-chartered savings and loan associations and savings accounts of federal savings and loan associations provided they do business in the state and are federally insured; purchase of U.S. savings bonds, and shares issued by any legally organized credit union in the state.

In addition, such funds may be loaned, with or without interest, to any student body organization in another school of the district for a period not to exceed three years or be invested in permanent improvements to any school district property used for conducting extra-curricular activities or when such improvements benefit the student body. Such an investment shall be made on condition that the principal of the investment plus interest be returned to the organization. Any district approving such an investment shall establish a special fund in which moneys derived from the rental of school property to student organizations shall be deposited and from which moneys shall be returned to investing organizations, as provided above, to the extent that there are moneys in such special fund.

Two or more student body organizations of the same district may join together in making such investments.

Funds shall be expended as established by the student body organization subject to the approval of each of the following persons which shall be obtained each time before any such funds may be expended: a district employee designated by the governing board; the employee designated adviser of the particular organization; and a representative of the student organization.

The funds of a student body organization for kindergarten and grades 1 to 6 may be used to finance activities for noninstructional periods or to enrich programs provided by the district.

§49020

ATHLETIC PROGRAM

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

It is the intent of the Legislature that opportunities for participation in athletic programs among public high schools be provided on as equal a basis as practicable to male and female students. Additional sources of revenue should be determined to provide for these equal opportunity programs.

§49021 -- 49023

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

It is the intent of the Legislature that opportunities for participation in athletics be provided on an equitable basis to all students and that females be given the same opportunity to compete with other females as is available to males who compete with other males.

Insofar as practicable, in apportioning funds, school governing boards shall ensure that equitable amounts will be allocated for all students, except that allowances may be made for differences in the costs of various athletic programs.

No public funds shall be used in connection with athletic programs which do not provide facilities and opportunities (including, but not limited to, equipment and supplies, scheduling of games and practice time, compensation for coaches, travel arrangements, per diem, locker rooms, and medical services) by both sexes on an equitable basis.

VOTER REGISTRATION

The last two full weeks in April and the last two full weeks in September shall be known as "high school voter weeks" during which deputy registrars of voters shall be allowed to register students and school personnel on any high school campus in areas designated by the school administration.

Regulations

670-3.6

Activity programs planned by pupils and teachers shall be designed to challenge and interest students to develop their potential and provide opportunities for physical, civic and social activities. Such programs shall be "closely integrated with the instructional program in each grade." Interscholastic competitive activities shall not be sanctioned in grades K-6.

670-9.14; 16; 17

Organizations registered and recognized by the State Board shall prescribe and implement eligibility requirements for students competing in interscholastic competitions and interscholastic athletics. A student or parent aggrieved by these eligibility rules may request a hearing with the executive board of the organization. Their decision may be appealed to the State Board.

STATUTES

§72-130 -- 72-132

A statewide high school activities association which regulates, supervises, promotes or develops student activities and is composed of more than one-half the high schools in the state must be recognized to do business by the state. Failure to comply with this provision may result in a forfeiture and liquidation of the affairs of the association.

It shall be unlawful for a high school to "authorize or approve" payment to any private fund not so recognized.

§72-134

Any student aggrieved by any ruling of a high school association may appeal. The association secretary shall arrange a hearing before five members of the organization's board who are not on the executive board, three board of education members, and two school administrators. The appeal board shall hear and decide the appeal within ten days of the request for it. The decision shall be final.

Parish and city school boards may purchase at least one school bus for use by the athletic department of each high school in its jurisdiction.

§17:2092

SECRET ORGANIZATIONS

Any organization composed wholly or in part of public high school students (fraternity, sorority, secret society, etc.) which seeks to perpetuate itself by taking in members from the high schools on the basis of the decision of the membership of that organization, rather than the free choice of any pupil in the school, may be prohibited by a majority vote of the parish school board.

The principals of the schools "shall suspend or expel from the school under their control any person who:

1) is or remains a member of, or joins or promises to join, or pledges [himself/herself] to become a member of any organization which has been prohibited, or

2) solicits or encourages any other person to join or promise to join, or to pledge himself[herself] to become a member of any such organization.

All actions taken "shall be subject to the supervision and control of the state board of education.

§17:2093

"It is unlawful for any person enrolled in any public school in any parish in which its school board has prohibited fraternities, sororities, or secret societies, to solicit or encourage any pupil enrolled in [a] public school to join or to pledge [herself/himself] to become a member of such an organization."

Each violation of the provisions of this section shall be fined no less than twenty-five dollars and no more than two hundred and fifty dollars.

BULLETIN 741

"Each school shall have a well-balanced and effectively administered student activity program designed to stimulate student growth and development by supplementing and enriching the curricular activities which lead to promotion and graduation. . . . Each school shall provide appropriate recreational activities organized and conducted as a means of teaching the worthy use of leisure time.

In the best interests of the social, physical, emotional and intellectual well-being of the student, the number of courses and activities carried each year shall be determined on the basis of needs, interests, and capacities.

The instructional program of each school shall be characterized by well-defined instructional objectives and systematic planning by teachers.

The instructional program shall give evidence of:
a. The selection and use of varied types of learning materials and experiences. b. The adaptation of organizational and instructional procedures to student needs.
c. The use of varied evaluative instruments and procedures.

The library should be the major instructional resource center of the school. Students shall be given systematic instruction by the librarian in the proper use of library services. The library shall conform to the standards set forth in Bulletin 1134. Teachers shall make appropriate and effective use of community resources, both human and physical.

An association established to organize and conduct athletic events or contests among schools shall be the official association of the state, responsible for the adoption and enforcement of regulations relative to eligibiltiy of pupils for participation.

Female pupils shall be permitted to participate in all noncontact interscholastic athletic activities. If a school has a girls' team in a noncontact interscholastic athletic activity, a female shall be permitted to compete for a position on any other team for that activity. This shall not be construed to interfere with the selection of competing teams solely on the basis of athletic ability.

§380.1316

SECRET ORGANIZATIONS

A public school fraternity, sorority, or secret society (whose members include public school pupils and which perpetuates itself by taking in additional members on the basis of the decision of the membership rather than upon the right of the pupil to be a member) is an obstruction to education, inimical to the public welfare, and shall not be permitted.

§380.1346

A school board other than a primary board may operate or cooperate with another board, governing body or other group for the operation of a camp for recreational and instructional purposes.

The board shall determine entrance requirements and may charge a fee. The camp program shall be operated without profit: its costs shall not be included in the determination of the per capita costs of the regular school program. Private contributions may be accepted to be used exclusively for the camp program.

The camp program may be operated within or outside the district on property under the custody of the district or of other public agencies or on private property with the consent of the owner.

§380.1511

A school board may operate a system of public recreation and playgrounds, acquire recreational facilities, employ personnel, and approve funds for the system's operation. A board may cooperate with a political unit to conduct the system or delegate it to a recreation board.

§380.1521

A school board may join an organization created under §380.1289 the object of which is the promotion of sport and the adoption of rules for athletic contests.

§380.1522

A school board may establish policies regarding provisions for care for injuries to pupils sustained in athletic programs, may employ qualified personnel to provide care or pay for material benefit or insurance programs to insure protection of pupils, and may require a fee from participating pupils for the cost or a portion of it for medical care or insurance programs (although no pupil shall be barred from participation because of inability to pay).

This shall not be construed to imply liability by a school district, officer or employee.

Regulations

§2C.0301 -- 2C.0303

Purpose and Intent of the Division of Athletics:

a. To provide as broad and varied a program as possible with an opportunity for competition on an equal basis for all students;

b. To encourage administration of the program in such a manner that participants are properly examined, approved, equipped, insured, selected, classified, instructed and supervised so that the safest program possible is conducted;

c. Provide competition within the rules;

d. Provide qualified faculty leadership which is competent in the teaching of the sport;

e. To insure that undue emphasis on sports will not detract from the instructional programs of the schools;

f. To provide a basic regulatory framework within which local boards of education and other participating athletic associations may operate and administer a sound and wholesome interscholastic athletic program in the schools of the state. All schools participating in any interscholastic sports must adhere to these regulations. The responsibility of educating and guiding student atheltes about these regulations rests with the administration of each school and with the association of which the school is a member.

Responsibilities of the Division of Athletics:

1. Coordinate, administer and supervise under laws established by the State Board of Education interscholastic athletic activities in the public schools;

2. Administer state adopted laws governing athletics in the public schools;

3. Meet with school administrative and athletic officials, coaches, physical education teachers and others to explain athletic regulations and the application of these regulations to specific sports and seek compliance with these regulations;

4. Develop informational materials which clarify the scholastic, residential, age, school attendance, and other standards of eligibility for participants in athletics;

5. Advise school administrative and athletic officials on the number and frequency of games and practice sessions permitted each season, the supervision and coaching of athletic teams, the conditions for tournament participation and other specific questions arising under regulations relating to athletics in the public schools;

6. Consult with school administrative and athletic officials and participating conferences and associations in the state, to discuss the need for additional or revised athletic regulations;

7. Investigate alleged violations of athletic regulations committed by students, school personnel and determine the seriousness of the offense and issue warnings or impose penalties provided by the State Board of Education;

8. Plan and direct research projects at both the local and state levels, designed to determine the type and extent of competition desirable for students of various age levels;

9. Plan and conduct training sessions for teaching coaches, and officials of athletic conferences to encourage the development of a local sports program which provides activity for a large number of both boys and girls, which is educationally sound and suitable for the health and physical development of the students involved;

10. Initiate programs for the recruitment, training and certification of athletic officials;

11 Cooperate with non school agencies and others desiring to assist schools in promoting various types of athletic competition;

12. Collect eligibility blanks on all participants in the public schools to be certain eligibility standards are met.

1. Residence - a student is considered a resident (for athletic participation purposes) if a parent or parents reside within the administrative unit. If an eligible athlete moves from one administrative unit to another or moves from out of state, he/she is immediately eligible at the school to which he/she is assigned. A non-resident player must have attended his/her present school 75 percent of the two recent semesters and received passing grades on a "minimum load" of scholastic courses. It is prohibited by the State Board of Education to influence a student to transfer for athletic purposes.

2. Attendance Requirements - A player must have at least 60 percent attendance of the previous and present semester in any public or nonpublic school. Summer school attendance will not be counted.

3. Age Requirements - Students who reach their nineteenth birthday on or before October 15 will not be eligible to participate in athletic contests. If he/she reaches age 16 on or before October 15 he/she will not be eligible to participate in Junior High School athletic contests. If he/she reaches fifteen years old on or before October 15 he/she cannot participate in seventh or eighth grade teams.

4. Academic Requirement - Eligible students must be enrolled in at least 3 forty-five minute-a-day courses that meet 5 days a week, and receive a passing grade in at least three courses of which one course shall be either English, math, social studies, science or foreign language.

Students enrolled in educable mentally retarded classes shall be eligible for participation in athletics if he/she is making satisfactory progress and classes are in accordance with those recommended by the State Department of Public Instruction.

5. An eligible high school student can only compete on athletic teams for eight consecutive semesters of 90 days each. A student in any grade lower than grade nine cannot play on high school teams.

7. Medical Examination Requirements - Each player must receive a medical examination by a physician each calendar year to be eligible for participation in inter-scholastic athletics. Players should be covered by adequate medical and accident insurance. Medical aid should be immediately available at all contests involving bodily contact.

11. Hardship Provision - Each participating athletic group has the authority to set aside the eligibility rule upon a high school student when in its opinion the rule fails to accomplish the purpose for which it was intended or when the rule works an undue hardship upon the student. Such actions must be reported in writing to the State Superintendent's advisory committee on athletics.

(b) General Requirements

1. Each school must participate in athletics as a school unit. Students from two or more schools may not be combined into a single team, except that:

An eligible student who attends an "optional school" which does not have an athletic program can participate in athletics in a "home" school which he/she has been assigned by the board of education for athletic purposes and that the "home" school principal has all necessary instructions to certify the athlete's eligibility status.

Chapter II: III.D.

Gross receipts from student activities are to be placed in the general fund of the school district. Adequate records for student activity accounts must be kept. Each activity should be under the supervision of a sponsor and expenditures should be for worthwhile purposes proposed by the board.

Chapter II: III.J.

The North Dakota High School Activities Association is a voluntary organization open to all schools of the state which provides for a program of interscholastic activities in the field of athletics, music, or speech.

Membership is obtained by application from the school board and acknowledgement of allegiance to the Association's authority and payment of annual dues. To compete with member schools, a school is required to join the Asrociation.

The superintendent or high school principal of each member serves as a member of the representative assembly which meets annually to adopt rules and regulations governing interschool contests.

The Association is governed by a ten-man Board of Directors. The administration of programs and implementation of policies are placed in the hands of an Executive Director and two assistants, employed by the Association.

A few of the activities now carried on by the Association are: distributing rule books, activities bulletins, lists of music and speeches for occasions, and other activities-related publications; promoting tournaments and meets in athletics, music, and forensics; and programs to improve student safety in activities and the quality of officiating and cheerleading at athletic contests.

Chapter III: IX.

Each school shall maintain a balanced program of extracurricular activities designed primarily to serve educational needs. Provision shall be made for students with different talents, intellectual capacities, and interests. Participation in activities shall be open to all students. School policies may point out exceptions.

The loss of class time for interscholastic competition shall be kept to a minimum.

§1051 -- 1055

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

"It is the policy of the state of Vermont to cooperate with religious groups by adjusting the schedule of public schools to provide periodic release time for religious instruction, provided that such adjustments do not interfere with the conduct of secular educational programs in the schools."

Periodic released time shall mean "a program whereby students are released from school at least once a week to attend religious education courses sponsored by and given under the authority of a religious group."

If requested by a religious group the board of directors or trustees of a school district shall make periodic released time available provided it doesn't interfere with secular education. On the request of a religious group, information on "periodic released time religious education courses" shall be included in public school catalogs and course listings provided they are identified as given under this chapter.

No periodic released time program shall interfere with the requirements for graduation, shall not be conducted on public school property, and a teacher shall not direct a student to take or not take such courses.

"No student may take a periodic released time religious education course without first having obtained written permission from parent or guardian" releasing the school from legal responsibility and written permission from the sponsoring religious group. All costs shall be borne by sponsoring religious group.

STATUTES

§36-1232g

"No funds shall be [awarded]. . . . to any educational agency or institution which has a policy of denying, or which effectively prevents, the parents of students . . . the right to inspect and review the education records of their children." Institutions must make such records available within forty-five days. Confidential records exempt from such requisition are: parents' financial statements, letters of recommendation filed before January 1, 1975 and information regarding school admission, employment application and honorary recognition which a student has waived his/her access to "Education records" doesn't include "records of instructional, supervisory, and administrative personnel", records of "law enforcement units", or "records . . . maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist or . . . professional or paraprofessional" treating a student. Funds shall be withheld from institutions which release education records without the written consent of parents. Exceptions are: school officials, state education authorities and the Comptroller General of the U.S., organizations which are considering a student's application for financial aid, and "organizations conducting studies for . . . educational agencies or institutions for the purpose of developing . . . tests, administering student aid programs, and improving instruction", providing the identities of students and parents are not revealed.

RIGHT TO INSPECT

Information must be furnished "in compliance with judicial order . . . or any lawfully issued subpoena" as long as the parents and students are notified of requests for information concerning them.

Educational agencies must keep records of requests for access to student records. A student eighteen years of age or attending postsecondary school shall have those rights previously accorded his/her parents. Educational agencies or institutions must inform students and parents of their rights regarding access to educational records. A review board within the Department of Health, Education and Welfare shall investigate violations of these provisions.

STATUTES

§44809

A state school register shall be kept by every teacher in the public elementary schools that is to include the absence and attendance of each pupil enrolled in the classes taught.

§49062

School districts shall establish, maintain, and destroy pupil records according to regulations adopted by the State Board and establishing state policy as to what items of information shall be placed into pupil records and what information is appropriate to be compiled by individual school officers or employees in the form of informal notes remaining in the sole possession of the maker.

§49063

School districts shall notify parents of their rights regarding pupil records upon the pupil's initial enrollment and thereafter at the same time as notice is issued under §49079. Notice shall be, insofar as practicable, in the home language of the pupil and make known to parents the availability of the following specific information: the types of pupil records and the information they contain; the name and position of the official responsible for the maintenance of each type of record, the persons who have access to those records, and the purposes for which they have such access; the policies of the institution for reviewing and expunging those records; the parent's right of access to pupil records; procedures for challenging the content of pupil records; the cost, if any, of reproducing copies of records, the NOTICE categories of information which the instituion has designated as directory information (items such as student name, address, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and most recent previous school attended) and to whom such information will be released unless the parent objects; and any other relevant right and requirement.

§49064

RECORD LAG

A log shall be maintained for each pupil's record which lists all persons or organizations requesting or receiving information from the record except school personnel and the reasons therefor. It shall be open to inspection only by a parent and the school official or designee responsible for the maintenance of pupil records.

§49065

RECORD COPY

Any district may charge in an amount not to exceed the actual cost of furnishing copies of any pupil record, but no charge shall be made for up to two transcripts of former pupils' records or up to two verifications of various records of former pupils.

§49068

RECORD TRANSFER

Whenever a pupil transfers from one school district to another or from a school district to a private school or vice-versa, the pupil's permanent record or a copy of it shall be transferred along with the student. The State Board is authorized to adopt rules concerning the transfer of records.

RULEMAKING

§49069

ACCESS

Parents of pupils have an absolute right to access to all records related to their children maintained by school districts or private schools. Editing or withholding any such records is prohibited.

Each school district shall adopt procedures for granting parent requests to inspect records during regular school hours within five days following the date of the request. Procedures shall include the notification to the parent of the location of all official pupil records if not centrally located and the providing of certificated personnel to interpret records where appropriate.

§49070 -- 49071

CONTENT

The parent of a pupil may challenge the content of any pupil record by filing a written request with the superintendent to remove any information in the records alleged to be inaccurate or an unsubstantiated personal conclusion or a conclusion outside the observer's area of competence or not based on the personal observation of a named person with the time and place of the observation noted.

Within 30 days of the request, the superintendent or designee shall meet with the parent and the employee, if available, who recorded the information. The superintendent shall then sustain or deny the allegations.

If the superintendent sustains the allegations, he/she shall order the removal and destruction of the information.

APPEAL

If the superintendent denies the allegations, the parent may, within 30 days, appeal the decision to the governing board of the district.

Within 30 days of the appeal, the governing board shall, in closed session with the parent and the employee, if available, who recorded the information, determine whether to sustain or deny the allegations. The decision of the governing board shall be final.

Records of these proceedings shall be maintained in a confidential manner and destroyed one year after the decision of the governing board, unless the parent initiates legal proceedings relative to the disputed information within the prescribed period.

If the parent's allegations are denied by either the superintendent or the governing board, the parent shall have the right to submit a written statement of objections which shall become part of the pupil's record.

HEARING

To assist in making these determinations, a district superintendent or governing board may convene a hearing panel, provided that the parent has consented to release information from the pupil's records to members of the panel. The members of the panel shall be: the principal of a public school other than the school at which the record is on file, a certificated employee appointed by the chairman of the certificated employee council of the district or, if no such council exists, by the parent, a parent appointed by the superintendent or governing board convening the panel. The panel members should preferably not be acquainted with the pupil, the parent or guardian, or the employee who recorded the information (except when the parent appoints the certificated employee member). The principal on the panel shall serve as its chairman.

The panel shall, in closed session, hear testimony of the parent and of the employee and review verbatim copies of the information which is the subject of the controversy. The panel shall forward its decision to the superintendent as the governing board.

§49072

DISCIPLINARY RECORD

Whenever there is included in a pupil record information concerning any disciplinary action, the pupil's parent shall be allowed to include in the pupil record a written statement concerning the disciplinary action.

§49073 -- 49074

School districts shall adopt a policy identifying categories of directory information which may be released and who may receive such information. No information may be released to a private profitmaking entity other than employers, prospective employers, and representatives of the news media. Names and addresses of pupils in grade 12 or who have terminated enrollment prior to graduation may be provided to a private school or college, but such a private school or college shall not use the information for other than strictly academic or professional purposes: any violation is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not to exceed $2,500, and shall result in a two-year suspension of the privilege of the school or college to receive such information.

Any district, in its discretion, may limit the release of specific categories of directory information to any organization based on determination of the best interests of pupils.

No directory information shall be released regarding any pupil when a parent has requested that such information shall not be released.

However, a school district may provide statistical data from which no pupil may be identified to any public agency or private nonprofit college, university, or educational research and development organization.

§49075 -- 49078

A school district may permit access to pupil records to any person for whom the pupil's parent has executed written consent (to become part of the permanent record) specifying the records to be released and the party to whom they are to be released. The recipient must be notified that the transmission of the information to others is prohibited.

Otherwise access shall not be permitted to pupil records except that access shall be permitted to: school officials and employees with a legitimate educational interest to inspect a record; officials and employees of other public schools where the pupil intends or is directed to enroll; federal education and civil rights officials and the state and county superintendents and other state and local officials, where such information is necessary to evaluate a state or federally funded program or pursuant to a federal or state law; parents of an 18-year-old pupil who is a dependent as defined in §152 of the Internal Revenue Code; or a pupil 16 years old or having completed the 10th grade who requests such access.

School districts also may release information from education records to: appropriate persons in connection with an emergency; agencies in connection with a student's application for financial aid; accrediting associations; organizations conducting studies for educational agencies for the purpose of developing or administering predictive tests and student aid programs or improving instruction, if the personal identification of students or their parents by persons other than representatives of such agencies is not permitted and if the information is destroyed when no longer needed; or officials or employees of private schools or school systems where the pupil is enrolled or intends to enroll.

No person or agency permitted access to pupil records shall permit access to any information by any other persons or agencies without the parent's written consent. However information may be shared with other persons within an educational institution so long as such persons have an equal legitimate interest in the information.

Information shall be furnished in compliance with a court order. The parent and pupil shall be notified of such compliance if lawfully possible.

The service of a subpoena upon a public school employee to cause him to produce a pupil's school record may be complied with, in lieu of personal appearance, by submitting a copy of the record, along with an affidavit certifying that the copy is a true copy.

§51400 -- 51403

DIPLOMA

The governing board of any district maintaining an elementary school may provide for the conferring of diplomas of graduation, by examination or not, from the elementary schools. Diplomas shall be conferred only on pupils who have completed the prescribed course. Such diplomas may be on blanks furnished or approved by the State Superintendent. All diplomas shall be signed by a majority of the board members.

§51410

DIPLOMA

No diploma or other document conferred on a pupil as evidence of completion of a prescribed course of study shall bear any indication that the pupil was, for purposes of the course of study, placed within a particular classification based on intellectual or mental capacity.

However, a diploma or other such document may indicate that the pupil maintained exceptionally high grades or that the pupil completed the course with honors, and the board may publicize such information.

REGULATIONS

RECORDS CUSTODIAN

A certificated employee shall be designated by the local board as custodian of pupil records. The principal or designee shall be responsible for records at individual schools. Each district shall guarantee access to authorized persons five days following the request and assure the security of the records. The District shall notify parents of their rights to pupil records at least annually. When the parents' dominant language is not English the district shall attempt to provide interpretation or assist the parent in securing an interpreter.

NOTICE

§436

CONTENT

The parent or adult pupil may challenge the content of any pupil record according to the procedures established by Education Code Sections 10940 and 10941. Information shall be corrected or removed if it is inaccurate, or a conclusion or inference that is either unsubstantiated or beyond the observer's area of competence.

§437

No additions may be made to a pupil's record after graduation or permanent departure without the prior consent of the parent or adult pupil. Mandatory records are to be kept in perpetuity. Mandatory interim and permitted records may be disposed of when the student leaves the district or their usefulness ceases.

§438

NOTICE

Parents must be notified when the pupil record is transferred to another district or school in California. The notification shall include a statement of the parents' rights to review or receive a copy of the record. School districts shall retain a copy of mandatory school records when a student is transferred. No school can refuse to send a pupil record because of fees owed by the pupil or his/her parents.

§ 16029-16030

"The superintendent shall personally supervise the classification of records. She/he shall be responsible for, but may delegate to any person, any other duties heaving to do with retaining and/or destroying records.

The governing board shall order a reclassification of records, when necessary.

STATUTES

§4111

"Personal records of pupils in all public and private schools in this State, including but not limited to test scores, marks given according to a school grading system, psychological or medical reports, reports related to discipline, personal and anecdotal reports, and reports by guidance counselors, are deemed to be confidential and are not to be disclosed or the contents thereof released to nonschool personnel except in the following circumstances:

Any or all of the records shall be furnished upon request, to any duly authorized agency of the federal government, this State, or any county or municipal government within this State which by law or court order is entitled thereto, in the interest of the public health, safety, law enforcement or national security.

Copies of the records shall be furnished upon the signed request of the pupil involved, provided he[she] shall have then reached the age of fourteen, to any other school, college, university or institution to which the pupil involved may apply or be transferred or to any employer or prospective employer which the pupil shall designate or to any licensed physician which the pupil shall designate. The signed request shall be made on a standard form to be prescribed in accordance with rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the State Department of Public Instruction in compliance with this section. The pupil's signature shall be appropriately witnessed by an adult, and the executed form shall constitute a release and indemnification in compliance with subsection (b) of this section. The standard form shall be designed to permit a pupil to authorize in advance the release of the personal records to any and all recipients described in this subsection without naming them, when and if the pupil desires to expedite the transmittal of such information as requested.

Nothing in this section shall preclude the disclosure by authorized school personnel of the content of all or only a part of such records at appropriate intervals to a parent or legal guardian of a pupil for the purpose of keeping the pupil's parent or legal guardian informed as to the pupil's academic progress or personal health or behavior, to the extent deemed to be appropriate within the sole and absolute discretion of the school's chief administrative officer.

A minor having reached the age of 14 shall be considered an adult for the purposes prescribed by this section and his or her witnessed signature on requests prescribed in paragraph (2) of subsection (a) shall be considered valid and binding in law.

No cause of action or claim for relief, civil or criminal, shall lie or damages be recoverable against any school officer or employee by reason of his or her participation in the formulation of such records or any statements made or of judgments expressed therein concerning a pupil's academic performance, personal conduct, health, habits, school related activities or potential; nor by reason of the disclosure of the records in accordance with paragraph (1), (2) or (3) of subsection(a) of this section, before or after June 10, 1970, unless malice shall be conclusively proven."

REGULATIONS

CH. IV. §440

"Students, adult students, parents and guardians... shall have the right to inspect and review any and all official records, files, and data maintained by the D.C. Public Schools which relate directly to the particular student.

The right to inspect and review shall include the right to obtain copies of such information at a reasonable cost. Such costs may be waived by the custodian of the document when there is no signficant cost to the school system or upon a showing of inability to pay.

The right to inspect and review may be exercised at any reasonable time, subject to uniform procedures which are not unduly cumbersome.

Access to records and other information shall be obtained by making a written request to the public school official having custody or responsibility for the records. In any case, a written request to the Superintendent of Schools or the Regional Superintendent shall be deemed a request to the proper school official and such request shall be forwarded immediately for response.

All requests for access to records, files, data, or other information, . . . shall be honored as soon as possible, but in no case in more than forty-five . . . calendar days.

In the event that the records requested contain information relating directly to more than one student, the person requesting the information shall be entitled to inspect and review only that portion of the records which relate directly to them or their child. In the event that original official records cannot be screened or separated to allow access and review of only those portions to which the person requesting access is entitled, the custodian or other responsible official shall make edited copies available or inform the requesting party of that portion of the record which relates directly to them or their child.

Students, adult students, parents and guardians shall be informed annually of the rights and procedures for access to records and protection of privacy set forth in this Chapter by inclusion of such information in appropriate newsletters, handbooks, and other communications.

Persons having the right of access to official records ...shall have the right to challenge the contents of such records on the grounds of inaccuracy, misleading or incomplete information, violation of privacy or other rights, or violation of the Rules of the Board of Education. . . .

Where notice or informed consent is required by these rules and procedures, persons who are non-English speaking shall have the right to such notice or informed consent material, including consent forms, in their own language. Provision shall also be made for access to official records by non-readers and visually handicapped persons through their designated representative or other means."

CH. IV, §441

"Official Records: Those records which are open to inspection and review shall include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following: (a) A student's cumulative or permanent record file; (b) Any data collected or intended for use within the D.C. Public Schools or intended for distribution outside the school system; (c) Identifying data or information; (d) Academic work completed; (e) Grades; and scores and results from achievement tests, criterion referenced tests, standardized tests, norm referenced tests, aptitude tests, and other tests given to students; (F) Health data and accident reports; (G) Observations and ratings by teachers, counselors, and other D.C. Public School personnel; (h) Reports of behavior or discipline problems or incidents.... Where the right to access and review of official records is exercised by an adult student or self-supporting student, such right shall not include access to those portions of the official records which pertain solely to the parent or guardian of the student, including financial information, unless the student first obtains the consent of the parent or guardian."

CH. IV, §442

"Only those persons with access to records or their duly authorized representative shall have the right to challenge the contents of such records.

An initial challenge to the contents of official records shall be in writing and shall be directed to the school official having custody or responsibility for such records or to the Regional Superintendent or Superintendent of Schools.

The official custodian of the records shall review the challenge, discuss the records involved with the challenging party or representative, and make an administrative decision whether or not to change the records.

Any decision of the custodian not to alter, modify, or supplement the challenged records, in whole or in part, shall be in writing and shall state the reasons therefor. A copy of such decision shall be provided to the challenging party and placed in the official record.

A challenging party who is not satisfied with the administrative decision . . . shall be entitled to request and receive a hearing.

A hearing held pursuant to this section shall be before a superior officer to the custodian of the records who has made the administrative decision being appealed, an independent hearing officer, or other person designated to hear such appeals by the Superintendent of Schools.

The findings and conclusions of the hearing shall be in writing, communicated to all parties, and placed in the official record. Such findings and conclusions shall be the final administrative decision in such matters.

It shall be the responsibility of the custodian of the official records to implement the final administrative decision."

Ch. IV, § 443.1 – 443.9

CONSENT TO RELEASE

"Personally identifiable records and records which contain personal information shall not be released by the school system. . .without the prior written informed consent of the student or student's parent or guardian." These records may be released without the required consent:

(1) to other school officials having a legitimate educational interest in such records; (2) officials of other school systems in which the student seeks to enroll provided the student, parent or guardian is notified prior to the transfer of the records; (3) to authorized representatives of the Comptroller General of HEW or other educational agencies when necessary for the audit and evaluation of federally funded programs provided the information released does not include personally identifying information (names, social security number, etc.); (4) where specifically authorized by federal law; (5) pursuant to a judicial order or lawful subpoena; (6) in connection with an application for financial aid; or (7) when necessary to protect the health and safety of the student in an emergency.

Ch. IV, § 443.10 – 443.11

"Directory information may be released without consent unless an adult student, self-supporting student, or minor student's parent or guardian has informed the school system within thirty (30) days of the issuance of public notice of the categories of directory, information that such information may not be released with regard to the student without prior consent of the adult student, self-supporting student, or student's parent or guardian.

Directory information shall include the following: (a) Student's name and address; (b) Student's date and place of birth; (c) Student's participation in officially recognized school activities and sports; (d) Weight and height of members of athletic teams; (e) Dates of attendance; (f) Diplomas and awards received; [and] (g) Name(s) of the school being attended by the student and names of school(s) previously attended."

CH. IV, §444

"When written consent for release of official records is required by these Rules, such consent shall include all of the following: (a) The signature of the person authorizing the release of the records and the date; (B) If the release is signed by an adult student, a signed statement certifying that the student has reached the age of eighteen...years; (c) If the release is signed by the parent of a minor student, a signed statement certifying that the student has not reached eighteen...years of age; (d) Specific identification of the records to be released;

(e) The reason(s) for the release of the records; (f) The name(s) of the party or parties to whom the records may be released; (g) The name of the D.C. Public School official who is responsible for the release of the records.

A copy of the official records to be released shall be made available to the student, parent, or guardian, upon request, prior to their signing the consent form. All consent forms shall clearly and prominently state the right to inspect and review the records and the right to challenge the contents of such records.

Where records are released pursuant to judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena, the student or student's parent or guardian, . . . , shall be notified of the release of the records by the school official releasing the records. A copy of the order or subpoena shall be retained in the file from which the official records are released.

When records are requested [by other school systems, the federal government or in the case of an emergency] the custodian of the records or other responsible school official shall obtain a signed and dated request form prior to the release of the records which shall contain the following: (a) The name, title, and agency or office of the person requesting the release of the records; [and] (b) The specific reasons and justifications for the request. . . .

The request form for release of [official] records...shall be retained in the file from which the official records are requested, whether or not the information is released, and shall contain the name of the custodian or other responsible official who made the determination to release or deny the release of the records.

Request forms for release of records shall be available for inspection and review as part of the official record....

All official records released to third parties pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter shall only be released upon the condition that such third party not permit access to such records by any other person(s) without first obtaining the written consent of the student, or student's parent or guardian. All records released to third parties shall contain a written statement informing the recipient of this condition of release. This provision shall not apply to any records which do not personally identify any student."

Statutes

§ 229.782

This statute has been enacted to protect the rights of parents and students with respect to student records and to give them the right of access and right of privacy with respect to such records. Records and reports include all official records, files, and data related to pupils and maintained by the public schools.

Parents or guardians of any school child shall have the right of access to all reports and records and the right to challenge any report. If amicable agreement cannot be reached on this matter, a hearing shall be held on the challenge.

ACCESS

Every student has a right of privacy with respect to the educational records concerning her/him. Reports or records may be released to school officials, including teachers who have legitimate educational interests in the information.

§232.23

Principals shall keep a "permanent cumulative record" for every pupil which shall be open to inspection by the school board, the superintendent, the school's professional staff, parents or guardians and persons they authorize and "a court of competent jurisdiction."

The state board shall prescribe rules for the transfer of records.

Regulations

6A - 1.955

Records are kept to facilitate the instruction, guidance and educational progress of students. Education records are those records, files, documents, and other materials which contain information directly related to a student, such records being accessible to all professional personnel. The two categories of information or records are permanent information which shall be kept indefinitely and temporary information which is subject to change. Upon request for transfer of records, the parents or guardian of the student or the student if he or she is above 18, shall be notified that they may be reviewed. Any request of transfer made by parent or school shall be made immediately. Each school district shall establish procedures which implement the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 which assures the privacy rights of parents and students.

F. STUDENT RECORDS

REGULATIONS

40-4311; 4313; 4320

"Student educational records" are defined as "any materials which contain information relating directly to a student . . . maintained by an educational agency or institution in any medium." Student records are classified as either "directory information" or "academic records." The latter includes records of academic performance and test, evaluation and attendance records.

"The State Board directs that records of individual students of state operated schools be maintained as follows:

1. Records shall be kept in a safe place or file . . .

2. Records of individual students shall be compiled by school principals . . . and the staff . . . contents . . . be made available on a need-to-know basis . . . .

3. Entries . . . shall be based on objective . . . data or observation of performance.

4. The student's academic record shall be maintained for at least 70 years."

CONFIDENTIALITY

Student records are confidential and access is restricted to "those with a right to the information in the normal operations of the school," which includes school officials and teachers having "legitimate educational interest."

ACCESS

The parent or guardian of any student has full access to records and may "challenge any derogatory or negative part of the record." Release of information in student files is regulated as follows.

1. The parent or guardian of any student or a student who is 18 years old, has access to the complete record.

2. If a school makes directory information available to the public, it must give public notice of which categories of information will be published.

3. "State operated schools shall not permit access to or the release of educational records . . . other than directory information, without the written consent of parents to any part other than the following."

a. School officials and teachers in the school who "have legitimate educational interests".

b. Officials of a school in which a student wishes to enroll, provided "the student's parent be notified of the transfer" and be allowed to challenge the record's content.

c. "Authorized state and local officials."

d. "Organizations conducting studies" to improve instruction, as long as persons outside such organizations will not be able to identify students and information is destroyed after it is used.

e. Parents of dependent students.

f. "In compliance with judicial order or any lawfully issued subpoena," if parents and students receive prior notice.

g. "Appropriate person in connection with an emergency if . . . necessary to protect the health and safety of a student or other persons."

4. State schools must keep a record with the student's other records indicating "all parties which have requested or obtained access" to the student's file.

5. The school must annually notify parents and students 18 or over the types of student records "maintained by the school, . . . the official "who keeps records, persons who have access to . . . records, and all policies . . . with regard to the release of student records." State operated schools are required to "provide parents or eligible students . . . a hearing for the purpose of challenging the contents of student's records . . . . A school may attempt to settle a dispute . . . through informal meetings . . . with the parent or eligible student." Hearings must be conducted by an interested party and parents or students must be allowed to present relevant evidence.

NOTICE

The Office of Instructional Services and the Office of Adult and Vocational Education shall report to the State Board annually on "the performance by state operated schools in maintaining student academic records."

Rule 50.4

a. Parents shall have the right to inspect, challenge or obtain copies of their children's education records, to allow others to inspect them, and to grant permission for their release. ACCESS

b. The rights of parents, in 50.4a, shall be transferred to students attaining the age of 18.

c. Students under 18 years of age shall have the right to receive all educational data pertinent to facilitating instruction, guidance and counseling.

Rules 50.1; 50.2

It is imperative that there be recognition both of the school's legitimate needs for relevant data about students for the students' benefit and of the rights of students and their families to privacy. "The protection of the educational rights and privacy of students and parents in conformance with Federal laws" is to be insured.

PRIVACY

Rules 50.5-50.14

This rule shall apply to the education records of all students who are or have been enrolled in Hawaii's public schools.

In regard to education records, a student of 18 or over or a student's parents shall have the right to obtain a list of them, to inspect them, to secure copies of them (at the cost of reproduction, except in cases of financial hardship), to receive an explanation of them, to challenge their contents at a hearing, and to obtain information regarding the student in question in files containing data on more than one person.

ACCESS

CORRECTNESS

Annually, the Department shall inform students of 18 or over or students' parents of kinds of records maintained, of the names and positions of officials responsibile for the several kinds of records, of rules governing review and expunging of records, of procedures for challenging their contents, and of rights under this rule. This notice shall be in the language of the student or parents.

The Department may destroy or expunge any records when they no longer are appropriate or required.

Records shall be made available to students of 18 or over or parents within a reasonable period after the request.

A student of 18 or over or a parent may request

a. a meeting with school personnel to review the student's education records;

b. the right to file a written explanation on points in question should the school disagree on expunging or changing the contents;

c. a hearing to challenge, correct or delete data considered inaccurate or inappropriate.

HEARING

After receiving a request, the District Superintendent shall schedule a hearing, to be conducted by himself/herself or his/her designee. A decision shall be rendered in writing.

a. The Department shall not make accessible nor release any education records on personally identifiable information without the written consent of the student of 18 or over or the student's parents. Exceptions to this are:

1. Department officials with a legitimate educational interest in such records.

2. Officials of other schools where the student intends to matriculate (provided that the student or parent has prior notification of a request for such information);

3. Authorized representatives (including contractors) of the Comptroller General of the U.S. and of the U.S. Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

4. Department staff (including contractors) who must have access to records for audit and evaluation purposes or for the enforcement of certain federal regulations.

5. Educational agencies or institutions for the purpose of developing predictive tests (if the personal identity of students is protected).

6. Accrediting organizations.

7. Appropriate persons in the case of an emergency if knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of a student or other person.

8. Those authorized by State statute prior to November 19, 1974, effective date of the Federal Privacy Rights of Parents and Students Act.

9. Parents of a dependent student of such parents, as defined in Sec. 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

10. Appropriate authorities in compliance with judicial order or subpoena.

b. Written consent shall contain the signature of the authorizer, the date and the kinds of records to be released.

With each student's records shall be kept a log of all requesting such data.

The State Board shall promulgate regulations "to govern the contents of student records" and access to and dissemination thereof. RULEMAKING

Generally, each school shall appoint a records custodian, who "shall take all reasonable measures to prevent unauthorized access to or dissemination of school student records." Parents, their representatives, and students may inspect and copy student records, which shall not include "confidential letters and statements of recommendation."

"Parents have the right to challenge the accuracy, relevance or propriety of any entry . . . exclusive of academic grades . . . ." Injunctive relief, and, in the event of "wilfull or negligent violation," damages may be sought by a person aggrieved by violation of this law.

Rules and Regulations to Govern School Student Records
3.04

Such notification shall consist of:

The types of information contained in the permanent and temporary records;

The right to inspect and copy permanent and temporary records and the cost of copying such records;

The right to control access and release of school student records and the right to request a copy of information released; ACCESS

The rights and procedures for challenging the contents of the school student record;

The persons, agencies or organizations having access to student records without parental consent;

The right to copy any school student record or information contained therein proposed to be destroyed or deleted and the school's schedule for reviewing and destroying such information;

The categories of information the school has designated as "directory information" and the right of the parents to prohibit the release of such information;

A statement informing the parents that no person may condition the granting or withholding of any right, privilege or benefits or make as a condition of employment, credit or insurance the securing by any individual of any information from a student's temporary record which such individual may obtain through the exercise of any right secured under the Act or these regulations.

The right of the parents to inspect and challenge the information contained in a school student record prior to transfer of the record to another school district, in the event of the transfer of the student to that district; and,

Any policies of the school relating to school student records which are not included in the Act or these regulations.

3.01, 3.02, 3.03

The school shall notify all attending students and their parents of their respective rights under the School Records Act. Such notification shall be in English and the recipient's native language if English is not spoken; and delivered by any means likely to reach the parents.

NOTICE

3.05

The principal of each school or the person with like responsibilities or his or her designate shall take all action necessary to assure that school personnel are informed of the provisions of the Act and these regulations.

4.01

The provisions within the Act and these regulations requiring records to be separated into permanent and temporary categories shall apply only to records of students who are enrolled in the school on or after the effective date of these regulations.

4.03

Upon graduation, transfer or permanent withdrawal of a student from a school, the school shall notify the parents and the student of the destruction schedule for the student permanent record and the student temporary record and of the right to request a copy of such records at any time prior to their destruction.

4.04

Upon graduation or permanent withdrawal of a handicapped student, psychological evaluations, special education files and other information contained in the student temporary record which may be of continued assistance to the student may, after five years, be transferred to the custody of the parent or to the student if the student has succeeded to the rights of the parents. The school shall explain to the student and the parent the future usefulness of these records.

5.02

No parent or student shall be denied a requested copy of school student records due to inability to bear the cost of such copying.

6.01

Information may be released without parental consent in connection with an emergency to appropriate persons if the knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other perons, provided that the parents are notified as soon as possible of the information released, the date of the release, the person, agency, or organization receiving the information, and the purpose of the release.

6.02

Factors to be considered in determining whether records should be released pursuant to this paragraph include:

The seriousness of the threat to the health or safety of the student or other persons;

The need for such records to meet the emergency;

Whether the persons to whom such records are released are in a position to deal with the emergency;

The extent to which time is of the essence in dealing with the emergency.

6.03

The requirements and criteria for release of information pursuant to this section are to be strictly construed.

7.01

Students records are to be transferred upon request of student or authorized official to any new school in which the student has enrolled.

7.02

The school shall grant access to information contained in school student records to persons authorized or required by state or federal law to gain such access, provided that:

Such person shall provide the school with appropriate identification and a copy of the statute authorizing such access; and,

The parent receives prior written notice of the nature and substance of the information to be released and an opportunity to inspect, copy and/or challenge such information. NOTICE

7.03

The school shall grant access to, or release information from, school student records without parental consent or notification: ACCESS

To an employee or official of the school or school district or the State Board of Education, provided such employee or official or State Board of Education has a current demonstrable educational or administrative interest in the student and the records are in furtherance of such interest;

To any person for the purpose of research, statistical reporting, or planning, provided that:

Such person has the permission of the State Superintendent of Education; and,

No student or parent can be identified from the information;

Pursuant to a court order.

7.04

Any release of information other than specified in 7.01 through 7.03 of this Article requires the prior, specific, dated, written consent of the parent designating the person to whom such records may be released, the reason for the release, and the specific records to be released. At the time such consent is requested or obtained, the school shall inform the parents of the following rights:

To inspect and copy such records;

To challenge the contents of such records; and,

To limit any such consent to designated records or designated portions of information within the records.

9.01

Parents shall have the right to challenge any entry exclusive of grades in the school student records on the basis of:

accuracy;

relevance; and/or,

propriety.

9.02

The request for a hearing shall be submitted in writing to the school and shall contain notice of the specific entry or entries to be challenged and the basis of the challenge.

HEARING

9.03

Each school shall establish administrative procedures for parents to challenge the contents of student records.

11.01

The State Board of Education and the State Superintendent of Education shall collect and maintain information concerning compliance with the provisions of the Act and these rules and regulations and shall take action as specified by the Act to secure compliance in the event of violation.

11.02

Complaints arising from violations of the Act or these regulations, other than challenges of the contents of the school student records as specified in Section X of these regulations, shall be directed to the Superintendent of the Educational Service Region and then to the State Superintendent of Education.

Statutes

§18A:36-19

Public inspection of pupil records shall be provided in accordance with rules prescribed by the state board and no employee shall be liable for permitting inspection.

Regulations

§6:3-2.2

Each local school district shall have the responsibility to compile and maintain pupil records and to regulate access to and security of such records in accordance with these rules and regulations.

Pupil records shall contain only such information as is relevant to the education of the pupil, and is objectively based on the personal observations or knowledge of the originator of the record.

The local school district shall notify parents individually at least annually of their rights in regard to pupil records, and shall make copies of the applicable State and Federal laws and local policies available upon request. Such notification shall be in the language of the parent.

A nonadult pupil may assert rights of access only through his parents. However, nothing in these rules shall be construed to prohibit certified school personnel, in their discretion, from disclosing pupil records to nonadult pupils, or to appropriate persons in connection with an emergency, if such knowledge is necessary to protect the health or safety of the pupil or other persons.

ACCESS

The parent(s) shall either have access to or be specifically informed about that portion of another pupil's record that contains informations about his/her own child.

Each local school district shall establish written policies and procedures for pupil records which:

Guarantee access to persons authorized under section 6 of this subchapter in a reasonable amount of time, within ten days and not to exceed 25 days;

Assure security of the records; and Enumerate and describe the pupil records collected and maintained by the local school district.

All anecdotal information and assessment reports collected on a pupil shall be dated and signed by the individual who originated the data.

The chief school administrator shall require all pupil records of currently enrolled students to be reviewed annually by certified school personnel to determine the educational relevance of the material contained therein. The reviewer shall cause to be deleted from the records data no longer descriptive of the pupil or educational situation. Such information shall be destroyed and shall not be recorded elsewhere, nor shall a record of such deletion be made.

LIABILITY

No liability shall attach to any member, officer or employee of any local board of education permitting access or furnishing pupil records in accordance with these rules and regulations.

When the parents' dominant language is not English, the local school district shall make every effort to:

Provide interpretation of the pupil record in the dominant language of the parent; or Assist parents in securing an interpreter.

§6:3-2.3

The local school district may not compile any other pupil records, except mandated and permitted records as herein defined:

Mandated pupil records are those pupil records which the schools have been directed to compile by New Jersey statute, regulation, or authorized administrative directive. Mandated pupil records shall include the following:

Personal data which identifies each pupil enrolled in the school district. This data shall include the pupil's name, address, date of birth, name of parents and/or guardians, citizenship and sex of the pupil. The local school district is prohibited from recording the religious or political affilation of the pupil and/or parents unless requested to do so by the parent or adult student.

A record of daily attendance, and a description of pupil progress, according to the system of pupil evaluation used in the district, shall be included. Grade level or other program assignments shall also be recorded.

A history and status of physical health compiled in accordance with State regulations, including results of any physical examinations given by qualified district employees, shall be recorded.

Permitted pupil records are those which a local board of education has authorized the district to collect by resolution adopted at a regular public meeting to promote the educational welfare of the student. The local board of education shall report annually at a public board meeting a description of the types of pupil records it has authorized certified school personnel to collect and maintain. The pupil records so authorized must also comply with these rules and regulations as to relevance and objectivity.

The chief school administrator or designee shall be responsible for the security of pupil records maintained in the local school district and shall device procedures for assuring that access to such records is limited to authorized persons.

Records for each individual pupil shall be maintained in a central file at the school attended by the pupil, or when records are maintained in different locations, a notation in the central file as to where such other records may be found is required.

Only authorized organizations, agencies or persons as defined herein shall have access to pupil records.

The local board of education may charge a reasonable fee for reproduction, not to exceed the actual cost to the board of education of reproducing such copies.

Authorized organizations, agencies, and persons shall include only:

The parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of a pupil under the age of 18, and the pupil who has the written permission of such parent(s) or guardian(s);

Pupils at least 16 years of age who are terminating their education in the district because they will graduate secondary school at the end of the term, or no longer plan to continue their education;

The adult pupil and the pupil's parent(s) or guardian(s) who have the written permission of such pupil, except that the parents or guardians shall have access without consent of the pupil as long as the pupil is financially dependent on the parents or guardians and enrolled in the public school system;

Certified school personnel who have assigned educational responsibility for the pupil;

Accrediting organizations in order to carry out their accrediting functions;

The Commissioner of Education and members of the New Jersey Department of Education staff who have assigned responsibility which necessitates the review of such records;

Officials of other public school districts in which the student is registered or intends to enroll, except that the parent or adult pupil shall be notified of the transfer or mandated pupil records. Written consent of the parent or adult pupil is required prior to the transfer of permitted records to another school district, except where a formal sending-receiving relationship exists between the school districts.

Officers and employees of a State agency, responsible for protective services to children, engaged in investigations pursuant to statute 9:6-8.40;

Organizations, agencies, and individuals outside the school, other than those specified in this rule, upon the presentation of a court order;

Bona fide researchers who explain in writing the nature of the research project and the relevance of the records sought, and who satisfy the chief school administrator that the records will be used under strict conditions of anonymity and confidentiality. Such assurance must be recieved in writing by the chief school administrator prior to the release of information to the researcher.

All authorized organizations, agencies and persons as defined in section 5 of this subchapter shall have access to the records of a pupil, subject to the following conditions:

No pupil record shall be altered or destroyed during the time period between a request to review the record and the actual review of the record;

Authorized organizations, agencies and persons from outside the school whose access requires the consent of parent or adult pupil must submit their request to view the records, together with any required authorization, to the chief school administrator, or his/her designee;

The chief school administrator or his/her designee shall be present during the period of inspection to provide interpretation of the records where necessary and to prevent their alteration, damage or loss. In every instance of inspection of student records by persons who do not have assigned educational responsibility, an entry shall be made in the pupil record of the names of persons granted access, the reason access was granted, the time and circumstances of inspection, and the records studied;

NOTICE

Unless otherwise judicially instructed, the school district shall, prior to the disclosure of any pupil records to organizations, agencies or persons outside the school pursuant to a court order, give the parent or adult pupil at least three days' notice of the name of the requesting agency and the specific records requested.

ACCESS DENIAL

A record may be withheld from a parent or guardian of a pupil under 18, or from an adult pupil, only when the chief school administrator in consultation with the professional staff is convinced that the disclosure would create a substantial risk of harm to the pupil or to a person with whom the record is concerned. When the chief school administrator is convinced that the risk is of such high degree, he shall notify the parent, guardian or adult pupil within five days that access to the record has been denied, and that he has the right to appeal this decision to the Commissioner of Education. If an appeal should be made, the Commissioner shall designate a professional of the same discipline as the originator of the record to review the record and to recommend whether access should be granted. The Commissioner shall make a determination within 30 days of the receipt of the request. Any decision made by the Commissioner may be appealed to the State Board of Education.

§6:3-2.7

CHALLENGE

Pupil records are subject to challenge by parents and adult pupils on grounds of inaccuracy, irrelevancy, impermissive disclosure, inclusion of improper information or denial of access to organizations, agencies and persons. The parent or adult pupil may seek to:

Expunge inaccurate, irrelevant or otherwise improper information from the pupil record;

Insert additional data as well as reasonable comments as to the meaning and/or accuracy of the records;

Request an immediate stay of disclosure pending final determination of the challenge procedure as described in subsection (b) of this Section.

APPEAL

To appeal, a parent or adult pupil must notify the chief school administrator in writing of the specific issues relating to the pupil record. Within ten days of notification, the chief school administrator or designee shall meet with parent or adult student to review the issues set forth in the appeal. If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved, the parent or adult student may appeal this decision to the local board of education or Commissioner of Education within ten days. If appeal is made to the local school board, a decision shall be rendered within 20 days. The decision of the local school board may be appealed to the Commissioner,
At all stages of the appeal process, the parent shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issue. A record of the appeal proceedings and outcome shall be made a part of the student record with copies made available to the parent or adult student.

§6:3-2.8

Upon the graduation or permanent departure of a pupil from the school system, the parent or adult pupil shall be notified that a copy of the entire pupil record will be provided to them upon request.

No additions shall be made to the record after graduation or permanent departure without the prior consent of the parent or adult pupil.

Mandated pupil records shall be preserved in perpetuity by the New Jersey public school last attended.

Permitted pupil records may be preserved for a period of time to be determined by the local board of education by resolution adopted at a public meeting except that pupils upon high school graduation or permanent departure from the school district shall have the right to remove any material from the permitted record.

§6:27-1.10

PRESERVATION

Pupil records, reflecting subjects taken, marks received and credits awarded, are to be compiled and preserved.

§6:29-4.4

Each medical inspector shall record the results of examinations upon a record form recommended by the Commissioner of Education. Such form shall be kept in a permanent file and shall be the property of the board of education and shall be preserved. The individual health record shall be forwarded with other school records of pupils who transfer to another school district. If a child leaves school for any other reason, the record shall remain the property of the school.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Schools must make efforts to keep student records confidential.

INSPECTION

A student has the right to inspect his/her academic record and is entitled to an explanation of any information recorded on it.

Faculty and administrative officers of the school who have a legitimate interest in the material should be permitted to inspect a student's records.

There is no need to secure prior approval from the student for the release of transcripts and other academic material to parents or guardians, to other institutions of learning for legitimate purposes, or to research organizations making statistical studies (provided that the student's name is not revealed).

Government agents may be given: verification of date and place of birth; school or division of enrollment and class; dates of enrollment; home and local addresses and telephone numbers; name and address of parent or guardian. Such agents have no inherent legal right to access to student records.

DISCLOSURE

All other requests for disclosure of student records shall be accompanied by a release from the student.

Responses to telephone inquiries shall be limited to: whether or not the student is currently enrolled; the school or division in which he/she is or was enrolled and class; and dates of enrollment. Release of addresses or telephone numbers should be consistent with school policy governing distribution of student directories. Urgent requests, based on an apparent emergency, should be handled by the principal.

Regulations

Chapter II: III.I.

Responsibility for information about pupils should be shared by the State Department of Public Instruction and the local system. Actual collection rests with the local system. The local system should identify its information needs, develop appropriate record and report forms, and determine a time schedule for information collection.

1. The following items of pupil information are required by the Department in either unit or summary form:

a. Name of student

b. County district code

c. School organization code

d. Sex

e. Race

f. Date of birth

g. Age group of pupil for adult education

h. Residence criteria

i. Standardized tests and inventories

j. Type of pupil

k. Type of entry or re-entry

l. Grade entered

m. Type of class

n. Name of school

o. Number of (aggregate) days membership. (The sum of the days present and absent of all pupils when school is in session during a given reporting period. Only days on which pupils are under the guidance and direction of teachers should be considered as days in session. Legal school holidays and days of the N.D.E.A. convention are considered days in session.)

p. Number of (aggregate) days present. (The sum of the days present, actually attended, of all pupils where school is in session during a given reporting period.)

q. Number of (aggregate) days absent. (The sum of the days absent of all pupils when school is in session in a given reporting period.)

r. Completion of school.

s. Dropouts (pupils who leave school, for any reason except death, before graduation or completion of a program of studies and without transferring to another school.)

t. Follow-up after high school graduation or withdrawal.

u. Transportation services provided for pupil.

v. Transportation at whose expense?

w. Services in lieu of transportation?

x. Tuition status.

y. Participation in a federal program.

Individual cumulative records for each pupil should contain all data of relatively permanent value and should be placed in the permanent files of the school.

The school attendance register shall be kept.

Schools must make decisions concerning confidentiality. Information determined to be of a confidential nature shall be filed separately and maintained as privileged information.

2. Items which should be obtained at the time of each pupil's original enrollment include, under No. 1, above, items a-g and items u-y.

3. Items which should be updated concerning each pupil at the beginning of each term include, under No. 1, above, items h-k-n and u-y

4. Items which must be continuously updated include, under No. 1, above, items h-j and m-y

5. For further suggestions regarding the collection of pupil information, reference should be made to the Pupil Accounting Manual of the State Department of Public Instruction.

STATUTES

§3319.321

A) No person shall release, or permit access to the names or other identifiable information of pupils in a public school to anyone for use in a profit-making plan or activity.

ACCESS

B) No person shall release or permit access to such information other than directory information for purposes other than contained in division (C) of this section, without the written consent of the parent or guardian of a child under eighteen years of age, or the child's consent if he/she is over eighteen.

CONFIDENTIALITY

1) "Directory information" includes the pupil's name, address, phone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in recognized activities or sports and the weight and height of such participants, dates of attendance, date of graduation and awards received.

2) Other than directory information, pupil information included in this section shall only be transferred to a third party on the condition that such information will not be transferred to any other party without written consent of the pupil or his(her) parent or guardian if the pupil is under eighteen.

3) Any parent may give the required written consent. If the parents are separated or divorced, either parent may give permission, subject to any agreement between them or court orders. When an institution is the legal guardian, an independent person having no conflict of interest shall be assigned to give consent.

C) This section shall not limit the administrative use of public school records by board of education employees, the state or its political subdividisions, any court, the federal government, nor shall it restrict the transfer of records from one educational institution to another for legitimate educational purposes.

D) The board of education may require a fee to cover reproduction costs, not to exceed actual costs, from any person seeking a copy of public school records.

§332.470

The Superintendent of Public Instruction determines which records are permanent, which are to be created and maintained by all school districts, and which are of temporary value and when they should be destroyed. Records shall be kept by the district school board as to the destruction of records.

§332.790

Any student successfully completing an educational program at the elementary or secondary level at a state institution "shall receive a diploma . . .[from] the school district in which he[she] last resided prior to commitment to the state institution." This section does not apply to students attending state schools for the deaf or blind. The records of the student shall be sent to the district issuing the diploma. Transcripts can be made available on request but shall contain no information that "any of the educational program was completed in any state institution."

§336.185

"Student records" are all records on a student maintained by any school.

"Student behavioral records" include "psychological tests, personality evaluations, records of conversations and any written transcript of incidents relating specifically to student behavior."

"Student progress records" includes "transcripts of grades and courses taken, attendance records, achievement test and health records."

CONFIDENTIALITY

§336.195

All student records are confidential and are open for inspection only as provided herein, and in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board.

The rules shall provide for student records to be open for inspection by requesting parents or legal guardians; however, behavioral records can only be released when there is a qualified individual to interpret or explain.

ACCESS

Student behavioral records may only be released for use in civil or criminal proceedings by the superintendent or his/her representative or with the consent of the student (in case of a minor, consent of a parent or guardian is required). Release shall be made only when there is a qualified individual to interpret or explain.

"Student progress records shall be available to all teaching staff, to parents or legal guardians, and upon request, to other agencies having a demonstrated interest in the student."

§336.205

Students records under this chapter are not public records for purposes of the chapter relating to public disclosure.

§336.215

When notice is received that a student is enrolling in another school or educational institution, the student progress records can be transferred.

This applies to a private school's transfer of progress records to other schools or institutions.

§346.049

Student records maintained at facilities for the training of the deaf or blind shall not be subject to inspection except upon permission given by the superintendent of public instruction, within his/her discretion and for good cause, or upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction. These shall then be forwarded to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

§13-1353

The cost and expense of making a proper enumeration of the children of each school district shall be paid out of district funds.

§14-1409

Records shall be confidential and their contents divulged "only when necessary for the health of the child or at the request of the parent or guardian to a physician . . . ." CONFIDENTIALITY

A child who has transferred from outside the district shall have his/her records sent from the prior school district. After a child transfers or leaves a school, his/her school records shall not be destroyed for at least two years. These records may be turned over to the parents if the child does not enroll in another Pennsylvania school.

§15-1532

In 2nd, 3rd and 4th class districts, teachers shall keep records of each pupil's work and progress. In the last monthly report of the term teachers shall include the grade of proficiency of each pupil, his/her standing in each branch of the study, his/her conduct and recommendation for his/her promotion or retention. Until these records or reports are examined and approved by the district superintendent or the secretary of the board of school directors, no teacher shall be paid for the last month of the term.

§15-1533

The district superintendent or secretary of the board of school directors shall on or before the opening day of school furnish to each teacher or principal a copy of the standing of each pupil and the recommendation made by the principal or teacher at the close of the preceding term.

REGULATIONS

§12.31 -- 12.33

Each board of school directors shall adopt a plan for the collection, maintenance and dissemination of pupil records and submit them to the Department once every three years.

The plan for pupil records shall conform to the Guidelines for the Collection, Maintenance and Dissemination of Pupil Records except that a school district may modify the guidelines, with the approval of the Secretary of Education, to conform with local policy.

The partial text of the Guidelines for the Collection, Maintenance, and Dissemination of Pupil Records are listed below:

"Collection of data.

1.0. We begin, and urge school authorities to begin from the fundamental principle that no information should be collected from students without the prior informed consent of the child and his[her] parents.

CONSENT

1.1. Such consent may be given either individually or through the parents' legally elected or appointed representatives (for example the Board of Education) depending on the nature of the information to be collected.

1.2. With respect to conditions under which individual as opposed to representational consent should be required, we acknowledge, first, that it will not always be possible to obtain the separate consent of every parent for every data gathering process, and that the approval of such processes by appropriately elected representatives (whether a legislature, a school board or other body) will in some situations adequately satisfy the principle of consent. We do not believe that it would be appropriate to endorse rigid formulae for the identification of situations in which representational consent will be sufficient; it is enough for present purposes to emphasize two contrasting benchmarks:

1.2.1. On one hand, we have concluded that representational consent will, for example, ordinarly be sufficient in situations involving aptitude and achievement testing (whether standardized or informal) and reporting of skill and knowledge outcomes in the subject-matter areas now within the customary curricula of the public schools.

1.2.2. On the other hand, we believe that programs of personality testing and assessment, for example, should proceed only with the informed individual consent "of each child and/or his[her] parents. (See 1.5 and 4.6) The test or assessment itself should not be shown to the child or his[her] parents, although representative questions not included in the scoring or evaluation may be shown.

7f. Policy and Regulations Regarding the Release of Information Pursuant to the Administration of Tests under the Statewide Testing Program (BR, 5/4/72)

"Whereas the Board of Regents of the State of Rhode Island recognizes the right of the public to know certain information concerning the results of tests administered by the state Department of Education and that release of such information is in the public interest . . . , the following statement of policy is issued for implementation by the Commissioner of Education:

1. The Commissioner of the Rhode Island Department of Education or his staff, hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Department of Education" shall not release publicly any information regarding any individual student pursuant to results or evaluation of tests administered under the statewide testing program. Such information shall be considered confidential as in the past and may be released in the manner prescribed by local or regional school districts, private and parochial schools and their duly constituted administrators for the protection of individual privacy.

2. Effective this date, collective information with regard to test scores pursuant to the statewide testing program shall be made available to the general public of Rhode Island in a manner and process to be determined through the recommendations of a panel to be convened to deliberate the manner and process for the release of such test scores; such panel to be named by the Commissioner of Education.

3. The Commissioner shall make final recommendations to the Board of Regents for approval with regard to the process and manner of test results release at the regular meeting of the Board following the report of the panel."

officer or member of the parole board seeking information in the course of his/her duties shall have access to the records of a pupil.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction or the division superintendent where the pupil attends, has attended or intends to enroll, shall have access to the pupil's records.

Any officer or employee of an agency for protective services to children who is investigating a pupil shall have access to the pupil's records.

School personnel may give information about a pupil's participation in athletics and other school activities or winning awards.

A superintendent may provide information about a pupil to a college, university, or educational research and development organization study if no pupil will be identified by name.

The name, address, attendance record, scholastic record, place and date of birth of a pupil, the names of schools attended by a pupil, and the names of a pupil's parents or guardian may be given to an officer or employee of the United States who seeks the information because the pupil is a veteran of military service with the United States or an orphan or dependent of a veteran or an alien.

A principal may provide the names and addresses of pupils presently enrolled or who have terminated their enrollment to any officer or employee of a public or private school, college, or university or any official of a private business or professional school or college so long as the information is used for purposes directly related to the academic or professional goals of the institution. Any institution which misuses the lists shall have its use of the lists suspended for two years.

A pupil's records shall be given to a new school division when the pupil is transferring there, and the school division requests the records. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may make regulations governing transfer of records from one school division to another.

Pupil Accounting Records Generally, §I-II

Teachers are required to keep a register for pupil accounting in the instructional program, for school administration, and for the distribution of major state school funds. Registers should be checked by the teacher, with emphasis on aggregate days attendance, and membership for each pupil. Local school boards shall adopt rules and regulations for periodic checks of teachers' registers, at least three times a year, including a final check of each register at the end of the school term.

A pupil shall only be counted when present for roll call.

Students absent because of non-school sponsored trips or events shall be recorded absent.

Registers are not to be closed before the last day of the school term.

Pupils may not be counted present if the school bus never reaches the school. If schools are closed early students are counted present.

Excused full day absences must not be counted as "present" under any condition.

When transferring from public schools a student shall present to the school in which he/she is seeking entry a certificate certifying that such pupil has been removed from the rolls of the school from which such pupil is transferring.

If a school board has been authorized to substitute a centralized pupil accounting system in lieu of using teacher's registers, the above definitions and/or institutions are applicable to the central system.

Retention Schedule For Uniform Pupil Accounting Records

An accurate and complete cumulative record on achievement and attendance shall be maintained for every child enrolled in the public schools (elementary and secondary).

WYOMING

REGULATIONS

Chap. III, Sec. 1

ACCESS

The custodian shall respond to an individual's right to access to and copies of any records considered public.

Chap. III, Sec. 2

All access to confidential records shall be logged. No letters of recommendation prior to January 1, 1975, are open to review.

The custodian of student records shall honor the parent's, guardians', surrogate parents', or eligible student's right to inspect educational records upon written consent of those designated above.

Personnel records shall be available to the person of interest and of officials who supervise an employee's work. Responses to inquires concerning past and present employees shall be limited to employment responsibilities. The gross annual salary of any employee may be given, but only in a manner that affirms or denies the salary information in the possession of the requester.

Certification and placement records shall be available to the person in interest and to others upon written consent of the person in interest.

Chap. III, Sec. 3

CORRECTION OF RECORDS

The interested person has the right to bring to the attention of the custodian allezed, erroneous or misleading information contained in his/her record. Correction or amendment may be by physical attention of the record or by inclusion of the individual's version of the disputed data. If the custodian refuses to amend the record, the custodian shall explain this decision in writing and procedures for review of that refusal.

Chap. III, Sec. 4

APPEAL

A person's right to appeal shall permit the person in interest to request a review by the State Superintendent of a custodian's refusal. If then the record is refused amendment, the person in interest will be notified of procedure for judicial review.

Chap. III, Sec. 5

ACCESS

The custodian reserves the right to apply to the district court for an order permitting him/her to restrict access to a record.

Chapter XII; Appendix C: Sec. 9-692.2

PUBLIC INSPECTION

All public records shall be open for public inspection, except as provided in this act. The offical custodian of records may, however, make regulations regarding inspection necessary for the protection of records and the prevention of unnecessary interference with the discharge of the custodian's duties. Any person desiring to inspect public records shall be quickly informed if the records requested are not in the possession of the person to whom application is made or are not available because they are in active use or in storage.

Chapter XII; Appendix C: Sec. 9-692.3

Inspection may be denied if inspection would be contrary to state or federal statute. Inspection may be denied to the following records unless otherwise provided by law:

records of investigations, intelligence information, or security procedures; test questions, scoring keys, and data pertaining to licensing, employment, or academic examinations; specific details of bona fide research projects;

contents of real estate appraisals related to the acquisition of property for public use until title has passed to the state or political subdivision (except that such contents shall be available to the owner of the property at any time);

inter- or intraagency correspondence (to a private party in litigation with the agency); medical, psychological, and sociological data on individual persons; personnel files (except to supervisors, and with exception that applications, performance ratings and scholastic achievement data shall be available to the person in interest and to supervisors);

letters of reference;

school district records containing information relating to the biography, family, physiology, religion, academic achievement and physical or mental ability of any student except to the person in interest or to officials duly elected and appointed to supervise him.

An applicant denied access to records may request a written statement of grounds for the denial or may apply to the district court for an order directing the custodian to show cause why he/she should not permit inspection.

A custodian may apply to the district court for an order permitting him to restrict disclosure of records generally subject to inspection if disclosure would damage the public interest. After a hearing, the court may issue such an order. The person seeking permission to examine the record shall have notice of the hearing and the right to appear and be heard.

Chapter XII, Appendix C: Sec. 9-692.4

In all cases in which a person has the right to inspect public records he may request that he/she be furnished copies for a reasonable fee.

Chapter XII; Appendix C: Sec. 9-692.5

Willful violation of this act shall constitute a misdemeanor, punishable, upon conviction, by a fine not to exceed $100.00.

Chapter XV: Sec. 1

RIGHT TO AMEND

A parent who believes that data maintained by a participating agency is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the privacy or other rights of the child may request the agency to amend the data.

Chapter XV: Sec. 2

HEARING

If the agency refuses, it shall inform the parent and advise the parent of the right to a hearing, conducted in accordance with the Wyoming Administrative Procedures Act and chaired by a person without a direct interest in the outcome.

Chapter XV: Sec. 3

HEARING

As a result of the hearing, the agency may decide to amend the data. If it decides not to, the agency shall inform the parent of the right to place in the records a statement commenting on the data and setting forth any reasons for disagreeing with the agency's decision. Such a statement shall be maintained with the contested data so long as the data is kept and shall accompany the data whenever it is disclosed.

Chapter XVI: Sec. 1

Written parental consent is required before data are:

disclosed to anyone other than officials of participating agencies for purposes delineated in Chapter XIII, Sec. 2; or used for any purpose other than those stated in Chapter XIII, Section 2; or sought directly from the child by formal evaluation.

An educational agency subject to the Family Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 may not release data from educational records without parental consent, except as provided in that act.

Chapter XVI: Sec. 2

HEARING

If a parent refuses consent, a participating agency, with just cause, may request a hearing to obtain parental consent.

Chapter XVII: Sec. 1

Each particpating agency shall protect the confidentiality of data and provide to the Office of Exceptional Children a procedure to this end, which shall include the following:

One person in each participating agency shall be designated as responsible for assuming the confidentiality of any personally identifiable data.

Each participating agency shall be responsible for assuring that all persons employed by the agency who handle personally identifiable data receive appropriate instruction in the rights of children and parents, the confidential nature of the data, and access and dissemination procedures.

Each participating agency shall maintain, for public inspection, a current testing of those employees who have access to personally identifiable data.

Chapter XVIII: Sec. 1

DESTRUCTION OF DATA

All personally identifiable data shall be destroyed within five years after the data is no longer needed to provide educational services, except for a permanant record consisting of a student's name, address and phone number, his/her grades, attendance record, classes attended, grade level completed, and year completed.

Prior to destruction, reasonable efforts shall be made to notify parents of their right to obtain a copy of data.

Chapter XIX: Sec. 1

On reaching the age of 19, the rights of privacy accorded to parents shall pass to the child except in the case of a child who has been declared legally incompetent and for whom legal guardianship is required beyound the age of 19. In such instances, the child's legal guardian shall maintain the rights to privacy.

G. Admission And Transfer

Statutes

§80-1501--1501.2

Public schools are "open and free" to persons six to twenty-one years old who reside in a district of Arkansas. Older or younger persons may receive special permission of the school board directors to attend, under regulations established by the State Board of Education.

A parent, guardian or "other responsible person" must present a child's birth certificate for admittance purposes.

A child must be six years old "on or before October first of such school year" as he/she shall be enrolled.

§80-1517, 1518

The county board of education may, when petitioned by a resident, "transfer the children or wards of such person to a district in the same county, or to a district in an adjoining county for school purposes." A $2.00 fee must be paid to the county treasurer, credited to the general school fund, for such consideration. No county court may sbustitute its consent for a transfer for a district's Board of Directors .

§80-1518.1, 1518.2

One district may reimburse another serving "pupils who do not live within the boundaries of the servicing district." Such payment "may be used for facilities, services, supplies and equipment. The State Board of Education shall approve such contracts."

§80-1525, 1526

The legislature, for purposes of economy and improving the quality of education for the individual student, decided that an "arbitrary reallocation of pupils" based on "any rigid rule of proximity of residence" is "disruptive to orderly administration [and] tend[s] to induce disorganization and impose an excessive burden on the available resources and teaching and administrative personnel of the schools." Therefore, no local Board of Education is required to transfer student[s] without finding that such transfer is "consistent with the rest of the public and educational policy governing the admission and placement of pupils in the public school system."

§80-1527

". . . each local Board of Education shall have full and final authority and responsibility for the assignment, transfer and continuance of all pupils among and within the public schools within its jurisdiction, and may prescribe rules and regulations pertaining to those functions."

RULEMAKING

The Board may delegate its authority to the Superintendent.

Some of the factors to be considered in assigning pupils to schools are: "available room and teaching capacity . . . transportation facilities . . . the effect of admission of new pupils upon established or proposed academic programs . . . the suitability of established curricula for particular pupils . . . the adequacy of the pupil's academic preparation . . . the [pupil's] scholastic aptitude and relative intelligence or . . . ability . . . the pupil's effect upon the academic progress of other students . . . the effect upon prevailing academic standards . . . the psychological effect upon the pupil . . . the possibility of breaches of peace or ill will or economic retaliation within the community . . . the home environment of the pupil . . . relationships with other pupils and . . . teachers . . . the choice and interests of the pupil . . . and the request or consent of parents or guardians and the reasons assigned."
§80-1529

"A parent or guardian . . . may file . . . with the local Board objections to the assignment of the pupil to a particular school, or may request . . . assignment or transfer into a designated school or to another school to be designated by the Board. Unless a hearing is requested, the Board shall act . . . within 30 days." Otherwise a hearing shall be called within 30 days. The Board shall investigate objections or requests.

§80-1545 -- 1546

The parents or guardians of a child who cannot attend public school because of "special problems" may apply to their school district and/or State Department of Education for financial aid and for "gratuitous instruction." Both local and State Boards shall set rules and regulations governing application and funding procedures. Their final decisions shall be final, and not subject to appeal.

§80-1654

School district residents between the ages of five (on or before October 1 of the year enrolled in kindergarten) and twenty-one and children who are six years of age by October 1 of the year they enter first grade may enroll in their district's public schools. Residents twenty-one years and older may enroll in their district's adult education program.

§80-1655

The prohibition of persons over twenty-one attending public schools shall not pertain to vocational-technical high schools.

Acts 1975, No. 195,

". . . children of six years of age, who have not reached age seven" upon written request of a parent or guardian, may be admitted to a kindergarten program.

TUITION

VETERAN

No state-owned school shall charge any tuition, or incidental fees to: any dependent receiving assistance; any child of any veteran of the U.S. military service who has a service-connected disability, and whose annual income does not exceed $5,000, or any child of any veteran who has been killed in service or who has died in a service-connected disability.

§37104

"Any person who is eligible to attend high school and who does not reside in a high school district or in a unified school district may attend high school in any high school district or unified school district in the county in which he resides or in another county."

§46603--46604;46607

APPEAL

If the governing board of a district fails to enter into an interdistrict agreement within 30 days after a person having custody of any pupil has requested the board to do so, the person may appeal to the county board which shall determine whether the pupil should be permitted to attend in the requested district and at what tution payment. If the county board determines that the pupil should be permitted to attend in the requested district, the pupil shall be admitted without delay.

A pupil may be admitted previously to schools of a district, other than that in which he lives, for up to two months, pending decision by the governing boards or the county board.

§46611--46613

The governing board of a district with one or more elementary schools may admit to its kindergartens children eligible for admission to kindergarten classes who live in another district, whenever an agreement is entered into between the governing boards.

A governing board may admit to its schools any pupils who reside in another district during any of the first three fiscal years of existence of the district of residence, upon agreement between the governing boards.

§46617.5

A county superintendent may admit to regional occupational programs, operated by the county superintendent, pupils who reside in districts not participating in the regional program, by written agreement with the district in which the pupils reside or with a regional occupational program in the district, if one exists.

Cost of such attendance shall be reimbursed in full to the county superintendent by the pupil's district at the full foundation program level or the district's revenue limit.

§48000--48001

A child shall be admitted to a kindergarten in any term during the first school month of the term, if the child is of the age prescribed and resident in the district. At the discretion of the governing board, a child of proper age may be admitted to a class after the first school month of the term.

If there is only one term during the school year, a child shall be 4 years and 9 months of age on or before September 1st of the current school year. If there are two terms, the child shall be 4 years and 9 months by September 1st to be admitted to the first term or 4 years and 9 months by February 1 to be admitted to the second term.

A child who will be 4 years and 9 months by September 1st may be admitted to the prekindergarten summer program for pupils enrolling kindergarten in September.

The governing board may admit to a kindergarten a child having attained the age of five years at any time during the school year with the approval of the parent or guardian.

§48002--48003

The parent or guardian of a child shall, prior to the admission of the child to the kindergarten or first grade, present proof to district authorities that the child is of the minimum age, in the form of a certified copy of a birth certificate, a passport, or, when none of these is obtainable, on affidavit of the parent or guardian. However, governing boards having an average daily attendance of 60,000 or more pupils shall admit a child to a kindergarten or first grade upon presentation of such proof as shall be prescribed by the governing board of the district.

§48010

A child of the prescribed age shall be admitted to the first grade of an elementary school, during the first month of any school term and, at the discretion of the governing board, after the first school month of the term.

If there is only one term during the school year, the child shall be 5 years and 9 months on or before September 1st of the current school year. If there are two terms, the child shall be 5 years and 9 months by September 1st to be admitted to the first term or 5 years and 9 months by February 1st to be admitted to the second term.

§48011--48013

A child who has been lawfully admitted to kindergarten and completed one year in it shall be admitted to the first grade of an elementary school regardless of age. A child who has been lawfully admitted to kindergarten and is judged ready for first-grade work may be admitted to the first grade at the discretion of the school administration and with the consent of the child's parent or guardian regardless of age.

Where a child has been legally enrolled in another district in or out of state, the child may be admitted to school and placed in the grade of enrollment in the district of former attendance, at the discretion of the administration of the district entered.

No child shall be admitted to the first grade unless the child is at least five years of age.

A governing board may open day elementary schools for the admission of adults if deemed advisable.

§48020

All minors who have completed the work of the sixth grade or who are judged, by the junior high school principal and the superintendent with jurisdiction, capable of doing the required work, may be admitted to a junior high school.

§48030-48031

Any graduate of elementary school and any other person providing, to the high school principal and the superintendent with jurisdiction, evidence of fitness for high school work may attend high school in the district in which he/she resides.

A person eligible to attend high school who does not reside in a high school or unified school district may attend any high school in the county in which he/she resides or in another county.

§48040

Adult schools and evening high schools shall be open for the admission of adults and of such minors judged by the governing board to be qualified for admission.

§48050

A governing board, with the approval of the county superintendent, may admit to district schools a pupil, living in an adjoining state contiguous to the district. The governing board shall enter into an agreement with the authority of the pupil's district of residence providing for the payment of an amount sufficient to defray the total costs of educating the pupil. The district of attendance may enter into an agreement with the parent or guardian of the pupil instead of with the district of residence.

§48051--48052

Any person, otherwise eligible for school admission, whose parents are or are not U.S. citizens, where actual and legal residence is in a foreign country adjacent to this state, and who regularly returns within a 24-hour period to that country, may be admitted to a school by the governing board of the district.

TUITION

The governing board shall require the parent or guardian of such a pupil to pay to the district an amount not more than sufficient to defray the total cost of educating the pupil. Tuition payments shall be made in advance for each month or semester during the period of attendance; if the amount paid is more or less than the total cost, adjustment shall be made for the following term. The district shall not be eligible for nonimmigrant or noncitizen reimbursement for these students.

§48210-48212

EXCLUSION

Persons excluded from the public schools are: children under six years of age, except as provided; children of filthy or vicious habits, or suffering from contagious or infections diseases; and children whose physical or mental disability is such as to cause their attendance to be inimical to the welfare of other pupils.

§48413

Persons 16 years of age or older and under 18 years of age who have not been graduated from high school shall be permitted by the governing board to enroll in continuation classes conducted by the school district if such enrollment does not preclude the goals of continuation education schools.

REGULATIONS

§200

A child enrolled in kindergarten may be admitted to first grade if the child is at least five years of age; is in the upper five percent of his/her age group in general mental ability and his/her social and physical maturity is consistent with the advanced mental ability and the parents approve the placement.

Statutes

§22-1-102

The public schools shall be open, free of charge, to all residents between six and twenty-one years old. The board of education may admit nonresidents "if it sees fit to do so." A child's residency may be determined by his/her parents or guardian's residence.

§22-32-115

If the board determines that a child will gain an "educational advantage" by attending a school outside the district where she/he resides, the board may pay the child's tuition to attend such school.

"The tuition shall not exceed one hundred twenty percent of the current per pupil general fund cost in the school district of attendance during the preceding school year."

TUITION

§22-32-116

A board of education may exclude nonresident pupils from its schools, but a person who becomes a non-resident while she/he is enrolled in the twelfth grade, "shall be entitled to finish that school year as a resident. A board may waive tuition for a nonresident school-age child."

§22-33-103

"Any resident of this state" between the age of six and twenty-one is entitled to attend public school, free of charge, in the school district of which she/he is a resident. Tuition may be charged for nonresident students.

Statutes

§10-35

Any municipality which desires to discontinue furnishing educational facilities for non-resident high school students shall notify the board not less than one year prior to the time when such facilities will cease to be furnished . . . provided the board of a district in which a high school is not maintained by that district may enter into an agreement with the board of another district to provide such facilities for a period not to exceed ten years . . . .

§10-55

"No pupil from any town belonging to a regional school district shall, at the expense of such town, attend any other school in lieu of that provided by said district except a vocational school approved by the state board of education, unless his/her attendance at such other school is approved by the regional board of education."

§10-186; 187

"Each town or regional school district shall furnish, by transportation or otherwise, school accommodations" so that all children may attend public school. If any school district fails to furnish accommodations, the parent of such child may request a hearing which shall be given within ten days. The decision may be appealed to the state board of education which, if it finds that a child is illegally or unreasonably deprived of schooling, shall order the local board to make arrangements to enable the child to attend public school.

A parent or guardian or a town aggrieved by the state board's decision may appeal to the court of common pleas in their county.

§10-198

A parent who makes a false statement concerning the age of a child shall be fined not more than twenty dollars.

§10-226c

A board that receives notification of the existence of racial imbalance shall prepare a plan to correct the imbalance and file the plan with the state board of education. The plan shall include all means proposed to correct the racial imbalance. The plan may include proposed cooperation with other districts to assist in the corrective program.

§10-253

Children placed in a state-operated receiving home by the commissioner of social services shall be entitled to all free school privileges.

G. Admission and Transfer

Statutes

§201,202

The system of public schools shall be operated in an efficient manner and provided free to residents of the state between the ages of six and twenty-one years.

Public special schools and kindergartens shall be free and open to persons below the age of six years and state residents. All persons attending public schools shall take instruction in their residential districts. Those persons not residents of the state may attend state public schools under terms or conditions provided by law.

A person shall be considered a resident of the school district in which his/her parents or legal guardian reside.

§602

Transfer of pupils from one school district to another may occur after both school boards agreed to the transfer. A reorganized district receiving any pupil who is a resident of another reorganized school district shall collect a tuition charge for the nonresident pupil.

Tuition charges are to be verified by the superintendent of public transportation 20 days after they are received. No payments shall be made until this certification has been shown to be true and correct.

For each pupil attending a public school of another district as of September 30, the receiving district shall bill the sending district, and the sending district shall pay tuition charges per pupil on or before April 1 of the year in which the sending district received the bill. For those pupils attending in the receiving district for less than a full term, tuition charges shall be prorated by reference to the period of time during which such pupils actually attended the receiving district's schools, provided that attendance for part of any month shall be counted as a full month of attendance.

§603

Any reorganized school district which has an existing agreement with another reorganized school district for pupil exchange, provided the agreement has been in force and effect for at least one school year, shall be required to collect a tuition charge.

Any student who resides in the districts specified in this section may attend any school in one of the other districts provided he/she submitted an application on or before May 31, 1977 or May 1 of any subsequent year to the district in which he desires to attend and (2) said school district approves the application on or before June 13, 1977 or before June 1 of the year the application is made.

When a student has transferred to a new district pursuant to the voluntary transfer provisions, the sending district shall immediately upon request of the receiving district transfer the student's records to the receiving district.

§604

Handicapped children who attend special classes in districts other than those in which they reside or by an agency of the state Department of Public Instruction, the receiving district shall collect a tuition charge for the pupil, provided approval for attendance has been granted by the sending district.

§605

The school board of any reorganized district in which there is a children's house or institution, said children not being residents of that district, may allow those children to attend the schools in their district; the district of their residence being liable for the tuition of these pupils.

§2701

All public schools of this State shall be free to all children who are residents of this state and who are of the ages required for attendance in public school.

G. Admissions and Transfers

Statutes

§31-307

There shall be paid for each nonresident adult and each child whose parent or guardian does not reside in the District of Columbia an amount sufficient "to cover the expense of tuition and cost of textbooks and school supplies used . . ." in the public schools. Such amount shall be fixed by the Board, upon the approval of the city council. The Board may exempt from such requirement a child whose support is provided by a person residing in the District, and whose parent or guardian is unable to provide such support, or a child who is self-supporting.

§31-308

TUITION

The Board shall determine which persons attending, or desiring to attend, the public schools shall be required to pay tuition.

Regulations

CH. IV, §400

"All persons seeking admission to the schools and programs of the District of Columbia Public Schools must satisfactorily meet all residency, academic, age, immunization, tuition, and other eligibility prerequisites for the school or program to which they seek admission as set forth in the Code of Laws of the District of Columbia and the Rules of the Board of Education.

A student under eighteen . . . years of age who is otherwise eligible for admission to the D.C. Public Schools shall be admitted without payment of non-resident tuition if and only if such student qualifies for free instruction under one of the following categories:

(a) A student who is in the custody or control of a parent or court-appointed guardian (or custodian) who is a resident of the District of Columbia;

(b) A student who is a resident of the District of Columbia and who does not have a living parent or guardian;

(c) A student who is a ward of the District of Columbia;

(d) A student who is living with his or her spouse, when such spouse is eighteen . . . years of age or older and is a resident of the District of Columbia;

(e) A student attending the Capitol Page School;

(f) A student who has been granted an exemption from the requirement to pay tuition by the Board of Education pursuant to the provisions of D.C. Code.

An adult student who is a resident of the District of Columbia shall be eligible for free instruction in the schools and programs of the D.C. Public Schools for which the student meets all other criteria and prerequisites for admission. An adult student may sign all papers and take all actions on his own behalf which would be required of the parent or guardian of a minor student. For the purposes of this Chapter, the residence of an adult student is the address of the adult student, not the address of the adult student's parent or guardian.

No student shall be denied admission to the D.C. Public Schools by reason of the student's race, color, religion, national origin, citizenship status, sex, marital status, handicapping condition, or any other basis of unlawful discrimination pursuant to the laws of the District of Columbia.

A pregnant student who is otherwise eligible for admission to the D.C. Public Schools shall not be denied admission by reason of such pregnancy. However, eligibility for participation in physical education or other activities may be conditioned upon certification by a physician that the student is physically able to participate in the activity."

"Application for admission to the D.C. Public Schools shall be made by registering at the school for which the student is eligible which is located in the attendance zone within which the applicant resides.

Application for admission to the D.C. Public Schools by students who reside outside of the District of Columbia shall be made to the Regional Office of the Region in which the appropriate school is located. The school assignment of the non-resident student shall be approved by the Regional Superintendent.

Residence attendance zone restrictions shall not apply to career development centers, special education schools or programs, adult education day and evening schools, or other schools and programs which provide city-wide curricular opportunities for all qualified students regardless of their place of residence in the District of Columbia.

Where admission to a particular school or program is not based upon residence in a particular attendance zone, initial registration may be required at the appropriate attendance zone school, as required in subsection 402.1, or at another place designated by the Superintendent of Schools.

The principal or other person in charge of registration for each school or program shall be responsible for the receipt of all applications for admission, the conduct of registration procedures, and the certification that all admission requirements and prerequisites have been properly met by the student.

Prior to the admission of a student, the adult student or the student's parent or guardian shall be required to provide documentary proof of the date of birth of each registering student. . . .

Minor students must be accompanied at registration by a parent or guardian. The parent or guardian shall provide the following information for each registering student. An adult student shall not be required to provide information about the adult student's parent or guardian, but shall provide the appropriate items of information about himself:

(a) Full name of the student;

(b) Full name, home address, and work address of each parent, guardian, or other person having custody or control of the minor student for the purpose of admission;

(c) The home and work telephone numbers of each parent, guardian, or other responsible adult or, in each case, the telephone number through which each person may be contacted in case of an emergency;

(e) The name, address, and telephone number of the student's physician, clinic, or other person or agency where the student's medical records are located;

(f) The date of registration;

(g) The manner or type of admission.

The principal or other person responsible for admission and registration procedures may require the submission of evidence of D.C. residency . . . in order to determine whether the student is eligible to attend the D.C. Public School or program without payment of non-resident tuition, ...

The principal or other person responsible for admission and registration procedures shall keep a record of the removal of any student from the rolls of the school or program and any subsequent readmission of the student . . .

Except as provided otherwise in this section, the entrance-level palcement of each student shall be individually determined by the principal or other person in charge of the school or program.

Entrance-level placements for handicapped students shall be determined by referral of the student for assessment and evaluation pursuant to the provisions of section 450ff of this Chapter.

Bi-lingual and non-English speaking students shall be referred for placement determination to the Office of Bilingual Education and the appropriate placement determination shall be transmitted to the principal or other person in charge of the school or program.

Entrance-level placement determinations may be challenged under the rules and procedures set forth in section 424 of this Chapter, except for challenges to proposed placements for handicapped students which shall be made pursuant to the rules and procedures set forth in section 450ff of this Chapter."

Ch IV, § 403

"Prior to admission or readmission. . .each student shall be required to present valid written certification of current immunization against measles, rubella, poliomyelitis, tetanus, diphteria and mumps." If a student fails to meet this requirement, s/he may remain in school for a period of ten days during which time the student must obtain and present proper certification.

The Immunization provisions do not apply to any student whose parent or guardian objects on grounds of religious beliefs. Immunization may also be waived where it is deemed medically inadvisable.

CH. IV, §404

"Students who are at least three . . . years of age are eligible for admission to the pre-school program, when such programs are available in the Public Schools.

Students who are or will become four years of age on or before December 31 of the current school year are eligible for the pre-kindergarten program.

Students who are or will become five . . . years of age on or before December 31 of the current school year are eligible for admission to the kindergarten program.

Where appropriate pre-school, pre-kindergarten, or kindergarten programs are not available in the attendance zone within which a student resides, the student shall be eligible for out-of-zone admission to a school where such program is available, if any, and may apply for admission through the appropriate Regional Office. No lower priority for admission shall be applied to students who seek admission out-of-zone pursuant to this subsection.

Students who are or will become six . . . years of age on or before December 31 of the current school year are eligible for admission to the first grade.

Admission to the secondary program shall be based upon the promotion requirements set forth in section 413 of this Chapter.

Admission to special programs or city-wide schools and programs shall be based upon eligibility criteria established by the Superintendent of Schools, unless otherwise specifically set forth in this Chapter.

Admission to schools and programs for handicapped students shall be based upon the rules and procedures set forth in sections 450-459 of this Chapter.

The establishment of eligibility criteria for certain programs and age groups shall not necessarily require the Public Schools to offer such programs or serve such age groups, except where otherwise specifically required by law or the Rules of the Board of Education. The scope of the Public School's program is subject to the availability of adequate resources and the funding determinations of the Board of Education."

Ch.IV, § 406

A nonresident student, one who does not meet the qualifications for free instruction, may be admitted to D.C. schools on a space available basis. This determination shall be made by the regional superintendent. A nonresident student must meet all other admission requirements. Special consideration and priority for space shall be given to a student enrolled in the highest grade or level of a school who becomes a nonresident and a student who would have re-enrolled in the highest grade or level of a school but who has become a nonresident prior to re-enrollment. No special priority is given to children of nonresident employees of the school system.

TUITION

Ch.IV, §407

Tuition for a nonresident student shall be paid in one lump sum prior to admission. An extended payment contract may be offered due to financial problems or where nonresident is attending a D.C. school because a comparable program is not being offered in the school district of residency.

Tuition rates shall be fixed annually by the Board upon recommendation by the superintendent.

Ch.IV, §416

Students who change place of residence within the District of Columbia will be expected to transfer to the school servicing their new attendance zone. Exceptions to this policy may be granted by the principal of the school in order to provide continuity of instruction.

CH. IV,§417

"Upon the request of an adult student, or a minor student's parent or guardian, a Regional Superintendent or his [her] designee may grant a discretionary transfer to a student for any of the following reasons: (a) Economic hardship; (b) Physically handicapping condition; (c) Medical reasons; (d) Severe psychological difficulties which impair learning; (e) Gross inconvenience to the adult student, or to the minor student's parent or guardian, including the disruption of family routine; (f) Unavailability of a specific curricular offering or special course of study, for which the student is eligible, at the school where the student is or would be enrolled on the basis of the student's residence.

Requests for discretionary transfer shall be submitted to the appropriate Regional Superintendent or his[her] designee in writing stating the reasons for such request.

In reviewing the request for discretionary transfer, the Regional Superintendent or his[her] designee shall consider the recommendation of the principal or other person in charge of the school or program in which the student is enrolled, the reasons for the request as submitted by the applicant, and any other supportive information or documents submitted on behalf of the applicant by any person, representative, or agency. The Regional Superintendent or his[her] designee may also include an evaluation of the student's records, an assessment of the student's needs, a conference with any of the parties, or other relevant factors in the consideration of the request.

Discretionary transfers may be granted for one or more school year(s). Upon the expiration of the approved transfer period, the student must reapply and receive approval for continuation of the transfer. Failure of a student to obtain permission to continue a discretionary transfer, necessitating a return to the school serving the student's attendance zone, shall not be considered an involuntary transfer."

Ch.IV, § 418

A student shall not be involuntarily transferred without receiving notice of the reasons for the transfer and an opportunity for a hearing. Students transferred due to special education placement shall be provided an opportunity for a hearing on the proposed placement.

G. Admission and Transfer

Statutes

§228.121

Nonresidents shall be charged $50 per year to attend the public schools. Nonresidents are children whose parents have lived in Florida less than one year, do not own a home in Florida, and have not filed a "manifestation of domicile in the county where the child is enrolled."

§230.232

The authority of each school board in enrollment of pupils shall be "full and complete."

The school board may prescribe regulations to test and classify students according to intellectual ability, but, in doing so, shall "take into account such sociological, psychological and like intangible social scientific factors as will prevent, as nearly as practicable, any condition of socio-economic class consciousness among the pupils attending any given school...."

In designating schools to which students may be assigned, school boards shall consider the request of parents or guardians, the facilities available and teaching capacity of given schools, the effect of new admissions on established academic programs, and the adequacy of a student's scholastic preparation, and cultural background. Parents or guardians of any child denied enrollment in any district public school where the child resides may apply to the school board and shall be entitled to a "prompt and fair hearing" in accordance with the school board rules.

The pupil shall be enrolled in the school of his/her choice. If the board finds that it is in the "best interest of the child", it will not interfere with the "proper administration of the school or the instruction of students enrolled therein," and will not "endanger the health or safety of children enrolled therein."

REGULATIONS

6A-1.98

TUITION

Tuition fees shall not be charged of students whose parents are in the military service, are migratory workers, or if the student is attending school under a special exchange plan. A person shall be a resident under this statute if he has lived in Florida for one year or maintains a residence there.

6A-1.982

Residents shall be defined as persons who have established domicile in Florida subsequent to the first school month in any year and who are exempt from the payment of the non-resident tuition fee.

Regulations

Rule 26.4 - 26.10

Principals of home schools are authorized to approve district exceptions to the school attendance laws requiring students to attend school in their own district.

Permission to attend a school in another district may be granted with the approval of the principal of the receiving school.

District exceptions are generally granted for one academic year.

The Department shall inform parents and students 18 years of age or older of the procedure to request district exceptions under this rule.

A change in the conditions upon which the granting of a district exception was based shall be reported to the principals of both the student's home school and the receiving school to which the student was granted a district exception.

The receiving school district superintendent may revoke a district exception if the grounds upon which a district exception was based are found to be false or to be no longer valid because of changed circumstances, or where the recipient of a district exception fails to inform the principal of the receiving school of changes in the circumstances that would affect the continuance of the district exception.

a. The principal either of the home school or of the receiving school may recommend cancellation of a district exception to the receiving school district superintendent.

REVOCATION NOTICE

b. To initiate proceedings for the revocation of a district exception, the district superintendent shall notify the student or his/her parents or guardian of the reasons for the revocation of the district exception and of his/her/their right to request a conference before the receiving school district superintendent about the district exception and its revocation.

c. Upon request, the receiving school district superintendent shall schedule a conference and notify all interested parties. He/she or his/her designee shall conduct the conference and, not later than three school days after the conference, shall render a written decision.

Rule 27.1; 27.5

Foreign students of school age may be enrolled in the public schools of Hawaii. Exceptions to the school age statute can be made only by the Superintendent. Criteria for exception will be proficiency in English, scholastic ability, and that age at graduation will not exceed 21. Foreign high school graduates will not be enrolled in high school programs.

Rule 27.2; 27.3

The certificate of eligibility from (I-20), provided by the Immigration Service, must be approved by the Superintendent of Education or his/her assistant. Statutes

§33-201

"The services of the public schools of this state are extended to" all residents of the state between the ages of five and twenty-one.

§33-1402A

If "a pupil will attend school in other than his[her] home district, because the pupil has . . . been transferred to any private nonstate-supported youth care facility," the facility must apply to the home school district board for approval of the pupil's transfer to another district.

§33-1403

Local boards of trustees may agree to transfer any student from one district to another if it is determined to be in the student's best interest. A local board may agree with the governing board of a school district in a neighboring state to transfer any pupil. "Any such agreement shall specify the rate of tuition, and cost of transportation if any, to be paid by the Idaho school district." An Idaho school district may also agree to accept the transfer of a pupil from another state, if the agreement provides for appropriate payment of tuition and other costs to the Idaho school district.

TUITION

§33-1404

School districts must receive transferred students, unless the "transfer would work a hardship on the receiving district," or the students have failed any classes in the preceding year, or in the case of secondary school students "have not completed the grades given in their home districts."

§33-1405

"The state board of education shall adopt rules and regulations for the determination of tuition rates . . . and shall issue to each school district . . . a tuition certificate . . . which . . . shall authorize the receiving district . . . to bill for the tuition of its nonresident pupils."

TUITION

§33-1406, 1407

The school district accepting transfer of nonresident pupils renders bills of tuition, to be submitted either to the pupil's home district or the pupil's parent or guardian, in accordance with the provisions of the statute. Any district which transfers a student to another district shall pay "any bill for tuition received . . . in proper form." Suit may be brought against any district or person "liable for the payment of tuition" if the payment is not made.

"1. The petition to transfer a student, including the facts and reasons therefore, and an indication that the student will be accepted by a receiving district. This petition is filed with the board of trustees.

"2. Notice given by the board of trustees of the time, date and place of hearing on the petition.

"3. A verbatim transcript of the hearing conducted and held pursuant to the notice.

"4. A copy of all documents, writings or other instruments filed before the board of trustees by any person at said hearing.

"5. A copy of the decision of the board of trustees denying the transfer or denying the acceptance of the student.

"6. A letter from the parent or guardian who appeals, accompanying the foregoing documents, stating that the parent or guardian appeals from the order of the board of trustees and files with the State Superintendent the foregoing documents."

Whoever by threat, menace or intimidation prevents any colored child from attending a public school shall be guilty of a petty offense and fined not more than $25.

DISCRIMINATION

§22-19

If a complaint, signed by at least 50 residents of a school district (or 10%) is filed with the State Board of Education, alleging that any student has been excluded from or segregated in any school on account of his[her] color, race, nationality, or religion, the Board shall hold a hearing on the matter within 30 days. If it is determined by the Board that a violation has occurred, the Attorney General will be requested to apply for appropriate injunctive or other relief.

§26-1 - 26-11

Persons having custody of children between 7 and 16 shall see to it that their children attend public school in the district where they reside unless the child is enrolled in a private or parochial school, physically unable to attend school or employed in accordance with the child labor laws.

Teachers shall be provided with lists of names of children resident in the district and required to check their attendance rosters against this list.

The truant officer shall investigate all cases of truancy and may arrest an offender and bring him or her before a magistrate.

Initially, however, the truant officer shall "give notice . . . to [the parent or guardian] that such child shall be present at . . . school on the day following the receipt of such notice . . . and that . . . attendance must be continuous and consecutive . . . ."

A person who "wilfully permits" or "induces or attempts to induce" truancy is subject to criminal penalty.

Statutes

§20-8.1-2-1 -- 20-8.1-2-5

"The public schools of . . . Indiana shall be open to all children until they complete their courses of study, subject to the authority vested in school officials by law." The governing body may not establish or maintain segregated kindergartens, schools, departments or school districts. Officials may take affirmative actions that are "reasonable, feasible and practical, to effect greater integration and to reduce or prevent segregation or separation of races . . .[including] but not limited to, site selection, revision of school districts, curricula, or enrollment policies to implement equalization of educational opportunity for all." Likewise, discrimination because of race, creed or color is prohibited in admissions and attendance policies.

§20-8.1-6.1-1 -- 20-8.1-6.1-3

If a student is under eighteen, his/her residence is that of her/his parents. The parents of a student or the student, if he/she is 18 or over, may request a transfer to another school corporation in Indiana or another state if the student can be better accommodated in another school. The factors to be considered in making this decision are the travel time involved, transportation, crowded conditions in the transferor or transferee corporation, and "curriculum offerings important to the vocational or academic aspirations of the student." No transfer may be accepted unless the parents or student pays transfer tuition. If the request for transfer is denied, an appeal may be taken to the commission on general education.

§20-8.1-6.1-10

All appeals on student transfer matters shall be heard by the commission on general education.

These provisions apply to court ordered transfers, i.e., where a court has determined that "a transferor corporation has violated the equal protection clause of the fourteenth amendment by practicing de jure racial segregation of students," or where a court orders a school corporation to transfer students to effect a plan of desegregation in the transfer of corporations.

The transferee corporation shall be entitled to receive transfer tuition for each transferred student from the transferor corporation for operating costs and capital costs.

A portion of the state funds due the transferor corporation shall be distributed to the transferee corporation for the transferred students.

§20-8.1-6.5-7 20-8.1-6.5-9

The transferor corporation shall furnish transportation for the students to and from the transferee corporation. The state shall reimburse the transferor corporation for part of the transportation costs.

Statutes

§257.26

Students from private schools may enroll for specified courses in public schools when these courses are not available in the private school.

§257.28

Students residing in one school district may attend a school in another district to take a course not offered in their school.

§262.43

Tuition for students residing on state-owned land shall be paid by the board of regents.

TUITION

§282.1 -- .3

"Persons between five and twenty-one years ... shall be of school age." A board may establish an evening school for all residents regardless of age. The board may exclude children under six years old if the board determines the child is not mature enough to enter school.

"The conditions of admission to public schools for work in the school year immediately preceding the first grade shall be as follows: No child under the age of six years ... shall be admitted to any public school" unless the school has a program of study for the year preceding first grade. A child must be five years old on or before September 15th of the school year. A child under six years old may be admitted to first grade if he demonstrates an ability to do the work.

§282.6 -- .25

"Every school shall be free of tuition to all actual residents between the ages of five and twenty-one years

...". Students attending school in another district or outside the state shall be required, in some cases, to pay tuition fees. Children residing in charitable or state-supported institutions shall not be required to pay tuition.

CONSTITUTION

KANSAS CONSTITUTION, ARTICLE 6, §6

No tuition shall be charged for attendance at any public school to pupils required by law to attend such school, except such fees or supplemental charges as may be authorized by law. No religious sect or sects shall control any part of the public educational funds.

STATUTES

§38-552

When a youth is required by court order to attend school in a district other than that of his/her residence, the youth's tuition shall be paid by the district of his/her residence.

TUITION

§72-1046

A child shall be a resident of a school district if the child lives with an adult who is a resident of the district. The adult shall be the natural or legal guardian of the child, a person caring for the child because of the separation of the parents or the death of either parent, or a person contributing the major portion of the cost of support for the child.

§72-1107

Any child who will attain the age of six years on or before the first day of September of any school year shall be eligible to attend the elementary grades in the school district of his/her residence.

Any child who will be five years old by September 1 may enter kindergarten.

The parent or legal guardian of a pupil required to attend any of grades kindergarten to twelve may apply to the board of education of the proposed sending district for authority for such pupil to attend school in a receiving school district out-of-state. The application shall state whether the pupil lives nearer to an attendance center in a district other than that of his/her residence; whether some other means of transportation to the other district will be easier or less time consuming; or whether educational advantages exist in the out-of-state school.

The board may authorize a pupil to attend an out-of-state school if the receiving district "meets an equivalent of the minimum of thirty units of instruction," if the district is willing to accept the pupil, and if the pupil's attendance at the school is "justified." The parent or legal guardian of the pupil may appeal a decision by the board not to send the pupil to the school. The state board's decision shall be conclusive.

The sending school district shall pay tuition to the receiving school district for each student sent.

The state board shall approve no application for attendance of a student in a unaccredited school of a receiving district. The state board shall approve an application of a student to attend an out-of-state school only if that state has an act similar to this one.

§72-8223

"The state board of social welfare shall pay tuition to the board of education of any school district for children in any institution under the jurisdiction of the state board of social welfare who attend any of the schools of such school district. The amount of tuition shall be determined on the basis of the average operating cost per pupil of said school district, less the proportionate amount of state aid received by such school district as determined by the state board of education."

G. Admissions and Transfers

Statutes

§859

Only children who are six years old by or on October 15th, shall be admitted to grade 1 in the public schools of the state.

A younger child may be placed in grade 1, if he/she attended kindergarten in another state and has been promoted to grade 1, or was attending grade 1 when transferred to this state.

In schools where a one year childhood education program is offered, pupils must be 5 years old on or before October 15, unless transferred from another state. Where a 2 year childhood education program is offered the pupils must be 4 years old on or before October 15.

Subject to the provisions of this section and reasonable regulations of the school committee or directors, every person between the ages of 5 and 20 has the right to attend on a full-time basis, or with consent of the committee or directors, attend as a part-time student the public school in the administrative unit where his/her parent or guardian resides. A veteran who did not complete school before the age of 18 may attend until he/she is 25. Residence means where one maintains a home for his/her family. Where the parents are separated, residency shall be determined by the parent who has custody.

Nothing in this section shall negate the compulsory education provisions in §911.

Summer schools may charge tuition, which shall be based on the school's per capita costs from the preceding summer. In the first summer of its operation, it shall charge the average cost of public summer schools in the state. Per capita cost shall be determined by regulations established by the commissioner.

§860

Persons between 5 and 20 years old living at any light station, fog warning station or life saving station shall be admitted to any public school in the state without paying tuition," and shall otherwise hold similar privileges as a scholar residing in the administrative unit they attend.

§861

Children who move with their parents to a temporary resident shall be subject to the school laws where they are residing temporarily, provided this does not interfere with the free school privileges of these children in the permanent residence of the parent.

§912

When children live remote from any public school in their administrative unit, they may be allowed to attend a school in a neighboring unit under terms agreed upon by the committee or directors of each unit. Tuition will be paid out of the school funds of the unit where the child resides.

When an administrative unit has too few scholars for the profitable maintenance of a school or has pupils living remote from the school it may pay tuition and provide conveyance to an administrative unit in another state adjacent to Maine.

It shall be the duty of a unit to accept pupils from any nearby unit which has an April 1st total of 10 or less pupils, when requested by the board.

A child may attend a public elementary school in an administrative unit where his/her parents do not reside with the consent of the school committee or directors of the unit he/she attends.

The parent or guardian pays, as tuition, the average expense of each scholar in that school.

Tuition must be paid within 30 days of the billing date, or the commissioner may pay the bills and withhold an equal amount from the appropriated fund of the sending unit.

§962

Every child who enrolls for the first time in any school in the state shall give the teacher an official record of their birth within 60 days.

§963 ; 965

Teachers will provide the superintendent with "the names of all children who have not presented a birth certificate within 60 days." The superintendent shall then inform the state registrar of vital statistics giving the names of the children and their parents' or guardians' names and addresses.

"Whenever the state registrar of vital statistics has cause to believe" §962-965 have not been complied with he/she shall make a complaint "to the nearest District Court having jurisdiction."

§964

Children enrolling in school for the first time must present a birth certificate. A parent or guardian who refuses or neglects to comply with this requirement shall be subject to a fine.

REGULATIONS

MEMO TO SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS FROM THE COMMISSIONER 9/15/77

I. Pursuant to 20 MRSA 966 (student wishing to attend schools in another district).

L.D. 1651 provides that "the purpose of the requirements is to permit students to attend the most convenient school in order to avoid excessive transportation." This is not part of the legislation but outlines the legislature's intent. Transfers should be limited to the "removal of fiscal or educational barriers," rather than convenience but superintendents "have discretion in removing educational barriers in the best interests of a resident pupil."

II. L.D. 124, 1543, Pursuant to 20 MRSA 859

The intent of this Act is to permit superintendents to admit students whose families have moved to Maine from other states which have different age requirements for school admission. Superintendents may reject admission in cases where Maine residents clearly have taken steps to circumvent the entrance requirements described in the Maine statutes.

Statutes

71 §6

If a town of less than five hundred families does not maintain a public high school, it shall pay the tuition of any pupil to another town's approved school. If, in the judgment of the department it is expedient that a pupil should board at said town, payment towards board shall be made. The department may make such arrangements if the school committee refuses to.

71 §6 A

A student who resides outside the commonwealth may enter into a contract with the school committee to attend a Massachusetts school for a tuition charge.

71 §37 D

Each year the local school committee shall submit statistics to the Commissioner on the percentage of white and nonwhite pupils in each school. If the Board of Education finds that racial imbalance exists, it shall notify the school committee of its finding. Racial imbalance is defined as "the condition of a public school in which more than fifty percent of the pupils . . . are nonwhite."

Any pupil attending any public school in which racial imbalance exists "shall have the right" to attend any school, except one which has admission by competitive examination only, provided the school has the right grade level and is under the jurisdiction of the same school committee or regional district school committee. If no place is available at the requested school, the school committee shall, "within the time limit established by regulations of the board, file with the board a plan to provide, within the same school year" a place, provided, however, that the board may temporarily or permanently excuse the school committee from implementing the plan if a place "satisfactory to the parents" is available at another school, or if the board finds "that there is other good cause to do so." Whenever a school committee determines that the number of places available at another school is exceeded by the number of pupils requesting to be transferred, the selection of particular pupils to be transferred shall "reasonably provide for priority for nonwhite pupils." No change in any existing school attendance district shall be made pursuant to any such plan prior to a public hearing. The board shall adopt regulations for the administration of the provisions of this section including affirmative action programs.

71 §55

A child infected with a contagious disease shall not attend any public school while so infected. Upon returning to school, the child must present a certificate from the board of health stating that the danger of conveying the disease has passed or report to the school physician for examination.

76 §6

TUITION

If a child resides temporarily in a town other than his/her legal residence for the special purpose of attending school there, the said town may recover all or part of the tuition from the parent or guardian. Tuition may not be in excess of the average expense per pupil in the school at that time.

76 §7

The tuition in the public schools of any town for any child over five years placed elsewhere than in his home town, or kept under the control of, the department of public welfare, shall be paid by the commonwealth or Boston, from its appropriations for school purposes, but shall not be more than the average per pupil expenditure for support.

76 §9

A public welfare child forced to go to a high school outside his/her place of residence because a high school does not exist in his/her home area shall have his/her tuition and transportation costs paid by the commonwealth or Boston.

76 §12

"Any child, with the consent of the school committee of the town where he[she] resides, may attend, at the expense of said town, the public schools of another town, upon agreed upon terms of the two school committees.

76 §12 A

The school committee may adopt a plan for attendance by any child who resides in another area in which racial imbalance exists in public school. "[The] plan shall tend to eliminate racial imbalance . . . and shall include an estimate of expenses necessary to implement it." The plan shall be submitted to the board for approval. If disapproved, reasons shall be given therefor. If approved, financial assistance shall be awarded including transportation costs. Once the plan is so approved, a child in such a racially imbalanced school, may attend school in the approved area.

The board shall provide technical and other assistance to the area in the formulation and implementation of any such plan. A school committee or the board may accept "for the purpose of implementing any such plan, gifts, grants, or contributions from any source, whether public or private.

76 §12 B

Any child may attend the public school of a town where he/she does not reside upon terms as the school committee of that town shall fix; provided the committee is paid a tuition rate which shall not exceed the average per student expense. The commonwealth and the school committee of any town may accept funds from the federal government for the purposes of this section.

76 §13

When any child leaves one school because of change of residence to another town in the commonwealth, the child shall be furnished with a transfer card which shall contain his/her name, age, grade in school, and in every case possible, his/her new street and number, and a duplicate shall be sent to the superintendent of schools of the town where the child is to reside.

76 §15

Each child must present a physician's certificate verifying that the child has been successfully immunized against diptheria, pertussis, tetanus, measles and poliomyelitis and such other communicable diseases as may be specified before he/she will be admitted to school.

In the alternative a child may annually present a certificate from a certified physician stating that the child's physical condition is such that he/her health would be endangered by such vaccination or immunization.

IMMUNIZATION

In absence of an emergency or epidemic, a child whose parent or guardian states in writing that vaccination or immunization conflicts with his/her sincere religious beliefs shall not be required to present a physician's certificate.

76 §15 A

Every child, which the commissioner of public health determines is susceptible to sickle cell trait or sickle cell anemia, shall be required to have a blood test to determine whether or not she/he has the disease before being admitted to a public school, or in the first year of attendance in a public school. Educational materials relating to sickle cell trait and sickle cell anemia shall be prepared and distributed.

76 §16

"The parent, guardian or custodian of a child refused admission to or excluded from the public schools or from the advantages, privileges and courses of study of public schools shall on application be furnished by the school committee with a written statement of the reasons therefor, and thereafter, if the refusal to admit was unlawful, such child may recover from the town in part, and may examine any member of the committee or any other officer of the town, upon interrogatories."

In a district providing kindergarten work, a child, resident in the district, is entitled to enroll in the kindergarten if the child is at least five years of age on December 1 of the school year of enrollment. In a district with semiannual promotions, a child may enroll in kindergarten for the second semester if the child is at least five years old on March 1 of the year of enrollment.

§380.1148

Except as provided in §380.1711, a child placed in a licensed home or in a house of relatives in the school district for the purpose of securing a suitable home for the child and not for an educational purpose, shall be considered a resident of the school district where the home in which the child is living is located.

§380.1401

A school board may admit non-resident pupils to district schools at a tuition to be determined and collected by the board.

TUITION

Tuition for grades K to 6 shall not exceed 25% more than the operation cost per capita for pupils in grades K to 12. Tuition for grades 6 to 12 shall not exceed 12 1/2% more than 115% of the operation cost per capita for pupils in grades K to 12. In a district not maintaining grades above the eighth, tuition shall not exceed 25% more than the operation cost per capita for pupils in grades K to 8. Operation costs of the preceding fiscal year shall be used.

§380.1406; 380.1407

TUITION

A school board not maintaining grades above the eighth shall pay a resident pupil's tuition to a high school outside the district approved for the collection of high school tuition. A board maintaining grades above the eighth not approved for tuition collection may pay a resident pupil's tuition to another district approved for tuition collection. The board shall pay transportation expenses for pupils attending high school in other districts.

If directed by a majority vote of school electors, a board maintaining a legal high school shall discontinue it and pay tuition and transportation for its pupils to other districts.

A high school approved for tuition collection shall have one of the following:

12 grades with at least three teachers devoting their entire teaching time to grades 7 to 12;

9 grades with at least 1 teacher devoting entire teaching time to grades 7-6 9;

10 grades with at least 1 teacher devoting entire teaching time to grades 9 and 10 or 8 to 10;

11 grades with at least 2 teacher devoting their teaching time to grades 9 to 11 or 8 to 11.

§380.1408

High school tuition for pupils who completed eight grades, or certified by the local or intermediate superintendent, shall be paid by the board of the resident district by agreement with the board of the district of attendance.

§380.1411

In a state bordering on this state, the nearest and next nearest approved high schools to the residence of a parent or guardian of a pupil of this state shall be considered legal high schools to which a district not maintaining a legal high school is entitled to pay tuition and transportation. Elementary grades maintained in connection with the high school in a bordering state shall be considered a legal school for which a district which votes to discontinue elementary grades may pay elementary tuition and transportation.

A district in a bordering state which maintains vocational-technical education shall be considered a legal district with which the board of a district in the state which does not maintain such instruction may contact to enroll resident pupils. While in residence at an approved vocational technical course the pupils may be counted in the resident district's membership for state aid calculations.

§380.1415

A school board may use general funds or state school aid to pay tuition and transportation to another district of resident pupils though the grades attended are maintained in the district or in cases where pupils have never established bus lines of another district or nearer by the nearest traveled road to the school in another district than to the school in their own district.

§388.1219

A child whose parents or guardians live on land over which the federal government has exclusive jurisdiction and which has not been attached to a school district may be included in membership by the district which he/she attends and is considered a tuition pupil.

G. Admission and Transfer

Statutes

§120.06

No person shall be admitted to (1) kindergarten unless she/he is at least five years of age by September 1 of the year for which she/he seeks admission or (2) to the first grade unless she/he is at least six years old by September 1 of the year for which she/he seeks admission. For persons between these minimum age requirements and twenty-one, admission is free to the public schools in the district of their residence.

§120.065

A student who resides on a farm which is included in more than one school district may attend school in either district pending approval of the commissioner. The district the pupil wishes to attend shall be considered the district of his/her residence in the payment of state aid. Transportation may be provided by the district the student attends.

§120.07

Children who are not residents of an incorporated city or village and who live more than two miles from the school in their district may attend a closer school in an adjoining district, if their district does not provide transportation.

The board of the resident district shall pay tuition to the district the student is attending and if the two districts cannot agree on tuition it may be set by the commissioner. TUITION

§120.08

Persons under twenty-one years of age who have completed elementary school and reside in a district without a secondary school may attend secondary school in a district of an adjoining state if it is closer to her/his residence than any secondary school in Minnesota. The county of the student's residence will pay tuition charges and such pupil is entitled to transportation services.

A school board in a district maintaining a secondary school may allow students to attend school in an adjoining state's district if such school is closer than the school in the student's resident district. Tuition and transportation costs will be paid by the resident district.

§123.65

The board may authorize the discontinuance of any school or schools in its district in an emergency or when authorized by a majority of the voters. In such a case, the pupils affected shall receive free tuition and transportation to schools in an adjoining district.

G. Admissions and Transfers

Statutes

§37-7-313

"The board of trustees of a municipal separate school district may contract with the board of trustees" of another school district in the same or another county "for the attendance of any school children residing within such school district at a school operated by (the) . . . other school district" and for their transportation.

§37-11-1

"After a pupil has been assigned to a particular public school, the principal or anyone else vested with the authority of assigning pupils to classes, shall not place such pupil in a class where his[her]presence there, because of age differential, mental development, achievement, or personal habits, would serve to adversely affect, hinder, or retard the academic development of the pupils in the class."

§37-11-3

"The board of trustees . . . is vested with the authority . . . to provide . . . by . . . appropriate means for the separation of students according to sex, separately by classrooms or schools, when such board. . . determines such separation will promote or preserve the public peace, order or tranquility of the school district, or the health, morals or education of the students."

§37-15-9

No child shall be enrolled in a public school unless he/she will reach his/her sixth birthday before September 1 of the school year. No student transferring from another district in the state may be permanently enrolled in another district until his/her cumulative record is received. In case of loss or destruction of the record, the superintendent or principal of the school district where the pupil last attended is responsible to "initiate a new record."

§37-15-11

When any minor child who seeks to enroll in public school unaccompanied by his/her parent or legal guardian, school officials may delay admission, and require the parent or guardian to accompany the child to gain admission.

§37-15-13

When any child presents himself/herself for enrollment in public schools of any school district, the board of trustees is empowered to designate the school he/she shall attend. No child may attend any school but one the board of trustees has assigned him/her; however, the principal or district superintendent may grant temporary permission to attend a school pending final assignment by the board of trustees.

§37-15-15

Factors to be considering in assigning children to schools are "the educational needs and welfare of the child involved, the welfare and best interest of all the pupils attending the school . . . involved, the availability of school facilities, sanitary conditions and facilities at the school . . . involved, health and moral factors at the school, . . . and in the community involved, all other factors which the board of trustees may consider pertinent . . . in their effect on the welfare and best interest of the school district and the particular school . . . involved. All assessments will be made on an individual basis . . . and . . . the board of trustees shall not be limited or circumscribed by the boundaries of any attendance areas which may have been established . . . ."

§37-15-17

APPEAL

Appeal by parent or guardian of a child's assignment to a school may be made to the board of trustees who shall need a hearing to review the assignment and enter an order affirming or modifying the assignment.

§37-15-19 --21

REHEARING

Persons dissatisfied with the ruling on assignment of pupils to a particular school rendered on rehearing before the board of trustees may appeal to the county board of education. Persons dissatisfied with the county board of education ruling may file petition for appeal in county circuit court. From the judgment of the circuit court, appeal may be made by any "interested party" to the supreme court in the same way other judgments are appealed.

APPEAL

§37-15-25

APPEAL

"Appeals from orders of boards of trustees of line districts regarding assignment of pupils shall be taken . . . to the county board of education of the home county."

§37-15-27

All provisions for appeals regarding school enrollment and pupil assignments shall be applicable to boards of trustees of municipal separate school districts except that appeals from decisions of the board shall be made to county circuit court. If a municipal separate school district straddles two counties, appeals may be made to either county of which the school district is part, and "filing of a petition for appeal in the circuit court . . . shall conclusively determine the venue of such appeal . . . ."

§37-15-29

"No minor child may enroll in or attend any school except in the school district of his/her residence, unless such child be lawfully transferred from the school district of his/her residence to a school in another school district . . ."

§37-15-31

On petition by a parent or guardian, filed with the board of trustees of a school district in which a student is or may be enrolled, or on discretion of the board of trustees as to transfer of grade or grades, "individual students being in one school district or a grade or grades of a school within the districts may be legally transferred to another school district."

Both boards of trustees involved in the transfer must act timely and failure to do so shall constitute a rejection of the request.

Students seeking to transfer from any school within or without the state must take a standardized test to determine the pupil's proper grade and class. "The tests shall be prepared by the state department of education . . . ."

No transfer shall be effected until the test has been given and the pupil is assigned according to the grade and class for which the test shows she/he is best suited. No pupil shall be assigned to a grade and class more than three grades above or below the grade and class that the pupil would have been assigned to had the pupil remained in the school from which the transfer is being made." Pending administration of the test a pupil may be temporarily assigned to a grade comparable to the one he/she was assigned in his/her former school. "Likewise, if a pupil shall transfer from one school district to another . . . in the manner . . . required by the laws of the state . . ., the requirement of . . . the standardized test shall be waived."

§37-15-35

"No person shall be assigned to or by or restricted from or to, any group, area, school, institution or other political subdivision of the state of Mississippi on the account of race, color or national origin. There shall be no governmentally enforced segregation by race, color or national origin and . . . no governmentally enforced integration by reason of race, color, or national origin."

§37-65-9

Upon school closing, enrolled children affected may be re-assigned or transferred to another school or district.

Statutes

§160.051

For persons between the ages of six and twenty, free public schools have been established. If a child's sixth birthday occurs before October 1, after the first day of school, she/he shall be deemed six years old for the purpose of apportioning state school funds. Gratuitous instruction may be provided by the board of education for those between five and six years of age.

§167.121

If a student has easier access to a school in another district, the county board of education shall assign the pupil to the other district. The tuition shall be paid by the board of education where the pupil resides. TUITION

§167.131

If a high school is not maintained in a district, the board of education shall pay the tuition of each pupil who attends an approved high school in another district. TUITION

§167.151 TUITION

Tuition may be prescribed to school pupils not entitled to free instruction. Students are exempt from tuition if they are orphans, or have no parent living, or their parents do not contribute to their support and they are between six and twenty years of age. If school taxes are paid in any other district children may be sent to any public school and credit the tuition charge.

§171.171

"Work completed in schools accredited by the state board of education shall be given full credit in requirements for entrance to and classification in any educational institutions supported in whole or in part by state appropriations."

MONTANA CONSTITUTION, ART. X, §7

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"Nondiscrimination in education. No religious or partisan test or qualification shall be required of any teacher or student as a condition of admission into any public educational institution. Attendance shall not be required at any religious service. No sectarian tenets shall be advocated in any public educational institution of the state. No person shall be refused admission to any public educational institution on account of sex, race, creed, religion, political beliefs, or national origin."

Statutes

§75-6302

"The trustees shall assign and admit any child to a school in the district, when the child is:" between 6 and 21 years old; a resident of the district; otherwise qualified under this title.

The trustees may establish age requirements for entering the first grade, so long as a child can enter by the time he/she is seven.

The trustees may admit and assign any non-resident child under the tuition provisions of this title.

§75-6303

The parent or guardian of any child who is at least 7 years old by the first day of school but not yet 16, and who has not finished eighth grade, shall be responsible for the enrollment of such child in public school. The child is enrolled in the "school assigned by the board of trustees of the district . . . or when he[she] establishes residence unless" the child goes to a private school, attends school in another district or state, receives "supervised correspondence study or home study, "is excused from enrollment . . .

when . . . bodily or mental condition does not permit . . . attendance and the child cannot be instructed" through special education, or if a district judge decides that "attendance is not in the best interest of the child." Excuse on the basis of "bodily or mental condition" is issued by the district superintendent" if there is one, or by the county superintendent. Period of the excuse may be appealed to the district court, whose decision is final.

§75-6513

"Any child may . . . attend an elementary school outside of the elementary district in which he[she] resides when such school is located (1) in any other district of" his/her county; (2) an adjoining county, or (3) a district in another state adjoining his/her county. The parent or guardian of such a child shall apply, on a "tuition agreement form," to the county superintendent where he/she lives. The application shall be approved by the trustees of the elementary district where the child resides and of that where the child wishes to attend school, and the county superintendent.

TUITION

The application shall be approved when: the child lives less than 3 miles from the school he/she wants to attend and more than 3 miles from any school of his/her elementary district; the child lives more than 3 miles from any school of his/her elementary district and "such district does not provide transportation;" the conditions in (2), and transporation is furnished by the district where he/she wishes to attend school; the child's sibling attends high school outside of the elementary district, and the child can "more conveniently attend an elementary school where the high school is located," if either the child lives more than 3 miles from the elementary school of his/her district or the parents must move to the other district to allow enrollment in the high school; or "the child has been declared by a district court [to be] a dependent and neglected child, . . . or a juvenile delinquent child," and has been placed in an approved child care institution, thus requiring the child to attend school outside of his/her residential district.

The trustees of the district where the child is to attend school may disapprove an application that satisfies any of conditions (1) to (5) above "when they . . . find that due to insufficient room and overcrowding the accreditation of the school would be adversely affected by" accepting the child.

§75-6314

A "tuition application that is not required to be approved under "the Statute may be approved because of: TUITION

"the distance and road conditions between the child's residence and any school of his[her] resident district; the trading center of the child's parents; an opportunity to live with his[her] relatives; dormitory facilities in the district to be attended; the living conditions of the child's family; the availability of transportation; or the type of educational program available in the school to be attended."

§75-6315

If a tuition application, seeking approval for a child to attend school in another district is disapproved, "the parent may appeal . . . to the county superintendent and, subsequently to the superintendent of public instruction." Any approval shall authorize the child to attend the designated school for the ensuing fiscal year. TUITION

§75-6316

"Any child may . . . attend a high school outside of" his/her county of residence if the school is in Montana or a state adjacent to Montana. The parent or guardian of the child shall apply for approval on a tuition agreement form. The application must be approved by the trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school and by the county superintendent of the county where the child lives. TUITION

"The county superintendent shall approve a tuition application when a child lives closer to a high school of another county than any high school . . . within his[her] resident county, or when due to" road or geographic conditions, it is impractical to attend a high school in his/her resident county. A tuition application need not be approved "if the resident district provides transportation . . . the county superintendent may require the child to attend the high school closest to his[her] residence."

If the application is disapproved by the county superintendent, the parent may appeal to him/her for his/her reconsideration, and subsequently to the superintendent of public instruction. Any approval under this section "shall authorize the child . . . to . . . attend the school . . . for the ensuing fiscal year."

§75-6318

The superintendent of public instruction may make an agreement with the education authorities of states adjoining Montana to allow eligible children from one state to attend school in the other. "The reciprocal tuition rate may be negotiated as a flat amount or an actual-cost-per-pupil amount."

TUITION

§75-6320

A parent can send his/her child to the elementary school of any district if the trustees of that district agree and the parent pays the tuition set by the trustees. The trustees shall charge the rate prescribed by law "reduced by any amount . . . uniformly waived" for all tuition agreements. "Tuition shall be waived when the parent [has] paid . . . $200 or more in district and county property taxes" during the past year "for the benefit . . . of the district in which the child will attend school."

TUITION

WAIVER

§75-6321

"Any child eligible to attend high school may attend school in any high school district of his[her] resident county without payment or tuition."

TUITION

A parent can sent his/her child to a high school outside of his/her resident county when the trustees of the district operating such high school agree. The parent shall pay the tuition fixed by the trustees.

G. Admission and Transfer

Statutes

§79-407

If "natural or artificial barriers" exist making it necessary for a child to travel more than five miles to school, or making it more convenient for the child to attend school in the district adjoining his or her district of residence, the parent or guardian, or district board of education, "may file a request, with the Commissioner of Education, that such territory be attached, for school purposes, to the district in the adjoining county having a nearer school." A hearing is then held by the commissioner and superintendents of the counties involved, after the district boards and the public have been notified.

§79-444 -- 79-444.02

A child may not be admitted to first grade unless he or she is six years old on or before October 15 of the school year or has "completed the kindergarten or beginner grade." To enter the kindergarten or beginner grade a child must be five years old on or before October 15 or have "demonstrated through . . . testing procedures approved by the State Board of Education that he[she] is capable of carrying the work."

A district board may also require a birth certificate, physical examination and immunization before a child is admitted, provided that "no such physical examination or immunization shall be required of any child whose parent or guardian" objects in writing, on religious grounds.

IMMUNIZATION

WAIVER

District boards and private school authorities must require children under age 12 to be immunized against measles, rubella, polio, diptheria, pertussis and tetanus "before being permitted to attend any school," unless a child's parent objects in writing. The cost of immunization is borne by the parent or guardian, except in cases of financial need, in which case the Department of Health shall bear the cost. "Any local board of education or the governing authority of a private school . . . may request assistance from the Department of Health in establishing immunization clinics."

§79-445 - 79-446

TUITION

District boards may admit nonresident students to district school and charge tuition. If a child is the ward of the state or any court and has been placed in a public school district other than that in which he or she lived before, the tuition shall be paid by the state. Children of state employees who are temporarily enrolled in school in a district other than the parents' district of legal residence may attend school without charge. Children of military officers or enlisted men on active duty in Nebraska and of "parents employed by the federal government and residing . . . on national parks or . . . monuments within this state" may be admitted to public schools "without payment of tuition."

§79-469

A district board "maintaining more than one school is authorized to close any school or schools" and provide for the education of children in another school or district, "or by correspondence instruction" for children who cannot attend other schools, "with the permission of the parent and on the approval of the county superintendent."

§79-478; 479;482-485

If school children who have not completed the eighth grade live more than 1 1/2 miles from their school and closer to a school in another district, or if a "bus route, providing service to a school is less than one-fourth the distance from their residence "to the school in their district, the parent or guardian may request that "such children may, at the discretion of the board of the other district, have school privileges in the other district." The county superintendent shall verify the petition and, if the transfer is made, shall ensure that such children "are enumerated in the adjoining" and not the home district. Transfers are made for one year only but may be continued at the request of the parent and with the approval of the board of the district accepting the transfer.

Parents of children so transferred may vote in the district where the children attend school "on all school matters" except bonds, tax levies for buildings," contracting for instruction, and closing the district." Parents of transferred students are not eligible to hold office on the school board of the district to which transfer is made.

These provisions do not "permit . . . the transfer of . . . children from or to a city or village school district . . . located . . . within . . . any city or village," nor do they apply to any district which furnishes "adequate transportation facilities."

§79-486

A school board when authorized by a majority of voters at a district meeting, may "contract with the board of any neighboring public school district" to provide instruction for its school children for up to three years, and provide "for the transportation of such pupils" to schools of the neighboring districts. A school board also may do this "when petitioned . . . by at least two-thirds of the parents . . . having children . . . who will attend school under the contract plan."

Contracts shall be filed with the county superintendent. School districts contracting for instruction outside the district "shall be considered as maintaining a school" under law. Contracting districts must "enter into contracts with school districts" chosen by the parents of the children affected.

A district not complying with these provisions will not receive state funds and may be dissolved by the county superintendent. "The county superintendent shall dissolve and attach to a neighboring district . . . any school district which, for five consecutive years, contracts for the instruction of its pupils," except where it would create "extreme hardship" for pupils or the district, the state board may waive the requirement. If a district has contracted for instruction for two or more years, it must have a minimum enrollment of five pupils whose parents are legal voters of the district before reopening the school. The county superintendent must approve the reopening.

§79-494

"Four years of nonresident public high school education is secured to all children . . . whose parents or guardians reside in a public school district which maintains less than a four year high school course of study."

§79-497-499; 79-4.100-4.101; 4.105

For a student to be entitled "to nonresident public high school education in the ninth grade" of any public school that offers it the student must have a statement from the county superintendent indicating that he or she is eligible and cannot do ninth grade work in his or her own public school district. In determining eligibility, the county superintendent should consider "achievement, as evidenced by . . . the statewide examinations and other tests . . . and social maturity." A pupil who completes the first eight grades but cannot enter the ninth, either because he or she has moved to or already resides in a district that does not offer the ninth grade, in order to enter the ninth grade in another district such pupil must obtain "a statement signed by the county superintendent and the superintendent of the high school district" that the eighth grade work has been completed and the pupil's school district does not offer the ninth grade.

"To be entitled . . . to nonresident public school education in the tenth, eleventh, or twelfth grade . . . a pupil must have a certificate signed by the county superintendent . . . that he[she] has completed the course of study for the preceding grade, and . . . is unable to secure instruction in the next advanced grade in the public school district of his[her] residence." Nonresident pupils attending public high schools under these provisions "shall have the same rights and . . . be subject to the same rules and restrictions which govern resident pupils."

A public high school district may refuse to admit nonresident pupils if the tuition rate fixed "is not compensatory, or if such . . . pupils are from districts which are not now . . . or have not previously been served by the high school district."

Parents of children applying for nonresident admission must apply to the appropriate county superintendent by July 1 of each year, stating the school district of legal residence, "the number of pupils for whom nonresident high school education is desired, and . . . the grade which each pupil is to enter.

§79-550

"The board of any Class VI district formerly organized as a rural high school district or the board of any Class II district" may pay tuition costs for any junior or senior high school pupil to attend an accredited school outside the district if "such facilities are located closer to the residence of the pupil" than the district's school, and it is the board's opinion that it would be in the best interest of the pupil or school district.

§79-802

Schools within cities "shall be under the direction and control of the board of education" of Class III districts, "shall be free to all children between the ages of five and twenty-one years whose parents or guardians are legal residents, and all children of school age, nonresidents . . ., who are allowed to attend the schools without charge."

§79-1103.03; 79-1103.05

TUITION

"Students who . . . desire to attend other accredited public high schools within their own county, shall have their tuition paid by the high school district of their residence" if their parents file an application with the county superintendent, stating: (1) "that such students are proficient in the grades below the grade desired in the other accredited high school;" (2) that the students live in the district; and (3) that the students live 8 or more miles from the high school and nearer to another high school.

Upon the parents' application, a Class VI district board that maintains a high school may pay tuition for a student who is a resident of the district but attends a school outside the district if such high school is at least 10 miles closer to the pupils' residence and it is in the best interest of the pupil to attend such school. The same arrangement may be made for a school outside the state.

A parent "who is aggrieved by" the board's decision may appeal to the State Board of Education" whose decision shall be binding" if the school attended is out-of-state.

§79-4106.01 -- 4106.05

In counties bordering on another state, the parents of school children in grades kindergarten through 12 may apply to the school board for the "pupil to attend school in a district" of the adjoining state. The application should state if the pupil lives nearer to a school "in the proposed receiving district than in the district of residence," if there are transportation problems that would make attendance elsewhere more convenient, if travel time would be decreased or if "educational advantages for the pupil exist in the proposed receiving district." The school board must verify that the "receiving district . . . is willing to receive the pupil." If it is, and the school is accredited, "the board . . . may authorize such attendance." In order for such an application to be approved the State Board of Education must determine that the receiving state has similar provisions for its pupils to attend school outside the state. When a pupil attends school outside the state "the sending district shall pay to the receiving district tuition for each pupil for each day the pupil is actually enrolled."

Statutes

§189-1-a

It is the duty of the school board "to provide, at district expense, elementary and secondary education to all pupils under twenty-one years of age, who reside in the district." The school board may exclude pupils for "gross misconduct or for neglect or refusal to conform to the reasonable rules of the school".

§193:1-a; 193:1-b

A child may attend "more than one school" if the total time equals full attendance requirements and this dual enrollment plan has been approved by the state board.

DUAL ENROLLMENT

§193:4 --193:4-a

TUITION

School districts are liable for the tuition of their resident pupils who are assigned to schools in other districts. This liability shall extend to students attending schools in other districts under "an approved dual enrollment plan".

"Dual enrollment programs" are to be regulated by the state board of education.

§193:12

Nonresidents may not send their children to school in a district where they do not reside "without the consent of the district or the school board."

§193:18-a --193:18-b

A child placed in a "home for children" (orphanage, institution, "child caring agency") "shall be entitled to attend the public schools" in that district.

§193:19 --193:20

The orphans of veterans of the armed forces are entitled to tuition-free attendance at state secondary or college level schools.

§194:14

A school district may determine requirements for admitting nonresident students to its schools and if the district neglects to do so, the school board may do it.

§194:24 -- 28

If the attendance of a pupil "at the school with which the contract is made will work a manifest hardship," the pupil or his/her parents may request a transfer to another school.

The school board shall hold a hearing "within ten days" and if the transfer request is "well-founded," the board will approve the request.

The school board's decision may be appealed by either party to the state board of education.

Any district not maintaining a high school must pay tuition for its resident pupils who attend a high school in another district.

A pupil who attends a high school for the required time and does not graduate and whose tuition is being paid for by the school district "may be required to certify to the school board" that he/she will make the effort required to profit from his [her] attendance" before he/she receives further tuition benefits. The school board may suspend tuition payments if it determines that the pupil is "grossly neglecting his [her] school work." This decision is "subject only to review by the state board of education."

If a parent has paid tuition for a child to attend high school in another district because its own town did not maintain a high school, the parent may recover the amount paid from the town. Failure of a "town district" to comply with this provision shall subject it to the penalty of a fine.

G. Admission And Transfer

Statutes

§18A:38-1--3

Public schools shall be free to persons over 5 and under 20 who: (1) are domiciled in the district; (2) are supported and kept in the home of one living in the district; (3) are residing temporarily in the district; (4) are placed by the bureau of children's services in the home of a district resident; (5) are placed by court order in the home of a district resident; or (6) are not residents of the district but have been given permission to attend its schools by the board, with or without tuition, as the board prescribes.

Any person over 20 who, except for age, would be entitled to free education may also be admitted to a school, as the board shall determine. A board may, at its discretion, admit a pupil who is not yet eligible because of age and is being transferred from a public or private school, if he/she meets entrance requirements established by the board.

§18A:38-6

A pupil attending school for the first time may only be admitted on or before October first.

§18A:38-8

A district having "the necessary accommodations" may receive, or "be required to receive by order of the state board," pupils from an overcrowded district, at tuition rates fixed by law.

§18A:38-9

A child shall be allowed to attend school in an "adjoining district; if his/her residence is "remote" from any public school.

§18A:38-10

A board may arrange for the attendance of any or all of its pupils in the schools of an adjacent district outside the state if it determines that it is advisable to do so "to provide better school facilities" for its pupils or "for reasons of economy or other good cause" if consent of the commissioner is forthcoming.

§18A:38-11--14

The board of education of each district lacking a high school shall designate a high school or schools of this state for the attendance of its pupils. When two or more high schools shall be designated, the board shall allocate its pupils among these schools. Such designation or allocation shall only be changed "for good and sufficient reason upon application made to and approved by the commissioner." The determination of the commissioner "may be appealed by the applying board or any other affected board to the state board.

§18A:38-15;16;19;23

Any board not furnishing instruction in a particular high school course or approved evening high school course, desired by a district pupil, may, at its discretion, pay the tuition of such pupil in such course in another district. The board of the receiving district shall determine a tuition rate to be paid by the sending board. No student shall be excluded from a receiving district because of the sending district's nonpayment of tuition.

TUITION

A sending district shall not withdraw its students from the receiving district during the school year without such district's consent.

§18A:38-20--22

When a board furnishing education to pupils of another district finds it necessary to provide additional facilities for such education, "it may, as a condition precedent to the provision of such additional facilities" make an agreement with the board of the sending district not to withdraw its pupils for a specified term of time not exceeding 10 years. Application to the commissioner may be made for permission to terminate same. A hearing shall be held "before the commissioner" for the board of the other district before a determination is made. The commissioner's determination shall be "subject to appeal to the state board."

HEARING

§18A:38-32

The district board of education and board of each county vocational school shall appoint qualified persons as attendance officers and fix their compensation. Each board shall make rules, subject to approval of the commissioner, for the government of such officers.

APPOINTMENT

§18A:38-34

When a majority of boards of any county, other than those of the first class, has requested the appointment of county attendance officers, the commissioner shall appoint an officer or officers. The term of office for such officers shall be for one year.

§18A:46-20--22

The commissioner may "at his[her] discretion" require a board of education with the necessary facilities to receive pupils requiring such services from another district. Any public or private school receiving pupils from another district under this chapter shall determine a tuition rate "to be paid by the sending board of education.

A sending district which has entered its pupils in a receiving district may not withdraw them to enter them in another district unless for "good and sufficient cause" an application is made and approved by the commissioner. Appeal of a decision on such application may be made to the state board.

§18A:50-2

A board of education offering adult education courses "shall be entitled to charge and collect" tuition from program participants who reside either within or without the district.

CONSTITUTION

New Mexico Constitution Article XII, Section 9

"No religious test shall ever be required as a condition of admission into the public schools or any educational institution of this state, either as a teacher or student, and no teacher or student shall ever be required to attend or participate in any religious service whatsoever."

STATUTES

§71-5-1

"Every citizen of this state has a right to inspect any public records of this state except:

. . . C. letters or memoranda which are matters of opinion in personnel files or students' cumulative files."

§77-10-3

Any student "shall be permitted to attend public school within the school district in which he [she] is a resident."

§77-10-4

"Local school boards may admit non-resident students of their school district to the public schools within the district" space permitting. Only non-student residents of the state may be charged tuition.

TUITION

REGULATIONS

Reg. No. 73-2

A local school board may admit a student who resides in another school district when:

1) The student can be accommodated and written consent has been granted by the local school board of the district in which the student resides;

2) or state-approved transportation which cross school district boundaries is being provided;

3) or it has been determined by the State Superintendent that educational opportunities are greater or specific programs are available only in that district.

When consent required in 1) above has been refused and the student does not qualify under 2) or 3), the student shall have the right to appeal to the State Superintendent.

Students non-resident to a district who do not qualify under the above shall not be included in the membership report required by §88-6-14, and consequently shall not be eligible for computations of the basic support and other state distributions.

Reg. No. 76-17

When an enrolled student or a conditionally enrolled student has not met the requirements of laws for enrollment in school, either as to age, residence, immunization, or other reasons, or has not complied with conditional enrollment requirements, the enrollment is invalid and the student is liable to be disenrolled.

When a student is invalidly enrolled, the following procedures shall be followed:

The administrative authority shall give a Preliminary Notice of Contemplated Action of Disenrollment to the Student stating the reasons for the contemplated disenrollment and offering the student the opportunity to resolve the matter informally by presenting evidence to refute the alleged reasons for the contemplated action. If the student does not satisfactorily use this opportunity, the administrative authority shall notify the student that he/she will be disenrolled. The Notice of Disenrollment shall inform the student that if satisfactory evidence to refute the alleged grounds for disenrollment is not submitted within ten school days, the student will be disenrolled. It shall also inform the student, that, within those ten days, the student may request a hearing at which he/she may refute the alleged reasons for disenrollment. The hearing shall be conducted so as to afford the student due process. The student shall have the rights to present evidence, to confront adverse witnesses, to cross-examine, and to be represented by counsel. The hearing officer, designated by the administrative authority, shall render a written decision: if favorable to the student, the matter will be closed; if unfavorable, the student shall be disenrolled five school days from the date of making of the decision.

HEARING

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

A disenrolled student shall be permitted to re-enroll only when all legal requirements for enrollment are met.

§313

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Students shall be admitted to the state education system "without regard to race, color, religion, creed or national origin." The state recognizes "the fundamental American right" for religious groups to establish schools in furtherance of their beliefs.

The commissioner may initiate investigations of discrimination in admissions and/or "attempt conciliation or mediation to induce elimination of . . . alleged unfair educational practice." If such informal methods are unsuccessful, the commissioner may refer the matter to the board of regents for a hearing. Such hearing may result in a "cease and desist order." There is provision for judicial review and enforcement.

§3201; 3201-a

"No person shall be refused admission into or be excluded from any public school in the state of New York on account of race, creed, color or national origin."

"Except with the express approval of a board of education having jurisdiction, . . ." no student "shall be assigned or compelled to attend any school on account of race, creed, color or national origin, or for achieving equality" in "attendance . . . of persons of particular races, creeds, colors, or national origins." This does not affect the right of a religious institution to apply selective admissions policies. Discrimination on account of sex is prohibited.

§3202

TUITION

A person between 5 and 21 years is entitled to tuition-free public school attendance in his/her district. A non-veteran under 21 who holds a high school diploma may attend classes but shall pay tuition.

VETERAN

"A veteran of any age" with an honorable discharge may attend any state public school.

Nonresidents of a district may be admitted to the district school on the consent of and under terms established by the school authorities.

Children in the care of an orphan asylum "or other institution" are not residents of such district. The public welfare district which is liable for thier support shall contract for their education; or, the district responsible for their education at the time they were admitted to the institution shall pay for their education. Institutionalized children shall be received in the school district wherein the institution is located under terms fixed by the local school authorities, unless there is sufficient reason for refusal to receive.

"The cost of instruction of pupils [under age 21] placed in family homes at board . . . shall be borne by the school district in which . . . such pupil resided at the time" a public agency assumed responsibility for his/her support.

Statutes

§115-150.4

Where students in the public schools of one administrative unit transfer to a school in another unit, or leave school because of illness, the parents of such pupil are "entitled to a refund of the fees and charges paid by them." The refund will be allocated according to the time during the school term that the pupil left.

§115-162

A child must be six years old before October 1 of the year he or she enrolls in school. This requirement will not apply to a child who has been attending school in another state. A school principal may require parents to furnish a birth certificate for their child.

§115-163 - 115-164

All pupils residing in a particular school district shall have the "privileges and advantages" of the public schools in that district. All persons who have not graduated from high school, all pupils whose parents move into the district, and pupils living with their mother or father who reside in the district, are eligible to attend public schools in that district. Children living in orphanages may be permitted to attend public schools.

§115-176.1

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"No person shall be refused admission into or be excluded from any public school in this State on account of race, creed, color or national origin. No school attendance district or zone shall be drawn for the purpose of segregating persons of various races, creeds, colors or national origins from the community." The board of one administrative unit may assign its pupils to another district unit for the purpose of attending a vocational or special education school, or "for any other reason which the board of education in its sole discretion deems sufficient." The board may not, however, compel students to attend another school "on account of race, creed, color or national origin, or for the purpose of creating a balance or ratio of race, religion or national origins." "Involuntary bussing of students" is forbidden.

These provisions shall not apply to temporary reassignments of pupils due to overcrowded conditions or other reasons, or to an application for reassignment by a parent or student who is eligible to make such a choice.

§115-177 — 115-179.1

Whenever a board of education assigns pupils to another district unit, the board shall give "written notice" to the parent. When groups of pupils are involved, the notice given may be "by publication." Any parent "dissatisfied with the assignment" may apply to the board for the reassignment of the student to a different school and if the application is disapproved, the parent may "apply to the board for a hearing." The board will determine whether the reassignment "will be for the best interests of the child," and "will not interfere with the proper administration of the school," and the board shall notify the applicant of its decision. The board's "final order" may be appealed to the "superior court."

Statutes

§15-40.2-01

"The school board of any district may send elementary or high school pupils into another school district or to an accredited institution of another state when . . . it is in the best interests of the school district . . . and the board may pay the tuition of such pupils to the district or institution to which they are sent. The school board may arrange, and when petitioned by a majority of the electors of the district, shall arrange with the boards of other districts or institutions, to send pupils to other institutions who can be taught . . . therein, and for the payment of their tuition and for furnishing and paying for their transportation . . . ."

TUITION

§15-40.2-02

"Any school district shall admit elementary and high school pupils from other districts to its schools when it can be done without injuring or overcrowding the schools after the board of the sending and admitting districts have entered into an agreement . . ." concerning tuition and enrollment.

§15-40.2-03

School districts educating pupils in other school districts shall pay the full cost of education. "Such costs shall be determined on the basis of average daily membership and shall include annual expenditures from the general fund and annual educational expenses from special funds, provided that only those expenditures permitted in determining the educational cost per pupil . . . shall be included in determining average current operating expenses. To such expense . . . shall be added double the state-wide total of all school districts' annual expenditures from sinking and interest funds plus double the statewide total of all school districts annual tax receipts to the building funds including any amounts expended from school districts' general funds for capital outlay divided by the average daily membership of the state. The following shall be deducted for each individual pupil:

1. Such payments as are received for him/her from the county equalization fund and state payments, less the average amount per state resident pupil enrolled in the school district realized from a twenty-mill levy; and

2. A credit applied for any school taxes paid to the admitting district by the pupil's parent or guardian.

The amount remaining shall be the tuition charge for the individual pupil . . . .

If the district of residence and the parent or guardian are both paying tuition the credit allowed for taxes shall be credited to the district of residence . . . ."

This shall not affect the right of a school district to charge tuition from pupils who are not residents of North Dakota.

§15-40.2-04

"Any school district which admits non-resident pupils to its schools . . . shall charge tuition for such pupils. The whole amount shall be paid by the district from which the pupil is admitted . . . ."

TUITION

Any school district that fails to sign a tuition agreement and collect tuition shall forfeit foundation payments for those nonresident students for whom tuition is not paid. A school district may accept nonresident students without a collection of tuition if a written agreement is made between the sending and receiving districts.

No school district shall collect from any non-resident pupil . . . or the district of [her/]his residence any registration, textbook or laboratory fee or any other fee which is not charged to resident pupils."

"The parent or guardian of any pupil who is a resident of a district may apply in writing to the school board of the district of the pupil's residence for approval of payment of tuition charges to another district for pupil's attendance in the other district. The school board shall, within sixty days of receipt of such application meet with the parent or guardian and render a decision in regard to payment of tuition charges. If no decision is rendered within sixty days . . . the application is approved." Once approved, the school board shall pay the tuition. If disapproved, "appeal may be filed with the county superintendent of schools and a three member committee consisting of the county judge, state's attorney and county superintendent of schools, which shall within fifteen days consult with the school boards of the districts concerned and with the parent or guardian and render a decision . . . . The committee shall determine whether the pupil is a high school pupil . . . which shall mean grades one through eight, inclusive, then proceed in accordance with the following:

1. If the pupil is a high school pupil and the committee finds that the attendance of the pupil is necessitated by shorter distances, previous attendance in another high school, inadequacy of the curriculum considering the educational needs of the pupil or other reasons of convenience it shall approve the payment obligating the district of residence to pay. The . . . approval may be for any fixed number of terms up to the pupil's completion of high school. The decision of the committee may be appealed to the state board of public school education, and the decision of this board shall be final.

2. If the pupil is an elementary pupil and the committee finds that attendance is necessitated by shorter distances or other reasons of convenience it shall approve the payment . . . obligating the district of residence to pay. The approval shall be limited to one school term and subsequent applications may be made annually. The decision of the committee shall be final.

If any portion of the district lies in more than one county, the committee shall consist of the county judge, state's attorney and county superintendent of schools from each county lying within the district, and the concurrence of at least two members from each county shall be necessary for a majority . . . . In the event that the district of the pupil's residence does not comply with the decision . . . to pay the tuition, the admitting district shall notify the county superintendent of schools and the state superintendent of public instruction . . . and upon verification . . ., all county equalization fund payments, including payments from the state for foundation aid shall be withheld from the district of the pupil's residence until the tuition has been fully paid. This shall not be construed to require the district of residence to provide transportation or payments in lieu thereof for pupils, for whom the payment of tuition has been approved."

§15-40.2-08

"The school district in which a child resides shall be the residence district of the child:

1. At the time any juvenile supervisor or court order has been issued requiring the child to stay . . . at a foster or nonprofit corporation home . . . or any referrals made from a state operated institution;

2. At the time of any placement by a county or state welfare agency with the consent of the parent or guardian . . . at a foster or nonprofit corporation home; or

3. At the time of voluntary admission to Grafton state school or any state licensed child care agency. Such district shall be liable for tuition upon claim of the admitting district . . . . In the event of placement by a county or state welfare agency with the consent of the parent or guardian, or the voluntary admission to any state-licensed child care agency, the tuition determination may be subject to appeal filed with the county superintendent of schools and the three member committee . . . . If the residency of neither parent can be determined upon discharge from Grafton state school or child care agency, the tuition shall be paid from state funds."

§15-40.2-09

"Students may attend a school in a bordering state under the following circumstances:

1. A student who lives within forty miles of another state or in a county bordering on another state, with the approval of the school board may attend public school . . . in a bordering state, and the district school board of the pupil's residence may contract with the bordering state for the student's education.

2. A student who resides within a district which is annexed to or reorganized with another district which has been sending students to school in a bordering state . . . shall be permitted to continue attending school in the bordering state. If a request for attendance is denied . . . by the district school board of the pupil's residence, appeal may be made to the three member committee . . . . Their decision may be appealed to the state board of public education, whose decision is final . . . ." State funding shall be withheld from the district if it does not comply with the decision. Payments shall be made by the county and district of the pupil's residence. Attendance of the student must be certified to the county superintendent of the pupil's residence.

This shall not require the district of the pupil's residence to provide transportation or payments in lieu thereof, for such pupils.

§15-40.2-10

The superintendent of public instruction may enter into reciprocal agreements with the appropriate state agencies of a bordering state in regard to the cost of educating elementary and high school pupils in such bordering states. The agreements may provide for payments from the county and district.

§15-47-01

"The public schools of the state shall be equally free, open and accessible at all times to all children between the ages of six and twenty-one, except that children who do not arrive at the age of six years . . . by August 31 shall not start school until the beginning of the following year, except children who by reason of special talents or abilities as determined by a series of developmental and readiness screening instruments, approved by the state department of public instruction and administered by the school district, may start school at a younger age. However, . . . a child [may not] start school that school year, if he[she] is not six years of age by January 1."

§15-47-18.

"Any child whose parents or guardian reside upon land owned and used by any county . . . as a poor farm is not a resident of any school district for school purposes." The school district shall be entitled to charge tuition of $1.50 per week for enrollment of the child in the grade or high school. Unless the tuition is paid by the county equalization fund, it shall be paid by the county which owns the poor farm.

§3313.64

"The schools of each city, exempted village, or local school district shall be free to all school residents between five and twenty-one years of age.... School residents shall be all... children or wards of actual residents of the school district." The inmate of a county, semipublic, and district children's home may also be eligible for free schooling. "The board may admit the inmates of a private children's home... in the district" provided that the child had previously been a school resident of such district. If the inmate was a school resident of another district of the state, said other district shall pay tuition. If the inmate was not a school resident of the state, the children's home shall pay such tuition. "All youth of school age living apart from their parents or guardians and who work to support themselves..., shall be entitled to attend schools from in the district in which they are employed."

"The board of education of a city, exempted village, or local school district may admit other persons to the public schools of its respective district upon the payment of tuition within the limitation of law." TUITION

"The board of education of a city, exempted village, or local school district may admit other persons to the public schools of its respective district upon the payment of tuition within the limitation of law."

Tuition for foreign students temporarily residing in the district may be waived by the board.

§3321.01

"A child between six and eighteen years of age is of 'compulsory school age'.... The compulsory school age of a child shall not commence until the beginning of the [school] term... " or other time as fixed by the board.

This provision sets the necessary birth dates for entrance to kindergarten and first grade, except for districts which make exceptions to the age requirement based on meeting standards as determined by standardized testing programs. Such tests may be given at the request of a pupil's parent or guardian.

§3321.13

WITHDRAWAL

Whenever a child of compulsory school age withdraws from school, the teacher shall ascertain the reason for such action, and shall transmit such information to the district superintendent.

If a child withdraws from school because of a change of residence, the new residence shall be ascertained and information on the child shall be transferred to the superintendent of the new district.

The forms used for such purposes are at the discretion of the superintendent of public instruction.

§3327.04

Any district board of education may contract with any district for the admission and(or) transportation of pupils into any school in the latter's district. When such contract is made for all high school pupils between a district not maintaining a high school and one which does, "the board making such an agreement is exempt from the payment of tuition at other high schools of pupils living within three miles of the school designated in the agreement." In the absence of such agreement, the high school to be attended may be selected by the student holding an eighth grade diploma, and the tuition will be paid by the board of district residence.

§3327.06 -- .07

When a pupil attends school in one district and resides in another district, tuition shall be credited and paid in accordance with this code.

When a district board admits a pupil as a non-resident and tuition is not an obligation of the pupil's board of residence, such tuition shall be collected from the parents or guardian of the pupil in an amount prescribed by this code. When a board fails to collect tuition from the parents or guardian, the attendance of such a pupil is unauthorized. Unauthorized attendance may not be included in attendance figures for calculating state aid, etc. Such attendance shall be credited to the district of the pupil's residence.

The reporting official shall keep a separate record of "average daily membership" of non-resident pupils who have not otherwise been provided for by contract between school boards.

§3327.11

A district board of education may furnish the cost of a pupil's room and board or a part thereof while the pupil is attending school provided that the district does not maintain a high school and pays tuition to another district for pupils, or pays tuition to a district having a high school of a higher grade than its own, and the amount of room and board is less than the cost of transportation that would be involved.

G. Admissions and Transfers

Statutes

§70-1-113

Any question regarding a student's residency shall be resolved by the county superintendent of schools for the county in which the student claims to reside.

A child's residency is the legal residency of her/his parent or guardian. If a child is self-supporting, she/he is a resident of the district in which she/he works and attends school.

§70-1-114

All children between the ages of five years on or before November 1, and 21 years on or before September 1, are entitled to attend school free of charge in the district in which they reside. Underage children may be admitted to nursery classes approved by the State Board of Education and conducted by the school district in which the child resides, or they may attend district schools "on a tuition basis only." Failure to pay tuition shall result in stoppage of State Aid Funds until tuition is paid or the pupil expelled.

TUITION

§70-5-132

Any resident of Oklahoma over 21 and under 26 who has not completed the twelfth grade in school, shall be given the same educational opportunities as children over 5 and under 21, upon submitting to the local board of education evidence showing that he or she was unable to attend school for a definite period of time because of physical disability or military service. The pupil shall be counted in the average daily attendance of the district for the purpose of computing state aid.

§70-8-101 — 8-102

TRANSFER

Any child residing in a school district that does not offer the grade which he or she is entitled to pursue may transfer to a school district which does offer the grade. The county superintendent of schools shall grant an application for transfer if approved by the boards of education of the sending and receiving districts. Provided, that if a grade is not offered in the child's own district, the transfer must be approved.

The state board of education may transfer a child to a school district in another state if approved by the local board of education of the district where the child resides. Any brother or sister of a transferred child may attend the same school with approval of the receiving district. If a child changes residence from a school district offering her or his grade to another district, she or he may attend school in either district for the remainder of the year.

§70-8-103

The board of education of each affected district shall have an opportunity to show cause why the transfer should not be granted. After the county superintendent of schools decides on the transfer request, such decision may be appealed to the district court by either board of education or the child's parent or guardian.

§70-8-104, 8-111

EMERGENCY TRANSFER

Written application for emergency transfer designating the desired district shall be made by a parent or guardian, and on adequate showing of emergency, the county superintendent may order a transfer, subject to approval by the State Board of Education. Such an emergency shall include only the total or partial destruction of a school building, the inability to furnish a grade or subject, and the total failure of transportation facilities previously had or contemplated.

Transfers previously made may be cancelled with the concurrence of the receiving district, and a retransfer granted.

§70-1210.202

"No pupil shall be assigned, transferred or otherwise compelled to attend any school on account of race, creed, color, or national origin, and no school district shall seek to achieve racial balance . . . by transferring . . . pupils from one school to another . . . or one district to another." Provided, voluntary transfers are allowed and are not inconsistent with this section.

G. Admission and Transfer

Statutes

§332.595

Children between the ages of 4 and 18 shall be considered residents for school purposes in the school district in which their parents, guardians or persons in parental relationship to them reside. Non-emancipated individuals between the ages of 4 and 18 living outside the geographic area of the school district shall be considered resident in the district in which their parents, guardians or persons in parental relationship to them reside.

Individuals considered legally emancipated from their parents shall be considered resident in the districts where they reside.

Wards of public or private agencies shall be considered resident in the school district in which they reside as a result of such placement.

Those living in the school district for the primary purpose of attending a district school shall not be considered legally resident in the districts in which they live, but are residents of the district in which their parents, guardians, or persons in parental relationship to them maintain residency.

§335.090

The school district is responsible for the high school education of all school age children resident in a district not operating a high school.

TUITION

Tuition of resident pupils attending standard public high schools within or outside the state is to be paid by the district.

Transportation to the nearest public high school or, where more reasonable, room and board shall be furnished by the district.

The estimated cost of services under this section shall be part of the budget.

§336.165

Tuition may be charged for courses not part of the regular school program, but not in excess of the "estimated cost to the district [in] furnishing the program, class or course of study."

Students enrolled in the regular school program may not be charged for any special instruction received in connection therewith.

Except for driver instruction and courses of study beyond the 12th grade, "no program, class or course of study for which tuition is charged, . . . shall be eligible for reimbursement from state funds."

§336.168

Tuition cannot be charged by a public school to a pupil from a low-income family, for courses not part of the regular school program, in excess of the amount of money received by such family to pay for such fees.

A low-income family is one whose children qualify for free or reduced price school lunch under the federal lunch program.

Other families may request waiver of such fees where they believe payment is a severe hardship.

§339.115

All students between the ages of 6 and 21 residing in a school district shall be admitted free. Nonresidents may be charged.

"A child entering school for the first time must be six on or before November 15.

The school board may provide that a child eligible to enter a first year class at the beginning of the term, who does not enter within the first four weeks, shall be ineligible to enter until another beginning 1st year class is organized. This requirement may be waived for disadvantaged children.

§339.125

District school boards may contract in writing with each other for the admission of pupils from other districts. "Expenses incurred shall be paid . . .[by] the district sending such pupils." If a district fails to pay, "the administrative office for the county containing such school district, after satisfactory proof of such failure, shall deduct the amount of the unpaid expense from the amount due the school district at the next regular apportionment. The treasurer shall pay the amount . . . out of the county school fund."

§339.135

School age children living in an "area within which the U.S. government has exclusive jurisdiction shall be admitted free of charge at adjacent public schools [and] may be placed on the school census of the district in which they attend school."

§339.155

Public schools may not require payment of fees as a condition of admission to pupils entitled by law to free admission. "[T]he following are not considered conditions of admission;" (a)". . . tuition may be charged for courses not part of the regular school program;" (b) a "charge may be made for textbooks for grades 9 through 12, but textbooks must be loaned without charge to indigent pupils;" (c) a "fee . . . for a lock and hasp for a locker."

Pupils who do not furnish their own attire or towels for physical education classes may be charged appropriate fees for the use of uniforms or towels provided by the district.

§346.030

Applications for admission are made to the Department of Education on forms provided for that purpose.

REGULATIONS

§581-22-251

In evaluating student transcripts, the administrator shall: accept 9th grade units the same as high school unit completion; accept minimum competencies, credits and attendance from a standard school in another district; accept units and credits for out-of-state transfer students; determine the value of credit of private schools, or other non-public schools; determine minimum graduation requirements; determine grade placement for elementary schools; determine value of credit for correspondence schools, and determine value of credit for approved community college programs.

G. Admission and Transfer

Statutes

§13-1301

Every child, being a resident of any school district, between the ages of 6 and 21, may attend the public schools in his/her district. The board of school directors may admit to the schools of the district, with or without payment of tuition, any non-resident child temporarily residing in the district, and may require the attendance of such child in the same manner and on the same conditions as required of a resident child.

TUITION

§13-1302

"A child shall be considered a resident of the school district in which his[her] parents or the guardian of his[hers] resides." Children residing on federal installations shall be counted as resident pupils of the school district in which such installation is situated. When a resident of any school district keeps in his/her home a child of school age, not his/her own, supporting the child gratis as if it were his/her own, such child shall be entitled to all free school privileges and subject to all the requirements accorded to and placed upon resident school children of the district.

§13-1304

Beginners (lowest grade of primary school or lowest primary class above the kindergarten level) are to be admitted in the "first two weeks of the annual school term in districts operating on an annual promotion basis and the first two weeks of either the first or second semester of the school term in districts operating on a semi-annual promotion basis. Beginners must be 5 years and 7 months before September 1 if to be admitted in the Fall, or February 1 if to be admitted in the 2nd semester. The Board of School Directors may admit younger, in accordance with standards prescribed by the State Board of Education. "The board of school directors may refuse to accept or retain beginners who have not attained a mental age of five years, as determined by the supervisor of special education or a properly certified public school psychologist in accordance with standards prescribed by the State Board of Education."

§13-1305

When a non-resident child is placed in the home of a resident of any school district by court order or by arrangement with an association which compensates the resident for keeping the child, the child shall be entitled to all free school privileges accorded to resident school children of the district.

Any resident of any school district, before accepting custody of such non-resident child, must secure, from the Superintendent of schools a written statement that the child can or cannot be accommodated in the schools of the district.

§13-1306; 13-1306a

The board of school directors of any school district in which there is located an institution for the care or training of orphans "shall permit any children who are inmates of such homes, but not legal residents in such district, to attend the public schools. The school directors may determine whether to charge for tuition, textbooks, or school supplies. "If the district(s) . . . does not have facilities to accommodate . . . [these] children . . . the board of directors shall notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction. . ." who "shall direct the district . . . to enter into an agreement with another school district . . . to accept them on a tuition basis.

Whenever non-resident children attend the public schools in such district where the institution is located, they shall be furnished proper transportation provided for resident children.

§13-1310

"The board of school directors may, upon cause shown, permit any pupil(s) in any school district to attend such other school in the district or may classify and assign the pupils in the district to any school(s) therein as it may deem best, in order to properly educate them." Whenever any children have their residence more than two miles from school and free transportation is not provided, the Board may reassign them to a school in some other district within two miles of their residence. Tuition shall be charged. "It shall be unlawful for any school directors, superintendents, or teachers to make any distinction whatever on account of . . . the race or color of any pupil . . . who may be in attendance upon, or seeking admission to, any public school."

TUITION

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

§13-1313

Where any pupil in any school district resides one and one-half miles or more from the nearest public elementary school in the district, such pupil, unless free transportation is furnished, may attend any public elementary school in another district more convenient by obtaining the consent of the board of school directors of the other school district.

§13-1314

Pupils may attend school in the district to which the territory of their residence formerly attached if the district in which they presently reside does not have like facilities of the former attached district. The district in which they reside shall pay tuition to the district in which they attend. If the school district in which the pupils presently reside provides within a reasonable distance proper school facilities of like grades to those in the former attached district, the pupils shall attend the schools in the district in which they reside. In case of dispute, the decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction as to sufficiency and reasonableness of the school facilities provided by the district in the pupils reside shall be final.

TUITION

§13-1315

Children residing one and one-half miles or more from the nearest public elementary school or three miles or more from the nearest high school in the district where proper free transportation is furnished may on request of parents or guardian be assigned by the board of school directors to a more convenient school in another state: Provided, consent is given by the proper school officials in the other state.

§13-1316

The board of school directors "may permit any non-resident pupils to attend the public schools in its district upon such terms as it may determine."

§16-1603

The public high schools shall admit those children under the age of twenty one who reside within the school districts and have undergone examinations prescribed by the board of school directors.

EXAMINATION

§16-1607 -- 1609

Pupils in a school district that has no public school may attend the nearest convenient high school. The same holds true even though there is a vocational high school in such district.

The consent of the board of school directors is needed in order to attend a school outside their district. Written approval is needed to have tuition paid while attending such out-of-district schools. Any eligible child who resides three miles or more from the nearest high school in the district, may attend any more convenient high school in another district, unless transportation is provided to a school in the district. The district in which he/she resides shall be liable to the district whose high school he/she attends for the tuition charge provided for in this act.

§16-1610

Pupils desiring to attend these out of district schools must satisfy the superintendent "having supervision of the district in which they reside" of their fitness to attend the school.

§2601-2602

Indigent children shall receive free education, as funds allow. However, "where more children shall be offered for the benefit of this institution than can be received at any one time, the president and directors shall so apportion their number among the several counties . . . according to their representation, that every county may equally receive the benefits of the same." Children of this state shall be given preference.

REGULATIONS

§ 5.18

"Credits granted by an approved secondary school shall be accepted by all public secondary schools in the Commonwealth upon the transfer of a student."

§11.11 -- 11.13

"Every child of school age residing in a school district shall be entitled to attend the district's public schools established by the board of school directors."

School age is the period of a child's life from the earliest admission age to a school district's pre-elementary school program, or when no pre-elementary school program is provided, to the district's earliest admission date for beginners, which shall be no later than 6 years, until the age of 21 years. Beginner means any child that should enter the lowest grade of an elementary school above kindergarten.

Compulsory school age refers to the period of a child's life from the time the child enters school as a beginner which shall be no later than age 8 until age 17 or graduation from a regularly accredited senior high school whichever occurs first.

§11.14 -- 11.16

The board of school directors shall establish the district's minimum entry age to kindergarten which shall not be less than four years no months and the maximum entry age which shall be less than the district's minimum entry age for beginners.

"The board of school directors shall establish the district's minimum entry age for beginners which shall not be less than 5 years and seven months or more than six years no months as of the admission period of the school term of the district."

The board of school directors may upon parental request when recommended by a public school psychologist and approved by the district superintendent of schools, admit as a beginner any child with a chronological age of 5 years and a mental age of seven years or more as of the admission period of the district's school term, but there is no requirement that a board of school directors admit any child as a beginner whose chronological age is less than the district's established admission age for beginners as of the district's admission period.

§ 12.1

All persons residing in Pennsylvania between the ages of 6-21 are entitled to a free and full education in the public schools. The right extends to migratory children and pregnant or married students. Mentally retarded children also are entitled to a public-sponsored program of education and training appropriate to their learning capabilities.

Parents or guardians of all children between the ages of 8 and 17 are required by compulsory attendance law to insure that their children attend an approved educational institution, unless legally excused.

Students may not be asked to leave school merely because they have reached 17 if they are fulfilling their responsibilities as students. A student may not be excluded from the public schools or extra curricular activities because of being married or pregnant.

Any two school districts may agree "to provide special services, make purchases, share equipment, develop curriculum and interchange pupils or educational services."

§59-63-20 --59-63-40

Children shall be entitled to attend the public schools only if qualified under the following provisions: 'the child resides with his/her parent/guardian within the school district or owns $300 worth of real estate in the district; the child maintains a satisfactory scholastic record, and has complied with the rules of conduct set forth by the school trustees.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"No person shall be refused admission into or be excluded from any public school in the state on account of race, creed, color or national origin." No person shall be compelled to attend any school either on the basis of race, color, creed or to achieve "equality in attendance" except by express approval of the board. However, this section shall not prevent a parent from requesting a reassignment for his/her child or prevent a denominational school from selecting its pupils "exclusively or primarily from members . . . of that denomination."

§59-63-410 --59-63-530

No students shall be enrolled in more than one school in any school year.

All students enrolled in a public school in the state who transfer to another school in South Carolina must present an enrollment card obtained from their previous school. The student shall not be re-enrolled but kept on a separate list attached to the list of enrolled pupils.

Anyone violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined up to twenty-five dollars. Each school shall furnish to the trustees annually a list of all pupils that have attended the school during the preceding academic year.

If a child wishes to transfer to a school district within the county, the board of trustees of each school must approve. If, however, the trustees "unreasonably and capriciously withhold their consent," the county board of education shall have the right to make the transfer on the condition that each pupil transferred pay semiannually in advance if financially able to do so . . . ."

Students residing in one county who wish to transfer to a school in an adjacent county may do so if the school officials of each county agree and the child pays the appropriate charges for tuition to that county as authorized in this section.

TUITION

REGULATIONS

§43-271

A child must be five years old before November 1 to be admitted to kindergarten, and six years old before November 1 to be admitted to first grade.

§43-272

To be admitted to elementary school, a pupil must present a birth certificate and evidence of required immunization. Secondary and vocational schools must offer preregistration forms outlining the courses students may take while in school. The requirement of a birth certificate is waived for Vietnamese children.

§43-273

In elementary, middle, and secondary schools, each pupil transferring will be given a transfer form. Students may be required to pay tuition. If a student transfers from a school which is not accredited, she/he shall be tested to determine the student's academic level.

§1701

Public schools are free to all persons over the age of 6. Local boards of education have the authority to admit students out of the district and to arrange for transfers of students residing within the district to schools located elsewhere. If a student meets the requirements set down by the local boards for transfer, such pupil may be admitted. Tuition shall be charged to students residing outside of the districts.

TUITION

§1702

Any child residing in the state who is at least six years old or will be six by a specified date may enter public school within 30 days after the opening day of the term.

§1741

"The board of education . . . is authorized and required to provide for the enrollment in a public school of each child who is eligible for enrollment . . . ."

"No pupil shall be enrolled in, admitted to, or entitled or permitted to attend any public school in such local system other than the public school to which the pupil may be assigned pursuant to the rules, regulations and decisions of [the] board of education . . ."

In determining which public school pupils will be assigned to, some of the following factors may be considered by the board of education: the availability of space and teaching capacity in the various schools; the pupil's place of residence as related to the schools in the system; available transportation; the effect of enrollment on the child's welfare and on the operation of the school; the suitability of established curricula for particular pupils; the adequacy of the pupil's academic preparation for admission to a particular school and curriculum; the scholastic aptitude and relative intelligence or mental energy or ability of the pupil; the psychological qualifications of the pupil for the type of teaching and associations involved; the effect of admission of the pupil upon the academic program of other students in a particular school or [its] facility; the effect of admission upon prevailing academic standards at a particular school; the psychological effect upon the pupil of attendance at a particular school; the effect of any disparity between the physical and mental ages of any pupil to be enrolled, especially when contrasted with the average physical and mental ages of the group with which the pupil may be placed; the sociological, psychological, and like intangible social scientific factors as will prevent, as nearly as possible, a condition of socioeconomic class consciousness among the pupils; the possibility or threat of friction or disorder among pupils or others; the possibility of breaches of the peace or economic retaliation within the community; the home environment of the pupil; the maintenance or severance of established social and psychological relationships with other pupils and with teachers; the choice and interests of the pupil; the sex, morals, conduct, health and personal standards of the pupil; the request or consent of parents or guardians and the reasons assigned therefor; and other factors which the board may find pertinent.

"The board is authorized to prescribe a date reasonably in advance of the opening of school for filing of applications for admission or transfer," and has the right to refuse "applications filed after such date . . ."

§1746

"In determining and applying . . . rules for admission of children to the public schools, the board . . . may make investigations, conduct surveys . . ." and form other committees and groups to assist in plans with respect to the enrollment of children and the assignment of pupils to grades, classes and courses of study.

A local board may provide a procedure to determine "the competency of students who have attended kindergarten to advance directly to the second grade." Those determined competent under the procedure may advance to the second grade.

PROMOTION

§1747 — 1748

"[The] board of education may give individual written notice of assignment on each pupil's report card or by written notice by any other feasible means to the parent . . . ."

If the parent or guardian is dissatisfied with the assignment, he/she can ask for a hearing within 10 days of the assignment. The application for transfer shall give the reasons why such an assignment is not favored. The board will then set a date for the hearing.

HEARING

§1749 -- 1763

The board shall consider each case separately and decide on the merits. A decision shall be entered and a copy of it sent to all parties appearing at the hearing.

The board is not confined to the rules of evidence applicable to the court, but it must give "effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law." Witnesses can be subpoenaed and forced to appear by the board of education.

The board may employ counsel to appear on its behalf at such hearings.

The burden of proof is on the person challenging the board's action. The board can designate one or more of its members or examiners to conduct the hearings.

REVIEW

The parent or guardian may obtain a judicial review of the decision by filing for review in the county chancery court.

After the hearing, the court may dismiss or vacate the order in whole or in part. If vacated the court may remand the case to the board of education for further proceedings. If supported by evidence, the findings of fact shall be final. The review of the chancery court shall be extended only if the board "has acted illegally, fraudulently or in excess of its jurisdiction. . . ."

APPEAL

The order of the chancery court may be taken to the Court of Appeals or to the Supreme Court.

"The rules of pleading, practice and procedure ordinarily followed in chancery cases will be followed . . . ."

Actions for review shall be filed only by the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child.

"No board of education or member, nor its agents or examiners, shall be answerable to a charge of libel, slander or other action . . . by reason of any finding or statement contained in written findings of fact or decisions . . . ."

§1770 — 1771

"No person shall be refused admission into or be excluded from any school on account of race, creed, color, sex, or national origin."

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"No student shall be assigned or compelled to attend any school on account of race, creed, color or national origin, or for the purpose of achieving equality in attendance or increased attendance or reduced attendance, at any school, of persons of one or more particular races, creeds, colors or national origins " No district or school zone shall be established or maintained for these reasons. Nothing in this section shall stop a parent or guardian from assigning his or her child as he/she wishes, and nothing shall affect a religious or denominational educational institution's right to select or give preference to pupils on the basis of his/her religious belief.

§5201 -- 5204

State and local boards of education cannot prohibit students of church-related schools from transferring to public schools. Local boards may, however, put these students in a grade level based on his/her performance "on a test administered by the board. If the state requires a similar test for students transferring from public schools, such test must be given to students from the church-related schools. However, the terms of the public and church-related schools shall be of the same length.

REGULATIONS

pp. 74-75

Pupils wishing to transfer from schools unapproved by the Tennessee State Board of Education to approved schools "shall be allowed credit only when they have passed comprehensive written examinations approved, administered, and graded by the principal or his[her] designated representative."

Examinations shall vary according to grade level of transferring students.

"The principal or his[her] designated representative is authorized to transmit a transcript of the academic record of a pupil to any other school to which the pupil transfers . . . when the transcript is requested by the receiving school . . . . The parent or guardian of the pupil will be notified that the transcript is being sent."

p.78

"Evidence of date of birth shall be presented to the school at the time of registration."

G. ADMISSION AND TRANSFER

STATUTES

§ 2.03

"The educational institutions. . .are designed for and are open to the people of the State of Texas, subject only to such rules and regulations as the governing board of the institutions may be authorized to make and enforce for the welfare of the institutions under their control."

§21.031

"All children who are citizens of the United States or legally admitted aliens and who are over the age of five years and under the age of 21 years on the first day of September of any scholastic year shall be entitled to the benefits of the available School Fund for that year." These children may be "permitted to attend the public free schools of the district in which he[she] resides or in which his[her] parent, guardian, or the person having lawful control of him[her] resides at the time he[she] applies for admission." These children are to be admitted without payment of tuition to any public school.

§21.0311

"[A] child who resides at a child caring institution and whose maintenance expenses are paid in whole or in part by another state may not be admitted to a public school unless the child-caring institution pays tuition for the child...."

TUITION

The State Board of Education shall set tuition rates for such children, and his[her] attendance "shall not be counted for purposes of allocating state funds to the district."

§21.040

The board of trustees of any district may admit pupils either over or under the school age as long as the schools are not overcrowded to the neglect and injury of pupils within the scholastic age.

§21.061

"Any child, other than a high school graduate, who is over 6 and under 21 years of age at the beginning of any scholastic year may annually transfer from his[her] school district of residence to another ... district, provided that both the receiving district and the applicant parent... jointly approve and timely agree in writing to transfer."

In order for there to be an emergency transfer an application must be filed with the commissioner of education by the district to which the transfer is to be made, and the transfer "may be made only from a county or counties where a public calamity ... has resulted in ... a sudden change in scholastic population ...."

No application will be granted unless "the increase in scholastic population ... is in excess of 20 percent of the number of children assigned to the district as a result of the scholastic census and regular transfers..." , or unless "the sudden change in scholastic population of the county or district would work a hardship on the public free schools of the county...." In the case of such transfers the receiving county must wait until June 15 to receive its final apportionment of school funds, by order of the commissioner of education.

Under the approval of the county superintendent and the county school trustees any child may attend the school in a contiguous state if it is found to be more convenient for him to do so, and his[her] tuition shall be paid by the district of his residence.

Any board of county school trustees may, on an individual basis transfer a pupil to another school within its jurisdiction.

§21.075--.079

Pertinent factors in the "assignment , transfer, or continuance" of any pupil in the schools are affected by these factors: a) room and teaching capacity, b) transportation facilities, c) the effect that a new pupil might have on academics at the school, d) the relevancy of curricula for the new pupil, e) the pupil's academic preparation, f) the pupil's ability, g) the pupil's psychological qualifications as well as the psychological effect upon the pupil because of attendance, h) the effect of the admission of the pupil upon "the academic progress of other students" as well as upon prevailing academic standards, i) the chance of friction among pupils or others, j) possibility of the breach of peace, k) pupils home environment, l) continuance of established social relationships between students and teachers, m) "choice and interests of the pupil" and the overall well-being of the pupil, all this regardless of pupil's national origin or ancestral language.

"A board may require the assignment of people to any or all schools within its jurisdiction on the basis of sex, but only in light of the factors just mentioned.

PETITION

A parent may "request the transfer or assignment of the pupil" or "file objections to the assignment of the pupil..." by way of petition. Upon the receipt of such a written petition the board shall hold a hearing, or act on the petition. If a hearing is held the petitioner may "present evidence relevant to the individual pupil", and the board may conduct an investigation of the issues. The board's action will be final unless an exception be filed that the action of the board constituted "a denial of any right of the pupil under the constitution of the United States."

HEARING

APPEAL

If such an exception is filed, and the board does not reconsider its action within 15 days, an appeal may be taken to the district court of the county where the board is located, this petition must be filed "within 30 days of the board's final decision" and must state facts "relevant... to the alleged denial of ... rights ....", as well as being accompanied by bond "conditioned to pay all costs of appeal if the same shall not be sustained."

The boards of trustees of two or more adjoining districts or counties may "arrange for the transfer and assignment of any pupil ... from the jurisdiction or one board to ... another:, this to be accompanied by a transfer of funds.

§26.64

"Any handicapped person six years of age or older ... may be admitted into a district for education and training...." unless:

1) he/she does not reside within the district in which case full remuneration is received from his/her home county, family or other sources;

2) he/she has not been referred to it by the independent school district in which he/she resides;

3) he/she has not applied for admission and been found acceptable for education and training by the entrance committee of the district which shall set the admission standards.

REGULATIONS

§2304.10

"The school district reports the attendance by ineligible pupils to the Texas Education Agency . . . ."

§2304.13-.13.2

"Public education for the children of Texas shall be free and no pupil shall be denied an education because of his/her inability to furnish educational supplies necessary for attaining an education." The following fees shall not be collected for:

1) Driver education;
2) Classroom materials;
3) Rental items, i.e., uniforms;
4) Club membership;
5) Lockers and towels;
6) Vocational.

§2308

"A school district enrolling children who reside at a child-caring institution and whose maintenance expenses are paid in whole or in part by another state or by parents residing in another state shall admit these children only upon the payment of tuition by the child-caring institution in an amount equal to the actual cost of educating a child enrolled in a similar educational program in the district." Such tuition rates are determined by a formula within this policy statement, and all such rates are to be approved by the Commissioner.

§2308

TUITION

This series concerns itself with tuition for certain children from other states enrolled in the public schools of Texas. Included is a report concerning such students which gives his[her] name, type of program, amount of tuition, etc. This report must be submitted each November 1 for such students.

"The tuition rates must be substantiated by school district records detailing the manner in which these rates are computed and be made available for audit purposes."

"A person who is a resident of a school district subject to the Foundation School Program, who has not graduated from a high school and who is at least five . . . years of age but not 21 or more years of age on September 1 of the school year for which admission is sought and who is a citizen of the United States or a legally admitted alien, shall be allowed free attendance in the school district of residence. Eligibility requirements for otherwise eligible non-resident pupils may be satisfied through the approved transfer process. . . .

All children who are at least five years but not six years old on the first day of September are eligible for free attendance for either one-half day for the entire school year or for full-day attendance for one-half (one semester) of the school year inthe school district in which they reside or are otherwise entitled to attend for Foundation School Program benefits.

'Educationally handicapped' children are, at the discretion of the school district, eligible for full-day attendance for the entire school year.

For the purpose of determining an eligible pupil, an 'educationally handicapped' child is defined as:

(1) a child who cannot speak, read, and comprehend the English language to the extent that he[she] is familiar with the common English language words that are necessary for normal progress in the first grade; or

(2) a child who is now from a family whose annual income is at or below the subsistence level of $3,000.

Beginning with the 1977-78 school year, all kindergarten students are, at the discretion of the school district, eligible for half or full-day attendance for the entire school year.

An eligible pupil between the ages of 3 and 21 inclusive, with physical or mental handicap . . . shall be allowed to attend school in a school district, subject to the Foundation School Program, which is authorized to admit the pupil.

Each child who is seven years of age and not more than 17 years of age and who is not excused from attendance must be enrolled in and in attendance in a public school for a minimum of 165 days of the 180 days he[she] is eligible for attendance per school year. . . . .

A person between the ages of 7 and 18 who is excused from attending the public schools is one who

(1) has graduated from a recognized high school;

(2) attends a non-public school recognized for compulsory attendance purposes in accordance with Policy 2401.2;

(3) holds a certificate from a qualified physician stating a bodily or mental condition exists making it unfeasible to attend school;

(4) is more than 17 years of age and has satisfactorily completed the work of the ninth grade and who presents to the county superintendent or lawful authority satisfactory evidence that his[her] services are needed in support of parents or other persons in a parental relation; or

(5) is more than 15 years of age and is enrolled in a technical-vocational training program, a work-study program, or an apprenticeship program approved by his[her] parent or guardian and the superintendent of the public school he[she] would otherwise attend.

:Pupils either over or under the eligible free attendance age as specified in Policy 5101.1 who reside either in or out of the district may be permitted to attend as provided by the school district in accordance with Policy 2304.10."

§21.1-57

The public schools of each school district in the state shall at all times be equally free and accessible to all resident children over six years of age and under the age of twenty-one, subject to such regulations as the board of trustees may prescribe. Each school district shall operate its schools and its classes for a minimum of one hundred seventy-five days each school year."

§21.1-58

"(a) a pupil may register in the first grade . . . in the year in which his[her] sixth birthday falls on or before September 15."

"(b) a pupil may register in kindergarten . . . in the year in which his[her] fifth birthday falls on or before September 15."

§21.1-67

"Any district which does not maintain a high school shall pay tuition, in addition to transportation or maintenance, for any child resident therein who has successfully completed the course offered therein and desires to attend high school at any public school within or without the state which the board may designate in the best interests, welfare and convenience of the child."

TUITION

"The board of trustees of any school district . . . which does maintain a four-year high school shall admit, upon payment of tuition, pupils of districts which do not maintain a four year high school" unless "to do so would overcrowd the facilities of the admitting district or in any way work a definite hardship upon the education program offered by the admitting district."

§21.1-68

TUITION

"The board of trustees of every school district . . . may pay tuition from the funds of the district for any pupil resident therein who desires to attend school in another district when attendance in such other district would be more convenient or is desirable because of services available in such other district.

Any district within the state shall admit pupils resident in other districts of the state, except when such admission shall overcrowd the classrooms of the admitting district." Tuition may be paid by the district in which the pupil resides, but no district is liable for such payment unless it has previously given written permission to the enrollment of the pupil.

§21.1-70

TUITION

"Any school district paying tuition for a pupil may, in its discretion, pay all or any part of the board and room required to maintain the pupil in the admitting district and may pay all or part of the room and board of exceptional children placed outside the district."

§21.1-71

The board of trustees of any school district may enter into an agreement for the instruction of pupils resident in the district in a public school maintained by another state whenever this appears advantageous or economical, at rates of tuition specified in the agreement. Any school district may agree to admit pupils from out of state at a rate of tuition at least as high as the actual per pupil cost.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§16-8-34

The county board of education shall upon the superintendent's recommendation, arrange the county into one or more compulsory school attendance districts and shall see to it that the compulsory attendance laws are enforced.

§16-9-30

The county superintendent shall see to it that the school attendance laws are enforced.

§16-10-5

A teacher may not dismiss a pupil or close the school during school hours, except in an emergency, without the consent of the board of school trustees or the county superintendent.

§16-12-18

The city superintendent shall recommend the attendance officers and see that the attendance laws are enforced.

§16-28-2;4

In order to secure compliance with the attendance laws and to hold parents responsible for pupil attendance, those charged with enforcement of the attendance laws are vested with wide discretion. All children between the ages of seven and 16 years are required to attend school. A child who is six years old on or before October 1 may be admitted to the public elementary schools for that year.

§16-28-6

Certificates of exemption may be issued by the county superintendent of education to the following children: (1) those whose physical or mental condition is such as to prevent attendance; (2) children 16 or over who have completed high school; (3) those who reside more than two miles from school and do not have access to transportation; and (4) children who are legally employed.

§16-28-7;8

Enrollment lists must be submitted to the county superintendent of education at the beginning of each school year. Attendance registers must be kept and all absences recorded.

§16-28-9;11

County and city superintendents are required to make a list for each school under their supervision of all children between seven and 16 who should attend the school. This list will be compared with the enrollment report to ascertain what children are not enrolled.

§16-28-12;13

Parents or guardians who fail to send their child to school are guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined and sentenced. Parents may be excused from this obligation, however, if there was good cause for the absence, if the child is uncontrollable, or if the parent is unable to provide books and clothing for the child to attend school.

§16-28-16;17

Attendance officers have a duty to investigate all cases of nonenrollment and absence. If there was no good cause for the absence, the attendance officer is required to bring criminal prosecution against the child's parent or guardian.

§16-28-19

The county board of education shall divide the county into attendance districts and appoint an attendance officer for each district.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§14.30.010 -- .020

(a) "Every child between 7 and 16 years of age shall attend school at the public school in the district" of his residence. Reponsibility for insuring attendance rests with the child's parent or guardian.

(b) "This section does not apply if a child" (1) attends private school or is privately tutored; (2) "attends a school operated by the federal government; (3) has a physical or mental condition which . . . will make attendance impractical; (4) is in the custody of a court or law enforcement authorities; (5) is temporarily ill or injured; (6) has been suspended or denied admittance . . .; (7) resides more than two miles from a public school or a route on which transportation is provided" and does not "reside within two miles of a federal or private school which he is eligible and able to attend; (8) is excused in writing signed by a majority of . . . the school board . . ., or by the director of state-operated schools . . .; (9) has completed the 12th grade; (10) is enrolled in [an approved] full time program of correspondence study . . .; (11) is equally well served by an educational experience approved by the school board as serving his educational interests. [The] request for excuse is made in writing by his parents or guardian, and approved by the principal or administrator of the school he attends."

Violation of §10 is a misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment.

§14.30.030

"The chief administrative officer of a district or state-operated school shall report all apparent violations of the compulsory attendance laws to the governing body of the district." If there appears to have been a violation after a full and impartial hearing, the board shall file a complaint in the district court. "The judge or magistrate may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person and may act on the complaint."

§14.30.050

(a) Where it is not practical for law enforcement agencies to enforce 14.30.010, truant officers may be appointed by the district or the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

(b) "A truant officer may arrest and bring before any district court . . . a person violating Sec. 10 . . . upon a warrant issued by the district court judge or magistrate."

REGULATIONS

4AAC 06.027

"(a) The board may establish attendance areas without respect to district lines.

"(b) Pupils may be required to attend schools in other districts, . . . when, in the judgment of the commissioner, the best interests of the state will be served." The commissioners' decision may be appealed to the state board whose decision is final.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§15-123 A,B

The superintendent shall make a report to the governor and the legislature which contains the following information: number and grades in each county, number of children attending public and private school and the average number of children attending the public school during each two years.

§15-321--325

Children between the ages of eight and sixteen must attend public school. Exemptions shall be granted if the child is educated at home, attends a private school, has completed grammar school, is over fourteen and works with parental consent, is enrolled in a work training program, or the child's physical and mental condition would make school attendance impracticable.

EXEMPTIONS

A violation of the school attendance laws is a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment or both.

VIOLATIONS

The board of a school district may hire an "attendance officer" who shall enforce the attendance laws.

§15-327

The county school superintendent may authorize monthly funds for the education of school-age children who live so far from school that they cannot attend.

H. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

STATUTES

§80-1502 -- 1503

Children aged seven to fifteen, inclusive shall attend a public, private or parochial school under penalty of law.

"The minimum period of attendance . . . shall be 150 school days for a full nine months term, as nearly consecutive as possible."

§80-1504 -- 1505

Those children between 7 and 15 exempt from mandatory school attendance are: "children mentally or physically incapacitated to perform school duties; children who have completed the common school course of study, including the eighth grade . . . [and] children whose services are needed to support a widowed mother."

EXEMPTIONS

School boards of directors may authorize funds to pay for textbooks to be loaned to students whose parents or guardians have proved they are unable to pay for same.

The County or City Superintendent of Schools has the authority to grant exemptions from school attendance.

§80-1507 -- 1508

The head teacher or principal shall report parents or guardians who are not complying with the State's attendance requirements to the clerk or secretary of the school board, who shall serve notice to the offenders. Within five days thereafter, "said parents or guardians shall place their children or wards in school and otherwise comply with the [attendance] provisions."

Those violating attendance requirements shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to prosecution, and fined not more than $10.00 per day.

LIABILITY

§80-1509

Each teacher "shall keep an accurate record of attendance and non-attendance. Failure to do so is cause for the revocation of his[/her] license."

§80-1510

Each teacher shall report monthly to the county superintendent and to the school board those parents or guardians who have not complied with attendance requirements. Ten days after notification the county superintendent shall forward this information to the district's prosecuting attorney.

§80-1511

A board of directors and the County Board of Education may appoint one or more attendance officers. Such officers, paid by the county school fund, shall meet qualifications set by the State Board of Education.

ATTENDANCE OFFICER

The attendance officer shall "investigate all cases of non-attendance," give parents or guardians "due warning and notice, in person or in writing" of their violations of the law and if such notice is ignored, after five days, "said attendance officer shall file complaint against such parent or guardian with some peace officer . . . who shall . . . issue a warrant of arrest for said parent or guardian." Where questions of a child's age arise, the officer must present a birth certificate as evidence "or other conclusive evidence of age prescribed by the State Board of Education."

§80-1512 -- 1514

TRUANCY

". . . truancy or incorrigibility on the part of the child. . . shall be considered as cases of delinquency, and the teacher or attendance officer shall report such child . . . to the juvenile court or the county court" and, according to the judge's determination, be placed "in a public or private home or other institution where schooling may be provided." The State of Arkansas shall prosecute such cases and fines collected shall go into the general school fund.

Truants shall be prosecuted "as in the case of any other misdemeanor."

§80-1530

". . . no child shall be compelled to attend any school in which the races are commingled when a written objection of the parent or guardian has been filed with the Board of Education." If the Board denies said request, "the parent or guardian may notify the Board . . . that he[/she] is unwilling for the pupil to remain in the school . . . and such child shall be entitled to such aid for education as . . . authorized by law."

§80-1551 -- 1557

Teachers shall keep daily attendance records, listing residents and non-residents separately. Those records shall be on file in the district for three years and audited by the Department of Education at least once in that time. Official reports shall be made quarterly, or for every forth to forty-eight school days, which shall be filed by each school district with the County Board of Education.

The attendance data for the first three quarters shall be used to compute the Minimum Foundation Program Aid and Transportation Aid for the following year. Failure to file reports by April 15 shall result in the withholding of that aid, and the funds placed in escrow until the reports are filed. The State Board of Education may institute rules and regulations to implement the preceding law. RULEMAKING

§80-1901

Anyone falsifying attendance reports shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, fined at most $100 and shall be held "liable personally for any loss of revenue" to the district or State. LIABILITY

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§46000

Attendance in all schools and classes shall be recorded according to state board regulations.

§46010 -- 46012

A pupil's absence from school shall not be deemed an absence in computing attendance if the absence was: due to illness or quarantine (to be verified by the district or county superintendent of schools in such manner as the state superintendent may provide); for having medical, dental or optometrical services rendered; for attending funeral services of a member of his/her immediate family (not more than one day if in California and three days if outside California); or for jury duty.

For purposes of any procedure for verification of absences from school, a student 18 years of age or older, with respect to his/her own absences, shall have all responsibilities which, in the case of a minor, would be charged to the parent or guardian.

§ 46014

Pupils, with the written consent of their parents or guardians, may be excused from school to participate in religious exercises or instruction, supplementary to moral instruction required in the schools. Such absence shall not be deemed absence in computing average daily attendance if: the district governing board adopts a regulation permitting students to be absent from school in order to attend such exercises and instruction; and each excused pupil attends school at least the minimum school day for his/her grade for elementary schools and as provided by the state board for secondary schools; and no pupil is excused for such purposes on more than four days per school month.

This section shall be permissive only.

§ 46110; 46115

No pupil in grades K-8 shall be credited with more than one day of attendance in any calendar day.

The minimum schoolday in grades K-8 is exclusive of noon intermissions and, except in kindergartens, exclusive of recesses.

§ 46140

No high school pupil, other than a pupil in a vocational education program, evening high school or continuation high school or class, shall be credited with more than one day of attendance in any calendar day.

§46145; 46147

The governing board of a school district may permit a 12th grade student in the last semester or quarter before graduation, who is enrolled in a regular high school program or in a work experience education program and who would complete all graduation requirements, except physical education classes, by attending less than the minimum day, to attend less than the minimum day, on written request of the parent or guardian or of the student if 18 years of age or older. For apportionment purposes, such attendance shall be deemed attendance for the minimum day.

§46160 -- 46162

A district governing board may schedule classes in junior high and high schools so that each pupil attends class for at least 1200 minutes during any five-schoolday period.

Under such a schedule, any pupil may be authorized to attend school for less than the number of days in which the school is in session during a week as long as the pupil attends the required number of minutes.

Students attending classes under this schedule shall be in compliance with school attendance requirements.

Prior to implementing such a schedule, a governing board shall consult with employees and parents affected by the change and with the community at large. Such consultation shall include at least one public hearing.

§ 46170

In continuation high schools and classes, a day of attendance is 180 minutes of attendance, but no pupil shall be credited with more than 15 hours of attendance in any calendar week.

§ 46180

The minimum day in an opportunity school or class is 180 minutes. A pupil may be enrolled for not less than a class period no more than 179 minutes per day. Attendance for a pupil enrolled in an opportunity program shall be credited to the regular class attendance.

A pupil enrolled in both an opportunity program and a regular school shall attend school for a period not less than the minimum required schoolday.

§ 46300

In computing average daily attendance, only the attendance of pupils while enaged in required educational activities and under the immediate supervision of a certificated employee shall be included. Attendance shall also include pupil participation in an independent study program under the general, but not immediate, supervision of a certificated employee.

In the case of work experience education programs, "immediate supervision" means pupil participation in on-the-job training under an agreement, wherein the employer and certificated school personnel share the responsibility for on-the-job supervision. The pupil teacher ratio in such a program, shall not exceed 125 students per full-time equivalent certificated coordinator.

In the case of rehabilitative programs, "immediate supervision" means pupil participation in program; wherein the person to whom the pupil is required to report shares responsibility for supervision with certificated distinct personnel.

§46301 - 46303

Whenever necessary to compute average daily attendance and no provision is made for it, average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the total number of days of pupil attendance by the number of days school was actually taught.

If a computation results in a fraction less than one-half of a unit, the figure shall be rounded down to the next lowest whole number. If the fraction is one-half or more, the figure shall be rounded up to the next highest whole number.

Where four school terms of at least 12 weeks each are maintained and where a student may complete a full year's work in any three terms, the total number of days of pupil attendance shall be divided by the greatest number of days school was actually taught in any three of the terms, but in no case shall the division be less than 175.

§ 46305

Each district shall report to the state superintendent, in addition to other required attendance data, the active enrollment and the actual attendance as of the third Wednesday of each school month. If that day is a holiday, figures shall be reported for the first immediate preceeding schoolday.

§48200--48201

Each person between the ages of 6 and 16 not exempted is subject to compulsory full-time education. Each person subject to compulsory full-time education or compulsory continuation education (§48400 et seq.) shall attend public full-time day school or continuation school for the full-time such schools are in session. Parents and guardians shall send pupils to such schools for the full time they are in session. A parent or guardian who removes the minor from one district before completion of the current school term shall enroll the minor in a school of the district to which the minor is removed.

§48202--48203

A county board may establish, by resolution, the following regulation:

The administration of each public and private school shall, upon the severance of attendance of any pupil, whether physically handicapped, mentally retarded, or multiply handicapped or not, subject to the compulsory education laws, whether by expulsion, exclusion, exemption, transfer, or other reasons, report such severance to the county superintendent. The county superintendent shall examine such reports and draw to the attention of the county board and local district board cases in which the interests of the child or welfare of the state may need further examination. The county board may hold hearings on such cases in the manner provided in §48914 et seq.

§48220--48224;48226;48230

The following classes of children shall be exempted from required attendance at a public full-time day school: children whose physical or mental condition prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school or application to study; children who are being instructed in a private full-time day school in the English language in the branches of study required in the public schools of the state; children who are mentally gifted and who are being instructed in a private full-time day school, where all or part of the instruction required in the public school is taught in a foreign language with not less than 50 percent of the total daily instructional time taught in English; children who are being instructed in study and recitation for at least three hours a day for 175 days each calendar year by a private tutor holding a valid state credential in the areas of study in the public schools in the English language; any child blind and deaf to an extent rendering him/her incapable of receiving instruction in the regular schools, but where mental condition is such as to permit application to study. When the child is resident of a district not maintaining special classes for such pupils and when the child may not be admitted to the state schools for the blind or for the deaf; and children who hold permits to work (though such children shall be subject to compulsory attendance at part time classes).

§48240--48246

APPOINTMENT

ATTENDANCE SUPERVISION

The board of any district and of any county shall appoint a supervisor of attendance and such assistants or may be necessary to supervise attendance of pupils in the district or county. The board shall prescribe duties of the supervisor and assistants to include duties related to compulsory full-time and continuation education, training and work permits.

In any city or city and county and in any district or districts with an average daily attendance of 1,000 or more school children, no supervisor of attendance or assistants shall be appointed unless lawfully certified by the county board.

The board of a district may appoint a district supervisor of attendance to act under the county supervisor, or two or more districts may contract with the county superintendent for supervisor of attendance.

A full-time attendance supervisor performing no other duties, or the probation officer of the county, may at any time enter a place of employment in his/her jurisdiction to examine permits to work or to employ of all minors, or to investigate violations of the Labor Code or of §48200 et seq. or of §49100 et seq. If entry is denied or any violation relating to the education of minors is found, the attendance supervisor or probation officer shall report the denial of entrance or violation to the Labor Commissioner.

§48263;48267--48271

TRUANT

A habitual truant or a pupil irregular in attendance or habitually disorderly during attendance may be referred to a school attendance review board. The supervisor of attendance shall notify the minor and parents or guardians, in writing, of the name and address of the board and the reason for the referral and shall indicate that the pupil and parents or guardians will be invited, along with the supervisor of attendance, to meet with the board.

If the board determines that available community services cannot resolve the problem or if the pupil ignores the board's directives, the board shall direct the county superintendent to request a petition an behalf of the pupil in the juvenile court of the county.

A pupil, once adjudged a habitual truant or habitually disorderly during attendance by the county juvenile court, who is reported a truant again in the same year or in a succeeding year or habitually disorderly, shall be brought to the attention of the pupil's probation or parole officer.

The court may render judgment that the parent or guardian shall deliver the pupil to school at the beginning of each school day for the rest of the term. This judgment may be suspended if the parent or guardian executes a bond of $200 to the governing board of the district, conditioned that the child will, for the rest of the year, regularly attend school and not be disorderly.

If the condition is violated, the court shall declare the bond forfeited and direct the original judgement to be enforced. The district governing board may have execution issued against any parties to the bond to collect it.

§48264--48266

ATTENDANCE SUPERVISOR

The attendance supervisor, a peace officer, or any school administration or design, may arrest or assume temporary custody, during school hours, of any minor subject to compulsory full-time or continuation education found away from and absent from school without valid excuse. The minor shall be delivered either to the minor's parent or guardian or to the minor's school, or to a nonsecure youth service or community center for counseling. The minor, if a habitual truant, shall be brought before the county probation officer with jursidiction over minors.

Any person taking such action with a minor shall report the matter to the district school authorities and to the minor's parent or guardian.

§48272--48273

The county superintendent shall annually report to the state superintendent the number and types of referrals to school attendance review boards and of requests for petitions to the juvenile court.

The governing board of each district shall adopt regulations to require appropriate district employees to gather and transmit to the county superintendent information required to be reported to the state superintendent.

§48290--48296

The governing board of any school district shall investigate charges aginst any parent or guardians for violation of any provisions regarding compulsory attendance. I f it appears that a parent or guardian has violated the provisions, the secretary of the board, the clerk of the board of trustees, on the attendance supervisor, shall file a criminal complaint against the parent or guardian.

A parent or guardian violating these provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished: on a first conviction, by a fine of not more than $25 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than five days; on a second or subsequent convictions, by a fine of not less than $25 or more than $250, by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than five days or more than 25 days or both.

All fines paid as penalties for violations of attendance provisions shall be credited to the school fund of the district in which the offense was committed.

Any judge of a municipal or justice court in which the district is located has jurisdiction of offenses committed against these provisions.

No fees shall be charged or received by any court or officer in any proceeding over attendance violations.

§48320

Intensive guidance and coordinated community services shall be provided to meet the special needs of pupils with school attendance or behavior problems. An attendance review board which determines that available services are not capable of correcting attendance or behavior problems shall promote the use of alternatives to the juvenile court system, provide for maximum utilization of community resources in behalf of minors, and encourage an understanding that such alternatives carry "an inherent agency and citizen commitment" directed toward the continuing improvement of such resources.

County attendance review boards shall encourage local attendance review boards to maintain an inventory of community resources and to make recommendations for their improvement.

§48321--48324

There is in each county a county school attendance review board, which shall include, but not be limited to, a parent and representatives of school districts, the county probation department, the county welfare department and the county superindendent of schools. School district representatives shall be nominated by district governing boards and appointed by the county superintendent. All other representatives shall be appointed by the county board. The board shall elect from its members a chairman.

Local attendance review boards may include, but need not be limited to representatives from the same groups.

The county attendance review board shall provide for the establishment of local attendance review boards and provide consultant services to, and coordinate activities of local boards, or shall serve as school attendance review board for all pupils in the county or, on request of individual districts, for pupils of those districts. Counties may agree to provide such services on a regional basis.

The county attendance review board shall adopt rules, binding on local attendance review boards, to carry out its work.

Each of the departments or agencies required to participate in attendance review boards shall assign personnel or a continuing basis.

§48360--48262

A pupil subject to compulsory full-time or continuation education who is absent from school without valid excuse more than three days or tardy in excess of 30 minutes on each of more than three days in one school year is a truant and shall be reported to the attendance supervisor or to the superintendent.

TRUANT

A pupil once reported as a truant who is again absent from school without excuse or tardy shall again be reported as a truant. A third report shall deem a pupil a habitual truant, provided that no pupil shall be deemed so unless an appropriate officer has made a conscientious effort to hold at least one conference with a parent or guardian of the pupil and the pupil, after the filing of either of the first two report.

§48400--48403

All persons 16 years of age or older and under 18 years of age, not otherwise exempted, shall attend special continuation education classes in the high school district of residence or in a neighboring district for not less than four 60-minute hours per week for the regularly established term.

A minor, not otherwise exempted, who cannot give satisfactory proof of regular employment shall attend special continuation education classes for not less than 15 hours per week during the period of unemployment.

Minimum attendance requirements may be satisfied by any combination of attendance at special continuation education classes and regional occupational programs.

If a minor required to participate in continuation education is habitually truant or disorderly during attendance, the county superintendent may request a petition on the minor's behalf in the county juvenile court.

§48410--48415

Exempted from compulsory attendance in continuing education classes as otherwise required are persons who: have graduated from a four-year high school course, or have had an equivalent amount of education in a private school or by private tuition; attend a public or private full-time day school, or satisfactory part-time classes maintained by other agencies(a private school must have complied with the required annual filing by the school head of an affidavit of prescribed information to the state superintendent); are disqualified because of their physical or mental condition or because of personal services that must be rendered to their dependents, attend satisfactorily a regional occupational program; have demonstrated proficiency equal to or greater than standards as established by the state department under §48412 and have consent of a parent or guardian; or are employed and in attendance at adult classes for not less than four clock hours per calendar week.

§48450--48454

Each parent or guardian of a minor required to attend continuation classes shall compel the minor to attend. The parent or guardian shall retain a copy of the work permit and present it on request of an officer of the law.

On a complaint that a minor has violated compulsory attendance, the governing board of the minor's district shall investigate the charges. If it appears that there has been a violation, the board clerk or the attendance supervisor shall file a criminal complaint against the parent or guardian of the minor.

A parent or guardian who fails to perform duties pertaining to compulsory continuation attendance is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished: on a first conviction, by a fine of not more than $25 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than five days, and on a subsequent conviction, by a fine of not less than $25 or more than $250, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than 25, or by both.

§49100

No minor having a permit to work and no minor under 18 years of age, who is otherwise required by law to attend school, shall be out of school and unemployed for a period longer than 10 consecutive days while public schools are in session, but shall enroll and attend school.

REGULATIONS

§400

Attendance records must be kept on forms supplied by the Department of Education. Attendance is to be reported to the principal daily. The records serve two functions: insure compliance with the compulsory education law and measure apportionment of state funds. Attendance may be recorded in minutes in some specified classes.

§420

Absence due to illness, quarantine, dental or medical treatment, or death in the family is allowable when verified by a school nurse, attendance supervisor, physician, principal or teacher.

ABSENCE

§ 11522

Each district shall develop a form which evidences parental consent for exemption from further compulsory school attendance as outlined in Education Code 12601(e). This shall be made available upon request to 16 and 17 year old pupils who have been awarded a certificate of proficiency.

CERTIFICATE OF PROFICIENC

§ 17913

Attendance accounting shall be in accordance with requirements of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The following records shall be kept:

(a) A record of hours of attendance shall be kept separately for each group of children specified in Section 17914.

(b) A record of absence due to illness or quarantine shall be kept. Absence due to illness or quarantine when properly verified is allowable as attendance for the number of hours per day for which the child is enrolled. Absence due to illness or quarantine shall be:

(1) Verified not less than weekly.

(2) Verified in accordance with Article 1 of Chapter 2 of Division 2.

(3) Recorded daily, in the manner provided in said Article 1, and, after verification, identified as therein required.

Statutes

§2702

All children in the State between the ages of 6 and 16 shall attend school in the districts where their parents or guardians reside. School age children shall be required to attend a minimum of 180 days of school beginning on the first day of the school year of the calendar year in which the child reaches six years of age, unless the local school authorities determine that such beginning is not in the best interests of the child.

If a parent, to ensure the safety and welfare of the child fails to cause the child to attend school, such child is not a truant.

§2703

Compulsory attendance shall not be required of those children who are receiving regular and thorough instruction in elementary school subjects at nonpublic schools.

A written certificate from an official in charge of the private school shall be satisfactory evidence . . . that a child is receiving regular and thorough instruction.

§2704

All persons conducting private schools shall report to the Board annually on or before the 31st of July, as to enrollment, age of pupils and attendance.

§2705

School age children who are mentally or physically handicapped to such an extent that attendance in a school program is impracticable or unsafe upon proper proof, do not have to comply with the compulsory school attendance law.

§2706

Pupils enrolled in the free public schools may be excused by the superintendent of schools or persons authorized by him/her.

Children who are kept out of school to ensure their safety and welfare are not truant.

Persons authorized to take the school census shall record the name, birthday, school grade and nationality of each child. Parents may be required to take an oath that such information is true and refusal to do so will constitute a misdemeanor. CENSUS

A "school census" includes persons between ages six and twenty one.

§22-33-104

Every child who is at least seven years old and is under sixteen, "shall attend public school for at least one hundred seventy-two days during each school year, or for the specified number of days in a pilot program which has been approved by the state board."

This section shall not apply to children attending a non-public school, those who have been expelled, those absent due to physical or emotional disabilities, and other limited exceptions set forth in the statute. EXEMPTIONS

§22-33-107

"The board of education of each school district shall designate one or more employees . . . to act as attendance officer(s) for the district." The attendance officer shall "counsel with students and parents and investigate the causes of nonattendance."

Adverse orders of the board of education are reviewable, however the aggrieved party must "notify the board in writing within five days after receiving notification of the board's action. Reasons for the board's action must be forthcoming, thereupon the aggrieved party may seek judicial petition requesting the board's action be set aside.

HEARING

A hearing shall be scheduled, the evidence presented and a ruling rendered.

No action for compulsory school attendance shall lie unless the parent or child has been legally served with written notice, stating the date of the hearing (which shall not be less than ten days from the date of notice) and the alleged violation[s].

An order may be issued compelling the child to attend school, disobedience of the order could result in a determination that the child is delinquent and/or jail for the parent.

The state board may promulgate regulations for administration of this article.

Ch.IV, §408

The Tuition Enforcement Office shall review all cases of contested residency. In all contested cases the student will be allowed to register and attend classes pending a final decision. The claimant shall have a right to a formal hearing on the matter.

HEARING

CH. IV, §411

"Every student enrolled in the D.C. Public Schools shall be expected to regularly attend the school in which the student is enrolled.

Where the laws of the District of Columbia provide that a student may be excused from regular attendance at school if such student is actually, lawfully, and regularly employed, the Superintendent of Schools shall require that evidence of such employment be furnished to the D.C. Public Schools in writing by the employer.

For the purposes of the Compulsory Attendance Act (31 D.C. Code §201 et. seq., as amended), including all students covered by its provisions regardless of whether or not such students are enrolled in the Public Schools, and for the purpose of the attendance records of all students enrolled in the Public Schools, the following are valid reasons for absence from school:

(a) Illness of the student;

(b) Illness or other family emergency which requires the presence of the student in the home;

(c) Death in the student's immediate family;

(d) Exclusion, by direction of the authorities of the District of Columbia, due to quarantine, contagious disease, infection, infestation, or other condition requiring separation from other students for medical or health reasons;

(e) Necessity for a student to attend any judicial proceeding as a plaintiff, defendant, witness or juror;

(f) Observance of religious holy days by the members of a religious group;

(g) Lawful suspension or exclusion from school by school authorities pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter;

(h) Temporary closing of facilities or suspension of classes due to severe weather, official activities, holidays, malfunctioning equipment, unsafe or unsanitary conditions, or other condition(s) requiring closing or suspension of classes;

(i) Other absence(s) approved in advance by the principal upon the written request of a parent, guardian or adult student."

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§232.01

Children between the ages of seven (as of February 1 of a school year) and sixteen are required to attend school regularly. Exceptions shall be made for married, pregnant and parent students. These latter groups may be "assigned to a special class or program better suited to their special needs."

Exceptional children who are three years old by January 1 of a school year may be admitted to "public special education programs".

Handicapped children less than five years old may receive home instruction or "may be eligible for supplemental instruction." A child at least six years old by January 1 of a school year shall be admitted to the first grade.

§232.021; 232.023

Officials and teachers in public and private schools shall keep attendance records as prescribed by the state board of education. Violations of this shall be a misdemeanor. Falsification of attendance records shall be grounds for the revocation of a teaching certificate or dismissal.

VIOLATIONS

§232.06-232.07

Exemption certificates exempting children from the compulsory attendance laws may be issued by the school superintendent for a school year. Persons may qualify for said certificate because of: physical, mental or emotional disability; lack of transportation for children under ten living a distance of three miles or more and children eleven years or older living four miles away or more; children at least fourteen years old who have employment certificates; and children exempted by a circuit judge, with the school superintendent's approval.

EXEMPTIONS

School superintendents may issue employment certificates independently or upon a principal's recommendation. Procedural requirements include: the employer's statement explaining the nature of work; health certificates as prescribed by the Department of Education and evidence of the employee's age.

§232.09 - 232.10; 232.16

Parents are legally responsible for their child's (children's) school attendance unless: a child violates attendance without his/her parents' permission or knowledge; if parents cannot control their child (children) because of financial hardship or illness; or if distance prevents attendance. Parents must "report and explain" absences. Failure to do so shall be evidence of a child's absence without his/her parents' knowledge. School superintendents are responsible for the enforcement of attendance regulations.

§232.17-19

The school board may employ attendance assistants under the direction of the superintendent who may: keep attendance records; investigate cases of non-enrollment and unexcused absences; issue notices requiring enrollment or attendance within three days of notice and, when necessary, bring criminal prosecution against the person(s) controlling the child in question; return truant child to parent or school principal; visit the homes of absent children; report violations of the Child Labor Law to the proper authorities; inspect work places to ensure children are lawfully employed and report violations to the Division of Labor and make monthly reports to the superintendents. The circuit court shall have jurisdiction in the enforcement of attendance requirements and employment violations uncovered by attendance assistants.

TRUANCY

The parent or employer found guilty of violations shall be prosecuted for misdemeanors. A teacher or principal may have his/her teaching certificate revoked.

The presence, absence or tardiness of each student shall be checked once each day at prescribed times and all absent and tardy pupils shall be recorded daily. Attendance of all pupils for at least 180 days of instruction or the equivalent shall be required. A pupil shall be deemed to be in attendance if actually present in school, or away from school on a school day and engaged in an educational activity. The principal shall be responsible for the administration of attendance policies and procedures and for the accurate reporting of attendance in the school under his/her direction.

§32-807

If a local school system has suspended operation as provided by law, no student in that system shall be required to attend school or have the right to attend public school.

§32-847

"No student shall be assigned to or compelled to attend any school on account of race, creed, color or national origin, or for the purpose of achieving equality in attendance or increased attendance or reduced attendance, at any school, of students of one or more particular races, creeds, colors or national origins, and no school district or school system . . . shall be established, reorganized or maintained for any such purpose . . . ."

This does not preclude the assignment or reassignment of a student that is requested or authorized by her/his parent, but this is not mandatory.

§32-914

Teachers are required to file attendance reports with school officials.

§32-2104

"Every parent, guardian, or other person residing within the state of Georgia having custody of any child or children between their seventh and sixteenth birthdays, shall enroll and send such child or children to a public or private school, and such child shall be responsible for enrolling and attending a public or private school . . . . However, tests and physical exams for military service and National Guard shall be excused absences and such other absences as may be approved by the State Board of Education or the local board of education."

§32-2105

"The minimum session of annual school attendance . . . shall be 175 school days, or for the full session or sessions of the school which the child is eligible to attend . . . ."

§32-2106

The following classes of children between seven and 16 shall be exempted from mandatory attendance: the mentally or physically handicapped and those excused by boards of education.

§32-2108

"Each county and independent school system board of education shall have authority to employ at least one competent and qualified full-time visiting teacher, whose duty it shall be to act as attendance officer to enforce the compulsory school attendance laws of the State, and to discharge such other duties as are usually performed by, or delegated to, visiting teachers . . . ."

§32-2111

Visiting teachers or attendance officers shall "(1) cooperate fully with the Departments of Human resources, and labor, and other state agencies; (2) make monthly and annually [sic] reports on attendance and other problems of child school adjustment . . . and (3) comply with" state and local board of education rules.

§32-2114

The visiting teacher shall receive in writing "the names, ages, and residences of all pupils in attendance at their school and classes within 30 days after the beginning of the school term or terms."

§ 32-2114.1 --32-2114.3

"Any peace officer may assume temporary custody during school hours, of any child . . . away from home and . . . absent from school without lawful authority . . .[and] shall forthwith deliver the child either to the parent . . . or the school . . . or, if the child is found to have been adjudged a delinquent or unruly . . . to . . . the probation officer."

Such a matter shall be reported to the school and parent.

§32-2115

"Visiting teachers and attendance officers, after written notice is sent to parent or guardian of a child, shall report to the juvenile, superior, city, or other court having jurisdiction, any child as a delinquent who absents himself[herself] from school." The child may be placed "in a home, or in a public or private institution."

§32-9914

Visiting teachers and attendance officers must file legal proceedings in any case where necessary to enforce the compulsory attendance laws.

REGULATIONS

40-211 - 213;215

"The primary means of attaining a universally educated citizenry is through school attendance. The child benefits from attendance in direct relation to the way the school meets his (her) needs."

Parents are required by law to enroll children in their custody between ages 7 and 16 in school, unless a child has been exempted. Children must attend "the full session or sessions of the school (for) which . . . eligible . . . unless otherwise directed by a juvenile court. . . . Local school systems shall maintain daily pupil attendance records." The State Superintendent shall prescribe an attendance reporting system.

The school day for grades 4-12 shall be at least 6 hours and for grades 1-3 at least 4-1/2 hours. If "half-day sessions have been approved temporarily by the State Board, . . . the school day for all grades shall not be less than 4-1/2 hours.

"Pupils in all grades shall be in attendance for a sufficient period of time during the school day to participate in a normal class load of subjects."

Local boards of education shall adopt policies for excused absences in conformity with law and these guidelines: "Children may be temporarily excused from school . . . when . . . ill . . ., when in their immediate family there is a serious illness or death which would reasonably necessitate absence from school," for religious holidays and "when mandated by order of governmental agencies." Absence may be excused "due to conditions rendering school attendance impossible or hazardous" to children's health. A pupil may be excused for up to one day to register to vote. If a student is to be excused from school for part of a day, he or she "shall be released . . . only to his (her) parent(s), to a person properly identified to school authorities or upon request . . . from the parents." Under state law, religious instruction is "to be provided outside of and beyond the regular school day. . . . The State Superintendent shall establish procedures whereby either pupils or staff of the public schools may be temporarily excused from school in observance of special and recognized religious holidays normally observed by their religious sect."

40-216

The State Board is responsible for the enrollment in school of all children between ages 7 and 15. "The State Superintendent shall develop procedures to obtain an annual enrollment report from each private, denominational or parochial school" and report annually to the State Board. "Pupils . . . enrolled by such schools shall be excused from attendance at public schools."

"Such attendance shall not be compulsory:"

1) Where a licensed physician shall certify that "the child is physically or mentally unable to attend school (deafness and blindness excepted);"

2) Where a competent tutor is employed, if approved by the superintendent;

3) Where a child is 15 years old, employed and "has been excused by the school department or its authorized agents, the family court or the district magistrate;"

4) "Where, upon investigation by the family court . . . or by the district magistrate, it has been shown that for any other reason the child may properly remain away from school;" or

5) "Where a child graduated from high school or vocational school."

§298-12

"If any (eligible) child of school age persists in absenting himself/herself from school, the district magistrate shall, upon a . . . complaint. . . made by the . . . teacher or any other officer or agent of the department of education, or police officer, or any other person, cause such child, and the father or mother, guardian, or other person having the charge of the child . . . to appear before . . .[him/her]" and if proved that such person "had not used proper diligence to enforce the child's regular attendance at school," such person shall be fined not more than $50 or imprisoned not more than two months."

§298-13

"The department of education shall be charged with the enforcement of §298-9 through 298-12" including but not limited to compulsory attendance requirements (and penalties for non-compliance), attendance of blind or deaf children and expulsion from school. "Nothing in this section shall relieve . . ." the police department of its responsibility for the enforcement of such provisions," but such enforcement shall be subject to the plans and policies of the department."

§298- 14

"(P)rincipals. . .shall, upon written request of the parent or guardian . . . permit such pupil to leave the school grounds during intermission." No principal shall be held liable for such students' conduct "during the intermissions and while the pupil remains outside of the school grounds."

§298-15

"The department . . . shall provide for the release of . . . any pupil in any public school . . . for a period not to exceed sixty minutes each week . . ." at times the department shall designate "for the purpose of receiving religious instruction . . . when such release is requested in writing by a parent or guardian . . ."

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

Such privilege shall be withdrawn if the student does not actually attend the instruction. "No teacher of the public schools shall participate in such religious instruction during . . ."their working hours. ". . . no public funds shall be used directly or indirectly for such religious instruction, at any time when its use would otherwise be required in connection with the regular program of the school."

§298-18

"All persons . . . shall be required to attend the school of the district in which they reside, unless the department of education . . ." deems it otherwise desirable.

§298-20

No student shall be permitted to transfer into any other school, either inter-district or intra district, without first obtaining a certificate of release from his/her prior school:. . .to attend a school of higher grade, a certificate of proficiency shall be required, or a lawful excuse for its absence."

REGULATIONS

Rules 26.1; 26.3

Students are required to attend the school of the district in which they reside. However, attendance at a school in another school district may be granted at the discretion of the Department of Education, with the welfare of the student as a major consideration.

All district exceptions and revocations of district exceptions shall be granted in accordance with this rule.

However, the transfer of an exceptional student to a school outside his/her attendance area, under the provisions of Rule 49, shall not require a district exception.

Rule 26.7

a. Only parents or legal guardian may undertake action for district exceptions to the compulsory attendance laws. They do so by submitting the form for the district exception request (provided by) the Department to the home school principal.

b. The principal of the home school shall contact the principal of the receiving school and shall grant district exceptions where both principals concur on the educational or other advantages of the exceptions. Parents shall receive written notifications. In the case of a denial, notification shall include the reasons for the rejection of the request and a statement of the applicant's right to a review of the decision.

c. Parents or students 18 years or older may request a review by the district superintendent of the home school if the principal of the home school has denied the district exception. The decision of the district superintendent will be final.

Rule 41

Students may not be excused from school attendance to observe religious holidays. Parents are at liberty to keep their children at home for such observations, but such pupils are expected to make up the work missed.

Any child who is determined to be an exceptional child under the provisions of article 9 of chapter 72 of the code is exempt from the provisions of this section but subject to the compulsory attendance provisions of article 9.

A child shall not be required to participate in a activity which is contrary to the religious teachings of the child.

Any child, who has completed the eighth grade and whose parent or guardian belongs to a recognized religious denomination which objects to public high school education, may attend a regularly supervised program of instruction offered by the religious denomination and approved by the state board. Participation in such a program shall be regarded as acceptable school attendance within the meaning of this Act. The state board shall approve a program for a two-year period. Attendance shall be required for each day on which attendance is required in the school district where the child resides.

Each child shall be engaged in at least five hours per day of "learning activities appropriate to the adult occupation s/he is likely to assume in later years." At least fifteen hours per week shall be classroom work. At each classroom meeting a student shall file a written report of the learning activities s/he has pursued since the last classroom meeting. The teacher shall evaluate the report, approve plans for further learning activities, and provide necessary assignments and instruction.

Any student who does not complete five hours of learning activities per day shall be reported as absent. Regular attendance reports shall be filed.

The teacher shall file monthly reports of the instruction provided, assignments made, and work pursued by students with the state and local board. Each teacher shall have a Kansas teacher certificate.

The state board shall rescind approval of a program if, after a three week warning period, the program fails to comply with this Act. If approval is withdrawn, a student attending the program shall be admitted to a public high school.

§72-1113

Each board shall appoint an employee to report to the district court all cases of truancy.

Any child who is required to attend school, and is not enrolled, or inexcusably absent on three consecutive days or five days in a semester, is truant.

§72-8905

The compulsory attendance law shall not apply to any suspended or expelled student.

§159.010;020

"Except as provided . . . [by statute]. . . . each parent, guardian, or other person. . . . having . . . custody or charge of any child between the ages of seven and sixteen shall send the child to a regular public day school for the full term that the . . . school . . . is in session . . . A child's age is between seven and sixteen when the child has reached his[her] seventh birthday and has not passed his[her] sixteenth birthday. Any parent or guardian who elects to send a child six years of age to school shall keep the child in regular attendance. Every child actually resident in this state is subject to the laws relating to compulsory attendance, and . . . shall not be excused from the operation of those laws or the penalties under them on the ground that the child's residence is seasonal or that his[her] parent is a resident of another state."

In addition, any eligible child who is removed from a school district during the school term shall be enrolled in the regular public day school in the district to which he[she] is removed, and shall attend school in the new district for the full term provided by that district. REMOVAL

§159.030

1) "The board of education of the district in which the child resides shall exempt from the requirement of [compulsory] attendance . . . every child;

(a) Who is a graduate from an accredited or an approved four year high school; or

(b) Who is enrolled and in regular attendance in a private or parochial . . . school approved by the state board of education; or

(c) Whose physical or mental condition prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school or application to study; or

(d) Who is enrolled and in regular attendance in state approved private or parochial school programs for exceptional children; or

(e) Who is enrolled and in regular attendance in a state supported program for exceptional children;

2) Before granting an exemption under paragraph (c) . . . the board . . . shall require satisfactory evidence in the form of a signed statement of a licensed physician, psychologist or psychiatrist, or public health officer, that the condition of the child prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school or application to study.

3) For any child who is excluded under the provisions of subsection (1)(c), home, hospital, institutional or other regularly scheduled and suitable instruction meeting standards, rules and regulations of the state board of education shall be provided."

§159.130

"The director . . . and his[her] assistants shall be vested with the powers of peace officers, provided however, that they shall not have the authority to serve warrants. They may investigate in their district any case of non-attendance at school of any child of compulsory school age or suspected of being that age. They may take such action . . . as the superintendent directs. They may under the direction of the superintendent . . . and the board of education or the state board of education institute proceedings against any person violating any provision of the laws relating to compulsory attendance and the employment of children. They may enter all places where children are employed and do whatever is necessary to enforce the laws relating to compulsory attendance and employment of children of compulsory school age. No person shall . . . in any way interfere with the entrance therein of a director of pupil personnel or in any way interfere with any investigation therein."

§159.140

"The director of pupil personnel shall:

1) Devote his[her] entire time to the duties of his[her] office;

2) Enforce the compulsory attendance and census laws in the attendance district which he[she] serves;

3) Acquaint the school with the home conditions of the child, and the home with the work and advantages of the school;

4) Ascertain the causes of irregular attendance and truancy, and seek the elimination of these causes;

5) Secure the enrollment in school of all children who should be enrolled and keep all enrolled children in reasonably regular attendance;

6) Visit the homes of children who are absent from school or who are reported to be in need of books, clothing or parental care;

7) Ascertain and report to the [local] superintendent of schools . . . the number and cost of books and school supplies needed by any child whose parent, guardian or custodian does not have sufficient income to furnish the child with the necessary . . . supplies;

8) Keep the records and make the reports that are required by law, [and] by [administrative] regulations. . . ."

§159.150

"Any child who has been absent from school without valid excuse for more than three days, or tardy on more than three days, is a truant. Any child who has been reported as a truant more than three times is an habitual truant. Being absent for less than half of a school day shall be regarded as being tardy."

§159.160

"The principal or teacher in charge of any . . . school shall report to the [local] superintendent of schools . . . the names, ages and places of residence of all pupils in attendance at his[her] school together with any other facts that the superintendent may require to facilitate carrying out the laws relating to compulsory attendance and employment of children. The reports shall be made within the first two weeks of . . . each school year."

§159.180

"Every parent, guardian or custodian of a child residing . . . in this state is legally responsible for any violation of . . .[the compulsory attendance statutes] . . . by the child. Before any proceedings are instituted against the parent, guardian or custodian . . . a written notice of the violation shall be served in the person by the director of pupil personnel and one day shall be given for the termination of the violation. After the notice, if the violation is continued, or if . . . [the statutes]. . . are again violated during the school term by the child . . . the parent or guardian shall be punishable as provided . . .[by stacute] . . . . A notice by registered mail, certified mail, return receipt requested or by personal service by the director of pupil personnel shall be a legal notice."

§159.990

1) "Any parent, guardian or custodian who wilfully fails to comply with the requirements of . . . [the compulsory attendance statutes] . . . shall be fined not more than ten dollars for the first offense, and not more than twenty dollars for each subsequent offense. The court . . . may suspend enforcement of the fine if the child is immediately placed in attendance at a school, and may finally remit the fine if the attendance continues regularly for the full school term.

2) Any . . . school official who wilfully fails to comply with the provisions of . . .[this chapter] shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars. Upon conviction under this subsection a director . . . or assistant director of pupil personnel shall be removed from office and have his[her] certificate revoked, and a principal, teacher or other school officer may have his[her] certificate revoked.

REMOVAL

3) Any [other] person, who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter relating to compulsory education . . ." or who interferes with the work of the director of pupil personnel "shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than sixty days, or both.

4) Any person who violates any of the provisions of . . .[the census taking statutes]. . . shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars and shall be liable to the punishment prescribed by law for the crime of false swearing. H. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

§911

Every child between 7 and 17 years of age shall attend some public day school, unless the child has graduated before his/her 17th birthday. An absence of 1/2 day or more is a violation. Necessary absences may be excused by the committee, director, superintendent, or teachers acting by their direction.

Attendance is not required if the child obtains "equivalent instruction, for a like period of time, in a private school in which the course of study and methods of instruction have been approved by the commissioner" or in another manner arranged for by the committee or directors with the commissioner's approval. The children will file a certificate from the persons in charge of the private school showing the child's name, residence and attendance with the administrative unit.

A person who has control of a child who is a habitual truant and is in any way responsible for the truancy, and any person who induces a child to be absent or who conceals the child will be punished with a fine of not more than $25 or by imprisonment of not more than 30 days for each offense.

A "subnormal" child between 15 and 17 who cannot pass the test required to be issued a regular work permit, may receive a permit issued jointly by the commissioner and the director of the Bureau of Labor and Industry. Such child shall be employed in non-hazardous occupations.

If, in the judgment of the principal, a suitable program of work, or work-study, or training is available, pupils will be excused from school attendance with the consent of the parent or guardian and the approval of the committee or directors.

Attendance officers are elected once a year by a school committee or school directors to inquire "into all cases of neglect of duties" pertaining to compulsory attendance. They shall prosecute any person charged with neglect, when so directed by the committee or directors. They shall arrest and return a pupil, charged with irregular attendance, to school, if so notified by a teacher.

Following a written request by the superintendent of schools or the committee, they may visit, during school hours, business and manufacturing establishments in the school committee's administrative unit, to inquire into the illegal employment of children under 14 years of age. Owners of businesses and manufacturing establishments must produce work and vacation permits during these inspections.

If an attendance officer neglects his/her duties, he/she shall be fined. Administrative units failing to meet these provisions shall have their state school funds withheld.

§914

"If a child without sufficient excuse is habitually and wilfully absent from school or fails without such excuse to attend school for 5 day sessions or for 10 half-day sessions within any period of 6 months, or failing to attend school, without regular and lawful occupation and growing up in ignorance, he shall be deemed an habitual truant."

TRUANTS

§961

The committee or directors shall keep accurate attendance records of all pupils who attend a public school in their unit. The records shall contain the name of the pupil, date of birth, the dates the person entered and left the school, the number of days attended and the number of times late for school. The records will always be kept open for inspection by the committee or directors.

Art. 77 §92

Every child between ages 6 and 16 shall attend public school unless the child is receiving comparable instruction elsewhere. The superintendent may excuse cases of "necessary absence". This section applies to mentally or physically handicapped children unless instruction is detrimental to his/her progress. This section shall not apply to any child whose presence constitutes a danger to others. The superintendent may make appropriate provision for such children.

Each parent or guardian shall assure that his/her child is enrolled in and attends school regularly. Failure to do so may subject the parent or guardian to a fine of up to $50.00.

Art. 77 §94

It shall be the duty of every principal or head teacher to report the names of all children who are absent without lawful excuse, irregular in attendance, or who show evidence of maladjustment to the superintendent.

"The school committee of each town shall ascertain and record the names, ages and such other information . . . required by the department of education, of all minors residing therein between five and sixteen, and of all minors over sixteen who do not meet the requirements for the completion of the sixth grade . . . The school committee . . . shall also ascertain the number of pupils, regardless of age, whose parents . . . are residents of the town and who are enrolled for full-time attendance, in kindergarten and grades up to and including grade twelve, in public and vocational schools anywhere." Whoever withholds information sought by a school committee or makes a false statement relative thereto shall be punished by fine. "Supervisors of attendance, under the direction of the committee and superintendent of schools, shall have charge of the records required by this section . . . and [shall] examine carefully all cases where children of school age are not enrolled in, and attending school as required."

There shall be an annual school committee report.

Private schools shall report their residents to the superintendent of the town where the child resides.

"The school committee shall cause the registers of daily attendance to be faithfully kept under the direction of the superintendent . . ." Registers shall be kept at the schools and shall be open to the inspection of the committee, and other designated school officials. "In computing the average daily membership a pupil's name shall be omitted only when it is known that she/he has withdrawn from the school without intention of returning. A pupil who is not present during at least half of a session shall be marked and counted as absent for that session."

The use of automation equipment in keeping registers may be used with department approval.

"Every child between the minimum and maximum ages established for school attendance by the board of education, except a child between fourteen and sixteen who meets the requirements for completion of the sixth grade and who holds a permit for [regular] employment in private domestic service or service on a farm, or is involved with a 'cooperating employment' for at least six hours per day, shall attend a public day school in the town or some other day school approved by the school committee for the required number of days. Attendance "shall not be required of a child whose physical or mental condition is such as to render attendance inexpedient or impracticable," or when an employment permit was granted, or if a child is being instructed "in a manner approved in advance by the superintendent or school committee." The superintendent or authorized teachers "may excuse cases of necessary absence for other causes not exceeding seven day sessions or fourteen half day sessions in any period of six months." Absences may also be permitted for other authorized reasons or for religious education up to one hour each week.

Pupils who fulfill the compulsory attendance requirement by attending private schools, shall not be denied transportation because the schools are religiously affiliated.

The school committee shall have the responsibility of enforcing compulsory attendance.

VIOLATIONS

SANCTIONS

Every guardian shall cause his/her child to attend school and, if he/she fails to do so for seven day sessions or fourteen half day sessions within any period of six months, he/she shall, on complaint by a supervisor of attendance, be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars. "No physical or mental condition capable of correction or rendering the child a fit subject for special instruction at public charge in institutions other than public day schools, shall avail as a defense unless it appears that the defendant has employed all reasonable measures for the correction of the condition and the suitable instruction of the child."

"Whoever induces or attempts to induce a minor to absent himself/herself unlawfully from school or unlawfully employs him/her or harbors a minor who, while school is in session, is absent unlawfully therefrom, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars."

76 §18

"No student sixteen years of age or older shall be considered to have permanently left public school unless an administrator of the school which such student last attended has sent notice within a period of ten days from the student's fifteenth consecutive absence to the parent or guardian of such student in both the primary language of such parent or guardian and English, stating that such student and his/her parent or guardian may meet with the school committee or its designated representatives, prior to the student permanently leaving school." The meeting shall be for the purpose of discussing the reasons for leaving and any alternative educational program.

The superintendent of every school "shall annually report to the department of education the number of students sixteen years of age or older who have permanently left school," their reasons for leaving and any alternative educational programs which each student has undertaken.

76 §19

Every school committee shall appoint one or more supervisors of attendance who shall be at least 21 years of age and meet the qualifications established by the department of education. The committees of two or more towns may employ the same supervisors of attendance.

76 §20

Supervisors of attendance shall inquire into all attendance disputes. "They shall, if the court so orders, have oversight of children placed on probation; of minors licensed by the school committee . . ., and of children admitted to or attending shows or entertainments in violation" of commonwealth laws. "They may apprehend and take to school without a warrant any truant or absentee found wandering in the streets or public places."

d. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§380.1561

Every parent, guardian, or other person having charge of a child, from the age of 6 to the child's sixteenth birthday, shall send the child to the public schools during the entire school year. In a school district in which the school year is divided into quarters, a child shall not be compelled to attend more than three quarters in one calendar year, but shall not be absent for two consecutive quarters.

A child becoming six years of age before December 1 shall be enrolled on the first school day of the school year in which the child's sixth birthday occurs. A child who becomes six on or after December 1 shall be enrolled in the following school year.

EXEMPTIONS

A child shall not be required to attend public school in the following cases:

A child who is regularly attending a state approved nonpublic school.

A child regularly employed as a page or messenger in either house of the legislature during the period of employment.

A child under the age of 9 who does not reside within 2 1/2 miles of a public school (unless transportation is furnished).

A child from the age of 12 to the child's fourteenth birthday while in attendance at confirmation classes for a period of not to exceed 5 months in either of those years.

A child enrolled in the public schools while in attendance at religious instruction classes for not more than two class hours per week by written request of the parent or guardian.

§380.1571

The intermediate board shall select one or more attendance officers. The board of a school district with 1000 or more pupils may employ attendance officers. An attendance officer shall have powers of a deputy sheriff within the district while performing official duties. An intermediate district attendance officer shall perform duties of the office in each constituent district in which the local board does not employ an attendance officer.

§380.1576; 380.1577

At the commencement of school, the secretary of a primary board shall provide the teacher with a copy of the last school census, together with the names and addresses of the persons in parental relation, and the address of the intermediate board. The secretary of a non-primary district shall furnish a copy of the census to the superintendent, or the teachers if no superintendent is employed, together with the name and address of the attendance officer. At the school opening, the superintendent, teacher or teachers shall compare the census list with the enrollment of the school and report discrepancies to the intermediate superintendent (in the case of a primary district) or to the attendance officer (in the case of other districts).

§380.1586; 380.1587; 380.1588; 380.1589

The attendance officer shall investigate each case of non-attendance at school. If the child is not exempt from attendance and is repeatedly absent without valid excuse, or is failing in school work or gives evidence of behavior problems, and attempts to confer with the parent have failed, the attendance officer may notify the person in parental relationship by registered mail to come to school to discuss the child's irregularity in attendance or other problems. A superintendent or teacher shall provide information concerning the non-attendance of a non-resident pupil to the intermediate superintendent of the district in which the non-resident resides.

NOTICE

If a person in a parental relation fails to send a child to school, the attendance officer, upon receiving notice from the proper authority, shall give notice requiring the child to appear in school on the next regular school day following receipt of the notice.

The attendance officer shall make a complaint against the person in parental relation who fails to comply to the court having jurisdiction in the county of residence. The court shall issue a warrant upon the complaint.

COMPLAINT

School officers and teachers shall aid attendance officers in the performance of their duties.

§380.1599

A person in parental relation to a child who fails to comply with this part is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $50.00, or imprisonment for not less than two or more than 90 days or both.

VIOLATION

SANCTIONS

REGULATIONS

R 340.71, R 340.75

Upon written request of the parent, guardian or person having control of a child, the board of education shall release the child from attendance at the public school so that the child may attend religious instruction classes for up to two hours per week.

RELEASE TIME

"No solicitation for attendance at religious instruction classes shall be permitted on public school premises. The staff of the public school system shall neither encourage or discourage participation in any religious instruction program."

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§163.036 -- .091

To determine the amount of state aid a school district is entitled to receive, a district may estimate the average daily attendance. If errors are made in apportioning, due to differences in the estimated and actual attendance, the state board of education shall credit and distribute the funds, or in case of receiving an excess, the next year's allotment shall be reduced accordingly.

§167.031

Every parent, guardian, or person having custody of a child between seven and sixteen shall cause the child to attend regularly some day public, private, parochial, or parish for the entire school term or the equivalent shall be provided at home upon judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. Children physically or mentally incapacitated may be excused for the required time. Children between fourteen and seventeen may be excused from attendance full time when legal employment has been obtained by the child and after the parents or guardian of the child has been advised of pending action.

§167.061

Any parent, guardian or person in custody of a child who violates the compulsory attendance requirements is guilty of a misdemeanor. The penalty may be suspended if the child is placed and kept in regular school attendance, or home instruction. "A certificate stating that the child is regularly attending school and properly attested by the superintendant, principal, or person in charge of the school is prima facie evidence of regular attendance by the child."

§167.071

The county superintendant of schools is the school attendance officer for the county, except that in districts with six or more directors the school board may appoint one. The attendance officer has the power of deputy sheriff in performance of her/his duties. She/he shall investigate the claims of exemptions from attendance and may require a birth certificate or affadavit stating the child's age, date of birth, physical characteristics and the child's signature. She/he may visit where children are employed or where children loiter and may require a certificate of the attendance of any child at school. She/he may arrest without warrant non-attendants or other juvenile disorderly persons and take them to a place of detention, or home.

In any urban school district, any metropolitan school district, or six-director district in first class counties having a charter form of government, any commissioned police officer shall be an ex officio school attendance officer.

§167.081

Teachers shall be furnished with the last enumeration of the district by the clerk of the board, which shall be compared with the enrollment and a report with the names of nonattendants between seven and sixteen years of age, names of their parent, guardians or persons having custody of the nonattendant. Upon investigation of the nonattendant the parent, guardian, or person having custody shall be warned to comply with attendance regulations within three days of being served with notice. For non-compliance the parent, guardian or person having custody of the child shall have misdemeanor proceedings instituted against them.

§167.111

"The state commissioner of education, superintendents of schools, school boards, county superintendents of schools, county superintendents of public welfare, and every school attendance and probation officer shall enforce all laws relating to compulsory school attendance."

§171.151

"Each public school of the state shall keep a daily register in which shall be entered the name, age, date of entrance and record of attendance of each pupil and the studies pursued by the pupil. The register shall be open to the inspection of the public at all times."

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§75-6304

Any child enrolled in school who is not yet 16, or who hasn't finished eighth grade, shall attend his/her assigned school, unless: the child is absent because of illness, bereavement, or other reason prescribed by the trustees; the child has been suspended or expelled. The child's parent or guardian is responsible for the child's attendance.

§75-6305; 75-6306; 75-6307

APPOINTMENT

ATTENDANCE OFFICER

Each school district shall appoint at least one attendance officer to enforce the compulsory attendance laws. His/her powers and duties include: Having "police powers, the authority to serve warrants, and the authority to enter places of employment of children . . .;" the duty to take custody of any child absent from school without a proper excuse and take him/her to the school where he/she is or shall be enrolled; take any other necessary action to "investigate and enforce" the compulsory attendance laws; "institute proceedings against any parent, guardian or other person violating" compulsory attendance laws; keep a record of actions for the trustees and make reports as prescribed by the trustees; "perform any other duties prescribed by the trustees."

When the attendance officer discovers a child violating the laws concerning compulsory enrollment and/or attendance, he/she shall notify the person responsible for the child and shall institute court proceedings against that person if the child is not complying with the law within two days of the person's receiving notice.

§75-6308

If a child is not attending school because of physical incapacity or because he/she is working "to support himself[herself] or his[her] family," the attendance officer shall notify the welfare authorities, who shall offer relief that will enable the child to attend school. If the person responsible for care of the child "denies or neglects" this assistance, "the child shall be committed to a state institution, at the discretion of the court."

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§79-201

Every resident of a school district of Nebraska "who has legal or actual charge . . . of any child" between 7 and 16 years of age "shall cause such child to attend regularly the public, private, denominational, or parochial day schools . . . except when excused by school authorities" or when the child has graduated from high school. The school term is at least 175 days. If a district receives 20% or more of its general revenues from federal sources and fails to receive sufficient funds, "the board of education . . . may, at any time during the school year, elect to close all or part of its schools."

§79-203

If exemption from the compulsory attendance requirement "is claimed on account of mental or physical incapacity," the school board may "employ a physician or a person skilled in mental diagnosis" to examine the child and determine if he or she "is capable of undertaking the work of the schools."

§79-207 — 79-209

Teachers in all public and private schools in Class I (elementary) districts shall keep a record with the name, age and address of each pupil, days present and absent, and cause of absence. On the third day of the regular school year such teachers should forward a list of pupils to the county superintendent; "in all other districts such report shall be made to the" district superintendent. The superintendents must then compare the enrolled-pupil list with the most recent district census report, "prepare a list of all children . . . who are not attending school as provided" by the compulsory attendance statute, and send the list to the appropriate district office "whose duty it is to enforce" the law. If a child enters or withdraws from school, the information should be reported in the same way. Information on absences must be reported weekly. Attendance reports shall be made to the appropriate superintendent by the teacher (if the school employs only one), head teacher, principal, or superintendent "at the close of each period."

§79-210 -- 211

Boards of education for third, fourth and fifth class district "shall appoint one or more attendance officers . . . vested with police powers" to enforce compulsory attendance provisions; for all other districts, the "county superintendent of schools shall act as attendance officer or shall appoint one or more . . . officers" with the county board's approval. Compensation for officers shall be determined by the appropriate board. "Any superintendent, principal, teacher, or member of the board of education" who knows of a violation of attendance laws by a child or parent must "report such violation to the city superintendent of schools in districts having an attendance officer" or otherwise to the county superintendent. An investigation is conducted by attendance officers. Any officer who believes a "child is unlawfully absent from school" must investigate and attempt "to compel such child to attend some . . . school which the person having control of the child shall designate." If the parent or guardian fails to comply, the attendance officer shall give written notice warning that they are in violation of the law. If the violation continues one week after notification, the attendance officer "shall file a complaint against such person or persons before the judge" of the county juvenile court.

§79-216

Violation of any of the provisions on compulsory attendance and basic instruction (79-201-79-215) is a misdemeanor.

§79-602

Teachers in Class I districts must report at the end of each 9-week period to the district secretary the number of pupils attending school, their names and ages, days attended, "and the studies pursued."

REGULATIONS

5-(3)

Children between seven and sixteen years old shall attend school regularly. If the school is operating on a year-round basis, each child shall attend sessions totaling 175 days.

§388.040

"In any school district having or maintaining more than one school offering instruction in the same grade or grades, the board of trustees shall have the power to zone the school district and to determine which pupils shall attend each school."

§391.340

VIOLATIONS

SANCTIONS

Any teacher, principal, or superintendent who shall knowingly, falsely report, cause to be reported, or permit to be reported the presence of any pupil or pupils at schools shall forfeit his or her certificate or have it revoked for at least one year.

§392.040

"Except as otherwise provided by law," any person in the state having control of any child 7 to 17 years old must send such child to a public school in the district in which he/she lives whenever the school is in session. A child who will be six years old by September 30 shall be admitted to the first grade at the beginning of the school year. If a child is six after September 30, the child will be admitted to first grade the following year.

§392.050

A child shall be excused from school attendance when satisfactory written evidence is presented to the board of trustees that "the child's physical or mental condition or attitude is such as to prevent or render inadvisable his[her] attendance at school." A written certificate from a reputable physician, filed with the board of trustees, stating that attendance is inadvisable or not possible shall be considered satisfactory evidence.

EXEMPTIONS

§392.060; 070

A child is exempted from school attendance if satisfactory written evidence is presented to the board of trustees that the child has already completed 12 grades of elementary and high school or is receiving at home or in some other school equivalent instruction of the kind and amount approved by the state board of education.

§392.080

A child shall be exempted from school attendance when the state department of education has determined that the child lives so far from the nearest public school that attendance would be "unsafe or impractical," and the child's parent or guardian has notified the board of trustees in writing.

§392.090

The juvenile division of district court may permit a child who has completed the eighth grade to leave school.

§392.120

Anyone who makes a false statement with the intent to deceive concerning the age or school attendance of a child under 17 years old who is under his or her control, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. "Any teacher, principal, or superintendent of any public school is authorized to require the parent or guardian of any pupil enrolled in his[her] school to furnish a birth certificate or other satisfactory evidence of the age of the pupil."

§392.130

". . . any school child shall be deemed a truant who shall have been absent from school without a valid excuse acceptable" to the teacher or the principal. Absence for part of the day shall be considered absence for the whole day. A written truancy notice shall be delivered to whomever is in charge of the child.

TRUANT

§392.140

A habitual truant is a child who has been deemed a truant three or more times within the school year A habitual truant who is truant in the immediately succeeding school year may again be deemed a habitual truant.

§392.150

The board of trustees of a school district may appoint an attendance officer, fix his or her compensation, prescribe his or her duties, and make rules and regulations for the performance of such duties.

ATTENDANCE OFFICER

§392.160

During school hours, any school official shall arrest without warrant any child between 7 and 17 who has been reported by a school official as an absentee from legally required instruction. During school hours, the arresting officer shall deliver the child to the teacher. After school hours, the officer shall deliver the child to the person having control of the child.

§392.170

Upon the written complaint of anyone, the board of trustees shall make a full investigation of charges against parents, guardians, or custodians of a child, for violations of the compulsory attendance laws and file a written report of the investigation and its findings.

INVESTIGATION

VIOLATION

§392.180; 190

If an investigation shows that a parent, guardian, or custodian of a child has violated the school attendance laws, the clerk of the board of trustees or the attendance officer shall file a criminal complaint against that person, charge the violation, and see that it is prosecuted by the proper authority.

§392.200

COMPLAINT

Any taxpayer or school officer may file a criminal complaint against a parent, guardian, or custodian of a child who has violated school attendance laws.

§392.210

NOTICE

VIOLATION

Any parent, guardian, or custodian of a child who is given notice of the child's truancy and fails to prevent it subsequently within that school year is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§392.220

Anyone abetting truancy or unlawfully employing a child is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any school officer may visit a place employing minors to see if it complies with provisions of this Title and may demand of minors' employers a list of the minors' names and ages.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§189:34

Truant officers for each district shall be appointed by the school board.

§189:36

Truant officers "shall enforce the laws and regulations relating to truants . . . between the ages of eight and sixteen years not attending school and without any . . . occupation; and the laws relating to the attendance . . . of children between . . . eight and eighteen . . . ."

§189:37

The state board may appoint additional truant officers and may require a school board to remove a truant officer found to be "incompetent".

§193:1

All children "between six and sixteen years" shall attend public school unless the child's "physical or mental condition" prevents his/her attendance or would "make it undesirable." If the school district does not have a high school, attendance will not be mandatory for a child over fourteen who has completed elementary school work. If a child becomes six years old "after September thirtieth" he/she will not be required to begin school until the following year.

§193:2

Every person who has custody of a child must send the child to school "during all the time the public schools are in session."

§193:3

If the person having custody of a child thinks that the child's attendance at a school or "special class for handicapped children" to which the child was assigned will result in "a manifest educational hardship to the child," he/she may apply for relief to the state board of education. The board may investigate and reassign the child. If the child is assigned to another district, the tuition will be paid by his residence school district.

§193.5

Whenever the superintendent of schools deems that "the welfare of any child will be best served by the withdrawal of such child from school," he/she may so recommend to the commissioner of education who shall, "if the facts warrant it," exempt the child from attendance for whatever time he/she thinks best.

§193.7

Failure to comply with the compulsory attendance requirements shall constitute a "violation". Any fines collected will be used for the school district.

§193:16 --193:18

School districts may make "by-laws" concerning truants and attendance requirements. "Any offender . . . shall be sentenced to the state industrial school during minority." An offender may have his/her sentence suspended if he/she posts bond, and attends a school assigned to him/her and complys with all regulations.

§194:23-b

A student less than 16 years of age, must attend a high school "which has been approved by the state board of education" in order to "satisfy compulsory school attendance laws".

§195-A:4-a

EXEMPTION

Pupils in a sending district may be exempted, "upon a showing of hardship," from any agreement "requiring them to attend the receiving district's schools." An exception shall be granted for one school year and may be renewed.

The absence of any pupil by reason of "observance of a religious holiday" shall be an excused absence if a written excuse signed by the pupil's parent or guardian is presented to "the proper school authority." No pupil shall be penalized in any way because of such absence.

§18A:38-25;26

Children "between the ages of 6 and 16" must attend school regularly in public or day schools. Such attendance shall be during all days and hours in which the public schools are in session unless the "bodily or mental condition of the child" prevents his/her attendance.

§18A:38 - 27

Any child between the ages of six and sixteen who is repeatedly absent from school, truant, incorrigible, actually vagrant, vicious or immoral in conduct," shall be deemed a juvenile delinquent and "be proceeded against as such."

§18A:38-28; 29

Any child between six and sixteen found to be truant by an attendance officer shall be brought to the parent or teacher of the school. A child violating this article shall be warned by the attendance officer and his/her parents notified of the consequences if violations continue. The attendance officer shall have "full police power" to enforce this law and "may arrest without warrant" any child in violation of this act.

TRUANT

§18A:38-31

A parent or other person in charge of a child between 6 and 16 who violates the school attendance laws shall be subject to "a fine of not more than $5 for a first offense and not more than $25 for each subsequent offense."

§2570

In a city with a population of one million or more, there shall be a bureau of compulsory education, school census and child welfare. The bureau shall consist of a director, an assistant director, attendance officers and other employees. The superintendent of schools shall have general supervision of the bureau.

§3024;3025

School attendance records shall be kept and each teacher or other employee who keeps such records will verify the information by oath or affirmation.

§3205; 3206

Full time attendance is compulsory for all children "from six to sixteen years of age," including those who reside on an Indian reservation. Minors who have full-time employment certificates, but are temporarily unemployed, must attend a minimum of 20 hours a week. An employed minor must attend between 4 and 8 hours a week. School authorities are empowered to "establish a half-time system or program of employment and required attendance at part-time schools" for minors between the ages of 16 and 18.

§3208

Compulsory attendance provisions are contingent upon the child possessing a "proper mental and physical condition." Any condition which is a danger to the health and safety of the child or others, or any impairment which prevents the child from benefitting from instruction is cause for lawful absence. Should proper facilities or remedies become available, attendance is again compulsory.

§3210

A minor required to attend school shall "attend regularly . . . where he[she] resides or is employed, for the entire time the appropriate schools . . . are in session." Absence for "religious observance and education" is permitted under rules established by the commissioner of education.

A minor may be permitted to attend a shorter day and/or shorter school year provided school authorities approve such instruction as substantially equivalent to the norm.

§3211

An authorized employee of the school district shall keep an "accurate record of the attendance and absence" of children required to attend school. The principal or other person in charge of a school shall notify district school authorities of the "discharge or transfer of any such minor . . . "

§3212

Parents or legal guardians are required to present "evidence of age" at the time a minor begins school and shall "cause such minor to attend . . . instruction" as required by law. Parents or guardians are responsible for placing the minor in proper physical condition or for taking reasonable remedial measures. An exception is granted "if it can be shown that [the parent or guardian[is unable to control the minor."

A minor between 16 and 21 not under control of parents or guardians is responsible for compliance with the education law.

It is unlawful for any person to induce a minor to be truant or to harbor such minor.

It is unlawful to obstruct an attendance officer in pursuit of his/her duties.

No person shall violate any provision with regard to employment of minors.

§3213

"A supervisor of attendance, attendance teacher or attendance officer . . . may arrest without warrant any minor who is unlawfully absent from attendance upon instruction."

REGULATIONS

Part 16 (Statutory Authority §207)

§16.1

The commissioner shall make regulations to enforce the compulsory attendance laws.

§16.2

A petition, representing a religious group, may be filed with the Commissioner asking that children whose parents are members of that religious group, be excused from the required study in health and hygiene.

Part 101 (Statutory Authority §207)

§ 101.2 — 101.4

Minors between the ages of six and 16 are required to attend school unless exempted because of physical disability, severe mental retardation, or mental or emotional disorders. In order to obtain exemption, the child must be examined by qualified physicians or psychiatrists and the exemption must be approved by the school district committee responsible for reviewing these matters. An exemption certificate may be renewed or in the case of severe mental retardation, may be declared permanent after further examination and recommendation. EXEMPTION

Part 104 (Statutory authority §207)

§ 104.1 — 104.2

Public and nonpublic schools must keep a record of each pupil's attendance, absence and tardiness. A nonpublic school providing elementary and/or secondary education must keep individual pupil academic records. If the nonpublic school discontinues operation for any reason, it shall transfer its pupil records to another school or to the school district where it is located.

Part 109 (Statutory authority §207)

§ 109.1 — 109.2

The Education Law (§802) requires that certain designated holidays be observed in the public schools. At the request of a parent or guardian, a child may be excused from school for religious observances and education. Such absence may not be for more than one hour each week.

Constitution

CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA, ART. IX, §3

All children are required to attend the public schools, "unless educated by other means."

Statutes

§115-166

Parents or guardians of children "between the ages of seven and 16 years" shall see to it that their children regularly attend school. Temporary absences for "sickness or other unavoidable cause" may be excused by the principal. In order for nonpublic schooling to be accepted in lieu of public school education, the nonpublic school must keep the same attendance records and minimum cirriculum standards as the public schools require

§115-167 — 115-171

The State Board of Education shall "formulate rules and regulations" to enforce the attendance requirements. The Board may determine what constitutes "legitimate excuses" or "unlawful absence", and when pupils may be excused due to the "demands of the farm or the home . . ." RULEMAKING

"Attendance counselors" may be employed by the Board to carry out these rules and to prosecute offenders. Any parent who violates these requirements "shall be guilty of a misdemsanor." The school "attendance counselor shall investigate all violators" and the reports of unauthorized absence received by him shall "constitute prima facie evidence of the violation." A parent may submit an affidavit stating that his or her child is unable to attend school "by reason of necessity to work" and the attendance counselor may then have the matter investigated by a juvenile court. If the court finds that the VIOLATIONS affidavit is true, then the court shall determine what help is needed to enable the parent to comply with the attendance requirements, and turn the matter over to the county director of social services.

"No board of education shall discriminate on the basis of sex, race, religion, or national origin when assigning pupils to attendance schedules..." EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

§3313.644

The board of any school district may contract with any state or federal agency for the education of out-of-school youth regardless of their place of residence. Students who are not residents of the school district may attend under this section only "if the contract provides for the reimbursement to the school district of the entire actual cost of educating such nonresident students...."

§3321.02

"Every child actually a resident in the state shall be amenable to the laws relating to compulsory education...."

That the child's residence is seasonal, that the parent is a resident of another state, or that the child has attended school for the legal period in another state are not valid excuses for a child's not attending school.

§3321.03

Parents or guardians of a child of compulsory school age shall cause such child to attend a school or special education program conforming to minimum state standards for the full time the school is in session and to receive instruction in accordance with law. He(she) shall continue to do so until:

A) the child receives a diploma stating the successful completion of a high school curriculum;

B) the child receives an age and schooling certificate;

C) the child is excused from school under standards adopted by the state board pursuant to the code.

The exception shall be the child who has been "determined incapable of profiting substantially by further instruction."

§3321.04

Every child not employed under an age and schooling certificate shall attend a school meeting minimum state education standards. Such attendance shall be full-time, at least thirty-two weeks per year, to commence within the first week of a) the school term, b) beginning of residence in the district, or c) withdrawal from employment.

Excuses from future attendance or past absences may be granted for the following causes:

A) The district superintendent of schools may excuse a pupil for attendance provided that:

1) His(her) bodily or mental condition does not permit his attendance at school during such period, as certified by a licensed physician;

2) He/she is receiving instruction at home by a qualified teacher in an approved course of study.

B) The state board of education may adopt rules and regulations authorizing the excuse of "a child over 14 years of age from attendance for a future limited period for the purpose of performing necessary work directly and exclusively for his [her] parent or legal guardians."

C) A district board of education "in which a public school is located or the governing authorities of a private or parochial school may in the rules governing... discipline...," designate the manner and authority by which a child may be excused for absence for good and sufficient reasons.

§3321.07

A child may attend a non-public school provided such school conforms to the minimum standards set by the state board of education. The hours and terms of attendance shall be the same as in public schools.

"This section does not require a student to attend a high school rather than a vocational, commercial or other special type of school," provided the term and hours are equal to those of a high school and that his(her) attendance "will not interfere with a continuous program of education for the child to the age of 16."

§3321.12

To facilitate compliance with laws relating to compulsory education and employment of minors, the clerk of the board of education shall receive from the principal or teacher in charge of any public, private or parochial school, a report of the names, ages, and places of residence of all pupils under 18 years of age in attendance at their school, as well as any other information necessary.

"Nothing in this section shall require any person to release, or to permit access to, public school records in violation of section 3319.321 of the Revised Code", concerning limits on public access to records concerning pupils.

§3321.14

The boards of education in every city and exempted village school districts shall employ an attendance officer and may employ or appoint such assistants as necessary.

In cities with a population of one hundred thousand or over, the board may appoint one or more pupil-personnel workers and provide for their traveling expenses within the district.

§3321.16 -- .22

The attendance officer or assistant may investigate any case of nonattendance at a school or part-time school by any student under 18 years of age who is a resident of the district, or any child over 18 enrolled in a school within the district. The attendance officer or assistant may take such actions as the superintendent directs or as deemed "proper in the absence of specific direction."

"The attendance officer, and assistants... shall be vested with police powers, may serve warrants, and may enter workshops, factories, stores, and all other places where children are employed and do whatever is necessary in the way of investigation or otherwise to enforce the laws relating to compulsory education and the employment of minors." They may also take into custody compulsory school age children who are not legally employed on an age and schooling certificate and who is not attending school and conduct them to school.

§3321.18

"The attendance officer ... shall institute proceedings against officer, parent, guardian, person, partnership, or corporation violating laws relating to compulsory education or the employment of minors...", discharge other duties as described in this code, or as directed by the district board of education or superintendent "to preserve the morals and secure the good conduct of school children, and to enforce such laws."

The attendance officer shall report any discrepancy between an enumeration of each school district he(she) serves and a list of pupils enrolled in the district schools; he(she) shall cooperate with the department of industrial relations in enforcing laws relating to the employment of minors; he(she) shall keep records of his(her) transactions for the use by the superintendent and school board and shall make reports to the superintendent.

The attendance officer shall investigate any case of supposed truancy in his(her) district and warn both the child and parent or guardian in writing, if found truant, of the legal consequences of truancy. If a child is not attending school as required, the parent or guardian shall cause the child to attend forthwith. Should the child fail to appear at school, the attendance officer shall make a complaint against the parent or guardian in court.

The above shall also be the case concerning a child not attending a part-time school or class.

Such notice, sent by registered mail, is a legal notice.

If a parent or guardian proves unable to cause a child to attend school or part-time classes, the attendance officer shall make a complaint, in juvenile court, that the child is a delinquent child or a dependent child as defined by this code. Should the judge decide the child is a delinquent or a dependent child, the judge shall deal with the child according the the appropriate sections of this code.

§3321.38; .99

A) No person having charge of a child of compulsory school age shall violate sections 3321.01, .03,.04,.07,.10, .20, or 3331.14 of this code. The court may require a person who has violated this provision to give bond that he(she) will cause the child in his(her) care to attend and remain in attendance in the school or classes as provided by law.

B) The parent or guardian may not fail or refuse to pay any fines or costs or post bond as required above.

C) "This section does not relieve from prosecution and conviction any parent, guardian, or other person upon further violation of such sections, nor shall forfeiture of the bond relieve such person from prosecution and conviction upon further violation of such sections."

Violations of division A shall result in a fine of $5 to $20; violations of division B shall result in imprisonment of ten to thirty days.

§3331.08

When a superintendent of schools refuses to excuse a child from school attendance and refuses to grant an age and schooling certificate, the child may appeal to a juvenile judge of the county whose decision shall be final.

H. Attendance Requirements

Constitution

OKLAHOMA CONSTITUTION, ART. XIII, §4

"The Legislature shall provide for the compulsory attendance at some public or other school, unless other means of education are provided, of all the children in the State who are sound in mind and body, between the ages of eight and sixteen years, for at least three months in each year."

Statutes

§70-10-101 - 10-102; 10-107

The board of education of each independent school district shall appoint and fix the compensation of an attendance officer and such assistants as may be necessary. All attendance officers shall hold valid teaching certificates or have 5 years of continuous employment with any school district.

Each county superintendent of schools shall appoint an attendance officer to serve the dependent school districts of the county.

§70-10-105

It shall be unlawful for a parent or guardian "to neglect or refuse to cause or compel [a] child to attend school," if such child is over seven and under 18 and has not completed four years of high school work. It shall be unlawful for any child aged 16-18, who has not finished four years of high school work, to neglect or refuse to attend school.

Provided, this section shall not apply if:

1. A child is unable to attend school because of mental or physical disability, as determined by the board of education of the district after receiving a physician's certificate.

2. Is excused from attendance due to an emergency; or

3. Is at least 16 and is excused from attendance by written, joint agreement between the school administrator and the child's parent or guardian. However, no such agreement shall be executed until it is determined that such action is in the "best interest of the child and/or the community," and that the child will be under the supervision of the parent or guardian until he or she is 18 years old.

Any parent, guardian, child or other person violating any provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a maximum fine of $50.00, or by a maximum imprisonment of 10 days, or both.

It shall be the duty of the principal or head teacher of each school to keep a complete record of attendance and to notify the district attendance officer of the absence of children, with the reasons therefor, if known. It shall be the duty of any parent or guardian to notify the child's teacher concerning the cause of the child's absence.

The teacher and attendance officer shall report to the school health officer all absences due to illness. After investigating all facts relating to a child's absence, the attendance officer shall, if justified by the circumstances, given written notice to the parent or guardian that the attendance of such child at some school is required. If the parent or guardian does not comply within 10 days, the attendance officer shall make complaint against the parent or guardian in a court of competent jurisdiction.

§70-10-107

Attendance officers are required to comply with all rules and regulations of their local boards of education.

§70-18-111 to 18-113

Only pupils who are legal residents of the district and are between the ages of five and twenty-one may be counted in the average daily attendance. Computation of average daily attendance for purposes of Foundation Program Aid or Incentive Aid shall be determined by the formula set forth in this section.

§70-24-120

At the close of each attendance period of the school term, each board of education shall advise the Department of Public Welfare of the name of any child who has been absent without explanation at least 80% of the time.

§339.040

The attendance supervisor is appointed by the executive officer in districts having a census of less than 1,000 children. Compensation is fixed by the governing body of the county.

The district school board in districts having a census of 1,000 or more children appoint such supervisors and fix and pay compensation.

Districts with a school census of more than 200 and less than 1,000 children upon written application may appoint attendance supervisors and fix their compensation and pay.

"For purposes of the appointment and duties of attendance supervisors, the territory in a joint school district shall be considered part of the county in which the administrative office of the joint district is located."

§339.055

TRUANCY

The attendance supervisor investigates truancies and unexcused absences of children not exempt from compulsory school attendance.

§339.065

"In estimating regular attendance for purposes of the compulsory attendance provisions . . . . eight unexcused one-half day absences in any four week period . . . [while] school is in session shall be considered irregular attendance."

Absences may be excused if caused by the sickness of the pupil or a member of his/her family, by an emergency or "for other reasons where satisfactory arrangements are made in advance of the absence."

The district school board may excuse a pupil for not more than five days in a 3-month period or 10 days in a 6-month period. The excuse "shall be in writing and directed to the principal of the school which the pupil attends."

§339.080

NOTICE

Within 24 hours after receipt of notification that a person having legal custody of a child fails to send him/her to school, the attendance supervisor shall give formal written notice in person or by registered or certified mail that the child must appear in school the next day and throughout the remainder of the school year.

Notice shall be given at the same time to the principal or school superintendent, who shall notify the attendance supervisor "of any failure on the part of the parent or other person to comply."

§339.090

The attendance supervisor determines whether there has been compliance with the written notice of attendance requirements. Within three days after receipt of notice of failure to comply the attendance supervisor shall file a complaint so alleging before a court having jurisdiction over misdemeanors.

COMPLAINT

§339.410

"Pupils under 8 years of age may be dismissed after school attendance of four hours duration." If not practicable, recesses must be allowed so that actual classroom time does not exceed three and one-half hours daily.

§339.420

Upon application by a person having legal custody, or by a child who has attained the age of majority, "a child attending public school may be excused from school for periods not exceeding 120 minutes in any week to attend weekday schools giving instruction in religion."

REGULATIONS

§581-22-230

Twelve school years of planned educational experience shall be required, unless local boards adopt policies providing early or delayed completion of all state and local program, credit and performance requirements. Policies may be adopted to allow credit by examination or allow credit for off-campus experience. In modifying attendance requirements for graduation, the administrators shall consider the age and maturity of the student, access to alternative learning experiences, performance levels, desires of parents or guardians, and local board guidelines.

§581-24-085

The district shall provide attendance supervision services for all area school districts of less than 1,000 ADA.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§13-1326

"Compulsory school age" shall mean the period from which the child enters school, not later than age eight, until the age of seventeen.

§13-1327

Every child of compulsory school age is required to attend, and the parent, guardian or other person having charge of such child is required to send such child to a day school in which the subjects and activities prescribed by State Board of Education standards are taught in the English language. Any child of 15 with the approval of the district superintendent and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and any child of 16 with the approval of the district superintendent of schools, may enroll, as a day student in a private trade or business school licensed by the Department of Public Instruction, or in a trade or business school, or department operated by a local school district(s). Such program must meet standards prescribed by State Board of Education. The certificate of any principal verifying that the subjects and activities prescribed by State Board of Education standards are taught in the English language shall be sufficient evidence of compliance.

EXEMPTIONS

§13-1330

Exceptions to compulsory attendance: (1) any child who is 16 and regularly employed and who holds an employment certificate; (2) any child who has been mentally examined and has been found to be unable to profit from further public school attendance; (3) any child who is 15 and engaged in farm work or domestic service in a private home or a permit issued by the school board; (4) any child who is 14 and engaged in farm work or domestic service as in clause (3) and who has satisfactorily completed the highest grade of the elementary school organization of the district in which he/she resides if the permit has been recommended by the district superintendent or principal of the private school where he/she is enrolled and approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

§13-1332

Every principal, teacher, or tutor shall furnish to the district superintendents, attendance officers, and others the names and residences of all children enrolled in schools and shall report absences of more than three days without lawful excuse; and shall report to the district superintendent the name and date of withdrawal of any pupil during the period of compulsory attendance.

ATTENDANCE OFFICERS

§13-1341

The board of school directors shall employ attendance officers to enforce compulsory attendance provisions. They shall also have full police power without warrant, and may arrest or apprehend any child who fails to attend school or who is "incorrigible, insubordinate, or disorderly" during attendance at school. Any two or more school districts may join in the appointment of an attendance officer.

§13-1342

"Attendance officers or home and school visitors may be employed for a full calendar year, and shall be paid such amounts and in such manner as the board of school directors may decide. They shall at all times perform the duties of their appointment under the direction of the board of school directors . . ."

§13-1343

When an attendance officer arrests or apprehends any child who fails to attend school, he/she shall promptly notify the parents and unless they place said child in a school other than public school, the attendance officer shall place said child in the public school in which the child is, or should be, enrolled.

§13-1344; 13-1345

Attendance officers shall have full power and authority to enter, during business hours, any place where any children are employed, to ascertain whether or not any child there should be attending school, and shall have the right to demand and inspect the employment certificate of any child engaged there. Any officer or other person who refuses to permit or interferes with the entrance of the attendance officer, shall be fined $5 to $25 and in default thereof imprisoned for up to 30 days.

§13-1351

The board of school directors shall maintain a continuing school census or have a listing of the name, birth date, age, sex, nationality, place of residence, name and address of parent, name and location of the school where the child belongs, and name and address of the employer of any child under 18 who is engaged in regular employment. Any hindrance or prevention or attempt thereof subjects person to a fine of up to $5 or imprisonment for no more than 5 days.

§13-1354

It shall be the duty of every principal or teacher of a public school to report immediately the names of all children who have not appeared for enrollment and the names of all children who having enrolled have subsequently withdrawn, or have been absent three days without lawful excuse. The parents shall be notified and if any child or parent fails to comply, the superintendent, attendance officer or secretary of the board shall proceed against the offending person.

§13-1355

Any district superintendent, secretary of board of school directors, attendance officer, teacher, or principal who wilfully refuses or neglects to comply with their attendance duties shall be liable and pay a penalty of up to $25 and costs, and default thereof, imprisonment of up to 30 days. Appeals may be made to the court of quarter sessions.

§14-1417

"Any pupil prevented from attending school on account of the health or sanitation law . . . ., is relieved from complying with the provisions of the act . . . concerning compulsory attendance during the time he[she] is prevented from attending school."

§15-1534

In school districts of the second, third and fourth class teachers must make a report for the past month to the board of school directors stating the number of days the school was kept open; if closed, the reasons for it and the number of days closed, age and sex of all pupils and their attendance. Such reports are open to the public.

§25-2512; 2513

On or before July 1 annually, each school district, with respect to area technical schools, shall file a certificate with the Superintendent of Public Instruction showing attendance data for all pupils during the preceding school term for reimbursement purposes; on or before November 1 of each year it shall file with the Superintendent a certificate showing the number of full-time teachers and supervisory personnel, the number employed in elementary schools and junior high schools, the certificates held by each and the compensation paid each. It should do the same for part-time personnel.

§2698

The penalty for taking a child, assisting a child to leave or leaving by a child without permission or without an order from the board shall be upon summary conviction a fine of not more than $50. In default of payment and costs; imprisonment is not to exceed 10 days. Minors shall be dealt with by such courts as in other cases of juvenile delinquency.

REGULATIONS

§ 11.4 - 11.6

"Pupils attending college full time prior to graduation from high school shall be dropped from the membership roll of the district at the time they withdraw.

A 12th grade pupil may qualify for graduation by attending school part time when lawfully employed part time or when officially enrolled in college part time. Membership in the public schools of the district on an equivalent full-time basis for such pupils may be counted for reimbursement purposes."

Open campus programs limited to the senior high schools may be approved in accordance with the Secretary's standards. Pupils enrolled in these programs shall be counted on a full-time basis for reimbursement purposes.

§ 11.21

A pupil may be excused from school for observance of bona fide religious holidays by particular religious groups in accordance with policies of the district's board of school directors. A pupil's absence from school for bona fide religious holidays should be recorded as an excused absence with no penalty attached.

§ 11.22

Upon parental request, a pupil may be excused during school hours for the purpose of receiving tutorial instruction in a field not offered in the district's curricula only if the excusal does not interfere with the regular program of studies and the qualifications of the instructor are approved by the district superintendent.

§ 11.23

A pupil may be excused during school hours for the purpose of obtaining nonschool professional health care if the health services are rendered by state licensed practitioners, there has been established reasonable cooperation between the school authorities and the practitioners in providing services to school children outside school hours, and the time of necessary absence from school involves a minimum of interference with school work.

§ 11.24 - 11.28

A pupil who has run away from home and not returned to school shall be carried on the active roll for a 15-day maximum after the police have been notified. Such absence shall be classified as unexcused.

Every principal or teacher may upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of mental, physical, or other urgent reasons excuse a child for nonattendance during temporary periods. "Urgent reasons" shall be strictly construed and shall not permit irregular attendance.

Pupils, with a written request from their parents, may be excused from school attendance to participate in an educational tour or trip approved by the District Superintendent provided during the school term at the pupils' parents' expense in which the pupils are subject to the direction and supervision of adult personage acceptable to the District Superintendent and the pupils' parents.

"Pupils in graduating classes may be counted present for not more than three days for graduation preparations under the supervision of certified school employees."

Pupils engaged in an approved work study or career exploration program properly supervised, arranged as an integral part of the school curricula, shall be counted for attendance and reimbursement purposes as if in regular school attendance.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§16-18-4

The superintendent of schools shall promptly report to the truant officer the names of all persons required to attend school under the provision of chapter 19 who are not actually enrolled and attending school as shown by the records.

§16-19-1

Every child between the ages of seven and sixteen, inclusive, shall regularly attend public day school during all the days and hours that the public schools are in session in the city or town wherein the child resides; and every person having under his control a child as above described shall cause such child to attend school as required by the above-stated provisions of this section, and for every neglect of such duty the person having control of such child shall be fined not more than twenty dollars, "provided, if the person so charged shall prove that the child has attended for the required period of time a private day school or received instruction approved by the school committee where said private school was located or where said private instruction was given; or that the physical or mental condition of the child was such as to render his attendance at school inexpedient or impracticable; or that the child was excluded from school by virtue of some general law or regulation -- then such attendance shall not be obligatory nor shall such penalty be incurred."

VIOLATIONS

EXEMPTIONS

§16-19-3

The school committee of each city or town shall annually appoint one or more persons as truant officers, "who shall be clothed with the power of special constables, and fix their compensation, which shall be payable from public school appropriations." The school committee of two or more cities or towns may appoint the same truant officer or officers.

TRUANT OFFICER

§16-19-4

Truant officers shall inquire into all cases arising under the provisions of this chapter, and shall alone be authorized, in cases of violations of any provisions of this chapter, to make complaint therefor; they may also serve all legal processes issued in pursuance of this chapter.

§16-19-5

Truant officers and industrial inspectors may visit any places or establishments where minor children are employed to ascertain whether the provisions of this chapter are complied with, and may as often as twice in every year demand from all employers of minor children a report containing the names of all children who have not completed "sixteen years of life" that are employed by them, such report to give the names, ages and residences of all such children.

§16-19-6

Every habitual truant and every habitual school offender shall be deemed a wayward child, and may be proceeded against and dealt with as a wayward child in accordance with the provisions of chapter 1 of title 14.

§16-26-8

Every person having under his/her control any child between age seven and age eighteen years shall cause such child to attend such school for such period of time or such prescribed course as may be deemed expedient by the board of education.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§59-64-10 --59-64-90

All parents shall cause their children to attend school regularly. Failure to do so may result in conviction by a juvenile court and a fine of up to $50 or 30 days imprisonment for each offense. If a child is repeatedly absent from school without the knowledge or consent of his/her parents, the court may declare the child delinquent and subject to the law governing those children. The state board of education shall establish rules defining lawful and unlawful absences from school. Some exceptions to the compulsory attendance requirement include: (1) children who are mentally or physically handicapped and no special classes are available to suit their needs; (2) children who are married or who are pregnant or have a child born outside of wedlock; (3) children who have completed the eighth grade and whose employment is "necessary for the maintenance of [their] home"; (4) children who are at least sixteen and whose continued attendance at school is determined by a court to be "disruptive to the educational program of the school, unproductive of further learning and not in the best interests of the child . . . ." Such a child will be authorized by the court to seek gainful employment under the supervision of the court until the child reaches age seventeen. The court may first require the child be tested to determine if employment is a more suitable alternative to continued education.

RULEMAKING

TESTING

§59-64-210 --59-65-280

Each county may employ an attendance supervisor to contact the parents of children who fail to attend school and attempt to persuade the children to attend school regularly. The state board shall certify all attendance supervisors.

§43-141

On written request of the State Board of Education, a school may be permitted to use as much as one school day for the purpose of making a complete census.

The State Board of Education authorizes the State Superintendent of Education to notify the county superintendents of education, the school trustees and the school administrators in each county that the State Board will take such steps as are necessary to require compliance with §59-65-240 of the School Laws of South Carolina, 1976, and cause to be made complete the census of all school children within the county and school districts between the ages of 7 and 16 who are not enrolled in school the first 30 days of school or enrolled in some other school; and that the names, ages, places of residence, names of parents or guardians of such children of school age not enrolled be filed in the school office and a copy filed with the county superintendent of education who, in town, will certify a copy to the attendance supervisor or supervisors of the county in compliance with the law; and that the county superintendents of education shall make a list of such children, available to the State Superintendent of Education by districts and races.

§43-274

Lawful absence is any of the following: (1) illness; (2) death or illness in immediate family; (3) recognized religious observances; (4) in accord with local board policy. Unlawful absence is a student's wilful absence from school without parental knowledge.

If any teacher or private school employee fails to make the requisite attendance reports, they "shall be guilty of a misdemeanor" punishable by fine. All fines collected shall go to "the county general school fund." Teachers guilty of such a violation shall have their certificates revoked.

REVOCATION

§13-22-4

A copy of the school census shall be given to the "commissioner of school and public lands" and a copy retained by the school district.

§13-27-1

The parent or guardian of a child between the ages of seven and sixteen must see that the child attends "some public or nonpublic elementary school" until the child completes "the first eight grades" or reaches age sixteen.

§13-27-3

A child may be "excused from school attendance" if the child is "otherwise instructed by a competent person for a like period of time in the courses taught in the public schools." The district school board shall judge the quality of the instruction and examine the child as necessary. The district superintendent may require reports on the child's work to be filed with her/him.

§13-27-4

A child may be excused from school attendance if his physical or mental condition would "render his attendance at school unsafe, impracticable, or harmful either to the child or to others."

§13-27-5

A child may be excused from school attendance if he/she is "deaf, visually handicapped, or mentally retarded."

§13-27-6 - 6.1

School attendance may be excused because of "serious illness in the family. Attendance may also be excused up to 5 days in a term when a student requests permission to attend youth program events.

§13-27-11

Any person who fails to comply with the compulsory school attendance requirements "shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

§13-27-12

The state superintendent of schools is in charge of enforcing the compulsory attendance laws.

§13-27-14

Every school district shall employ a "truancy officer" to "enforce the compulsory attendance laws" in the district.

§13-27-15

All school superintendents shall keep attendance records and report the names of those not in attendance to the truancy officer.

§13-27-19

In the exercise of his [her] duties, a truancy officer shall have "the powers of a deputy sheriff" and shall "apprehend truant children" and return them to the school they are required to attend.

TRUANTS

§13-27-20

The truancy officer shall "file complaints" against the parent or guardian of a truant child.

§13-28-1

Children between the ages of five and nineteen are "of school age."

§13-28-10.1

"When a child is residing in an approved group home or private child care center which provides care and custody for children who are not living with their parents or guardian, the school residence of such child shall be the school district wherein the child resided immediately prior to the time the child entered the group home or private child care center and such residence continues until such time as the child ceases to reside in the group home or private child care center. The school district wherein the group home or private care center is located shall be responsible for providing an eductional program for the children who reside in the group home or private child care center. Tuition shall be paid as provided."

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§1708 -- 1710

Parents and/or guardians are responsible for the attendance of the children under their control between the ages of 7 and 16 at private or public schools. The child may be withdrawn for "any good and substantial reason" so long as within 30 days the child has been put into another public or private school.

"The minimum session of attendance required under this chapter is one hundred seventy-five days per year, or for the full annual session of the public school which the child would normally attend."

Children with either mental or physical incapacities, or who live far from school with no accessible free transportation, or with a high school diploma, or who are excused because of the rules and regulations promulgated by the school system, or who are fifteen, but are disruptive and who are not deriving anything out of the school system, shall be exempt from attending school.

EXEMPTIONS

§1711 -- 1712

Each local board of education may employ at least one full-time attendance teacher whose duty it shall be to assist the board in enforcing the compulsory attendance laws. Because of the size of the school system, or the paucity of the school population, two school systems may join "in the joint employment of an attendance teacher."

ATTENDANCE OFFICER

Each local board shall fix the compensation of the attendance officer.

"Training, certification and employment qualifications of attendance teachers shall be in compliance with rules and regulations prescribed by the state board of education and approved by the state commissioner of education."

§1713

Attendance officers derive their authority from the attendance laws of the state. The officer "shall work under the direction of the superintendent and shall comply with the rules and regulations of the local and state boards of education, approved by the state commissioner . . . ."

§1715

"Local school systems . . . may . . . include attendance teachers in the minimum program under the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board of education."

§1716

Before the beginning of the school term the superintendent of each school district shall give the principal "the names of children depending on their schools for instruction." After the opening of school a list shall be made of all students failing to enroll.

§1717

It shall be the duty of principals and teachers to give to the superintendent a list containing the names, ages and residences of pupils attending their schools within 30 days of the beginning of school and to make other required attendance reports. All schools shall keep daily reports of attendance.

§1718

The names of students who have withdrawn or been absent an aggregate of five days without adequate excuse shall be given to the superintendent of schools. The superintendent is then to serve notice upon the parents or guardians that attendance of the children is required and, unless the children are placed in a day school, action will be taken.

§1722 -- 1723

VIOLATIONS

Any parent or guardian who knowingly misrepresents the age of a child or his/her time of attendance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. This holds true for any other violation of the provisions governing school attendance.

§1724; 1737

Each justice of the peace or judge of a juvenile court has the power to hear school attendance cases, and any party aggrieved may appeal to circuit or criminal court.

§1725

SANCTIONS

Moneys collected as fines shall be placed in public school funds. The fine "may be recovered by rule or in any way that a court of law enforces its orders or decrees."

§1726

"The superintendent of any local system . . . shall report any child who habitually and unlawfully" misses school to the county judge or judge of juvenile court. Written notice must be first given to the parent or guardian.

§1727

TRUANCY

Any board of education in charge of public schools with a population of 10,000 or more may establish a truancy school for children who are habitual truants or who are "incorrigible, vicious or immoral" or who "wander or loiter . . . without lawful employment." The board may compel such children to attend a truancy school.

§1743

Each child attending a public school and who has not moved from the county, city or district in which he/she resided while attending such school shall attend the same school which he/she last attended until graduation unless enrolled in a different school by the local board.

§1772

"No child, who is refused attendance in a school nearer to his[her] residence having equivalent grade levels and curriculum, shall be required to attend public or day school as provided in §1708."

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§ 4.25

A guardian of a child who fails to require the child to attend school shall be warned in writing by the attendance officer who shall file a court compliant in case of continued noncompliance. If the parent or guardian can prove that s/he is unable to compel the chid to attend school, she/he shall be exempt from any penalty.

PENALTY

§21.033

"Unless specifically exempted..., every child in the state who is as much as seven years of age and not more than 17 years of age shall be required to attend the public schools ... a minimum of 165 days of the regular school term...."

Exemptions from "compulsory attendance" shall be granted to (1) any child who attends a private or parochial school where a course on "good citizenship" is taught; (2) "any child who has a physical or mental handicap" which is "not of a temporary and readily remediable nature, and ... [which]... renders the child's attendance in regular classrooms or in special educational facilities supported with tax funds useless or inconsistent with the child's best interests; and (3) any child who has a physical or mental condition of a temporary and remediable nature which renders such child's attendance unfeasible...; (4) any child more than 17 years of age who has satisfactorily completed the work of the ninth grade and ...[who can show]... that his [her] services are needed in support of a parent or other persons standing in a parental relation to the child ...; (5) any child expelled in accordance with the requirements of law."

EXEMPTIONS

§21.034--.035

"The county superintendent of each county shall furnish to the superintendent of schools of each school district ... or to the principal ..., a complete list of all children belonging in the district....

Each superintendent or principal shall report to the county superintendent the names of all children ... who have not enrolled in the school." An official of each private or parochial school "shall furnish the county superintendent a list of all children enrolled in the school and the district in which each child was enumerated in the public school census." From the above-noted lists, the county superintendent "shall compile a list ... of all children of scholastic age who have not enrolled in any school" in the district; this list shall be given to the "attendance officer for the district."

Excused absence of a pupil is possible in cases of "personal sickness, sickness or death in the family, quarantine, weather or road conditions making travel dangerous, or any other [acceptable] unusual cause..., or to any member of the Jewish faith on the days that Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are observed .... The reason for an excused absence must be stated in writing and signed" by the parent or guardian of a child. Any absence may be investigated by the school attendance officer.

§21.036--.039

A school attendance officer may be elected by " the county trustees of any county having a scholastic population of more than three thousand ...[or]... the board of trustees of any independent school district having a scholastic population of more than two thousand ...." In order to elect an attendance officer, the governing board after a public hearing must be "of the opinion that a school attendance officer is necessary to the proper enforcement of the compulsory attendance law and that the school concerned will be benefited by such an officer." The officer "may be compensated from available school funds.... [or]... the district." Such an elected officer may be the "probation officer or officers of the juvenile court." Where there is no elected attendance officer, the school superintendent or peace officer may fulfill the duties of attendance officer for no compensation.

"A school attendance officer shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) to investigate all cases of unexcused absences...;

(2) to administer oaths and to serve legal process;

(3) to enforce the provisions of the compulsory attendance laws

(4) to keep records of all cases of any kind investigated by him...;

(5) to make all reports of his work required of him...;

(6) to proceed in juvenile court against any incorrigible pupil, or against any recalcitrant person having parental control...."

A school attendance officer shall not:

(1) "invade or enter any private home ... without the permission of the owner or tenant except to serve lawful process...."

(2) "forcibly take corporal custody of any child ... without permission of the parent ...[or]... guardian ... except in obedience to a valid process issued by a court of competent jurisdiction."

§21.251

"Each teacher ... shall keep a daily register showing the names, ages, courses of study, and attendance records of all pupils...." This record will be open to parents, school officers and other interested people. Also, each teacher must file a monthly report, to be approved by a majority of the board of trustees, and must in turn be filed with the county superintendent "at the time vouchers for teachers' salaries are presented." At the end of each term the teacher will be instructed by the commissioner of education to make reports. The filing of these reports are necessary for approval of a voucher for the last month of the teachers salary. The necessary blanks for these reports shall be provided by county, city, and town superintendents or county, city, and school board treasurers and depositories.

It shall also be the duties of these officials to collect "school reports relating to the school fund and to other school affairs as ...(they) may deem proper for ... advancing the interests of the public schools."

Title 2; Chapter 34

Whenever anyone has reason to believe a child has been abused or violated the compulsory attendance laws on three or more occasions, they are required to report this information to the appropriate agency. Failure to do so is a misdemeanor.

CHILD ABUSE

REGULATIONS

§2306.13

"The attendance of pupils in late afternoon and evening sessions is in accordance with pupil accounting policies."

§5101; 5102; 5103

This series (5101) deals with pupil attendance and includes such topics as free attendance in general; and attendance as it applies to pupils under the age of 6 years and physically and/or mentally handicapped pupils. (Series (5102; 5103) deals with compulsory and permissive pupil attendance.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§53-24-1 - 53-24-9

The parent of "any minor between six and eighteen" is required to send the child to a public or private school. Any minor over sixteen who has finished the eighth grade or who supports a parent "may be excused to enter employment," but the parent will be required to send the minor "to a part-time school . . . at least one hundred forty-four hours per year." Attendance may be excused if the "minor is taught at home," is in a "physical or mental condition" that would "render such attendance inexpedient," or if there is no school "within two and one-half miles" of the child's residence and no transportation is provided. If a minor has reached the age of sixteen and school officials determine that he or she is "unable to profit from school attendance" due to inability or a "negative attitude," such child may be excused from school attendance.

Local boards of education may appoint a truant officer to enforce the school attendance laws. A parent or guardian of a minor who fails to comply with these laws is "guilty of a misdemeanor." Local boards of education have a "duty to inquire" into all such cases and to report them to the juvenile authorities. TRUANT

The state board for vocational education shall establish "part-time schools" which shall consist of "courses of study" for employed minors which shall be "supplemental to the work in which they are engaged, continue their general education or increase their civic and vocational knowledge." Such schools "shall be in session not less than four hours a week." Any school district which has fifteen employed minors "shall establish part-time schools." If a local board deems it "inexpedient to organize part-time schools," it may be excused from doing so by the state board for vocational education.

§53-25-1

TRUANT

Any students "between eight and eighteen" who are "habitual truants" or are "vicious, immoral or ungovernable" while at school "shall be deemed incorrigible" and shall be reported to the juvenile court.

H. Attendance Requirements

Statutes

§1074

The residence of a pupil is where the person having legal control of him resides. The board of directors shall decide. Any appeal may be made to the commissioner whose decision is final.

§1092

The clerk shall furnish the list of pupils to the school board which shall designate the school each pupil shall attend. The board shall furnish the superintendent with a list of such pupils, their dates of birth and the school designated. The teacher shall also be furnished with such a list.

With the consent of the superintendent the board may designate a different school to be attended by a student. If such occurs, the teacher of the new school and that of the school in which pupil was enrolled shall be notified and provided with the name and date of birth of the pupil.

§1121

A person having control of a child shall assure his attendance at school unless (1) the child is mentally or physically unable to do so ; (2) is otherwise being furnished with equivalent education; (3) has completed 10th grade; (4) is excused by the superintendent.

§1122

If a pupil over 16 is enrolled in school he shall be expected to attend the full term.

§1123

Attendance may be excused by the superintendent: (1) for not more than 10 consecutive days in the event of an emergency or absence from town; (2) if an elementary school is held for more than 175 days; (3) if a pupil over 15 is needed to support his family.

§1124

If the superintendent has reason to believe that a child who is claimed to be ill is not, he can request a physician to examine the child. If the child is really ill, the teacher and truant officer shall be notified.

§1125

A school board shall appoint one or more truant officers. They shall receive remuneration and necessary expenses.

(a) If a town officer discovers a child does not possess suitable clothing to attend school and the parents cannot furnish them, he shall provide the child with such clothing.

§1126

The teacher shall notify the superintendent or school director and the truant officer when a child who is enrolled fails to enter school or fails to attend unless the teacher knows the child is ill.

§1127

TRUANT DISMISSAL

If a child is absent without cause, the truant officer shall give written notice to the person having control of the child informing such person of the absence and of their duty to assure that the child attends school. Failure to do so will thereafter result in the parent being fined no less than $5.00 nor more than $50.00

The truant officer shall file a complaint with the town grand juror or the county attorney for prosecution. In such a prosecution the complaint, information and indictment shall be sufficient if it states the name of the respondent and the child and that the respondents neglects to send the child to school.

§1128

A superintendent or truant officer shall stop a child enrolled in public school wherever found during school hours and shall, unless such child is excused, take him back to school.

(b) A child who no longer resides in the district of his legal residence shall immediately be enrolled in a school where he is found or immediate action by truant officer shall be initiated to return the child to the district of his residence.

§1129

Superintendent and truant officer shall have the same authority and jurisdiction over nonresident pupils as they have over resident pupils.

§1323; 1324

Teachers shall keep records of daily attendance of each pupil and deliver such records to the superintendent at the end of each term. If such records are not delivered, the superintendent may withhold the teacher's pay.

REGULATIONS

R.M. Ch. II.K1; p. 35

WAIVER

DIPLOMA

The length of the school day requirement shall be waived when applied to those sixteen and seventeen year olds who have withdrawn from school without receiving a diploma and wish to enroll only in a Driver Education course for the specific purpose of becoming eligible to apply for a Junior Operator's license.

§22-275.4

RELEASE TIME

The school board (i) may on recommendation of the principal and the superintendent, with the written consent of the parent or guardian, excuse from attendance at school any pupil who the board determines, in accordance with State Board regulations, cannot benefit from education at the school and (ii) shall excuse from attendance at school any pupil who, together with his/her parents, by reason of bona fide religious training or belief, is conscientiously opposed to attendance at school. This does not include essentially political, sociological or philosophical views or merely a personal moral code.

The school board shall, on recommendation of the juvenile and domestic relations district court where the pupil resides, excuse from attendance at school any pupil who, together with his/her parents, is opposed to school attendance because of concern for the pupil's health or safety.

The school may, on recommendation of the juvenile and domestic relations district court where the pupil resides; excuse from attendance at school any pupil who the court concludes cannot benefit from education at the school.

§22-275.6; 22-275.7

Any handicapped child, as defined in §22-10.3, who resides in a school division which does not provide special education shall be excused from attendance at school.

Any person who violates §§22-275.1 et seq. shall be guilty of a Class 4 misdemeanor.

§22-275.8; 22-275.9

Each principal shall report to the superintendent the names, ages, grades and names and addresses of the parents of all pupils enrolled in the school within ten days after the opening of school.

The principal shall also provide the names, and addresses of parents, of children not enrolled in school who are required to attend school.

§22-275.10; 275.11; 275.11:1

Within five days after receiving the enrollment report from the principal, the superintendent shall list all children who are not in school and who are not exempt from school attendance requirements after investigating all cases of non-enrollment the superintendent shall notify the parent or guardian of a child not enrolled in school that the child must enroll in school within three days after the notice.

The superintendent shall send a list of the notified persons to the principal teacher of the school. The superintendent or the chief attendance officer, when there is one, shall file a complaint against anyone who fails to comply with the law in the juvenile and domestic relations court.

COMPLAINT

Any law-enforcement officer, as defined in §9-108, may pick up any child who is reported to be truant by a principal or superintendent or who the officer reasonably determines, because of the child's age and circumstances, is truant and may deliver the child to the appropriate school. The officer need not charge the parent or guardian with any violation of law.

TRUANT

§22-275.15

Every teacher shall keep a daily record of attendance of all children. The record shall be available to any officer authorized to enforce this article. The record shall be admissible in evidence in any prosecution for a violation of this article as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

§22-275.16; 275.17

The school board with the approval of the superintendent, may appoint one or more attendance officers who shall enforce this article and shall have the powers of a sheriff. If no attendance officer is appointed the superintendent shal act as the attendance officer. Every attendance officer shall annually report to the school a record of all his/her actions.

ATTENDANCE OFFICER

§22-275.18 -- 22-275.23

Any person who makes a false statement concerning the age for the purpose of evading the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a Class 4 misdemeanor.

Any person who induces or attempts to induce any child to be absent unlawfully from school, or who knowingly employs or harbors any child absent unlawfully shall be guilty of a Class 4 misdemeanor.

Any child permitted by any parent, guardian or other person having control of the child to be habitually absent from school, contrary to the provisions of this article, may be proceeded against as provided in Title 16.1.

The attorneys for the Commonwealth shall prosecute all cases arising under this article. The juvenile and domestic relations courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction.

VIOLATIONS

No person shall be punished for violating this article if the reason for the violation is that he/she cannot provide the necessary clothes for the child to attend school.

The State Board shall enforce the compulsory attendance laws.

Statutes

§118.15

Unless the child has a legal excuse or has graduated from high school, any child between the ages of 6 and 16 years shall attend school during the full period and hours until he/she becomes 16 years of age. Children between 6 and 18 may attend vocational school regularly during the full period until becoming 18.

A child 16 years or over may be permitted to participate on a part-time basis in a school-work training program or work study program in lieu of high school. A school board may permit a pupil in good standing to attend school part-time during his/her last term preceding high school graduation. If it is determined that the child attend a vocational, technical or adult education school, the school board of the district and the district board governing the vocational, technical or adult education school shall enter into a contract for such attendance which sets forth the courses, the amount per student class hour of instruction, general education subjects, and transportation.

§118.155

Students with written permission of a parent or guardian shall be permitted to be absent from school at least 60 minutes but not more than 180 minutes per week to obtain religious instruction outside the school during the required school period. Transportation shall be the responsibility of the parent or guardian.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

§118.16

Truancy means any absence without any legal cause which defeats the purpose of compulsory attendance. The school district administrator is the truant officer unless another is appointed by the school board. All teachers shall keep an attendance record for inspection by the truant officer. A truant officer may visit any place of employment to ascertain whether any minors are employed there contrary to law. Truant officers may apprehend without warrant any child violating compulsory attendance laws and cause the child to be placed in some school.

§118.18

Teachers shall record the names, ages, and studies of their pupils and their daily attendance. Teachers failing to comply shall forfeit their wages during the time of such failure.

§21.1-48

"Every parent, guardian or other person having control or charge of any child who is a resident of this state and whose seventh birthday falls on or before September 15 of any year and who has not yet attained his[her] sixteenth birthday or completed the eighth grade shall be required to send such child to, and such child shall be required to attend, a public or private school each year, during the time that the public schools shall be in session in the district in which the pupil resides;" provided, that the board of trustees may exempt any child when: (a) compulsory attendance would be "detrimental to the mental or physical health of the child;" provided the board may designate a physician of its choice to guide and support it in its decision. (b) Compulsory school attendance "might work undue hardship." (c) The child has been legally suspended or expelled from school.

§21.1-49

The board of trustees has the primary responsibility for enforcement of compulsory attendance laws and shall appoint an attendance officer or officers to carry out their provisions.

§21.1-50

"Subject to the policy of the board of trustees," it shall be the duty of the attendance officers to: (a) "Counsel with students, parents, guardians or custodians and teachers; and investigate the causes of unexcused absences. (b) Give written notice to the parent, guardian, or custodian of any child having an unexcused absence that the attendance of such child at school is required by law." If an unexcused absence occurs after the notice has been given which the officer "reasonably believes was due to the wilful neglect or failure of the parent, guardian or custodian;", the officer is to file a complaint against the parent, guardian or custodian before a justice of the peace or the district court.

§21.1-51

"Any parent, guardian or custodian of any child . . . who wilfully fails, neglects, or refuses to comply" with the compulsory attendance laws "shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than ten days or by both such fine and imprisonment."

§21.1-52

"At the beginning of each school year, the board of trustees shall furnish each district attendance officer a list of the names of the children of compulsory school age within the district." The person in charge of each school is to promptly notify the district attendance officer in writing of all unexcused absences.

§21.1-53

When the board of trustees determines that any child is a "habitual truant," that is a child who has more than five unexcused absences in one year, the board or its attendance officer is to notify the county attorney who is then to initiate juvenile court proceedings.

STATUTES

§48225

The governing board or county superintendent of any district which has children who hold work permits to work temporarily in the entertainment or allied industries, and who are exempted from full-time public school attendance, may contract with any person or firm responsible for the education of any children, so employed, to provide eligibility lists and placement services for qualified teaching and other personnel for the tutoring of such children while so employed.

§49110; 49114

The local school superintendent or the county superintendent, if a minor resides in an area not under a local superintendent's jurisdiction, may issue to certain minors permits to work. Written parental consent is required for a work permit to be issued.

The local school superintendent or the county superintendent may issue to any minor a certificate of age when presented with evidence of age by the minor and the minor's parent. The certificate of age shall serve as a permit to employ a minor who is not by law required to attend school and who is otherwise required to hold a permit to work.

§49111 -- 49113

A permit to work may be issued to any minor over the age of 12 years and under the age of 18 years to be employed on a regular school holiday and during school vacations in any areas not otherwise prohibited by law.

A permit to work may be issued to a minor over the age of 14 years and under the age of 18 years to work outside of school hours for not to exceed 4 hours in any school day if the minor has completed the seventh grade.

A permit to work may be issued to a minor over the age of 14 years and under the age of 18 years who is regularly enrolled in a high school or community college or who has been assigned to a vocational course and who will work part-time as an enrolled pupil in a work experience education course.

§49115; 49117 -- 49118

All permits to work, certificates of age, and certificates of health shall be issued on forms provided by the State Superintendent.

Work permits issued during the school year shall expire five days after the opening of the next school year. They shall contain: the name, age, birth date, social security number, address, and phone number of the minor; the place and hours of the minor's compulsory school attendance; the maximum number of hours per day and per week the student may work; the signatures of the minor and the issuing authority; and the date of expiration.

§49116; 49119

Except in personnel attendance occupations (defined in the Industrial Welfare Commission of Minimum Wage Order No. 1-74) and approved work experience and cooperative education programs, no employer shall employ a minor for more than four hours on any day in which the minor is required to attend school for 240 minutes or more. No employer in any agricultural occupation shall employ a minor under the age of 18 years for more than 20 hours in a school week in which the minor is required to attend school for at least 240 minutes each school day or shall employ minors 16 and 17 years of age for more than 6 hours a day or minors 14 and 15 years of age more than 4 hours a day on a school day.

If evidence is shown that the school work or health of the minor is being impaired by the employment, the issuing authority may revoke the permit.

A minor shall not be required to obtain a work permit to participate in horseback riding events specified in §1308 of the Labor Code.

§49130 -- 49135

IVI-CA
CALIFORNIA

A permit to work full time may be issued to a minor over the age of 14 years and under the age of 16 years who has graduated from the elementary course and whose family, on account of the death or incapacity of or desertion by a parent, is in need of the earnings of the minor. The parent or guardian must present a sworn statement to this effect.

The person issuing the permit shall make a signed statement that he/she or a designee has investigated family conditions and found the minor's earnings to be necessary for the family.

No permit of this sort shall be issued for longer than the current school year.

No permit shall be issued without the minor accompanied by the parent or guardian making application in person before the issuing authority, without the parent or guardian making oath that the application statements of the minor's name, address, birth place, and age are accurate, and without the issuing authority receiving the following papers: school record of the minor giving age, grade, and attendance for the current term signed by the principal, evidence of age, written statement from a prospective employer that work is waiting for the minor and the nature of the work; and a certificate signed by a physician appointed by the board that the minor is physically fit to pursue the work specified.

A permit to work full time may be issued to a minor over the age of 16 and under the age of 18, without the above qualifications and requirements.

The issuing authority shall immediately notify, in writing, the person in charge of part-time continuation classes of the place of the minor's prospective employment, and the minor shall be sent to the designated classes.

§49140

Every operator of a farm employing any parent or guardian having minor children in his/her immediate care shall post conspicuously, where it may easily be read by those employed, a notice in both English and Spanish stating that minor children are not allowed to work on the premises unless legally permitted to do so and unless work permits have been duly secured.

§49141

A work permit shall not be required for a minor when the work to be performed is for or under the control of the minor's parent or guardian and is performed on or in connection with premises owned or operated by the parent or guardian. However, this section does not affect provisions requiring work permits for minors employed in manufacturing, mercantile, or similar commercial enterprises by their parents or to do work otherwise forbidden by §1294, 1296, or 1308.5 of the Labor Code.

§49150 -- 49151

An annual report of all permits to work issued during the year shall be made by the issuing authority to the county superintendent on forms prepared by the state superintendent. The county superintendent shall include a summary of such reports in the annual report to the state superintendent.

Nothing in §49100 et. seq. shall be construed to repeal or modify §§1298, 1390, 1394, 1396, and 1397 of the Labor Code.

§49160 -- 49163; 49165

No person or firm shall employ or permit any minor under the age of 18 years to work in any establishment, except as provided in §49151, without a permit to employ. All employers of minors shall keep on file all permits to employ minors under the age of 18 years during the term of employment.

The employer of any minor shall send to the issuing authority for work permits written notification of intent to employ a minor, in a form prescribed by the Department of Education, containing: the name, address, phone number, and social security number of the minor; the name, address, phone number, and supervisor at the minor's place of employment, the kind of work and the maximum number of hours per day and per week; and the signatures of the parent or guardian, of the minor, and of the employer.

A person shall not be required to obtain a permit to employ for a minor to participate in horseback riding events specified in §1308 of the Labor Code.

§49164

Permits to work and to employ and certificates of age shall always be open to inspection by supervisors of attendance, probation officers, designees of the Labor Commissioner, and by officers of the Superintendent. They may be cancelled at any time by the issuing authority, the Superintendent, or the Labor Commissioner when the conditions for their legal issuance are found not to exist or when it is found that the minor's employment is impairing the minor's health or education.

§49180 -- 49181

If a person is believed to be in violation of any provision relating to the employment of minors, the violation shall be reported in writing within 48 hours to the Labor Commissioner who shall make an investigation and take such action as is provided in §1287 of the Labor Code.

Failure to produce a work permit is prima facie evidence of the illegal employment of any minor.

§49182 -- 49183

Any person or firm that fails to comply with provisions relating to the employment of minors or suffers any minor under 18 years of age who is too old to be subject to compulsory full time school attendance to be employed in violation of it, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200, or by imprisonment for not more than 60 days, or by both.

Every person authorized to sign permits to work or to employ or certificates of age who knowingly certifies to any false statements is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $5 or more than $50, or imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or by both.

§20-8.1-4-1 -- 20-8.1-4-19

Before employing or permitting a child, between fourteen (14) and seventeen (17) years of age to work, the employer must obtain a valid employment certificate from the proper issuing officer. Occupations exempt from this certificate requirement are: (1) farm and domestic labor; (2) golf caddie; (3) newspaper carrier; and (4) performer and entertainer, provided the employment is during hours when the schools of the child's school corporation are not in session.

The proper issuing officer is: (1) the superintendent of the school corporation; or (2) his/her designate if approved by the state attendance officer; or (3) the president of the school corporation when the office of superintendent is vacant.

When a person seeking employment represents his/her age to be between seventeen (17) and twenty-one (21), the employer may request and the issuing officer shall issue an employment certificate.

Before the issuing officer may issue an employment certificate he/she must have documents showing: (1) proof of age; (2) proof of the prospective employment; (3) proof of physical and mental fitness for such employment; and (4) proof of schooling, which means proof of successful completion of eighth grade (or equivalent) and of the ability to read and write English sentences. If a child does not satisfy the schooling requirements the superintendent may conduct an independent examination to "determine whether he[she] can meet the educational standard . . . ."

A child between fourteen (14) and sixteen (16) years of age may withdraw from school if he/she has a valid employment certificate provided that the child must return to school within five (5) days of the termination of the employment. Upon request from the parent the issuing officer may issue a "permit for temporary absence" for reasons other than employment.

The general commission of the state board of education or the division of labor may revoke an employment certificate which is found to have been improperly issued. Both the commission and the division have investigative powers for the enforcement of these regulations. When a certificate has been revoked the child shall not be permitted to work unless a proper certificate is subsequently issued.

A child between fourteen (14) and seventeen (17) who is working at an occupation requiring an employment certificate shall submit to a medical examination conducted by a medical examiner of the division of labor or a physician designated by the division. If the child's parents object, in a signed writing, on religious grounds, the division may not require the examination. If the child is found to be "physically unfit to be employed in the work in which he[she] is engaged" the division of labor shall revoke the child's employment certificate.

Children between ages fourteen (14) and seventeen (17) working in occupations requiring an employment certificate may work hours and times as follows. Children between fourteen(14) and sixteen (16) may work:

(1) 8 hours per day, forty hours per week, six days per week.

(2) Except they may work only three hours on a school day and only twenty three hours during a school week.

(3) They may work until seven o'clock in the evening except they may work until nine o'clock on an evening not followed by a school day. They may not work before six o'clock in the morning.

Children between sixteen (16) and seventeen(17) may work:

(1) Eight hours per day, forty hours per week, six days per week.

(2) Until ten o'clock on evenings followed by a school day, and until twelve o'clock on non-school nights if the employer has written permission from the parent;

(3) for nine hours per day and forty eight hours per week, during summer vacation, if the employer has written permission from the parent.

A child between sixteen and seventeen may work the same hours and times as an adult if:

(1) He/she has graduated from high school.

(2) He/she has completed an approved vocational or special educational program.

(3) He/she is not in regular school attendance.

§20-8.1-4-21 -- 20-8.1-4-31

The types of jobs children may hold are restricted as follows. No child under fourteen may be employed or allowed to work at any gainful employment except: (1) farm or domestic labor; (2) golf caddie; (3) newspaper carrier; or (4) actor or performer. Children under ten may work at farm labor only if living with their parents. No child under fourteen may work during the hours when the schools of the child's school corporation are in session.

No child less than seventeen shall be employed in any occupation designated as hazardous by statute or by the state labor commissioner, unless the employer has applied for and received an exemption from the state labor commissioner. This restriction does not apply to the use of properly guarded machinery in the training department of any school when an instructor provides personal supervision. Employers are strictly liable in tort for injuries resulting from such employment and no defenses such as contributory negligence, negligence of third party or assumption of risk will lie. The division of labor is charged with enforcement of these provisions including the visiting and inspection of places where children are employed. Any employer who violates these provisions is further criminally liable, guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to fine and/or imprisonment.

I. Student Employment

Statutes

§339.210 -- 990

"No minor under fourteen years of age shall be employed . . . about or in connection with any gainful occupation at any time, except for employment in connection with an employment program supervised and sponsored by the school or school district such child attends, which program has been approved by the department of education . . .

A minor who has passed [her] his fourteenth birthday but is under eighteen . . . may be employed . . . about or in connection with any gainful occupation, except:

1) If [she] he is under sixteen . . . he[she] may not be employed during regular school hours, unless:

(a) He[she] has been granted a special employment certificate . . .

(b) The school authorities have made arrangements for him[her] to attend school at other than regular hours . . .

(c) He[she] has graduated from high school."

2) A Minor between the ages of fourteen and eighteen may not be employed:

(a) "In any place of employment or at any occupation . . . determine[d] to be hazardous or injurious to the life, health, safety or welfare of such minor.

(b) More than the number of days per week, nor more than the number of hours per day that the commissioner of labor shall determine to be injurious to the life, health, safety, or welfare of such minor," but in no event to be less restrictive than the standards set by the U.S. secretary of labor.

(c) "During the hours of day . . . determine[d] to be injurious to the life, health, safety or welfare of such minor.

(d) In, about or in connection with any establishment where alcoholic liquors are" produced or sold for consumption [unless such sale is merely incidental to the main business actually conducted], or in a pool or billiard room."

3) Rules and regulations shall be promulagated for carrying into effect these provisions.

EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATE

"Before any minor under eighteen years of age shall be employed she/ he shall be required to obtain an employment certificate issued by the local board of education." Such certificate shall be of four kinds: general, vocation, school-supervised and special. "A general employment certificate shall permit the employment of a minor between sixteen and eighteen, or a minor who has completed high school, during the entire year. A vocation . . . certificate shall permit the employment of a minor between fourteen and sixteen during school vacations or outstide the hours the minor is required to be in attendance at school. A school-supervised . . . certificate shall permit the employment of a minor as provided . . .[by statute]. A special . . . certificate shall permit the employment during the entire year of a minor fourteen or fifteen years of age who has been excused from compulsory school attendance under the provisions of . . .[these statutes]. A special . . . certificate shall be issued to a minor who has been so excused from compulsory attendance upon compliance with the same requirements as in the case of a general employment certificate, except that a schooling record shall not be required."

MENTAL RETARDATION

Any minor exempted from school because of a condition of mental retardation shall be issued an employment certificate when an examiner "is satisfied that the work available and the supervision under which it will be performed are such that the job is suitable and safe for said minor to undertake.

A person designated to issue employment certificates may refuse to grant such a certificate if in his[her] judgment the best interests of the minor would be served by such refusal."

REVOCATION

Any certificate issued may be revoked if it is determined that "it was improperly issued or if the minor is illegally employed."

Any minor seeking an employment certificate shall submit an application which shall include: a promise of employment by the prospective employer setting forth the nature and conditions of employment; evidence of the minor's age; a statement of his/her physical fitness and a school record signed by the principal stating his/her grade and scholastic standing.

149 §89

The requirements of the employment permit necessary to exempt a student from the requirements of compulsory education are set forth here. The requirements are basically administrative, and are seeking to ensure that the child complies with the age and schooling requirements of Ch. 76. The permit is required for children between the ages of fourteen and sixteen who have attained at least the level of sixth grade.

149 §95; 98

No minor between the ages of sixteen and eighteen "shall be employed in a factory, workshop, manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishment, or bowling alley, pool or billiard room, bootblack stand . . . barbership, or in the construction or repair of buildings, or by an express or transportation company . . . unless his/her employer . . . keeps on file an educational certificate showing the age of the minor and whether or not he/she meets the requirements for completion of the sixth grade. . ."

A parent who permits a minor to be employed in violation of this section shall be punished by a fine.

Children lawfully engaged in any regular employment shall attend part-time schools established by the school board for at least four hours a week between the hours of 8 and 5 during the day. Children under eighteen who haven't completed the elementary school course, are required to attend part-time classes regularly.

§294.011 -- .110; 564.670 -- .700

Minors under 14 are not permitted to be employed at any time. Minors between 14 and 16 may be permitted to work, during the regular school term upon issuance of a work permit. A minor under 16 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any day or more than six days or forty hours in any week nor before 7:00 a.m. or after 10:00 p.m. and during the school term, no child under 16 shall be employed after 7:00 p.m. when school is in session, except those permanently excused from school. There are certain occupations in which minors shall not be employed or permitted to work. Work permits shall be issued under direction of the county superintendent in which the child resides. "The employer shall post in a conspicuous place in his [her] place of business a list of all children upon the age of sixteen employed. There shall be no fee for the work permits. The work permit shall be cancelled if it has been improperly granted or illegally used, and upon a violation such person is deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Children may not be employed in occupations hazardous to safety or morals. "No child under 14 . . . shall be employed . . . during the hours during which the schools in the district in which the child resides are in session. No child under . . . 14 years shall be employed when the school of the district in which the child resides is not in session unless such child obtains a permit certificate." Children over 14 but under 16 must also obtain permit certificates. Children under 14 may work no more than 44 hours a week or 8 hours a day, or, with special permission, no more than 48 hours a week. Nor can their work day begin before 7 am or extend past 9 pm. Children under 16 may not work with dangerous machinery except in a school under an instructor's supervision.

§59-6-16

Children over 12 engaged in selling or delivering newspapers are exempt from the requirements of §§59-6-1; 59-6-5.

§77-10-6

Students fourteen years of age or older "may be excused from full-time school attendance" if they obtain from the superintendent a certificate of employment. I. Student Employment

Statutes

§3215 -- 3216

It is unlawful to employ a minor during school hours, with the exception of certain provisions enumerated herein. Minors may obtain employment certificates for non-factory, general or full-time employment, by meeting certain specified conditions.

§3217 -- 3220

A minor who applies for an employment certificate must give the following information: evidence of his/her age, written consent of parent or guardian, a certificate of physical fitness, and if applying for a full-time employment certificate, must submit a schooling record.

Evidence of age may be demonstrated by a birth certificate, passport, or other document. A person over eighteen may apply for a certificate of age to the superintendent of schools, the district superintendent, or certificating officer. If the applicant can demonstrate that he/she is over eighteen, an employment certificate will be issued.

If the application is for full time employment, the parent or guardian must personally appear to indicate consent.

A certificate of physical fitness must be issued by a licensed physician. If it is determined that the applicant is not physically fit, the doctor may issue a limited certificate indicating the employment the minor may take.

§3225

A "special employment certificate" may be issued to a minor fifteen years old who is found to be "incapable of profiting by further instruction."

This shall be determined by the regulations of the commissioner of education and §3208 of the Code which requires that a student must be in "proper physical and mental condition" before he/she will be forced to attend school.

§ 3226

A "farm work permit" may be issued to a minor fourteen or fifteen years old or one who is over twelve and employed in harvesting berries, fruits and vegetables. The minor must present evidence of age, written consent of parent or guardian, and a certificate of physical fitness. A permit is not required for the employment of a minor sixteen or over in farm service.

Statutes

§3321.08 -- .10

Every student granted an age and schooling certificate shall, until the age limit no longer applies, attend a part-time school for not more than 8 hours per week while such school is in session, provided such classes are made available by the district. Children who are employed under vacation or part-time certificates are excused from such classes as are students excused by the superintendent under sections of this code.

"A part-time school or class is one which shall offer to those minors who have entered industry, instruction supplemental to their daily occupations or which will increase their civic and vocational competence or both and which are taught between the hours of seven in the morning and six in the afternoon of any day except a legal holiday, Saturday, or Sunday, or between the hours seven in the morning and twelve noon of Saturday."

The attendance requirement of part-time school by the board of education may be fulfilled by attending classes provided by an employer, partnership, corporation, private or parochial school, college or other philanthropic or similar agency provided the terms and hours are equivalent to those classes of the board of education.

When such classes are conducted in connection with employment, "the obligation of attendance ... shall apply to the children holding age and schooling certificates who are employed in the given establishment regardless of the accessibility of public part-time schools or classes."

All parents or guardians shall be responsible for their child's attendance in part-time classes under age and schooling certificates provided such classes are in session, are accessible to the child in district of residence or employment, unless the superintendent determines "that the child has already completed the same work as or work equivalent to that taken up in such part-time ... classes as are available ... or that the bodily or mental condition of the child does not permit his(her) attendance...."

Where a student lives in one district and works in another, the district of employment shall have jurisdiction for purpose of part-time classes, unless otherwise agreed to.

§3331.01; .02; .03; .05; .14

The superintendent of schools may issue an age and schooling certificate upon satisfactory proof that the child to whom the certificate is issued is over sixteen years of age and "has satisfactorily completed a vocational education or special education program adequate to prepare students for an occupation." Residents of other states working in Ohio, as a condition of employment, must qualify with the school authorities in which they are employed.

Such certificate may be issued only upon proof that the intended employment "is not prohibited by any law regulating the employment of ... children." An employer shall keep the age and schooling certificate on file, and all certificates shall be signed by the child to whom it was issued in the presence of the issuing officer.

Exceptions pursuant to the revised code are noted.

The superintendent of schools shall not issue an age and schooling certificate without the following papers:

A) A pledge or promise of employment;

B) The signed school record of the child, including age, address, class standing, conduct and attendance;

C) Evidence of age such as:

1) Birth certificate;

2) Passport or baptism or religious record;

3) Affidavit of parent or guardian;

4) Physician's certificate, provided no other proof is available.

D) Certificate from school or health commission physician showing, after a physical examination, that the child is physically fit for such occupations which are not prohibited by sex under eighteen years of age. A "limited" certificate may be issued to a child who may be fit for a particular occupation, but whose complete physical ability cannot be vouched for.

An age and schooling certificate may be issued to a child over fourteen years of age who has been determined as "incapable of profiting substantially from further instruction." Such certificate shall be labelled "nonstandard" and may have attached to it such stipulations as deemed necessary for the good of the child or the community. No such child so determined shall be employed for more than four hours per day. "A child determined to be incapable of profiting substantially by further instruction to whom no age and schooling certificate has been issued and is outstanding shall be furnished a card or other evidence of such determination."

A part-time and vacation age and schooling certificate may be issued to a child over fourteen years of age, under the same conditions as a regular age and schooling certificate, provided such occupations are not absolutely forbidden by other sections of this code. It is valid when school is not in session or "where co-operative part-time classes approved by the state board of education have been established, on the alternative days, weeks or periods, on which his division is assigned to such part-time employment...."

The parent or guardian shall be required to secure and keep on file a proper age and schooling certificate if his(her) child is employed by such parent or guardian, except when the child is employed when school is not in session.

§3301-51-13

A student over 14 years of age may be excused from attendance at school to perform essential work for her or his parents for a period not to exceed five days. The excuse may be renewed twice if necessary. "No child shall be excused. . .when such absence. . .would materially endanger [her or] his educational welfare and scholastic advancement. . . . No child may be excused. . .who has not been regular attendance." Actual need due to an emergency condition or actual need on a farm at a time of the year when exceptional amounts of work must be done, must be established as well as the inability of the parent or guardian to employ help.

A boy may be excused for a period longer than 15 days if the father is incapacitated and no older brother or sister is at home. A girl may be excused for more than 15 days if the mother is incapacitated and no older brother or sister is at home.

The authority of a superintendent to excuse students from attendance may be removed by the state board of education if exercised without proper discretion. Superintendents may also excuse students from attendance for "good and sufficient cause."

Policy Guides

DISCIPLINE RESOURCE GUIDE

Arizona Department of Education 41 pages 1977

The guide describes alternative methods for disciplining students in public school and recommends that the best discipline is preventive and should be developed by emphasizing teacher training, encouraging individual responsibility and mutual respect on the part of student and teacher. In-service training sessions should be held to train teachers in classroom management intervention techniques and behavior modification. Parental involvement should be utilized in formulating discipline policies. The decision whether to authorize corporal punishment remains with the local school board. If the board decides to authorize it, it is highly desirable that formal guidelines be adopted concerning its use. Corporal punishment should be used only as a last resort and all circumstances are to be taken into account in determining whether corporal punishment is reasonable. The only form of corporal punishment which is authorized is paddling the buttocks of the student. An adult employee must witness and monitor any instance of corporal punishment.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

The guide also describes the due process requirements necessary when students are expelled or suspended and recommends procedures for students who are suspended. It recommends that these regulations be published and distributed to each student and/or the parents. The procedures include a hearing and notice.

DUE PROCESS

The guide further delineates the guidelines with regard to searches, seizures and warrants. It recommends that students be given rights similar to the property rights given adults and that law enforcement agencies, students and the community be involved in the drafting of guides by each school district. It further recommends that the student and a witness be present when property is searched.

Finally, the guide recommends methods of recordkeeping on disciplined students. Records should include personal characteristics of the student, the action taken and the due process requirements afforded the student.

The county board of education may establish regulations requiring the reporting of information related to crime and violence in programs in which any school is engaged.

VIOLENCE

§32050 -- 32052

"No student, or other person in attendance at any. . . educational institution, shall conspire to engage in hazing, participate in hazing, or commit any act that injures, degrades, or disgraces, or tends to injure, degrade, or disgrace any fellow student or person attending the instituion."

HAZING

§44810 -- 44812

Every minor who is not a pupil of the school, as well as any parent, guardian or other person, who interferes with discipline or insults or abuses any teacher is guilty of a misdemeanor.

TEACHER ABUSE

§48900

A teacher may suspend, for good cause, any pupil from his/her class for the day of the suspension and the day following. The teacher shall immediately report the suspension to the principal and send the pupil to the principal for appropriate action. As soon as possible, the teacher shall ask the pupil's parent or guardian to attend a parent-teacher conference, to be attended also by a school administrator if requested by the teacher or the parent or guardian. The pupil shall not be returned to the class from which he/she was suspended, during the period of suspension, without the concurrence of the teacher and the principal.

SUSPENSION

§48901

SUSPENSION

A principal may suspend, for good cause, any pupil from the school. The principal shall report the suspension to the district governing board or to the district superintendent.

Any such suspension shall not exceed five school days.

§48902; 48903; 48903.5; 48907

EXPULSION

"Good cause" for suspension or expulsion shall include but not be limited to: continued willful disobedience; habitual profanity or vulgarity; persistent defiance of authority; assault or battery upon a student on school premises or while under the authority of school personnel; or continued abuse of, assault or battery upon, or any threat of force or violence toward school personnel at any time or place. However, no pupil shall be suspended or expelled unless the conduct for which the pupil is to be disciplined is related to school activity.

Smoking or having tobacco on school premises or while under the authority of school personnel constitutes good cause for suspension or expulsion except that the school governing board may permit smoking and the possession of tobacco on the campus of a high school or while under the authority of school personnel, provided that smoking is not permitted in any classroom or other enclosed facility which any student is required to occupy or which is customarily occupied by nonsmoking students. (A school governing board shall take steps to discourage high school students from smoking.)

A governing board shall suspend or expel pupils for misconduct when other means of correction fail to bring about proper conduct.

§ 48904

ARREST

Every sheriff or chief of police who arrests a minor of compulsory school attendance age or any pupil enrolled in a public school through grade 12 for any such activity, when a petition is requested in juvenile court or a complaint alleging such activity, shall without delay give written notice to the school superintendent of the district of attendance.

NOTICE

If the sheriff or chief of police arrests a minor for such activity but later releases the minor without filing a petition or complaint, the sheriff or chief of police may give written notice to the school superintendent if the sheriff or chief of police believes the school district will benefit thereby

§48905

SECRET ORGANIZATION

No pupil enrolled in a public school shall become a member of any secret fraternity, sorority, or club; however, no pupil shall be prevented from joining the order of the Native Sons of the Golden West, Native Daughters of the Golden West, Foresters of America, or other such organizations not directly associated with the public schools.

§48907.5

EXPULSION

SUSPENSION

A governing board that has voted to expel a pupil may suspend the enforcement of such expulsion for one semester in addition to the balance of the semester in which the board votes to expel and may, as a condition of such suspended action, assign the pupil to a school, class, or program for the pupil's rehabilitation. In lieu of other authorized educational programs, the pupil may be assigned to a community-centered classroom including experiences for the pupil as an observer or aide in governmental functions, as an on-the-job trainee, and as a participant in specialized tutorial experiences. Such programs shall include an individualized learning program to enable the pupil to continue academic work for credit toward graduation.

REINSTATEMENT

At the conclusion of the designated period, the governing board shall either reinstate the pupil who has satisfactorily participated in the alternate program and permit the pupil to return to the school of former attendance or enforce the expulsion action previously voted by the board. If the pupil is reinstated, the board may also take action to expunge the record of the expulsion action.

§48909

SUSPENSION

EXPULSION

LIABILITY

Any minor whose willfull misconduct results in injury or death to any student, employee, or volunteer in a school district or who willfully damages school district property is liable to suspension or expulsion. The parent or guardian of an unemancipated minor shall be liable for all damages so caused by the minor: such liability shall not exceed $2,000.

§48910--48911

SUSPENSION

No elementary pupil shall be suspended for more than two consecutive weeks.

No secondary pupil shall be suspended for more than the duration of the current semester or, in schools not operating on the basis of semesters, for half of the terms. Any summer school session shall be deemed a single semester for these purposes.

By the third consecutive schoolday of any suspension period, the pupil's parent or guardian shall be asked to attend a meeting with school officials. If the parent or guardian fails to appear, the school officials shall send a letter to the parent or guardian giving data pertinent to the suspension action.

Notwithstanding the above, no student shall be suspended for more than 20 school days in a school year except the student shall first be transferred to another regular program for rehabilitative purposes (adjustment, opportunity, or continuation schools and programs). In case of transfer to another regular school for rehabilitative purposes, additional days of suspension are limited to 10.

Where an action is pending in juvenile court or where expulsion is being processed by a governing board, a superintendent or designee may extend a suspension as necessary.

§48912--48913

A school principal or designee shall notify in writing the parent or guardian of a pupil whenever a pupil is suspended and when a minor pupil is released to a peace officer for the purpose of removing the minor from school premises.

REMOVAL

§48914--48915; 48917--48920

EXPULSION

The school governing board shall establish rules governing procedures for the expulsion of pupils including, but not limited to the following:

HEARING

The pupil and parent or guardian shall be entitled to a hearing to determine whether the pupil should be expelled.

NOTICE

Written notice of the hearing shall be forwarded to them at least 10 days prior to the hearing, including the date and place of hearing, a statement of the charges, a copy of district discipline rules, and the opportunity of the student and parent or guardian to appear in person or be represented by counsel and to present evidence.

The hearing shall be closed to the public unless the student or the parent or guardian shall request, in writing at least five days prior to the hearing, that the hearing be a public meeting.

In lieu of conducting the hearing itself, the school governing board may contract with the county hearing officer or with the State Office of Administrative Hearings for a hearing officer to conduct such hearing or the governing board may appoint an impartial administrative panel of three or more certificated employees from the district or from outside it, none of whom shall be on the staff of the school in which the pupil is enrolled.

Following the hearing, the hearing officer or administrative panel shall present findings of fact and recommendations to the board. The board shall accept them if they call for rejection of expulsion, but may reject them if they call for expulsion.

A record of the hearing shall be made by any means so long as an accurate written transcription can be made.

Technical rules of evidence shall not apply, but evidence may be admitted and considered. The decision of the governing board must be supported by substantial evidence.

Whether the hearing is open or closed, the final action shall be taken by the governing board at a public meeting. Written notice shall be sent to the pupil or parent or guardian accompanied by notice of the right to appeal.

APPEAL

If a pupil is expelled, the pupil or the parent or guardian may appeal, within 30 days of the decision, to the county board of education.

RULEMAKING

The county board shall establish rules governing procedures for expulsion appeals including but not limited to notice of filing appeals, setting the hearing date, certification to the county board of the record of proceedings at the district level, hearing procedures, and preservation of a record of the hearing.

The county board shall hear an appeal in executive session unless the pupil or parent or guardian shall, in writing at least 5 days prior to the hearing, request that the hearing be a public meeting.

The county board shall determine the appeal upon the record of the hearing before the district governing board, together with documentation as may be ordered. No evidence other than that contained in the record of the school board proceedings may be heard unless a de novo proceeding is granted.

The appellant shall be responsible for submitting a written transcription for the county board's review and shall bear the cost except if the appellant certifies inability to afford the cost of the transcript or if the county board reverses the decision of the local governing board (in which case the governing board shall reimburse the appellant.).

IVJ-CA 7
CALIFORNIA

The county board's review of the governing board shall be limited to the following questions: whether the governing board has proceeded in excess of its jurisdiction; whether the hearing was fair; whether there was a prejudicial abuse of discretion in the hearing; and whether there is relevant evidence which could not have been produced or was improperly excluded at the hearing.

Where the county board finds that relevant evidence exists which was not produced at the hearing or that there was otherwise a denial of due process, it may remand the matter to the governing board for reconsideration and reinstate the pupil pending reconsideration or grant a hearing de novo.

In other cases, the county board shall either affirm or reverse the governing board's decision. If the county board reverses an expulsion action of a local board, the county board may direct the local board to expunge the records of the pupil and of the district of any references to the expulsion action.

The decision of the county board, rendered in writing to the pupil and the parent or guardian and to the governing board, shall be final and binding on all concerned. §48916

FREE EXPRESSION

Public school students have the right to exercise free expression including, but not limited to, the use of bulletin boards, the distribution of printed materials or petitions, and the wearing of buttons, badges, and other insignia, except that expression which is obscene, libelous, or slanderous according to current legal standards or which so incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of unlawful acts on school premises or the violation of lawful school regulations or the substantial disruption of the school's operation, shall be prohibited.

RULEMAKING

Each governing board and each county superintendent shall adopt rules relating to the exercise of free expression by students.

§48921

All pupils shall comply with the regulations, pursue the required course of study, and submit to the authority of the teachers of the school.

§48937 -- 48938

STUDENT BODY FUNDS

TRUSTEE

The school governing board shall provide for the supervision of all funds raised by any student organization using the name of the school, including continuing audit with district personnel. The costs of such supervision shall be a proper charge against district funds.

In adult schools, regional occupation centers, or elementary schools lacking an organized student body, the governing board may appoint an employee to act as trustee for student body funds. Such funds shall be expended subject to the approval of the employee and subject to such procedure as may be established by the board.

§49000 -- 49001

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Corporal punishment shall not be administered to a pupil withour prior written approval of the pupil's parent or guardian. Written approval shall be valid for the year in which it is submitted but may be withdrawn at any time.

Given this limitation, a school governing board may adopt rules authorizing reasonable corporal punishment when such action is deemed an appropriate corrective measure. If such rules are adopted at the beginning of the first semester or quarter, the board shall notify the parent or guardian that corporal punishment shall not be administered without prior approval of the parent or guardian.

§51512

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

CONSENT

The use by any person, including a pupil, of any electronic listening or recording device in any classroom without prior consent of the teacher and principal disrupts the teaching process and discipline, and such use is prohibited.

Any person other than a pupil who willfully violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any pupil violating this section shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

§51520

SOLICITATION

During school hours and within one hour before the opening and after the closing of school, public school pupils shall not be solicited by teachers or others to contribute to the funds of or become members of or work for any organization not directly under the control of school authorities, unless the organization is a non-partisan, charitable organization, organized for charitable purposes by Congress or, under the laws of the state, the solicitation is nonpartisan and charitable, and the solicitation has been approved by the county board or by the local governing board.

This shall not prohibit the solicitation of pupils on school premises by pupils of that school for any otherwise lawful purpose.

REGULATIONS

§300-307

All pupils shall: attend school "punctually and regularly;" conform to the school regulations, be diligent in study; respectful to teachers and courteous to schoolmates, be neat and clean; take proper care of school property.

§350-353

Students shall not be charged fees not specifically authorized by law; shall not be required to perform work detrimental to the child's health; shall not be detained more than one half hour after school for disciplinary purposes.

A teacher or school nurse shall not be required to disclose information acquired through a professional communication with a student concerning alcohol or drug problems.

§10-233(b)-e

A town or regional board of education may authorize teachers . . . to remove a pupil from class when the pupil deliberately causes a serious disruption. A pupil may not be removed more than six times in a year nor more than twice in one week unless the pupil is referred to the principal and granted an informal hearing.

REMOVAL

The principal shall immediately be informed when any pupil is removed from class.

A town or regional board of education may authorize school administrators to suspend a pupil whose conduct endangers persons or property or is seriously disruptive. A pupil may not be suspended without an informal hearing where the student is informed of the reasons for the suspension and given an opportunity to explain the situation. A more formal hearing may be held if the circumstances require.

SUSPENSION

HEARING

A formal hearing is required for any student suspended more than ten times in one school year.

The principal must report the names of all suspended pupils to the superintendent of schools.

A pupil who is suspended shall have an opportunity to complete classwork or examinations missed during the suspension period.

A town or regional board of education may expel any pupil whose conduct endangers persons or property or is seriously disruptive of the educational process. Except in an emergency situation, a suspended pupil must be given a formal hearing.

Any board that expels a pupil shall notify the state board within five days.

EXPULSION

Any expelled pupil shall be offered an alternative educational opportunity during period of expulsion. The alternative program may include placing the child in another school.

Boards of education shall make certain that all pupils are informed of the board policies governing student conduct. Boards of education shall provide effective notice for parents of any pupil suspended or expelled. The notice shall be given within twenty-four hours of the time the pupil has been expelled.

J. STUDENT RIGHTS AND DISCIPLINE

STATUTES

§701

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Every teacher and administrator shall have the right, during school activities, to discipline a child, such discipline including corporal punishment when necessary.

REGULATIONS

Ch. IV. §420

"The protection and safeguards of the Constitution of the United States and especially the Bill of Rights apply to all students. Responsibility is inherent in all rights, especially the basic duty to respect and secure the rights of others. No student or other person involved in the Public Schools can realize his or her rights unless each student also exercises the self-discipline and care to afford the same rights to all others and does not engage in actions which infringe upon the rights of others.

In a social situation such as the public school, all partipants, including students, parents, teachers, administrators, and others in the educational process, have the right to know the basic standards of conduct and behavior which are expected of themselves and others. Each student should know what is expected of him or her and what can be expected of others. Thus, the school environment is a community of individuals who live and interact based upon commonly shared rules, rights, responsibilities, expectations, and common sense."

CH. IV, §421

"Students have the right to a meaningful public education, the maintenance of high educational standards, and a system of public education which adequately and equitably seeks to meet the needs of the individual student.

Students have the right to access to a meaningful curriculum and the right to voice their opinions and provide input into the development of the public school curriculum.

Students have the right to express their views in matters that affect the quality and content of their education, including but not limited to the right to participate individually or through elected representatives in the development of the rules and regulations to which they are subject.

Students have the right to adequate and timely notice of all rules, regulations, policies, and sanctions to which they are subject. All such rules and regulations shall be available in writing and be accessible to all students. A copy of the Rules of the Board of Education shall be maintained in the library or other appropriate place in each public school in the District of Columbia.

Students have the right to physical safety and the protection of their personal property, including the right to safe and sanitary school buildings and facilities.

Students have the right to adequate consultation with teachers, counselors, administrators, and other school personnel.

Students have the right to free election of their peers in student organizations, and all students have the right to seek and hold office.

Students, their parents, or their authorized representatives have the right to inspect and review the official records of the school system which relate directly to them individually, as provided in section 440 of this Chapter. Students or student's parent or guardian shall be notified if adverse comments are placed in such records.

Students have the right to participate in school activities without being subject to unlawful discrimination on any basis. Where access to participation in programs or activities is on a competitve basis, each student has the right to an opportunity to compete on an equal basis.

Students have the right to refuse to participate in school activities which are contrary to their moral or religious, or political beliefs.

Students have the right to exercise their constitutional rights of free speech, assembly, and expression without prior restraint, so long as the exercise of these rights does not substantially interfere with the rights of others. These rights shall include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

(a) Wearing political buttons, armbands, or other badges of symbolic expression; (B) Organizing and participating in political and social organizations; (c) Use of student bulletin boards without prior censorship, but not school bulletin boards without approval of such use which shall be reasonably provided by the schools; (d) Personal determination of appearance, including styles of hair and dress; (e) Preparation and distribution of posters, newspapers, or other printed matter, on or off school grounds, and the reasonable use of the school public address system subject to standards adopted by the student government organization in cooperation with school officials; provided, that such distribution or use shall be limited to reasonable times before, during, and after school hours so as to prevent undue interference with classroom activities and the rights of others; (f) Free expression and defense of views and opinions without having such expression affect the student's examinations, grades, academic achievement or participation in extra-curricular activities.

Students shall have the right to respect from teachers, other students, administrators, and other school personnel, and shall not be subject to ridicule, harassment, or any punishment which is demeaning or derogatory. No student shall be subject to corporal punishment.

Students have the right to be secure in their persons, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures. The person and belongings of a student, including the student's locker, automobile, or other belongings shall not be subject to arbitrary or random searches and seizures. No search may be made without prior written approval of the principal, based upon probable cause, and stating the basis for such approval.

Students shall have the right to use reasonable physical means to defend themselves from assault or physcial abuse and shall not be subject to suspension for using limited, reasonable physical means to restrain another person from physically assaulting or harming a third person.

Students have the right to present petitions, complaints, or grievances to school authorities and the right to receive prompt, authoritative replies from school officials regarding the disposition of their petitions, complaints, or grievances.

Where a student is entitled to a hearing pursuant to these Rules, such hearing shall be impartial, and the student shall be afforded all other rights set forth in the hearing procedures."

CH. IV, §422

"Each student shall be responsible for providing a positive and healthy environment for others by maintaining order, self-discipline, and having consideration for the rights and property of others. Each student shall bear the responsibility for his or her own conduct.

Each student shall be responsible for neatness and cleanliness of personal attire and hygiene.

A student shall respect other students, teachers, administrators, and other school personnel and visitors as human beings and fellow citizens of the school community.

A student shall respect the personal property of others and refrain from causing intentional damage or unnecessary wear and tear to books, facilities, school materials, school buildings and furnishings, and the personal property of others.

A student shall refrain from fighting, creating disturbances, denying others the use of school facilities or buildings, using or carrying any weapon on school grounds, intentionally injuring another person or acting in such a manner as to expose others to risk or danger of harm or injury. A student shall not use threats or intimidation against any other person.

A student shall respect the health and safety of others and shall refrain from using tobacco; or using, possessing, transmitting, or being under the influence of any alcoholic beverage, narcotic substance, illegal or prohibited drug or substance; or by engaging in gambling, extortion, theft, assault, excessive noise, or any other unlawful activity.

A student shall respect the educational process and learning environment of others by refraining from intentional or habitual tardiness, unexcused absences, or other activities which diminish the rights of others and the opportunity for other students to receive an education and obtain the maximum benefit from a public education."

CH. IV, §423

COPRORAL PUNISHMENT

"Corporal punishment is defined as the intentional use of physical force upon a student as punishment for any alleged offense or behavior, or the use of physical force in an attempt to modify the behavior, thoughts, or attitudes of a student.

The use of corporal punishment in any form is strictly prohibited in the public schools. No student shall be subject to the infliction of corporal punishment by any teacher, other student, administrator, or other school personnel.

No teacher, administrator, student, or other person shall subject a student to corporal punishment or condone the use of corporal punishment by any person under his or her supervision or control. Permission to administer corporal punishment shall not be sought or accepted from any parent, guardian, or school official."

CH. IV, §424

GRIEVANCES

"The grievance procedure set forth in this section shall apply to any instance where a specific grievance or hearing process is not provided in this Chapter.

The following persons or groups of persons shall be entitled to exercise the grievance procedure set forth in this section: (a) Students; (b) Student's parent(s) or guardian; (c) Groups of students; (d) Groups of students' parents, guardians, or their representatives.

The grievance procedure set forth in this section may be used to address or seek redress in any of the following instances: (a) Where it is alleged that any student or group of students is being denied access to an adequate educational opportunity; (b) Where it is alleged that any student is being denied participation in any school activity for which the student is eligible; (c) Where it is alleged that the rights of students or any individual student, are being denied or abridged; (d) Where it is alleged that any student or group of students is being subjected to an arbitrary or unreasonable regulation, procedure, or standard of conduct.

The following procedure shall apply to all grievances brought under this section: (a) The person or persons bringing the grievance shall make an informal complaint to the principal or other school official in charge of the program or activity.

(b) The person to whom the grievance is brought shall attempt to resolve the problem through informal means, such as meetings, conferences, and discussion. (c) If the grievance is not resolved through the informal process, a written complaint shall be filed with the principal or other responsible school official who has conducted the informal process. The principal or other school official shall attempt to resolve the written grievance through conferences with students, parents, teachers, other school officials, and other involved parties. The appropriate Regional office shall be informed of the written grievance and may be consulted by the principal or other school official in an attempt to resolve the grievance.

(d) The decision of the principal or other school official as a result of the attempt to resolve a written grievance shall be in writing and communicated to the involved parties and the appropriate Regional office. (e) If the written grievance does not result in a mutually satisfactory resolution of the problem within ten (10) days, a written grievance may be filed with the appropriate Regional office. The Regional Superintendent or his[her] designee shall attempt to resolve the grievance by investigating the problem, holding conferences with involved parties, or conducting an informal meeting.

(f) The Regional Superintendent or his[her] designee, or the party bring the grievance, may request a formal hearing before a disinterested Hearing Officer. Such Hearing Officer may be designated by the Superintendent of Schools or Public Schools Hearing Office from among persons employed by the school system on a full-time or part-time basis to serve in such capacity. (g) In all cases where a Hearing Officer is involved, such Hearing Officer shall provide the Regional Superintendent or his[her]designee with written findings and recommendations. Upon receipt of the Hearing Officer's report, the Regional Superintendent or his[her] designee shall make a further attempt to resolve the grievance and shall issue a final decision in writing. Such written decision shall list the findings and recommendations of the Hearing Officer, even if rejected or modified in the final decision. Copies of the final decision shall be given to all parties.

The final decision of the Regional Superintendent shall be the final administrative decision of the school system. A copy of the Regional Superintendent's final decision shall be sent to the Superintendent of Schools.

The grievance procedure set forth in this section shall not preclude or prevent any Regional Superintendent, principal, or other school official from establishing, in cooperation with students, parents, teachers, other administrators, and other concerned citizens, an intermediate process for the resolution of problems and complaints within the school or program prior to the submission of the grievance to the Regional Superintendent. Such process should be in writing and available to such persons and groups."

CH. IV, §425

HEARING

"In all instances where a hearing is required or allowed by the provisions of this Chapter, such hearing shall be conducted by an impartial Hearing Officer who is assigned to conduct the hearing by the Superintendent of Schools or his[her] designee.

All Hearing Officers shall be employed by the Public Schools on a full-time or part-time basis to serve in such capacity and shall have qualifications and training appropriate to the subject matter of the hearing(s) to which they are assigned.

The Superintendent of Schools shall establish a Public Schools hearing office which shall not be a part of or under the supervision or control of any Public Schools office or division which must implement the decisions of Hearing Officers or participate in hearings on behalf of the Public Schools. The Superintendent of Schools shall be responsible for ensuring the independence and impartiality of the hearing office and the impartiality of the Hearing Officer assigned to any particular hearing.

The Public Schools hearing office shall be responsible for the following: (a) The coordination and scheduling of all hearings held pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter; (b) The hiring of all Hearing Officers; (c) Training of all Hearing Officers in the conduct of hearings and the provisions of the Rules of the Board of Education, applicable court orders, and other applicable laws and statutes; (d) Ensuring that the decisions of all Hearing Officers comply with the rules and procedures set forth in this Chapter and all other applicable laws and court orders; (e) Compiling and maintaining statistical information on the implementation of hearings and procedures for due process pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter.

The Public Schools hearing office shall have no authority to direct, rescind, overrule, modify, or alter the substantive decision of any Hearing Officer rendered in accordance with the provisions of law and the Rules of the Board of Education. However, the decision of a Hearing Officer which does not comply with the rules and procedures set forth in this Chapter, or any applicable statute, regulation, or order of court, may be remanded to the Hearing Officer for correction of the defect. If the defect is not corrected by the Hearing Officer, it may be corrected by the Superintendent of Schools or his[her] designee. In the event that a Hearing Officer's report is corrected or modified for any reason by someone other than the Hearing Officer, the correction or modification shall be noted in the final determination and any party may request a re-hearing on the matter before another Hearing Officer."

CH. IV, §430

SUSPENSION

"A student may be suspended from the D.C. Public Schools on the grounds of the commission of a serious offense; however, all suspensions must be effected pursuant to the rules and procedures set forth in sections 430 through 43 of this Chapter.

Suspensions of the following types shall be allowed: (a) MINOR SUSPENSION: The denial to a student of the right to attend school, including all classes and school activities, for a period of two . . . days or less. (b) MAJOR SUSPENSION: The denial to a student of the right to attend school, including all classes and school activities, for a period of not less than three...school days nor more than ten...school days.

A student may be excluded from a particular class, a particular school activity, or all school activities (other than classes) for the commission of a serious offense; however, all exclusions must be effected pursuant to the rules and procedures set forth in sections 430 and 43 of this Chapter.

Exclusions of the following types shall be allowed:

(a) CLASS EXCLUSION: The denial to a student of the right to attend a particular class for a period of two...school days or less.

EXCLUSION

Suspensions and exclusions shall be made only on the ground of the commission of a serious offense as set forth in section 431 of this Chapter.

In each instance where a student is suspended or excluded from class, the school official making the suspension shall be responsible for assuring that the student is provided with all classwork assignments during the period of suspension or exclusion.

No suspended minor student shall be allowed to leave the school grounds during school hours until the student's parent or guardian, or other responsible adult, has been contacted and given an opportunity to arrange for proper supervision of the student during the suspension period.

The principal or other school official responsible for the school or program may establish a special class or other supervised program for students who are suspended or excluded from class.

A student who has been given a proposed major suspension may be suspended immediately for not more than two...days in accordance with the rules and procedures set forth in section 432. If the principal or other school official responsible for making the proposed major suspension determines that the student presents a substantial danger to other persons or property, the student shall continue on suspension until the conclusion of the hearing, if requested, or the end of the proposed suspension period, whichever is shorter.

Where the right to a hearing is provided in this section, such hearing must be requested by the adult student, the minor student's parent or guardian, or their representative within two... days of the receipt of notice of the proposed suspension. If no hearing is requested, the principal or other school official making the suspension may impose or continue the suspension.

In no event shall any major suspension, including the immediate two-day suspension and emergency suspension....extend for a period in excess of ten...school days, regardless whether a hearing is requested, held, or postponed and eventually held."

CH. IV, §431

"The serious offenses set forth in this section are prohibited acts and may be grounds for the suspension or exclusion of a student.

The intentional use of violence, force, coercion, threat, intimidation, or other comparable conduct which causes or attempts to cause substantial disruption or obstruction of any lawful mission, process, or function of the Public Schools is prohibited.

Acts which cause or attempt to cause substantial damage to school property or property belonging to another person are prohibited.

Any unauthorized taking of school property or property which belongs to another person, with or without force, coercion, intimidation, threat, or violence, is prohibited.

Acts which intentionally cause or attempt to cause physical injury or harm to another person, or acts which could reasonably place another person in danger of physical injury or harm are prohibited. However, a student acting in self-defense shall not be in violation of this subsection.

Knowingly possessing, using, handling, selling, or otherwise transmitting to any person any firearm or other inherently dangerous weapon is prohibited.

Acts which intentionally cause or attempt to cause any person to act in any manner or pursue any course of action against his[her] will by force or threat of force are prohibited.

The commission or attempt to commit any act of sexual assault upon any person is prohibited.

Knowingly possessing, using, selling, transmitting, or being under the influence of any narcotic drug, hallucinogenic substance, amphetamine, barbiturate, marijuana, alcohol, or any other legally controlled drug or substance is prohibited.

However, the possession and use of a drug or medication which is authorized by a medical prescription from a registered physician in accordance with the instructions for the use of the drug as prescribed for the student shall not be a violation of this subsection.

Repeated failure to comply with the lawful orders of a principal, teacher, or other authorized Public School employee while properly under such person's authority or supervision, where such repeated failure to comply constitutes a substantial disruption or obstruction of any lawful mission, process, or function of the Public Schools is prohibited."

Ch. IV, § 432

SUSPENSION

A student may receive a minor suspension from a principal upon the recommendation of a teacher or other public school employee. No indication of a minor suspension will be made part of the student's permanent or cumulative record.

The student must be informed of the reason for the action prior to the suspension.

The student shall be given an informal suspension conference which shall include notice of the grounds for suspension, the facts or evidence upon which the determination is made and an opportunity to present the student's version of the facts or events. It shall not include a right to counsel or the right to confront witnesses. It may include the presence of a parent or guardian.

The conference shall precede the suspension unless there exists a serious danger to persons or property.

Ch. IV, § 433

EXCLUSION

The decision to make a class or activity exclusion shall be made by the teacher or person in charge of the class or activity, subject to the approval of the principal or her/his designee. The decision to which affects more than one activity shall be made by the principal.

These exclusions shall not be made part of the student's permanent or cumulative record.

The student shall be given an informal conference with the official making or approving the exclusion. It shall include notice of the grounds for exclusion, or explanation of the evidence or facts and or opportunity for the student to present her/his version of the facts or events. It shall not include the right to counsel or the right to confront witnesses. The conference shall precede the exclusion or occur within a reasonable time after the student has been excluded from class.

CH. IV, §434

"No major suspension shall be effected except pursuant to the rules and procedures set forth in this section.

SUSPENSION

The decision to effect a major suspension shall be made by the principal or his[her] designee and may be upon the recommendation of a teacher or other Public School employee.

No indication of any major suspension shall be maintained in a student's record beyond the end of any school year.

Prior to suspension, the student shall be informed of the reasons for the suspension, orally or in writing.

The student shall be given an informal suspension conference with the school official making the suspension. Such informal conference shall be held pursuant to the rules and procedures set forth in this Chapter.

The parent or guardian of a minor student shall be given notice in writing by certified mail or hand delivery. A copy of such written notice shall be given directly to an adult student. The written notice shall include the following:

NOTICE

(a) A description of the proposed suspension and the length of such suspension; (b) A statement of the specific grounds for the suspension, including a citation of the subsection(s) of section 431 upon which the action is based, and a description in reasonable detail of the facts, events, and actions upon which the suspension is based; (c) A statement indicating that classwork assignments will be given to the student and that the student is expected to complete such assignments while on suspension; (d) A statement informing the student, or student's parent or guardian, of the right to request and receive a hearing pursuant to the procedures set forth in subsection 433.7; including the right to representation by counsel, the right to examine the student's records and any official report of the incident prior to the hearing, the right to present testimony, including calling any involved school officials, and the right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses. (e) A statement explaining that the student, or student's parent or guardian, may request and receive, without charge, an educational and psychological assessment and evaluation of the student which may form the basis for an alternative educational placement or supplemental educational assistance.

HEARING

The adult student, or minor student's parent or guardian, may request a hearing by contacting the Public School hearing office. Suspension hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the following rules and procedures: (a) The hearing shall be held at a time and place which is reasonably convenient to the student and parent or guardian; (b) The hearing shall be held as soon as possible after the major suspension is proposed, if such hearing is requested. In no event shall the hearing be held more than four . . . days after written notice is given to the adult student or minor student's parent or guardian, except that the hearing may be postponed for not more than five days upon the request of the adult student, minor student's parent or guardian, or their representative, where such postponement is necessary to prepare for the hearing or provide for the attendance of necessary parties; (c) The hearing shall be closed unless the adult student or student's parent or guardian request an open hearing; (d) The student shall be guaranteed the right to a representative of the student's, or student's parent or guardian's, choosing, including legal counsel, as defined in section 499. (e) It shall be the burden of the Public Schools to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the student did, in fact, commit the serious offense(s) upon which the suspension is based. (f) The principal or other school official shall indicate the recommendation of the school system for alternative educational placement, transfer, or referral for assessment and evaluation which may form the basis for a proposed alternative educational placement or supplemental educational assistance. (g) The student, student's parent or guardian, or their representative shall have the right to cross-examine any testimony or challenge any documentary evidence. (h) The student, student's parent or guardian, or their representative shall have the right to present testimony and documentary evidence, including the right to call any witnesses to present testimony relevant to the suspension or other school system recommendations. The right to call witnesses shall include the right to require the presence of any involved school official.

(i) The Hearing Officer shall determine that all due process procedures have been followed or waived. The Hearing Officer may question any witness or party upon the conclusion of direct or cross-examination, and shall examine all documentary evidence. (j) The hearing shall not be conducted according to strict rules of evidence; however, the Hearing Officer may exclude any testimony or evidence which is irrelevant or repetitive. (k) The Hearing Officer shall ensure that the hearing is conducted in an orderly manner and shall have the authority to exclude any party or other person from the hearing on the grounds of substantial interference or obstruction of the orderly hearing process. (l) An electronic tape recording shall be made of the hearing. Upon request, a copy of the tape shall be made available to the adult student, student's parent or guardian, or their representative.

Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the Hearing Officer shall issue a written determination which shall include the following: (a) A statement of the facts, as determined from the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing; (b) A conclusion as to whether the required due process procedures have been properly followed or waived; (c) A conclusion as to whether or not the student committed the serious offense(s) upon which the suspension is based; (d) If the Hearing Officer has determined that suspension is warranted, a recommendation on the length of suspension which may be imposed. The Hearing Officer may not recommend a suspension which is longer than the length of the school system's proposed suspension. The Hearing Officer's recommendation for supension shall be binding. (e) If the Hearing Officer has determined that suspension is not warranted the determination shall include a statement ordering the destruction of all school records of the proposed suspension, including any reports which related to the incident upon which the suspension insofar as such reports individually identify the student.

(f) The Hearing Officer may recommend the referral of the student for educational and psychological assessment and evaluation, pursuant to the rules and procedures set forth in this Chapter.

(g) The Hearing Officer may recommend an alternative disciplinary action if suspension is not warranted; however, such recommendation shall not be binding upon the school system.

A copy of the Hearing Officer's written determination shall be given or mailed to the adult student, student's parent or guardian, and their representative, if any. Additional copies shall be sent to the principal or other school official in charge of the school or program in which the student is enrolled and retained in the files of the Public School hearing office.

The Hearing Officer may, in addition to issuing a written determination, make an oral determination upon the conclusion of "the hearing. In such event, the detemination of the Hearing Officer shall be the final administrative decision of the Public Schools; however, any party may object to the determination of the Hearing Officer on the grounds of procedural defect by informing the Public School hearing office of such objection within two...days of the receipt of the written determination. Such objeccions shall be processed by the Hearing office pursuant to the provisions of . . . this Chapter."

EXPULSION

§ 228.041

Expulsion is the removal of the right and obligation of a student to attend a public school for a period of time and under conditions set by the school board not to exceed the remainder of the term and one additional year of attendance.

Moderate use of physical force or contact by a teacher or principal as may be necessary to maintain discipline or enforce school rules comes within the permissible bounds of corporal punishment. But the term does not include the use of such reasonable force by a teacher or principal as may be necessary to protect him/herself or other students from disruptive students.

§231.06; 07

Any person who assaults an instructor on school property or "any person who upbraids, abuses or insults any member of the instructional staff on school property or in the presence of pupils at a school activity" shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§232.25-232.28

Students are subject to the authority of a principal or teacher while on "school premises" or "the immediate control and direction" of "a teacher, instructional staff" or bus driver as delegated, by the principal. The "Safe Schools Act of 1973" (§232.255) intended to "provide a fund to assist the local school districts in utilizing their administrative capacity to develop preventive and educationally sound solutions" to the problems of disruptions in school including personal harm to students and faculty and vandalism.

The school principal shall "develop policies . . . for the control and direction of students" by school employees, including bus drivers transporting students.

"The principal or his[her] designated representative may suspend a student only in accordance with the rules of the district school board, . . . and shall be reported in writing within 24 hours." "A good faith effort shall be made by the principal to employ parental assistance, or other alternative measures" except in "disruptive conditions which require immediate suspensions."

SUSPENSION

Similarly, the principal "may recommend to the superintendent the expulsion of any student who has committed a serious breach of conduct." An "analysis of suspensions and expulsions" shall be included in an annual school progress report.

EXPULSION

A student accused of commiting a felony shall be suspended until guilt or innocence is determined. If guilty, he/she "shall be automatically expelled." Teachers have the responsibility of maintaining order in the classroom and may use corporal punishment when necessary with the principal's approval. "Except in the case of excessive force or cruel and unusual punishment," school employees "shall not be civilly or criminally liable" for disciplinary actions which conform to state and district board rules. Bus drivers shall "preserve order" while transporting students but may not punish said students unless an emergency exists, in which case the driver may "take such steps as are reasonably necessary" to protect the pupils on the bus.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

REGULATIONS
6A-1.956 Auth. 229.053(1)

If a student is formally charged with a felony concerning drugs and other stimulants, the principal shall conduct an administrative hearing to determine whether or not the student should be suspended. The student's parents must be informed, in writing, of the specific charge against the student and of the right to a hearing prior to disciplinary action. Following the hearing, the principal shall provide the student and parent with a decision, and may waive the suspension if s/he determines it to be in the best interests of the school and the student.

HEARING

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Local boards of education have authority to adopt policies and regulations on corporal punishment. If punishment is authorized, a principal or teacher may administer it, provided the punishment is administered in the presence of another teacher or principal and it is not "excessive or unduly severe." If a principal or teacher administers corporal punishment under these guidelines, and does so in good faith, she/he shall not be held accountable for their actions in a civil or criminal proceeding.

Statutes

§298-11

"If . . . a child becomes a detriment to the morals or discipline of any school" the principal with the approval of the district superintendent may preclude him/her from attending school. "The department of education shall seek the active participation of other public and private agencies in providing help to such children before and after they have left school. An appeal may be taken . . . to the superintendent of education within 10 days from the date of such action."

EXCLUSION

Children seventeen and over shall not be admitted to the ninth grade, nor shall children eighteen and over be admitted to the tenth grade, "except upon written permission of the superintendent when in his/her opinion the facts warrant such admission." "Any high school students whose work is below passing in half or more of his subjects shall be placed on probation, and if his/her work does not improve to the satisfaction of the superintendent during the subsequent semester, he/she shall be precluded from attending school. Such student may be reinstated by the superintendent if, in his opinion, the facts warrant such reinstatement."

§298-16

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

"No physical punishment of any kind may be inflicted upon any pupil, but reasonable force may be used by a teacher . . . to restrain a pupil in attendance at school from hurting himself or any other person or property and reasonable force as defined in 703-309(2), which states, ". . . the force used is necessary to further such special purpose, including maintenance of reasonable discipline in a school, class or other group, and . . . the use of such force is consistent with the welfare of the minors . . ." "may be used by a principal or his agent only with another teacher present and out of the presence of any other student . . ."

§703-309(2)

The use of force toward another is justifiable when the user of force is a teacher or a person otherwise entrusted with the care or supervision for a special purpose of a minor and such force seems necessary for the purpose and is consistent with the welfare of the minors.

REGULATIONS

Rules 3.1; 3.2

The public schools are to cooperate fully with the law enforcement agencies in the community according to procedures worked out by each District Superintendent with the local police so that

(1) the individual pupil's rights and feelings are respected;

(2) the pupil is protected from unnecessary humiliation and damage to his[her] reputation;

(3) the rights and responsibilities of parents of pupils are observed;

(4) the Department's responsibility to help each child is met in the most constructive way.

Rule 14.1

When school property is damaged, destroyed or lost by a student or several students and the liability can be placed, payment shall be made by the student(s).

Rule 21

No serious discipline shall be administered except in accordance with this rule.

DISMISSAL

SUSPENSION

No student shall be dismissed from school, transferred for disciplinary reasons, or suspended for more than ten school days except for violation of section 21.11 of this rule. Each school may adopt rules proscribing other types of conduct, but no punishment amounting to dismissal, disciplinary transfer, or suspension for ten school days shall be imposed for the violation of individual school rules.

Whenever a principal has reason to believe that a student has engaged in activity warranting a suspension not exceeding ten days, the Principal shall give the student oral or written notice of the charges against him/her. The student must be given an opportunity to present his/her versions of the story. If the principal finds the charges are sustained, he/she may suspend the student. The parents or guardian of any suspended student shall be notified of any suspension.

NOTICE

Dismissal, disciplinary transfer, or suspension exceeding ten days may be imposed by the District Superintendent.

a. Whenever any principal has reason to believe a student has engaged in activity warranting the imposition of serious discipline (i.e., dismissal, disciplinary transfer, or suspension exceeding ten days), he/she shall immediately conduct an informal investigation. If the principal elects to initiate proceedings for the imposition of serious discipline, he/she shall make a written report on completion of his/her investigation.

b. The principal shall immediately notify the District Superintendent and shall initiate disciplinary proceedings.

c. Disciplinary proceeding shall be initiated by a written notice to the student and his/her parents or guardian which shall include:

(1) a statement of the acts allegedly committed;

(2) the rules allegedly violated;

(3) a statement of the recommended action;

(4) a statement of the student's right to a hearing and of the procedure for requesting a hearing

(5) a statement that, failing a request for a hearing, the recommended action of the principal will be implemented.

d. The District Superintendent shall schedule a hearing within ten days of receipt of a request for a hearing. The District Superintendent or a person designated by him/her shall conduct the hearing.

HEARING

It shall be private unless the student or his/her parents request that it be public. All parties shall have the right to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and submit rebuttal testimony.

No later than three school days after the hearing, the District Superintendent shall render a decision in writing.

APPEAL

The student or his/her parents or guardian may appeal to the Superintendent of Education within ten days of the District Superintendent's action. The student shall be permitted to attend his/her regularly-assigned school pending such appeal unless the District Superintendent finds that his/her continued presence creates a substantial risk to the rights of other students to pursue their education.

SUSPENSION

Any other provision of this rule to the contrary notwithstanding, the principal may, in an emergency, immediately suspend a student after finding that his/her conduct presents a clear threat to the physical safety of others or is so extremely disruptive as to make the studen's removal necessary to preserve the right of other students to pursue their education.

The principal shall report in writing the circumstances of any such crisis supsension to the student, his/her parents or guardian, and the District Superintendent.

Unless the principal determines that serious discipline need not be administered, he/she shall initiate disciplinary proceedings as described in 21.6.

DISMISSAL

No dismissal shall continue beyond the school year in which it is made and no suspension shall be for an indefinite period.

SUSPENSION

"Prohibited Behavior

Serious discipline may be imposed upon any student who engages in the following:

a. Any act committed upon school property or at school sponsored activities which would, if committed by an adult, constitute a violation of federal, state or local criminal law; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed as requiring proof of such act beyond a reasonable doubt before serious discipline may be imposed.

b. Willful disobedience to the legitimate directives of teachers or other department personnel acting in their official capacity, under circumstances in which such disobedience constitutes a repeated or significant disruption of the educational process."

Rule 21.10

"Educational Alternatives

ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION

The Principal shall arrange alternative education plans in accordance with departmental policy for all students who are dismissed or suspended for a period exceeding ten school days."

Rules 23.1; 23.3; 23.4

PREGNANCY

Pregnant students are encouraged to continue with their education. Any pregnant student shall be allowed to stay in her own school if she so desires until her doctor indicates she should not. The Department shall assist the pregnant student in modifying her class schedule or in transferring to another school should she so wish.

J. Student Rights and Discipline

Statutes

§20-8.1-5-1-- 20-8.1-5-3

Student supervision is the joint responsibility of parents, teachers, students and school corporation personnel.

Teachers and other school personnel who directly supervise students have the right to take any action "reasonably necessary" to carry out educational functions. Teachers and other school personnel do not have the right to suspend students and exclusion of a student by a teacher may not extend for more than one day without the approval of the principal.

Principals and superintendents may make written rules governing student conduct and take any reasonably necessary action in order to carry out the educational function of the school.

The governing body of a school corporation may make rules governing student conduct and may delegate rulemaking and disciplinary authority. This delegation of authority is, however, subject to certain limitations. Rules or standards which interfere with "a constitutionally protected fundamental student right" shall be valid only to prevent interference with an educational function of the school. All rules and standards must be "reasonably necessary" and will be narrowly construed so as to "accomplish their purpose with the minimal infringement on constitutionally protected rights."

All rules and policies adopted by anyone other than the governing body and applying to students, must be reviewed and approved by the superintendent. The governing body may change the rules or policies. Rules affecting students must be publicized and a written copy given to students or parents.

§20-8.1-5-4

The following are the grounds for expulsion:

(A) Use of force, violence, noise, coercion, threat, intimidation, fear, passive resistance or other comparable conduct, constituting an interference with school purposes, or urging other students to engage in such conduct, unless such conduct is protected as an exercise of free speech or assembly or other right under the constitution of Indiana and the United States.

(B) Causing or attempting to cause substantial damage to school property, stealing or attempting to steal school property of substantial value, or repeated damage or theft involving school property of small value.

(C) Intentionally causing or attempting to cause substantial damage to valuable private property, on school grounds or during an educational function or event off school grounds; or repeatedly damaging or stealing private property on school grounds, or during an educational function off school grounds, or when traveling to or from school or such event.

(D) Intentionally causing or attempting to cause physical injury or intentionally behaving in such a way as could reasonably cause physical injury to a school employee, on school grounds, or at an educational function off school grounds. However, actions of self-defense or reasonable defense of another person do not apply.

(E) Intentionally doing serious bodily harm to any student; on school grounds, or at an educational function off school grounds, or when traveling to or from school or such event. Actions of self-defense or reasonable defense of third persons do not apply.

(F) Extorting money or anything of value from any student.

(G) Knowingly possessing, handling or transmitting any object that can reasonably be considered a weapon, on school grounds or off school grounds at any educational function or event sponsored by the school.

(H) Knowingly possessing, using, transmitting, or being under the influence of any narcotic drug, hallucinogenic drug, amphetamine, barbiturate, marijuana, alcoholic beverage, or intoxicant of any kind except drugs authorized by physician on school grounds or off school grounds during an educational function or event.

(I) Engaging in the unlawful sale of drugs or other criminal violation which constitutes a danger to other students or an interference with school purposes.

(J) Failing in a substantial number of instances to comply with directions of teachers or other school personnel during any period of time when he/she is properly under their supervision, where such failure constitutes an interference with school purposes.

(K) Engaging in activities forbidden by the laws of the state which constitutes an interference with school purposes.

(L) A violation, or repeated violation, of any rules validly adopted by the governing body or the principal.

§20-8.1-5-5

A student may be excluded from school for any of the following reasons:

(A) If the student has a dangerous communicable disease that poses a substantial threat to the health or safety of the community.

(B) If the student's immediate removal is necessary to protect persons on school property or persons off school property where the student's conduct would constitute an interference with school purposes;

(C) If the student is physically or mentally unfit for school purposes;

(D) If the student's legal settlement is not in the attendance area and the student has a right to attend public school in that corporation, where no transfer has been ordered and no agreement has been made to pay cash tuition, provided no other governmental entity is responsible for tuition.

APPEAL

Appeals under this subdivision may not be to court but to the commission on general education.

§20-8.1-5-6

Any principal may suspend a student's "right to attend school or to take part in any school function for a period of up to five school days." The governing body of the school corporation may, if the superintendent approves, make a lesser period. The grounds for suspension are:

SUSPENSION

(A) Conduct constituting grounds for expulsion as defined by statute (see 20-8.1-5-4)

(B) Violation of other rules and regulations of the governing body or the principal.

The principal shall first investigate the case and determine that suspension is necessary "to help any student, to further school purposes, or to prevent interference therewith." The student is entitled to an informal hearing including: "(1) a written or oral statement of the charges against him[her]; (2) and, if he[she] denies the charges, a summary of the evidence against him[her]; and (3) an opportunity to explain his[her] conduct."

HEARING

Notice and hearing shall precede the suspension except where the nature of the misconduct requires immediate removal. Within twenty-four(24) hours of the suspension the principal shall send a written statement to the student's parent explaining the reason for the suspension. The principal shall make a reasonable effort to arrange a conference with the student's parents before or at the time the student returns to school.

§20-8.1-5-7

The superintendent, principal, any administrative personnel, or teacher can take additional action regarding student behavior that will help a student or further school purposes. Such action may include counseling students, conferences with students and parents, assigning students additional work, or restricting extracurricular activity.

§20-8.1-5-8 --20-8.1-5-12

EXPULSION

"A written charge shall be filed by the principal with the superintendent [in order to expel or exclude a student from school]. If the superintendent deems that there are reasonable grounds for an investigation or that an investigation is desirable, he/she shall within one school day after such charge is filed appoint a hearing examiner." The hearing examiner shall be any person on the school corporation's administrative staff, including the superintendent himself/herself or its counsel, provided he/she: (1) has not brought the charges; (2) will not be a witness at the hearing; and (3) has no involvement in the charge.

Within two days after his/her appointment the hearing examiner shall give notice to the student, and his/her parent, custodian or guardian that a hearing will be scheduled at their request.

If the parents do not request a hearing within five days the punishment requested in the charge shall go into effect. But if a hearing is requested by the tenth day such punishment shall be rescinded. If no hearing is requested by the 10th day all rights, administiatively and judicially, to challenge the punishment are waived.

At the hearing the student may be represented by counsel and may examine witnesses. The student shall have access to his/her academic and disciplinary records prior to the hearing and may have the identity of the witness(es) against him/her. The student may testify in his/her own defense but may not be compelled or coerced to testify. At the hearing examiner's discretion (and with agreement of the student's parents) the student may be excluded when his/her psychological or emotional problems are being discussed.

The hearing examiner shall see that a record is kept. He/she shall forward this record along with his/her findings of fact and recommendations to the superintendent. The superintendent shall make a determination.

Within 30 days the student may appeal to the governing body of the school corporation from the determination of the superintendent. The governing body may provide, by rule, for an intermediate administrative appeal.

The student may, within thirty days (30) appeal to the circuit or superior court from the ruling of the governing body.

Unless not reasonably possible or unless the student requests a delay, the hearing before the hearing examiner shall be completed within ten days from the time the student is suspended. The student may be suspended pending the hearing for up to five days. The student's parent or representative has the right to a preliminary conference with the principal or hearing examiner to show a compelling reason why the student should not be suspended pending the hearing.

No expulsion or exclusion shall be for a longer period than the remainder of the school year, except that where expulsion takes place within thirty days of the end of the school year it shall remain in effect for that summer unless otherwise ordered. If a student is less than sixteen and expulsion or exclusion takes effect more than three weeks prior to the beginning of the second semester, it shall be automatically reviewed at the beginning of the second semester. Absence due to expulsion, exclusion or suspension is not considered a violation of attendance laws.

§20-8.1-5-14

"Where a student or his[her] parent believes that the student is being improperly denied participation in any educational function . . ., or is being subjected to an illegal [or unconstitutional] rule or standard . . . he[she] shall, if unable to work out his[her] problems with members of the administrative staff, be entitled to initiate a hearing . . . in the same manner [as an expulsion or exclusion hearing is initiated by the principal]." Either party may appeal the decision within 30 days provided that where the validity of a rule or regulation is involved appeal to the governing body shall be automatic.

STATUTES

§282.4 -- .5

The board may, by majority vote, expel a student for "immorality, ... a violation of the rules and regulations ...", or when the student's presence is "detrimental to the best interests of the school." The board may give any teacher, principal, or superintendent the power to dismiss a student. The student may apply for readmission to the teacher, principal, or board who dismissed him.

EXPULSION

CROSS REFERENCE

IV.E.; Statute §287.1 -- 287.4

STATUTES

§72-8901 -- 72-8904

SUSPENSION
EXPULSION

The board of education of any school district may suspend or expel any pupil guilty of any of the following: (a) willful violation of any regulation for student conduct adopted/approved by board of education, or (b) "conduct which substantially disrupts. . .operation of any public school," or (c) "conduct which substantially . . . invades rights of others," or (d) conduct for which a pupil was convicted in a criminal setting (state or federal) or (e) "disobedience of an order of a teacher, peace officer, or school security officer, which disobedience can reasonably be anticipated to result in disorder in public school operation. . . ."

No suspension shall extend beyond the current semester, and no expulsion shall extend beyond the current school year. A student may be suspended for up to five days without a hearing. A written notice of this short term suspension and the reason for it shall be given to the student and his/her parent or guardian within twenty-four hours of the suspension. If the school wants to extend the suspension or expel the student, a written notice of this shall be given to the student and his/her parent or guardian within seventy-two hours of the suspension. The notice shall state the date, place, and time of the hearing which shall not be later than the last day of the short term suspension. The notice shall contain a copy of this act and any board of education regulations.

HEARING
NOTICE

If a student is suspended for an extended term or expelled, the hearing committee shall give a written report of its findings and results to the board of education. The report shall be open for inspection by the student and his/her counsel or advisor.

If the hearing committee finds that the student "is not reasonably anticipated to cause continuing repeated material disorder" and "substantial and material inpingement upon. . .the rights of others," the student may return to school pending final action on his/her appeal. If the hearing committee fails to make such a finding, the student shall not return to class.

The hearing shall afford procedural due process including the following: (a) the right of the student to have counsel of his/her own choice present, (b) the right of the parent or guardian of the student to be present, (c) the right of the student and his/her counsel or advisor to hear or read a full report of testimony of witnesses against the student, (d) the right of the student to present witnesses in person or by affidavit, (e) the right of the student to have an orderly hearing, and (g) the right of the student to a fair and impartial decision based on substantial evidence.

Upon completion of the hearing, if the hearing committee believes that the student has violated a criminal statute or a city ordinance, the committee shall report this to the district court.

Written notice of the hearing results shall be given to the student and his/her parent or guardian within twenty-four hours after the decision. The student or his/her parent may appeal to the board within ten calendar days of receiving the notice. The appeal shall be heard by the board or a hearing officer appointed by the board within twenty calendar days after the appeal is filed. The student and his/her parent shall be notified of the time and place of the hearing at least five days prior to the hearing.

APPEAL

The hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as the original hearing. A record of the hearing shall be made by electronic recording or by an official court reporter paid for by the school district. The board shall decide the appeal within five days after the hearing.

of a committee composed of students, faculty, parents and . . . administrators.

2) Such committee shall consist of two students, two parents of students, two faculty members, two representatives from administrative personnel of the district, and one member of the local school board.

3) The student and faculty members . . . shall be elected by their peers . . . the administrative personnel shall be appointed by the school district superintendent, and the parents selected by the faculty and student body. Members . . . shall serve for a term of one year, and may be re-elected or re-appointed in following years.

APPOINTMENT

4) Each committee member shall be entitled to a single vote and any code of student rights and responsibilities adopted by a majority of the . . . membership shall be submitted to the district board of education which may cause such code, in whole or in part to be implemented in the public schools of the district.

5) All meetings of the committee shall be open to the public and the committee shall hold at least one public hearing on the proposed code before it is adopted . . . .

6) The code . . . adopted by the committee may define rights and responsibilities regarding, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Right of expression, including, but not limited to, the following:

(b) Right to participate in decision-making procedures directly affecting students;

(c) Right to procedural due process concerning major disciplinary action, as defined by the code;

(d) Right to receive academic grades based only upon academic performance;

(e) Right to freedom from abuse and threat of abuse by members of school faculties and administrative personnel; and

ACCESS

(f) Right of access by a student to his or her own records and guarantee of the confidentiality of a student's academic records outside the school system except upon written authorization of the student or his . . . parent or guardian.

7) Students shall refrain from activity which materially or substantially disrupts the educational process or presents a clear and present danger to the health and safety of persons or property, or infringes on the rights of others."

§438.050

Statutes

Art. 77 §85A

No statement made by a student to a teacher or professional educator shall be admissible against her/him in any proceeding if that student is seeking information about overcoming drug abuse. Further, no observation or conclusion derived by the teacher or other educator shall be admissible against the student in any proceeding.

DRUG ABUSE

Art. 77 §95

The principal has the right to suspend any pupil for cause for up to five days provided the parent is given a conference during the suspension period. Longer suspensions require that the principal submit a report to the superintendent who investigates the problem and determines if a longer suspension or expulsion is necessary. If so, a conference shall be arranged with parents to determine the length of such suspension or expulsion. The parents have the right to appeal a decision to the school board within 10 days after the superintendent makes his/her decision. The appeal "shall not operate to stay the decision of the local superintendent. The decision of the local board shall be final."

APPEAL

Art. 77 §96A

Each principal or assistant may search a student if she/he has probable cause to believe the student is carrying an item, possession of which constitutes a criminal offense. The search shall be made in the presence of a third party. Each principal may also search the physical plant of the school including students' lockers. However, the right of the principal to search lockers must have been previously announced.

SEARCHES

Art. 77 §98A

Principals, teachers and school security guards "may intervene in any fight or physical struggle that takes place in their presence in school buildings or on school grounds, between or among students or any other persons." The official involved shall use reasonable force to restore order and protect the safety of the combatants and surrounding persons.

REASONABLE FORCE

Any school official mentioned above who is injured while intervening in a fight shall be compensated for medical expenses by the county board. The official shall not suffer any loss of compensation for time lost from work. Compensation by the county shall be reduced by any payments made pursuant to Workman's Compensation Laws.

The county board shall provide for or reimburse the official for any reasonable legal fees incurred in an action brought by parents or other claimant against the official for intervening in the fight.

Art. 77 §98B

Nothing shall prohibit the use of corporal punishment by a principal or vice principal in all counties except Howard, Montgomery and Prince Georges counties. In all other counties the county board shall establish regulations governing the use of corporal punishment.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

REGULATIONS

13.07.03.01 - 13.07.03.02

"Pupils are prohibited from using intoxicants in any form on the school premises.

INTOXICANTS

SECRET ORGANIZATIONS

"All pupil organizations desiring to conduct activities in public school buildings or . . . grounds" must be "authorized to do so and shall . . . be subject to supervision of the administration and faculty of such schools." Organizations which are secret or exclusive in their membership are "prohibited from conducting . . . activities in public school buildings or . . . grounds."

Local boards of education must "develop or document on Students' Responsibilities and Rights" based on State Board of Education guidelines. "All members of the school community . . . including students, teachers, administrators, and parents" should receive copies. "There shall be broad involvement of representatives of the school community in the development of such documents."

13.07.04.01 - 13.07.04.02

NOTICE

SUSPENSION

HEARING

If a pupil's behavior "is disruptive and detrimental to the operation of the school," he or she may be suspended or expelled as provided by law. A pupil must be notified of the charges before suspension and has "the right to an explanation of the evidence supporting the charges and an opportunity to present his or her side of the story." If a pupil's behavior is so dangerous or disruptive that he or she must "be removed immediately from school," the required notice and hearing must be given as soon as possible.

Each county board of education is authorized to make rules "to maintain . . . order and discipline" within its Schools. These rules "should provide for counseling and may permit suspension, expulsion, or other disciplinary measures as . . . appropriate . . . . The State Board of Education abolishes corporal punishment as a statewide disciplinary measure . . . .

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

"Pupils shall not be stricken on or about the head . . ., nor shall they . . . be subjected to any brutal or unreasonable punishment . . . .

SUSPENSION

"The alternative to corporal punishment . . . is the temporary suspension from school by the principal, with notice to the parent that an interview will be necessary before the pupil may return . . . . The local school authorities, whose approval is required to continue the suspension. . ., shall be notified at once." Pupils who fail to comply with the prohibition against participation in secret organizations shall be disciplined appropriately.

ARREST

If possible, police arrest of a pupil "should be made during non-school hours and away from the school premises." If an arrest must be made at school, "the responsible school official shall" find out information as to the charge, the name of the arresting officer, and the pupil's location in order to advise the parent and other school officials. If such an arrest takes place, effort should be made to inform the parent immediately and then the Superintendent's office. The arrest should be made so "as to avoid both embarrassment to the pupil . . . and jeopardizing the safety and welfare of other pupils. . . .

"School officials shall not permit questioning of a pupil under arrest on the school premises . . . . Police investigations involving the questioning of pupils" may be permitted at school only if "in connection with a crime committed on the premises" or if crucial to the success of the investigation or the "lives or safety of the pupils or other persons, provided, a school official is present. If there is no arrest, a student may not be removed from school for questioning without parental consent.

SEARCHES

If police officers have a search warrant, they may search that part of the school indicated in the warrant. Police searches may only be made with a search warrant or if necessary for the safety of pupils "or other persons on school property. Searches should be conducted so as to "minimize disruption of the normal school routine and . . . embarrassment to pupils affected."

Unless there is a "reasonable suspicion" that a pupil is carrying a concealed weapon, a police officer may not search any pupil not under arrest, and "under no circumstances shall a school official conduct such a search . . . at the request of a police officer . . . .

"School officials may at anytime conduct . . . searches . . . essential to the security . . . and sound administration of the particular school" within the limitations herein stated if it is a police investigation.

"School officials shall promptly report to the responsible law enforcement agencies all police matters . . . which involve pupils attending the . . . school . . . . Police matters shall not include conduct . . . traditionally treated as a matter of discipline to be handled administratively by the particular school"; however, parents should be informed of conduct of a serious nature."

J. Student Rights and Discipline

Statutes

71 §37 G

"The power of the school committee or any teacher or other employee or agent of the school committee to maintain discipline upon school property shall not include the right to inflict corporal punishment upon any pupil."

71 §37 H

Each school committee "shall publish its rules or regulations pertaining to the conduct of teachers or students. . . Copies of the rules or regulations shall be provided to any person upon request and without cost . . .[and shall be]. . . filed with the commissioner of education."

71 §82

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

"The right of students to freedom of expression . . . shall not be abridged, provided that such right shall not cause any disruption or disorder within the school. Freedom of expression shall include without limitation the rights and responsibilities of students, collectively and individually, (a) to express their views through speech and symbols; (b) to write, publish and disseminate their views; (c) to assemble peaceably on school property for the purpose of expressing their opinions. Any assembly planned by students during regularly scheduled school hours shall be held only at a time and place approved in advance by the school principal or his[her] designee.

No expression made by students in the exercise of such rights shall be deemed to be an expression of school policy and no school officials shall be held responsible . . . for any expression made or published by the students."

71 §83

"School officials shall not abridge the rights of students as to personal dress and appearance except if such officials determine that such personal dress and appearance violate reasonable standards of health, safety and cleanliness."

71 §84

"No student shall be suspended, expelled, or otherwise disciplined on account of marriage, pregnancy, parenthood or for conduct which is not connected with any school-sponsored activities; provided, however, that in the case of a pregnant student, the school committee may require that the student be under the supervision of a physician."
71 §85

RULEMAKING

The board of education and the school committee shall adopt rules and regulations concerning student rights after public notice of their intentions and the opportunity given for students to voice their views. The regulations "shall provide that notwithstanding the existence of the rights and responsibilities described . . . school committees . . . may take necessary action in cases of emergency."
71 §86

"The provisions of section eighty-two to eighty-five [student's rights], inclusive, shall apply only to cities and towns which accept the same."
76 §5

"Every person shall have a right to attend the public schools of the town where he/she actually resides . . . . No person shall be excluded from or discriminated against in admission to a public school of any town, or in obtaining the advantages, privileges and courses of study of the public school on account of race, color, sex, religion or national origin."
76 §17

NOTICE

"A school committee shall not permanently exclude a pupil from the public schools for alleged misconduct without first giving him[her] and his[her parent or guardian an opportunity to be heard."

119 §69

"The superintendent of the public schools in any town, any teacher therein, and any person in charge of a private school, shall furnish to any court . . . any information and reports requested by any justice thereof relating to the attendance, conduct and standing of any pupil enrolled in such school, if said pupil is at the time awaiting examination or trial by the court or is under the supervision of the court."

"No public school shall deny due process or equal protection of the law to any public school pupil involved in a dismissal proceeding which may result in suspension, exclusion, or expulsion."

DUE PROCESS

§127.29

Before dismissing a pupil, a school must provide "alternative programs of education" for the pupil such as special classes or tutoring. A pupil may be dismissed for: (1) "a willful violation" of any school board regulation, if the regulation gives clear notice to students that they must follow the regulation; (2) "willful conduct" which "substantially disrupts" other students' right to an education; (3) "willful conduct which endangers students or school property."

DISMISSAL

§127.30 --127.33

No pupil may be suspended from school without an "informal administrative conference" unless it appears that the pupil will create "an immediate and substantial danger" to other persons or property. The student and her/his parent must receive written notice of the grounds for suspension before the conference takes place.

SUSPENSION

NOTICE

No student may be expelled without a hearing unless the pupil waives her/his right to the hearing. The student and parent must receive written notice of the hearing and be informed of her/his right to counsel and right to examine her/his records. If the pupil cannot afford a lawyer, the school board shall advise her/his parents of available legal aid. The hearing shall take place before an independent hearing officer or the school board. "Administrative and teaching personnel may take actions . . . which are reasonably necessary to aid the student, further school purposes, or prevent interference with the educational process" in addition to those provided by law, such as "counseling of students, parent conferences, rearrangements of schedules, requirement that a student remain in school after regular hours to do additional work, . . . or restriction of extracurricular activity."

§79-4,173

"If a student is suspended, expelled, or excluded from school . . . , such absence . . . shall not be deemed a violation on the part of any person" under any compulsory attendance statutes.

§79-4,174 - 79-4,176

Any notice or determination under these sections is considered to be given when the student or parent receives it personally or by certified mail.

The school board may prescribe any additional procedures to those required by law if they are not inconsistent with the law. Any action of school officials or employees that violates the law "shall be considered null, void, and of no effect." The school board may delegate "responsibilities directed to the principal or superintendent" to other school officials.

The school board shall establish reasonable rules and standards for student conduct which are made clear to students. All other rules for student conduct adopted by school officials must conform to the rules and standards of the board.

"Rules or standards which form the basis for discipline shall be distributed to students and their parents."

§79-4,177; 4,178

A student who "has a dangerous communicable disease" or whose conduct is a "clear threat to . . . himself, herself, or others, or is . . . extremely disruptive" may be temporarily excluded from school for a period no longer than the situation warranting it lasts. The school board shall hold a hearing and make a determination within ten days if a school official "determines that such emergency exclusion shall extend beyond five days."

HEARING

A principal may exclude a student from school for up to five days for "conduct constituting grounds for expulsion . . . or . . . any other violation of rules . . . of behavior adopted" under law, following an investigation and notification and explanation of the charges given to the student. The principal must then send a written statement to the student and parents explaining "the reasons for the action taken . . .[and] make a reasonable effort to hold a conference with the parents."

EXCLUSION

NOTICE

SUSPENSION

EXPULSION

REASSIGNMENT

"Long-term suspension" means the exclusion of a student from school for between 5 and 20 days; "expulsion" means exclusion "for a period not to exceed the remainder of the semester;" and "mandatory reassignment" means the "involuntary transfer of a student to another school . . . in connection with any disciplinary action."

The following conduct constitutes grounds for these actions: (1) violence, force, or intimidation; (2) damage or theft of "private or school property;" (3) "physical injury to a school employee or to any student," unless such injury was caused "by accident, self-defense," or in an attempt to protect someone; (4) possession of a weapon, illegal narcotic or drug or alcohol; (5) violation of state laws or of school rules if such violation or activity constitutes a danger to other students . . . or . . . a substantial interference with school purposes."

§79-4,181

The following procedures are required if a principal suspends, expels or reassigns a student. "On the date of the decision, a written charge and a summary of the evidence . . . shall be filed with the superintendent" and notice is then sent to the student and parents, including: the alleged violation and the evidence against the student; possible penalty; the student's right to a hearing upon request; "a statement that the principal, legal counsel for the school, the student, . . . parents, or the student's representative or guardian" may examine all records to be used at the hearing and "know the identity of the witnesses . . . and the substance of their testimony;" and a form on which to request a hearing. The students, parents or representative may also settle "the matter with appropriate school personnel prior to the hearing stage."

NOTICE

HEARING

If a hearing is requested within five days of notice, a hearing examiner who has no involvement in the hearing or charges shall be appointed by the superintendent or school board. All records and statements may be examined by the principal, student or parents before the hearing. The hearing examiner shall "remain impartial throughout all deliberations" and shall assist the parties involved with regard to questions of procedure in the hearing. If a hearing is not requested within five days "the punishment recommended . . . by the principal . . . shall automatically go into effect." If a hearing is requested between 5 and 30 days after receipt of notice, "the hearing shall be held, but the imposed punishment shall continue . . pending final determination."

HEARING

Hearings "shall be attended by the hearing examiner, the student, the student's parents . . . guardian . . . [or] representative," who may be an attorney, and counsel for the school board, if deemed advisable by the hearing examiner or superintendent. The student may be excluded at certain times at the hearing examiner's discretion. The student may testify or choose not to testify.

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

"The principal shall present to the hearing examiner . . . such statements and records [as] have been made available to the student, . . . parents . . . or representative prior to the hearing." The student, parents or representative, principal and hearing examiner may ask witnesses to testify and "question any witness giving information."

A "hearing may be conducted for . . . students as a group" if they are charged with the same violation and for having acted together, and the hearing examiner believes that such a hearing will not "result in confusion" and will not prejudice the interests of any one student. The hearing examiner "may order a separate hearing for any student" if the conduct of a group hearing is resulting in confusion or prejudicing a student's witness.

§79-4,195 — 79-4,200

The hearing examiner shall report his or her "findings and a recommendation of the action to be taken," which shall be reviewed by the superintendent, "who may change or concur with the recommendation but may not impose a more severe sanction. The student and parents shall be informed in writing of the determination of the hearing examiner and the superintendent; "upon receipt . . . the determination of the superintendent shall take immediate effect." The determination may be appealed to the school board within ten days, and the board or a "designated committee" shall hold a hearing.

APPEAL

A copy of the board's decision shall be sent or delivered to the student and parents.

§79-4,201 — 79-4,205

"Any person aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case regarding a student suspension . . . shall be entitled to judicial review" under this section or may "resort to other means of review, redress, or relief provided by law."

JUDICIAL REVIEW

Review proceedings are initiated "by filing a petition in the district court of the county where the action is taken within thirty days after" the board's final decision.

The school board must give the court "a certified transcript of the record" and its proceedings, including the final decision. The court may affirm the board's decision, "remand the case for further proceedings, or reverse or modify the decision if the substantial rights of the petitioner may have been prejudiced.

§79-449.01; 79-451

"At the end of each semester the chief executive officer of any public or nonpublic school shall report to the Commissioner of Education the names of" children who have dropped out of, or "been excluded or expelled from school," and also the name of any child who returns to school after having dropped out or been expelled. The county or district superintendent also receives a copy of the report.

The secretary of the district board shall report annually to the county superintendent the number of children between ages 5 and 21 in the districts. The secretary shall also file "two reports . . . described as an end-of-the-year annual statistical summary, and an annual financial report," to include such information as: the number of children in school below age 5 and over 21; the total number attending school during the year, the number between ages 7 and 16 in the district; "the length of time school has been taught . . . by a qualified teacher, . . .[and] by each teacher;" the number of days all pupils have attended school during the year; and other financial data.

§392.460

Boards of trustees, superintendents, principals, and teachers "have concurrent power with peace officers for the protection of children in school and on the way to and from school, and for the enforcement of order and discipline among such children." It is not, however, the duty of superintendents, principals, or teachers to supervise the conduct of children while off school property.

§392.465

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

"The use of corporal punishment" should "be discouraged" and should only be used "after all other methods of discipline have proven ineffective." Judgment and discretion should be used in all punishment, and school counseling and psychological services should be fully used. Each board of trustees shall adopt rules and regulations authorizing certificated personnel to administer punishment, subject to limitations of these provisions. Parents and guardians shall be notified before, or as soon as possible after, corporal punishment is administered. Corporal punishment shall not be administered on or about the head or face of any pupil, but this does not prohibit certificated personnel from defending themselves if attacked by a pupil.

It is unlawful to beat, whip, detain, or otherwise interfere with pupils against their will on their way to or from public school. Violation of this constitutes a misdemeanor.

§392.480

It is unlawful to use vile or indecent language or to threaten or assault any pupil or teacher while in the school building or on the school grounds. For these purposes, grounds constitutes a fifty yard radius from the school building. It is unlawful to purposely interfere with any persons peaceably assembled within a public schoolhouse. Violations of any of these provisions constitutes a misdemeanor.

§393.070

It is unlawful to wilfully damage any school property, commit any nuisance in a public schoolhouse, or to loiter or purposely trespass on or near the school grounds. Any violation of this constitutes a public offense no less than a misdemeanor.

J. Student Rights and Discipline

Regulations

Reg. No. 71-6

The school is a community and the rules and regulations of a school are the laws of that community. All those enjoying the rights of citizenship in the school community must also accept the responsibilities of citizenship.

Young people have the right to receive a free public education, the deprivation of which may only occur for just cause and in accord with due process. Students have the rights of citizenship delineated in the U. S. Constitution. Such rights may be regulated by school authorities only if failure to regulate would create a material and substantial disruption of school work and discipline.

Administrators and teachers have the responsibility for maintaining and facilitating the educational program.

The principal has the authority to suspend pupils for cause.

I. Rights, Responsibilities, and Limitations

The commission of activities in school buildings or property or at school-sponsored events that is defined as criminal under State laws is prohibited. Such activities include: arson, assault, burglary, illegal use of firearms or explosives, extortion, blackmail or coercion, malicious mischief, sale, sue, or possession of alcoholic beverages or of illegal drugs, trespass, unlawful interference with or intimidation of school authorities. Disciplinary action will be taken by the school regardless of whether or not criminal charges result.

Smoking on school grounds shall be governed by local board regulations.

Dress and appearance must not present health or safety problems or cause disruption.

Students will attend regularly-scheduled classes unless officially excused.

Conduct which materially or in fact interferes with the educational process is prohibited. Students must obey the lawful instructions of school district personnel.

All persons must, upon request, identify themselves to school authorities in school buildings, on school property, or at school-sponsored events.

Freedom of speech and assembly does not include the use of obscenities or personal attacks or demonstrations which interfere with the operation of school or classroom: these are all prohibited. All student meetings in school buildings or grounds shall function only as a part of the educational process or as authorized by the principal.

Student publications must not contain libel, obscenity, or attacks of a personal nature.

Unauthorized solicitation will not be allowed on school property at any time. An exception will be sale of non-school-sponsored student newspapers, published by students of the school district, distribution of which shall be at times and places designated by school authorities.

School authorities shall search school property assigned to a specific student and seize items in his/her personal possession if they have reasonable cause to believe that the possession constitutes a crime or rule violation. General searches of school property may be conducted at any time. Search of an area assigned to a student should be for a specific item and in the student's presence. Illegal items and possessions determined to be a threat to the safety of others or to be used to disrupt or interfere with the educational process may be seized or temporarily removed from the student's possession by school authorities.

Any section of this document found by adjudication to be contrary to law or constitutional right shall be stricken without effect to the remainder.

II. Due Process

SUSPENSION HEARING

In cases of suspension for more than five days, a student must be given an opportunity for a hearing if desired by the student or his/her parent or guardian.

A hearing shall be conducted by a hearing authority designated by the local board, who shall make a determination solely on evidence presented at the hearing.

NOTICE

The student and parent or guardian: shall receive written notice of charges; shall be requested to be present at hearing; may be represented by legal counsel. The student shall have the opportunity to give his/her version of the facts, to offer the testimony of other witnesses and other evidence, to be present when evidence is offered against him/her and to question any witness.

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

Written minutes shall be kept of the hearing. The hearing authority shall produce a written statement of his/her findings to be sent to the student, his/her parent or guardian, and the local board.

The decision of the hearing officer may be appealed to the local board.

III. Debarments and Suspensions.

SUSPENSION

The principal may suspend the student from the building for the remainder of the day or, pending a conference with parents or guardians, for a period of five days or less. A student may also be suspended from participation in school-sponsored activities. Such actions may be reviewed by the superintendent.

A student suspended for a period in excess of five days must be offered an opportunity for a hearing described above.

EXPULSION

IV. Expulsion is the dismissal of a student. The hearing process shall be followed for all such cases unless rendered impossible by the student or waived by the student or his/her parent or guardian.

REGULATIONS

Hearings by the school board on the expulsion of minor students shall be private, unless a public hearing is requested by the student or his/her parent or guardian. HEARING

". . . [T]he following shall not be made public: (a) the student's name; (b) the issue; (c) the discussion; (d) the school board members' vote on the issue."

§332.105

"District school boards may establish rules for the government of the schools and pupils consistent with the rules" of the state board.

§336.620

Solicitation from students in public schools or on public school grounds is not allowed for any purpose unless authorized by the district school board.

§339.240

"The State Board of Education . . . shall prepare and promulgate to all school districts minimum standards for pupil conduct and discipline and for rights and procedures pertaining thereto that are consistent with orderly operation of the educational processes and with fair hearing requirements." RULEMAKING

"Every district school board shall adopt and attempt to give the widest possible distribution of copies of reasonable written rules regarding pupil conduct, discipline and rights and procedures pertaining thereto. Such rules must comply with minimum standards promulgated by the State Board of Education. . . ."

§339.250

"Public school pupils shall comply with rules for the government of such schools, pursue the prescribed course of study, use the prescribed textbooks and submit to the teachers' authority."

"The district school board may authorize the discipline, suspension or expulsion of any refractory pupil."

"Wilful disobedience, open defiance of a teacher's authority or the use of profane or obscene language is sufficient cause for discipline, suspension or expulsion from school."

EXPULSION

"Expulsion of a pupil shall not extend beyond the current term or semester unless the semester ends within such a short period of time that the expulsion would be too short to be effective. However, the expulsion shall not extend beyond the second term or semester."

"Following expulsion of a pupil . . . a district school board may propose alternative programs of instruction or counseling, or both, for the pupil."

§339.260

A pupil may be disciplined, suspended or expelled for wilfully damaging or injuring any school property or threatening or wilfully injuring a fellow pupil or faculty member.

§339.270

The amount of damage to school property "may be assessed against the pupil wilfully causing the damage and against the [person] having legal custody of the pupil.

REGULATIONS

§581-21-050--075

School district boards shall prepare written rules of pupil conduct and discipline that shall include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following topics:

student assembly; dress and grooming; motorized and non-motorized vehicles; search and seizure; attendance; freedom of expression; alcohol, drugs and tobacco; physical discipline; student records; discipline, suspension, and expulsion. "School district rules shall include statements on student rights, responsibilities, and conditions which create a need for these rules."

"Students shall comply with the written rules of the school district board, pursue the prescribed course of study, submit to the lawful authority of teachers and school officials and conduct themselves in an orderly fashion."

Students shall be liable todiscipline, suspension, or expulsion for misconduct, including: theft, disruption of the school, destruction of school property, unlawful use of drugs or alcohol, and persistent failure to comply with the rules.

"School district boards shall establish fair and reasonable procedures for discipline, suspension or expulsion. Those that choose to allow physical discipline shall develop procedures and controls which provide reasonable protection for students, parents, and school personnel."

SUSPENSION

Students may be suspended for misconduct. Their parents shall be notified of the suspension and appeal procedures. Emergency situations are limited to instances where a serious risk of substantial harm will occur if suspension does not take place immediately. The district school board shall have the right of final review if the action is not taken by the school board itself. School district boards shall limit suspensions to a specific maximum number of days. That maximum shall not exceed seven calendar days.

HEARING

Students shall not be expelled without a hearing unless the student is over 18, or the parent or guardian waives the right to a hearing.

NOTICE

Notice shall be given to the student and the parent or guardian, by personal service.

HEARING

REVIEW

The hearing may be conducted by the school district board or by a hearing officer. Interpreters may be provided if the English language is not spoken. The student may be represented [illegible] counsel or other persons.

The local district board shall review the discussion of the hearings officer and may affirm, modify or reverse the decision.

The widest possible distribution of rules of pupil conduct and discipline shall be given in order that students may understand the expectations of the district. Attempts should be made to give each student a copy of current rules. School districts shall make these rules available to the general public upon request.

HEARING

§13-1319

CONFIDENTIALITY

No guidance counselor, school nurse, school psychologist, or home and school visitor in the schools who has acquired information from a student in confidence "shall be compelled or allowed without the consent of the student" or his/her parents to disclose that information in any legal proceeding.

Notwithstanding this confidentiality provision, no such person shall be excused or prevented from complying with the "act relating to gross physical neglect of, or injury to, children under eighteen years of age.

If any child's bad conduct makes his/her presence detrimental to the welfare of such school, the board of directors may, by its superintendent or attendance officer, proceed against the child before the juvenile court.

REGULATIONS

§ 12.2

Student responsibilities include regular school attendance, conscientious effort in classroom work, and conformance to school rules and regulations. Students share with the administration and faculty a responsibility to develop a climate within the school that is conducive to wholesome learning and living.

It is the responsibility of each student to respect the rights of other students, teachers, administrators, and all others who are involved in the educational process. Students should express their ideas and opinions in a respectful manner so as not to offend or slander others.

It is students' responsibility to be aware of all rules and regulations for student behavior and conduct themselves accordingly; to be willing to volunteer information in matters relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the school community and the protection of school property; to dress and groom themselves so as to meet fair standards of safety and health and not to substantially disrupt the educational process; to assume that until a rule is waived, altered, or repealed, it is in full effect; to assist the school staff in operating a safe school; to be aware of and comply with state and local laws; to exercise proper care when using public facilities and equipment; to attend school daily, except when excused, and be on time at all classes and school functions; to make all necessary arrangements for making up work when absent from school; to attempt to complete satisfactorily the courses of study prescribed by state and local school authorities; and to avoid inaccuracies in student newspapers or publications and indecent or obscene language.

§ 12.3

RULEMAKING

The school board has the authority to make reasonable and necessary rules governing the conduct of students in school. The rule-making power must operate within statutory and constitutional restraints. A school board has only those powers which are enumerated in the laws of the State, or which may reasonably be implied or necessary for the orderly operation of the school.

School boards may not make rules which are arbitrary, capricious, or outside their grant of authority from the General Assembly. Their rules must stand the test of fairness and reasonableness. A rule is generally considered reasonable if it uses a rational means of accomplishing some legitimate school purpose. School rules are assumed to be "reasonable" until they are rescinded or waived. Students, therefore, should obey school rules while working through channels to help change those of which they do not approve.

§ 12.5

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Corporal punishment may be administered by teachers and school officials to discipline students when authorized by, and in accordance with policies and guidelines established by, the board of school directors. Only reasonable force may be used and under no circumstances shall a student be punished in such a manner as to cause bodily injury.

Where corporal punishment is authorized, school officials shall notify all parents of the policy. If parents have notified school authorities that such disciplinary method is prohibited, it may not be administered. But even if a parent or school board prohibits corporal punishment, reasonable force may be used by teachers and school authorities to quell a disturbance, to obtain possession of weapons or other dangerous objects, for the purpose of self-defense or for the protection of persons or property.

Corporal punishment shall never be administered in the heat of anger. No disciplinary action should exceed in degree the seriousness of the offense. Students shall not be required to remove clothing when being punished.

§ 12.6

EXCLUSION
SUSPENSION

The board of school directors shall publish the types of offenses that would lead to exclusion from school. Exclusion from school may be by temporary suspension, full suspension, or expulsion.

Temporary suspension: Exclusion for an offense for a period of up to three school days, by the principal, without a hearing, in accordance with policies of the board of school directors.

HEARING

Full suspension: Exclusion for an offense for a period of up to 10 school days, after an informal hearing before the principal is offered to the student and the student's parents, in accordance with the board of school directors' established policies.

EXPULSION

Expulsion: Exclusion from school for an offense for a period exceeding ten school days and may be permanent expulsion from the school rolls.

NOTICE

No student may receive a temporary suspension unless he/she has been informed of the reasons for the suspension and has been given an opportunity to respond. All full suspensions require a prior informal hearing, and all expulsions require a prior formal hearing.

The maximum period a student may be suspended shall not exceed ten school days. A temporary suspension may be followed by a full suspension for the same offense, provided that the 10 school days limitation is not exceeded.

During the period prior to the temporary or full suspension or the hearing and decision of the board of school directors in an expulsion case, the student shall be placed in his/her normal class.

Students shall be permitted to make up exams and work missed while being disciplined by suspension, within the board of school directors' established guidelines.

EXAMINATION

If, when expulsion proceedings are initiated, it is determined, after an informal hearing, that a student's presence in his/her normal class would constitute a threat to the health, safety, morale, or welfare of others, and it is not possible to hold a formal hearing within the period of a full suspension, the student may be excluded from school for more than ten school days, provided the formal hearing is not unreasonably delayed. Any student so excluded shall be provided with alternative instruction.

Students who are less than 17 years of age are subject to compulsory school attendance laws even though expelled and must attend school. The responsibility for placing the student in school rests initially with the student's parents or guardian, but, if the student is unable to attend another school, the student's school district has the responsibility to make some provision for the child's education, either through instruction in the home or by readmitting the child. If none of these alternatives is acceptable, the school district must take action in accordance with the provisions of the Juvenile Act to insure that the child will receive a proper education.

§ 12.8

Education is a fundamental right and students must be afforded all appropriate elements of due process if they are to be excluded from school. In a case involving a possible expulsion, the student is entitled to a formal hearing.

HEARING

A formal hearing may be held before the board of school directors or a duly authorized committee of the board, preferably composed of no fewer than three members of the school board. The hearing committee's decision is advisory to the school board where expulsion is recommended. A majority vote of the entire school board is required to expel a student.

At the formal hearing, the following due process requirements are to be observed:

NOTICE

(1) Notification of the charges in writing, sent to the parents or guardian by certified mail and to the student.

(2) Sufficient notice of the time and place of the hearing.

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

(3) The right to an impartial tribunal.

(4) The right to be represented by counsel.

(5) The right to be presented with the names of witnesses against the student and copies of the statements and affidavits of those witnesses.

(6) The right to demand that any such witnesses appear in person and answer questions or be cross-examined.

(7) The student's right to testify and produce witnesses on his own behalf.

(8) A record must be kept of the hearing by a stenographer or by tape recorder. The student is entitled at his/her expense to a copy of the transcript.

(9) The proceeding must be held with all reasonable speed.

The hearing shall be held in private if so requested by the student or his/her parents. If the student is dissatisfied with the results of the hearing, recourse can be had to the appropriate state court. If it is alleged that a constitutional issue is involved, the student may file a claim for relief in the appropriate federal district court.

The purpose of informal hearings is to enable the student to meet with the appropriate school official to explain the circumstances surrounding the event for which the student is being suspended, to demonstrate that there is a case of mistaken identity, or to show that there is some compelling reason why the student should not be suspended. The informal hearing also encourages the student's parents or guardian to meet with the principal to discuss ways by which future offenses can be avoided.

At the informal hearing, the following due process requirements are to be observed:

(1) Notification of the reasons for suspension in writing, given to the parents or guardian and to the student.

(2) Sufficient notice of the time and place of the informal hearing.

(3) The right to cross-examine any witnesses.

(4) The student's right to speak and produce witnesses on his own behalf.

§ 12.9

Students have the right to express themselves in any manner unless such expression directly interferes with the educational process, threatens immediate harm to the welfare of the school or community or encourages unlawful activity, or interferes with another individual's rights.

Students may use publications, handbills, announcements, assemblies, armbands, and any other means of common communications, provided that use of public school communications facilities shall be in accordance with the regulations of the authority in charge of those facilities. Students have the responsibility to obey laws governing libel and obscenity and to be aware of their feelings and opinions of others and to give others a fair opportunity to express their views.

School authorities may restrict the use of certain bulletin boards to school announcements, but bulletin board space shall be provided for the use of students and student organizations with the following general limitations:

School officials shall prohibit material which is obscene according to current legal definitions, which is libelous or which inflames or incites students so as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of unlawful acts or of physical disruption of the orderly operation of the school.

Identification on any posted notice may be required of a student or student group, including the name of at least one person of the group posting such notice.

School officials may require that notices or other communications be officially dated before posting, and that they be removed after a prescribed reasonable time to assure full access to the bulletin boards.

School newspapers and publications shall conform with the following:

Students have the responsibility to refrain from libel and obscenity, and to observe the rules for responsible journalism. Within these bounds, students have a right and are as free as editors of other newspapers to report the news and to editorialize.

School officials should supervise student run newspapers published with school equipment and remove obscene or libelous material, as well as edit material that would cause a substantial disruption or material interference with school activities. School officials may not censor or restrict material simply because it is critical of the school or its administration. School rules for prior submission for review of obscene, libelous material and material advocating illegal actions should be reasonable and not calculated to delay distribution. Any prior approval procedures should identify to whom the material is to be submitted, the criteria by which the material is to be evaluated and a limitation on the time within which a decision must be made. If the prescribed time for approval elapses without a decision, the literature shall be considered as authorized for distribution.

Students who are not members of the newspaper staff and other members of the school community, should have access to its pages. The criteria for submission of material by non-staff members should be published and distributed to all students. Staff members shall be held responsible for materials which are libelous or obscene, and such publications may be prohibited.

The constitutional right of freedom of speech guarantees the freedom of public school students to publish on their own materials other than those sanctioned by the school. The school has no responsibility to assist students or to provide publishing facilities for such materials nor may the school be responsible for any statements published in them.

The newspaper staff members themselves have sole responsibility for any statements published. Unofficial publications have moral and legal obligations to observe the rules of responsible journalism.

"Students have the right to distribute leaflets, newspapers and other printed material adjacent to school property without any restriction by school authorities. However, the school board of directors has the right to have printed material submitted to the appropriate school official prior to distribution within the school for the purpose of determining whether distribution would result in substantial disruption of or material interference with school activities. The rules for prior submission must be specific, reasonable and not calculated to delay distribution unduly. Before distribution can be denied, the threat of disturbance must be real and not immaterial. Also, the board must have rules to protect those who distribute materials in a peaceful and lawful manner. Threats by other students should not lead a school board to prohibit lawful distribution."

"The school board of directors may set forth the time and place of distribution so that distribution would not materially and substantially interfere with the requirements of appropriate discipline in the operation of the school. A proper time and place set for distribution is one which would give the students the opportunity to reach fellow students. The place of such activity may be restricted to permit the normal flow of traffic within the school and at exterior doors. The school board may require that all printed matter and petitions distributed on school property bear the name of the sponsoring organization and the name of one individual of such organization."

The wearing of buttons, badges or arm bands bearing slogans and sayings shall be permitted as another form of expression unless the message falls within given restrictions.

School officials shall adopt and publish guidelines for student use of school facilities and equipment.

§12.11

". . . For regulations on hair length to be valid, the school board must show that there is an overriding public purpose to be served by limiting students' rights to appear in school with long hair. Such justification might include evidence that long hair causes an actual disruption of the educational process, or that the length or style of hair constitutes a health or safety hazard, but only after the fact, and not in the form of prior restraints. Where length of hair is a problem, as in shop class, some type of head covering should be considered. The student's right to govern the length of his/her hair includes facial hair. . . .

A school board or school officials may not impose limitations on dress in which fashion or taste is the sole consideration, even if a majority of students have approved a student dress code. A student may not be excluded from regular instruction because of his/her appearance, if style, fashion or taste is the sole criterion for such exclusion. Students may be required, however, to wear certain types of clothing while participating in physical education classes, or in extracurricular activities such as band. Students have the responsibility to keep themselves, their clothes and hair clean. School boards may not forbid the reasonable use of cosmetics."

§12.14

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

School authorities may search a student's locker, seize any illegal materials and use the materials as evidence against the student in disciplinary, juvenile or criminal proceedings. When a student's locker is being searched, the student shall be notified and given an opportunity to be present.

". . . School lockers are school property loaned or rented to the student for the student's convenience. School authorities may search the student's locker without prior warning in seeking contraband, because, standing in loco parentis, school authorities are charged with the safety of all students under their care and supervision. Such a search is not an "illegal" search under the Fourth Amendment to the Federal Constitution, but a reasonable exercise of board power in the interests of the health, welfare and safety of all school students. Courts have reasoned that the school extend locker use to students only for legitimate purposes."

§12.15

The following are recommended guidelines suggesting directions school districts may take as local stiuations permit:

School officials should consider offering alternatives to study halls, giving students greater flexibility to spend their noninstructional time in a manner of their own choosing, as long as such use does not interfere with the operation of the school. Providing areas for recreation or for research and study during a study hall is recommended where such areas are available.

Regulations should be established and class schedules arranged so that some students may attend school to earn their diplomas, and be able to take off part of the school day to hold down a job. A policy by which free public education is offered on an all or nothing basis requiring the student to report in the morning and stay through the afternoon, severely restricts the ability of students, who must support themselves or who have families to support, to receive an education.

It is the right of any student to question, examine and debate any issue relating to the world or the functions and proposals of his school, such as discipline, scheduling and school policy. Every student has the right to expect a direct and reasonable answer to the questions raised. It is the student's responsibility to ask these questions in the proper time and place, to state the question in a clear manner and to be brief. It is the school's responsibility to provide a proper forum for such questions.

School officials should seek the advice and opinions of students on curriculum planning. The quality of that advice depends on the student's age, grade, maturity and sophistication and the level and complexities of courses. Even if the students at a particular point are not skilled in content or curriculum design, they are the customer and the consumer, and their opinions as to impact or probable import of courses, course material and procedures can be extremely important and deserve careful analysis and full consideration. A constructive means of involving students in the planning and evaluation of curriculum and instruction is a Community Advisory Committee composed of parents, students, faculty, administration, and board or board appointed representatives established in each school district in the Commonwealth to assist school officials in developing new, relevant and useful course offerings.

Before making policies affecting students, school boards should seek the views of students who would be affected. Students should have an opportunity to be heard by their school board and to participate to a degree in its deliberations. It is recommended that the students, through their student governments and their principal, have the right to petition and can be heard by the school board on issues affecting the student body at large, preferably through a representative who should be the student government leader; and that the school board reserve time, when requested, at school board meetings to hear such a representative. School boards should also consider innovative approaches to increasing student understanding and involvement in the administration of the school district, i.e., student representation in an advisory capacity on the school board.

Students should be free to establish and be encouraged to participate in student government that provides all students a voice in school affairs through a representative system. Student government should represent the interests of the students in the formulation of school policies, curriculum development and disciplinary procedures, in a cooperative effort with the school faculty and administration. Students should be permitted to participate in the conception and development of the charter for their student government subject to administration and school board approval. The charter should establish policies concerning the purposes of the organiation, the rules for conducting elections and campaigns including provisions insuring nondiscriminatory practice, the degree to which the student body has power to allocate student activity funds and the extent of the organization's access to the school's communications resources within guidelines established by the school board of directors.

Procedures for the establishment of student organizations should be adopted. Any group of students which has an approved faculty sponsor should be permitted to establish an organization that may make use of school facilities. Student organizations should not advocate or be formed for illegal purposes, nor may they discriminate against applicants in terms of race, creed, sex or national origin.

Rules and regulations should be published and distributed to the students or posted in prominent locations throughout the school. Students should be involved in the formulation of those rules and regulations. Offenses resulting in suspension up to 10 days should be delegated to the administration to be developed in school codes. All offenses should be considered on an individual basis. Other means of discipline, such as in-school or after-school detentions, should be considered before suspension or expulsion. Special consideration should be given to in or out of school counseling as an alternative to or out of school counseling as an alternative to or in conjunction with punishments. The only work students should be required to perform for the school as punishment would be that work related to the student's offense. Students should not be punished as a group or at large for the offenses of individuals.

Each school district shall adopt a procedure for the resolution of personal concerns of the students and it is recommended that such procedures be established through a cooperative effort with school boards, students, parents, faculty, administrators and community representatives.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

Corporal punishment shall be administered only by a duly authorized official, the principal or the principal's designee. The student should be informed of the nature of the infraction by the principal; there should be a discussion leading to a determination of guilt or innocence, and a speedy administration of punishment, if necessary.

School officials or teachers who receive information in confidence from a student shall only reveal that information if it would be in the child's best interests.

SEARCHES

Students should be informed of the conditions governing the use of school lockers when locker assignments are made. Searches should only be made by an official duly authorized by the principal. The search of a particular locker should only be made upon a reasonable assumption that the student is secreting evidence of an illegal act. Blanket searches of every locker should not be permitted except for an emergency.

A pat down search of a student's person should be done by a school official of the same sex where secondary students are involved.

The extreme health hazards associated with cigarette smoking should be given consideration in regulations regarding smoking on school grounds.

EXPULSION

Expulsions should not be permanent, but the behavior and progress of the expelled student should be reviewed periodically, at least once a year if not once a semester, and a decision should be made by the school board at that time on whether the expulsion is to be continued.

The manner in which printed materials are distributed should be restricted to prevent undue levels of noise, or to prevent the use of coercion in obtaining signatures on petitions. Students engaged in distributing material should be responsible for the cleanup of litter. Distribution is recommended to be done before school after dismissal and during lunch time.

OMBUDSMAN

It is strongly recommended that each school district have an ombudsman who is a properly trained, counseling oriented adult able to relate well with students and school officials. Such a person would serve to represent the views and the interests of the students before school officials and the school board and could also assist in interpreting and clarifying for the students in school policies. The ombudsman could assist in solving problems relating to students by making recommendations, by channeling complaints to appropriate school officials and by bringing to light any injustices that may exist.

ARTICLE IV: STUDENTS (pp. 4-6.1 - 4-6.3)

F. STUDENT RIGHTS

Policy Statement on Student Rights (BE, 6/11/70)

Every student has a responsibility to act always in such a way as not to abrogate the rights of any fellow students or of any school authority and also a responsibility to use his/her own abilities and talents to gain optimum learning benefits.

The State Board of Education urges all school authorities to recognize the following principals of student rights.

Every student has a right to search for truth by examining opposing ideas and to espouse in an orderly manner whatever views command the assent of his/her mind.

Every student has a right always to be treated with respect and courtesy and never to be ridiculed, and also a right to privacy with respect to matters of purely or predominantly personal concern.

Every student has a right not to be disciplined in any substantial manner except under conditions that conform to reasonable standards of due process, and a right, individually or in concert with fellows, to petition in an orderly manner for the redress of grievances.

Every student has a right to participate, to a degree consistent with law and with the level of maturity characteristic of the student's age, in the making of decisions that affect the corporate life of the institutional community, in evaluating the quality of educational services offered, and in shaping his/her own educational program.

It is suggested that local authorities distribute to all parents, students, teachers, and administrators all rules and regulations that are in force with respect to student behavior as well as all procedures to enforce such rules and regulations and to safeguard the rights of those to whom they apply.

ARTICLE IV: STUDENTS (pp 4-6.4 - 4-6.6)

c.3. Regulations for Governing Disciplinary Exclusions of Students from School (BR, 7/8/76)

Each school committee shall establish rules and regulations for the government and discipline of the public schools. The committee shall distribute the discipline code to students and their parents at the beginning of each school year and post it in conspicious places within the school throughout the school year.

RULEMAKING

The student discipline code shall state the types of punishable offenses together with the penalty for the offenses, shall identify which administrative positions are authorized to suspend a student for 10 days or less, and shall prescribe procedures for excluding any student from school.

For suspensions of 10 days or less, the prescribed procedure shall provide as a minimum that: the student shall be given oral or written notice of the charges against him/her; the student shall be given an explanation of the evidence the authorities possess and the opportunity to present his/her version; notice and hearing should precede the student's removal from school, unless the student's presence is too disruptive, thus justifying immediate removal from school; and, if the student has not attained the age of majority, notice concerning the suspension shall be given to the parent or guardian in the parent's spoken language.

SUSPENSION

For suspensions of more than 10 days and expulsions, the prescribed procedure shall provide as a minimum that: prior to suspension or explusion, except when a student's disruptiveness justifies immediate removal, the student or the parent or guardian of a minor student shall be afforded a written statement of the reason for the suspension or expulsion and notice of the right to a hearing and to be represented by counsel; there shall be a complete and accurate record of the hearing of which the student shall be furnished a copy without cost; and a written decision shall be rendered based exclusively on the record and transmitted to the student and to the Commissioner of Education.

EXPULSION

. . . parents . . . as soon as possible after discovery of the alleged misconduct." The notice shall state the nature of the violation and the time and place for a hearing to be conducted by the principal or superintendent. The student will have an opportunity to answer the charges and present evidence in her/his behalf. A decision is to be rendered "as soon as possible."

NOTICE

HEARING

§24:07:03:01 -- 03

If school officials anticipate a long-term suspension (four school days or more) or expulsion because of a student's misconduct, the principal is to prepare a report on all the known details of the incident(s) and the known parties involved and shall file this report with the superintendent by the end of the school day when the discovery of misconduct is made.

SUSPENSION

EXPULSION

If the superintendent deems there are sufficient grounds, she/he shall notify the school board president as soon as possible that a hearing may be necessary.

HEARING

The superintendent shall give notice of hearing within two days after she/he has been notified of the alleged misconduct to each school board member, the student(s) involved and the parents. The notice "shall contain the following minimum information:"

NOTICE

(1) The rule, regulation or policy allegedly violated;

(2) A summary of the current evidence;

(3) A list of proposed witnesses;

(4) A tentative date, time and place for the hearing;

(5) A description of the hearing procedure;

(6) The reason for the disciplinary proceedings;

(7) A statement that the evidence and some of the student's records are available at the school for examination by the student, her/his parents, and his/her representative.

(8) A statement that the student may present witnesses and shall submit to the superintendent prior to the hearing a list of such witnesses and details of the evidence to be presented in the student's behalf.

WAIVER

"The student or [her/his] parents, when applicable, may waive the right to a hearing by written notification to the superintendent at least 24 hours prior to the . . . [pending] hearing." If it's not waived the hearing shall take place at the place and time set forth in the notice unless a change is agreed to by the parties.

§24:07:03:04 -- 06

"The school board shall constitute the hearing board. The presiding board member shall have the authority to limit unproductively long or irrelevant questioning. The hearing shall be open unless a request is made by either party that [it be] closed. The board may provide for making a record of any information orally presented at the hearing and shall provide for such a record when requested by the student.

"The decision of the board must be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing and should state substantial findings of fact on which the board's decision rests.

"An adverse decision to the student by the school board may be appealed to a court of law."

STATUTES

§ 4.22

Possession of any intoxicating beverages at school athletic events is unlawful.

§ 4.23

Loitering upon school property after being warned to leave is a misdemeanor.

§ 4.30

No person shall engage in "disruptive activity" or "disrupt a lawful assembly" on private or public school property. Disruptive activity means (1) obstructing or restraining the passage of persons; (2) seizing control of any portion of a building for the purpose of interfering with any authorized activity; (3) preventing or attempting to prevent by force or violence or the threat of force or violence any lawful assembly authorized by the school administration; (4) preventing or attempting to prevent by force or by threats the ingress or egress of any person to and from the property or campus.

A lawful assembly is disrupted when any person in attendance is rendered incapable of participating in the assembly due to the use of force or violence or due to a reasonable fear that force or violence is likely to occur. Any person who violates this provision and is convicted shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Three convictions for violation of this provision render any person ineligible to attend any school, college, or university receiving State funds for a period of two years.

§ 4.33

Any person who, on school property or on public property within 500 feet of school property, shall "alone or in concert with others" wilfully disrupt the conduct of classes or other school activities shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§11.13

APPEAL

"a) Persons having any matter of dispute among them arising under the school laws . . . or any person aggrieved by the school laws . . . or by actions or decisions of any board . . . may appeal in writing to the commissioner of education, who, after due notice . . . shall hold a hearing and render a decision without cost to the parties involved, but nothing . . . [herein]. . . shall deprive any party of any legal remedy.

b) The decision of the commissioner of education shall be subject to review by the State Board . . .

c) Any person, county or school district aggrieved by any action of the central education agency may appeal to a district court . . .[and] . . . [u]pon trial the court shall determine all issues of law and fact."

§21.301--.308

SUSPENSION

"The board of trustees ... may suspend from the privileges of the schools any pupil found guilty of incorrigible conduct ... [it] shall not extend beyond the current term of the school."

"The school attendance officer shall proceed in juvenile court against any child... who is reported to him as being insubordinate ... [or] render[s] himself an incorrigible."

The judge of the juvenile court may parole such a child,provided a bond in sum not less than $10 is received from the parent or guardian, with the condition that the child comply with all regulations of the school. Any student who violates this parole shall forfeit the bond, and may be once more put on parole, and bonded. If a third infraction of parole should take place, "the judge shall commit the child to a suitable training school...."

If assistance is needed to maintain law and order at any school the board of trustees may seek aid from the Department of Public Safety, and may close the school(s) if the governor, or the board of trustees feel that military force is necessary to prevent violence.

"School ... employees shall continue to receive the salaries provided by the terms of their employment, but ... may be assigned to other duties..." if closure is enacted to maintain law and order.

Under such an instance "neither state aid... nor accreditation" shall be lost. The board of trustees may authorize and provide for the transfer of pupils to another school in the district but compulsory attendance laws shall not be applicable. The local board shall use all means available to provide out-of-classroom instruction for the pupils concerned.

In order to prevent the occupation of any school by military troops the Attorney General is authorized "to assist any public school board which requests his[her] assistance in the defense of any law suit in a federal court which seeks to challenge the constitutionality of a statute...."

When the governing board of any district deems security personnel necessary it may employ such personnel at the expense of the district.

§21.481--.490

"All the general and criminal laws of the state are declared to be in full force ... within the areas under the control and jurisdiction of the board of trustees of any school district in this state."

The board of trustees of any school district may promulgate rules and regulations for the safety of the students and the governance of the school. This includes the operation and parking of vehicles. Violators of set rules are guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction are punishable by a fine of not more than $200.

Personnel for the carrying out of duties related to security on campus may be approved by the board of trustees, and may be commissioned as a peace officer and must meet standards established by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.

"The judge of a municipal court or any justice of the peace ... [has] jurisdiction necessary to hear and determine criminal cases involving violations" of rules and regulations concerning the school district.

The board of trustees, or its authorized representatives, may eject any undesirables from school property, or request proper identification of any person on the property.

Penal Code; Title 2 Ch. 9 §9.62

If an educator, or similarly related actor, is entrusted with the care of a child for a special purpose, and he/she believes force is necessary to further that purpose or to maintain discipline, the state of Texas herein provides for the use of force, but not deadly force, against this child.

Regulations

R.M. Ch. II; p. 86

The State Board recommends that school boards: establish policies setting up channels of communication; for the voicing of student opinion; preserve the right and obligation of staff to present controversial issues fairly and without bias.

Should controversy be prolonged and adversely affect the normal operation of a school or school system; the district superintendant may bring the case to the attention of the Commissioner who may volunteer the good offices of the State Board in resolving the controversy.

R.M. CH. IV.B; pp. 97 -- 98

The State Board recommends that no one student be suspended or expelled from any public school without first being afforded a hearing, unless the presence of the student in the school would present an immediate and substantial threat to the school, in which case the school would conduct a hearing as soon as possible following the suspension.

HEARING

R.M. Ch. IV.H; p. 100

All school boards and personnel shall afford students the full spectrum of their individual rights and liberties guaranteed and afforded to them by the U.S. Constitution. All school boards should undertake to inform students of their rights, liabilities, and responsibilities under the law in a manner consistent with the age and maturity level of the students.

Statutes

§18.2-56

Any person who hazes or mistreats a student at any school so as to cause bodily injury shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor or a felony depending on the extent of the injury.

The student shall have a right to sue, civilly, the person regardless of his/her age.

The presiding officer of the school shall expel any student found guilty of hazing or mistreating another student and shall report the expulsion to the attorney for the area that the school district is located in. The attorney shall report the expulsion to the grand jury in the area.

EXPULSION

§18.2-129

Any person who fails to leave a school after being told to do so by an authorized person shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor. Each day the person remains on the premises shall be a separate offense.

§22-230.1; 22-230.3

Pupils may be suspended for sufficient cause from attendance at school by either the principal or in his/her absence any teacher. The principal or teacher shall report the facts of the case in writing to the division superintendent and parent or guardian of the pupil. Upon a petition for review by any party in interest, the superintendent shall confirm or disapprove the suspension based on an examination of the pupil's behavior. The school board shall make regulations governing suspensions and give a right of appeal to the board from the superintendent's decision.

SUSPENSION

APPEAL

Pupils may be suspended or expelled by the school board for cause. The board shall make regulations governing suspensions and expulsions and give a right of appeal to the full board from a decision by a committee of the board.

Whenever a student under the age of eighteen is expelled, the school board shall notify the appropriate officer of the school the student attended. The officer shall develop a plan of services for the student, and the officer shall contact the welfare department, the court service unit of the juvenile and domestic relations court, or any other public agency where the student resides to determine if the agency can help the student. Any agency helping the student shall report on the progress of the student to the school officer. The officer shall give the reports to the school board.

§22-231.1

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

In the maintenance of order and discipline, and in the exercise of discretion, a principal or a teacher in a public school or a school maintained by the State, may administer reasonable corporal punishment on a pupil under his[her] authority, provided he[she] acts in good faith and such punishment is not excessive.

J. Student Rights and Discipline

Statutes

§28A.04.132

"The state board of education shall adopt . . . lawful and reasonable rules prescribing substantive and procedural due process guarantees of pupils in the common schools." These rules "shall authorize a school district to use informal due process procedures in connection with the short term suspension of students to the extent constitutionally permissable: Provided, that the state board deems the interest of students to be adequately protected."

RULEMAKING

SUSPENSION

§28A.58.101; .011

"Every board of directors . . . shall adopt and make available reasonable written rules and regulations regarding pupil conduct, discipline and rights. Such rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with the law and shall include such substantive and procedural due process guarantees as prescribed by the state board of education. Commencing with the 1976-77 school year, when such rules and regulations are made available to each pupil, teacher and parent, they shall be accompanied by a detailed description of rights, responsibilities and authority of teachers and principals with respect to the discipline of pupils as prescribed by state law."

RULEMAKING

Rules adopted pursuant to the above section are to "insure that the optimum learning atmosphere of the classroom is maintained."

§28A.58.200

"All pupils who attend the common schools shall comply with the rules and regulations . . . of the school, shall pursue the required courses of studies, and shall submit to the authority of the teachers of such schools, subject to such disciplinary or other action as the local school officials shall determine."

§28A.58.201

"Within each school the school principal shall determine that appropriate student discipline is established and enforced.

§28A.67.100

"Every teacher shall have the power to hold every pupil to a strict accountability for any disorderly or anti-social conduct on the way to and from school or while under his supervision and to make recommendations to the proper school authority for the suspension of any pupil upon probable cause therefor.

SUSPENSION

§28A.87.010

TEACHER ABUSE

"Any person who shall insult or abuse a teacher anywhere on school premises while such teacher is carrying out his[her] official duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

§28A.87.060

A person who creates a "wilful disturbance on school premises during school hours or at school activities . . . or meetings shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

§28A.87.120

SUSPENSION

"Any pupil who shall deface or otherwise injure any school property shall be liable to suspension and punishment. The parent or guardian of such pupil shall be liable for damages as otherwise provided by law."

§28A.87.140

STUDENT ABUSE

"Any teacher who . . . maltreats or abuses any pupil by administering any unreasonable punishment, or who . . . inflicts punishment on the head of a pupil, upon conviction thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

§28A.87.230-.233

It is unlawful for a person . . . to "interfere or intimidate by threat of force or violence" any administrator, teacher or student engaged in the peaceful discharge of . . . his[her] duties or studies." Violation of the above is a "gross misdemeanor."

§180-40-200

The purpose of this chapter is to prescribe the substantive and procedural due process rights of students. The procedures and standards set forth here and those adopted by a school district in conformance with this chapter shall govern the imposition of corrective action or punishment ... upon any student by a school district and its agents.

"The[se] provisions ... are intended to establish the minimum procedural and substantive due process rights of students. School districts are free to establish additional due process requirements and limitations ...."

§180-40-205

"(1) 'Discipline' shall mean all forms of corrective action or punishment other than suspension and expulsion ....

"(2) 'Suspension' shall mean a denial of attendance (other than for the balance of the immediate class, subject, or activity period for 'discipline' purposes) at any single subject or class, or ... schedule of subjects or classes, or at any other type of activity conducted by or in behalf of a school district and any combination of the foregoing, for a stated period of time. A suspension also may include a denial of admission to or entry upon ... property that is ... controlled by the school district."

SUSPENSION

(3) 'Short-term suspension' shall mean a suspension for any portion of a calendar day up to and not exceeding five consecutive calendar days.

(4) 'Long-term suspension' shall mean a suspension which exceeds five consecutive calendar days.

EXPULSION

"(5) 'Expulsion' shall mean a denial of attendance at any single subject or class or at any full schedule of subjects or classes, a denial of attendance at any other type of activity conducted by or in behalf of a school district, and any combination of the foregoing for an indefinite period of time. An expulsion also may include a denial of admission to or entry upon ... property that is ... controlled by the school district."

§180-40-210

"The school system is to provide learning experience which will assist all students to develop skills, competiencies, and attitudes that are fundamental to an individual's achievement as a responsible, contributing citizen. In order to maintain and advance this mission, it shall be the responsiblity and duty of each student to pursue his or her course of studies, comply with written rules of a common school district ... and submit to reasonable corrective action or punishment imposed by a school district and its agents for violation(s) of such rules. This chapter is intended to assure that corrective action or punishment is imposed for just cause and in a fair and just manner."

§180-40-215

"In addition to other rights established by law, each student ... shall possess the following substantive rights, and no school district shall limit these rights except for good and sufficient cause:

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

(1) No student shall be unlawfully denied an equal educational opportunity or be unlawfully discriminated against because of national origin, race, religion, economic status, sex, pregnancy, marital status, previous arrest, previous incarceration, or a physical, mental or sensory handicap.

(2) All students possess the constitutional right to freedom of speech and press and ... to peaceably assemble and to petition the government and its representatives for a redress of grievances, subject to reasonable limitations upon the time, place, and manner of exercising such rights.

(3) All students possess the constitutional right to be secure in their persons, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures.

(4) All students shall have the right to be free from unlawful interference in their pursuit of an education ....

(5) No student shall be deprived of the right to an equal education opportunity in whole or in part by a school district without due process of law."

§180-40-220

DISCIPLINARY BOARDS

SUSPENSION

EXPULSION

"The [local] board of directors ... may authorize the establishment of ... student disciplinary boards composed of students, teachers, administrators, or parents, or any combination thereof. Disciplinary boards may be authorized to prescribe reasonable discipline and may recommend, but not prescribe, suspension or expulsion to the appropriate school authority. Such school authority shall be granted the power to set aside or modify any such prescription or recommendation. In addition, disciplinary boards may be authorized to periodically review rules of the school district defining the types of misconduct for which corrective action or punishment may be imposed and to recommend amendments thereto to the board of directors."

§180-40-225

RULEMAKING

"(1) It shall be the responsiblity and duty of each school district to adopt, publish, and make available to all students and parents written rules which state with reasonable clarity the types of misconduct for which discipline, suspension, and expulsion may be imposed.

(2) [Such] rules ... must have a real and substantial relationship to the lawful maintenance and operation of the school district including, ...

the preservation of the health and safety of students and employees and the preservation of an educational process which is conducive to learning.

(3) The rules ... shall be published and made available to all students and parents on an annual basis. If a school district chooses not to distribute such rules to all students and parents, then notice which describes the contents of such rules and specifies the person(s) to contact for a copy thereof shall be provided to students and parents on an annual basis in a manner reasonably calculated to come to their attention."

§180-40-230

"(1) Each certificated teacher, each school administrator, each school bus driver, and any other school employee designated by the board of directors ... shall possess the authority to impose discipline ... for misconduct which violates [established] rules ... and to impose an emergency removal from a class, subject, or activity ....

DISCIPLINE

(2) The board of directors ... delegate ... the authority to impose suspensions and expulsions .... Each certificated teacher and each administrator shall possess the authority to recommend suspensions and expulsions for such misconduct.

SUSPENSION
EXPULSION

(3) [All] board of directors ... shall be subject to the requirements set forth in this chapter when it imposes a suspension or expulsion."

§180-40-235

"Discipline may be imposed ... for violation of the [established] rules of the school district ... subject to the following limitations and conditions and the grievance procedure set forth in WAC 180-40-240:

(1) No form of discipline shall be enforced in such a manner as to prevent a student from accomplishing specific academic grade, subject, or graduation requirements.

(2) A student's academic grade ... in a particular subject ... may be adversely affected by reason of tardiness or absences only to the extent and upon the basis that:

(a) The student's attendance and/or participation is related to the instructional objectives or goals of the particular subject or course, and

(b) The student's attendance and/or participation has been identified by the teacher pursuant to policy of the school district as a basis for grading, in whole or in part, in the particular subject or course.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

(3) Corporal punishment shall be administered ... outside the view of other students and only by a certificated employee in the presence of and witnessed by another school district employee. Such witness shall be informed beforehand and in the student's presence of the reason(s) for the infliction of corporal punishment.

(4) No cruel and unusual form of corporal punishment shall be inflicted upon any student.

(5) Only reasonable and moderate force shall be applied to a student and no form of corporal punishment shall be inflicted upon the head of a student.

(6) Parents or guardians, upon their request, shall be provided a written explanation of the reason(s) for the infliction of corporal punishment and the name of the witness who was present at the time corporal punishment was administered."

REGULATIONS

§180-40-240

" Any student, parent, or guardian who is aggrieved by the imposition of discipline shall have the right to an informal conference with the building principal ... for the purpose of resolving the grievance. The employee whose action is being grieved shall be notified of the initiation of a grievance as soon as reasonably possible. During such conference the student, parent, or guardian shall be subject to questioning by the building principal ... and shall be entitled to question school personnel involved in the matter .... Subsequent to the . . grievance meeting, the student, parent, or guardian, upon two school business days' prior notice, shall have the right to present a ... grievance to the superintendent of the district .... If the grievance is not resolved, the student, parent, or guardian, upon two school business days' prior notice, shall have the right to present a ... grievance to the board of directors during the board's next regular meeting. The board shall notify the student, parent, or guardian of its response to the grievance within ten school business days .... The discipline action shall continue notwithstanding the implementation of the grievance procedure ... unless the principal ... elects to postpone such action."

§ 180-40-245

SUSPENSION

"A short-term suspension may be imposed ... for violation of school district rules ... subject to the following limitations or conditions:

(1) The nature and circumstances of the violation must reasonably warrant a short-term suspension and the length of the suspension imposed.

(2) No student shall be suspended unless other forms of corrective action or punishment ... have failed or unless there is good reason to believe that other forms of corrective action or punishment would fail if employed.

(3) Kindergarten through grade four - No student in grades kindergarten through four shall be subject to short-term suspensions for more than a total of five school days during any single semester or trimester ... and no loss of academic grades or credit shall be imposed by reason of the suspension of such a student.

(4) Grade five and above program - No student in the grade five and above program shall be subjected to short-term suspensions for more than a total of 15 school days during any single trimester,....

(5) Any student subject to a short-term suspension shall be provided the opportunity ... to make up assignments and tests missed by reason of the short-term suspension if: (a) such assignments or tests have a substantial effect upon the student's ... grades, or (b) failure to complete such assignments or tests would preclude the student from receiving credit for the course or courses.

(6) Any student who has been suspended shall be allowed to make application for readmission at any time."

§ 180-40-250

NOTICE

"(1) Prior to the short-term suspension ... a conference shall be conducted with the student as follows:

(a) [N]otice of the alleged misconduct and violation(s) of school district rules shall be provided to the student,

(b) An...explanation of the evidence in support of the allegation(s) shall be provided to the student,

(c) An ... explanation of the corrective action or punishment which may be imposed shall be provided to the student, and

(d) The student shall be provided the opportunity to present his or her explanation.

(2) [If] a short-term suspension is to exceed one calendar day the parent(s) ... shall be notified of the reason for the student's suspension and the duration of the suspension ... as soon as reasonably possible. The notice shall also inform the parent ... of the right to an informal conference ....

(3) All short-term suspensions and the reasons therefore shall be reported in writing to the superintendent ... within twenty-four hours after imposition of the suspension."

§180-40-255

" Any student, parent, or guardian who is aggrieved by the ... short-term suspension shall have the right to an informal conference with the building principal ... for the purpose of resolving the grievance. The employee whose action is being grieved shall be notified of the initiation of a grievance .... [T]he student, parent, or guardian shall be subject to questioning by the building principal ... and shall be entitled to question school personnel involved in the matter being grieved. Subsequent to the ... meeting, the student, parent, or guardian, upon two school business days' prior notice, shall have the right to present a ... grievance to the superintendent of the district. If the grievance is not resolved, the student, parent, or guardian, upon two school business days' prior notice, shall have the right to present a ... grievance to the board of directors during the board's regular meeting. The board shall notify the student, parent, or guardian of its response to the grievance within ten school business days .... The short-term suspension shall continue notwithstanding the implementation of the grievance procedure ... unless the principal or his or her designee elects to postpone such action."

GRIEVANCE

§180-40-260

" A long-term suspension may be imposed ... for violation of school district rules ... subject to the following limitations or conditions and the notice requirements set forth in WAC 180-40-265 and the hearing requirements set forth in WAC 180-40-270:

SUSPENSION

(1) [T]he violation must reasonably warrant a long-term suspension and the length of the suspension imposed.

(2) No student shall be suspended unless other forms of corrective action or punishment ... have failed or unless there is good reason to believe ... [they] ... would fail if employed.

(3) Kindergarten through grade four -- No student in grades kindergarten through four shall be subject to short-term and long-term suspensions for more than a total of ten school days during any single semester or trimester, ... and no loss of academic grades or credit shall be imposed by reason of the suspension of such a student.

(4) Grade five and above program -- No single long-term suspension shall be imposed upon a student in the grade five and above program in a manner which causes the student to lose academic grades or credit for in excess of one semester or trimester, during the same school year.

(5) Any student who has been suspended shall be allowed to make applicaton for readmission at any time. READMISSION

(6) All long-term suspensions and the reasons therefore shall be reported in writing to the superintendent ... within twenty-four hours after the imposition of the suspension."

(5) [R]ecord of the hearing shall be made.

(6) Within one school business day after the date upon which the hearing concludes, a decision as to whether or not the expulsion shall be continued shall be rendered, and ... the student and his or her parent(s) or guardian(s) shall be notified thereof.... The decision shall set forth the findings of fact and the conclusions of law.

(7) An emergency expulsion may be continued ... on the basis that the emergency situation continues and/or as corrective action or punishment for the action(s) giving rise to the emergency expulsion in the first instance."

§180-40-310

APPEAL

"Appeals from decisions ... which impose either a long-term suspension or an expulsion upon a student shall be governed as follows:

(1) If the case was not heard and decided by the school district board of directors, the student ... shall have the right to appeal the decision to the board ..... Notice indicating that the student ... has a right to appeal shall be provided ... within three school business days after ... receipt of the decision.

(2) If an appeal is not taken ... within the required three school business day period, the suspension or expulsion decided upon may be imposed ....

(3)If a timely appeal is taken ... the imposition of the suspension or expulsion shall not be imposed until the appeal is decided: PROVIDED, That an emergency expulsion that is continued ... need not be either interrupted or stayed if the decision rended includes a conclusion that the student continues to pose an immediate and continuing danger ... or an immediate and continuing threat of substantial disruption of the educational process of the student's school.

(4) An appeal from any decision of a school board to impose or to affirm the imposition of a long-term suspension or an expulsion shall be to the courts. Whether or not the decision of a school board shall be postponed pending an appeal to superior court shall be discretionary with the school board except as ordered otherwise by a court."

§ 180-40-315

APPEAL

"If a notice of appeal to the school board of directors is received ... within the required ... [period] ... the board shall schedule and hold an informal conference to review the matter .... The purpose of the meeting shall be to ... decide upon the most appropriate means of disposing of the appeal ... At that time the student ... shall be given the right to be heard and shall be granted the opportunity to present such witnesses and testimony as the board deems reasonable. The board shall agree to one of the following procedures prior to adjournment or recess: (a) Study the hearing record ... and render its decision within ten... days after the date of the informal conference, or

(b) Schedule and hold a meeting to hear further arguments based on the record before the board and render its decision within fifteen... days after the date of the informal conference, or

(c) Schedule and hold a meeting within ten ... days after the date of the informal conference for the purpose of hearing the case de novo.

(2) In the event the school board ... elects to hear the appeal de novo, the following rights and procedures shall govern the proceedings:

(a) The student ... shall have the right to:

(i) inspect in advance ... evidence which the school district intends to introduce at the hearing,

(ii) question and confront witnesses,

(iii) present his or her explanation of the alleged misconduct, and

(iv) make such relevant showings by way of witnesses and the introduction of documentary and other physical evidence as he or she desires,

(b) The designee(s) ... assigned to present the district's case shall have the right to inspect in advance ... any ... evidence that the student ... intend(s) to introduce at the hearing, and

(c) [R]ecord of the hearing shall be made."

§180-40-320

" Any decision by a school board ... to impose or to affirm, reverse, or modify the imposition of discipline, suspension, or expulsion upon a student shall be made:"

(1) Only by those board members who have heard or read the evidence.

(2) Only by those board members who have not acted as witness in the matter.

(3) Only at a meeting at which a quorum of the board is present and by majority vote.

§21.1-61

"(a) The board of trustees of any school district may suspend or expel any child from the public schools for any reason enumerated by the statuces of this state. The board of trustees may delegate authority to administrative and supervisory personnel to suspend any child for a period not to exceed ten school days; provided that in every such case of suspension or expulsion, oral notice shall be given immediately, if possible, and in addition written notice shall be given within twenty-four hours, to the parents, guardian, or custodian of the child affected, stating the reason for the suspension or expulsion.

SUSPENSION

EXPULSION

(b) No board of trustees may expel any child from school or suspend any child for more than ten days without an opportunity for a hearing, if requested, in accordance with the procedures of the Wyoming Administrative Procedures Act.

HEARING

(c) Suspension or expulsion shall not be imposed as an additional punishment for offenses punishable under the laws of the state, except where the offense was committed at a school function or is of such nature that continuation of the child in school would clearly be detrimental to the welfare, safety, or morals of other pupils. No suspension or expulsion shall be for longer than one school year.

(d) Any decision of the board shall be considered a final decision which may be appealed to the district court of the county in which the school district is located . . . . The court may, on application or its own motion, stay the decision of the board pending appeal, as the best interests of the child appear."

APPEAL

§21.1-62

The following are grounds for suspension or expulsion:

"(a) Continued wilful disobedience or open and persistent defiance of the authority of school personnel.

(b) Wilful destruction or defacing of school property.

(c) Any behavior which in the judgment of the local board of trustees is clearly detrimental to the welfare, safety, or morals of other pupils.

(d) Torturing, tormenting, or abusing a pupil or in any way maltreating a pupil or a teacher with physical violence."

§21.1-64

"(a) Each board of trustees . . . may adopt rules for reasonable forms of punishment and disciplinary measures. Subject to such rules, teachers, principals, and superintendents . . . in such district may impose reasonable forms of punishment and disciplinary measures for insubordination, disobedience, and other misconduct.

PUNISHMENT

(b) No diploma or credit for a course . . . shall be [denied] a pupil who has earned it;" but diplomas and credit are not to be deemed earned until "all indebtedness due to the school district" is paid.

Every citizen "shall have the right to examine" and copy all public records (includes records and documents of any county, city, township, school corporation) unless such records are required to be kept confidential.

§68A.5

The right of a citizen to examine and copy public records "may be enforced by mandamus or injunction."

§290.1 -- .5

"Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the board of directors of any school corporation ... may within thirty days after the rendition of such decision ..., appeal therefrom to the state board of public instruction." The state board will hold a hearing, take testimony, and render a decision which shall be final.

STATUTES

§59-19-510;530;560;570

Any parent or guardian of a school age child who is aggrieved by a decision of the board of trustees regarding school administration has the right to appeal the matter to the county board of education.

APPEAL

"The parties shall be entitled to a prompt and fair hearing by the county board which shall try the matter de novo."

HEARING

A decision of the county board may be appealed to the court of common pleas of the county. The court will try the matter de novo and the record from the county board of education hearing shall be admitted as evidence and considered by the court.

Until the matter has been fully disposed of, no appeal shall act to supercede the order of the board having original jurisdiction of the cause.

Parents of children attending any elementary school twenty miles or more from the nearest population center of the unified district may elect an advisory board of three members. The advisory board may aid or advise the boards of trustees concerning the operation of the elementary school and has the right to present grievances and recommendations at any regular meeting of the board of trustees.

Regulations

Chapter XI: Sec. 4

Each school district shall adopt regulations assuring due process rights of children and their parents, including: RULEMAKING

Written parental, guardian, or surrogate parent approval for child assessment and other special services and instructional programs, and review by them of school district records relevant to the child.

Appointment of a surrogate parent to serve as an advocate of the child's rights when the child's parents or guardians are not known or are unavailable or when the child is a ward of the state.

Opportunity for an impartial due process hearing when parent, guardians or surrogate parents are dissatisfied with decisions involving due process rights or when the school district finds parents, guardians or surrogate parents uncooperative with district recommendations. HEARING

Provision for an independnet assessment at district expense if such challenges cannot be resolved.

Chapter XII; Appendix C: Sec. 9-692.4 -- 9-692.5

In all cases in which a person has the right to inspect public records he may request that he/she be furnished copies for a reasonable fee.

Willful violation of this act shall constitute a misdemeanor, furnishable, upon conviction, by a fine not to exceed $100.00.
